[File No. 32–162]

IN THE MATTER OF NEW YORK STATE ELECTRIC & GAS CORPORATION

ORDER RELATIVE TO ISSUE AND SALE OF NOTE AND PLEDGE

New York State Electric & Gas Corporation, a subsidiary of NY PA NJ Utilities Company, Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, and Associated Gas and Electric Company, registered holding companies, having duly filed with this Commission an application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for exemption from the provisions of section 6 (a) of said Act, of the issue and sale by the applicant to the Rural Electrification Administration of the United States of America, for cash, at its face value, of a 2.73% serial note for $325,000 to be secured by applicant's First Mortgage bonds, 4% Series, due 1965, in a principal amount not to exceed $425,000 (exemption also being sought for the pledge of such bonds for collateral security);

A hearing on said application as amended having been duly held after appropriate notice;[1] the record in this matter having been examined; and the Commission having made and filed its findings herein;

It is ordered, That the issue and sale of such note and the pledge as collateral security of such bonds be and the same hereby are exempted from the provisions of section 6 (a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, subject, however, to the following conditions:

1. That such issue and sale of such note and pledge of the bonds shall be in compliance with the terms and conditions of, and for the purposes represented by, said application as amended, and in compliance with the terms and conditions imposed by the order of the Public Service Commission of New York; and

2. That such exemption shall immediately terminate without further order of this Commission if at any time the authorization of the issue and sale of the note and pledge of the bonds by the Public Service Commission of New York shall be revoked or shall otherwise terminate; and

3. That such bonds shall not be sold except at a bona fide sale by or on behalf of the pledgee or its successors or assigns, to satisfy said note, or by the purchaser at such sale, or by his or its successors or assigns; and

4. That within ten days after the issue and sale of such note and the pledge of the bonds the applicant shall file with this Commission its Certificate of Notification showing that the issue and sale of the note and the pledge of the bonds have been effected in accordance with the terms and conditions of, and for the purposes represented by, said application as amended; and

5. That copies of all reports submitted to the New York State Public Service Commission in connection with the fulfillment of the terms of its order be supplied at the same time to this Commission; and

6. That when all expenses incurred in connection with the issue and sale of such note and the pledge of the bonds shall be actually paid, the applicant shall file a detailed statement of such expenses showing the names of persons or entities to whom such payments were made, the amounts of such payments, and a detailed description of the services rendered in connection with the issue and sale of said note and the pledge of the bonds.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AMERICAN UTILITIES SERVICE CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 15, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 10, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to an application by American Utilities Service Corporation pursuant to Section 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for approval of the sale of securities of Peninsular Utilities Company as follows: 2,000 shares of Common Stock and an unsecured 6% Promissory Note dated November 1, 1935, due November 1, 1965 in the original principal amount of $177,000 of which $174,023.44 remains unpaid. Said sale is being made to Edwin H. Hansen of Calumet, Michigan for the sum of $25,000.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 4, 1939, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 1, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to an application filed by Tidewater Electric Service Company, pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for the exemption from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of said Act of the issue and sale by it of a First Mortgage Note in the principal amount of $72,000, the same to evidence a loan to be made by the United States of America through the Rural Electrification Administration (now Federal Works Agency) for the purpose of making rural extensions to its physical properties. Said note will mature in installments over a period of 20 years. The issue and sale of said note has been approved by the State Corporation Commission of the Commonwealth of Virginia, the State in which applicant is organized and does business. The applicant is a direct subsidiary of Virginia East Coast Utilities, Inc. and an indirect subsidiary of East Coast Public Service Company, a registered holding company.

NATIONAL AVIATION DAY

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the development of aeronautics in recent years has been so rapid that aviation in its many phases has come to exert a profound influence on the course of events throughout the world; and

WHEREAS American initiative and industry have contributed greatly to this development and should be encouraged to continue such contribution in order that the United States may retain its outstanding position in the field of aeronautics; and

WHEREAS Public Resolution No. 14, 76th Congress, approved May 11, 1939 (53 Stat. 739), provides:

"That the President of the United States is authorized to designate August 19 of each year as National Aviation Day, and to issue a proclamation calling upon officials of the Government to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on that day, and inviting the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate exercises to further and stimulate interest in aviation in the United States.":

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate August 19, 1939, and August 19 of each succeeding year as National Aviation Day, and call upon officials of the Government to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on that day, and invite the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate exercises to further and stimulate interest in aviation in this country.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE

PART 59—RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING ORIGIN VERIFICATION OF SEED (INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION)

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the provision in the Act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture and for the Farm Credit Administration for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, and for other purposes," approved June 30, 1939 (Public No. 159, 76th Congress) authorizing the establishment of an inspection service for farm products, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do prescribe and promulgate the following rules and regulations governing the inspection and certification of seed for class and origin, to be in force and effect on and after August 1, 1939, and as long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by rules and regulations hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority. These rules and regulations shall supersede the rules and regulations governing origin-verification of seed approved by the Secretary of Agriculture on July 25, 1933, and amendments thereto.

SUBPART A—DEFINITIONS

§ 59.1 Meaning of words. Words in these regulations in the singular form shall be deemed to import the plural, and vice versa, as the case may demand.

§ 59.2 Terms defined. For the purposes of these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) The Act. The following provision of an act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture and for the Farm Credit Administration for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, and for other purposes," approved June 30, 1939 (Public No. 159, 76th Congress), or any future act of Congress conferring like authority: "For enabling the Secretary of Agriculture, independently and in cooperation with other branches of the Government, State agencies, purchasing and consuming organizations, boards of trade, chambers of commerce, or other associations of business men or trade organizations, and persons or corporations engaged in the production, transportation, marketing, and distribution of farm and food products, whether operating in one or more jurisdictions, to investigate and certify to shippers and other interested parties the class, quality, and condition of cotton, tobacco, fruits and vegetables, whether raw, dried, or canned, poultry, butter, hay, and other perishable farm products when offered for interstate shipment or when received at such important central markets as the Secretary of Agriculture may from time to time designate, or at points which may be conveniently reached therefrom, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, including payment of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost for the service rendered: Provided, That certificates issued by the authorized agents of the Department shall be received in all courts of the United States as prima-facie evidence of the truth of the statements therein contained."

(b) Person. Individual, association, partnership, or corporation.

(c) Secretary. Secretary or Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(d) Service. Agricultural Marketing Service of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(e) Seed. Alfalfa seed, red clover seed, and such other kinds of seed used for planting purposes as may be designated by the Chief of the Service.

(f) Class and origin. The designation of the class of seed as to kind, i. e., alfalfa, red clover, and the class as to origin or place where grown, i. e., one or more States, political subdivisions of a State, or districts prescribed or approved by the Chief of the Service, e. g., Ohio; Millard County, Utah; eastern Oregon.

(g) Inspector. Employee of the U. S. Department of Agriculture or other person authorized by the Secretary to investigate and certificate the class and origin of seed under the act.

(h) Grower. Any person who has produced the seed in question on his own farm or on a farm operated by him, or who is a seed-crop sharer in such seed.

(i) Shipper. Any person who purchases seed of the kind in question in his locality or district where a surplus of this seed is usually produced, and who ships such seed to other shippers or to general seed dealers.

(j) General seed dealer. Any person who buys and sells seed of miscellaneous kinds either at wholesale or at retail.

(k) Verified-origin seed dealer. A seed dealer who is authorized under these regulations and instructions to issue verified-origin seed certificates for seed inspected as to origin for him.

(k–1) Records. Documents, books, statements, tags, labels, declarations, reports, invoices, seed samples, or any other matter in any form used to record business transactions, operations, or to furnish information for use in the operation of the business of the grower, shipper or dealer or prepared or issued in compliance with these regulations and instructions as to the movement, origin, quality, or identity of lots of seed grown, handled or moving in commerce.

(k–2) Lot of seed. A quantity of seed more or less defined as to source, use or disposition and identified by a lot number, e. g., grower's lot, milled lot, blended lot, bulk lot, cleaned lot, etc. For the purpose of identification of seed in a verified-origin seed certificate or in an analysis tag or label issued in compliance with these regulations and instructions, a "lot of seed" shall be a quantity of seed of which a sample taken from any part of the lot will be identical, within tolerances defined in U. S. Department of Agriculture Circular 480, as to source, origin, germination, purity and all other factors with a similar sample taken from any other part of the lot.

(k–3) Lot number. The number, letter, or any combination of numbers or letters or any other symbol by which a lot of seed is identified until such identity is lost or the number changed as a matter of record.

(k–4) Verified-origin seed. Seed which has been verified as to origin by a Federal seed inspector and which meets quality specifications for seed to be covered by a verified-origin seed certificate under these regulations and instructions.

(l) Declaration of origin. A declaration in a form approved by the Chief of the Service either of a grower stating that he is the grower of the seed in question and certifying to the correctness of certain facts given by him, or of a shipper stating that he has obtained the seed in question from a grower or another shipper and also stating among other things that the facts given by him are correct to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that the place where grown and identity of each lot are properly covered in his records, which will be made accessible for verification by a Federal seed inspector at any time upon request.

(m) Inspection certificate. A certificate of the class and origin of seed issued by an inspector under the act, which certificate is not transferable.

(n) Verified-origin seed certificate. The commercial certificate of the class and origin of seed, based upon one or more inspection certificates previously issued, and which accompanies one or more parcels of seed, issued under the act by a verified-origin seed dealer or an inspector, in accordance with these regulations and instructions.

(o) Interested party. A State or any person who has a financial interest in the seed involved, including all carriers and warehouses which have handled or will handle the seed, the present owner or persons who owned the seed prior to him, and persons to whom the seed has been sold and whose acceptance thereof hinges on the inspection

(p) Regulations. Rules and regulations of the Secretary governing the certification of seed as to class and origin under the Act.

(q) Instructions. Instructions of the Chief of the Agricultural Marketing Service issued under these regulations.

SUBPART B—ADMINISTRATION

§ 59.3 Chief of Service. The Chief of the Agricultural Marketing Service is charged with the supervision of the performance of all duties arising in the administration of the Act.

SUBPART C—WHERE SERVICE IS OFFERED

§ 59.4 Where service is offered.—(a) Service points. Seed meeting the requirements of these regulations and instructions may be verified as to class and origin, and inspection certificates issued at points indicated in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Designated markets. Washington, Chicago, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Cincinnati, Denver, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Spokane, and Ogden are hereby designated as important central markets at which inspectors are located and available for making inspections. Other important markets at which inspectors will be available may be designated by the Chief of the Service from time to time.

(c) Other points. Places where verified-origin seed dealers are located.

SUBPART D—INSPECTION

§ 59.5 Basis of inspection. Inspection for class and origin shall be based upon such examination of records, and be made under such conditions and in accordance with such methods, as may be prescribed or approved by the Chief of the Service.

§ 59.6 Who may obtain inspection. An application for the inspection of seed under the act may be made by a State, a verified-origin seed dealer, or any other interested party who has complied with the regulations and instructions pertaining to the making of such application.

§ 59.7 How application should be made. Application for inspection of seed under the act shall be made in writing, on forms approved by the Chief of the Service. Such applications shall be sent to the inspector in the designated market which most conveniently serves the applicant.

§ 59.8 Form of application. The written application for inspection of seed as to class and origin under the act shall be in English, in a form prescribed by the Chief of the Service, and shall include the following information: (a) date of application, (b) name and post-office address of applicant, (c) kind of seed, (d) name of grower, shipper or dealer making shipment, (e) shipping point and post-office address of person making shipment, if different from shipping point, (f) date of shipment, (g) shipper's lot number, (h) applicant's lot number, (i) weight in pounds, (j) place where grown, (k) kind of declaration or assurance of origin furnished applicant; if assurance accompanying shipment is a verified-origin seed certificate, the name or symbol of the verified-origin seed dealer should be given if different from the seller or person making shipment, and (l) such other information as the inspector or Chief of the Service may require.

§ 59.9 When an inspection may be refused. An application may be rejected by the inspector with whom it is filed or by the Chief of the Service for any non-compliance with the act, with these regulations or instructions, or whenever an inspector is not available for making the inspection, or whenever the evidence is insufficient upon which to determine the correct origin.

§ 59.10 Certificates; issuance. The inspector shall sign and issue an inspection certificate for such lot or lots of seed as are included in the application, the class and origin of which are covered by approved growers' or shippers' declarations of origin, verified-origin certificates, or other approved assurances of class and origin furnished by the applicant in compliance with instructions.

§ 59.11 Communicating certificate information. Upon request from an applicant for whom an inspection has been made, any part of the contents of the certificate may be telegraphed or telephoned to him at his expense.

§ 59.12 Disposition of certificates. The original inspection certificate, immediately upon its issuance, shall be delivered or mailed to the applicant; one copy shall be filed in the office of the inspector and one copy forwarded to the supervising inspector, Washington, D. C.

§ 59.13 Corrected inspection certificates. A corrected certificate shall be issued for any lot or lots of seed under conditions outlined in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) Correction by applicant. Whenever an applicant for whom an inspection has been made believes the class or other information in connection with any lot or lots of seed, as stated in an inspection certificate issued to him, is not correct, and returns the certificate covering such lot or lots of seed with a corrected application under the same serial number and covering all lots of seed in the original certificate which are eligible for verification, the inspector will investigate the applicant's claims and if he finds them correct he will issue a corrected certificate.

(b) Correction by inspector. Whenever an inspector finds that the class and origin for a lot or lots of seed, or any of the information upon which the class and origin of such lots have been based in an inspection certificate, is incorrect or incomplete, he may request the applicant to return the incorrect certificate with a corrected application under the same serial number and covering all lots of seed in the original certificate which are eligible for verification, and shall then issue a corrected certificate covering the lot or lots in question, and shall retain the original in his files.

SUBPART E—FEES AND CHARGES

§ 59.14 Fees and charges for inspections. The fees and charges to be collected for class and origin inspections of seed and method of payment shall be fixed by the Chief of the Service and published in accordance with section 59.16.

SUBPART F—MISCELLANEOUS

§ 59.16 Publications. Publications under the act and these regulations shall be made in Service and Regulatory Announcements of the Agricultural Marketing Service and in such other media as the Chief of the Service may from time to time designate for the purpose.

§ 59.17 Seeds and records made accessible. The applicant shall cause the seed and/or records covering the lots for which inspection is requested, and such other seed and/or records covering other lots of the same kind of seed as that for which inspection is requested which are now or have been owned or stored by the applicant, to be made accessible for examination or inspection, when requested by the inspector.

§ 59.18 Authority of agents. Proof of authority of any person applying for inspection on behalf of another may be required, in the discretion of the inspector.

§ 59.19 Certificate superseded is void. When an inspection certificate has been superseded under these regulations by a corrected certificate no inspection certificate or verified-origin seed certificate issued prior thereto for any corrected lot or lots shall thereafter represent the class and origin of the lot or lots of seed described therein on which incorrect or incomplete information was given. If the original of the superseded certificate is not delivered to the inspector issuing the corrected certificate and proper assurance is not given of the cancelation or correction of verified-origin seed certificates which were based upon such incorrect certificate, the inspector issuing the corrected certificate or the Chief of the Service shall take such action and give such notice of the issuance of such corrected certificate and cancelation of the original inspection certificate or certificates and invalidation of corresponding verified-origin seed certificates as he considers necessary to prevent misrepresentation or fraud.

§ 59.20 Misrepresentation. Any misrepresentation or any deceptive or fraudulent practice made or committed by an applicant for inspection or by any other person regarding any seed or in connection with the verification of origin of seed covered or to be covered by an inspection certificate, or failure in any way to comply with the regulations and instructions, may be deemed sufficient cause for debarring such person from any further inspections under the Act, or from the use of verified-origin seed certificates in the merchandising of alfalfa and red clover seed, or from having any declarations of origin issued by him accepted on which to base verification of origin in the Seed Verification Service, and public notice thereof may be given.

§ 59.21 Political activity. All samplers and inspectors authorized either by appointment or license from the Secretary of Agriculture to draw official samples of seed or to issue inspection certificates under the act and these regulations are forbidden, during the period of their appointment or license, to take an active part in political management or in political campaigns. Political activity in city, county, State, or national elections, whether primary or regular, or in behalf of any party or candidate, or any measure to be voted upon, is prohibited. This applies to all appointees, including temporary and cooperative employees, and employees on leave of absence with or without pay. Willful violation of this regulation will constitute grounds for dismissal in the case of appointees, and revocation of licenses in the case of licensees.

§ 59.22 Inspection records confidential. Records of inspection, including copies of certificates issued, records of such certificates, applicants' accounts, and other detailed information relating to the work of an inspection office are not to be made available to or to be opened for examination by any person who is not connected with the inspection service. Such records are to be held strictly confidential for reference by the inspector in charge of the office and his assistants and by the supervising inspector. Summarized reports which do not disclose the operations of an individual grower, shipper or other applicant for inspection and which are identified clearly as to source and contents may be released to the public, provided that when so released they shall be published in such manner and in such mediums as will make the information available alike to all interested persons.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of July, 1939. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPORATION

PART 401—GENERAL,
PART 402—LOAN SERVICE,
PART 405—RECONDITIONING

ADVANCES OR GRANTS OF EXTENSION TO EMPLOYEES

Amending Parts 401, 402 and 405 of Chapter IV, Title 24, of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Part 401 is amended by adding a new section, numbered 401.08, which reads as follows:

§ 401.08 Advances or grants of extensions for the accounts of salaried employees, whether mortgagors, vendees or their successors in interest, shall be made only upon review and approval by the Regional Manager, a Deputy General Manager, or the General Manager.

The second paragraph of Section 402.02 is amended to read as follows:

The Regional Manager may, in the manner now or hereafter provided, request the appointment of deputies to execute forms on his behalf, to exercise any authority and to perform any duties vested in or required of the Regional Manager with respect to Loan Service operations; provided, however, that such deputation is limited to the Assistant Regional Manager in Charge of Loan Service and employees of the Loan Service Division recommended by him; and provided further that no such deputy shall exercise any power now or hereafter conferred upon the Regional Manager to direct advances of Corporation funds or to approve extensions for the accounts of salaried employees, whether such employees are mortgagors, vendees or their successors in interest.

The last sentence of Section 402.12 is amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in Section 108, any Regional or State Manager, with the advice or approval of Regional or State Counsel, as may be required, may exercise the authority herein granted, under procedure and limitations prescribed and promulgated by the General Manager with the approval of the General Counsel.

The last sentence of Section 405.02 is amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in Section 108, the authority herein conferred upon the General Manager may be exercised also by Regional or State Manager under procedure and limitations prescribed by the General Manager with the approval of the General Counsel.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

[T. D. 4914]

INCOME TAX

CORPORATE INCOME TAX RETURNS TO BE GIVEN PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO DETERMINE THE APPLICATION OF THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 102 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE, AND THE CORRESPONDING SECTION OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1938, RELATING TO UNREASONABLE ACCUMULATION OF EARNINGS OR PROFITS TO AVOID SURTAX *†

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Other Officers and Employees of the Bureau of Internal Revenue Concerned:

§ 22.0 Introductory. (a) Attention is directed to the provisions of section 102 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. Part 1) which imposes a surtax on corporations improperly accumulating surplus, particularly section 102 (c), which provides as follows:

"(c) Evidence determinative of purpose.—The fact that the earnings or profits of a corporation are permitted to accumulate beyond the reasonable needs of the business shall be determinative of the purpose to avoid surtax upon shareholders unless the corporation by the clear preponderance of the evidence shall prove to the contrary."

The above-quoted provisions first appeared in the Revenue Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 483).

(b) Attention is also directed to the following provisions of article 102–2 of Regulations 101 [1] issued under the Revenue Act of 1938, and made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885,[2] approved February 11, 1939 (Part 465, Subpart B, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations):

"If the Commissioner determines that the corporation was formed or availed of for the purpose of avoiding the individual surtax through the medium of permitting earnings or profits to accumulate, and the taxpayer contests such determination of fact by litigation, the burden of proving the determination wrong by a preponderance of evidence, together with the corresponding burden of first going forward with evidence, is on the taxpayer under principles applicable to income tax cases generally, and this is so even though the corporation is not a mere holding or investment company and does not have an unreasonable accumulation of earnings or profits. However, if the corporation is a mere holding or investment company, then the Act gives further weight to the presumption of correctness already arising from the Commissioner's determination by expressly providing an additional presumption of the existence of a purpose to avoid surtax upon shareholders, while if earnings or profits are permitted to accumulate beyond the reasonable needs of the business, then the Act adds still more weight to the Commissioner's determination by providing that irrespective of whether or not the corporation is a mere holding or investment company, the existence of such an accumulation is determinative of the purpose to avoid surtax upon shareholders unless the taxpayer proves the contrary by such a clear preponderance of all the evidence that the absence of such a purpose is unmistakable."

§ 22.1 Instructions. (a) Returns filed by the following classes of corporations will be given close attention to determine whether section 102 is applicable:

(1) Corporations which have not distributed at least 70 percent of their earnings as taxable dividends.

(2) Corporations which have invested earnings in securities or other properties unrelated to their normal business activities.

(3) Corporations which have advanced sums to officers or shareholders in the form of loans out of undistributed profits or surplus from which taxable dividends might have been declared.

(4) Corporations, a majority of whose stock is held by a family group or other small group of individuals, or by a trust or trusts for the benefit of such groups.

(5) Corporations the distributions of which, while exceeding 70 percent of their earnings, appear to be inadequate when considered in connection with the nature of the business or the financial position of the corporation or corporations with accumulations of cash or other quick assets which appear to be beyond the reasonable needs of the business.

(b) Insofar as the classes of cases referred to in (1), (2), (3) and (4) are concerned, the examining officer's report in every instance shall contain a specific recommendation for the application or nonapplication of section 102.

(c) Each internal revenue agent in charge and each head of a field division of the Technical Staff will designate a qualified employee in his office, whose responsibility it will be to pass personally upon each case in which a recommendation has been made by an examining or reviewing officer with respect to the application or nonapplication of section 102. The internal revenue agent in charge or head of the field division of the Technical Staff will advise the Commissioner of the names and titles of such employees.

(d) There will be maintained currently in Washington, D. C., detailed data regarding cases in which recommendations have been made with respect to the application or nonapplication of section 102, in order that the officers of the Department may be kept appropriately informed. To this end, there will be forwarded to this office by internal revenue agents in charge or heads of field divisions of the Technical Staff, as the case may be, immediately upon preparation thereof, a copy of each examining officer's report, revenue agent's report, field conference memorandum, or action memorandum in cases referred to in (1), (2), (3) and (4) of paragraph (a) of this section, in which a recommendation has been made with respect to the application or nonapplication of section 102, and a copy of each examining officer's report, revenue agent's report, field conference memorandum, or action memorandum in cases referred to in (5) of paragraph (a) of this section in which a recommendation has been made for the application of section 102.

(e) In the review of income-tax cases by the Bureau, the returns of corporations of the classes enumerated in paragraph (a) of this section will be given special consideration to determine whether field officers have complied fully with these instructions.

(f) Correspondence, reports, and memorandums from internal revenue agents in charge in regard to this Treasury decision should refer to the number thereof and the symbols IT:F. Correspondence, reports, and memorandums from heads of the field divisions of the Technical Staff in regard to this Treasury decision should refer to the number thereof and the symbols C:TS.*†

TITLE 41—PUBLIC CONTRACTS

DIVISION OF PUBLIC CONTRACTS

IN THE MATTER OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE SPECIALTY ACCOUNTING SUPPLY MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

This matter is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35) entitled, "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes." The Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, held a hearing in the matter of the prevailing minimum wages in the Specialty Accounting Supply, Salesbook, and Autographic Register Manufacturing Industry on June 9, 1938.

Notice of the hearing was sent to all known members of the industry, to trade unions, to trade publications, and to trade associations in the field. Invitation to attend the hearing was also extended through the national press to all other interested parties.

At the hearing testimony was presented for the record by members of the industry by a representative of the Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturers' Association and by a representative of the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union of North America.

A survey prepared by the Research Section, Division of Public Contracts, from information gathered by questionnaires sent to all members of the industry by the Secretary of the Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturers' Association was introduced at the hearing. In addition, wage data compiled by the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union of North America were introduced.

On the basis of the evidence the Board made its recommendations. Thereafter, the Administrator circularized the recommendations and gave the parties a reasonable time in which to register their objection thereto or their approval thereof before any determination in the matter should be made. The entire record and the briefs of interested parties are now before me for consideration.

The Board recommended that the industry be identified as the, "Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturing Industry." The testimony of record shows that salesbooks and autographic registers are normally considered as specialty accounting supplies. The enumeration of specific products of the Specialty Accounting Supply Industry has a tendency to carry with it the implication that products not enumerated are excluded. For this reason, the words, "Salesbook, and Autographic Register", will be eliminated from the title of the industry although the elimination is in no wise to be considered as an elimination of these products from the purview of this decision.

This survey made on the basis of information gathered from the questionnaires sent to members of the industry covers 42 plants employing 4,691 employees. The Association covers in its membership 100 per cent of the manufacturers of autographic registers, 80 per cent of the manufacturers of sales books, and 90 per cent of the manufacturers of continuous forms stationery. In addition to the reports received from members of the Association, 6 non-members reported.

The Union representative agreed at the hearing that the survey made by the Association was complete and adequately represented the wage structure of the industry. The survey was geographically representative of all producing centers. Plants were covered in Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, California, Oregon, and Washington. There are no members of this industry located in the South. Ohio, New York and Illinois account for at least 75 per cent in value of the industry's production. The wage data introduced by the Union covering 2,883 employees substantiates the Association survey. The data of record are adequately representative of the wage conditions existing in the industry.

The Board recommended that the minimum wage for the industry be found to be 42.5 cents an hour or $17.00 per week of 40 hours. The Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturers' Association has taken exception to the finding that the wage should be 42.5 cents, stating that the minimum prevailing in the industry is below that figure and that the minimum should be 40 cents an hour for male and 45 cents an hour for female employees with a learner tolerance of not less than 80 per cent of such minimum.

The Association took the position that not more than 3 per cent of the industry production was bought by the Government and that the imposition of a 42.5 cent minimum on those factories that supply these products to the Government would make it difficult to compete in the general commercial field with the other members of the industry who did not supply Government contracts.

The Board has considered the protest and in the light thereof, and after reconsidering the facts of record, has indicated that the minimum should be found to exist at 40 cents an hour and that there should be no tolerance for learners. This is the lowest wage that is paid by plants that compete for Government business. The first substantial concentration of employees in the industry is found in the interval between 40 and 45 cents where 603 employees out of the total of 4,691 are found. The interval between 35 and 40 cents contains 264 employees.

There appears no reason for granting a learner tolerance. There is a group of employees in the industry classified as learners but they do not fall exclusively within the low wage group. The learners are spread throughout the industry and are classified sometimes as beginners' helpers and unskilled workers and their wages are reflected in the determination of a 40 cent minimum.

The record shows, however, that apprentices are employed in the industry at wages lower than the prevailing minimum in the industry, and the Board has recommended that provision be made for the employment of apprentices at wages lower than the prevailing minimum wages, provided that their employment conforms with the standards of the Federal Committee on Apprenticeship.

I have examined the findings of the Board and the record of the hearing, together with the briefs filed, and in the light of the facts I hereby determine that the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35) for the manufacture or supply of the products of the Specialty Accounting Supply Manufacturing Industry as herein defined, shall be 40 cents an hour or $16.00 per week of forty hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis; provided that apprentices may be employed at lower rates if their employment conforms with the standards of the Federal Committee on Apprenticeship.

This determination shall be effective, and the minimum wage hereby established shall apply to all such contracts, bids for which are solicited on or after August 9, 1939.

Dated, July 25, 1939.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[No. 3666]

IN THE MATTER OF REGULATIONS FOR TRANSPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

Decided July 22, 1939

Applications for amendment of prior supplemental report herein authorizing construction and use of fusion-welded tank-car tanks, granted.

Victor Willoughby for American Car and Foundry Company.

R. W. Thompson for General American Transportation Corporation.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF THE COMMISSION[1]

ALLDREDGE, Commissioner:

In our supplemental report herein dated December 30, 1937, we granted several applications requesting authority to construct various types of experimental fusion-welded tank-car tanks for transportation of dangerous articles, including thirty-nine tanks of specification 105A300 type fabricated in accordance with proposed revised specification 105A300-W for transportation of anhydrous ammonia.

In applications filed by American Car and Foundry Company, dated January 31, 1938, and General American Transportation Corporation, dated April 26, 1938, we are asked to amend said report to the extent that it applies to cars for anhydrous ammonia, and authorize four (4) of the cars already constructed thereunder, marked with serial numbers SCMX 2005 to 2008, inclusive, to be used in transportation either of anhydrous ammonia or petroleum products, and two (2) further cars constructed thereunder to be used in transportation of petroleum products. Construction and use of all such cars will otherwise be in full accordance with the authority herein amended.

Upon further consideration, and in the light of added facts disclosed in the applications, the requested authorities are hereby granted effective forthwith.

By the Commission, Commissioner Alldredge.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL,
Secretary.

NOTICE OF HEARING CONCERNING THE EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS BETWEEN 16 AND 18 YEARS OF AGE IN DRIVING MOTOR VEHICLES AND IN SERVING AS HELPERS ON SUCH VEHICLES

JULY 25, 1939.

The Children's Bureau will hold a hearing on Friday, August 18, 1939, commencing at 10 a. m. in Room 3229, U. S. Department of Labor Building, Fourteenth Street and Constitution Avenue, Washington, D. C., to take testimony to be used to assist the Chief of the Children's Bureau in determining, pursuant to section 12 (a) and section 3 (1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060), whether the occupations of driving motor vehicles and of serving as helpers on such vehicles are particularly hazardous for the employment of minors between 16 and 18 years of age or detrimental to their health or well-being.

Section 12 (a) of the Act provides that:

• • • no producer, manufacturer, or dealer shall ship or deliver for shipment in commerce [as defined in section 3 (b)] any goods produced in an establishment situated in the United States in or about which within thirty days prior to the removal of such goods therefrom any oppressive child labor has been employed • • •

Section 3 (1) of the Act defines oppressive child labor in part as follows:

(1) "Oppressive child labor" means a condition of employment under which (1) any employee under the age of sixteen years is employed by an employer • • • in any occupation, or (2) any employee between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years is employed by an employer in any occupation which the Chief of the Children's Bureau in the Department of Labor shall find and by order declare to be particularly hazardous for the employment of children between such ages or detrimental to their health or well-being; • • •

At the hearing, which will be held before a presiding officer to be designated hereafter, all interested parties will be given opportunity to appear and be heard. Those desiring to appear at the hearing are requested to notify the Children's Bureau at least 2 days prior to the date fixed for the hearing.

It is suggested that testimony presented at the hearing include information pertinent to the following questions:

(1) To what extent are minors under 18 years of age employed as drivers of motor vehicles or helpers on such vehicles? In what industries are they so employed?

(2) What different types of work are performed by helpers on trucks and other motor vehicles?

(3) What are the hazards to minors of driving motor vehicles and of helping on such vehicles? Should all types of work performed by helpers be regarded as hazardous?

(4) Should the determination apply to all helpers who serve on motor vehicles in connection with the transportation of goods or only to those helpers (sometimes known as "jumpers") who serve on motor vehicles and who pick up or deliver goods elsewhere than at a loading platform?

(5) Should the determination define the terms "motor vehicle" as any vehicle propelled or drawn by mechanical power and designed for use upon the highways in the transportation of persons or property?

This list of questions is not meant to exclude the submission of any other pertinent information which an interested party may desire to present.

IN THE MATTER OF THE AMENDMENT OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE MANUFACTURE OF AEROPLANES, AIRCRAFT ENGINES, PROPELLERS, ACCESSORIES, AND THE MANUFACTURING AND FINISHING OF PARTS

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW CAUSE

The Department has been supplied with evidence showing that the wage structure prevailing in the manufacture of aircraft parts and accessories, including the manufacture of such original equipment, replacement parts, aircraft electrical products, and accessories, with the exception of aircraft instruments and products manufactured predominantly from fabrics such as parachutes, targets, and wind socks, is similar to that prevailing in the manufacture or supply of aeroplanes, aircraft engines and aircraft propellers, as determined by the Secretary of Labor on December 14, 1938[1] In the Matter of the Determination of the Prevailing Minimum Wages in the Manufacture of Aeroplanes, Aircraft Engines, Propellers, Accessories, and the Manufacturing and Finishing of Parts.

In the light of these facts, all interested parties are hereby given until and including August 7, 1939 within which to file briefs with the Administrator of the Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, showing reasons of law or fact why the Secretary's decision In the Matter of the Determination of the Prevailing Minimum Wages in the Manufacture of Aeroplanes, Aircraft Engines, Propellers, Accessories, and the Manufacturing and Finishing of Parts should not be amended to include the manufacture of such original equipment, replacement parts, aircraft electrical products, and accessories, with the exception of aircraft instruments and products manufactured predominantly from fabrics, such as parachutes, targets, and wind socks, and to show cause why in law and fact the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government, subject to the provisions of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35) for the manufacture of such original equipment, replacement parts, aircraft electrical products, and accessories should not be 50 cents an hour or $20.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis; provided that apprentices may be employed at lower rates if their employment conforms with the standards of the Federal Committee on Apprenticeship.

Dated July 24, 1939.

IN THE MATTER OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE LUGGAGE AND SADDLERY INDUSTRIES

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW CAUSE

The Department has been supplied with evidence to the effect that the companies manufacturing carrier's tie straps and leather pouches (consisting of a leather pouch or pocket of holster type with belt loop used for carrying pliers and knife) follow similar manufacturing processes to those followed in the manufacture of luggage; that the majority of luggage manufacturers also manufacture such commodities; that the same minimum wage prevails in the manufacture of such commodities as has been found by the Secretary to prevail in the manufacture of luggage.

In the light of these facts all interested parties are hereby given until and including August 7, 1939 in which to file briefs with the Administrator of the Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, showing reasons of law or fact why the Secretary's decision of July 12, 1938[1] In the Matter of Determining the Prevailing Minimum Wages in the Luggage and Saddlery Industries should not be amended to include the manufacture or supply of carrier's tie straps and leather pouches and to show cause why in law and fact the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government, subject to the provisions of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35) for the manufacture of these commodities should not be 40 cents an hour or $16.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, for the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona, Montana, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, and New Mexico; and 37.5 cents an hour or $15.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis, for the other 26 States and the District of Columbia.

Dated, July 24, 1939.

IN THE MATTER OF THE AMENDMENT OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE IN THE WORK GLOVE INDUSTRY

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW CAUSE

The Department has been supplied with evidence to the effect that the companies engaged in the manufacture of leather work gloves and leather-palm gloves also manufacture all leather (lined or unlined) block-cut semi-dress gloves, and that the processes followed in the manufacture of such semi-dress gloves are similar to those followed in the manufacture of work gloves.

In the light of this evidence it appears that the prevailing minimum wage for the manufacture of such semi-dress gloves is similar to that prevailing in the manufacture of work gloves.

All interested parties are hereby given until and including August 7, 1939, within which to file briefs with the Administrator of the Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor, showing reasons of law or fact why the Secretary's decision of July 28, 1937[1] In the Matter of Determination of the Prevailing Minimum Wage in the Work Glove Industry should not be amended to include the manufacture of all leather (lined or unlined) block-cut semi-dress gloves, and to show cause why in law and fact the minimum wages for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35) for the manufacture of such semi-dress gloves should not be 35 cents an hour or $14.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

Dated July 24, 1939.

IN THE MATTER OF THE KANSAS POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY

ORDER EXEMPTING THE ISSUE AND SALE OF SECURITIES

The Kansas Power and Light Company, a direct subsidiary of North American Light & Power Company and an indirect subsidiary of The North American Company, the latter two companies being registered holding companies, having filed an application with amendments thereto pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for the exemption from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of the Act of the issue and sale of $26,500,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, 3½% Series, due 1969, and $3,500,000 principal amount of 2¾% Promissory Notes maturing serially from 1940 to 1949; and the issue and sale of such securities having been expressly authorized by the State Corporation Commission of Kansas;

A hearing on such matter having been held after appropriate notice;[1] the applicant having waived the right to have submitted to it a report by the Trial Examiner, to have submitted to it proposed findings of fact by the Commission or requested findings of fact by counsel to the Commission, to file a brief and to oral argument before the Commission prior to the Commission's making findings and the entry of an order herein; the record in this matter having been examined; and the Commission having made and filed its findings herein;

It is ordered, That the issue and sale of the aforesaid First Mortgage Bonds and the Promissory Notes in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in, and for the purposes represented by said amended application, be, and the same hereby are, exempted from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, subject, however, to the following conditions:

(a) That if the express authorization of the issue and sale of such securities by the State Corporation Commission of Kansas shall be revoked or otherwise terminated, this exemption shall immediately terminate without further order of this Commission; and

(b) That within ten days after the issue and sale of such securities the applicant shall file with this Commission a certificate of notification showing that such issue and sale have been effected in accordance with the terms and conditions of and for the purposes represented by said application as amended.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION.

INVESTIGATION ORDERED AND HEARING SET FOR AUGUST 14, 1939, RELATIVE TO COTTON OR COTTON WASTE

INVESTIGATION NO. 1 UNDER SECTION 22 OF THE AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT, AS AMENDED

Institution of investigation.—By direction of the President, dated July 26, 1939, the United States Tariff Commission on the 26th day of July 1939 instituted, and hereby gives notice of an investigation, under Section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act (of 1933), as amended, and Executive Order No. 7233 of November 23, 1935, for the purpose of determining whether Cotton or Cotton Waste is being imported into the United States under such conditions and in sufficient quantities as to render or tend to render ineffective or materially interfere with the program undertaken with respect to cotton, under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, or to reduce substantially the amount of any product processed in the United States from cotton. Cotton textiles are not included in this investigation, but will be made the subject of a separate investigation to be announced later.

Hearing. All parties interested will be given opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard at a public hearing to be held at the office of the Commission in Washington, D. C., at 10 a. m. on the 14th day of August 1939.

Nature of information at hearing. Information submitted at hearing must be relevant and material to the matters under investigation.

Appearances at hearing. Interested persons may appear at the hearing either in person or by representative; if several persons have a joint interest in the subject it is suggested that effort be made for the designation of a representative in order to avoid unnecessary repetition of testimony.

Regulations. Copies of the regulations adopted for investigations under Section 22 may be obtained on application to the United States Tariff Commission, Washington, D. C., or to the New York office of the Commission, Room 712, Custom House, New York City.

I hereby certify that the above investigation and hearing in said investigation were ordered by the United States Tariff Commission on the 26th day of July 1939.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

BUREAU OF ENTOMOLOGY AND PLANT QUARANTINE

[B.E.P.Q. 485, Third Revision]

WHITE-FRINGED BEETLE QUARANTINE RESTRICTIONS MODIFIED

SEC. 301.72A—ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS—REMOVAL OF WHITE-FRINGED BEETLE CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS UNTIL FEBRUARY 1, 1940, FOR SPECIFIED ARTICLES CONSIGNED FROM DESIGNATED PORTIONS OF THE REGULATED AREAS

Approved July 28, 1939; Effective July 28, 1939

Circular B.E.P.Q. 485, as revised July 7, 1939,[1] waived certification requirements until February 1, 1940, for specified articles consigned from certain parts of the areas regulated under quarantine No. 72. The only change in the present revision is to exempt from certification until February 1, 1940, certain articles consigned from Saint Bernard Parish, Louisiana.

Under authorization provided in Notice of Quarantine No. 72 (Sec. 301.72), all certification requirements are hereby waived until February 1, 1940, for the following articles enumerated in Regulation 3 (a) and (b), (Sec. 301.72–3) when free from soil, it having been determined that sanitary measures and natural conditions have so reduced the risk of contamination with the egg or adult stage of the white-fringed beetle as to render certification unnecessary during the period stated:

1. When consigned from the regulated parts of the following counties: In Alabama—Mobile County; in Florida—Escambia County; in Louisiana—East Baton Rouge Parish; in Mississippi—Jackson County, certification requirements are waived for the following articles:

Potatoes and sweetpotatoes.

Sweetpotato vines, draws, and cuttings.

Cordwood, pulpwood, stumpwood, and logs.

Used or unused lumber, timbers, posts, poles, crossties, and other building materials.

Hay, roughage of all kinds, straw, leaves, and leafmold.

Peas, beans, and peanuts in shells, or the shells of any of these products.

Seed cotton, cottonseed, baled cotton lint, and linters.

Used implements and machinery, scrap metal, junk, and utensils or containers coming in contact with the ground.

Brick, tiling, stone, and concrete slabs and blocks.

Nursery stock and other plants, which are free from soil.

2. When consigned from the regulated parts of the counties of Hinds and Pearl River in Mississippi, certification requirements are waived for the following articles:

Potatoes and sweetpotatoes.

Sweetpotato vines, draws, and cuttings.

Cordwood, pulpwood, stumpwood, and logs.

Used or unused lumber, timbers, posts, poles, crossties, and other building materials.

Hay, roughage of all kinds, straw, leaves, and leafmold.

Peas, beans, and peanuts in shells, or the shells of any of these products.

Used implements and machinery, scrap metal, junk, and utensils or containers coming in contact with the ground.

Brick, tiling, stone, and concrete slabs and blocks.

Nursery stock and other plants, which are free from soil.

3. When consigned from the parishes of Saint Bernard and Orleans (including the City of New Orleans) and from the regulated parts of the parishes of Jefferson and Plaquemines in Louisiana, certification requirements are waived for the following articles:

Potatoes and sweetpotatoes.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS AUTHORITY

[Amendment 20, Civil Air Regulations]

POSITION LIGHTS

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of July 1939.

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, particularly sections 205 (a) and 601 (a) of said Act, and finding that its action is desirable in the public interest and is necessary to carry out the provisions of, and to exercise and perform its powers and duties under said Act, the Civil Aeronautics Authority hereby amends the Civil Air Regulations as follows:

Effective August 15, 1939, Part 15 of the Civil Air Regulations is amended as follows:

1. By striking the word "equipment" in the title of section 15.2 and inserting in lieu thereof the word "appliances."

2. By striking section 15.20 and inserting in lieu thereof the following new section:

"§ 15.20 Position lights.

"§ 15.200 General provisions. Position lights prescribed in Part 04 of the Civil Air Regulations, in order to be certificated, shall be so constructed and capable of being so mounted as to comply with the regulations hereinafter prescribed.

"§ 15.2000 A request for certification and such supporting data as may be prescribed herein shall be accompanied by a complete set of lights described in the data. Such data shall include a copy of the instructions for the mounting of the lights in aircraft as furnished by the light manufacturer to purchasers.

"§ 15.2001 As the forward (right and left) lights are complementary they will be certificated as a unit. The rear (tail) light will be certificated as a separate unit.

"§ 15.2002 Forward lights are classified as follows:

"(a) Standard forward position lights.
"(b) Air Carrier forward position lights.
"(c) Auxiliary position lights.

"§ 15.201 Light distribution requirements. (See CAAM 15 for diagrams.)

" 15.2010 Definitions. Three dihedral angles hereinafter referred to as dihedral angle L, dihedral angle R, and dihedral angle A are defined as follows: dihedral angle L is formed by the intersection of two vertical planes, one passing through the forward axis of the light unit, as defined in the mounting instructions, and the other at an angle of 110 degrees to the first, measured to the left when looking away from the unit; dihedral angle R is formed by the intersection of two vertical planes, one passing through the forward axis of the light unit, as defined in the mounting instructions, and the other at an angle of 110 degrees to the first, measured to the right when looking away from the unit; and dihedral angle A (aft) is formed by the intersection of two vertical planes making dihedral angles of 70 degrees to the left and 70 degrees to the right, respectively, of a vertical plane passing through the rear axis of the light unit, as defined in the mounting instructions. Each dihedral angle shall be understood to include the bounding planes as well as the space between the planes.

"§ 15.2011 Standard forward position lights. Each standard forward position light shall have an intensity of not less than 3 candles in all directions in dihedral angle L for the left light and in dihedral angle R for the right light. Within these dihedral angles, respectively, the intensity in all directions shall equal or exceed the minimum values given in Table I according to the angle between the direction of measurement and the forward axis of the unit.

|---|---|
| 30 degrees | 8 candles |

In all directions in dihedral angle R for the left light and in dihedral angle L for the right light, tolerance of 10 degrees will be allowed in which the intensity of these lights shall be reduced to not over 2 candles. In these same directions a further tolerance of an additional 10 degrees will be allowed in which the intensity shall be reduced to not more than 0.5 candle. In all directions in dihedral angle A a tolerance of 10 degrees will be allowed in which the intensity of these lights shall be reduced to a maximum intensity of 0.5 candle. In all directions outside the specified dihedral angle and the allowed tolerance angles for each unit, the stray light intensity shall not exceed 0.5 candle.

"§ 15.2012 Air Carrier forward position lights. Each air carrier forward position light shall have as intensity of not less than 3 candles in all directions in dihedral angle L for the left light and in dihedral angle R for the right light. Within these dihedral angles, respectively, the intensity in all directions shall equal or exceed the minimum values given in Table II according to the angle between the direction of measurement and the forward axis of the unit.

TABLE II.—Minimum Permissible Intensities in Any Plane Through the Forward Axis of the Unit

|---|---|
| 60 degrees | 5 candles |
| 30 degrees | 10 candles |
| 20 degrees | 20 candles |
| 15 degrees | 30 candles |
| 10 degrees | 35 candles |
| 5 degrees | 40 candles |

Within the same dihedral angles the intensities in the horizontal plane shall equal or exceed the minimum values given in Table III according to the angle between the direction of measurement and the forward axis of the unit.

TABLE III.—Minimum Permissible Intensities in the Horizontal Plane Through the Forward Axis of the Unit

|---|---|
| 60 degrees | 5 candles |
| 40 degrees | 10 candles |
| 30 degrees | 20 candles |
| 20 degrees | 30 candles |
| 10 degrees | 40 candles |

In all directions in dihedral angle R for the left light and in dihedral angle L for the right light, a tolerance of 10 degrees will be allowed in which the intensity of these lights shall be reduced to not over 10 candles. In these same directions a further tolerance of an additional 10 degrees will be allowed in which the intensity shall be reduced to not more than 1 candle. In all directions in dihedral angle A a tolerance of 10 degrees will be allowed in which the intensity of these lights shall be reduced to not more than 1 candle. In all directions outside the specified dihedral angle and the allowed tolerance angles for each unit, the stray light intensity shall not exceed 1 candle.

"§ 15.2013 Auxiliary forward position lights. Each auxiliary forward position light shall have an intensity of not less than 20 candles in all directions not exceeding 30 degrees of the forward axis of the unit, measured in dihedral angle L for the left unit and in dihedral angle R for the right unit. Within the afore-described angles the intensity in all directions shall equal or exceed the minimum values given in Table IV according to the angle between the direction of the measurement and the forward axis of the unit.

TABLE IV.—Minimum Permissible Intensities in Any Plane Through the Forward Axis of the Unit

|---|---|
| 10 degrees | 40 candles |

In all directions in dihedral angle R for the left light and in dihedral angle L for the right light, a tolerance of 10 degrees will be allowed in which the intensity of these lights shall be reduced to not over 8 candles. In these same directions a further tolerance of an additional 10 degrees will be allowed in which the intensity shall be reduced to not more than 0.5 candle. In all directions in dihedral angle A the maximum intensity shall be less than 0.5 candle. In all directions outside the specified dihedral angle and the allowed tolerance angles for each unit, the stray light intensity shall not exceed 0.5 candle.

"§ 15.2014 Rear position lights. Each rear position light shall have an intensity of not less than 4 candles in dihedral angle A. Within this dihedral angle the intensity in all directions not exceeding 70 degrees from the rear axis of the unit, shall be not less than 8 candles. In all directions in dihedral angle L and in dihedral angle R, a tolerance of 20 degrees will be allowed in which the intensity of this light must be reduced to a maximum stray light intensity of 1 candle. In all directions outside the specified dihedral angle and the allowed tolerance angles, the stray light intensity shall not exceed 1 candle.

"§ 15.202 Color. All left forward lights shall be aviation red, all right forward lights shall be aviation green, and all rear lights shall be aviation white. These colors are defined as follows:

"(a) Aviation red is a color having the following ICI chromaticity coordinates:

"y is not greater than 0.335 and
"z is not greater than 0.002

"(b) Aviation green is a color having the following ICI chromaticity coordinates:

"x is not greater than 0.440–0.320y
"x is not greater than y–0.170 and
"y is not less than 0.390–0.170x

"(c) Aviation white is a color having the following ICI chromaticity coordinates:

"x is not less than 0.350
"x is not greater than 0.540
"y-$y_c$ is not numerically greater than 0.01

"$y_c$ being the y coordinate of the Planckian radiator for which $x_c$=x.

"§ 15.203 Light covers. The lamp and reflectors shall be protected by a cover which shall be of non-combustible material and so constructed that it will not change color or shape, or cloud, or suffer any considerable loss of transmission in normal use. The coloring of those portions which are intended to transmit light shall be completely diffused through the material."

By the Authority.

[1] These regulations amend the indicated section and paragraph of Part 71, Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION

IN THE MATTER OF THE PUBLIC HEARING FOR PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE UPON BASIS OF WHICH REGULATION MAY BE PROMULGATED FIXING AND ESTABLISHING DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR EACH OF THE FOLLOWING FOODS: TOMATO PUREE, TOMATO PASTE, TOMATO CATSUP, TOMATO JUICE

ORDER OF THE SECRETARY PROMULGATING REGULATIONS FIXING AND ESTABLISHING A REASONABLE DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR THE FOOD KNOWN UNDER ITS COMMON OR USUAL NAME AS TOMATO JUICE

Pursuant to, and under and by virtue of, the authority and direction of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U.S.C. 371 (e); Sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046; 21 U.S.C. 341), and based upon substantial evidence of record at the hearing[1] in the above-entitled matter, detailed findings of fact are made, as follows:

Ordinarily the term "juice" means a clear liquid which separates from a fruit, and in many cases, a filtered liquid; associated with the word "tomato" it has come to mean both the liquid portion of the tomato and a part of the flesh which has been finely divided and carried in suspension.

Tomato juice is not a concentrated product.

Tomato juice is prepared from mature tomatoes of red or reddish varieties by a succession of treatments including washing before and after sorting, trimming, scalding, crushing and screening with or without heat to extract a part of the liquid and insoluble materials.

[1] 3 F.R. 3012 DI.

The seeds, skins, cores, and a portion of the fleshy material are excluded.

It may be homogenized or viscolized to prevent the fleshy material from settling out. Salt may be added. When it is sealed in containers, it is so heated before or after sealing as to prevent spoilage.

One firm heats the crushed tomatoes by live steam before extraction and heats the juice to a point calculated to compensate by evaporation for the water added by condensation. Steam condensate forms when steam is applied to crushed tomatoes. In the course of manufacture by this method, the amount of water thus added is approximately 11 percent. The evaporation removes a certain amount of the volatile flavoring constituents of the tomato. The reduction in volume by evaporation removes only part of the water which was added as steam condensate. The remainder of the reduction in volume comes from the evaporation of moisture originally present in the tomatoes. The finished product consists of partially concentrated tomato juice (some of the volatile flavoring constituents of the tomato having been lost in the evaporation) with sufficient added water to make up the approximate original volume of the tomato juice.

Most firms manufacturing tomato juice do not use a process whereby live steam comes directly in contact with the crushed tomatoes, and thereafter forms a steam condensate. Various manufacturers heretofore used such a process whereby live steam came in contact with crushed tomatoes, resulting in an adding of steam condensate, but there has been an abandonment of such use, with one exception as noted in Finding 4.

The natural constituents of the food commonly known as tomato juice are derived wholly from tomatoes, with salt as an optional ingredient.

Tomato juice varies in flavor, specific gravity, viscosity, and vitamin content.

It is impracticable to establish a reasonable definition and standard of identity for tomato juice with fixed specific gravity, ascorbic acid content, proportion of soluble to insoluble solids or percentage of other ingredients.

The foregoing findings of fact apply to a product prepared from yellow varieties of tomatoes except that when yellow varieties of tomatoes are used the product is known as and labeled yellow tomato juice.

Other findings suggested by the Presiding Officer are not found because they relate either to standards of quality or to matters governed by section 402 of the act. [cf. Sec. 10.000 (c), General Rules and Regulations Promulgated July 27, 1939]

Based upon the foregoing findings of fact, conclusions in the form of regulations which will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers are hereby made and promulgated, as follows:

Regulations Under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetics Act for Fixing and Establishing a Reasonable Definition and Standard of Identity for the Food Known Under Its Common or Usual Name as Tomato Juice

§ 53.000 Tomato juice—Identity. Tomato juice is the unconcentrated liquid extracted from mature tomatoes of red or reddish varieties, with or without scalding followed by draining. In the extraction of such liquid, heat may be applied by any method which does not add water thereto. Such liquid is strained free from skins, seeds, and other coarse or hard substances, but carries finely divided insoluble solids from the flesh of the tomato. Such liquid may be homogenized, and may be seasoned with salt. When sealed in a container it is so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage.

§ 53.005 Yellow tomato juice—Identity. Yellow tomato juice is the unconcentrated liquid extracted from mature tomatoes of yellow varieties. It conforms, in all other respects, to the definition and standard of identity for tomato juice prescribed in section 53.000.

It is ordered that the regulation hereby prescribed and promulgated shall become effective on January 1, 1940.

Issued this the 27th day of July 1939.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

IN THE MATTER OF THE PUBLIC HEARING FOR PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE UPON BASIS OF WHICH REGULATION MAY BE PROMULGATED FIXING AND ESTABLISHING DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR EACH OF THE FOLLOWING FOODS: TOMATO PUREE, TOMATO PASTE, TOMATO CATSUP, TOMATO JUICE

ORDER OF THE SECRETARY PROMULGATING A REGULATION FIXING AND ESTABLISHING A REASONABLE DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR THE FOOD KNOWN UNDER ITS COMMON OR USUAL NAME AS TOMATO CATSUP

Pursuant to, and under and by virtue of, the authority and direction of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U.S.C. 371 (e); Sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046; 21 U.S.C. 341), and based upon substantial evidence of record at the hearing[1] in the above-entitled matter, detailed findings of fact are made, as follows:

Tomatoes used in the manufacture of tomato catsup are mature tomatoes of red or reddish varieties.

The terms "catsup," "ketchup," "catchup," are synonymous names for the same food.

The raw materials used are:

(1) Whole tomatoes;
(2) Residual tomato material from preparation for canning, consisting of pieces, cores, peelings, liquid, in whole or in part;
(3) Residual tomato material from partial extraction of juice.
(4) Tomato catsup is made from any one of the above sources of raw material, or any combination thereof.

When tomato catsup is manufactured in whole or in part from residual tomato material from preparation for canning or from partial extraction of juice, the label shall declare the raw-material ingredients used.

Tomato catsup is manufactured by crushing and straining whole tomatoes or residual tomato material from preparation for canning or from partial extraction of juice, so as to remove seeds, skins, cores, and other coarse or hard substances, and packing so as to prevent spoilage.

A sweetening agent is always added.

Sugar may be used as a sweetening agent.

A mixture of sugar and dextrose (refined corn sugar) may be used as a sweetening agent.

Dextrose (refined corn sugar) may be used in lieu of a part of the sugar; about 1½ to 1¾ parts of dextrose are required to replace 1 part of sugar; the use of dextrose in substitution for sugar creates a greater viscosity or body than the use of sugar alone; dextrose is not as sweet as sugar.

10

Salt is always added as seasoning.

11

A vinegar, usually distilled vinegar, is added.

12

Spices, in the form of whole or ground spice, or flavoring, in the form of spice oil, or both such spice and flavoring, are added.

13

Onions and garlic, either or both, are usually added.

The finished catsup is usually sealed in a container processed so as to insure its keeping, and such processing may be effected either before or after sealing.

Other findings suggested by the Presiding Officer are not found because they relate either to standards of quality or to matters governed by section 402 of the act. [cf. Sec. 10.000 (c), General Rules and Regulations Promulgated July 25, 1939]

Based upon the foregoing findings of fact, a conclusion in the form of a regulation which will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers is hereby made and promulgated, as follows:

Regulation Under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act for Fixing and Establishing a Reasonable Definition and Standard of Identity for the Food Known Under Its Common or Usual Name as Tomato Catsup

§ 53.010 Catsup, Ketchup, Catchup—Identity; Labeling of Optional Ingredients. (a) Catsup, Ketchup, Catchup, is the food prepared from one or any combination of two or all of the following optional ingredients:

(1) The liquid obtained from mature tomatoes of red or reddish varieties.
(2) The liquid obtained from the residue from preparing such tomatoes for canning, consisting of peelings and cores with or without such tomatoes or pieces thereof.
(3) The liquid obtained from the residue from partial extraction of juice from such tomatoes. Such liquid is obtained by so straining such tomatoes or residue, with or without heating, as to exclude skins, seeds, and other coarse or hard substances. It is concentrated, and is seasoned with sugar or a mixture of sugar and dextrose (refined corn sugar), salt, a vinegar or vinegars, spices or flavoring or both, and onions or garlic or both. When sealed in a container it is so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage.

(b) When optional ingredient (2) is present, in whole or in part, the label shall bear the statement "Made From —" (or "Made in Part From —", as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Canning". When optional ingredient (3) is present, in whole or in part, the label shall bear the statement "Made From —" (or "Made in Part From —", as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Partial Extraction of Juice". If both such ingredients are present, such statements may be combined in the statement "Made From —" (or "Made in Part From —", as the case may be) "Residual Tomato Material from Canning and from Partial Extraction of Juice". Wherever the name "Catsup," "Ketchup," or "Catchup" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement or statements herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

It is ordered that the regulation hereby prescribed and promulgated shall become effective on January 1, 1940.

Issued this 25th day of July 1939.

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION

AMENDMENT OF REGULATION XIII OF THE REGULATIONS ISSUED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR IN CONNECTION WITH PROPERTY IMPROVEMENT LOANS UNDER TITLE I OF THE NATIONAL HOUSING ACT, AS AMENDED, EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1939

Section 3 of Regulation XIII (appears as Section 501.13 (c) at 4 F.R. 2790 DI) is amended to read as follows:

(3) Shall be expended in erecting a new structure on real estate owned by the borrower in fee simple, or held by the borrower under a lease expiring not less than ten years after the maturity of the loan.

The Amendment contained herein is hereby declared to have the same force and effect as if included in and made a part of each Contract of Insurance, and shall be effective July 25, 1939.

STEWART MCDONALD,

TITLE 45—PUBLIC WELFARE

CIVILIAN CONSERVATION CORPS

PART 203—ENROLLMENT, DISCHARGE, HOSPITALIZATION, DEATH AND BURIAL OF ENROLLEES[1]

§ 203.3 Eligibility for selection and reselection—(a) Selection—(1) Function of the selecting agencies. Selection and reselection of enrollees are the responsibilities of the State selecting agencies. Junior and veteran applicants are selected and certified to the War Department under definite policies as to eligibility approved by the Director, Civilian Conservation Corps, and duly announced to their respective field agents by the Federal agencies concerned. Men so selected and certified will present properly executed application forms duly signed by the authorized selecting agents of the Department of Labor or the Veterans' Administration, as the case may be. The War Department does not participate in selection or reselection.

(2) Excluded from selection and enrollment. The following classes of persons are excluded from selection and enrollment:

(i) Those who are not male citizens of the United States.

(ii) Those (other than war veterans, and not to exceed one leader, one mess steward, three cooks, and five project assistants per junior company) who are married and/or who would not be, during the entire period of enrollment, between the ages of 17 and 23 years, both inclusive.

(iii) Those who have been previously dishonorably or administratively discharged.

(iv) Those who have been convicted by a civil or military court of an offense which may be punished by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding 1 year.

(v) Those serving a current term of probation or parole by reason of a sentence of a criminal court because of the commission of any crime or misdemeanor.

(vi) Civil law enforcement officers such as justices of the peace, sheriffs, game wardens, and their deputies.

(vii) Members of the National Guard of a State, a territory, or the District of Columbia.

(viii) Unworthy enrollees. (50 Stat. 319) [Par. 19a, C.C.C. Regs., W. D., Dec. 1, 1937; amended by C 31, July 18, 1939]

§ 203.7 Enrollment—(a) Oath, duration, and place. Certified selectees who pass the required physical examination upon subscribing to the oath on C.C.C. Form No. 1 will be enrolled, for periods of not less than 6 months, at—

(1) Place of acceptance, when the physical examination is given at that place and the corps area commander deems it expedient to direct such action, or,

(2) Reconditioning or work camps designated by the corps area commander.

(b) Action in case of fraudulent application for enrollment. An applicant rejected by reason of falsification of qualifications is not entitled to transportation in kind nor subsistence en route to place of selection or to his home.

[1] Part 203, Chapter II, Title 45, Code of Federal Regulations is changed as follows: Paragraph (a), Section 203.3 and section 203.7 are superseded; Section 203.18 is amended as indicated.

(c) Action in case of fraudulent and erroneous enrollment. (1) Persons in any of the classifications listed in paragraphs (a) (2) and (b), section 203.3, if enrolled or reenrolled fraudulently, will be dishonorably discharged by the company commander for "fraudulent enrollment" and will not be paid for any period subsequent to the last payment made to them prior to the discovery of the fraud. Transportation will be in accordance with paragraph (b) (6), section 203.18.

(2) (i) Persons in any of the classifications listed in paragraphs (a) (2) and (b), section 203.3, if erroneously enrolled or reenrolled without fraud will be forthwith administratively discharged, except that members of the National Guard and civil law enforcement officers may, in such cases, be honorably discharged. Except in the case of those listed in paragraphs (a) (2) (i) and (ii) and the first subparagraph of paragraph (b), section 203.3, persons administratively discharged under authority of this paragraph will be paid full accumulated cash allowance to date of discharge and provided with the usual subsistence allowance and transportation. See paragraph (c), section 203.18.

(ii) Those erroneously enrolled or reenrolled without fraud under paragraphs (a) (2) (i) and (ii) and the first subparagraph or paragraph (b), section 203.3 and administratively discharged under the provisions of (i) above will not be paid for any period subsequent to the last payment made to them prior to the discovery of the error, but will be provided with transportation in accordance with paragraph (c), section 203.18.

(3) It will be the duty of the company commander upon discovering that an enrollee has become a member of the Civilian Conservation Corps through falsification of qualifications for selection to report the facts to the appropriate State selecting agency whose field agents originally certified the individual for enrollment. Except as noted in (1) and (2) above, discharge from the Civilian Conservation Corps is not mandatory in cases of revealed falsification of qualification. Corps area commanders will determine the final disposition of each case, considering the recommendation received from the State selecting agency, and discharge under the provision of this subparagraph will be the exception rather than the rule. (50 Stat. 319) [Par. 25c, C.C.C. Regs., W.D., Dec. 1, 1937; amended by C 31, July 18, 1939]

(b) Transportation in kind from places of discharge.

* * * * * *

(7) Dishonorable discharge. When an enrollee is given a dishonorable discharge, he will not be furnished either transportation in kind or travel allowances of any nature, except that he will be permitted to return to his home or place of acceptance at Government expense with the next group of discharged enrollees leaving the camp from which he was discharged at the end of their enrollments or, in case he is in a foreign corps area, with those being returned to their home corps area for discharge. When he is permitted to travel as authorized above, he will be furnished all allowances that are furnished to the other enrollees or ex-enrollees with whom he is traveling, except that, when train accommodations permit, his space assignment will be in a coach, not a sleeping car or parlor car. (See paragraph (c) below.)

* * * * * *

(c) Transportation of enrollees discharged administratively. Enrollees who are discharged administratively will be furnished transportation only (no berths, parlor-car seats, or staterooms), regardless of the length of the journey, on the basis as prescribed in paragraph (b) above. Transportation requests will be addressed to rail carriers and endorsed in the transportation class space with the words "Good in coaches only." See paragraph (b) (7) above.

DEFINITIONS[1]

The following definitions shall apply to the provisions of this chapter:

Authority

§ 8.1 Communications Act. The term "Communications Act" means the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.*†

§ 8.2 Ship Act. The term "Ship Act" means the Act approved June 24, 1910, as amended, requiring apparatus and operators for radio communication on certain Great Lakes steamers.*†

§ 8.3 Safety Convention. The term "Safety Convention" means the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea in force[2] and the regulations referred to therein.*†

§ 8.4 Commission. The term "Commission" means the Federal Communications Commission.*†

§ 8.5 Standards of good engineering practice for ship stations. The term "Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations" as used in this Chapter means a supplemental publication bearing this title as may be hereafter approved and promulgated by the Commission.*†

§ 8.6 Exemption certificate. The term "Exemption Certificate" means a certificate issued to a ship which is granted exemption from applicable provisions of the Safety Convention.[3]*†

§ 8.7 Safety certificate. The term "Safety Certificate" means a certificate issued upon application, after inspection and survey by proper authorities, to a passenger ship which complies in an efficient manner with the requirements of the Safety Convention[3].*†

§ 8.8 Safety radiotelegraph certificate. The term "Safety Radiotelegraphy Certificate" means a certificate issued upon application, after inspection by proper authorities, to any ship, other than a passenger ship, which complies in an efficient manner with the requirements of the Safety Convention.[3] *†

Installations

§ 8.9 Main installation. The term "main installation" means a radio installation on board a vessel, including a main transmitter and a main receiver, capable of being used for transmitting and receiving signals to and from other stations in the maritime mobile service; independent of the emergency or reserve installation on a passenger or cargo ship; or under specified conditions[4] independent of the emergency power supply on a cargo ship.*†

§ 8.10 Emergency or reserve installation. The term "emergency or reserve installation" or "emergency installation" means a radio installation on board a vessel, including an emergency transmitter, an emergency receiver, emergency electric lights and an emergency power supply, capable of being used for transmitting and receiving signals to and from other stations in the maritime mobile service when energized solely by the emergency power supply.*†

§ 8.11 Emergency power supply. The term "emergency power supply" means an immediately available source or sources of electrical power on board a ship, independent of the propelling power of the ship and any other electrical system, capable of simultaneously energizing the emergency transmitter, the emergency receiver, and the radio station emergency electric light(s).*†

§ 8.12 Direction finder. The term "direction finder" means a radio receiving device which permits determination of the line of travel of radio waves at the point of reception.*†

§ 8.13 Energize. The term "energize", as applied in these regulations, to transmitters, receivers and other component equipment of ship radio installations, means to supply with electrical power as necessary to provide normal and effective operation of this equipment.*†

Transmitters

§ 8.14 Emergency transmitter. The term "emergency transmitter" means a transmitter immediately available in a ship station for emergency communication and capable of being energized solely by the emergency power supply.*†

§ 8.15 Main transmitter. The term "main transmitter" means a radio transmitter regularly available in a ship station for routine communication which ordinarily is energized by a source of power other than the emergency power supply.*†

[3] The International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea, London, 1929, became effective for the United States on November 7, 1936.

[4] See Section 354 (a) of the Communications Act.

Receivers

§ 8.16 Automatic alarm receiver. The term "automatic alarm receiver" means a complete receiving, selecting, and warning device capable of being actuated automatically by intercepted radio-frequency waves forming the international automatic alarm signal, as this signal is specified by the International Radio Regulations in force.*†

§ 8.17 Direction finder receiver. The term "direction finder receiver" means a receiver which is a component of a radio direction finder.*†

§ 8.18 Emergency receiver. The term "emergency receiver" means a receiver immediately available in a ship station for emergency communication and capable of being energized solely by the emergency power supply.*†

§ 8.19 Main receiver. The term "main receiver" means a receiver regularly available in a ship station for routine communication which ordinarily is energized by a source of power other than the emergency power supply.*†

Service of a Ship Station

§ 8.20 Maritime mobile service. The general term "maritime mobile service" means a radio service carried on between maritime mobile stations and land stations, and by maritime mobile stations communicating among themselves.*†

§ 8.21 Ship service. The term "ship service" means a radiocommunication service carried on between ship stations and coastal stations or between ship stations and maritime mobile stations.*†

§ 8.22 Public ship service. The term "public ship service" means a ship service open to public correspondence.*†

§ 8.23 Private ship service. The term "private ship service" means a ship service not open to public correspondence.*†

§ 8.24 Emergency communication. The term "emergency communication" with respect to ship stations means the transmission or reception of distress, alarm, urgent or safety signals, or messages relating thereto, or any matter relating to the safety of life or property, or occasional operation of equipment for determining whether or not the radio installation is in good working condition.*†

§ 8.25 Routine communication. The term "routine communication" with respect to ship stations means all operation authorized for such stations which is not included in the definition of "emergency communication."*†

§ 8.26 Hours of service. The term "hours of service" or "duration of service" means the time during which a ship station is held open for the exchange of message traffic with other stations in the maritime mobile service.*†

Stations

§ 8.27 Ship station. The term "ship station" means a radio station licensed for ship service and located on board a ship which is not permanently moored.*†

§ 8.28 Ship telegraph station. The term "ship telegraph station" means a ship station licensed to use, and capable of using, type A–1, A–2, or B[1] emission.*†

§ 8.29 Ship telephone station. The term "ship telephone station" means a ship station licensed to use, and capable of using, type A–3 emission for speech transmission.*†

§ 8.30 Maritime mobile station. The general term "maritime mobile station" means a ship station or an aircraft station at sea.*†

Watch

§ 8.31 Radio watch. The term "radio watch" or "watch" means the service performed by a qualified operator when on duty in the radio room of a vessel listening for signals of other stations on the international calling and distress frequency, 500 kilocycles (410 kilocycles on the Great Lakes), at least during each international silent period and at all other times except when such operator, in conformity with the International Radio Regulations in force and subject to authority of the master, is engaged in transmitting or receiving signals or messages on any authorized frequency, to or from any station in the maritime mobile service, or in receiving from any station time signals, weather reports, hydrographic reports, reports regarding aids to navigation, authorized press material, or information regarding the safety of life or property at sea.*†

GENERAL

§ 8.41 Interference to be minimized. Before transmitting, a ship station shall make sure that it will not produce harmful interference with communications being carried on within its range. If such interference is likely, the station shall wait until the existing communications, which it may disturb, have been concluded; with due regard, nevertheless, for the priority of communications designated by Section 8.42.*†

§ 8.42 Order of priority of communications. The order of priority of radiotelegraph and radiotelephone communications in the maritime mobile service on any frequency used for this service shall be as follows:

(a) Distress calls, distress messages, and distress traffic.

(b) Communications preceded by an urgent signal.

(c) Communications preceded by a safety signal.

(d) Communications relative to radio direction-finder bearings.

(e) Government radiotelegrams for which priority right has not been waived.

(f) All other communications.*†

§ 8.43 Mobile station in distress. No provision of these rules or of any regulations shall prevent a mobile station in distress from using any means available to it for drawing attention, signalling its position, and obtaining help.*†

§ 8.44 Transmission of alarm signal. When a distress call has been transmitted and was not preceded by the international automatic alarm signal, a station in the maritime mobile service (except on the Great Lakes) within the general vicinity of the station which transmitted the distress call, may transmit the alarm signal (using type A–2 or B emission) on the frequency 500 kilocycles upon authorization of the master or other person responsible for the station, provided every reasonable precaution is observed not to interfere with the acknowledgment of receipt of the distress call nor with distress traffic already in progress.*†

§ 8.45 Repetition of distress call. If a ship station has heard a distress call or distress message for which acknowledgment of receipt has not been given promptly, and the ship station itself is not in a position to render assistance, the ship station, subject to authority of the master, shall make every effort possible to attract the attention of any station in the maritime mobile service which appears to be in a position to render assistance, and for this purpose transmission of the distress call and distress message may be repeated on 500 kilocycles (410 kilocycles on the Great Lakes) and on such other frequencies as may be deemed necessary. Except on the Great Lakes, the ship station if authorized by the master may transmit for this purpose the international automatic alarm signal on the frequency 500 kilocycles (using type A–2 or B emission) prior to repetition of the distress call and message. In the event the alarm signal is transmitted, a sufficient period of time to allow operators warned by the alarm signal to go on watch shall be observed after transmission of the alarm signal and before retransmission of the distress message.*†

§ 8.46 Repetition of alarm signal. Except on the Great Lakes, a ship station intercepting an international automatic alarm signal which appears to be not duly effective by reason of improper timing, improper type of emission, insufficient signal strength, interference, or excessive deviation from 500 kilocycles, if authorized, by the master, may repeat the transmission of this signal on the frequency 500 kilocycles (using type A–2 or B emission) to be followed by a repetition of the distress call and distress message provided all reasonable precaution is taken by such station not to interfere with acknowledgment of receipt of the distress call nor with distress traffic already in progress.*†

[1]Beginning January 1, 1940, type B emission is not authorized for ship stations of U. S. registry, except in case of distress. See Section 8.71.

§ 8.47 Interference from A–2 emission. Beginning January 1, 1941, the use of A–2 emission, which is generated by abrupt[1] interruptions or reductions of the carrier wave, at an audible frequency or frequencies, without reference to the usual interruptions caused by ordinary telegraphic keying, shall be prohibited for ship stations on frequencies below 30,000 kilocycles except when necessary for emergency communication.*†

§ 8.48 Priority of operation of ship station. From the standpoint of interference, the operation of a ship radio station, including receiving equipment, auto alarm, and direction-finder, installed on board a vessel for safety purposes in compliance with law, shall have priority over the operation of any other radio apparatus on board the same vessel.*†

§ 8.49 Operating power. The operating power of ship stations shall be computed in conformity with the terms of Section 2.79 of Part 2: Provided, however, That the multiplying factor to which reference is made in paragraph (a) and the method of measuring field intensity to which reference is made in paragraph (c) of Section 2.79, shall be in accordance with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations promulgated by the Commission.*†

§ 8.50 Communication with coastal harbor stations. All ship telephone stations, when operating on a frequency below 3500 kilocycles or above 30,000 kilocycles for communication with a coastal harbor station open to public correspondence, shall communicate with the nearest station of this class whenever practicable under the prevailing conditions of transmission and reception.*†

LICENSE

§ 8.61 Ship station license. All new or renewal ship station licenses normally will be issued to expire at 3:00 a. m., E. S. T. on a date three years from the date on which they become effective.*†

§ 8.62 Classes of ship stations. Ship stations will be licensed by classes according to their hours of service as follows:

(a) First Class: These stations shall carry on a continuous service whenever the vessel is being navigated or is outside a harbor or port.

(b) Second Class: These stations shall carry on a designated service of limited duration whenever the vessel is being navigated or is outside a harbor or port; at least during the period designated for ship stations of the second category in the appendix of the General Radio Regulations in force annexed to the International Telecommunication Convention in force, or as otherwise designated by the station license.

(c) Third Class: These stations, when operated, shall carry on a service the duration of which is undetermined or which is determined by the master of the vessel.*†

§ 8.63 Posting of licenses. The original ship radio station license, and the original license of each operator of the ship station while he is on duty therein, shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the associated radio operating room on board the ship, except when any operator license has been submitted to the Commission in accordance with relevant provisions of Part 13.*†

§ 8.64 Lifeboat stations. Properly licensed[1] lifeboat radio transmitting equipment may be operated for maintenance tests and emergency communication under authority of the regular license of the ship station without a separate license posted in the lifeboat. The call signals to be used by a lifeboat operating under this rule shall be the regularly assigned call of the ship station to which the lifeboat is regularly attached, to be followed by the international break sign, BT, and the number of the lifeboat.*†

§ 8.65 Cable marker buoy. Provided the transmitting equipment to be used on a cable marker buoy is described in the application for ship radio station license and in the ship station license for a cable-repair ship with which the buoy is associated, such equipment may be operated on the frequency 278 kilocycles for direction finding purposes, under the regular license of the ship station, with A–1 or A–2 emission and a maximum power of ten watts. The call signals to be used for a transmitter operating under this Section shall be the regularly assigned call of the ship station with which the buoy is associated, to be followed by the international break sign, $\overline{BT}$, and the identifying number of the buoy. The buoy transmitter shall be continuously monitored by a regularly licensed operator aboard the associated cable repair ship. Should a frequency deviation in excess of 0.5 percent or interference to the service of any other station be reported or observed, the radiation of the transmitter shall be suspended until the deviation is eliminated or until the transmitter can be operated without causing interference.*†

§ 8.66 Authority to communicate with amateur stations. Upon formal application being made and duly executed, including a supplemental statement in reference to conditions (a) and (b) hereinafter specified, the Commission may grant a license, modification of license, renewal of license or special temporary authority, permitting a ship telegraph station, on board a non-commercial vessel or on board a vessel to be used for scientific research or expedition, to transmit on ship telegraph frequencies above 4,000 kilocycles designated in the license of such ship station, for the secondary purpose of exchanging radiotelegraph communications directly with licensed amateur stations, on condition that transmission for this purpose shall not interfere with the primary use of these frequencies for normal ship service, and provided the applicant makes a satisfactory showing that:

(a) The messages to be exchanged with amateur stations will contain no material relating directly or indirectly to a commercial transaction.

(b) Unusual circumstances will be encountered during the contemplated voyage(s) which will make direct communication with amateur stations extremely beneficial to persons on board the vessel or to the person(s) responsible for the scientific research or expedition for which the vessel is to be used.*†

§ 8.67 Communication with foreign amateur stations. Under the provisions of Section 8.66, communication with amateur stations of foreign countries shall be limited to communications with such stations as are authorized to communicate with the ship station concerned; in addition, the nature of the communications exchanged with foreign amateur stations shall be in accordance with the General Radio Regulations in force of the International Telecommunication Convention in force and in conformity with the regulations of the foreign administration having jurisdiction over the amateur station(s) involved.*†

§ 8.68 Use of A–1 and A–2 emission by ship telephone stations. Ship telephone stations are authorized to use A–1 and A–2 emission for calling, for brief testing, for the transmission of brief service messages and for communication in an emergency involving the safety of life or property.*†

§ 8.69 Use of special emission. Upon application, ship stations normally licensed to transmit on frequencies above 4000 kilocycles may be granted authority to use special emission upon a secondary basis, provided the applicant makes a satisfactory showing of the need for this type of emission and upon condition that no increase in interference to the service of other stations will result.*†

§ 8.70 Points of communication. Unless otherwise specified in the license, a ship station is authorized to communicate with coastal stations and maritime mobile stations, without regard to the country to which these stations belong, and with mobile press stations in conformity with Sections 11.11 and 11.12 of Part 11.*†

[1]This Section relates in particular to the electro-mechanical transmitting device commonly known as a "chopper", employed mainly in connection with arc transmitters and electron-tube transmitters of early design.

[1]Operation of the lifeboat radio transmitting equipment will be specifically authorized by the regular ship station license when it has been described in the application for such license.

§ 8.71 Damped wave emission. (a) Licenses, or any other instruments of authorization for the operation of any ship radio station using, or proposing to use, transmitting apparatus employing damped-wave emission, will not be issued after December 31, 1939.

(b) Prior to January 1, 1940, a license will be issued for the operation of any ship radio station using, or proposing to use, transmitting apparatus employing damped-wave emission only if such apparatus was installed on board the ship prior to January 1, 1930. Subject to this limitation a license will be issued authorizing until January 1, 1940, the operation of damped-wave transmitting apparatus on board a ship station on the following frequencies:

Calling: 500 kc (other than Great Lakes)
410 kc (Great Lakes only)
Working: 375 and 425 kc.

(c) The provisions of this Section supersede any authorization contained in existing ship station licenses issued by the Commission that may be in conflict herewith.*†

FREQUENCIES

§ 8.81 Ship service. The following frequencies in kilocycles are allocated to the following types of ship stations; provided that in assigning any frequency designated in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the use of that frequency may be restricted to communication with coastal telephone or coastal harbor stations in one or more specified geographical areas.

(a) To ship telegraph stations for communication primarily with coastal telegraph stations upon condition that emission on frequencies within the band 143–160 kc, inclusive, shall be A–1 only:

§ 8.82 International calling and distress frequency. The international calling and distress frequency is 500 kilocycles. In the Great Lakes region the frequency 410 kilocycles shall be used for calling and distress purposes in lieu of the international calling and distress frequency 500 kilocycles.*†

§ 8.83 Use of distress frequency. The international calling and distress frequency 500 kilocycles (410 kilocycles on the Great Lakes only) shall be used by ship stations and aircraft stations in requesting help from the maritime services. In addition it may be used only for calls and replies, for distress traffic, for urgent and safety messages, and for operating signals.*

§ 8.84 Use of other frequencies for distress. In case of distress, if it is not possible to use the international distress frequency, any station of the maritime mobile service may use any other frequency available to it to call attention, report the position of the ship or aircraft in distress, and obtain help.*†

§ 8.85 Use of 143 kilocycles and other calling frequencies. In no case shall the calling frequencies 143 and 500 kilocycles (410 kilocycles on the Great Lakes) be used for working purposes except as may be necessary for the handling of distress, urgent, or safety messages. Other calling frequencies may be used for working purposes, provided no interference is caused to calls from mobile stations.*†

[13] Not available for use on the Great Lakes or on inland waters.

§ 8.86 Use of working frequencies. Frequencies designated in a ship station license as "working" may be used for all purposes for which calling frequencies are authorized and in addition may be used for the handling of regular message traffic.*†

§ 8.87 Operation in territorial waters of the United States. The operation of any radio station on board any vessel within the territorial waters of the United States shall be in accordance with the following limitations:

(a) The frequencies used shall be those allocated for use by mobile stations by the International Radio Regulations in force.

(b) The use of radio equipment shall not interfere with the normal communication of other radio services, and the minimum power necessary for establishing communication shall be used.

(c) Only messages originating with passengers or members of the crew on board a ship may be transmitted; i. e., no message shall be handled unless it is one that normally would be routed in the maritime mobile service.

(d) Except for the handling of emergency communications, a ship station on board a vessel alongside the dock or at anchor in a harbor of the United States shall not use damped waves (type B emission).*†

§ 8.88 Use of frequencies by foreign ships. Except for the handling of emergency communications relating to the safe navigation of the vessel, and the handling of messages relating to ships in distress, the privileges designated by Section 8.87 are extended only to those foreign ships which belong to countries extending similar privileges to ships of United States registry in their territorial waters.*†

§ 8.89 Use of radio by foreign men-of-war. The use of radio by foreign men-of-war in United States ports and territorial waters is prohibited unless authorized by appropriate United States authorities on frequencies allocated to the mobile service by the International Radio Regulations in force, upon condition that no interference will result to the service carried on by other stations. Normally, requests from foreign men-of-war to use their radio equipment for communications while in United States ports and territorial waters shall be made to one of the naval district commandants [14] or, after arrival in port, to the senior United States naval officer present. When a naval officer is not present, requests shall be made to the port authorities, or to the Navy Department, Washington, D. C.*†

[14] The headquarters of District Commandants concerned are located at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Norfolk, Charleston, South Carolina; San Diego, San Francisco, Seattle, Pearl Harbor, Territory of Hawaii; Balboa, Canal Zone, and Cavite, Philippine Islands. In addition to having senior naval officers stationed at these places, the Navy has officers performing various duties at practically all other important United States ports. The authority to grant such requests is lodged in the official who is authorized to receive the request.

§ 8.90 Direction finder frequency. The frequency 375 kilocycles shall be used only for transmissions relative to determining the positions of mobile stations by means of radio direction finding stations.*†

§ 8.91 Additional frequencies. In addition to the frequencies designated in the license of a ship station, such station, when communicating with a land station, may transmit:

(a) On any working frequency between 110 and 194 kilocycles when directed to do so by a coastal telegraph station operating in this band, provided no interference results to the service of any other land or fixed station, and provided that on frequencies below 160 kilocycles the emission shall be A–1 only. Under the provisions of this section, the operating frequency of the ship station shall be specifically designated by the coastal station.

(b) On a working frequency within the band 385 to 23,000 kilocycles used by a coastal telegraph station when directed to do so by the coastal station to which the frequency is assigned.

(c) On a United States government frequency when directed to do so by a station of the government department to which the frequency is assigned. The ship station operating frequency and the type of emission on this frequency shall be designated by the government station, provided that on frequencies below 160 kilocycles the emission shall be A–1 only.*†

§ 8.92 Record of frequency adjustments. In ship stations licensed to operate on frequencies within the band 365 to 515 kilocycles, a written record shall be maintained of the adjustments of the transmitting and receiving equipment for operation on the frequencies 375 and 500 kilocycles and at least one working frequency in this band. This record of adjustments shall be posted at all times in a conspicuous place on or near the particular equipment involved.*†

§ 8.93 Control of carrier wave in telephony. When communicating on 2738, 35860 or 37660 kilocycles the transmitter carrier wave of all ship telephone stations, after July 1, 1940, shall be either automatically "voice-controlled" or controlled manually by the person whose speech is being transmitted.*†

§ 8.94 Shared use of 2738 kilocycles. In regions [15] of heavy radio traffic, any one exchange of communications between any two ship stations, or between a ship and a coastal station, on the frequency 2738 kilocycles shall not exceed 10 minutes in duration. Subsequent to such exchange of communications, this frequency shall not again be used for communication between the same two stations until 15 minutes have elapsed, provided that this requirement shall in no way limit or delay the transmission of distress or emergency communications.*†

[15] For the purpose of this section, a region of heavy radio traffic is any geographical area in which a plurality of ship telephone stations licensed to use the frequency 2738 kilocycles are located within interference range of each other.

§ 8.95 Use of frequency 2738 kilocycles. The frequency 2738 kilocycles shall be used by ship telephone stations primarily for the exchange of communications relating to the safety of navigation and to the ship's business. The exchange of any other communications on this frequency is authorized upon the express condition that interference shall not be caused to the handling of messages relating to the safety of navigation and the ship's business with due regard to the priority of communications designated by Section 8.42.*†

§ 8.96 Frequency tolerance. The licensee of each ship station shall maintain the operating frequency within a tolerance of plus or minus the assigned frequency as specified in the following table:

RADIO INSTALLATION

§ 8.111 Approval of installation and electrical wiring. All ship radio station installations, including the electrical wiring interconnecting all components thereof, shall comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission and with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations promulgated by the Commission.*†

§ 8.112 Installation on board cargo vessels. Whenever a main installation only is provided on board a cargo vessel in accordance with the terms of Section 354 (a) of the Communications Act, this installation shall comply in full with all rules and regulations of the Commission that apply to emergency or reserve installations on board vessels subject to Title III, Part II of said Act.*†

§ 8.113 Separate main and emergency installations. A radio installation on board a vessel subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act, to be construed as a main installation and a separate emergency or reserve installation, shall comply with the following conditions, in addition to all other requirements:

(a) A main transmitter and an associated main receiver shall be installed.

[16] Par. 6 (3), Art. 9, of the General Radio Regulations of Cairo, 1938, provides that all ship stations transmitting on frequencies in the band 100 to 160 kilocycles and on frequencies above 4,000 kilocycles must be equipped with a wavemeter (frequency meter) having a precision at least equal to .005 (0.5%) when the transmitter itself is incapable of being adjusted with this precision or better. For this purpose, the Commission will accept a master-oscillator of a ship station electron tube transmitter in lieu of the frequency meter prescribed by this international regulation, provided the calibration of the said transmitter and of the circuit as a whole is such as to permit the convenient adjustment of the transmitter to its licensed frequencies within the tolerance for ship stations specified by Section 8.96.

(b) A separate emergency transmitter and an associated separate emergency receiver shall be installed.

(c) Emergency electric lights shall be installed.

(d) An emergency power supply shall be installed.*†

§ 8.114 Requirements of main installation. All main installations on board vessels subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act shall comply with the following conditions, in addition to all other requirements:

(a) The main transmitter shall be capable of transmitting by means of A–2 emission (or type B emission until January 1, 1940) on the distress frequency 500 kilocycles, the direction-finding frequency 375 kilocycles, and at least one working frequency within the band 365 to 485 kilocycles, shall be capable of rapidly changing from any one of the frequencies to any one of the others, and shall have a frequency of modulation in accordance with the requirements of Sections 8.142 and 8.143. A main transmitter, to be approved as complying with the transmitting range, prescribed by Section 354 (d) of the Communications Act, shall comply with all requirements for approved main transmitters contained in Sections 8.142 and 8.143.

(b) The main receiver shall be capable of receiving radiotelegraph signals, types A–1, A–2 and B emission, on all frequencies within the bands 100 to 200 kilocycles and 350 to 515 kilocycles.

(c) Sufficient electrical power and the normal voltage(s) required for efficient operation of the main installation at maximum required [17] power, and for simultaneously charging at the required rate all storage batteries used for the emergency installation, direction finder (when a direction finder is required), and auto alarm (when an alarm is required), shall be available, independent of the emergency power supply, at all times when the vessel is being navigated outside a harbor or port and when required during inspection of the ship radio station by an authorized representative of the Commission. Under these conditions, the power-supply line-voltage drop at the radio room terminals shall not exceed ten percent between the no-load and full-load [18] conditions. In all installations on new ships completed after July 1, 1940, this voltage drop shall not exceed five percent under the same conditions.*†

§ 8.115 Requirements of emergency or reserve installation. All emergency or reserve installations on board vessels subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act shall comply with the following conditions, in addition to all other requirements:

(a) The emergency installation shall be capable of being placed into operation within a maximum time of one minute after the need arises for its use.[19]

(b) The emergency transmitter shall be capable of transmitting by means of A–2 emission (or type B emission until January 1, 1940), on the distress frequency 500 kilocycles, the direction-finding frequency 375 kilocycles, and at least one working frequency within the band 365 to 485 kilocycles, shall be capable of rapidly changing from any one of the frequencies to any one of the others, and shall have a frequency of modulation in accordance with the requirements of Section 8.144. An emergency transmitter, to be approved as complying with the transmitting range prescribed by Section 354 (f) of the Communications Act, shall comply with all requirements for approved emergency transmitters contained in Section 8.144.

(c) The emergency receiver shall be capable of receiving radiotelegraph signals, types A–1, A–2 and B emission, on all frequencies within the band 350 to 515 kilocycles.

(d) The emergency power supply shall be maintained in readiness to operate effectively and shall have a reserve capacity of at least six continuous hours at all times while the vessel is navigated outside a harbor or port and whenever the vessel leaves or attempts to leave a harbor or port of the United States for a voyage in the open sea.

(e) The shipowner, operating company, or station licensee, if directed by the Commission or its authorized representative, shall prove by such demonstration [20] as may be deemed necessary, that the emergency installation satisfies the six-hour operating requirement of law.

(f) All emergency power-supply circuits shall be appropriately fused to afford adequate protection from serious overloads or short-circuits, in accordance with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations promulgated by the Commission.

(g) Electrical load circuit(s) of any description, except those of the emergency radio [21] installation, shall not be connected directly or indirectly to the emergency power supply.

(h) The emergency power supply shall be located as near to the emergency transmitter and receiver as is practicable: Provided, however, That the location of such power supply complies with related rules and regulations of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the U. S. Department of Commerce.

(i) The cooling system of all internal-combustion engines used as part of the emergency power supply shall be adequately protected or treated to prevent freezing or overheating consistent with the season and route to be traveled by the particular vessel involved.

(j) There shall be provided emergency electric lights of not less than ten watts per unit, capable of being energized by the radio installation emergency power supply and connected thereto through individual fuses. These electric lights shall be capable of operation independent of any other electrical system and shall be arranged so as to provide satisfactory illumination of the main and emergency radio operating controls, radio station clock, rotating machinery, and terminal of the communication system to the bridge. The emergency lighting electrical circuits shall be arranged so as to avoid the application of excessive voltage to the emergency lights during the charging of the emergency batteries. The terms of this Section or of Section 8.10 shall not preclude the use of any other power supply for energizing these lights solely as an additional provision.*†

§ 8.116 Use of emergency power supply on board a cargo ship. The emergency power supply on board a cargo vessel (on which a separate [22] main and emergency installation is not provided), subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act, while being navigated in the open sea, is authorized to be used only for emergency communication [23] except that it may be used for routine communication for a period not to exceed one hour per day in the aggregate. However, a storage battery which is the emergency power supply or a part thereof, may be used at any time to maintain a watch for safety purposes if such use will not reduce the ability of the emergency power supply to energize the emergency installation for a period of at least six consecutive hours.*†

§ 8.117 Use of emergency installation on board a passenger ship. The emergency installation on board a passenger vessel subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act, while being navigated in the open sea, is authorized to be used only for emergency communication [24] except that it may be used for routine communication for a period not to exceed one hour per day in the aggregate. However, the emergency receiver and its emergency power supply (if such power supply is a storage battery) may be used at any time to maintain a watch for safety purposes, if such use will not reduce the ability of the emergency power supply to energize the emergency installation for a period of at least six consecutive hours. The provisions of this Section shall apply also to a cargo vessel on which a separate [25] main and emergency installation is provided.*†

§ 8.118 Tests of emergency installation. On vessels required by law to be equipped with an emergency or reserve installation, the condition of this installation shall be determined by test and actual operation prior to the vessel's departure from each port [26] (but not necessarily more than once each day) and on each day the vessel is outside a harbor or port. When storage batteries are used as an emergency power supply or are used for the purpose of starting an emergency engine-driven generator, tests shall be made of the charging circuits for polarity and correct charging rate. Hydrometer readings of the electrolyte of a pilot cell and such other cells as are necessary to determine the state of charge of an emergency lead-acid storage battery, shall be taken. When an engine-driven generator is used as an emergency power supply, a check shall be made of the quantity of fuel in the supply tank.*†

§ 8.119 Proof of fuel capacity, emergency engine-driven generator. When the emergency power supply, on board a vessel required by law to be equipped with a radio installation, consists of or includes an engine-driven generator using any form of liquid for fuel, proof of the adequacy of the fuel supply to operate the engine-driven generator continuously and effectively over a prescribed period of time may be established by using as a basis the fuel consumption during a continuous period of one hour when supplying power, at the voltage required for normal and effective operation, to an electrical load as prescribed by Section 8.121.*†

§ 8.120 Proof of capacity, emergency batteries. When the emergency power supply, on board a vessel required by law to be equipped with a radio installation, consists of or includes a storage battery, proof of the ability of such battery power supply to operate continuously and effectively over a prescribed period of time is authorized to be established by a discharge test over such prescribed period of time, when supply power at the voltage required for normal and effective operation, to an electrical load as prescribed by Section 8.121.*†

§ 8.121 Electrical load, emergency installation. The electrical load-current to be supplied by an emergency power supply for the purpose of establishing proof of required capacity shall be the "total load-current" equal to the "key-up" load-current of the emergency transmitter plus seventy percent of the "variable keying load-current" of this transmitter, together with the emergency receiver and the emergency lighting load-current. The "key-up" load-current of the emergency transmitter is defined as the power taken from the emergency power supply by this transmitter when the transmitter key is open. The "key-locked" load-current of this transmitter is defined as the current taken from the emergency power supply by this transmitter when the transmitting key is held closed and the transmitter is adjusted to the required [27] power output. The "variable keying load-current" of this transmitter is defined as the difference between the "key-up" and "key-locked" load-currents. When more than one emergency power supply is employed to energize the various units of the emergency installation, the electrical load-current specified by this Section shall be appropriately divided between the separate emergency power supplies according to the normal arrangement used in the operation of the station.*†

§ 8.122 Emergency power supply, conclusion of demonstration. At the conclusion of the tests outlined in Sections 8.119 and 8.120, no part of the emergency source of power shall have an excessive temperature rise, as defined and measured in accordance with Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations promulgated by the Commission, nor shall the specific gravity or voltage of the storage battery be below the standard for ninety percent discharge.*†

§ 8.123 Location and ventilation of source of power. The exact location and physical arrangement on board a vessel of a storage battery, or engine-driven generator and fuel tank, used as a source of power for any component of a licensed ship radio station, and the method of ventilating the battery or engine compartment, shall be in accordance with rules and regulations of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the U. S. Department of Commerce.*†

§ 8.124 Specifications and operation of battery and engine-driven generator. When provided on board any vessel as an inherent part of the radio emergency or reserve installation in compliance with law, a battery or engine-driven generator, from the standpoint of its electrical specifications and operation, shall comply with applicable rules and regulations of the Commission and the Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations promulgated by the Commission.*†

§ 8.125 Type of Engine. Whenever an engine-driven generator on board any vessel is an inherent part of the radio emergency or reserve installation, required by law for safety purposes, it shall comply, except as provided in Section 8.124, with all applicable rules and regulations of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the U. S. Department of Commerce.*†

§ 8.126 Routing of electrical power conductors. The electrical conductors connecting the main radio installation to its normal power supply and the electrical conductors connecting the emergency power supply to the emergency or reserve installation shall be routed so as to afford adequate protection from mechanical injury, shall be adequately protected from overload by fuses, and shall be kept clear of electrical grounds. If, because of the ship's structure, a long indirect routing is necessary, an additional equivalent circuit shall be provided over an alternate route. In all new installations after July 1, 1940, and in all replacement installations after October 1, 1939, these conductors shall be armored.*†

§ 8.127 Change from transmission to reception. All ship stations shall be arranged so that change from transmission to reception and vice versa can be made from the normal operating position as rapidly as possible and in all cases within not more than fifteen seconds.*†

§ 8.128 Crystal rectifier. Whenever a vessel is subject to the Safety Convention, the radio installation, in addition to all other requirements, shall be provided with a radio receiver capable of receiving radiotelegraph signals, A–2 and B emission, on all frequencies within the band 350 to 515 kilocycles by means of a crystal rectifier, and for this purpose such receiver shall not require the use of electron tube(s). This facility may be included in the main receiver, in the emergency receiver, or an additional receiver having this facility may be provided which shall be located as near to the emergency transmitter as is practicable.*†

§ 8.129 Percentage of modulation. Ship telephone stations, licensed to communicate with coastal harbor or coastal telephone stations open to public correspondence, shall be capable of operating at a maximum percentage of modulation of at least seventy-five percent, and in so far as is practicable these stations shall be regularly adjusted for transmission at a maximum percentage of modulation of at least seventy-five percent.*†

REQUIREMENTS FOR APPROVAL OF TRANSMITTERS FOR USE ON BOARD SHIPS SUBJECT TO TITLE III, PART II OF THE COMMUNICATIONS ACT

§ 8.141 Approved transmitters. A radiotelegraph transmitter which complies with the requirements specified in Sections 8.142, 8.143 or 8.144, is approved as meeting the relevant requirements of Sections 354 (c), 354 (d), and 354 (f) of the Communications Act, except with regard to the provisions of Section 354 (f) concerning the requirements of an emergency power supply on board ship.*†

[17] In the case of the main transmitter, the power specified in Section 8.142, or Section 8.143, whichever Section is applicable.

[18] Full load means the sum of all electrical loads ordinarily energized by the involved source of power for regular shipboard purposes, when the vessel is being navigated at sea.

[19] Emergency installations in existence which do not meet this requirement must be placed in compliance with this regulation not later than July 1, 1940.

[20] See Sections 8.119, 8.120 and 8.121.

[24] See Section 8.24.

[25] See Section 8.113.

[26] It is recognized that in some cases, tank vessels cannot meet this requirement when in port because of the hazardous nature of the cargo being handled.

[27] In the case of the emergency transmitter, the power specified in Section 8.144.

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 500 kc [32] | Plus or minus 0.3 percent for new transmitters installed beginning January 1, 1940. 0.5 percent for transmitters in service now and until January 1, 1944, after which date they shall conform to plus or minus 0.3 percent. | A–2 | 70 | 300 cycles per second. | 1250 cycles per second | At least 200 watts into an average ship station antenna. |
| Do | do | A–1 | | | | At least 160 watts into an average ship station antenna. |
| 375 kc and one working frequency in the band 365 to 485 kilocycles. | do | A–2 | 70 | 300 cycles per second. | 1250 cycles per second. | At least 140 watts into an average ship station antenna. |

For the purpose of these specifications, the term "average ship station antenna" means an actual antenna installed on board ship having a capacity of 750 micro-microfarads and an effective resistance of four ohms at 500 kc.

(b) A main transmitter will be considered as capable of developing the power and percentage of modulation specified in paragraph (a) of this section if it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Commission that the transmitter involved, or a transmitter of the same identical type, will deliver into an artificial antenna having a capacity of 750 micro-microfarads and an effective resistance of 4 ohms at 500 kilocycles, at least 160 watts of A–1 emission, and at least 200 watts of A–2 emission modulated at least 70 percent, at 500 kilocycles; and at least 115 watts of A–1 emission, and at least 140 watts of A–2 emission modulated at least 70 percent, at 375 kilocycles and the one required working frequency; provided, however, that if deemed necessary this test may be applied to an individual main transmitter installed on board a ship before initial or continued approval thereof. For the performance of this test, amplitude modulation shall be employed and the power in the antenna shall be determined by the I²R (direct) method.

(c) In addition to the foregoing specifications, a main transmitter shall be provided with an arrangement for conveniently reducing the power supplied to the antenna circuit to approximately one-half of the rated power.*†

§ 8.143 (a) Requirements applicable only to a main transmitter in existence prior to February 1, 1938.

| 500 kc [32] | Plus or minus 0.3 percent for new transmitters installed beginning January 1, 1940. 0.5 percent for transmitters in service now and until January 1, 1944, after which date they shall conform to plus or minus 0.3 percent. | A–2 | 50 | 300 cycles per second. | 1,650 cycles per second. | At least 200 watts into an average ship station antenna circuit or at least 100 watts into the plate circuit of the oscillator or amplifier supplying power to the antenna circuit. |
| 375 kc and one working frequency in the band 365 to 485 kilocycles. | do | [33] A–2 | 50 | do | do | At least 140 watts into an average ship station antenna circuit or at least 280 watts into the plate circuit of the oscillator or amplifier supplying power to the antenna circuit. |

[33] See footnote 32.

(b) For the purpose of measuring the power developed by a main transmitter in existence prior to February 1, 1938, as specified in paragraph (a) of this Section, there may be substituted for an average ship station antenna, an artificial antenna having a capacity of 750 micro-microfarads and an effective resistance of 4 ohms at 500 kilocycles. A transmitter in this classification will be considered as capable of developing the above specified power and percentage of modulation if it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Commission that the transmitter involved, or a transmitter of the same identical type, will develop the specified power on the frequencies designated, with the required percentage of amplitude modulation for A–2 emission, when properly coupled either to an average ship station antenna or to an artificial antenna having the values of capacity and resistance herein designated. Power supplied to the antenna circuit shall be measured by the I²R (direct) method. If deemed necessary, this test may be applied to an individual main transmitter installed on board a ship before initial or continued approval thereof.

(c) A main transmitter which is installed on board a vessel prior to the effective date of this rule which is not capable of developing the power specified in paragraph (a) of this Section, but which will develop at last 50 watts power of A–2 emission, into the average ship station antenna circuit or at least 100 watts power into the plate circuit of the oscillator or amplifier supplying power to the antenna circuit, is approved for use in compliance with Section 354 (d) of the Communications Act until a date to be fixed by subsequent order of the Commission: Provided, however, That where two or more electron-tube transmitters are a part of the radio installation on board a cargo vessel, one or more of these shall not be removed for the primary purpose of operating the remaining transmitter(s) under the provisions of this paragraph.*†

§ 8.144 (a) Requirements for an emergency transmitter. The following requirements must be met when the emergency transmitter is energized by a power supply equivalent to the emergency power supply which is or will be available on board the type and class of vessel on which the transmitter is or will be installed and operated.

| 500 kc [32] | Plus or minus 0.3 percent for new transmitters installed beginning Jan. 1, 1940. 0.5 percent for transmitters in service now and until Jan. 1, 1944, after which date they shall conform to plus or minus 0.3 percent. | A–2 | 50 for transmitters in existence prior to Feb. 1, 1938. 70 for other transmitters. | 200 cycles per second for transmitters in existence prior to Feb. 1, 1938. 300 cycles per second for other transmitters. | 1650 cycles per second for transmitters in existence prior to Feb. 1, 1938. 1250 cycles per second for other transmitters. | At least 60 watts into an average ship station antenna circuit or at least 100 watts into the plate circuit of the oscillator or amplifier supplying power to the antenna circuit. |
| 375 kc and one working frequency in the band 365 to 485 kilocycles. | do | [33] A–2 | do | do | do | At least 90 watts into an average ship station antenna circuit or at least 90 watts into the plate circuit of the oscillator or amplifier supplying power to the antenna circuit. |

[32] This frequency tolerance formerly was plus or minus 0.5 percent; the new tolerance of plus or minus 0.3 percent is in conformity with the requirements for new transmitters after January 1, 1940, established by the General Radio Regulations of Cairo, 1938.

An emergency transmitter will be considered as capable of developing the power herein specified if the actual power developed is demonstrated by the same method as expressly set forth in Section 8.143, paragraph (b); provided, however, that if deemed necessary, this test may be applied to an individual emergency transmitter installed on board a ship before initial or continued approval thereof.*†

§ 8.145 Name plate on transmitters. Each transmitter which was not in existence prior to February 1, 1938, but which is installed after that date on board a vessel in order to comply with the provisions of Sections 8.142, 8.143 and 8.144, shall be furnished with a durable name plate with the month and year of its completion permanently inscribed thereon.*†

§ 8.146 Use of additional frequencies. Nothing in the requirements of Sections 8.141 to 8.144, inclusive, for transmitters shall prevent the use of any additional frequencies or any additional type of emission, by a ship station, in accordance with the terms of its outstanding license(s) granted by the Commission.*†

§ 8.147 Waiver on small passenger vessels. The Commission, in an exceptional case, for a passenger vessel of less than 600 gross tons, may waive those parts of the provisions of Sections 8.142 and 8.143 hereof relating to the minimum acceptable power of main transmitters, if a satisfactory showing is made that an installation of the specified minimum power is highly impracticable.*†

§ 8.148 Type approval. Approval of a transmitter under the provisions of Sections 8.141 to 8.144, inclusive, is extended to all transmitters of the same identical type, design and construction, and manufactured by the same person.*†

AUTO ALARM

§ 8.161 Approval by Commission. An automatic alarm receiver approved by the Commission as complying with all provisions of its "Auto Alarm Requirements and Type Tests" promulgated [34] under date of October 1, 1935, is approved in accordance with Section 3 (x) of the Communications Act and when so approved shall be considered as complying with all relevant provisions of the International Radio Regulations in force.*†

§ 8.162 Type approval.[34] Approval of an automatic alarm receiver under the provisions of Section 8.161 is extended to all automatic alarm receivers of the same identical type, design, and construction, manufactured by the same person.*†

§ 8.163 Auto alarm installation. A vessel shall be considered as fitted with an auto alarm in accordance with the requirements of Title III, Part II of the Communications Act and the radio provisions of the Safety Convention when the auto alarm installation aboard such vessel complies with the following conditions:

(a) The auto alarm shall be located in the main radiotelegraph operating room and shall be installed in accordance with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations promulgated by the Commission.

(b) Approved apparatus shall be provided for giving an audible warning in the main radiotelegraph operating room, in the radio operator's cabin; and on the navigating bridge. This apparatus shall operate continuously after the auto alarm has been actuated by an alarm signal or by failure of the auto-alarm system, until manually stopped. Only one switch for stopping the audible warning apparatus from functioning is authorized and this shall be located in the main radiotelegraph operating room and shall be capable of manual operation only.

(c) Failure of the auto alarm to function normally because of prolonged atmospherics (static) or other prolonged interference, or both, shall operate a visual indicator on the bridge. The type and method of installation of such visual indicator shall comply with requirements of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the U. S. Department of Commerce.

(d) There shall be furnished at least two sets of written instructions for the guidance of the ship station radio operator and ship's officers relative to the auto alarm, which shall include:

(1) A general technical description of the auto alarm, including a circuit diagram of the auto-alarm receiver and a wiring diagram of its complete installation on shipboard.

(2) A general explanation of its principles of operation.

(3) A list of faults which may be indicated by the sounding of the audible alarm.

(4) Explanation of how to correct faults, remove and replace defective parts and perform limited repairs at sea.

(5) Explanation of how to test the alarm and adjust the sensitivity control to the "optimum" setting, which shall be summarized upon a card and permanently attached to the front of the alarm in a conspicuous position.

(6) Explanation of the effect of various sensitivity control settings upon the operation of the alarm, which shall be summarized upon a card and permanently attached to the front of the alarm in a conspicuous position.

(7) Description of procedure to be followed with respect to operator making adjustments when alarm bell sounds and also in making log entries.

(e) The testing device of the auto alarm shall be adjusted to produce a test signal of the correct value. This adjustment shall be considered satisfactory when it becomes necessary to turn the sensitivity control from its position of lowest sensitivity (zero dial position) to its position of approximately one-third maximum sensitivity before the alarm can be actuated.*†

§ 8.164 Serial number. Each auto alarm of a type approved by the Commission when first installed aboard a vessel of the United States, must bear an identifying serial number. Two or more principal components of one complete installation shall bear the same number. After the initial installation, if any principal component is entirely replaced, the substitute unit shall bear the serial number of the initial unit but must be identified in addition as a replacement. For this purpose the principal components of the following types of auto alarms approved under the conditions of Telegraph Orders Nos. 28 and

[34] See Telegraph Orders No. 28 and 28–A of the Commission, dated March 10, 1937 and August 6, 1937, respectively.

28–A of March 10, 1937, and August 6, 1937, respectively, and by subsequent action of the Commission are designated as follows:

(a) Radiomarine Corporation of America model AR–8600 auto alarm. One combined receiver and selector unit, without regard to container; one control and terminal box.

(b) Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company auto alarms, types 101–A and 101–B, manufactured by Federal Telegraph Company. One selector unit without regard to container; one receiver unit, without regard to container.*†

§ 8.165 Notification of installation. The Commission shall be informed in writing on the prescribed[36] form immediately upon completion of each auto-alarm installation on board any vessel of the United States. Each report shall specify the type and serial number of the alarm, the name of the vessel, the date of completion of installation, the call letters and name of licensee of the ship radio station and the name of the owner and operating company of the vessel.*†

§ 8.166 Daily tests. While the ship is being navigated outside a harbor or port, the auto alarm shall be tested at least once every 24 hours by means of the testing device supplied as part of the alarm, the timing of the dashes to be made by reference to the second hand of the ship station clock. A statement that the foregoing requirement has been fulfilled must be inserted in the radio station log daily.[36]*†

§ 8.167 Reports. Adequate records shall be maintained according to the prescribed[37] forms covering operation of the auto alarm. These forms shall be mailed to the Commission[38] at Washington, D. C., as soon as possible after the first day of each month, covering the month preceding.*†

INTERIOR COMMUNICATION SYSTEM

§ 8.171 Necessity for communication system. An approved interior communication system shall be provided in all cases where the radio room does not adjoin or open onto the navigating bridge structure of the ship, when a means of communication between the bridge and radio room of a vessel is required by law.*†

§ 8.172 Type of communication system. The interior communication system between the radio operating room(s) and the bridge of a vessel, and between the direction-finding apparatus and the bridge shall be of a type approved by the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the U. S. Department of Commerce.*†

[36] F.C.C. Form 815, available upon request, should be used for this purpose.

[37] See Section 8.221, paragraph (j).

[38] F.C.C. Form 819, available upon request, should be used for this purpose.

[38] These reports are for the information of the Commission and the specific contents thereof will not be disclosed.

§ 8.173 Efficiency and termination of communication system. These systems shall be capable of providing efficient communication independent of any other system on the ship, and the location of the termination of these systems shall be subject to approval by the Commission.*†

§ 8.174 Communication system between the bridge and other radio operating positions. When the operating position of the emergency radio installation on board a vessel subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act is not located in the compartment normally used for operating the main radio installation, an efficient means of communication, independent of any other communication system of the ship, shall be separately provided between the bridge and each of these radio operating positions.*†

§ 8.175 Location of direction finder. Whenever the direction finder-receiver is located on the bridge of a ship or within any compartment adjoining or opening onto the navigating bridge structure of the ship, the direction-finding apparatus shall be considered as being located on the bridge, with respect to Section 354 (g) of the Communications Act.*†

CLOCK

§ 8.181 Clock for intermediate-frequency ship stations. Each ship station licensed to operate on frequencies below 515 kilocycles shall be provided with a reliable clock with a second hand, preferably a sweep second hand. This clock shall be securely mounted in such a position that the second dial can be easily and accurately read by the operator from his normal operating position, from the operating position at which he would ordinarily transmit the international auto-alarm signal by hand, and from the operating position in the radio room used in testing the auto alarm (if installed) for response to signals from the testing device.*†

§ 8.182 Clock aboard compulsorily-equipped vessels. The clock required by Section 8.181, when installed on board a vessel subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act, in addition to the requirements of Section 8.181, shall have a sweep second hand and an hour dial not less than five inches in diameter, and shall be capable of operation for at least eight days on one winding: Provided, however, That deviations from these requirements may be authorized by the Commission if such deviation does not adversely affect the reliability of the clock or the ability of the ship radio operator to transmit by hand the international auto-alarm signal when using the clock for timing these signals. A request for approval of any deviation from these requirements must be accompanied by a sample of the proposed clock face.*†

§ 8.183 Time-reference for other ship stations. Each ship station licensed for operation on frequencies above 1500 kilocycles only shall, as may be necessary during operation, have available to the operator a suitable time-piece (preferably equipped with a second hand) of sufficient accuracy and reliability to allow for operation of the station in conformity with the terms of its license, regulations of the Commission, and International Radio Regulations in force. The provisions of this section shall not apply to ship stations licensed to operate on frequencies above 30,000 kilocycles only, pending further development of the use of these frequencies.*†

DIRECTION FINDER

§ 8.191 Direction finder. The radio direction-finder apparatus (radio compass), installed on board a passenger vessel of 5,000 gross tons or over, in compliance with the requirements of law, shall be capable of efficiently receiving signals (at least types A–2 and B emissions) on any frequency between 285 and 515 kilocycles, shall be accurately calibrated for the purpose of taking bearings from which the true bearing and direction may be determined, and shall be available for use whenever the vessel is being navigated outside a harbor or port.*†

§ 8.192 Approval of direction finder. In addition to the provisions of Section 8.191, the radio direction-finding apparatus, to be approved by the Commission, shall comply[39] with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations promulgated by the Commission and new installations after January 1, 1940, shall be capable of efficiently receiving types A–1, A–2, and B emissions. If in the discretion of the Commission, the direction-finding apparatus requires recalibration at any time as the result of official inspection or pertinent facts coming to the attention of the Commission, approval may be withdrawn pending such recalibration.*†

LIFEBOAT INSTALLATIONS

§ 8.201 Lifeboat radio stations. The radio installation on motor lifeboats designated by the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the U. S. Department of Commerce as requiring a radio installation shall consist of an emergency installation in efficient operating condition which shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) Frequency of operation of transmitter: 500 kilocycles.

[39] For the issuance of an initial certificate and endorsement of station license prior to promulgation of the Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations, the Commission will approve temporarily any direction finder in efficient operating condition within the frequency range prescribed in Section 8.191, and properly installed on board at the time of inspection. Satisfactory evidence must be given to the inspector that it complies with Section 8.191. In the case of a new installation which has not been in use, approval of the instrument on board may be given pending calibration or determination, at the first opportunity, of capability of determining true bearings.

(c) Frequency tolerance of transmitter: 0.5 percent.

(d) Power of transmitter: Not less than 75 watts plate input power.

(f) Receiver: Electron tube type. Continuous frequency range of at least 350 to 550 kilocycles and capable of reception of types A–1, A–2 and B emissions.

(g) The type of power supply shall be:

For the transmitter: a storage battery.

For the receiver: dry cell battery and/or storage battery.

The necessary power for the transmitter and receiver, at voltages other than the battery voltages, may be obtained by the use of a dynamotor or other suitable device approved by the Commission.

(h) The lifeboat radio transmitter shall be fitted with a radio frequency ammeter of suitable range and scale, connected so as to indicate the current in the antenna circuit. Existing lifeboat transmitters not so equipped shall be placed in compliance with this requirement prior to July 1, 1940.*†

§ 8.202 Availability and use of lifeboat radio power. The power supply of a lifeboat radio installation shall be capable at all times of operating the entire lifeboat radio installation for a period of at least six continuous hours in accordance with Section 8.115 (d). The storage battery or batteries may be used also to operate equipment other than radio except the electric starter of the lifeboat motor provided the battery capacity is sufficient to not affect adversely its ability to fulfill the foregoing six-hour radio operating requirement. All individual circuits connected to the transmitter storage battery shall be independently and properly fused.*†

§ 8.203 Details of lifeboat radio installation. The components and assembly of the entire installation shall primarily insure the utmost dependable operation, the design shall be such that heavy vibration and physical shocks to which a lifeboat is subject will cause no damage. All components shall be so housed and treated as to withstand saline dampness for extended periods without damage and to minimize the adverse effect of prolonged exposure to salt water or salt spray. Storage batteries shall be mounted in cabinets that will provide protection from salt water spray and also allow proper ventilation, subject to approval of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the U. S. Department of Commerce. Provision shall be made to protect the operator from the elements when the lifeboat is afloat in a heavy sea. Provision shall also be made for the expeditious erection of the antenna system under adverse weather and sea conditions. The use of metal masts and stays, unless broken by insulators, or of any structure at electrical ground potential at the mast-heads is not permitted. Antenna lead-in insulators shall be of a type approved by the Commission. Auxiliary equipment and spare parts prescribed for lifeboat radio stations by Section 8.235 shall be retained within the radio-equipped lifeboat at all times while the vessel is in active service.*†

§ 8.204 Inspection of lifeboat radio installation. The lifeboat radio installation shall be inspected and tested by a qualified representative of the licensee of the ship radio station within 24 hours prior to departure to sea from each port (except not necessarily more than once each week) and at least once each year with the lifeboat afloat. The results of the inspection and tests shall be made known to the master of the vessel and shall be noted in the ship's radio station log. The annual inspection afloat shall include an actual test of the transmitter and receiver connected to the regular lifeboat antenna (erected) to determine that each is in effective operating condition. When testing with the lifeboat not afloat, the transmitter may be connected to an artificial antenna, in lieu of the regular lifeboat antenna, having electrical characteristics equal to those of the regular lifeboat antenna. To avoid interference transmission tests shall be conducted under the same procedure and regulations as prescribed for testing of the ship's regular radio station transmitting equipment and in particular transmission tests shall not be made during the international silent period.*†

§ 8.205 Examination of lifeboat radio batteries. When the vessel is under way, provision shall be made for the adequate charging of storage batteries and the routine inspection of all batteries, without removing them from the lifeboat. Such charging apparatus shall be arranged so as not to interfere with the launching of the lifeboat, and for this purpose shall be easily and quickly removable. Examination of the batteries shall be made at least once every seven days by a qualified radio operator and a statement in regard to their condition and specific gravity in the case of a lead-acid battery, or voltage under normal load in the case of dry or Edison batteries, shall be reported to the master and entered in the ship's radio station log. Dry batteries shall be replaced when it is found that the voltage under load has fallen 15 percent below the rated voltage of the battery.*†

§ 8.206 Lifeboat radio instructions. Instructions shall be plainly marked on the apparatus in sufficient detail to inform inexperienced or uninstructed personnel how to place the radio equipment in operation and how to transmit appropriate signals for a period of time sufficient to enable vessels or land stations, within communication range and equipped with radio direction finders, to determine the position of the lifeboat.*†

§ 8.207 Demonstration of six hour provision; lifeboats. The shipowner, operating company, or station licensee, if directed by the Commission or its authorized representative, shall prove by demonstration as may be deemed necessary, that the lifeboat radio station power supply is capable of energizing this station for a period of six continuous hours in accordance with Section 8.120.*†

§ 8.208 Charging circuit on new vessels. In all new installations completed after January 1, 1940, the charging circuit, for the lifeboat radio storage battery or batteries, shall be routed through the main radio telegraph operating room. A device which during charge of the lifeboat battery or batteries will give a continuous indication of the polarity and the rate of such charge, shall be connected in this charging circuit and shall be located in the main radiotelegraph operating room for purposes of frequent observation.*†

REGULATION OF WATCH

§ 8.211 Report to bridge. On board a cargo vessel of the United States subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act which is fitted with an auto alarm, the operator when going off watch, shall report to the officer on watch on the bridge whether or not the auto alarm has been placed in use and adjusted for effective operation.*†

§ 8.212 Use of auto alarm. The auto alarm shall be in operation and adjusted for normal efficiency according to prevailing conditions of radio reception at all times while the ship is being navigated outside a harbor or port when the operator is not on watch, and shall not be rendered inoperative when a radio direction finder, on board the same ship, is being used.*†

§ 8.213 Auxiliary antenna. On a vessel required by law to maintain a watch by a qualified operator or operators, an effective auxiliary antenna or other approved arrangement shall be provided whenever deemed necessary by the Commission to avoid unauthorized interruption of this watch during use of a radio direction finder on board the same vessel.*†

RADIO LOG

§ 8.221 Radio log for safety purposes. Each ship station operating on frequencies within the band 350 to 515 kilocycles, when required by law to keep a watch for safety purposes by means of a qualified operator, shall maintain an accurate radio log as follows:

(a) Each sheet of the log shall be numbered in sequence, for each voyage, and shall include official call letters of the ship station and the name of the operator on watch.

(b) The entry "on watch" shall be made by the operator beginning a watch, followed by his signature. The entry "off watch" shall be made by the operator being relieved or terminating a watch, followed by his signature. All log entries shall be currently completed at the end of each watch by the operator responsible for the entries. The use of initials or signs is not authorized in lieu of the operator's signature.

(c) During the period a watch is maintained by an operator, all calls transmitted to or from the ship station and all replies transmitted or received, shall be entered, stating the time and frequencies, and the call letters [44] of the station communicated with or heard. In addition a notation of any messages exchanged shall be entered, stating the time, the frequency in kilocycles and the call letters [44] of the station(s) heard, or communicated with. Insofar as possible, a positive entry with respect to reception on 500 kilocycles (410 kilocycles on the Great Lakes) shall be made at least once in each fifteen minutes. The entries required by paragraph (o) hereof shall be acceptable as positive entries provided operating conditions are such as to prevent additional entries being made.

(d) The time of making an entry shall be shown opposite the entry and shall be expressed in Greenwich mean time (GMT) (counted from 00:00 to 24:00 o'clock, beginning at midnight).[45] The first entry in each hour shall consist of four figures; additional entries in the same hour may be expressed in two figures by omitting the hour designation. The abbreviation "GMT" shall be marked at the head of the column in which the time is entered.

(e) During the period a watch is maintained by an operator, an entry shall be made twice per hour stating whether or not the international silent period was observed. In addition, entries shall be made indicating any signals or communications heard on 500 kilocycles (410 kilocycles on the Great Lakes) during this period. If no signals are heard on 500 kilocycles (410 kilocycles on the Great Lakes), an entry to that effect shall be made. The use of rubber stamps for making entries to show observation of the silent period is not authorized.

(f) All distress calls, automatic alarm signals, urgent and safety signals made or intercepted, the complete text, if possible, of distress messages and distress communications, and any incidents or occurrences which may appear to be of importance to safety of life or property at sea, shall be entered, together with the time of such observation or occurrence, and the position of the ship or other mobile unit in need of assistance, if it can be determined.

(g) Whenever harmful interference is experienced, an entry shall be made to that effect, stating the source of the interference, if known.

(h) The approximate geographical location of the ship, preferably the noon position, shall be entered each day of each voyage, either in terms of latitude and longitude, or as the distance in nautical miles and the direction from a known fixed point. For this purpose, the master of the ship shall furnish this information to the radio operator. The position report so furnished shall correspond to any entry of the same position made in other official records of the ship.

(i) An entry shall be made of the time of departure and arrival of the vessel at each port, including in each entry the name of the port.

(j) On a cargo vessel equipped with an auto alarm, the entry "auto alarm on", "sensitivity set at _____",[46] and the entry "auto alarm off", respectively, shall be made whenever the operator places the auto alarm in and out of operation. Results of the required auto alarm tests shall be entered daily, including the sensitivity-control setting and the minimum number of four-second dashes from the testing device which were necessary to properly operate the alarm.

(k) On a cargo vessel equipped with an auto alarm, an entry shall be made in the radio station log whenever the visual indicator installed on the bridge (to indicate when the alarm becomes inoperative due to prolonged atmospherics or other interference), remains actuated for a continuous period of 5 minutes. A statement shall be included giving particulars as to the time the operator was called to make the necessary repairs or adjustments; any reason for the failure; the names of any parts removed, added, or substituted; repairs effected; and the time the alarm was restored to proper operating condition.

(l) On a cargo vessel equipped with an auto alarm, an entry shall be made in the radio station log whenever the auto alarm becomes inoperative due to causes not indicated by the audible warning or the visual indicator, or whenever the audible warning is actuated. The entry shall include a statement showing the time the operator was called to make any necessary repairs or adjustments; the reason for the audible alarm being actuated or failing to be actuated, any parts removed, added, or substituted; repairs effected; and the time the auto alarm was restored to proper operating condition.

(m) Entries shall be made of the results of tests of the emergency installation including transmitter antenna current, hydrometer readings of lead-acid storage batteries, voltage readings of other types of batteries, and quantity of fuel available for engine generators.

(n) An entry shall be made each time the emergency power supply is used (when the vessel is in the open sea) to carry on routine communication (other than a watch for safety purposes), stating the approximate period of time of such use.

(o) Results of inspections and tests of lifeboat radio equipment, when installed in compliance with requirements of law, prior to departure of the vessel from a harbor or port and the results of weekly inspections [47] of such lifeboat equipment shall be entered.

(p) A daily entry shall be made regarding comparison of the radio station clock with standard time, including an indication of any errors observed and corrections made. For this purpose, authentic radio time signals received from land or fixed stations shall be acceptable as standard time.

(q) Any failure of equipment to operate as required, any failure of power supply, any inability to obtain sufficient power to charge storage batteries or to properly operate the radio installation and any incidents tending to unduly delay communication shall be entered.*†

§ 8.222 Radio log during hours of service. (a) Each ship station, not required by law to keep a watch for safety purposes, but authorized to operate on frequencies within the band 350 to 515 kilocycles, shall maintain an accurate radio log in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (g), inclusive, of Section 8.221, during its hours of service when operating on frequencies within this band. The radio log of such stations shall also contain the entries prescribed by paragraphs (h), (i), and (p) of Section 8.221.

(b) Each ship station authorized to operate on any frequency or frequencies in the band 100 to 160 kilocycles or in any band(s) between 4,000 and 30,000 kilocycles, shall maintain an accurate radio log, with respect to operation on frequencies within these bands, in accordance with paragraphs (a), (b), (d), (f), (g), (h), (i), and (p) of Section 8.221.

(c) Ship stations authorized to operate on any frequency or frequencies in the band 1,500 to 3,500 kilocycles, or in any band above 30,000 kilocycles, are required to maintain an adequate record with respect to operation on frequencies within these bands, only insofar as prescribed by paragraph (f) of Section 8.221, together with the name, call letters and position of the ship station, and the name of the radio operator making the record(s).*†

§ 8.223 Disposition of logs. Ship station logs shall be fully completed at the end of each voyage and before the operator(s) responsible leave(s) the ship. The radio log currently in use shall be kept by the licensed operator(s) of the station and during use shall be located in a radio operating room of the vessel. At the conclusion of each voyage terminating at a port of the United States,[44] the original radio log dating from the last departure of the vessel from a United States port (or a duplicate thereof)[44] shall be retained under proper custody on board the vessel for a sufficient period of time (not required to be retained for more than 24 hours) to be available for inspection by duly authorized representatives of the Commission. Thereafter, the original log (and the duplicate log, if provided)[44] may be filed at an established shore office of the ship station licensee, and shall be retained as stipulated by Section 2.54 of Part 2.*†

[44] If desired, the names of the stations or ships also may be entered.

[45] For example, 7:01 P. M. Eastern Standard Time would be entered as 0001 GMT; 7:30 A. M. Eastern Standard Time would be entered as 1230 GMT; 6:45 P. M. Eastern Standard Time would be entered as 2345 GMT.

SPARE PARTS

§ 8.231 Tools and spare parts in general. On board all vessels subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act, sufficient tools to make any minor adjustments of the main and emergency radio installation shall be provided, together with spare parts and auxiliary equipment sufficient to maintain the installations in efficient working condition. These spare parts and this auxiliary equipment shall be located so as to be readily accessible to the radio operator in an emergency.*†

§ 8.232 Necessary spare parts. The following spare parts (for radio equipment, other than auto alarm and radio equipped lifeboats) are considered indispensable for the maintenance of the appropriate installations in efficient working condition aboard vessels subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act:

(a) Sufficient wire of good electrical conductivity for the erection of a single-wire antenna of the same configuration and linear dimensions as the main transmitting antenna but not less than 300 feet of such wire; or an assembled single-wire transmitting antenna of the same linear dimensions as the main transmitting antenna.

(b) Two antenna insulators of a type suitable for use with either the main transmitting antenna or with an emergency transmitting antenna. Insulators provided in compliance with paragraph (a) will satisfy this requirement.

(c) One sleeve bearing of each type used by all rotating machinery which is a component part of the radio installation required by law.

(d) One complete set of brushes for each unit of rotating machinery which utilizes brushes.

(e) Renewable fuse-cartridges of each type used in connection with units of the radio installation, in the amount of at least one-half the number of each size and type in actual use. For each renewable fuse-cartridge in actual use, there shall be available six spare fuse links of appropriate capacity. For each non-renewable fuse in use, there shall be available six spare fuses of the same type and of appropriate capacity.

(f) One spare electric light bulb for each emergency light required by Section 8.126.*†

§ 8.233 Necessary auxiliary equipment. The following auxiliary equipment (for radio installation, other than auto alarm and radio equipped lifeboats) is considered indispensable for the maintenance of the appropriate installations in efficient working condition on board vessels subject to Title III, Part II of the Communications Act.

(a) One, one to two-inch screwdriver, with approximately ⅛-inch blade.

(b) One, four to six-inch screwdriver.

(c) One set of assorted end-wrenches or socket-wrenches, or one adjustable end-wrench.

(d) One pair of five to eight-inch side cutting pliers.

(e) One high resistance direct current voltmeter having a resistance of at least one thousand ohms per volt and capable of measuring 2, 6 and 110 volts with an accuracy of at least three percent except that on ships where the normal radio room power supply voltage is higher than 110 to 120 volts D. C., the voltmeter shall be capable of measuring this line voltage and 2 and 6 volts with an accuracy of at least three percent.

(f) One electric flashlight, two-cell or larger, complete with bulb and battery, or one portable emergency electric lamp (protected from mechanical injury) with at least ten feet of flexible cord and means for rapid connection to the emergency source of power. One spare bulb of the type used shall be provided.

(g) One hydrometer for use with lead acid batteries when this type of battery is used.

(h) One gallon of distilled water, or other water suitable for use in storage batteries.

(i) Appropriate spark gap wrenches for spark installations.[48]

(j) One anode spanner wrench for arc installations.

(k) One quart of alcohol for arc installations.

(l) Instruction book(s) and circuit diagrams, including modifications, covering transmitter(s), receiver(s), and direction finder, if a direction finder is required.*†

§ 8.234 Additional spare parts for specific equipment. In addition to the spare parts required by Section 8.232, and the auxiliary equipment required by Section 8.233, spare parts as are specifically designated in special lists [47] promulgated by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of Section 356 (a) (2) of the Communications Act shall be provided for transmitters, receivers and direction finders which have been given type approval by the Commission.*†

§ 8.235 Additional spare parts in general. Prior to the Commission's approval of a particular type of marine transmitter, receiver, or direction finder, and prior to the issuance of associated specific lists of required spare parts and auxiliary equipment, the following spare parts and auxiliary equipment shall be required in addition to those stipulated in Sections 8.232 and 8.233.

(a) Tube transmitters (spare parts only). (1) One radio frequency oscillator tube, one tube for each radio frequency amplifier stage, and, if used to provide A–2 emission, one audio frequency oscillator tube. Two tubes for the radio frequency circuit of transmitters of the self-rectified, simple oscillator type. Two anode power supply rectifier tubes, if used.

(2) One resistor of each type used as a grid leak; one resistor of each type as used in voltage divider of grid blocking keying circuit; one resistor of each type as used in series with keying relay winding. The value of each resistor shall be clearly indicated thereon.

(b) Spark transmitters [44] (spare parts). (1) One primary radio-frequency circuit condenser of suitable voltage and current rating, having a capacity equal to that of the maximum individual capacitor installed, for each spark transmitter which is used both as a main and emergency transmitter, when no other emergency transmitter is provided.

(2) One complete set of spark gap gaskets.

(3) Four spark gap compression bolts for individual gap units.

(c) Arc transmitters (spare parts). (1) One arc chamber gasket.

(2) One anode tip.

(3) Four carbons.

(d) Receivers (spare parts). (1) One complete set of tubes for the receiver(s).

(2) One pair of head-telephones complete with connecting cord and, if used, a cord terminal plug.

(e) Direction finders (spare parts). (1) One complete set of tubes for the receiver associated with the direction finder, if a direction finder is required.

(f) Radio equipped lifeboats (auxiliary equipment). (1) One screwdriver.

(2) One pair of side-cutting pliers.

(g) Radio equipped lifeboats (spare parts). (1) At least 35 feet of insulated wire suitable for use as antenna wire.

(2) Two antenna insulators.

[44] Includes Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

[44] Duplicate logs are not required by the provisions of this Section, unless the original log is removed prior to opportunity for official inspection as explained.

[47] Lists of spare parts required for specific types of equipment approved by the Commission are furnished to its Inspectors-in-Charge at principal ports and are available to others upon request.

[48] Effective only until January 1, 1940.

(3) One artificial-antenna capacitor.
(4) Two tubes for transmitter, except when transmitter employs a single transmitting tube, in which case one tube is required.

(5) One complete set of tubes for the receiver.

(6) One panel electric light bulb, if used.

(7) Renewable fuse-cartridges of each type used in connection with the units of the lifeboat radio installation, in the amount of at least one-half the number of each size and type in actual use. For each renewable fuse-cartridge in actual use, there shall be available six spare fuse links of appropriate capacity. For each non-renewable fuse in use, there shall be available six spare fuses of the same type and of appropriate capacity. If fuse wire is used, sufficient wire shall be provided to permit six complete fuse replacements.*†

§ 8.236 Spare parts and auxiliary equipment for auto alarm, if auto alarm is required—Radiomarine Corporation of America, type AR–8600. (a) Tubes: One type 6H6, one type 6A8, two type 6K7, five type 1611.

(b) Two bridge warning-light bulbs.

(c) One 30 ohm resistor.

(d) One 9-volt dry cell bias battery.

(e) Nine glass-enclosed 6-ampere fuses, six glass-enclosed ½-ampere fuses, six 10-ampere fuse links for cartridge type fuses, two cartridges for 10-ampere fuse links.

(f) One relay contact burnishing tool.

Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, types 101–A and 101–B. (g) Tubes: For the type 101–A alarm: One type 6D6, one type 89, three type 76.

For the type 101–B alarm: One type 6D6, one type 89, one type 75, and two type 76.

(h) Two bridge-warning light bulbs.

(i) Two commutating brushes, two governor brushes and two brush springs for selector motor.

(j) Six fuses for receiver power supply unit, three cartridges for 6-ampere fuse links, one cartridge for 3-ampere fuse links, nine 6-ampere fuse links for cartridge type fuses, three 3-empere fuse links for cartridge type fuses.

(k) One 4½ volt dry cell bias battery.

(l) One relay contact burnishing tool.*†

§ 8.237 Location of spare parts. (a) Spare parts for the direction-finder receiver as required by Section 8.235, paragraph (e), shall be kept in the compartment housing this receiver.

(b) Spare parts and auxiliary equipment for the radio-equipped lifeboat, as required by Section 8.235, paragraph (g), shall be kept in the lifeboat-cabin housing the radio equipment.

(c) The spare emergency light bulb(s) as required by Section 8.232, paragraph (f) shall be mounted in close proximity to the corresponding emergency light socket(s).

(d) The antenna wire, antenna insulators and distilled water, as required by Sections 8.232, paragraph (a), paragraph (b), and 8.233, paragraph (b), respectively, may be retained in the radio operating room or elsewhere, provided the antenna material is readily accessible to the radio operator in an emergency.

(e) All other spare parts and auxiliary equipment shall be securely retained in a single space, readily accessible to the radio operator in an emergency, in the main radiotelegraph operating room or if desired, in any associated room adjacent to and connected with the main radiotelegraph operating room by an interconnecting doorway.

(f) The space(s) allocated for the location of spare parts and auxiliary equipment in accordance with paragraph (e) herein shall be used only for this purpose, and such space(s) shall be appropriately and conspicuously marked.

(g) All required spare parts and auxiliary equipment shall be available for observation by authorized representatives of the Commission at the time of inspection of the ship radio installation.*†

INSPECTIONS

§ 8.251 Station available for inspection. Pursuant to Section 303 (n) of the Communications Act, the radio installation aboard any ship of U. S. registry, or on board any foreign ship within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, shall be available for inspection by duly authorized representatives of the Commission at any reasonable time and at such frequent intervals as within the discretion of the Commission will insure compliance with applicable regulations, laws and treaties.*†

§ 8.252 Application for inspection. Pursuant to Section 360 (b) of the Communications Act, the vessel owner, vessel operator, ship station licensee, and master of a vessel of U. S. registry, which is subject to the provisions of Title III, Part II of the Communications Act, shall be jointly responsible for the submission of a formal application to the Commission[] at least once in each 12-month period for a detailed inspection of the ship radio installation. This application shall be filed at least thirty days prior to the date on which the radio installation of the vessel will be ready for inspection at the location specified in the application. A service representative of the ship station licensee and sufficient personnel to lower and raise the antenna(s) and to launch the radio equipped lifeboat(s) shall be on board at the time inspection of the radio installation is desired.*†

§ 8.253 Convention certificates. The vessel owner, vessel operator, ship station licensee, and master of a vessel of United States registry subject to the radio provisions of the Safety Convention[] shall be jointly responsible for the submission of a formal application to the Commission[] requesting appropriate inspection of the radio installation and certification to the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the U. S. Department of Commerce for the issuance of an initial, modification, or renewal Convention certificate, or for the submission of a formal application to the Commission requesting exemption from the radio provisions of the Convention, as follows:

(a) A Safety Certificate for a passenger vessel.

(b) A Safety Radiotelegraphy Certificate for a cargo vessel.

(c) An application for exemption from the radio provisions of the Safety Convention for either a passenger vessel or a cargo vessel.*†

[] All passenger and cargo vessels of American registry engaged on international voyages, other than cargo vessels of less than 1,600 gross tons, except vessels navigating solely on the Great Lakes or on any bays, sounds, rivers, or protected waters within the jurisdiction of the United States. An "international voyage" is a voyage from a country to which the Safety Convention applies to a port outside such country, or conversely; and for this purpose every colony, overseas territory, protectorate, or territory under suzerainty or mandate is regarded as a separate country.

[] Applications for inspection and certification in regard to Safety Certificates and Safety Radiotelegraphy Certificates should be filed with the Inspector-in-Charge, Federal Communications Commission, at the Field Division office nearest the desired port of inspection or port at which the vessel is anchored. Applications for exemption should be submitted direct to the Commission at Washington, D. C. See Appendix A, for detailed instructions for filing applications when a vessel of U. S. registry is in a foreign port.

[] Applications should be filed with the Inspector-in-Charge, Federal Communications Commission, at the Field Division office nearest the desired port of inspection of the vessel. See Appendix A, for detailed instructions.

SEC. 3. Definitions. (g) "United States" means the several States and Territories, the District of Columbia, and the possessions of the United States but does not include the Philippine Islands or the Canal Zone.

(k) "Radio station" or "station" means a station equipped to engage in radio communication or radio transmission of energy.

(l) "Mobile station" means a radio-communication station capable of being moved and which ordinarily does move.

(m) "Land station" means a station, other than a mobile station, used for radio communication with mobile stations.

(n) "Mobile service" means the radiocommunication service carried on between mobile stations and land stations, and by mobile stations communicating among themselves.

(q) "Amateur station" means a radio station operated by a duly authorized person interested in radio technique solely with a personal aim and without pecuniary interest.

(w) (1) "Ship" or "vessel" includes every description of watercraft or other artificial contrivance, except aircraft, used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water, whether or not it is actually afloat.

(2) A ship shall be considered a passenger ship if it carries or is licensed or certificated to carry more than twelve passengers.

(3) A cargo ship means any ship not a passenger ship.

(4) A passenger is any person carried on board a ship or vessel except (1) the officers and crew actually employed to man and operate the ship, (2) persons employed to carry on the business of the ship, and (3) persons on board a ship when they are carried, either because of the obligation laid upon the master to carry shipwrecked, distressed, or other persons in like or similar situations or by reason of any circumstance over which neither the master, the owner, nor the charterer (if any) has control.

(x) "Auto alarm" on a foreign ship means an automatic alarm receiver which has been approved by the country to which the ship belongs, provided the United States and the country to which the ship belongs are both parties to the same treaty, convention, or agreement prescribing the requirements for such apparatus. "Auto alarm" on a ship of the United States subject to the provisions of Title III, Part II, of this Act means an automatic alarm receiver complying with law and approved by the Commission. Nothing in this Act or in any other provision of law shall be construed to require the recognition of an auto alarm as complying with Title III, Part II, of this Act, on a foreign ship subject to such part, whose country of origin is not a party to a treaty, convention, or agreement with the United States in regard to such apparatus.

(y) (1) For the purpose of Title III, Part II, a "qualified operator" or "operator" on a foreign ship means a person holding a certificate as such complying with the provisions of the General Radio Regulations annexed to the International Telecommunication Convention in force, or complying with an agreement or treaty between the United States and the country to which the ship belongs.

(2) For the purpose of Title III, Part II, a "qualified operator" or "operator" on a ship of the United States means a person holding a radio operator's license of the proper class, as prescribed and issued by the Commission.

(z) "Harbor" or "port" means any place to which ships may resort for shelter or to load or unload passengers or goods, or to obtain fuel, water, or supplies. This term shall apply to such places whether proclaimed public or not and whether natural or artificial.

(aa) "Safety convention" means the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea in force and the regulations referred to therein.

SEC. 301. License for radio communication or transmission of energy. * * * No person shall use or operate any apparatus for the transmission of energy or communications or signals by radio * * * upon any vessel or aircraft of the United States; or (f) upon any other mobile stations within the jurisdiction of the United States, except under and in accordance with this Act and with a license in that behalf granted under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 321. Distress signals and communications. (a) The transmitting set in a radio station on shipboard may be adjusted in such a manner as to produce a maximum of radiation, irrespective of the amount of interference which may thus be caused, when such station is sending radio communications or signals of distress and radio communications relating thereto.

(b) All radio stations, including Government stations and stations on board foreign vessels when within the territorial waters of the United States, shall give absolute priority to radio communications or signals relating to ships in distress; shall cease all sending on frequencies which will interfere with hearing a radio communication or signal of distress, and, except when engaged in answering or aiding the ship in distress, shall refrain from sending any radio communications or signals until there is assurance that no interference will be caused with the radio communications or signals relating thereto, and shall assist the vessel in distress, so far as possible, by complying with its instructions.

SEC. 322. Intercommunication in mobile service. Every land station open to general public service between the coast and vessels or aircraft at sea shall, within the scope of its normal operations, be bound to exchange radio communications or signals with any ship or aircraft station at sea; and each station on shipboard or aircraft at sea shall, within the scope of its normal operations, be bound to exchange radio communications or signals with any other station on shipboard or aircraft at sea or with any land station open to general public service between the coast and vessels or aircraft at sea: Provided, That such exchange of radio communication shall be without distinction as to radio systems or instruments adopted by each station.

SEC. 323. Interference between Government and commercial stations. (a) At all places where Government and private or commercial radio stations on land operate in such close proximity that interference with the work of Government stations cannot be avoided when they are operating simultaneously, such private or commercial stations as do interfere with the transmission or reception of radio communications or signals by the Government stations concerned shall not use their transmitters during the first fifteen minutes of each hour, local standard time.

(b) The Government stations for which the above-mentioned division of time is established shall transmit radio communications or signals only during the first fifteen minutes of each hour, local standard time, except in case of signals or radio communications relating to vessels in distress and vessel requests for information as to course, location, or compass direction.

SEC. 324. Use of minimum power. In all circumstances, except in case of radio communications or signals relating to vessels in distress, all radio stations, including those owned and operated by the United States, shall use the minimum amount of power necessary to carry out the communication desired.

SEC. 325. False distress signals; rebroadcasting; studios of foreign stations. (a) No person within the jurisdiction of the United States shall knowingly utter or transmit, or cause to be uttered or transmitted, any false or fraudulent signal of distress, or communication relating thereto, nor shall any broadcasting station rebroadcast the program or any part thereof of another broadcasting station without the express authority of the originating station.

(b) No person shall be permitted to locate, use, or maintain a radio broadcast studio or other place or apparatus from which or whereby sound waves are converted into electrical energy, or mechanical or physical reproduction of sound waves produced, and caused to be transmitted or delivered to a radio station in a foreign country for the purpose of being broadcast from any radio station there having a power output of sufficient intensity and/or being so located geographically that its emissions may be received consistently in the United States, without first obtaining a permit from the Commission upon proper application therefor.

(c) Such application shall contain such information as the Commission may by regulation prescribe, and the granting or refusal thereof shall be subject to the requirements of section 309 hereof with respect to applications for station licenses or renewal or modification thereof, and the license or permission so granted shall be revocable for false statements in the application so required or when the Commission, after hearings, shall find its continuation no longer in the public interest.

SEC. 326. Censorship; indecent language. Nothing in this Act shall be understood or construed to give the Commission the power of censorship over the radio communications or signals transmitted by any radio station, and no regulation or condition shall be promulgated or fixed by the Commission which shall interfere with the right of free speech by means of radio communications. No person within the jurisdiction of the United States shall utter any obscene, indecent, or profane language by means of radio communication.

Title III, Part II

Radio Equipment and Radio Operators on Board Ship

Ship Radio Installations and Operations

SEC. 351. (a) Except as provided in section 352 hereof, it shall be unlawful—

(1) For any ship of the United States other than a cargo ship of less than sixteen hundred gross tons, to be navigated in the open sea outside of a harbor or port, or for any ship of the United States or any foreign country, other than a cargo ship of less than sixteen hundred gross tons, to leave or attempt to leave any harbor or port of the United States, for a voyage in the open sea, unless such ship is equipped with an efficient radio installation in operating condition, in charge of and operated by a qualified operator or operators, adequately installed and protected so as to insure proper operation, and so as not to endanger the ship and radio installation, as hereinafter provided, and in the case of a ship of the United States, unless there is on board a valid station license issued in accordance with this Act;

(2) For any passenger ship of the United States of five thousand gross tons, or over, to be navigated outside of a harbor or port, in the open sea, or for any such ship of the United States or any foreign country to leave or attempt to leave any harbor or port of the United States for a voyage in the open sea, unless such ship is equipped with an efficient radio direction finder apparatus (radio compass) properly adjusted in operating condition as hereinafter provided, which apparatus is approved by the Commission;

(b) A ship which is not subject to the provisions of this part at the time of its departure on a voyage shall not become subject to such provisions on account of any deviation from its intended voyage due to stress of weather or any other cause over which neither the master, the owner, nor the charterer (if any) has control.

SEC. 352. (a) The provisions of this part shall not apply to—

(1) A ship of war;

(2) A ship of the United States belonging to and operated by the Government, except a ship of the United States Maritime Commission, the Inland and Coastwise Waterways Service, or the Panama Railroad Company;

(3) A foreign ship belonging to a country which is a party to the Safety Convention and which ship carries a valid certificate exempting said ship from the radio provisions of that Convention, or which ship conforms to the radio requirements of such Convention or Regulations and has on board a valid certificate to that effect;

(4) Yachts of less than six hundred gross tons not subject to the radio provisions of the Safety Convention;

(5) Vessels in tow;

(6) A vessel navigating solely on the Great Lakes, or on any bays, sounds, rivers, or protected waters within the jurisdiction of the United States, or to a vessel leaving or attempting to leave any harbor or port of the United States for a voyage solely on the Great Lakes, or on any bays, sounds, rivers, or protected waters within the jurisdiction of the United States.

(b) The Commission may, if it considers that the route or the conditions of the voyage or other circumstances are such as to render a radio installation unreasonable or unnecessary for the purpose of this part, exempt[1] from the provisions of this part any ship, or any class of ships, which falls within any of the following descriptions:

(1) Passenger ships which in the course of their voyage do not go more than twenty nautical miles from the nearest land or more than two hundred nautical miles between two consecutive ports;

(2) Cargo ships which in the course of their voyage do not go more than one hundred and fifty nautical miles from the nearest land;

(3) Passenger vessels of less than one hundred gross tons not subject to the radio provisions of the Safety Convention;

(4) Sailing ships.

Operators, Watches, Auto Alarm

SEC. 353. (a) Each cargo ship required by this part to be fitted with a radio installation and which is not fitted with an auto alarm, and each passenger ship required by this part to be fitted with a radio installation, shall, for safety purposes, carry at least two qualified operators.

(b) A cargo ship, required by this part to be fitted with a radio installation, which is fitted with an auto alarm in accordance with this title, shall, for safety purposes, carry at least one qualified operator who shall have had at least six months' previous service in the aggregate as a qualified operator in a station on board a ship or ships of the United States.

[1] An application under oath on F. C. C. Form No. 320 may be made direct to the Federal Communications Commission at Washington, D. C., requesting that a particular ship be exempt from the provisions of the Safety of Life at Sea Convention or Title III, Part II, of the Communications Act of 1934 as amended, or both. It should describe the ship, or ships, to which it applies, the nature and extent of the voyage(s) for which exemption is requested, the maximum distance from land the ship is expected to be navigated and should specify in detail the reasons for exemption. Certified copies of the log of a number of voyages made (over periods of time which may be specified by the Commission) by the subject ship over the waters in question should be submitted. In the event any accidents occurred on the route in question, full particulars regarding the facts should be submitted, including a statement of the communication facilities which were available at that time. Whenever the Commission grants exemption for a vessel engaged on an international voyage, the Commission will request the issuance of an exemption certificate to such vessel by the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation of the Department of Commerce. With regard to United States ships not subject to the safety Convention, an appropriate certification will be issued by the Commission. The determination of the Commission with respect to exemptions provided for herein will be final, subject only to the right of review by the courts.

(c) Each ship of the United States required by this part to be fitted with a radio installation shall, while being navigated outside a harbor or port, keep a continuous watch by means of qualified operators: Provided, however, That in lieu thereof on a cargo ship fitted with an auto alarm in proper operating condition, a watch of at least eight hours per day, in the aggregate, shall be maintained by means of a qualified operator.

(d) The Commission shall, when it finds it necessary for safety purposes, have authority to prescribe the particular hours of watch on a ship of the United States required by this part to be fitted with a radio installation.

(e) On all ships of the United States fitted with an auto alarm, said apparatus shall be in operation at all times while the ship is being navigated outside of a harbor or port when the operator is not on watch.

Technical Requirements

SEC. 354. The radio installation and the radio direction-finding apparatus required by section 351 of this part shall comply with the following requirements:

(a) The radio installation shall comprise a main and an emergency or reserve installation: Provided, however, That on a cargo ship, if the main installation complies also with all the requirements of an emergency or reserve installation, the emergency or reserve installation may be omitted.

(b) The ship's radio operating room and the emergency or reserve installation shall be placed in the upper part of the ship in a position of the greatest possible safety and as high as practicable above the deepest load water line, and the location of such room or rooms shall be approved by the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, Department of Commerce.

(c) The main and emergency or reserve installations shall be capable of transmitting and receiving on the frequencies and types of waves designated by the Commission pursuant to law for the purpose of distress and safety of navigation.

(d) The main installation shall have a normal transmitting and receiving range of at least two hundred nautical miles, that is to say, it must be capable of transmitting and receiving clearly perceptible signals from ship to ship over a range of at least two hundred nautical miles by day under normal conditions and circumstances.

(e) Sufficient power shall be available at all times to operate the main radio installation efficiently under normal conditions over the range specified in subsection (d) of this section.

(f) The emergency or reserve installation shall include a source of energy independent of the propelling power of the ship and of any other electrical system and shall be capable of being put into operation rapidly and of working for at least six continuous hours. For the emergency or reserve installation, the normal range as defined in subsection (d) of this section shall be at least one hundred nautical miles.

(g) There shall be provided between the bridge of the ship and the radio room, and between the bridge and the location of the direction finding apparatus, when the direction finding apparatus is not located on the bridge, an efficient means of communication independent of any other communication system of the ship.

(h) The direction finding apparatus shall be efficient and capable of receiving clearly perceptible radio signals and of taking bearings from which the true bearing and direction may be determined. It shall be capable of receiving signals on the frequencies prescribed for distress, direction finding, and radio beacons by the General Radio Regulations annexed to the International Telecommunication Convention in force and in new installations after the effective date of this part, such other frequencies as the Commission may for safety purposes designate.

Lifeboats

SEC. 355. Every motor lifeboat, required to be equipped with radio by treaty or convention to which the United States is a party, by statute, or by regulation made in conformity with a treaty, convention, or statute, shall be fitted with an efficient radio installation under such rules and regulations, as the Commission may find necessary to promote the safety of life.

Approval of Installations

SEC. 356. (a) Insofar as is necessary to carry out the purposes and requirements of this part, the Commission shall have authority, for any ship subject to this part—

(1) To approve the details as to the location and manner of installations of the equipment required by this part or of equipment necessitated by reason of the purposes and requirements of this part.

(2) To approve installations, apparatus, and spare parts necessary to comply with the purposes and requirements of this part.

(3) To prescribe such additional equipment as may be determined to be necessary to supplement that specified herein, for the proper functioning of the radio installation installed in accordance with this part or for the proper conduct of radio communication in time of emergency or distress.

Transmission of Information

SEC. 357. (a) The master of every ship of the United States equipped with radio transmitting apparatus, on meeting with dangerous ice, a dangerous derelict, a tropical storm, or any other direct danger to navigation, shall cause to be transmitted all pertinent information relating thereto, to ships in the vicinity and to the appropriate authorities, in accordance with rules and regulations issued by the Commission, which authorities of the United States shall, when they consider it necessary, promptly bring the information received by them to the knowledge of those concerned and foreign authorities interested.

(b) No charge shall be made by any ship or station in the mobile service of the United States for the transmission, receipt, or relay of the information designated in subsection (a) originating on a ship of the United States or of a foreign country.

(c) The transmission by any ship of the United States, made in compliance with subsection (a), to any station which imposes a charge for the reception, relay, or forwarding of the required information, shall be free of cost to the ship concerned and any communication charges incurred by the ship for transmission, relay, or forwarding of the information may be certified to the Commission for reimbursement out of moneys appropriated to the Commission for that purpose.

(d) No charge shall be made by any ship or station in the mobile service of the United States, for the transmission of distress messages and replies thereto in connection with situations involving the safety of life and property at sea.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any station or carrier may render free service in connection with situations involving the safety of life and property, including hydrographic reports, weather reports, reports regarding aids to navigation and medical assistance to injured or sick persons on ships and aircraft at sea. All free service permitted by this subsection shall be subject to such rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe, which rules may limit such free service to the extent which the Commission finds desirable in the public interest.

Authority of Master

SEC. 358. The radio installation, the operators, the regulation of their watches, the transmission and receipt of messages, and the radio service of the ship except as they may be regulated by law or international agreement, or by rules and regulations made in pursuance thereof, shall in the case of a ship of the United States be under the supreme control of the Master.

Certificates[2]

SEC. 359. (a) Each vessel of the United States to which the safety convention applies shall comply with the radio and communication provisions of said convention at all times while the vessel is in use, in addition to all other requirements of law, and have on board an appropriate certificate as prescribed by the safety convention.

(b) Appropriate certificates concerning the radio particulars provided for in said convention shall be issued to any vessel of the United States which is subject to the radio provisions of the safety convention and is found by the Commission to comply therewith. Such certificates shall be issued by the Department of Commerce, or whatever other agency is authorized by law so to do, upon request of the Commission made after proper inspection or determination of the facts. If the holder of such certificate violates the provisions of the safety convention, or of this Act, or the rules, regulations, or conditions prescribed by the Commission, and if the effective administration of the safety convention or of this part so requires, the Commission, after hearing in accordance with law, is authorized to request the modification or cancelation of such certificate. Upon receipt of such request the Department of Commerce, or whatever other agency is authorized by law to do so, shall modify or cancel the certificate in accord therewith. The Commission is authorized to issue, modify, or cancel such certificates in the event that no other agency is authorized to do so.

SEC. 360. (a) In addition to any other provisions required to be included in a radio station license, the station license of each ship of the United States subject to this title shall include particulars with reference to the items specifically required by this title.

(b) Every ship of the United States, subject to this part, shall have the equipment and apparatus prescribed therein, inspected at least once each year by the Commission.[3] If after such inspection, the Commission is satisfied that all relevant provisions of this Act and the station license have been complied with, that fact shall be certified to on the station license by the Commission. The Commission shall make such additional inspections at frequent intervals as may be necessary to insure compliance with the requirements of this Act.

Control by Commission

SEC. 361. Nothing in this title shall be interpreted as lessening in any degree the control of the Commission over all matters connected with the radio equipment and its operation on shipboard and its decision and determination in regard to the radio requirements, installations, or exemptions from prescribed radio requirements shall be final, subject only to review in accordance with law.

Forfeitures

SEC. 362. The following forfeitures shall apply to this part, in addition to the penalties and forfeitures provided by Title V of this Act:

(a) Any ship that leaves or attempts to leave any harbor or port of the United States in violation of the provisions of this part, or the rules and regulations of the Commission made in pursuance thereof, or any ship of the United States that is navigated outside of any harbor or port in violation of any of the provisions of this part, or the rules and regulations of the Commission made in pursuance thereof, shall forfeit to the United States the sum of $500, recoverable by way of suit or libel. Each such departure or attempted departure, and in the case of a ship of the United States each day during which such navigation occurs shall constitute a separate offense.

(b) Every willful failure on the part of the master of a ship of the United States to enforce or to comply with the provisions of this Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission as to equipment, operators, watches, or radio service shall cause him to forfeit to the United States the sum of $100.

[2] Instructions governing procedure when in foreign ports. Ships of the United States subject to the Safety Convention in ports of any of the foreign countries parties to the Safety Convention may expect to be required by local authorities to exhibit a safety certificate, a safety radiotelegraphy certificate, or an exemption certificate relating to radio issued by the Government of the United States. Lacking a certificate, or if the local authorities, upon inspection, find that the ship does not comply with the terms of the certificate or the Safety Convention, the ship will then be subject to the applicable laws of the country concerned.

In the event any ship owner or ship operating agency has a vessel in foreign waters, for which a convention certificate (covering radio) is desired and which cannot be made available to the Commission for inspection, a letter outlining the circumstances should be directed to the Commission. Appropriate instructions will be issued upon receipt thereof. If circumstances will not allow this procedure while the ship is in port of one of the countries parties to the Safety Convention, the master of the ship may apply to a United States Consul in that country to request the appropriate local Government authorities to make the required inspection and issue a safety radiotelegraphy certificate, or, to complete the radio particulars on the safety certificate. The Consul should request that the certificate contain the following clause: "Good only until this vessel reaches a port of the continental United States, but in any event for a period not exceeding five months." Such certificates issued under the authority of the foreign government will be accorded the same force as certificates issued by the United States.

If a ship at the time a Convention certificate expires is not in a port of the United States, the certificate may be extended by applying to a United States Consul but such extension will be granted only for the purpose of allowing the ship to complete its return voyage to its own country. No certificate will be extended for a period in excess of five months.

[3] Instructions relative to applications for inspection of ship stations. Application forms for inspection may be obtained from any port office of the Commission, or any office of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, Department of Commerce, and upon completion should be returned to the office of the inspector in charge of the radio district embracing the port at which it is desired that the inspection be made.

To avoid delays and obviate the necessity for reinspection, the owner should have his radio representative make a preliminary inspection and make such repairs, replacements, additions, and adjustments of the radio installation as may be necessary to insure compliance with these requirements. Failure to comply with this procedure may result in considerable delay ensuing before a ship station license can be endorsed or a recommendation for safety or safety radiotelegraphy certificate can be forwarded by the Commission to the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation. This possibility of delay arises from the fact that the Commission's ship station inspection force is limited and because ship station inspections, as well as inspection of other classes of stations, are planned in accordance with a definite schedule.

On the date determined upon for inspection by the Commission, the owner must have, in addition to his radio representative, at least one radio operator, preferably the chief operator, in attendance. In addition, there must be such members of the crew, or other persons as may be necessary to launch radio-equipped lifeboat(s) and to lower and hoist the ship station antenna. Proper power must be available to operate the equipment.

APPENDIX B

The Ship Acts of July 23, 1912, and June 24, 1910, and section 602 (e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, are quoted herein for convenience only.

Ship Act

An act approved July 23, 1912, amending section 1 of an act entitled "An act to require apparatus and operators for radio communication on certain ocean steamers", approved June 24, 1910:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. That from and after October first, nineteen hundred and twelve, it shall be unlawful for any steamer of the United States or of any foreign country navigating the ocean or the Great Lakes and licensed to carry, or carrying, fifty or more persons, including passengers or crew or both, to leave or attempt to leave any port of the United States unless such steamer shall be equipped with an efficient apparatus for radio communication, in good working order, capable of transmitting and receiving messages over a distance of at least one hundred miles, day or night. An auxiliary power supply, independent of the vessel's main electric power plant, must be provided which will enable the sending set for at least four hours to send messages over a distance of at least one hundred miles, day or night, and efficient communication between the operator in the radio room and the bridge shall be maintained at all times.

The radio equipment must be in charge of two or more persons skilled in the use of such apparatus, one or the other of whom shall be on duty at all times while the vessel is being navigated. Such equipment, operators, the regulation of their watches, and the transmission and receipt of messages, except as may be regulated by law or international agreement, shall be under the control of the master, in the case of a vessel of the United States; and every willful failure on the part of the master to enforce at sea the provisions of this paragraph as to equipment, operators, and watches, shall subject him to a penalty of one hundred dollars.

That the provisions of this section shall not apply to steamers plying between ports, or places, less than two hundred miles apart.

SEC. 2. That this act, so far as it relates to the Great Lakes shall take effect on and after April first, nineteen hundred and thirteen, and so far as it relates to ocean cargo steamers shall take effect on and after July first, nineteen hundred and thirteen: Provided, That on cargo steamers, in lieu of the second operator provided for in this act, there may be substituted a member of the crew or other person who shall be duly certified and entered in the ship's log as competent to receive and understand distress calls or other usual calls indicating danger, and to aid in maintaining a constant wireless watch so far as required for the safety of life.

The remaining sections of the act of June 24, 1910, which are unchanged, read as follows:

SEC. 2. That for the purpose of this act apparatus for radio communication shall not be deemed to be efficient unless the company installing it shall contract in writing to exchange, and shall, in fact, exchange, as far as may be physically practicable, to be determined by the master of the vessel, messages with shore or ship stations using other systems of radio communication.

SEC. 3. That the master or other person being in charge of any such vessel which leaves or attempts to leave any port of the United States in violation of any of the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction, be fined in a sum not more than five thousand dollars, and any such fine shall be a lien upon such vessel, and such vessels may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which such vessel shall arrive or depart, and the leaving or attempting to leave each and every port of the United States shall constitute a separate offense.

SEC. 4. That the Secretary of Commerce shall make such regulations as may be necessary to secure the proper execution of this act by collectors of customs and other officers of the government.

Section 602 (e) of the Communications Act

Such part or parts of the Act entitled "An Act to require apparatus and operators for radio communication on certain ocean steamers", approved June 24, 1910, as amended, as relate to the ocean and to steamers navigating thereon, are hereby repealed. In all other respects said Act shall continue in full force and effect. The Commission is requested and directed to make a special study of the radio requirements necessary or desirable for safety purposes for ships navigating the Great Lakes and the inland waters of the United States, and to report its recommendations, and the reasons therefor to the Congress not later than December 31, 1939.

PART 8—RULES GOVERNING SHIP SERVICE

PRIOR RULES REPEALED

The Commission, on July 12, 1939, repealed the Ship Radiotelegraph Safety Rules of May 21, 1937 (CFR, Secs. 81.001–81.322), effective October 1, 1939. The Commission also repealed the following rules, effective October 1, 1939:

| Rule No.: | CFR Sec. No. |
| 281 | 80.01 |
| 282–284 (a) (b) (c) | 80.10–80.12 |
| 284 (d) (e) (f) | 80.40–80.42 |
| 285–289 | 80.20–80.24 |

STANDARDS OF GOOD ENGINEERING PRACTICE FOR SHIP STATIONS

APPROVED JULY 26, 1939; EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY

Introduction

There are presented herein certain Standards of Good Engineering Practice for Ship Stations giving instructions concerning procedure to be followed in complying with certain provisions of the Ship Radiotelegraph Safety Rules of the Communications Commission. While the Ship Radiotelegraph Safety Rules form the basis of good engineering practice, these Standards may go beyond those rules and set up engineering principles and recommendations for consideration relative to various engineering problems. These Standards have been approved by the Commission and thus are considered as reflecting the opinion of the Commission in all matters involved.

Standards of Good Engineering Practice set forth herein are those deemed necessary for demonstrating compliance with certain provisions of paragraph 12 (c) of the Ship Safety Rules along technical lines not specifically enunciated in the regulations. These Standards are based on the best engineering data available from evidence supplied in formal hearings and surveys conducted in the field by the Commission's personnel. While they provide for some degree of flexibility and set forth the conditions under which they are applicable, it is not expected that material deviation therefrom as to fundamental principles will be recognized unless full information is submitted as to the reasonableness of such departure and the need therefor.

These Standards of Good Engineering Practice may necessarily change as progress is made in the radio art, and accordingly it may be necessary to make revisions from time to time. The Commission will accumulate and analyze engineering data available as to the progress of the art so that these Standards may be kept current with the developments.

Field Intensity Measurements to Demonstrate Compliance With Specifications of Paragraph 12 (c) (3) of the Ship Radiotelegraph Safety Rules

Paragraph 12 (c) of the Ship Radiotelegraph Safety Rules provides that certain minimum field intensities are acceptable by demonstration in lieu of the required minimum power specified in section (2) of that paragraph. In this demonstration it is necessary to determine the effective field intensity on certain frequencies under certain conditions at a distance of one nautical mile from the transmitter under test. The following requirements shall govern the taking and submission of data on the field intensity produced.

1. Prior to the beginning of field intensity measurements the applicant for main transmitting installation approval first shall secure approval by the Commission of:

(a) Technical qualifications of the engineers who are to conduct the measurements.

(b) Instruments and methods to be employed for obtaining the measurements.

(c) Locations, proposed time and approximate duration of measurements; also exact frequencies to be used.

2. Prior to the beginning of field intensity measurements and in accordance with the provision of the preceding section, the following information shall be submitted in duplicate to the Commission, with the original in affidavit form, together with a regular application for special temporary authority[1] to transmit experimentally on designated specific frequencies in the vicinity of 500 kc and 375 kc for the purpose of conducting the involved measurements:

(a) Name, address, and technical qualifications of engineer(s) who is (are) to make the measurements (affidavit(s) on this item to be executed by engineer(s) concerned).

(b) Description of methods to be used for measuring the field intensity.

(c) Manufacturer's name and type number of each calibrated instrument to be used, together with manufacturer's rated accuracy.

(d) The date and by whom each instrument was last calibrated, and the present accuracy of each instrument.

(e) Frequencies to be used, general locations of test, and proposed period of time of experimental transmissions for purpose of measuring field intensity.

(f) Type of transmitter under test and power rating designated by the manufacturer.

(g) Description with sketch and dimensions of particular ship station antenna which is to be utilized with the transmitter in question.

3. Upon approval by the Commission of the information submitted as required by section 2 hereof, the applicant will then be in a position to carry out the necessary tests and measurements and in so doing shall conform to the following procedure:

(a) All test transmissions, of which pertinent measurements are made, shall be over seawater or over waters of any bay, sound, or other comparable tidewaters adjacent to the open sea.

(b) The points at which the field intensity is measured shall be from 1 to 4 wavelengths distant from the transmitting antenna.

(c) Transmissions shall be made only on the frequencies authorized and shall not interfere with the normal operation of stations in the maritime mobile service.

(d) Measurements of field intensity on frequencies in the vicinity of 375 and 500 kc shall be made at points located on two radials (one approximately parallel to and the other approximately normal to the flat top of the antenna of the ship station under test). The field intensities (E, expressed in millivolts per meter) are to be multiplied by the corresponding distances from the antenna to the measuring points (d, expressed in nautical miles) and the resulting values (of E. d) along each radial, if more than one is taken on any one radial, shall be averaged to obtain the field intensity at one nautical mile along each radial. If the resulting average values (of E. d) for the two radials chosen differ by more than 10% of the greater value, then measurements are required to be taken along at least four radials from the ship station separated by angles of approximately 45° azimuth. The effective field intensity at one nautical mile is then the root mean square of the average values (of E. d) obtained along the several radials chosen.

(e) A qualified radio engineer shall be in charge of the adjustment of the transmitter under test prior to the field intensity measurements. Preliminary tests shall be made on the frequencies to be used during the field intensity measurements and the following data recorded for each frequency used: (1) Plate power input to the last radio frequency stage; (2) the antenna current (the antenna current ammeter used having been checked or re-calibrated for accuracy to within plus or minus 2% at full scale reading); and (3) the antenna resistance. This engineer or a licensed radio operator holding the proper class of license for operation of the ship station under test shall observe the operation of the transmitter during the field intensity measurements, recording the values (1) and (2) above, for each measurement. If these values are observed and recorded by a licensed radio operator, they shall be certified under oath by him. The provisions of this subsection in no way relieves the operator in charge of the ship station from his responsibility for the proper operation of the equipment, as set forth in the Rules Governing Commercial Radio Operators.

(f) Certification under oath must be obtained from the master of the involved vessel, showing the ship's bearing each time readings of field intensity were taken, and the approximate position of the vessel with respect to a fixed navigational marker or expressed in latitude and longitude.

(g) If possible, the field intensity shall also be measured on the second and third harmonic radio frequencies under the same conditions as when measuring the field intensity on the fundamental frequencies, and the results obtained shall be included in the tabulated data. The Commission may require these additional measurements prior to consideration of approval.

4. Upon completion of the demonstration, the following data shall be submitted in duplicate, with the original in affidavit form, to the Commission for its consideration:

(a) Complete data taken for field intensity measurement, including a chart showing the location of the involved vessel, and each point of measurement numbered to agree with the tabulated data.

(b) Description of methods used to take readings for field intensity, with reference to section 2 (b) hereof.

(c) Manufacturer's name and type number of each calibrated instrument used, together with a statement that such instruments are the same as those described in conformity with section 2 (c) hereof.

(d) Name of each engineer who participated in making the measurements, with reference to section 2 (a) hereof.

(e) A statement, under oath, from the master of the involved vessel, showing the bearing of the vessel each time readings of field intensity were taken and the approximate position of the vessel with respect to a fixed navigational marker or expressed in latitude and longitude.

(f) Tabulated data observed and recorded by a qualified engineer during the preliminary tests made in conformity with section 3 hereof.

(g) Tabulated data observed and recorded by a qualified engineer or a licensed radio operator of the proper grade, on board the vessel during the field intensity measurement tests and certified under oath by the operator in the event that no engineer is in charge on board the vessel during the field intensity tests.

The decision of the Commission with respect to consideration of individual main transmitting installations under this procedure will be based upon the data submitted as set forth in the preceding section 4, and in addition upon the report of its own representative(s) who may be assigned to witness the demonstration.

SHIP RADIOTELEGRAPH SAFETY RULES AMENDED

The Commission, on July 26, 1939, effective immediately, amended subparagraph (3), as modified, of paragraph 12 (c) of the Ship Radiotelegraph Safety Rules of May 21, 1937, to read:

(3) A radiotelegraph transmitter, installed aboard a subject vessel prior to July 26, 1939, which complies with each specification for a main transmitter designated in paragraph 12 (c) (2) hereof except "power required to be developed" but which meet the "power required to be developed" provisions contained in paragraph 12 (c) (4) hereof, is approved as a temporary main transmitter for use in compliance with paragraph 12 (b) until not later than January 1, 1940.

An electron-tube transmitter installed aboard a subject vessel and authorized by the radio station license of that vessel prior to July 26, 1939, which will comply with each specification for a main transmitter designated in paragraph 12 (c) (2) hereof, except the "power required to be developed," will be approved as meeting the requirements of paragraph (b) provided it is further demonstrated, prior to January 1, 1940 and at any time thereafter as may be deemed necessary by the Commission, to the satisfaction of the Commission that, when normally installed and operated aboard the particular vessel in connection with the permanent transmitting antenna of the same vessel, the involved transmitter will produce the following prescribed field intensities at a distance of one nautical mile over a sea-water path(s): wage rate is twenty-five cents, but also at the minimum hourly wage rate of thirty cents, and at such rates as are embodied in the recommendations of Industry Committee No. 2 for the Apparel Industry:

Operating Radio Frequency—Field intensity required at a distance of one nautical mile over a sea-water path.

500* kilocycles— at least 20.0 millivolts per meter.

375* kilocycles—at least 10.0 millivolts per meter.

(a) What if any occupation or occupations in the apparel industry require a learning period, and

(b) Whether it is necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment to provide for the employment of persons in occupations requiring a learning period at wage rates lower than the minimum wage applicable under Section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, and

(c) If such necessity is found to exist, at what wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under Section 6, such employment of learners shall be permitted, and with what limitations as to time, number, proportion and length of service.

Any person interested in appearing, either in support of or in opposition to the matters prayed for in the petitions for review, may appear on his own behalf or on the behalf of any other person, provided that he shall file with the Administrator, at his office in Washington, prior to noon on September 7, 1939, a Notice of Intention to Appear, which shall contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of the person appearing;

(2) If he is appearing in a representative capacity, the name and address of the person or persons whom he is representing;

(3) Whether he is appearing in support of or in opposition to any petition for review;

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. IT-5580]

IN THE MATTER OF NEW ENGLAND POWER COMPANY

ORDER SETTING HEARING

JULY 26, 1939.

Commissioners Clyde L. Seavey, Chairman; Claude L. Draper, Basil Manly, Leland Olds, John W. Scott.

Upon application filed July 20, 1939, and subsequently amended, by the New England Power Company (hereinafter referred to as the New England Company), a corporation having its principal office at 441 Stuart Street, Boston, Massachusetts, for an order pursuant to Section 203 of the Federal Power Act authorizing and approving the merger or consolidation of its facilities subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission with the electric facilities of the Bellows Falls Hydro-Electric Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the Bellows Falls Company), a corporation having its principal office at Bellows Falls, Vermont, and with certain of the electric facilities of the Connecticut River Power Company (hereinafter referred to as the Connecticut Company), a corporation having its principal office at Littleton, New Hampshire;

The Commission having considered the said application, as amended, the exhibits thereto, and the petition, and exhibits thereto, filed June 10, 1939 (Docket No. IT-5552) and subsequently amended, by the New England Company, the Bellows Falls Company, and the Connecticut Company for a declaratory determination disclaiming jurisdiction, among other things, with reference to the same proposed merger or consolidation, and it appearing therefrom that:

(a) The said merger or consolidation is to be accomplished by the purchase of the property, assets, and franchises of the Bellows Falls Company, consisting principally of a hydroelectric generating plant on the Connecticut River at or near Bellows Falls and transmission lines used in connection therewith (except cash and except accounts receivable by the Bellows Falls Company from the New England Company), pursuant to a purchase and sale agreement dated June 8, 1939, for a purchase price of $12,381,739.66, as of April 30, 1939; and the purchase by the New England Company of that portion of the so-called Bellows Falls-Pratts Junction transmission line, located in New Hampshire, from the Connecticut Company, which line connects the lines of the Bellows Falls Company and the lines of the New England Company, pursuant to the aforesaid agreement, for a purchase price of $672,747.30, as of April 30, 1939;

(b) The Bellows Falls Company was originally chartered for the improvement of navigation on the Connecticut River by the construction and operation of navigation improvements at and near said site and for many years appears to have maintained and operated navigation improvements at or near said site and to have collected tolls for the use of such improvements;

(c) The Connecticut River was used for many years for the transportation of persons and property in interstate and foreign commerce from a point some distance above the site of the aforesaid hydroelectric generating plant to its mouth, is a navigable water of the United States, and is a stream over which Congress has jurisdiction under its authority to regulate commerce with foreign nations and among the several states; and the aforesaid hydroelectric generating plant may affect the interests of interstate and foreign commerce and may alter or modify the course, condition, or capacity of navigable waters of the United States;

(d) The dam of the said plant may have been constructed or reconstructed in violation of Section 9 of the Rivers and Harbors Act of 1899; the said plant may create an obstruction to the navigable capacity of water of the United States in violation of Section 10 of said Act; the operation and maintenance of said plant may constitute a violation of Section 23 (b) of the Federal Power Act; and an order requiring the licensing of said plant under the Federal Power Act or otherwise pertaining to the construction, operation, maintenance, sale or acquisition thereof, may be appropriate or expedient in the public interest to conserve and utilize the navigation and water power resources of the region;

(e) This Commission has heretofore found that facts hereinbefore recited indicate that this Commission may have jurisdiction with respect to the construction, maintenance, operation, acquisition, transfer or licensing of the aforesaid hydroelectric generating plant;

(f) A public hearing as hereinafter provided for will provide a convenient means for enabling this Commission to consider additional data and information necessary to enable it to determine the scope of its jurisdiction in the premises and, if it finds that it has jurisdiction, to pass upon the said application, and will afford the opportunity for hearing required by the Federal Power Act;

The Commission orders that:

A public hearing on the said application be held at 10:00 A. M., September 13, 1939, in the Commission's Hearing Room, 1757 K Street NW., Washington, D. C., for the purpose of enabling the Commission to determine the scope of its jurisdiction in the premises, and to determine whether the proposed merger or consolidation, including the transfer of the aforesaid unlicensed hydroelectric generating plant, will be consistent with the public interest and what terms and conditions to the authorization and approval thereof, if any, are necessary or appropriate to secure the maintenance of adequate service and the coordination in the public interest of facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission; including, but without limitation, a showing with respect to the following:

(i) As related to the facilities to be acquired, the original cost thereof, as defined in electric plant Instruction 2D of the Commission's Uniform System of Accounts, or if not known, an estimate of such original cost;

(ii) Whether the proposed merger or consolidation will hamper, obstruct, or otherwise affect, regulation of the operation or maintenance of the facilities involved or regulation of those operating or maintaining such facilities, pursuant to state or federal statutes;

(iii) What effects, if any, the proposed merger or consolidation will have on the interests of investors in securities heretofore issued or hereafter to be issued by any of the above mentioned companies, and upon the interests of consumers of electric energy served directly or indirectly by any of said companies;

(iv) Whether the proposed merger or consolidation of facilities will relate to the integration and coordination of electric facilities subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission and to the assurance of an abundant supply of electric energy with the greatest possible economy and with regard to the proper utilization of natural resources; and what relation, if any, the proposed merger or consolidation of facilities has to any other proposed or contemplated disposition, acquisition, merger or consolidation of facilities by any of the companies herein involved;

(v) Whether the Connecticut River from its mouth to a point some distance above the site of the said hydroelectric plant, or any part thereof, should be held to be navigable waters of the United States or otherwise a stream over which Congress has jurisdiction under its authority to regulate commerce with foreign nations and among the several states;

(vi) Whether the said hydroelectric generating plant should be held by reason of its effects and the effects of its operation on the course, condition, and navigable capacity of waters of the United States, or any of them, to affect the interests of interstate or foreign commerce, and to obstruct, alter or modify the course, condition, or capacity of navigable waters of the United States, or to do either;

(vii) Whether the said hydroelectric generating plant should be held to effect the interests of interstate or foreign commerce, by reason of its effects and of the effects of its operation on highways and railroads, which are instrumentalities of interstate or foreign commerce, and bridges or other structures carrying the same, along, across, over, or near said river, and on interstate or foreign commerce in electric energy, or upon any of them;

(viii) Whether the construction, operation and maintenance of the said hydroelectric generating plant is required by the laws of the United States to be licensed by the Federal Power Commission;

(ix) Whether the said hydroelectric generating plant should be required to be operated and maintained only under and in accordance with the terms of a license duly issued by the Federal Power Commission;

(x) Whether the effect of the merger or consolidation of facilities of the New England Company subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission, with such a hydroelectric generating plant, without first securing or taking appropriate steps towards securing a license therefor from the Federal Power Commission, will be consistent with the public interest;

(xi) Whether the payment of the price proposed to be paid for such hydroelectric generating plant as stated above, and the issuance of obligations secured in any part by the mortgage or pledge of such plant, as proposed, to enable the New England Company to pay such purchase price, is consistent with the public interest.

By the Commission.

Applications having been filed, pursuant to Section 11 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of the following Plans of Reorganization of Utilities Power & Light Corporation, a registered holding company, hereinafter called the "Debtor":

(a) Plan dated February 1, 1939, filed by Atlas Corporation and amended June 30, 1939 and July 10, 1939;

(b) Plan dated October 23, 1937, filed by Atlas Corporation and by Paul V. Shields, Joseph S. Maxwell and Charlton B. Hibbard, constituting a Protective Committee for Preferred Stockholders of the Debtor;

(c) Plan dated August 23, 1938, filed by the Trustees of Public Utilities Securities Corporation and the Trustee of Webster Securities Corporation;

(d) Plan dated February 21, 1938, filed by Associated Investing Corporation and Associated Utilities Corporation and amended August 27, 1938.

Applications having been filed, pursuant to Section 11 (g) of said Act, for reports upon said plans and declarations pursuant to Rule U-12E-5 having been filed with respect to the solicitation of assents thereto;

A proceeding having been instituted by the Commission, pursuant to Section 11 (b) (1) of said Act, against the Debtor and Charles True Adams, Trustee;

All of said matters having been consolidated for the purpose of hearing by order of the Commission dated August 29, 1938;

A public hearing on said matters having been held pursuant to appropriate notice, said hearing having been concluded with respect to said applications pursuant to Section 11 (f), briefs having been filed and argument had;

The Commission having considered the record, briefs and arguments and having made and filed its findings and opinion herein;

It is ordered, That the application pursuant to said Section 11 (f) for approval of the plan dated February 1, 1939, filed by Atlas Corporation and amended June 30, 1939 and July 10, 1939 be and it hereby is granted, and said plan as so amended be and it hereby is approved subject, however, to the following terms and conditions:

(1) That the amendment of July 10, 1939 shall operate to delete all provisions with regard to subscription rights formerly contained in said plan, such provisions being hereby expressly disapproved;

(2) That pursuant to Rule U–11F–1 (e) the Commission reserves jurisdiction to consider any amendments to said application and any definitive documents in connection therewith filed subsequently to the approval herein granted, including (but without limiting the generality of the foregoing) the trust indenture and the certificate of incorporation of the New Company contemplated by said plan;

(3) That prior to the acquisition by the New Company of the stock of The Laclede Gas Light Company, Laclede Power & Light Company and Missouri Natural Gas Company, there shall be filed with the Commission a certified copy of an order of the Public Service Commission of Missouri authorizing or approving such acquisitions, which shall thereupon become part of the record herein;

(4) That the Commission reserves jurisdiction for the purpose of passing on the value at which the assets transferred to the New Company will be entered on its books; and

(5) That the consummation of said plan be effected in substantial compliance with the terms and conditions and for the purposes represented by said application, as amended.

It is further ordered, That the applications and declaration with respect to the plan dated October 23, 1937, filed by Atlas Corporation and by Paul V. Shields, Joseph S. Maxwell and Charlton B. Hibbard, constituting a Protective Committee for Preferred Stockholders of the Debtor, be and they hereby are dismissed;

It is further ordered, That the application pursuant to Section 11 (f) of said Act for approval of the plan dated August 23, 1938, filed by the Trustees of Public Utilities Securities Corporation and the trustee of Webster Securities Corporation be and it hereby is denied, and that the application pursuant to Section 11 (g) of said Act and the declaration pursuant to Rule U–12E–5 relating to said plan be and they hereby are dismissed;

It is further ordered, That the application and declaration with respect to the plan dated February 21, 1938, filed by Associated Investing Corporation and Associated Utilities Corporation and amended August 27, 1938 be and they hereby are dismissed;

It is further ordered, That this Commission reserves jurisdiction with respect to any and all applications pursuant to Section 11 (g) of said Act and declarations pursuant to Rule U–12E–5, whether now or hereafter filed, relating to said plan dated February 1, 1939, filed by Atlas Corporation and amended as aforesaid;

It is further ordered, That this Commission reserves jurisdiction with respect to the before-mentioned proceeding instituted by it under Section 11 (b) (1) of said Act.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF CENTRAL POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A declaration pursuant to section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 14, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 9, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the issue and sale of $25,000,000 First Mortgage Bonds due August 1, 1969 and $7,000,000 Serial Debentures or Notes by Central Power and Light Company. The price to the public, underwriters' discount or commission, proceeds to the company and names of underwriters are to be supplied by amendment. The proceeds are to be applied, together with other funds of the company to the extent required, to the redemption and retirement at 104 of $32,044,200 principal amount of First Mortgage 5% Gold Bonds, 1956 Series, due August 1, 1956, of the company requiring, exclusive of accrued interest, $33,327,008.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF COPPER DISTRICT POWER COMPANY, THE MIDDLE WEST CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

Declaration and application pursuant to sections 7 and 10 respectively of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named parties;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 10, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 5, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to—

(1) A declaration filed by Copper District Power Company, a subsidiary company of The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 7 of said Act regarding the issue and sale by it of unsecured 4½% notes in the principal amount of $78,750 to be dated August 11, 1939 and to mature August 11, 1940. The proposed notes are to be issued in exchange for and to discharge an equal principal amount of unsecured 4½% notes of the company heretofore issued and now outstanding which mature August 11, 1939.

(2) An application by The Middle West Corporation pursuant to Section 10 of said Act for approval by the Commission of the acquisition by it of $39,375 principal amount of the proposed notes described above.

By the Commission.

Whereas, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, pursuant to the provisions of Title I of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended (48 Stat. 31), issued on November 9, 1937, Order No. 20[2] regulating the handling of milk in the La Porte County, Indiana, marketing area, said order being effective November 13, 1937; and

Whereas, said order was amended, effective August 20, 1938;[3] and

Whereas, the Secretary, on September 24, 1937, tentatively approved the marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the La Porte County, Indiana, marketing area, an amendment to which was tentatively approved on July 15, 1938; and

Whereas, the Secretary, having reason to believe that said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and said order, as amended, should be further amended, gave, on the 18th day of May 1939, notice of a hearing[4] to be held on the 23d day of May 1939, at La Porte, Indiana, on certain proposed amended provisions of said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and of said order, as amended, and at said place, on the 23d and 24th days of May 1939, conducted a public hearing at which all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on said proposed amended provisions; and

Whereas, after such hearing and after the tentative approval, on the 30th day of June 1939, by the Secretary, of a marketing agreement, as amended, handlers of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, as amended, which is marketed within the La Porte County, Indiana, marketing area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, relating to milk; and

Whereas, the Secretary determined, on the 28th day of July 1939,[5] said determination being approved by the President of the United States on the 28th day of July 1939, that said refusal or failure tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (50 Stat. 246), and that this order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interests of producers of milk in said area and is approved or favored by over 67 percent of the producers voting in a referendum, who, during the month of April 1939, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the La Porte County, Indiana, marketing area; and

ducers whose milk is received by the same handler of uniform prices for all milk received from such producers by such handler is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who, during the month of April 1939, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, were engaged in the production for market of milk covered in such order, as amended, said approval being separate and apart from the approval of producers as set forth above; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds, upon the evidence introduced at the above-mentioned hearing, said findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at the hearings on said order and on said amendment and to the other findings made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of said order and of said amendment (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed, save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth):

§ 920.0 Findings. 1. That the classification of milk into four classes is a proper basis for the pricing of milk which is disposed of by handlers;

2. That the prices calculated to give milk handled in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to section 2 and section 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk, and that the minimum prices set forth in this order, as amended, are such prices as will reflect such factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

3. That the order, as amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to handlers specified in, the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, upon which hearings have been held; and

4. That the issuance of the order, as amended, and all of its terms and conditions will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the powers conferred upon him by the terms and provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, hereby orders that such handling of milk in the La Porte County, Indiana, marketing area, as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce, shall, from the effective date hereof, be in compliance with the following terms and conditions:

§ 920.1 Definitions.—(a) Terms. The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) The term "act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937.

(2) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(3) The term "La Porte County, Indiana, marketing area," hereinafter called the "marketing area," means the territory within the townships of Scipio, Pleasant, Kankakee, Center, Cool Spring, Michigan, Springfield, Galena, and Hudson, all in La Porte County, Indiana.

(4) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

(5) The term "producer" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a handler, who produces milk which is received at a plant from which milk is disposed of in the marketing area.

(6) The term "handler" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a producer, who purchases or receives milk from producers, associations of producers, or other handlers, all, or a portion, of which milk is disposed of as milk in the marketing area, and who, on his own behalf or on behalf of others, engages in such handling of milk as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk and its products.

(7) The term "market administrator" means the person designated pursuant to Sec. 920.2 as the agency for the administration hereof.

(8) The term "delivery period" means the current marketing period from the first to, and including, the last day of each month.

(9) The term "base" means the quantity of milk calculated for each producer pursuant to Sec. 920.7 (d).

§ 920.2 Market administrator—(a) Selection, removal, and bond. The market administrator shall be selected by the Secretary and shall be subject to removal by him at any time. The market administrator shall, within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary.

(b) Powers. The market administrator shall have power:

(1) To administer the terms and provisions hereof; and

(2) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the terms and provisions hereof.

(c) Duties. The market administrator, in addition to the duties hereinafter described, shall:

(1) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for herein.

(2) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary at any and all times.

(3) Furnish such information and such verified reports as the Secretary may request.

(4) Obtain a bond with reasonable security thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator.

(5) Publicly disclose to handlers and producers, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, the name of any person who, within 15 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not (a) made reports pursuant to Sec. 920.5 or (b) made payments pursuant to Sec. 920.8.

§ 920.3 Classification of milk—(a) Sales and use classification. Milk received by each handler, including milk produced by him, if any, shall be classified by the market administrator as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk disposed of in the form of milk, and all milk not specifically accounted for as Class II milk, Class III milk, or Class IV milk.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk used to produce flavored milk drinks, cream (for consumption as cream), creamed buttermilk, or creamed cottage cheese.

(3) Class III milk shall be all milk specifically accounted for as used to produce a milk product other than those specified in Class II milk and Class IV milk.

(4) Class IV milk shall be all milk specifically accounted for (a) as being used to produce butter, and (b) as actual plant shrinkage but not to exceed 3 percent of the total receipts of milk from producers.

(b) Interhandler and nonhandler sales. Milk disposed of by a handler to another handler, or to a person not a handler but who distributes milk or manufactures milk products, shall be considered to be Class I milk. In the event that such selling handler on or before the date fixed for filing reports pursuant to Sec. 920.5 furnishes proof satisfactory to the market administrator that such milk has been disposed of by such purchaser other than as Class I milk, then, and in that event, such milk shall be classified in accordance with such proof.

(c) Computation of butterfat in each class. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler the butterfat in each class, as set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, as follows:

(1) Determine the pounds of butterfat received as follows: (a) multiply the weight of the milk received from producers by its average butterfat test; (b) multiply the weight of the milk produced by him, if any, by its average butterfat test; (c) multiply the weight of the milk received from handlers, if any, by its average butterfat test; and (d) add together the resulting amounts.

(2) Determine the pounds of butterfat in Class I milk as follows: (a) convert to quarts the quantity of milk disposed of in the form of milk, and multiply by 2.15; (b) multiply the result by the average butterfat test of such milk; and (c) if the quantity of butterfat so computed when added to the pounds of butterfat in Class II milk, Class III milk, and Class IV milk, computed pursuant to subparagraphs (3), (4), and (5) of this paragraph, is less than the pounds of butterfat received, computed in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, an amount equal to the difference shall be added to the quantity of butterfat determined pursuant to (b) of this subparagraph.

(3) Determine the pounds of butterfat in Class II milk as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class II milk by its average butterfat test; and (b) add together the resulting amounts.

(4) Determine the pounds of butterfat in Class III milk as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class III milk by its average butterfat test; and (b) add together the resulting amounts.

(5) Determine the pounds of butterfat in Class IV milk as follows: (a) multiply the actual weight of the product of Class IV milk by its average butterfat test; (b) subtract the pounds of butterfat in Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk, computed pursuant to (b) of subparagraph (2) and pursuant to subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, and the pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (a) of this subparagraph, from the pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, which resulting quantity shall be allowed as plant shrinkage for the purposes of this subparagraph (but in no event shall such plant shrinkage allowance exceed 3 percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers by the handler); and (c) add together the resulting amounts.

(6) Determine the classification of the butterfat received from producers as follows:

(i) Subtract from the pounds of butterfat in each class the total pounds of butterfat which were received from other handlers and used in such class.

(ii) In the case of a handler who also distributes milk of his own production, subtract from the pounds of butterfat in each class a further amount which shall be computed as follows: divide the pounds of butterfat in said class by the pounds of butterfat in all classes and multiply by the pounds of butterfat produced by him.

(d) Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler the hundredweight of 3.8 percent butterfat content equivalent of milk in each class, which was received from producers and to which the prices set forth in Sec. 920.4 apply, as follows:

(1) Divide the pounds of butterfat computed for each class in accordance with paragraph (c) (6) of this section by 3.8.

§ 920.4 Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. Each handler shall pay producers, at the time and in the manner set forth in Sec. 920.8, for the 3.8 percent butterfat content equivalent of milk received at the handler's plant, not less than the following prices:

Class I milk—$2.10 per hundredweight: Provided, That with respect to Class I milk disposed of to persons or families receiving relief from recognized relief agencies, the price shall be $1.80 per hundredweight.

Class II milk—$1.80 per hundredweight.

Class III milk—The price per hundredweight which shall be calculated by the market administrator as follows: Multiply by 3.8 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, and add 30 percent thereof.

Class IV milk—The price per hundredweight which shall be calculated by the market administrator as follows: Multiply by 3.8 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, and add 10 percent thereof.

§ 920.5 Reports of handlers—(a) Periodic reports. On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall, with respect to milk or cream which was, during such delivery period, (a) received from producers, (b) received from handlers, or (c) produced by such handler, report to the market administrator, in the detail and form prescribed by him, as follows:

(1) The receipts at each plant from producers who are not handlers and the quantity of such receipts which represents the total of all milk received from producers in excess of their respective bases;

(2) The receipts at each plant from any other handler, including any handler who is also a producer;

(3) The quantity, if any, produced by such handler; and

(4) The respective quantities of milk which were disposed of for the purpose of classification pursuant to Sec. 920.3.

(b) Reports as to producers. Each handler shall report to the market administrator:

(1) Within 10 days after the market administrator's request, with respect to any producer for whom such information is not in the files of the market administrator, and with respect to a period or periods of time designated by the market administrator, (a) the name and address, (b) the total pounds of milk received, (c) the average butterfat test of milk received, and (d) the number of days upon which milk was received; and

(2) As soon as possible after first receiving milk from any producer, (a) the name and address of such producer, (b) the date upon which such milk was first received, and (c) the plant at which such milk was received.

(c) Reports of payments to producers. Each handler shall submit to the market administrator on or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period his producer pay roll for such delivery period which shall show for each producer (a) the net amount of such producer's payment with the prices, deductions, and charges involved, (b) the total delivery of milk with the average butterfat test thereof, and (c) the portion of such delivery which was in excess of the base of such producer.

(d) Verification of reports. Each handler shall permit the market administrator or his agent, during the usual hours of business, to (a) verify the information contained in reports submitted in accordance with this section, and (b) weigh milk received from each producer and sample and test milk for butterfat.

§ 920.6 Handlers who are also producers. (a) With respect to each handler who is also a producer:

(1) The market administrator shall, subject to the condition set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, exclude from the computations made pursuant to Sec. 920.7 (a), the quantity of milk produced by a handler which is disposed of by such handler: Provided, That where any such handler has purchased or received milk from other producers the value of the milk so produced or received shall be computed under Sec. 920.7 (a) as follows: The quantity of such milk shall be ratably apportioned among such handler's total Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class IV milk (after excluding purchases or receipts, if any, from other handlers) and multiplied by the Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class IV prices, respectively.

(2) The market administrator shall, upon prior written notice from such handler of the exercise thereof, grant the option of having all milk produced by such handler included in the computation made pursuant to Sec. 920.7 (a) in lieu of the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) The market administrator, in computing the value of milk for any handler pursuant to Sec. 920.7, shall consider as Class IV milk any milk or cream disposed of in bulk by any such handler, who has not exercised the option set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, to another handler operating a bottling or a processing plant. If such receiving handler disposes of such milk or cream other than as Class IV milk, the market administrator, with respect to the total value computed for such receiving handler pursuant to Sec. 920.7 (a), shall add the difference between (1) the value of such milk or cream at the Class IV price and (2) the value according to its actual usage.

§ 920.7 Determination of uniform prices to producers—(a) Computation of the value of milk for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute, subject to the provisions of Sec. 920.6, the value of milk disposed of by such handler, which was not purchased or received from other handlers, as follows:

(1) Multiply by the Class I price the hundredweight of Class I milk computed pursuant to Sec. 920.3 (d);

(2) Multiply by the Class II price the hundredweight of Class II milk computed pursuant to Sec. 920.3 (d);

(3) Multiply by the Class III price the hundredweight of Class III milk computed pursuant to Sec. 920.3 (d);

(4) Multiply by the Class IV price the hundredweight of Class IV milk computed pursuant to Sec. 920.3 (d);

(5) Combine into one total the hundredweight of milk in each class computed pursuant to Sec. 920.3 (d);

(6) Combine into one total the values of the milk computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this paragraph: Provided, That if milk, including skim milk is disposed of by a handler to another handler and if such selling handler has not filed reports pursuant to Sec. 920.5 (a) and made the payments required by Sec. 920.8, the market administrator shall, in computing the value of milk for the receiving handler, multiply the quantity of 3.8 percent butterfat content equivalent of milk reported by the receiving handler as received from such selling handler and classified as Class I milk, by the difference between the Class I and Class IV prices, and add the resulting sum to the value of milk otherwise computed pursuant to this paragraph.

(b) Computation and announcement of uniform prices. (1) The market administrator shall compute for each handler the uniform prices per hundredweight of milk received by such handler during each delivery period, except the delivery periods of June, July, August, and September, as follows:

(i) Subtract from the total value of milk computed for such handler pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, for all milk received from a producer who did not regularly sell or distribute milk in the marketing area during a period of 30 days next preceding November 13, 1937, an amount computed by multiplying by the Class IV price the hundredweight of milk received from such producer. Such computation shall be made for all milk received from each such producer during the period beginning with his first regular delivery of milk and continuing until the end of two full calendar months following the date of such first delivery of milk;

(ii) If the hundredweight of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (5) of paragraph (a) of this section is less than the hundredweight of milk received from producers, add an amount computed by multiplying such difference by an amount equal to 3.8 multiplied by the butterfat differential set forth in Sec. 920.8 (c);

(iii) If the hundredweight of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (5) of paragraph (a) of this section is greater than the hundredweight of milk received from producers, subtract an amount computed by multiplying such difference by an amount equal to 3.8 multiplied by the butterfat differential set forth in Sec. 920.8 (c);

(iv) If the Class I milk of such handler is greater than the base milk received by him from producers, subtract a sum equal to the base milk times the Class I price;

(v) If the Class I milk of such handler is less than the base milk received by him from producers, subtract a sum equal to the excess milk times the Class IV price;

(vi) Divide the remaining sum of money by the excess milk if subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph be true, or by the base milk if subdivision (v) of this subparagraph be true, to secure the blended price for excess milk or for base milk, as the case may be.

(2) The market administrator shall compute for each handler the uniform price per hundredweight of milk received by such handler during each June, July, August, and September delivery period as follows:

(i) Subtract from the total value of milk computed for such handler pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, for all milk received from a producer who did not regularly sell or distribute milk during a period of 30 days next preceding November 13, 1937, an amount computed by multiplying by the Class IV price the hundredweight of milk received from such producer. Such computation shall be made for all milk received from each such producer during the period beginning with his first regular delivery of milk and continuing until the end of two full calendar months following the date of such first delivery of milk;

(ii) If the hundredweight of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (5) of paragraph (a) of this section is less than the hundredweight of milk received from producers, add an amount computed by multiplying such difference by an amount equal to 3.8 multiplied by the butterfat differential set forth in Sec. 920.8(c);

(iii) If the hundredweight of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (5) of paragraph (a) of this section is greater than the hundredweight of milk received from producers, subtract an amount computed by multiplying such difference by an amount equal to 3.8 multiplied by the butterfat differential set forth in Sec. 920.8(c);

(iv) Divide by the total quantity of milk received from producers by such handler other than the milk represented by the amount subtracted pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(3) On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall notify each handler and make public announcement of the uniform prices computed for such handler pursuant to this section, and of the Class IV price.

(c) Base rating. During each delivery period, except the delivery periods of June, July, August, and September, the base of each producer shall be a quantity of milk to be calculated by the market administrator in the following manner: Multiply the rating, if any, effective pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, by the number of days on which milk was received from such producer during such delivery period. Milk received from a producer not in excess of his base shall be designated as "base milk" and that received in excess of his base shall be designated as "excess milk."

(d) Determination for base rating. For the purpose of calculating, pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, the bases of producers, the market administrator shall determine a rating, with respect to milk received in bulk from each producer by handlers, as follows:

(1) Effective for the remainder of the calendar year 1937 the rating of each producer shall be the daily base, if any, of each such producer which is on file July 15, 1937, with the administrator of the order for the marketing area, issued by the Milk Control Board of the State of Indiana;

(2) Effective for each of the first three delivery periods following November 13, 1937, during which milk is received from any producer for whom the reports of handlers do not supply information necessary for a determination of a rating pursuant to subparagraphs (1), (3), and (4) of this paragraph, the rating of each such producer shall be that proportion of milk received from him which is the proportion of the aggregate daily base milk to the aggregate daily delivery of milk of all other producers; effective for the remainder of the then current calendar year the rating of each such producer shall be the average of his ratings for each of such first three delivery periods: Provided, That ratings under this subparagraph shall not be effective for any producer during the period when handlers are required to make payment to any such producer pursuant to Sec. 920.8 (a) (1) (i);

(3) Effective for each year subsequent to October 1, 1938, divide the total receipts in bulk by handlers during the four months of the preceding year when receipts were lowest, by the number of days on which milk was received and take such a percentage of the result as will make the total of all figures so determined approximately equal to 115 percent of the average Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk per day disposed of during October, November, December, January, February, March, April, and May of the preceding year by all handlers by whom such milk was received; and

§ 920.8 Payments for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. (1) On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, other than the delivery periods of June, July, August, and September, each handler shall, with respect to milk received from outside the State of Indiana or received at the handler's plant outside the State of Indiana during such delivery period, make payment, subject to the butterfat differential set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, to producers from whom such milk was received, as follows:

(i) To any such producer who did not regularly sell milk during a period of 30 days next preceding November 13, 1937, to a handler, to persons within the marketing area, or distribute milk in the marketing area, at the Class IV price for all the milk received from such producer during the period beginning with the first regular delivery of milk of such producer and continuing until the end of 2 full calendar months following the date of such first delivery of milk; and

(ii) To all other such producers, at the uniform price per hundredweight computed for such handler pursuant to Sec. 920.7 (b) (2).

(2) On or before the 15th day after the end of each June, July, August, and September delivery period, each handler shall, with respect to milk received from outside the State of Indiana or received at the handler's plant outside the State of Indiana during such delivery period, make payment, subject to the butterfat differential set forth in paragraph (e) of this section, to producers from whom such milk was received, as follows:

(i) To any such producer who did not regularly sell milk during a period of 30 days next preceding November 13, 1937, to a handler, to persons within the marketing area, or distribute milk in the marketing area, at the Class IV price for all the milk received from such producer during the period beginning with the first regular delivery of milk of such producer and continuing until the end of 2 full calendar months following the date of such first delivery of milk; and

(ii) To all other such producers, at the uniform price per hundredweight computed for such handler pursuant to Sec. 920.7 (b) (2).

(b) Errors in payments. Errors made, from whatever cause, in the payments prescribed in this section shall be corrected not later than the date for making payments next following the determination of such errors.

(c) Butterfat differential. If any handler has received from any producer, during the delivery period, milk having an average butterfat content other than 3.8 percent, such handler in making payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, shall add to the prices per hundredweight for such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk above 3.8 percent not less than, or shall deduct from such prices for such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk below 3.8 percent, not more than an amount as follows:

If the average butter price used in Sec. 920.4 (a) is 29 cents or less—3 cents.

If the average butter price used in Sec. 920.4 (a) is 29.1 cents to 34 cents—3.5 cents.

If the average butter price used in Sec. 920.4 (a) is 34.1 cents to 39 cents—4 cents.

If the average butter price used in Sec. 920.4 (a) is over 39 cents—4.5 cents.

§ 920.9 Marketing services—(a) Deductions for marketing services. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler shall deduct an amount not exceeding 3 cents per hundredweight (the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the Secretary) from the payments made to each producer pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of Sec. 920.8 (a) with respect to all milk received by such handler during each delivery period from such producer, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator for market information to and for verification of weights, sampling, and testing of milk received from the said producers.

(b) Producers' cooperative associations. In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association, which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the Capper-Volstead Act, is actually performing, as determined by the Secretary, the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make the deductions from the payments to be made pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of Sec. 920.8 (a) which are authorized by such producers and, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, pay over such deductions to the association of which such producers are members.

§ 920.10 Effective time, suspension, or termination of order, as amended—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination of order, as amended. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, whenever he finds that this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, obstructs, or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order, as amended, shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(1) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (a) continue in such capacity until removed by the Secretary, (b) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and, when so directed by the Secretary, deliver all funds or property on hand together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary may direct, and (c) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall liquidate, if so directed by the Secretary, the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 920.11 Liability—(a) Liability of handlers. The liability of the handlers hereunder is several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

Now, therefore, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, for the purposes and within the limitations therein contained and not otherwise, hereby executes and issues in duplicate this order, as amended, under his hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on this 29th day of July 1939, and declares this order, as amended, to be effective on and after the 3d day of August 1939.

[SEAL] HARRY L. BROWN,

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

CIVIL AERONAUTICS AUTHORITY

[Amendment 21, Civil Air Regulations]

AIRWAY TRAFFIC CONTROL AREA DESIGNATIONS, NEW; GREEN CIVIL AIRWAY No. 5, REVISED; GREEN CIVIL AIRWAY No. 1; AMBER CIVIL AIRWAY Nos. 6 & 7; RED CIVIL AIRWAY Nos. 10 & 23; BLUE CIVIL AIRWAY No. 3.

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of July 1939.

Acting pursuant to the Authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, particularly sections 205 (a) and 601 (a) of said Act, and finding that its action is desirable in the public interest and is necessary to carry out the provisions of and to exercise and perform its powers and duties under said Act, the Civil Aeronautics Authority hereby amends the Civil Air Regulations as follows:

Section 60.24 of the Civil Air Regulations is amended as follows:

1. By the addition of a new section, section 60.2404, reading as follows:

"60.2404 Green civil airway No. 5. From a point 25 miles northeast of the Mobile, Ala., radio range station to a point 25 miles east of the Richmond, Va., radio range station."

2. By amending section 60.2400 so as to read as follows:

"60.2400 Green civil airway No. 1. From a point 25 miles southeast of the La Crosse, Wis., radio range station to the Lone Rock, Wis., radio range station; from a point 25 miles west of the Grand Rapids, Mich., radio range station to the intersection of the center line of the on course signal of the east leg of the Detroit, Mich., (Wayne County Airport) radio range and the United States-Canadian Border; from the intersection of the center line of the on course signal of the west leg of the Buffalo, N. Y., radio range and the United States-Canadian Border to a point 25 miles east of the Syracuse, N. Y., radio range station."

3. By amending section 60.2413 so as to read as follows:

4. By amending section 60.2414 so as to read as follows:

"60.2414 Amber civil airway No. 7. From a point 25 miles north of the Raleigh, N. C., radio range station to a point 25 miles southwest of the Putnam, Conn., radio marker station."

5. By amending section 60.24213 so as to read as follows:

"60.24213 Red civil airway No. 10. From the Fort Worth, Tex., radio range station to a point 25 miles west of the Shreveport, La., radio range station; from a point 25 miles east of the Jackson, Miss., radio range station to a point 25 miles northwest of the Charleston, S. C., radio range station."

6. By amending section 60.24209, as amended, so as to read as follows:

"60.24209 Red civil airway No. 23. From the Buffalo, N. Y., radio range station to the Newark, N. J., radio range station."

7. By amending section 60.2430 so as to read as follows:

"60.2430 Blue civil airway No. 3. From the Baltimore, Md., Logan Field to the Elmira, N. Y., radio range station."

This amendment shall become effective on and after 12:01 A. M., E. S. T., August 15, 1939.

By the Authority.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Docket No. 3201]

IN THE MATTER OF CHENILLE CORPORATION OF AMERICA

§ 3.6 (m 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Manufacture: § 3.69 (b) (7a) Misrepresenting oneself and goods—Goods—Manufacture. Using, in connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of rugs, terms "hand-made" or "hand-hooked" or any other terms of similar import or meaning, to designate, describe or refer to rugs which have not been made entirely by hand labor and hand craft, prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by Sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., Supp. IV, sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Chenille Corporation of America, Docket 3201, July 21, 1939]

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of July, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard[1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent, testimony and other evidence taken before A. F. Thomas and Miles J. Furnas, examiners of the Commission, theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said complaint and in opposition thereto, brief filed by counsel for the Commission (respondent not having filed brief and oral argument not having been requested); and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Chenille Corporation of America, a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of rugs in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Using the terms "hand-made" or "hand-hooked" or any other terms of similar import or meaning to designate, describe or refer to rugs which have not been made entirely by hand labor and hand craft.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of July, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

IN THE MATTER OF GOLD MEDAL FARMS, INC., A CORPORATION, JOSEPH FROMM, PAUL STEFFIN, INDIVIDUALS

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard[1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answers of respondents, testimony and other evidence taken before John W. Addison, an examiner of the Commission, theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said complaint and in opposition thereto, briefs filed herein, and oral arguments by Fletcher G. Cohn, counsel for the Commission, and by Harold S. Fleischer, counsel for the respondents, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That respondent Gold Medal Farms, Inc., its successors or assigns, officers, representatives, agents and employees, and respondents Joseph Fromm and Paul Steffin, acting individually or through or by means of respondent Gold Medal Farms, Inc., or through or by means of any other dealer or distributor of milk or milk products, or through or by means of any group, association or combination of dealers or distributors, or any other agency, in connection with the purchase, receipt, sale or distribution of milk in any form in interstate commerce or in the District of Columbia, do forthwith cease and desist from doing directly or indirectly the following acts and things:

(1) Deceiving, coercing or intimidating in any manner or by any means or methods, any milk producer or producers from whom any of the respondents purchase or receive, or may hereafter purchase or receive, milk in any form whatsoever, for the purpose, or with the intent, or with the result, of preventing said producer or producers from assisting in organizing, or from forming, joining, or becoming a member of, or affiliated with, any milk producers' cooperative association;

(2) Deceiving, coercing, or intimidating, in any manner or by any means or method, any milk producer or producers from whom any of the respondents purchase or receive, or may hereafter purchase or receive, milk in any form whatsoever for the purpose, or with the intent, or with the result, of causing said producer or producers to assist in organizing, or in forming, joining, or becoming a member of or affiliated with, any milk producers' cooperative association;

(3) Threatening reprisals in any manner or form against any milk producer or producers from whom any of the respondents purchase or receive, or may hereafter purchase or receive, milk in any form whatsoever, as a penalty for, or as a result of, any attempt by said producer or producers to assist in organizing or forming any milk producers' cooperative association, or, as a penalty for, or as a result of any such producer or producers joining or becoming a member of, or affiliated with, any such association, or as a penalty for, or as a result of, the failure of any such producer or producers to assist in organizing, or forming any such association, or as a penalty for, or as a result of, his or their failing to join or failing to become a member of, or failing to become affiliated with, any such association;

(4) Interfering by means of deception, coercion, or intimidation, in any manner or form, with the free and unimpeded exercise of choice by any milk producer or producers from whom any of the respondents purchase or receive, or may hereafter purchase or receive, milk in any form whatsoever, in the determination by said producer or producers as to whether said producer or producers shall or should form, organize, join or become affiliated with any producers' cooperative association;

(5) Interfering by means of deception, coercion, or intimidation, in any form or manner, with the free and unimpeded exercise of choice by any milk producers' cooperative association in its determination of whether or not such milk producers' cooperative association shall or should join or become affiliated, in any manner or form, with the Metropolitan Cooperative Producers' Bargaining Agency, Inc., or any milk producers' cooperative bargaining organization or agency, authorized by law;

(6) Making, or causing to be made, in any form or manner, any falsely disparaging words or statements concerning or referring to the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers' Bargaining Agency, Inc., or any milk producers' cooperative bargaining organization or agency, authorized by law, its purposes, objectives, its members, or the character of its representatives or membership;

(7) Controlling, dominating, interfering, or attempting to control, dominate, or interfere with, in any form, manner or method whatsoever, the organization, management, control, or operation of the Washington and Rensselaer Counties Producers' Cooperative Association, Inc., or any other milk producers' cooperative association or agency, authorized by law, with the purpose, intent, or result of preventing the producer members, officers, or directors of such a cooperative, from exercising their free and unimpeded judgment as to its organization, management, control, or operation.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the form and manner in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission, Commissioner Davis dissenting.

Application and Commitment

§ 532.1 Information for preliminary examination. Information required for preliminary examination of a Rental Housing project under Section 207 shall be executed by an approved mortgagee or by an authorized representative of said mortgagee and by the sponsors of such project, and shall be submitted through the local Federal Housing Administration office on FHA Form 2013, executed in triplicate. No application will be considered unless the exhibits called for by that form are furnished. The submission of Form 2013 will be deemed to be the sponsor's agreement to pay in accordance with the provisions of this section and on account of the costs of appraisal and inspection by the Administrator, the following sums:

(a) One dollar and fifty cents per thousand of the face amount of the mortgage loan applied for (referred to as "Application Fee") upon submission of application, and

(b) A sum (referred to as "Commitment Fee") which when added to the Application Fee will aggregate $3.00 per thousand of the face amount of the mortgage loan approved for insurance by the Administrator, and which shall be paid at the time of delivery of the commitment letter.

However, in the case of a Public Housing project, the fee to be paid under this section shall be fixed by the Administrator, but shall not exceed $3.00 per thousand of the original face amount of the mortgage.

If the Administrator shall issue a commitment as herein provided and the commitment fee shall not be paid and delivery accepted by the applicant within the period of time specified in the commitment letter, such commitment shall, unless the period for such payment be specifically extended, be considered void and of no effect. If an application to increase the amount of the insured mortgage is presented after commitment, a new application fee based upon the amount of such increase must be paid at the time the application for such increase is filed which payment will be subject to adjustment as above provided in accordance with the amount of the increase approved by the Administrator. If the amount of the insured mortgage is increased after insurance either by the amendment or by the substitution of a new insured mortgage, the fees herein provided for shall be based upon the amount of such increase.

If an application is rejected upon preliminary examination as determined by the Administrator, the application fee will be returned to the applicant. Otherwise fees paid as above provided shall not be returned. In special cases the Administrator may charge prior to closing an additional fee not exceeding $2.00 per thousand of the face amount of the loan approved for insurance.*† [Sec. I, par. 1]

§ 532.2 Evidence of acceptance of mortgage. Upon approval of an application and payment of the commitment fee, acceptance of the mortgage for insurance will be evidenced by the issuance of a commitment setting forth the terms and conditions upon which the mortgage will be insured, including special requirements applicable to the project and requiring the submission in final form within a time specified of all appropriate documents, drawings, plans, specifications, estimates, and other instruments evidencing full compliance satisfactory to the Administrator with these Rules and with such terms and conditions. No commitment shall be valid unless signed by the Administrator or his duly authorized agent, and shall be effective for a stated period, not in excess of 120 days, and may be renewed in such manner as the Administrator may from time to time specify.*† [Sec. I, par. 2]

Eligible Mortgages

§ 532.3 Mortgage forms. The Administrator does not furnish mortgage forms for each project or for each jurisdiction. The forms customarily used in any particular jurisdiction if so modified and amplified as to include the matters herein set forth, and if otherwise satisfactory to the Administrator, will be aprpoved.*† [Sec. II, par 1]

§ 532.4 Eligibility for insurance. In order to be eligible for insurance under these Rules a mortgage shall create a first lien securing a principal obligation not in excess of $5,000,000, and such part thereof as may be attributable to dwelling use shall not exceed $1,350 per room, depending upon the location of the project and local building costs and rental conditions. The principal obligation of such mortgage shall not exceed eighty per centum (80%) of the amount which the Administrator estimates will be the value of the property or project when the proposed improvements are completed: Provided, That such mortgage shall not in any event exceed the amount which the Administrator estimates will be the cost of the completed physical improvements on the property or project, exclusive of the following: Public utilities except lead ins from abutting streets to the project; public streets except approaches from abutting streets to private streets in the project; abutting sidewalks and curbing outside the project site; real estate taxes, interest on the mortgage, hazard insurance, owner's liability insurance and other insurance customarily payable by the mortgagor; organization and legal expenses; financing charges; and miscellaneous charges during or incidental to construction and customarily payable by the mortgagor, including but not limited to Federal Housing Administration appraisal and inspection fees and mortgage insurance premium, title and recording expenses, and cost of surveys and contour maps.*† [Sec. II, par. 2]

§ 532.5 Maturity. The mortgage shall have a maturity satisfactory to the Administrator, depending upon the risk involved and the general character of the project, and shall contain complete amortization or sinking-fund provisions satisfactory to the Administrator.*† [Sec. II, par. 2]

§ 532.6 Payment requirements. The mortgage shall provide for periodic payments by the mortgagor to the mortgagee on account of interest, principal, and mortgage insurance, not less frequently than every three (3) months.*† [Sec. II, par. 4]

§ 532.7 Interest rate. The mortgage shall bear interest at such rate, not exceeding four and one-half per centum (4½%) per annum, as may be agreed upon between the mortgagor and the mortgagee. All charges made in connection with the mortgage transaction shall be subject to the approval of the Administrator.*† [Sec. II, par. 5]

§ 532.8 Release provisions. The mortgage shall cover the entire property included in the housing project. Where the project consists principally of single-family houses the mortgage may include appropriate provisions for the release from the lien thereof of any such house and the land upon which it is located in consideration of the payment to the mortgagee, in reduction of the principal of the mortgage, of an amount set forth in a schedule attached to and forming part of said mortgage. Such mortgages shall provide that the released property be subject to deed restrictions, approved by the Administrator at the time of the insurance of the mortgage and providing to the properties remaining under the mortgage adequate protection against adverse influences. Where the mortgage does not contain such release provisions no property shall, except with the consent of the mortgagee and the Administrator, be released from the lien thereof so long as the mortgage insurance is in force.*† [Sec. II, par. 6]

§ 532.9 Covenant against liens. The mortgage, except in the case of Public Housing projects, shall contain a covenant against the creation by the mortgagor of liens against the property inferior to the lien of the mortgage.*† [Sec. II, par. 7]

§ 532.10 Covenants for fire insurance. The mortgage shall contain a covenant binding the mortgagor to keep the premises insured against fire and such other hazards as the Administrator may stipulate, in companies and in amounts satisfactory to the Administrator. The policies evidencing such insurance shall have attached standard form mortgagee clause making loss, if any, payable to the mortgagee, and the Administrator, as interest may appear.*† [Sec. II, par. 8]

§ 532.11 Soundness of property. No mortgage shall be accepted for insurance unless the Administrator finds that the property or project with respect to which the mortgage is executed is economically sound.*† [Sec. II, par. 9]

§ 532.12 Provisions for accumulation of next premium. The mortgage shall provide for payments by the mortgagor to the mortgagee on each interest payment date of an amount sufficient to accumulate in the hands of the mortgagee one payment period prior to its due date, the next annual mortgage insurance premium payable by the mortgagee to the Administrator. Such payments shall continue only so long as the contract of mortgage insurance shall remain in effect. The mortgage shall provide that upon the payment of the mortgage before maturity, the mortgagor shall pay the adjusted premium charge referred to in Section 533.3.*† [Sec. II, par. 10]

§ 532.13 Application of payments. All periodic payments to be made by the mortgagor to the mortgagee shall be added together and the aggregate amount thereof shall be paid by the mortgagor upon each periodic payment date in a single payment. The mortgagee shall apply the same to the following items in the order set forth:

(a) Premium charges under the contract of insurance;

(b) At its discretion, to any sums due under the terms of the mortgage or the credit instrument which it secures.

Any deficiency in the amount of any such aggregate periodic payment shall constitute an event of default under the mortgage.*† [Sec. II, par. 11]

§ 532.14 Prevailing wage requirements. No advance under any mortgage insured pursuant to the provisions of Section 207 of the National Housing Act, as amended, shall be eligible for insurance unless there is filed with the application for such advance a certificate or certificates in the form required by the Administrator certifying that the laborers and mechanics employed in the construction of the dwelling or dwellings or the housing project involved have been paid not less than the wages prevailing in the locality in which the work was performed for the corresponding classes of laborers and mechanics employed on construction of a similar character, as determined by the Secretary of Labor prior to the beginning of construction and after the date of the filing of application for insurance. This section shall be effective only as to mortgages upon which an application for mortgage insurance is filed after June 3, 1939.*† [Sec. II, par. 12]

Eligible Mortgagors

§ 532.15 Classification of mortgagors—(a) Private mortgagors. A private corporation, association, cooperative society which is a legal agent of the owner-occupants, or trust (sometimes referred to in these Rules and Regulations as "mortgagor", "corporation", or "mortgagor corporation"), formed or created with the approval of the Administrator, for the purpose of (1) rehabilitating slum or blighted areas, or (2) providing housing for rent or sale, and possessing powers necessary therefor and incidental thereto, which corporation, association, cooperative society, or trust, until the termination of all obligations of the Administrator under such insurance, is regulated or restricted by the Administrator as to rents or sales, charges, capital structure, rate of return, and methods of operation. Such regulation or restriction shall remain in effect until such time as the mortgage insurance contract terminates without obligation upon the Administrator to issue debentures as a result of such termination. So long as such contract of insurance is in effect, the corporation, association, cooperative society, or trust shall engage in no business other than the construction and operation of a Rental Housing project or projects; or

(b) Public mortgagors. A Federal or State instrumentality, a municipal corporate instrumentality of one or more States, or a limited dividend corporation formed under and restricted by Federal or State housing laws as to rents, charges, capital structure, rate of return, or methods of operation (projects of such mortgagors are herein sometimes referred to as "Public Housing projects").*† [Sec. III, par. 1]

§ 532.16 Definition of term "slum or blighted area". The term "slum or blighted area" means any area where dwellings predominate which, by reason of dilapidation, overcrowding, faulty arrangement or design, lack of ventilation, light or sanitation facilities, or any combination of these factors, are detrimental to safety, health or morals.*† [Sec. III, par. 2]

Supervision of Mortgagors

§ 532.17 In general. In the case of an eligible mortgagor described in Section 532.15 (b), the Administrator is not required under the Act to regulate or restrict the mortgagor. Such mortgagor, however, must have initial funds which may be considered in lieu of the equity required of other mortgagors. Such funds (which may be in the form of government loans, grants or subsidies, or in other form) if sufficient in amount will be considered satisfactory provided they do not create a lien against the property prior to that of the insured mortgage. Liens inferior to the lien of the insured mortgage may be allowed against properties of such mortgagors.

Supervision of other mortgagors is required by the provision of Section 207 of the Act that such mortgagors shall be regulated or restricted by the Administrator. In the case of a project involving a mortgage in excess of $200,000 such regulation or restriction will be set forth in the certificate of incorporation or other instrument under which the mortgagor is created (hereinafter referred to as the "charter") and will be made effective through the issuance of certain shares of special stock (or other evidence of a beneficial interest in the mortgagor) which stock or interest will acquire majority voting rights in the event of default under the mortgage or violation of a provision of the charter, but only for a period coexistent with the duration of such default or violation. Such special stock or interest shall be held and all voting rights with respect thereto exercised by the Administration, except qualifying shares for the Administrator's representatives. When the right of the Administrator to regulate or restrict the mortgagor shall terminate as above provided, the shares of special stock or other evidence of interest shall be surrendered by the Administrator upon reimbursement for his payments therefor, plus accrued dividends thereon.

In the case of a project involving a mortgage not in excess of $200,000 only those regulations or restrictions with respect to dividends and provisions for reserves shall be required to be embodied in the charter of such mortgagor, by provisions satisfactory to the Administrator. The other regulations or restrictions outlined below may be embodied in a regulatory contract to be executed by the mortgagor and the Administrator concurrently with the execution of the contract of insurance.*† [Sec. IV]

§ 532.18 Required supervision of private mortgagors. The following are the items which will be regulated or restricted to the extent indicated, except in the case of mortgagors of Public Housing projects:

(a) Rents and charges. Except as hereinafter provided,

(1) No charge shall be made by the mortgagor corporation for the accommodations offered by the project in excess of a rental schedule to be filed with the Administrator prior to the opening of the project for rental, which schedule shall be based upon a maximum average rental fixed prior to the insurance of the mortgage. Such schedule shall not thereafter be changed except upon application of the mortgagor corporation and the written approval of the Administrator. In establishing such maximum and in passing upon applications for changes, consideration will be given the following and similar factors:

(i) Rental income necessary to maintain the economic soundness of the project.

(ii) Relation of the proposed rentals to those currenty being paid in the given community by families for whom this type of housing is intended.

(2) The established maximum rental shall be the maximum authorized charge against any tenant for the accommodations offered exclusive of telephone, gas, electric, and refrigeration facilities. Charges in addition to such maximum rental may be made against a tenant for telephone, gas, electric, refrigeration, and other facilities and privileges furnished by the mortgagor, subject to the approval of the Administrator.

(3) In the case of a project subject to a mortgage containing release clauses, all matters with respect to the release and all agreements between the mortgagor and its vendees with respect to the amount and terms of sale must first be approved by the Administrator.

(b) Capital structure.

(1) In appraising a project for commitment the Administrator will value the contribution of the sponsors (which shall be in the form of unencumbered land, and such case and services as the Administrator shall require) at an amount determined by him to represent its value as a component part of the project upon completion, and shall credit sponsors, for appraisal purposes, with the amount of equity so found. The sponsors shall satisfy the Administrator that the cash and services contributed as part of such equity shall, when added to the proceeds of the mortgage, be sufficient to cover all estimated costs of the project and to provide a cash reserve for contingencies, preopening expenses, and other items during the construction period.

(2) Such number of shares of capital stock, either with or without par value, in the case of a corporation, or such appropriate evidences of interest, in the case of an association, a cooperative society, or a trust, may be issued as sponsors may deem appropriate. Such stock or interest, together with paid in surplus, if any, shall represent such equity. Additional stock or evidences of interest may be authorized but the charter shall provide that it shall not be issued except with the approval of the Administrator. No stock or interest shall be redeemed, purchased, or paid off by the mortgagor during the period in which the mortgage insurance is in force, except with the approval of the Administrator.

(3) The shares of stock or interest issued to the Administrator shall be in sufficient amount to constitute, under the laws of the particular State, a valid special class of stock or interest and shall be issued in consideration of the payment by the Administrator of not exceeding $100.

(c) Rate of return. No dividends or distribution of income shall be declared or paid by the corporation in any one fiscal year in excess of an aggregate amount fixed by the Administrator at the time the mortgage is accepted for insurance. Such amount shall not exceed an amount equal to six per centum (6%) per annum of the equity as valued by the Administrator, but the Administrator may permit an additional stated amount, payable out of surplus earnings of the corporation after provision for required reserves not exceeding an aggregate of eight per centum (8%) per annum, provided that no such additional dividends or distribution shall be declared or paid unless the principal of the insured mortgage shall be prepaid in an amount at least equal to require interest and principal payments for the first amortization year.

(1) No compensation shall be paid by the corporation except for necessary services and except at such rate as is fair and reasonable in the locality for similar services, nor, except with the prior written approval of the Administrator, shall any compensation be paid by the corporation to any employee in an amount in excess of eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800) per annum, or to its officers, directors, or stockholders, or to any person or corporation for supervisory or managerial services. No officer, director, stockholder, agent, or employee of the corporation shall in any manner become indebted to the corporation.

(2) The corporation shall maintain its project, the grounds, buildings, and equipment appurtenant thereto, in good repair and in such condition as will preserve the health and safety of its tenants.

(3) Before the payment of any dividend by the corporation reserves shall be accumulated and so replenished from time to time as to remain intact so long as the mortgage insurance is in force. The amount and types of such reserves and the conditions under which they shall be accumulated, replenished, and used, shall be specified in the charter.

(4) The corporation, its property, equipment, buildings, plans, offices, apparatus, devices, books, contracts, records, documents, and papers shall be subject to inspection and examination by the Administrator or his duly authorized agent at all reasonable times.

(5) The books and accounts of the corporation shall be kept in accordance with the uniform system of accounting prescribed by the Administrator. The corporation shall file with the Administrator the following reports verified by the oath of such officer of the corporation as the Administrator may designate and in such form as prescribed by the Administrator:

(i) Monthly occupancy reports;

(ii) Financial statements to be filed within thirty (30) days after the end of each dividend period established in the charter;

(iii) Annual reports prepared by a certified public accountant, to be filed within sixty (60) days after the end of each fiscal year; and

(iv) Specific answers to questions upon which information is desired from time to time relative to the operation and condition of the property and the status of the insured mortgage.

(e) Control of funds during construction. Funds involved in the construction of a project representing security for an insured mortgage loan shall be subject to the following restrictions:

(1) Funds representing the required cash equity shall, as a condition precedent to the insurance of the mortgage, be placed in a special account with a depositary satisfactory to the Administrator and subject to withdrawal only upon written approval of the Administrator. Upon completion of construction to the satisfaction of the Administrator, any balance then remaining in such special account shall be paid over to the general account of the corporation for the purpose of establishing its reserves.

(2) No funds representing the proceeds of an insured mortgage shall be advanced except upon proper requisition approved by the Administrator.

(3) Assurance for the completion of a project (i) may be either the bond of a satisfactory surety company in the standard A. I. A. (or equivalent) form of construction bond in an amount at least equal to ten per centum (10%) of the construction cost, or (ii) may be an escrow deposit in an approved depositary of cash or securities of, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the United States of America, in an amount at least equal to ten per centum (10%) of the construction cost, conditioned on completion of the project to the satisfaction of the Administrator, or (iii) may be in such other form as may be recommended by the mortgagee and approved in writing by the Administrator.*† [Sec. IV, pars. 1–5]

Eligible Mortgagees

§ 532.19 Classifications. The following are eligible for approval as mortgagees:

(a) A chartered institution or other permanent organization having succession.

(b) The Federal or a State Government, or an agency, instrumentality, or subdivision thereof.

(c) The holder or holders of a credit instrument or instruments given in connection with a mortgage, acting by and through a trustee appointed pursuant to the terms of such mortgage.

In order to be eligible the mortgagee must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Administrator its ability to make the mortgage loan and service the same.*† [Sec. V, par. 1]

§ 532.20 Special provisions for approval. An eligible institution, organization, agency, or entity may become the mortgagee under an insured mortgage upon its approval by the Administrator for a particular transaction.

In the event that bonds are to be issued as a part of the insured mortgage transaction, all arrangements with respect to the issuance and sale of such bonds shall be subject to approval by the Administrator.*† [Sec. V, pars. 2–3]

Eligible Properties

§ 532.21 Eligibility of property. In order for property to be eligible as the subject of an insured mortgage, such property must be held in fee simple, or consist of the interest of lessor or lessee under a lease for not less than ninety-nine (99) years which is renewable, or under a lease having not less than fifty (50) years to run from the date the mortgage was executed. Such mortgage may also cover additional property approved by the Administrator.

The property constituting security for the mortgage must be held by an eligible mortgagor as herein defined and must at the time the mortgage is insured be free and clear of all liens other than that of such mortgage.*† [Sec. VI, pars. 1–2]

§ 532.22 Development of property. At the time the mortgage is insured:

(a) There shall be located on the mortgaged property a building or buildings designed principally for residential use which shall conform to standards satisfactory to the Administrator and may consist of a group of detached, semidetached, or row houses, or multi-family dwellings; or

(b) The mortgagor shall be obligated to construct and complete such housing accommodations thereon and shall have furnished such assurance of the performance of such obligation as the Administrator may require.*† [Sec. VI, par. 3]

Title

§ 532.23 Eligibility of title. In order for the mortgaged property to be eligible for insurance, the Administrator must determine that marketable title thereto is vested in the mortgagor as of the date the mortgage is filed for record. The title will be examined by the Administrator, and if found to be eligible such finding shall be recited in the contract of insurance.*† [Sec. VII, par. 1]

§ 532.24 Title evidence. Upon insurance of the mortgage, the mortgagee, without expense to the Administrator, shall furnish to the Administrator, a survey satisfactory to him and a policy of title insurance as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, or, if the mortgagee is unable to furnish such policy for reasons satisfactory to the Administrator, the mortgagee, without expense to the Administrator, shall furnish such evidence of title as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), or (d) of this section, as the Administrator may require.

(a) A policy of title insurance with respect to such mortgage, issued by a company satisfactory to the Administrator. Such policy shall comply with the "L. I. C. Standard Mortgagee Form" or the "A. T. A. Standard Mortgagee Form", or such other form as may be approved by the Administrator; shall be payable to the mortgagee and the Administrator as their respective interests may appear; and shall become an owner's policy, running to the mortgagee as owned upon the acquisition of the property by the mortgagee in extinguishment of the debt through foreclosure or by other means as provided in Section 533.5 (b) (1), and to the Administrator as owner upon the acquisition of the property by him pursuant to the mortgage insurance contract.

(b) An abstract of title satisfactory to the Administrator, prepared by an abstract company or individual engaged in the business of preparing abstracts of title, accompanied by a legal opinion satisfactory to the Administrator, as to the quality of such title, signed by an attorney at law experienced in the examination of titles.

(c) A Torrens or similar title certificate.

(d) Evidence of title conforming to the standards of a supervising branch of the Government of the United States of America, or of any State or Territory thereof.*† [Sec. VII, par. 2]

§ 532.25 Effective date. These Administrative Rules shall be effective as to all mortgages with respect to which a commitment to insure shall be issued on or after the date hereof, except that Section 532.14 shall be effective only as to mortgages upon which an application for mortgage insurance is filed after June 3, 1939.*† Issued at Washington, D. C., June 30, 1939.

(a) The term "Administrator" means the Federal Housing Administrator.

(b) The term "Act" means the National Housing Act, as amended.

(c) The term "mortgage" means such a first lien upon real estate and other property as is commonly given to secure advances (including but not being limited to advances during construction) on, or the unpaid purchase price of, real estate under the laws of the State, district or territory in which the real estate is located, together with the credit instrument or instruments, if any, secured thereby.

(d) The term "insured mortgage" means a mortgage with respect to which the Administrator has issued an executed contract of insurance.

(e) The term "mortgagor" means the original borrower under a mortgage and its successors and such of its assigns as are approved by the Administrator.

(f) The term "mortgagee" means the original lender under a mortgage, and its successors and assigns, and includes the holders of the credit instruments issued under a trust mortgage or deed of trust pursuant to which such holders act by and through a trustee therein named.

(g) The term "contract of insurance" means the written instrument duly executed by the Administrator and the mortgagee, setting forth the terms, conditions, and provisions of insurance, which terms, conditions, and provisions shall be subject to these Regulations.

(h) The term "claim under the contract of insurance" means the assignment, transfer and delivery to the Administrator of the mortgage or the conveyance to him of the property, as provided in Sections 533.5 to 533.12.*† [Art. II]

Premiums

§533.2 First and second interim premiums. The mortgagee, upon delivery of the contract of insurance, shall pay to the Administrator a mortgage insurance premium equal to one-half of one per centum (½ of 1%) of the original face amount of the mortgage and, upon the anniversary of such date, shall pay a premium in a like sum. Said two premiums shall be known respectively as the first and second interim premiums. On the date on which the first periodic payment of principal is due the mortgagee shall pay to the Administrator, subject to the adjustment hereinafter provided, and annually thereafter on the anniversary of such date until the mortgage is paid in full or claim under the contract of insurance is made or until the contract of insurance shall terminate, an annual mortgage insurance premium equal to one-half of one per centum (½ of 1%) of the average outstanding principal obligation of the mortgage for the year following the date on which such premium becomes payable, and calculated in accordance with the amortization provisions without taking into account delinquent payments or prepayments. The premium payable on the date on which the first periodic payment of principal becomes due shall be adjusted so as to accord with such date and so that the aggregate of the premiums paid up to and including the premium paid on such adjusted payment date shall equal the sum of (a) one per centum (1%) of the average outstanding principal obligation of the mortgage for the year following the date on which the first interim premium became payable and (b) one-half of one per centum (½ of 1%) per annum of the average outstanding principal obligation of the mortgage for the period from the date when the second interim premium became payable down to and including one year following the date on which such first periodic payment of principal becomes due, and calculated in accordance with the amortization provisions, without taking into account delinquent payments or prepayments. The provisions of this section shall also apply to mortgages insured prior to February 3, 1938, but only in respect to premiums payable after such date, and no adjustment shall be made with respect to any premium payable on or before such date. All premiums shall be payable in cash or in debentures issued by the Administrator under Title II of the Act at par plus accrued interest.*† [Art. III, par 1]

§ 533.3 Prepayment premium charges. In the event that the principal obligation of any mortgage accepted for insurance is paid in full prior to maturity, the mortgagee shall within thirty (30) days thereafter notify the Administrator of the date of prepayment and shall collect from the mortgagor and pay to the Administrator in the case of a mortgage prepaid within five years from the date thereof, an adjusted premium charge of two per centum (2%) of the original face amount of the prepaid mortgage, and in case the mortgage is prepaid after five years from the date thereof, an adjusted premium charge of one per centum (1%) of the original face amount of the prepaid mortgage, except that if at the time of any such prepayment there is placed on the mortgaged property a new insured mortgage in an amount less than the original face amount of the prepaid mortgage, an adjusted premium shall be paid based upon the difference between such amounts at the rate applicable as above stated, depending upon the date of prepayment.

In no event shall the adjusted premium exceed the aggregate amount of premium charges which would have been payable if the mortgage had continued to be insured until maturity.

No adjusted premium shall be collected by the mortgagee in the following cases:

(a) Where at the time of such prepayment there is placed on the mortgaged property a new insured mortgage for an amount equal to or greater than the original face amount of the prepaid mortgage; or

(b) Where the final maturity specified in the mortgage is accelerated solely by reason of partial prepayments made by the mortgagor which do not exceed in any one calendar year fifteen per centum (15%) of the original face amount of the mortgage; or

(c) Where the final maturity specified in the mortgage is accelerated solely by reason of payments to principal to compensate for (i) damage to the mortgaged property, or (ii) a release of a part of such property if approved by the Administrator; or

(d) Where payment in full is made of a delinquent mortgage on which foreclosure proceedings have been commenced, or for the purpose of avoiding foreclosure, if the transaction is approved by the Administrator.

Upon such prepayment the contract of insurance shall terminate.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to prohibit the mortgagee from including in the mortgage and collecting from the mortgagor such charge for prepayment as may be agreed upon between the mortgagee and mortgagor.*† [Art. III, par. 2]

§ 533.4 Contract of insurance. Upon compliance satisfactory to the Administrator with the terms of the commitment to insure the Administrator and the mortgagee shall execute the contract of insurance and the mortgage shall be an insured mortgage from the effective date of such contract. The Administrator and the mortgagee shall thereafter be bound by the contract of insurance, subject to the provisions of these Regulations which shall form part of each such contract.*† [Art. IV]

Rights and Duties of a Mortgagee Under the Contract of Insurance

§ 533.5 Benefits of insurance. The mortgagee shall be entitled to receive the benefits of the insurance, at its option, either as provided in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) hereunder.

(a) By assignment.—If the mortgagor fails to make any payment due under or provided to be paid by the terms of the mortgage and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days, the mortgage shall be considered in default, and the mortgagee shall, within thirty (30) days thereafter, give notice in writing to the Administrator of such default. At any time within thirty (30) days after the date of such notice, the mortgagee shall, in such manner as the Administrator may require, assign, transfer, and deliver to the Administrator (without recourse or warranty, except that the mortgagee must warrant that no act or omission of the mortgagee has impaired the validity and priority of the mortgage, that the amount stated in the instrument of assignment is actually due and owing under the mortgage, that there are no offsets or counterclaims thereto, and that the mortgagee has a good right to assign the mortgage and the other items enumerated below):

(1) All rights and interests arising under the mortgage so in default;

(2) All claims of the mortgagee against the mortgagor or others, arising out of the mortgage transaction;

(3) All policies of title or other insurance or surety bonds or other guaranties and any and all claims thereunder;

(4) Any balance of the mortgage loan not advanced to the mortgagor;

(5) Any cash or property held by the mortgagee or to which it is entitled, as deposits made for the account of the mortgagor and which have not been applied in reduction of the principal of the mortgage indebtedness; and

(6) All records, documents, books, papers, and accounts relating to the mortgage transaction.

Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be so construed as to prevent the mortgagee from taking action at a later date than herein specified, provided the Administrator agrees in writing.

(b) By conveyance of property.—If the mortgagor fails to make any payment to the mortgagee required by the mortgage, or to perform any other covenant or obligation under the mortgage, and such failure continues for the period of grace, if any, set forth in the mortgage, the mortgage shall be considered in default and the mortgagee, within the period set forth in the contract of insurance after the occurrence of a default arising on account of such failure to make any such payment or within the period set forth in the contract of insurance after the mortgagee shall have knowledge of the occurrence of a default arising on account of such failure to perform any other covenant or obligation under the mortgage, shall give notice in writing to the Administrator of such default. At any time within the period set forth in the contract of insurance from the date of such notice, the mortgagee, at its election, shall either—

(1) With, and subject to, the consent of the Administrator, acquire by means other than foreclosure of the mortgage, possession of, and title to, the mortgaged property; or

(2) Institute proceedings for the foreclosure of the mortgage: Provided, That if the laws of the State in which the mortgaged property is situated do not permit the institution of such proceedings within such period of time, the mortgagee shall institute such proceedings within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the time during which the institution of such proceedings is prohibited by such laws. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be so construed as to prevent the mortgagee from taking action at a later date than herein specified, provided the Administrator so agrees in writing. The mortgagee shall promptly give notice in writing to the Administrator of the institution of foreclosure proceedings under this paragraph and shall exercise reasonable diligence in prosecuting such proceedings to completion.

If after default and prior to the completion of foreclosure proceedings the mortgagor shall pay to the mortgagee all periodic payments in default and such expenses as the mortgagee shall have incurred in connection with the foreclosure proceedings, notice thereof shall be given to the Administrator by the mortgagee, and the insurance shall continue as if such default had not occurred.*† [Art. V, par. 1]

§ 533.6 Computation of benefits received by assignment. If the mortgagee elects to proceed under, and does proceed under and in accordance with, the provisions of Section 533.5 (a), and furnishes evidence satisfactory to the Administrator that there are no past due and unpaid ground rents, general taxes, or special assessments, and furnishes the warranties described in said Section 533.5 (a), the Administrator shall deliver to the mortgagee—

(a) Debentures of the Housing Insurance Fund as set forth in Section 207 of the Act, having a total face value equal to the original face amount of the mortgage plus such amounts as have been paid by the mortgagee for (1) taxes, special assessments, and water rates, which are liens prior to the mortgage; (2) insurance on the property; and (3) expenses for the completion or preservation of the property, subsequent to the default, and which have been approved by the Administrator, as reasonable and necessary; less the sum of (i) that part of the amount of the principal obligation that has been repaid, (ii) an amount equivalent to the two per centum (2%) of the principal amount of the mortgage advanced to the mortgagor and unpaid, and (iii) any net income received by the mortgagee from the property: Provided, That such debentures shall be issued in multiples of $50 and any difference, not in excess of $50, between the amount of debentures to which the mortgagee is otherwise entitled hereunder and the aggregate face value of the debentures issued shall be paid in cash by the Administrator to the mortgagee. Such debentures shall be dated as of the date of such assignment, transfer, and delivery, and shall bear interest from such date at a rate to be determined by the Administrator, at the time the mortgage is insured, but not to exceed three per centum (3%) per annum, payable semiannually on the first day of January and the first day of July of each year, and shall mature three (3) years after the first day of July following the maturity date of the mortgage in exchange for which the debentures were issued. Such debentures shall be registered as to principal and interest and all or any such debentures may be redeemed at the option of the Administrator, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, at par and accrued interest on any interest payment date on three (3) months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Administrator shall prescribe.

(b) A certificate of claim in accordance with Section 207 (h) of the Act which shall become payable, if at all, upon the sale and final liquidation of the interest of the Administrator in such property, in accordance with Section 207 (h) of the Act. This certificate shall be for an amount which the Administrator determines to be sufficient, when added to the face value of the debentures issued and the cash adjustment paid to the mortgagee, to equal the amount which the mortgagee would have received if, on the date of the assignment, transfer and delivery to the Administrator provided for in Section 533.5 (a), the mortgagor had extinguished the mortgage indebtedness by payment in full of all obligations under the mortgage. Such certificate of claim shall provide that there shall accrue to the holder of such certificate, with respect to the face amount of such certificate, an increment at the rate of three per centum (3%) per annum, which shall not be compounded. If any excess is realized from the mortgage, and all claims in connection therewith so assigned, transferred and delivered, and from the property covered by such mortgage and all claims in connection with such property, after deducting all expenses incurred by the Administrator in handling, dealing with, acquiring title to, and disposing of such mortgage and property and in collecting such claims, such excess shall be applied in payment of the certificate of claim and any balance thereafter shall be paid to the mortgagor, as provided in Section 207 (h) (1) of the Act.*† [Art. V, par. 2]

§ 533.7 Computation of benefits received by conveyance. If the mortgagee elects to proceed under, and does proceed under and in accordance with, the provisions of Section 533.5 (b), and at any time within thirty (30) days (or such further time as may be allowed by the Administrator in writing) after acquiring title to and possession of the mortgaged property in accordance with such Section 533.5 (b), tenders to the Administrator possession of, and a deed containing a covenant which warrants against acts of the mortgagee and all claiming by, through, or under it conveying title to, such property, satisfactory to the Administrator, as provided in Section 533.8, and assigns (without recourse or warranty) any and all claims which it has acquired in connection with the mortgage transaction and as a result of the foreclosure proceedings or other means by which it acquired such property, including any claim on account of title insurance and fire, or other hazard insurance, except such claims as may have been released with the prior approval of the Administrator, the Administrator shall promptly accept conveyance of such property and such assignment, notwithstanding that the buildings or improvements thereon may be incomplete, or may have been destroyed, damaged, or injured in whole or in part, and shall deliver to the mortgagee—

(a) Debentures of the Housing Insurance Fund as set forth in Section 204 of the Act, in a principal amount equal to the principal of the mortgage which has been advanced with the written approval of the Administrator and which is unpaid on the date of the institution of foreclosure proceedings or the acquisition of the property after default other than by foreclosure, plus the amount of all payments which have been made by the mortgagee for taxes, ground rents, and water rates, which are liens prior to the mortgage, special assessments which are noted on the application for insurance or which become liens after the insurance of the mortgage, insurance on the mortgaged property, and any mortgage insurance premiums paid after either of such dates, less any amount received on account of the mortgage, and any amount received as rent or other income from the property, after deducting therefrom reasonable expenses incurred in handling the property, after either of such dates: Provided, That such debentures shall be issued in multiples of $50 and any difference, not to exceed $50, between the amount of debentures to which the mortgagee is otherwise entitled hereunder and the aggregate face value of the debentures issued shall be paid in cash. Such debentures shall be dated as of the date foreclosure proceedings were instituted, or the property was otherwise acquired by the mortgagee after default, and shall bear interest from such date at a rate to be determined by the Administrator at the time the mortgage is offered for insurance, but not to exceed three per centum (3%) per annum, payable semiannually on the first day of January and the first day of July of each year, and shall mature three (3) years after the first day of July following the maturity date of the mortgage on the property in exchange for which the debentures were issued. Such debentures shall be registered as to principal and interest and all or any such debentures may be redeemed at the option of the Administrator, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, at par and accrued interest on any interest payment date on three (3) months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Administrator shall prescribe.

(b) A certificate of claim in accordance with Section 204 (e) of the Act, which shall become payable, if at all, upon the sale and final liquidation of the interest of the Administrator in such property, in accordance with Section 204 (f) of the Act. This certificate shall be for an amount which the Administrator shall determine to be sufficient to pay all amounts due under the mortgage and not covered by the amount of debentures and shall include a reasonable amount for necessary expenses incurred by the mortgagee in connection with the foreclosure proceedings or the acquisition of the mortgaged property otherwise and the conveyance thereof to the Administrator. Each such certificate of claim shall provide that there shall accrue to the holder thereof with respect to the face amount of such certificate, an increment at the rate of three per centum (3%) per annum, which shall not be compounded. If any excess is realized from the property conveyed to the Administrator and the claims assigned therewith, after deducting all expenses incurred by the Administrator in handling, dealing with, and disposing of such property and in collecting such claims, such excess shall be applied in payment of the certificate of claim and any balance thereafter shall be paid to the mortgagor, as provided in Section 204 (f) of the Act.*† [Art. V, par. 3]

§ 533.8 Title in case of assignment. Title satisfactory to the Administrator within the meaning of Section 533.7 will be such title as was vested in the mortgagor as of the date the mortgage was filed for record, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances which may have attached, or defects which may have arisen subsequent to the recording of such mortgage, except such liens or other matters as may be approved by the Administrator. The Administrator will not object to the title because of mechanics' liens excepted from the title evidence as unfiled at the date of recording of the mortgage or of any advance thereunder, provided that advances under the mortgage are disbursed with the approval of the Administrator and that the certification of a title insurer or title attorney satisfactory to the Administrator be obtained to the effect that, as of the date of each advance, no lien appeared of record and the title policy or title opinion had been extended accordingly.*† [Art. V, par. 4]

§ 533.9 Evidence of title. The mortgagee, at the time a deed is tendered in accordance with Section 533.7, shall furnish to the Administrator without expense to him satisfactory evidence of such title. Such title evidence shall be executed as of a date to include the recordation of the deed to the Administrator and, at the option of the mortgagee, may be in the form of an owner's policy of title insurance, or a satisfactory abstract and attorney's opinion covering the period subsequent to the recording of the mortgage, or a satisfactory continuation of the title evidence accepted by the Administrator at the time the mortgage was insured.*† [Art. V, par. 5]

§ 533.10 Fire and hazard insurance. The mortgagee without cost, or expense to the Administrator shall, in default of the mortgagor, keep the mortgaged premises insured against fire and other hazards as provided in the mortgage. In the event the mortgagee fails to pay any premiums necessary to keep the mortgaged premises so insured and such failure shall continue for fifteen (15) days after receipt of written notice of such failure from the Administrator to the mortgagee, the contract of insurance shall, at the election of the Administrator, thereupon terminate. In the event a loss has occurred to the mortgaged property under any policy of fire or other hazard insurance and the amount of any funds received by the mortgagee in payment of such loss shall be sufficient to pay in full the entire mortgage indebtedness, the mortgage shall, upon receipt of such funds by the mortgagee, be deemed paid and the contract of mortgage insurance made with the Administrator shall thereupon terminate. If, however, any funds so received shall be insufficient to pay such mortgage indebtedness in full, the mortgagee shall not exercise its option under the mortgage to use the proceeds of such insurance for the repairing, replacing, or rebuilding of such premises or to apply such proceeds to the mortgage indebtedness without prior written approval of the Administrator. If the Administrator shall fail to give his approval to the use or application of such funds for either of said purposes within fifteen (15) days after written request by the mortgagee, the mortgagee may use or apply such funds for any of the purposes specified in the mortgage without the approval of the Administrator.*† [Art. V. par. 6]

§ 533.11 Mortgage default. If after the mortgage becomes in default, as provided in Section 533.5, the mortgagee does not make the assignment provided in Section 533.6, or does not foreclose or otherwise acquire the mortgaged property and make the conveyance provided in Section 533.7, and written notice thereof is given to the Administrator, or in the event that the mortgagor pays the obligation under the mortgage in full prior to the maturity thereof and the mortgagee pays the adjusted premium charge required under the provisions of Section 533.3 of these Regulations and written notice thereof is given to the Administrator, the obligation to pay the annual premium charge shall cease, and all rights of the mortgagee and the mortgagor under Sections 533.6 and 533.7 shall terminate as of the date of such notice.*† [Art. V, par. 7]

§ 533.12 Termination. In the event that the mortgagee fails to comply with the provisions of Sections 533.5 (a) and 533.6, or Sections 533.5 (b) and 533.7, then the contract of insurance shall thereupon terminate.*† [Art. V, par. 8]

Assignments

§ 533.13 In general. Bonds or other obligations issued in connection with an insured mortgage executed in the form of an indenture of trust providing for the issue and sale of such bonds or other obligations and appointing a trustee to act on behalf of the holders of such bonds or other obligations may be transferred as provided in the indenture of trust.

An insured mortgage other than a mortgage executed in the form of an indenture of trust providing for the issue and sale of bonds or other obligations and appointing a trustee to act on behalf of the holders of such bonds or other obligations may be transferred (but, except with the written approval of the Administrator, only subsequent to full disbursement of the mortgage loan) to a transferee who may be a mortgagee previously approved by the Administrator or who may be approved at the time of such transfer as a mortgagee responsible and able to service such insured mortgage. Upon such approval and transfer and the assumption by the transferee of all obligations under the contract of insurance, the transferor shall be released from its obligations under the contract of insurance.*† [Art. VI, pars. 1–2]

§ 533.14 Termination of mortgage insurance by assignment. The contract of insurance shall terminate with respect to mortgages described in Section 533.13 upon the happening of either of the following events:

(a) The acquisition of the insured mortgage by or the pledge thereof to any person, firm, or corporation, public or private, except as specifically provided in such Section 533.13.

(b) The disposal by a mortgagee of any partial interest in the insured mortgage by means of a declaration of trust or by a participation or trust certificate or by any other device, unless with the prior written approval of the Administrator: Provided, That this paragraph (b) shall not be applicable to any mortgage so long as it is held in a common trust fund maintained by a bank or trust company (1) exclusively for the collective investment and reinvestment of moneys contributed thereto by the bank or trust company in its capacity as a trustee, executor or administrator; and (2) in conformity with the rules and regulations prevailing from time to time of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, pertaining to the collective investment of trust funds.*† [Art. VI, par. 3]

Rights in Housing Fund

§ 533.15 No vested right. Neither the mortgagee nor the mortgagor shall have any vested or other right in the Housing Insurance Fund.*† [Art. VII]

Amendments

§ 533.16 Amendments to regulations. These Regulations may be amended by the Administrator at any time and from time to time, in whole or in part, but such amendments shall not affect the contract of insurance on any mortgage already insured or any mortgage or prospective mortgage on which the Administrator has made a commitment to insure.*† [Art. VIII]

Effective Date

§ 533.17 Effective date. These Regulations shall be effective as to all mortgages with respect to which a commitment to insure is issued on or after the date hereof. The Administrator with the consent of the mortgagor and the mortgagee may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, amend to conform to these Regulations any contract of insurance or any commitment to insure, issued prior to February 3, 1938. Any mortgagee entitled to receive debentures upon default of a mortgage insured prior to February 3, 1938, may elect to receive, in lieu of such debentures, a cash adjustment and debentures issued as provided in Section 533.7 and bearing interest at the rate current at the time of such election.*† [Art. IX]

AMENDMENT TO ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS OF THE FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATOR FOR MULTIFAMILY AND GROUP HOUSING INSURANCE UNDER SECTION 210 OF TITLE II OF THE NATIONAL HOUSING ACT

Section 210 of the National Housing Act was repealed effective June 3, 1939. However, applications for mortgage insurance under such section received by the Administrator prior to June 3 may be committed upon if conforming with Section 210, Rules and Regulations of the Administrator, revised February 15, 1938, as set out in Federal Housing Administration Form No. 2012, amended as follows: The first sentence of Section 535.9 (a) of said Administrative Regulations is amended to read as follows:

"(a) Debentures of the Housing Insurance Fund as set forth in Section 204 of the Act, in a principal amount equal to the principal of the mortgage which has been advanced with the written approval of the Administrator and which is unpaid on the date of the institution of foreclosure proceedings, or on the date of the acquisition of the property otherwise after default, plus the amount of all payments which have been made by the mortgagee for taxes, ground rents, and water rates, which are liens prior to the mortgage, special assessments which are noted on the application for insurance or which become liens after the insurance of the mortgage, insurance on the mortgaged property, and any mortgage insurance premiums paid after either of such dates, less any amount received on account of the mortgage, and any amount received as rent or other income from the property after deducting therefrom reasonable expenses incurred in handling the property, subsequent to either of such dates: Provided, That such debentures shall be issued in multiples of $50 and any difference, not to exceed $50, between the amount of debentures to which the mortgagee is otherwise entitled hereunder and the aggregate face value of the debentures issued shall be paid in cash." [Art. V, par. 3]

TITLE 41—PUBLIC CONTRACTS

DIVISION OF PUBLIC CONTRACTS

IN THE MATTER OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE IN THE PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES INDUSTRY

This matter is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35), entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes", (hereinafter called the Act). The Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, held a hearing on November 29, 1938 in the above entitled matter.[1]

Notice of this hearing was sent to all known members of the industry, trade associations, the trade publications, and the trade unions. Invitation to attend the hearing was extended through the national press to all other interested parties.

Appearances were entered and testimony given by representatives of industry and labor.

A survey of the wages paid in the industry was made by a committee of the industry. The wage data obtained by this survey were tabulated by the Research Section, Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor. This survey and the tabulation did not include the wages of employees engaged in the manufacture of 35 millimeter cameras, 35 millimeter projectors, and accessories therefor.

On the basis of the record, the Board made its findings in the matter of the prevailing minimum wage for the photographic supplies industry as hereinafter defined and recommended that I find the prevailing minimum wage in this industry to be 40 cents an hour or $16.00 per week of forty hours. On May 31, 1939, the Administrator, Division of Public Contracts, circularized the Board's findings and recommendations in order that all parties might have full opportunity to register their objections or approval before the decision in the matter was made by the Secretary of Labor.

[1] 3 F.R. 2693 DI.

No objections to the proposed minimum wage rate were filed with the Administrator, but a request was made for a special provision permitting the employment of learners in accordance with the provisions of the industry's Voluntary Code of Fair Competition on the ground that the volume of business at the time the wage survey was made was abnormally low and did not reflect the industry's genuine need for learners at certain periods. In view of the provision in the Voluntary Code drawn up and approved by the great majority of the industry and the prevailing practice it indicates, I am allowing a learner tolerance of not more than five (5) percent of the employees on the payroll for a period of sixty (60) days to be paid not less than eighty (80) percent of the minimum, or 32 cents an hour.

In view of the fact that the evidence of record did not include wage data for the manufacture of 35 millimeter cameras, projectors, and accessories therefor, these products will not be considered products of the photographic supplies industry as defined for purposes of this decision.

The Census of Manufactures for 1935 shows that the industry is located predominantly in the States of New York and Illinois. In 1935 there were 40 establishments in New York and 23 in Illinois. These 63 establishments in the two States employed 88 percent of all the employees in the industry in 1935. The establishments of the State of New York alone employed more than 80 percent of the employees in the industry during that year. The Census of Manufactures reported that in 1937 there were 18,450 wage earners engaged in the manufacture of photographic apparatus and materials and projection apparatus. The wage data considered by the Board covered 13,573 wage earners employed by 41 firms located in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, Indiana, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, and Missouri. Employees exempted from the Public Contracts Act were not included in the wage survey made, and the Board advises me that the wage data presented at the hearing represents in excess of 75 percent of all employees of the photographic supplies industry who would be affected by the Public Contracts Act.

It appears that the wage data are adequate to show the wage structure prevailing in the photographic supplies industry. The evidence of record shows that 855 or 6.3 percent of the employees covered by the survey receive wages in the interval from 37.5 to 42.5 cents an hour. Only 1.9 percent or 252 wage earners receive less than 37.5 cents an hour. This marked concentration of employees in the wage interval from 37.5 to 42.5 cents an hour shows the prevailing minimum wage of all employees covered by the survey. The midpoint or 40 cents an hour appears to be a prevailing minimum wage in the industry in its several locations. The evidence shows that in the case of New York, 4.65 percent of the wage earners receive less than 40 cents an hour, and in the case of Illinois, 11 percent receive under 40 cents an hour. From a combined standpoint, 40 cents an hour appears to be the prevailing minimum wage of 92.7 percent of the workers engaged in those two States. The first concentration in the wage data for the States of Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, and Indiana combined also occurs in the 37.5 to 42.5-cent interval. This also shows the prevailing minimum wage to be 40 cents an hour in these States. In the States of Massachusetts, New Jersey and Missouri combined, there are found only 5.8 percent of all wage earners included in the survey and 40 cents seems to be a commonly paid rate.

It is noted that there exists in the industry a practice whereby the employees of the industry for the sake of convenience pay, through the instrumentality of the employer's disbursing office, certain obligations. Whether or not such practice contravenes the provisions of Section 1 (b) of the Act must be decided only upon full disclosure of all facts involved.

Where there exists at the plant of any bidder on Government contracts subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act a practice of so using its disbursing office for the convenience of its employees, and where this practice has been in existence at the plant for a long continued period of time, the bidder should submit a full statement of the facts to the Administrator, Division of Public Contracts, for a determination as to whether or not the practice contravenes the provisions of Section 1 (b) of the Act.

I have examined the findings and recommendations of the Board and the record of hearing, together with the briefs filed, and in the light of the facts

I hereby determine—

The prevailing minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C., Sup. III 35), for the manufacture and supply of cameras, including motion-picture cameras (except 35 millimeter); photostat and blueprint machines; tripods, film rewinders and reels, shutters, and other photographic accessories (except 35 millimeter); such equipment as flashlight apparatus, plate holders, developing apparatus; supplies such as films, photographic paper, and plates; and projectors of all types (except 35 millimeter), to be 40 cents an hour or $16.00 per week of forty hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis; provided that learners may be employed at lower rates for a period of not to exceed sixty (60) days if the total number of such workers in any one establishment does not exceed five (5) percent of the workers on the payroll, and if such learners are paid not less than eighty (80) percent of the minimum wage as determined, or 32 cents an hour or $12.80 per week of forty hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

This determination shall be effective and the minimum wage hereby established shall apply to all such contracts, bids for which are solicited on or after August 14, 1939.

IN THE MATTER OF THE DETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE SOAP INDUSTRY

This matter is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Act of June 30, 1936 (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C., Sup. III 35) entitled "An Act to provide conditions for the purchase of supplies and the making of contracts by the United States, and for other purposes" (hereinafter called the Act). The Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, held a hearing in the matter of the prevailing minimum wages in the soap industry on July 13, 1938.

Notice of the hearing was sent to all known members of the industry, to trade unions, to trade publications, and to trade associations in the field. Invitation to attend the hearing was extended through the national press to all other interested parties.

Testimony was given at the hearing by industry members and by the Association of American Soap and Glycerin Producers, Inc. No representative of organized labor appeared at the hearing.

A survey of the wages paid in the soap industry during the month of January 1938 was presented in evidence.

On the basis of the evidence and the testimony, the Board made its recommendations. Thereafter, the Administrator of the Division of Public Contracts circularized the recommendations and gave parties a reasonable period of time in which to register their objection thereto or their approval thereof before any determination in the matter should be made.

The survey of the wages paid in the soap industry made by the Bureau of Labor Statistics covered the manufacture of soap in bars, cakes, chips, and flakes, and in granulated, powdered, paste, and liquid forms, and glycerin; cleansers containing soap, scouring powders, and shaving soaps and creams containing soap, and washing compounds containing soap. The survey covered 7,143 wage earners in 72 establishments, representing approximately 50 percent of the total wage earners in the industry. The survey covered plants located in all of the principal producing States, and it is believed to be sufficiently representative of the wage conditions existing in the soap industry.

The only objections filed are to the Board's failure to recommend a tolerance for a group of workers known in the industry as "light task workers."

The evidence shows that the "light task workers" constitute a part of the unskilled workers in the industry. The wage distribution of unskilled workers in the industry including the "light task workers" was considered by the Board in making its findings of fact and recommendations in this matter.

The evidence of wages paid in the industry reveals a fairly wide spread of earnings. The effective range is from 32.5 cents to $1.125 with 97 percent of the workers found within these limits. The wage distribution of unskilled workers in the industry, which workers include the minimum wage employees, is within the same range.

The Board has recommended that I find that 40 cents an hour is the prevailing minimum wage in the soap industry. The first substantial concentration of unskilled workers is in the wage interval between 37.5 and under 42.5 cents, at which point 303 employees out of a total of 3,165, or 9.6 percent of the unskilled workers in the industry, are found. In the 5-cent interval immediately below are found 129 employees, or 4.1 percent of the unskilled employees. The unskilled workers receiving less than 32.5 cents are distributed in insignificant concentrations, and I find that the Board's recommendation as to the prevailing minimum wage in the industry was proper.

The Board, in its recommendations, was of the opinion that the data with respect to the Southern establishments in the industry were insufficient to justify the setting up of a geographical wage differential. The Board recommended that, if Southern firms should in the future be deprived of Government contracts because of a wage determination for the soap industry, they be given another opportunity to furnish complete information with respect to the wages paid in this industry in the Southern States for further consideration. I find that the data with respect to the wages in the South in this industry are insufficient to indicate that there is any significant difference in the prevailing minimum wage in the South and the rest of the country. If, however, the Southern firms should be deprived of Government contracts because of this wage determination, they will be given another opportunity to file complete information regarding the wages paid in the South for further consideration.

Upon all the evidence submitted in this matter, including the briefs filed,

I hereby determine:

That the minimum wages for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government, subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036; 41 U.S.C. Sup. III 35) for the manufacture or supply of soap in bars, cakes, chips, and flakes, and in granulated, powdered, paste, and liquid forms, and glycerin; cleansers containing soap, scouring powders, and shaving soaps, and creams containing soap, and washing compounds containing soap, shall be 40 cents an hour, or $16.00 per week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

This determination shall be effective, and the minimum wages hereby established shall apply to all such contracts, bids for which are solicited on or after August 14, 1939.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Division of Marketing and Marketing Agreements.

DETERMINATION OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES WITH RESPECT TO AN ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE LA PORTE COUNTY, INDIANA, MARKETING AREA

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the terms and provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, having reason to believe that execution of an amendment to a tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and issuance of an order, as amended, both of which regulate the handling of milk in the La Porte County, Indiana, marketing area, would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, gave, on the 18th day of May, 1939, notice of a public hearing[1] to be held on the 23d day of May, 1939, at La Porte, Indiana, on proposed amendments of said tentatively approved marketing agreement, and of said order, and on May 23 and 24 and at said place conducted a public hearing at which all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on the said proposed amendments; and

Whereas, after said hearing and after the tentative approval by the Secretary, on the 30th day of June, 1939, of a marketing agreement, as amended, handlers of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by such proposed order, as amended, which is marketed within the La Porte County, Indiana, marketing area, refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, relating to milk;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority vested in him by said act, hereby determines:

(1) That the refusal or failure of said handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) That the issuance of the proposed order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interest of producers of milk which is produced for sale in said area; and

(3) That the issuance of the proposed order, as amended, is approved or favored by over two-thirds of the producers who participated in a referendum conducted by the Secretary, and who, during the month of April, 1939, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in said area.

In witness whereof, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, has executed this determination in duplicate, and has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed hereto in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 28th day of July 1939.

[Administration Order 231, Revision 3[1]]

DETERMINATION OF THE EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS APPROPRIATED FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1940, PURSUANT TO TITLE I OF THE BANKHEAD-JONES FARM TENANT ACT

JULY 21, 1939.

I. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 of Title I of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, there is attached hereto as Exhibit A a schedule representing the equitable distribution of the money appropriated for the purposes of Title I, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1940, among the several states and territories on the basis of farm population and the prevalence of tenancy, as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture.

II. The unencumbered balances of the previous fiscal year's allotment remaining in each state and territory will be withdrawn as of June 30, 1939, and redistributed equitably to the states and territories on the basis of farm population and the prevalence of tenancy as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, and a revised schedule of allotments will be issued immediately thereafter.

III. No allotment shall be made to any state or territory in excess of the amounts so distributed.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of July, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

IN THE MATTER OF ADELE MILLAR, AN INDIVIDUAL DOING BUSINESS UNDER THE TRADE NAMES MME. ADELE AND CHEZ ADELE

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard[1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent, testimony and other evidence taken before Charles P. Vicini, an examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said complaint and in opposition thereto, brief filed by counsel for the Commission (respondent not having filed brief and oral argument not having been requested), and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent Adele Millar, now known as Adele Millar Prentiss, individually and trading as "Mme. Adele" and "Chez Adele," or under any other name or names, her representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of a cosmetic preparation now designated "Wonder Peel Paste," or any other preparation containing substantially similar ingredients or possessing substantially similar therapeutic properties, whether sold under the name "Wonder Peel Paste" or under any other name or names, in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing that said preparation will withdraw toxins from the skin, accelerate chemical changes in the living skin cells, or supply materials to the skin to repair waste tissues;

2. Representing that the use of said preparation will prevent or remove freckles, liver spots or wrinkles;

3. Representing that said preparation will prevent or remove or have any beneficial effect in aiding in the removal of, any blemishes or other conditions of the skin which are due to or persist because of a systemic or metabolic disorder or condition;

4. Representing that said preparation will prevent pimples, blackheads, puffs, scars, pits, acne or crepey neck;

5. Representing that said preparation has any beneficial effect in aiding in the removal of pimples, blackheads, puffs, scars, pits, acne or crepey neck, unless such representation is limited to those conditions which are of a surface character only.

6. Representing that said preparation has any beneficial effect on the metabolism or nutrition of the tissues.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty days after service upon her of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which she had complied with this order.

By the Commission.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

BUREAU OF CUSTOMS

(T. D. 49922)

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS OF 1937, AMENDED[1]

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

The Customs Regulations of 1937[2] are hereby amended as follows:

Paragraph (b) of article 329 [Sec. 6.41] is amended to read as follows:

"(b) [Sec. 6.41] Withdrawals for consumption of merchandise in bonded warehouse shall be filed in triplicate on customs Form 7505. No new declaration of the consignee or agent is required. The withdrawal form shall show the number of the bond, the marks and numbers of the packages withdrawn, the vessel and date of importation, the description, quantity, rates of duty, separate value of each package, and total dutiable value of the merchandise, and shall be signed by the person making the withdrawal: Provided, however, That with respect to merchandise of a class consisting of packages uniform in kind, quantity, value and duty, the number of each package to be withdrawn need not be shown on the withdrawal form if the lowest and the highest number in the number series of such class are shown." (Sec. 557, 46 Stat. 744, Secs. 2, 22, 23, 52 Stat. 1077, 1087, 1088; 19 U.S.C. 1557 and Sup. IV. Sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759; 19 U.S.C. 1624)

Paragraph (h) of article 691, added by T. D. 49469, [Sec. 10.53 (c)] is amended to read as follows:

"(h) [Sec. 10.53 (c)] Under regulations approved by the President on February 14, 1938, as amended by regulations approved by the President on November 26, 1938, the printing, publishing, and importation, and the making and importation of the necessary plates for such printing and publishing, for philatelic purposes in articles, books, journals, newspapers, and albums (including the circulars and advertising literature of legitimate dealers in stamps and publishers of and dealers in philatelic and historical articles, books, journals, and albums) of black and white illustrations of canceled and uncanceled United States postage stamps (including postage stamps impressed upon stamped envelopes and postal cards) are permitted, provided that such illustrations are of a size less than three-quarters or more than one and one-half, in linear dimension, of each part of such stamp." (Sec. 2 (b), 52 Stat. 7; 18 U.S.C., Sup. IV, 350)

Paragraph (b) of article 1028 [Sec. 19.2 (b)] is amended by adding the following sentence:

"If the Commissioner of Customs is satisfied that at a given port a particular class or classes of merchandise may, without danger to the revenue or the proper conduct of customs business, be carried otherwise than by a contract or licensed cartman to the place outside the appraiser's stores designated for examination, he may by specific instructions authorize such other carriage."

Paragraph (c) of article 1044 of the Customs Regulations of 1937 [Sec. 20.8 (c)] is hereby amended by deleting "and the date of clearance of the exporting vessel or conveyance have" in the second sentence and substituting therefor "has." (Sec. 313, 46 Stat. 693, Secs. 402, 403, 49 Stat. 1960; 19 U.S.C. 1313 and Sup. IV. Sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759; 19 U.S.C. 1624)

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

WAR DEPARTMENT

CHAPTER II—RULES RELATING TO NAVIGABLE WATERS

PART 202—ANCHORAGE REGULATIONS

§ 202.82 Isthmus Cove, Santa Catalina Island, Calif.[1] By authority of the provisions of Section 7 of the River and Harbor Act approved March 4, 1915, the following anchorage grounds for vessels in Isthmus Cove, Santa Catalina Island, California, and rules and regulations pertaining thereto, are hereby defined and established:

The Anchorage Grounds

(a) (1) General anchorage. All of the navigable waters of Isthmus Cove shoreward of a line connecting the promontories known as Lion Head and Blue Cavern Point, except the Zone of Restricted Anchorage.

(2) Zone of restricted anchorage. An area, 300 feet wide, extending from shore 1,200 feet seaward of the outer end of Wilmington Transportation Company Wharf, centered on a line 20 feet westerly of and parallel to the centerline of said wharf.

The Rules and Regulations

NOTE: The officer of the United States Coast Guard charged with special duties in connection with the enforcement of these regulations under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury is designated "Captain of the Port." Complaints arising under these regulations should be addressed to that officer, Room 414,* Federal Building, Los Angeles, California.

(b) (1) The General Anchorage shall be available for anchorage of all types of craft. Temporary floats or buoys for marking anchors in place will be permitted in this area, provided that the upper half of any such float or buoy is painted white, to improve visibility at night.

(2) Commercial vessels, of 15 feet draft or over, may anchor in the Zone of Restricted Anchorage during the hours between sunrise and sunset. The use of this zone for anchorage is forbidden to all other craft at all times.

(3) The instructions of the Captain of the Port requiring vessels to anchor bow and stern, or with two bow anchors, or requiring shifting the anchorage of any vessel within the anchorage grounds for the common safety or convenience; or for otherwise enforcing these rules and regulations, shall be promptly complied with by owners, masters, and persons in charge of vessels.

(4) Nothing in these rules and regulations shall be construed as relieving the owner or person in charge of any vessel or plant from the penalties of the law for obstructing navigation or for

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

BURIAL AND FUNERAL EXPENSES AND TRANSPORTATION OF BODIES OF VETERANS

Definition of "Veteran of any War"

§ 2.2694 (A) Persons included. The term "veteran of any war" for the purpose of adjudicating claims for direct payment of or reimbursement for burial, funeral and transportation expenses incurred in behalf of deceased veterans where death was on or subsequent to March 20, 1933, will include: (1) Civil War, any honorably discharged member of the active military or naval service of the United States who served during the Civil War subsequent to April 11, 1861, and prior to May 27, 1865, including those persons who served as members of State organizations participating in the Civil War for whose services the State has been reimbursed by the United States Government. Nothing herein shall be construed to exclude from the definition any person who was receiving pension as a Civil War veteran under the Civil War service pension laws or who was not entitled to pension under such Civil War pension service laws solely because of length of service or as to whom any special act of Congress has been enacted which provides that such person shall be considered as having rendered military service during the Civil War; (2) Indian Wars, any veteran of any Indian War, as formerly contemplated by the provisions of Section 201 (1) of the World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, and regulations, precedents, and instructions issued pursuant thereto, or a person who at time of his death was receiving a pension in accordance with the provisions of the laws governing the payment of a pension as a veteran of an Indian War; (3) Spanish-American War, any honorably discharged officer or enlisted man who was employed in the active military or naval service of the United States on or after April 21, 1898 and before August 13, 1898, including those women who served as army nurses under contract during this period and including any honorably discharged person who died on or after March 19, 1935, and who served in the military or naval service of the United States between August 13, 1898 and July 4, 1902, both dates inclusive, who left the continental United States under orders for military or naval service in Guam, Cuba, or Puerto Rico, between such dates inclusive; where death occurred on or after May 3, 1939, any honorably discharged officer or enlisted man who was employed in the active military or naval service of the United States on or after April 21, 1898 and before April 12, 1899, including those women who served as army nurses under contract and persons who served overseas as contract surgeons of the army during this period; (4) Philippine Insurrection, any honorably discharged officer or enlisted man employed in the active military or naval service of the United States including those women who served as army nurses under contracts, who actually participated in the Philippine Insurrection on or after August 13, 1898 and before July 5, 1902, provided, however, if the person was serving in the United States military forces engaged in the hostilities in the Moro Province the ending date shall be July 15, 1903; where death occurred on or after May 3, 1939, any honorably discharged officer or enlisted man who was employed in the active military or naval service of the United States on or after April 12, 1899 and before July 5, 1902 (or who served in the Moro Province, Philippine Islands, before July 16, 1903) including those women who served as army nurses under contract or who served in the nurse corps (female) and persons who served overseas as contract surgeons of the army during this period; (5) Boxer Rebellion, any honorably discharged officer or enlisted man, including those women who served as army nurses under contracts, employed in actual participation in the Boxer Rebellion on or after June 20, 1900 and before May 13, 1901; (6) World War, any honorably discharged officer, enlisted man, member of the Army Nurse Corps (female), Navy Nurse Corps (female), who was employed in the active military or naval service of the United States on or after April 6, 1917 and before November 12, 1918, provided, however, that if the person was serving in the United States military forces in Russia the ending date will be extended to April 1, 1920 (the provisions of Section 5, Public No. 304, 75th Congress, are not applicable to burial claims); (7) any enlisted man or officer of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps in retirement status at the date of death if shown to have served honorably during the period of any war. Where death occurs on or after March 28, 1934, (except as provided in (B), below), and the other requirements of this paragraph have been met, an honorable discharge will not be required if the veteran was in receipt of pension, compensation, or emergency officers retirement pay at the time of his death.

(B) Persons not included. Except as provided in Sec. 2.2696 (D) a discharged or rejected draftee; a member of the national guard who reported to camp in answer to the President's call, for World War service, but who when medically examined was not finally accepted for active military service; or an alien who does not come within the purview of Sec. 2.1001 (J), is not a "veteran of any war" within the meaning of that term as defined in subparagraph (A) hereof, even though such person may have been in receipt of compensation or pension. (May 3, 1939.) (Public No. 62, 76th Congress.)

DEATH OCCURRING WHILE TRAVELING UNDER PRIOR AUTHORIZATION OR IN A VETERANS ADMINISTRATION FACILITY

§ 2.2696 (d) canceled May 3, 1939, and paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) re-lettered respectively (d) (e) and (f).

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

ALLOWABLE EXPENSES OF BURIAL, FUNERAL AND TRANSPORTATION

§ 2.2702 (A) (1) For the purpose of regulations governing the payment of burial, funeral and transportation expenses, the following items and articles will be considered as allowable: Embalming (Taharah in Jewish burials), shaving, washing and dressing, casket or coffin, or in lieu thereof materials and labor used in the construction of casket or coffin; steel or concrete vault (if a vault is used as a shipping case and also for burial, an allowance not exceeding $25.00 may be applied thereon as part of transportation expenses in those cases where transportation charges are payable, exclusive of the $100 burial allowance as provided in Sec. 2.2696, and any balance on such vault may be included in the burial allowance of $75.00 or $100 whichever applies), box not to exceed $25.00, removal of box to cemetery, undertaker's fees for personal or professional services, chapel, hearse, limousines or other conveyances, rental vault, digging of grave including materials used in walling or lining grave, single grave space (except where burial is in a plot owned by a member of the family of the deceased) perpetual care if compulsory under deed to lot or site, grave marker or monument, lowering device, tent, grave equipment, blanket, slumber robe, veil, tahlith, burial clothing not to exceed $50.00, chairs, cremation, candles, candelabra, crucifix, crepe, door badge, necessary fee for minister, music, or other religious services not to exceed $15.00; necessary fees for watchers not to exceed $10.00 for each or a total of $20.00; necessary fees for pallbearers not to exceed $2.00 each or a total of $12.00, fees for firing squads; permits and such other necessary burial and funeral expenses as are reasonable, not to exceed $75.00 or $100, whichever applies. The cost of flowers (other than door badge), flower car, obituary notices and state tax will not be allowed. In cases where transportation of remains is a proper charge against the Veterans' Administration exclusive of the $100 burial allowance as provided in Sec. 2.2696, and the transportation is accomplished by means other than by common carrier, the reasonable cost of such transportation shall be allowed as may be determined by employees authorized to make findings of fact and law in burial claims. In no event will a charge be approved where it is found to be in excess of the charge made the general public for the same item of service.

(2) Items allowable as part of transportation. In adjudicating claims where death of a person occurs in a Veterans' Administration facility or while traveling under prior authorization of the Veterans' Administration, either to or from a Veterans' Administration facility or regional office, the following items will be considered as part of transportation expense, the cost of which will be allowed in addition to the statutory allowance of $100; procuring permit for shipment, outside case for shipment, sealing outside case (tin), sealing outside case (galvanized iron), hearse to common carrier, one removal from common carrier either to home of decedent, or to the undertaking establishment or direct to the place of burial.

(3) Items not allowable as part of transportation. Charge made for removal from Veterans Administration facility, even though the facility is outside the corporate limits of the nearest city or town, to a local undertaking parlor (original pick-up) will not be allowed as a part of transportation. In those cases where the remains are transported overland by means other than common carrier the items of transportation enumerated in sub-paragraph (2) hereof will not be allowed in addition to the statutory allowance and the removal charge. (See Sec. 2.2696 (c).) (July 31, 1939.) (48 Stat. 11; 38 U.S.C. 717, 718)

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

RENEWAL OF FIVE YEAR LEVEL PREMIUM TERM INSURANCE

§ 3.3170 Pursuant to the provisions of an amendment enacted June 1, 1937, amending section 301 of the World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended (U. S. Code, Supp. V. title 38, section 512), all or any part of the insurance, in any multiple of $500, and not less than $1,000, on the five year level premium term plan may be renewed without medical examination for a second or third five year period, upon application therefor and payment of the premium at the five year level premium term rate required at the attained age of the insured, before the expiration of the current five year period. The renewal of insurance for a second or third five year period will become effective as of the day following the expiration of the preceding five year period, and the premium for such renewal will be at the five year level premium term rate for the attained age of the applicant on that day: Provided, That no insurance may be renewed under the amendment enacted June 1, 1937, to section 301 of the World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, by any person who has exercised his optional right to change to another plan of insurance. The renewal of the insurance in accordance with the law and regulations will be evidenced by the following certificate:

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT LIFE INSURANCE
CERTIFICATE OF RENEWAL
FIVE YEAR LEVEL PREMIUM TERM INSURANCE

Policy Number K–_____
Age of insured_____ Monthly $_____
Amount of insurance $_____ Quarterly $_____
Semi-annual $_____ Annual $_____
Name of insured _____

Pursuant to the provisions of the amendment enacted June 1, 1937, to section 301 of the World War Veterans Act 1924, as amended, and in consideration of the payment of the monthly premium at the rate for the attained age of insured in the amount as stated above on the day this certificate becomes effective and on the same day of each month thereafter for a period of sixty months, the insurance under said policy of which this agreement becomes a part, is renewed as five year level premium term insurance for the period beginning _____, 19__, and ending _____, 19__

The insurance renewed is subject to the conditions, benefits, and privileges contained in the policy except that any nonforfeiture provisions and any table of guaranteed surrender values of the policy shall be null and void from and after the effective date of this certificate. This insurance ceases on the ending date shown above, and no further premium will be payable unless the insurance has been exchanged for some other plan of insurance on or before that date.

Effective as of _____ 19__.

EFFECTIVE DATE

402.27 Superseded and Rescinded Material

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in the Administrator of the National Youth Administration by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1939, approved June 30, 1939, the following rules and regulations are prescribed.

DEFINITIONS

§ 402.1 Projects. The term "project" as used herein shall mean projects or portions of projects, for the employment and training of out-of-school youth, which are financed in whole or in part from funds appropriated to the National Youth Administration by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1939.

§ 402.2 Resident projects. The term "resident projects," as used herein shall mean projects which involve the maintenance of youth in camps, dormitories or other resident facilities under the supervision of the National Youth Administration. Resident projects are further defined as follows:

(a) Full-time. The term "full-time resident projects," as used herein, shall mean resident projects to which youth are assigned for periods of continuous residence at such facilities for 30 or more consecutive days.

(b) Part-time. The term "part-time resident projects," as used herein, shall mean resident projects to which youth are assigned for periods of continuous residence at such facilities for less than 30 consecutive days.

§ 402.3 Project employees. The term "project employees" as used herein shall mean all persons engaged upon projects and paid by means of a payroll payment from funds authorized for the operation of such projects. Project employees are further defined as follows:

(a) Youth employees. The term "youth employees" as used herein shall mean certified persons between the ages of 18 and 24 years inclusive who are engaged upon a part-time basis on projects and who are paid by means of payroll payments from funds authorized for the operation of such projects.

(b) Supervisory employees. The term "project supervisory employees" as used herein shall mean persons in supervisory positions engaged upon projects who are paid upon a per diem or monthly basis by means of payroll payments from funds authorized for the operation of such projects.

HOURS OF WORK

§ 402.4 Responsibilities. The State Youth Administrator shall be responsible for determining the hours of work for project employees in accordance with the provisions hereinafter prescribed.

§ 402.5 Maximum hours. Hours of project work for youth employees shall not exceed 8 hours per day, 40 hours per week, and 100 hours per month, except in the case of:

(a) Exemptions by Administrator. Such projects, portions of projects, or areas as the National Youth Administrator, or his authorized representative, may hereafter exempt;

(b) Emergencies. An emergency involving the public welfare or to protect work already done on a project when so authorized by the State Youth Administrator;

(c) Making up lost time. Making up time lost due to conditions which in the judgment of the State Youth Administrator warrant authorizing youth employees to make up lost time; or

(d) Resident projects. Resident projects, to which youth employees shall be assigned upon the basis of a 30-day service status.

§ 402.6 Related training. Youth employees may be required to participate in a program of related training, which may be included in their monthly assigned hours, provided that the total assigned hours do not exceed 100 hours per month. Within the maximum assigned hours provided herein, youth employees shall be considered in payroll status for the entire period during which they are under the supervision of the National Youth Administration.

§ 402.7 Supervisory employees. The hours of work for project supervisory employees shall be established by the State Youth Administrator in accordance with the requirements of the project to which the employee is assigned.

MONTHLY EARNINGS AND PAYMENT FOR SERVICES

§ 402.8 Supervisory employees' earnings. The State Youth Administrator is authorized and directed to establish per diem or monthly earnings for project supervisory employees in accordance with the wages customarily paid for work of a similar nature in the same locality. Earnings for project supervisory employees established on a per diem or monthly salary basis are subject to the following conditions:

(a) Per diem employees. Project supervisory employees, who are assigned to work for a period of less than 100 hours per payroll month or who are assigned to work for indefinite periods per payroll month, shall be compensated upon a per diem basis of payment from funds authorized for the operation of projects. Project supervisory employees paid on a per diem basis shall be paid for their actual days of service.

(b) Employees on monthly salary basis. Project supervisory employees, who are assigned to work for definite schedules of not less than 100 hours per payroll month shall be compensated for their services upon a monthly salary basis from funds authorized for the operation of projects. For project supervisory employees paid on a monthly salary basis, deductions for voluntary absence from duty shall be made in the amount of one-thirtieth of the monthly salary for each day of voluntary absence. However, no deduction shall be made for any day or days upon which the employee is not required to work. Deductions for voluntary absence from duty for a portion of a day shall be made in an amount equal to one-fourth the deduction, or multiple thereof, made for absence during a full day.

§ 402.9 Youth employees' earnings. The schedule of monthly earnings hereinafter prescribed shall be applicable to youth employees, except in the case of:

(a) Exemptions by Administrator. Such projects, portions of projects, or areas as the National Youth Administrator, or his authorized representative, may hereafter exempt;

(b) Making up lost time. Making up time lost, or in the case of an emergency, as provided in 402.5;

(c) Resident projects. Resident projects; and

(d) Prior exemptions; schedule of earnings. Such projects, portions of projects, or areas for which exemptions from the schedule of monthly earnings have heretofore been granted by proper authority for unskilled and intermediate workers, provided that the exemptions remain applicable to the specific projects, portions of projects, or areas for which they were authorized and that no such exemption shall be continued in effect under this authority on and after November 1, 1939. Exemptions heretofore authorized for skilled and professional and technical workers : : hereby rescinded.

Schedule of Monthly Earnings for Part-Time Work

The schedule of monthly earnings applicable to any county shall be based upon the 1930 population of the largest municipality within the county in accordance with the following schedule:

| Wage regions [1] | Population over 25,000 | Population under 25,000 |
|---|---|---|
| | Class B | |
| Region I | 18 | 14 |
| Region II | 16 | 14 |
| Region III | 14 | 12 |
| | Class A | |
| Region I | 21 | 17 |
| Region II | 18 | 15 |
| Region III | 16 | 13 |

[1] Wage Regions include the following states:

Region I: Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Region II: Delaware, District of Columbia, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Virginia, West Virginia.

Region III: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas.

§ 402.10 Adjustments. The several State Youth Administrators are authorized to make adjustments of not to exceed fifty cents (50¢) above or below the schedule of earnings as prescribed in 402.9 to avoid the computation of fractional payments of less than one cent (1¢) or the assignment of hours of work which involve partial hours during any monthly pay period.

§ 402.11 State Administrator's Orders. It shall be the responsibility of each State Youth Administrator to issue State Youth Administrator's Orders which shall constitute a schedule of assigned hours of work and monthly earnings for each class of youth employee in each county in which projects are operated. Where exemptions are authorized, supplemental schedules may be issued under the State Youth Administrator's Orders to cover special determinations for individual projects within a county or for subdivisions within a county.

§ 402.12 Non-resident project employees. After November 1, 1939, employment on projects within each state shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) Class B wage earners. At least 80 percent of the youth employees within each state assigned to non-resident projects shall be paid in accordance with the schedule of earnings prescribed in 402.9 for Wage Class B;

(b) Class A wage earners. Not more than 20 percent of the youth employees within each state assigned to non-resident projects shall be paid in accordance with the schedule of earnings prescribed in 402.9 for Wage Class A.

§ 402.13 Resident project employees. The monthly earnings of youth employees assigned to resident projects, except for such projects, or portions of projects, as the National Youth Administrator, or his authorized representative, may hereafter exempt, shall be established by the State Youth Administrator at a uniform amount of not to exceed thirty dollars ($30) per payroll month for full-time resident projects or twenty dollars ($20) per payroll month for part-time resident projects, with an appropriate charge for lodging, food, sanitation, water and bathing facilities, and medical and dental care. Deductions shall be made at the end of each payroll month from the earnings of youth employees assigned to resident projects, provided that the net payment to youth employees shall be not less than eight dollars ($8) per payroll month.

For youth employees assigned to full-time resident projects, deductions for voluntary absence from duty shall be made in the amount of one-thirtieth of the monthly salary for each day of voluntary absence. For youth employees assigned to part-time resident projects, deductions for voluntary absence from duty shall be made on the basis of the ratio which the number of days of absence bears to the total number of days of assignment during the payroll month. Deductions for voluntary absence from duty for a portion of a day shall be made in an amount equal to one-fourth the deduction, or multiple thereof, made for absence during a full day.

§ 402.14 Accident compensation. Project employees if injured in the performance of duty and unable to work as a result thereof shall be entitled to receive payment of compensation under the provisions of the Act of February 15, 1934 (48 Stat. 351) as amended.

§ 402.15 Pledge or assignment of wages. Wages paid by the Federal Government may not be pledged or assigned, and any purported pledge or assignment shall be null and void.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

§ 402.16 Need. The certification of need of youth employees shall be made by public relief agencies approved by the State Youth Administrator, or in lieu thereof, shall be the responsibility of the State Youth Administrator or his authorized representative. For the purpose of certification, a youth employee shall be defined as needy if he is:

(a) With family. A member of a family whose income is insufficient to provide the basic requirements of all members of the family, including the youth member, regardless of whether the family is receiving or eligible for any form of public assistance; or

(b) Without family. Without family connections and his income is insufficient to provide his basic requirements.

§ 402.17 Age and health. No person under the age of 18 years, or whose age is 25 years or more, except project supervisory employees, and no one whose physical condition is such as to make his employment dangerous to his health or safety, or to the health or safety of others, may be employed on a project. This paragraph shall not be construed to operate against the employment of physically handicapped persons, otherwise employable, where such persons may be safely assigned to work which they can ably perform.

§ 402.18 Safe working conditions. All work projects shall be conducted in accordance with safe working conditions, and every effort shall be made for the prevention of accident.

§ 402.19 Citizenship. No person shall be employed on any project until such person has made an affidavit as to his United States citizenship. No alien shall be given employment or continued in employment on any project, even though such alien may have filed a declaration of intention to become an American citizen.

§ 402.20 Capabilities. No person shall be employed or continued in employment if his work habits are such or his work record shows that he is incapable of performing satisfactorily the work to which he may be assigned.

§ 402.21 Advocates of violence. No person who advocates, or who is a member of an organization that advocates, the overthrow of the Government of the United States through force or violence shall be eligible for any employment which is compensated after September 30, 1939, from funds appropriated to the National Youth Administration.

§ 402.22 Oath of office. No project supervisory employee may be employed or continued in employment unless such person executes an oath of office before engaging in project employment, or prior to August 1, 1939, in the case of any person employed before that date who has not taken an oath of office.

§ 402.23 Offers of employment. Project employees certified as in need shall be expected to accept a bona fide offer of public or private employment provided that:

(a) Capabilities. The project employee is capable of performing such work;

(b) Prevailing wage. The wage for such employment is not less than the prevailing wage for such work in the community;

(c) Union relationship. Such employment is not in conflict with established union relationships; and

(d) Working conditions. Such employment provides reasonable working conditions.

No project employee certified as in need who refuses a bona fide offer of private employment under the conditions provided in this section shall be retained in employment, for the period such private employment would be available. However, a worker shall be entitled to immediate resumption of his previous employment status if he is still in need and if he has lost his private employment through no fault of his own. Project employees awaiting assignment who refuse to accept private employment shall be ineligible for employment on any project for the period during which the private employment would be available.

§ 402.24 Political activities. All persons paid from funds appropriated to the National Youth Administration shall observe the following rules relating to political activities:

(a) No favors or rewards. No person, directly or indirectly, shall promise any employment, position, work, compensation, or other benefit provided or made possible under the program of the National Youth Administration to any person as consideration, favor, or reward for any political activity or for the support of or opposition to any candidate or any political party in any election.

(b) No discrimination. No person shall deprive, attempt to deprive, or threaten to deprive by any means any person of any employment, position, work, compensation, or other benefit provided or made possible under the program of the National Youth Administration on account of race, creed, color, or any political activity, support of, or opposition to any candidate or any political party in any election.

(c) No solicitation. No person shall knowingly solicit or knowingly be in any manner concerned in soliciting any assessment, subscription or contribution for the campaign expenses of any individual or political party from any person entitled to or receiving compensation or employment provided for by the program of the National Youth Administration.

(d) No interference in elections. No person employed in any administrative or supervisory capacity by any agency of the Federal Government whose compensation or any part thereof is paid from funds appropriated to the National Youth Administration shall use his official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with an election or affecting the results thereof. While such persons shall retain the right to vote as they please and to express privately their opinions on all political subjects, they shall take no active part directly or indirectly in political management or in political campaigns or in political conventions. Any persons who violate the provisions of this section shall be subject to immediate discharge and thereafter such persons shall not be eligible for any employment which is compensated from funds appropriated to the National Youth Administration.

(e) No running for political office. No person employed in any administrative or supervisory capacity may be a candidate for any state, district, county, or municipal office (such office requiring full time of such person and to which office a salary or per diem attaches), in any primary, general or special election or who is serving as a campaign manager or assistant thereto for any such candidate.

§ 402.25 Voting. Every person of legal age who works for the National Youth Administration, whatever his job, has a right to vote in any election for any candidate he chooses. When the hours during which polling places are open or any other conditions prevent employees from freely exercising their voting privileges, schedules hours of work may be adjusted to provide the necessary time for this purpose. Project employees shall not be paid for any allowance of time during which to vote, but they shall be permitted through a rescheduling of hours to work their full quota of hours during the payroll month in which the time off is granted.

ASSIGNMENT, CLASSIFICATION, AND SEPARATION

§ 402.26 Responsibility. The State Youth Administrator or his authorized representative shall be responsible for the assignment, classification, transfer and termination of project employees paid from funds appropriated to the National Youth Administration. Project employees shall be registered with employment offices designated by the United States Employment Service.

EFFECTIVE DATE

§ 402.27 Superseded and rescinded material. These rules and regulations shall become effective at the beginning of payroll periods on and after August 1, 1939, and shall supersede Administrative Order No. 1, dated July 1, 1939,[1] which shall be rescinded upon the effective date of this Order.

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in the Administrator of the National Youth Administration by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1939 approved June 30, 1939, the following rules and regulations are prescribed.

DEFINITIONS

§ 403.1 Project. The term "project" as used herein shall mean projects which provide for the part-time employment of needy students and which are financed in whole or in part from funds appropriated to the National Youth Administration by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1939.

§ 403.2 Student aid program. The term "Student Aid Program" as used herein refers to the part-time employment of needy students, who are in regular attendance at schools, colleges, and universities, in order to enable them to continue their education. Under the Student Aid Program, there are two divisions, namely, "School Aid" and "College and Graduate Aid."

§ 403.3 School aid program. The term "School Aid Program" as used herein refers to the part-time employment of needy students who are in regular attendance at approved institutions not requiring high school graduation or the equivalent for entrance. Such institutions are required to be non-profit making, tax-exempt, and bona fide educational institutions and so certified by the principal state educational officer.

§ 403.4 College and graduate aid program. The term "College and Graduate Aid Program" as used herein refers to the part-time employment of needy students who are in regular attendance at approved institutions requiring, as a minimum, high school graduation or the equivalent for entrance. Such institutions are required to be non-profit making, tax-exempt, and bona fide educational institutions and so certified by the principal state educational officer. Aid given to undergraduate students or professional students who have not obtained their bachelor's degree is referred to in this Order as "College Aid." Aid given to students who have obtained their bachelor's degree or the equivalent and are pursuing graduate work is referred to in this Order as "Graduate Aid."

HOURS OF WORK AND MONTHLY EARNINGS

§ 403.5 Responsibility for determining. The authorized representative of each institution participating in the Student Aid Program shall be responsible for determining the hours of work and monthly earnings for each student in accordance with the provisions hereinafter prescribed in § 403.6 through § 403.13.

§ 403.6 Hours and rate of pay. Hours to be worked by a student shall be limited to that number of hours which in relation to the established monthly earnings most accurately reflects the rate of pay prevailing in the locality for the same type of work.

§ 403.7 Maximum school aid hours. The maximum hours of work for students under the School Aid Program shall be three hours per day on school days and seven hours per day on non-school days.

§ 403.8 Maximum college and graduate aid hours. The maximum hours of work for students under the College and Graduate Aid Program shall be eight hours per day.

§ 403.9 School aid earnings. Monthly earnings for students participating under the School Aid Program shall be established within the maximum of six dollars ($6) and the minimum of three dollars ($3) per month.

§ 403.10 College aid earnings. Monthly earnings for students participating under the College Aid Program shall be established within the maximum of twenty dollars ($20) and the minimum of ten dollars ($10) per month.

§ 403.11 Graduate aid earnings. Monthly earnings for students participating under the Graduate Aid Program shall be established within the maximum of thirty dollars ($30) and the minimum of twenty dollars ($20) per month.

§ 403.12 Accident compensation. Students engaged on projects and paid from project funds, if injured in the performance of duty and unable to work as a result thereof, shall be entitled to receive payment of compensation under the provisions of the Act of February 15, 1934 (48 Stat. 351) as amended.

§ 403.13 Pledge or assignment of wages. Wages paid by the Federal Government may not be pledged or assigned, and any purported pledge or assignment shall be null and void.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

§ 403.14 Age. Employment on the Student Aid Program is limited to students between the ages of 16 and 24 inclusive. Students shall have reached their 16th birthday before they can be assigned to the Student Aid Program. Students who have reached their 25th birthday are ineligible.

§ 403.15 Need of assistance. Each student must be able to qualify on the basis of need for such assistance as he may receive. It shall be determined by the officials of the institution that the student is in need of assistance in order to enter or remain in school, college, or university. Consultation with outside agencies to determine this need is recommended. The institution shall exercise every precaution to make certain that no portion of the appropriation is made available to any student who does not produce satisfactory evidence that he could not enter or remain in school without the assistance provided through employment on the Student Aid Program.

§ 403.16 Citizenship. Under the provisions of the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1939, no person shall be employed on any student aid project unless such person has made an affidavit as to his United States citizenship. No alien shall be given employment or continued in employment on any project, even though such alien may have filed a declaration of intention to become an American citizen.

§ 403.17 Required schedule. Students participating in the Student Aid Program shall be regular students carrying at least three-fourths of the normal schedule.

§ 403.18 Character and ability. Students receiving aid shall be of good character and shall possess such ability that they can give assurance of performing good scholastic work while receiving aid. Aid to students who fail to maintain satisfactory standing in at least three-fourths of their scholastic work shall be discontinued. No person shall be employed or continued in employment if his work habits are such or his work record shows that he is incapable of performing satisfactorily the work to which he may be assigned.

§ 403.19 Advocates of violence. No person who advocates, or who is a member of an organization that advocates, the overthrow of the Government of the United States through force or violence shall be eligible for any employment which is compensated after September 30, 1939, from funds appropriated to the National Youth Administration.

§ 403.20 Political activities. All persons paid from funds appropriated to the National Youth Administration are required by law to observe the following rules relating to political activities:

(a) No favors or rewards. No person, directly or indirectly, shall promise any employment, position, work, compensation, or other benefit provided or made possible under the program of the National Youth Administration to any person as consideration, favor, or reward for any political activity or for the support of or opposition to any candidate or any political party in any election.

(b) No discrimination. No person shall deprive, attempt to deprive, or threaten to deprive by any means, any person of any employment, position, work, compensation, or other benefit provided or made possible under the program of the National Youth Administration on account of race, creed, color, or any political activity, support of, or opposition to any candidate or any political party in any election.

(c) No solicitation. No person shall knowingly solicit or knowingly be in any manner concerned in soliciting any assessment, subscription or contribution for the campaign expenses of any individual or political party from any person entitled to or receiving compensation or employment provided for by the program of the National Youth Administration.

§ 403.21 Voting regulations. Every person of legal age who works for the National Youth Administration, whatever his job, has a right to vote in any election, for any candidate he chooses. When the hours during which polling places are open or any other conditions prevent employees from freely exercising their voting privileges, scheduled hours of work may be adjusted to provide the necessary time for this purpose. Project employees shall not be paid for any allowance of time during which to vote, but they shall be permitted through a rescheduling of hours to work their full quota of hours during the payroll month in which the time off is granted.

Assignment of Work

§ 403.22 Responsible officials. Officials of the participating institution shall be responsible for assigning students to suitable work and for supervising work done by students.

§ 403.23 Working conditions. Student aid projects shall be conducted in accordance with safe working conditions.

Effective Date

§ 403.24 Superseded and rescinded material. These rules and regulations shall become effective at the beginning of payroll periods on and after August 1, 1939, and shall supersede Administrative Order No. 63[1] of the Works Progress Administration and National Youth Administration, dated July 9, 1938, which shall be rescinded on the effective date of this Order.

IN THE MATTER OF FINGER CANADIAN LUMBER COMPANY, LTD.

STOP ORDER

This matter coming on to be heard before the Commission on the registration statement of Finger Canadian Lumber Company, Ltd., a Canadian corporation, after confirmed telegraphic notice to said registrant that it appears that said registration statement includes untrue statements of material facts and omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein not misleading; and upon evidence received upon the allegations made in the notice of hearing duly served by the Commission on the registrant; and

The hearing having been adjourned subject to call to permit the registrant to file further amendments; and

The stop order proceeding having been reopened subsequent to the filing of such proposed amendments; and

The Commission having duly considered the matter, and finding that said registration statement as it became effective includes untrue statements of material facts and omits to state material facts required to be stated therein and material facts necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in Items 23, 27, 44, 45, the balance sheet, the auditor's certificate and the prospectus, all as more fully set forth in the Commission's Findings of Fact and Opinion this day issued; and

The proposed amendments appearing on their face to be incomplete and inaccurate in material respects; and

The Commission now being fully advised in the premises,

It is ordered, Pursuant to Section 8 (d) of the Securities Act of 1933, that the effectiveness of the registration statement filed by Finger Canadian Lumber Company, Ltd., a Canadian corporation, be and the same hereby is suspended; and

It is further ordered, That the request of the Finger Canadian Lumber Company, Ltd. that the proposed amendments filed by it on September 12, 1938, be declared effective be and the same hereby is denied.

By direction of the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF EQUITABLE AUTO COMPANY

ORDER APPROVING A SUBSIDIARY SERVICE COMPANY PURSUANT TO SECTION 13 OF THE PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

Approval, based upon the findings of fact and conclusions of law made in this matter, is granted Declarant to conduct its business as a subsidiary service company subject to the following conditions that:

AUG 5 1939

(1) Declarant shall, in the manner described in these findings, sell to its associate customer companies those motor vehicles used exclusively by one company, at a price which shall be the original cost of said vehicles less accrued depreciation.

(2) Declarant shall, within 60 days after the date of this order, carry out the other proposed transactions set forth in these findings; specifically, it shall secure the surrender of and cancel 2,500 shares of its capital stock now held by the Philadelphia Company and shall obtain an agreement from the Philadelphia Company to assume Declarant's assessed tax liability, in consideration for which Declarant may assign to the Philadelphia Company certain accounts receivable from Pittsburgh Railways and Pittsburgh Motor Coach Company. Declarant may also pay in cash a partial liquidating dividend.

(3) In the event of a contemplated substantial change in its organization, the type and character of the companies to be serviced, the method of allocating costs to associate companies, or an increase in the scope of the services to be rendered, Declarant shall first obtain the approval of this Commission of such change.

(4) If the application of Declarant's cost-allocation method does not result in a fair and equitable allocation of its costs among the associate serviced companies, the Commission will require, after notice and opportunity for hearing, prospective adjustments, and, to the extent that it appears feasible and equitable, retroactive adjustments of such cost allocations.

This order is not to be construed as a ruling that Declarant may not be required to effect any changes in its organization and operation, or any other changes which become necessary for it to conform with the Act, present or future rules, regulations or orders.

It is so ordered.

By the Commission.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

CIVIL AERONAUTICS AUTHORITY

[Amendment 22, Civil Air Regulations]

GLIDER PILOT EXPERIENCE

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of August 1939.

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, particularly sections 205 (a), 601 and 602 of said Act, and finding that its action is desirable in the public interest and is necessary to carry out the provisions of, and to exercise and perform its powers and duties under said Act, the Civil Aeronautics Authority hereby amends the Civil Air Regulations as follows:

Section 20.166 of the Civil Air Regulations is amended so that the same will read as follows:

"20.166 Aeronautical experience. Applicant shall have completed at least 100 gliding flights, 25 of which shall have each included a 360° turn, and at least 5 of such 25 flights shall have been made within the 30 days preceding the date of filing the application. Any person who is the holder of at least a currently effective private pilot certificate and who shall have completed not less than 25 gliding flights or logged not less than 5 hours of gliding or soaring solo flight time, shall be deemed to have met the requirements of this section."

By the Authority.

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN SYSTEM

PROHIBITING FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS FROM INVESTING IN PARTICIPATIONS IN MORTGAGES

Be it resolved, That Section 203.10 of the Rules and Regulations for the Federal Savings and Loan System is amended, effective August 2, 1939, by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection (e):

"(e) Participation in mortgages. No Federal association may invest any of its funds in participations in mortgages or deeds of trust in the absence of prior specific approval by the Board." (Sec. 5 (a), (c) of H.O.L.A. of 1933, 48 Stat. 132; Sec. 18, 49 Stat. 297; 12 U.S.C. 1464 (a), (c) and Sup.)

Be it further resolved, That this amendment is deemed to be of a minor character within the provisions of subsection (c) of Section 201.2 of the Rules and Regulations for the Federal Savings and Loan System.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on August 1, 1939.

†Adopted by the FCC, July 12, 1939, effective Aug. 11, 1939.

Monthly Reports

§ 43.31 Telegraph, cable, radiotelegraph, and telephone carriers required to file. Carriers shall make and file monthly reports as follows:

(a) Each telegraph, cable, and radiotelegraph carrier shall make and file with the Commission monthly reports of its revenues and expenses.

(b) Each telephone carrier having annual operating revenues above $1,000,000.00 shall make and file with the Commission monthly reports of selected income and balance sheet items as provided for in Section 219 of the Act.

(c) Each telephone carrier having annual operating revenues above $250,000.00 shall make and file with the Commission monthly reports of its revenues, expenses, and capital changes.

Each such report required by paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) shall be in duplicate and in accordance with the forms adopted and furnished by the Commission and the instructions in such forms, and shall be filed with the Commission within 40 days after the close of the calendar month covered by the report.*†

Other Reports

§ 43.41 Reports of traffic damage claims required of telegraph, cable, and radiotelegraph carriers. Each telegraph, cable, and radiotelegraph carrier shall:

(a) maintain separate files for each damage claim of a traffic nature filed with the carrier, showing the name, address, and nature of business of the claimant, the basis for the claim, disposition made, and all correspondence, reports, and records pertaining thereto. Such files shall be maintained in accordance with existing rules and regulations regarding destruction of records (Part 42 of Title 47—Telecommunication—of the Code of Federal Regulations, as amended), and at points (one or more) to be specifically designated by each carrier. Each such carrier shall report, as hereinafter provided, all claims upon which message tolls or revenues are returned or other payments are made to the claimant by such carrier;

(b) make no payment as a result of any traffic damage claim if the amount of the payment would be in excess of the total amount collected by the carrier on the message or messages from which the claim arose unless such claim be presented to the carrier in a writing signed by the claimant and setting forth the reason for the claim;

(c) make a report of traffic damage claims, verified under oath (or affirmed according to law), and file, in duplicate, with the Commission, on or before the thirty-first day of March in each year, covering the period of twelve months ending on the thirty-first day of December next prior to said date. Said reports shall be in accordance with the forms adopted and furnished by the Commission and with the instructions in such forms, and shall contain all the information called for therein.*†

§ 43.42 Reports of relief and pensions required of carriers. Each common carrier shall at the time, or within the limits of time, hereinafter stipulated, supply the following information:

(a) Irrespective of the plan of related accounting now or at any time pursued, copies of the text (or if such does not exist, a comprehensive outline) of the original plan (adopted by respondent or to which respondent is or was a party) for pensions, sick benefits, disability benefits, death benefits, termination allowances, or any other benefits, paid or payable to active or retired employees, their representatives or beneficiaries, together with copies of the text, the dates, and effective dates of all amendments, modifications, abolishments, or other changes in all such plans as now are, or have been at any time, in force.

(b) In connection with every such benefit plan, further detailed copies or (only when the word "copies" is not appropriate) statements: (1) on original basis and (2) with respect to the content, dates and effective dates of all amendments, modifications, abolishments, and other changes in the following particulars:

(1) The facts, if any, that in the respondent's judgment establish a contractual relationship requiring the payment of pensions or other benefits.

(2) The declaration of trust under which a pension or other benefit fund, if any, has been established.

(3) The actuarial formulae (or processes stated in simplified form) governing the creation and continuation of each such trust or other similar fund or provident or other similar reserve as may be or has been established with a view to the payment of pensions or other benefits.

(4) The plan of accounting for each of the types of benefits (1) paid or (2) regarding the eventual payment of which provision has been made in the accounts.

(c) With respect to all the foregoing matters, other than future changes, every carrier, unless it has already done so, shall within 30 days, file with the Commission its response; and with respect to every future change (in a benefit plan, trust agreement, actuarial formula, plan of accounting, or other matter hereinbefore specified) made or definitely contemplated, the Commission shall be advised at the earliest practicable date: Provided, That in the event of any change actually made, such filing shall be within the 30 days next following the effective date of such change: And further provided, That in the event that any change will involve or produce a "change in accounting", the change shall not be made until after filing of the appropriate detailed documentary copy or statement with the Commission for its consideration and such action as it deems appropriate.

(d) With respect to the matters treated in paragraphs (a) to (g) "change in accounting" shall mean every change in the benefit plan, actuarial procedure, plan of accounting itself, or otherwise, that will involve or produce changes in the amounts periodically entering any account for any reason other than a change in the amount of a payroll.

(e) Nothing contained in paragraphs (a) to (g) shall be considered as changing or in any way affecting the requirements of any uniform system of accounts effective under the provisions of the Act, but, in order to avoid duplicate requirements, any carrier, which in answer to any order, accounting regulation, or request of the Commission has supplied one or more of the items of information sought by paragraphs (a) to (g) shall be considered as having responded properly with respect to the particular item or items after having made specific reference in answer to the item under paragraphs (a) to (g) to the responsive data otherwise supplied.

(f) In the event that any or all of the requirements of paragraphs (a) to (g) are not applicable to a carrier subject to the Act, such carrier, unless it has already done so, shall, within 30 days, file with the Commission a response stating such fact, and a carrier's status in this respect shall in no manner affect its responsibility for subsequent reports in the event of future adoption, change, or other significant event or circumstance.

(g) The term "changes" used in paragraphs (a) to (g) shall include the variation (1) in the terms of the benefit plan; (2) in the accounting for the benefits; or (3) elsewhere, due to social security legislation, but for the purposes of paragraphs (a) to (g) the payment of taxes pursuant to the Social Security Act shall not of itself be considered as constituting adoption of, or becoming a party to, a benefit plan.*†

CARRIER CONTRACTS, AGREEMENTS, ETC.

§ 43.51 Contracts relating to traffic. Each carrier, unless it has already done so, shall, within 30 days, file with the Commission, in duplicate, verified under oath (or affirmed according to law), copies of every contract, agreement and arrangement with other carriers, or with common carriers not subject to the provisions of the Act in relation to any traffic in which it engages or participates and which may be affected by the provisions of the Act.

Each carrier which hereafter enters into, modifies, amends, or cancels any such contract, agreement, and arrangement, shall, within 30 days thereafter, file with the Commission, in duplicate, verified under oath (or affirmed according to law), copies of every new, modified, or amended contract, agreement and arrangement, and verified copies in duplicate of every cancellation.

If any contract, agreement, arrangement, or cancellation be made other than in writing, statements in duplicate, verified under oath (or affirmed according to law) of the terms of every such contract, agreement, arrangement, or cancellation shall be filed with the Commission within 30 days thereafter.*†

§ 43.52 Exclusive contracts. Each carrier, unless it has already done so, shall, within 30 days, file with the Commission, in duplicate, verified under oath (or affirmed according to law), copies of every contract, agreement and arrangement to which it is a party, which prevents or purports to prevent the other party thereto in any manner from dealing freely with another common carrier subject to the provisions of the Act.

Each carrier which hereafter enters into, modifies, amends, or cancels any such contract, agreement, and arrangement, shall within 30 days thereafter, file with the Commission, in duplicate, verified under oath (or affirmed according to law) copies of every such new, modified, or amended contract, agreement and arrangement, and verified copies in duplicate of every cancellation.

If any contract, agreement, arrangement, or cancellation be made other than in writing, statements in duplicate, verified under oath (or affirmed according to law) of the terms of every such contract, agreement, arrangement, or cancellation shall be filed with the Commission within 30 days thereafter.

Where a contract called for by this section relates exclusively to the lease of office space involving an annual rental of less than $500.00 for premises located in other than public places, (railroad, bus, or other transportation terminals, stations, or rights of way; hotels; theatres; amusement parks; baseball parks, or other sport stadiums or arenas, or other places of amusement; auditoriums, or other places of public assemblage) such contract need not be filed pursuant to this section; but in lieu thereof verified statements, in duplicate, of a list showing every such contract, stating the location of the premises, the period of the lease and the consideration involved, shall be filed with the Commission.*†

§ 43.53 Foreign telegraph communication. Each carrier engaging or participating in foreign telegraph communication, unless it has already done so, shall, within 30 days, file with the Commission, in duplicate, under oath (or affirmed according to law), a statement showing by zones and countries of origin and destination, as hereinafter defined, in so far as the same may be known to the respondent carriers:

(a) The total charge per word for each class of message for transmission over the normal route or routes;

(b) The division of such charge setting forth separately the terminal, transit, and all other charges or payments (specifying them) making up said total charge;

(c) The carriers, administrations, or other persons or bodies to which such portion or division of such charges accrue, and

(d) The total amount accruing to each carrier, administration, or other person or body participating in such total charge:

With respect to—

(1) Messages originating in each zone (as now defined in the carrier's tariffs on file with the Commission), in the United States and its possessions, transmitted by such carrier and destined to each country (including each destination within each foreign country if the total charge differs) outside the United States and its possessions, except countries to which the domestic word count applies;

(2) Messages originating in each country (including each point within each foreign country if the total charge differs) outside the United States and its possessions, except countries to which the domestic word count applies, for delivery in each zone in the United States and its possessions;

(3) Messages originating in each country outside the United States and its possessions, except the countries to which the domestic word count applies (including each point within each foreign country if the total charge differs), and transiting the United States or its possessions for delivery in each country beyond the United States or its possessions: Provided, however, That any carrier may submit, for the approval of the Commission, a list of the principal countries between which it handles traffic transiting the United States and if such list be approved by the Commission, then said carrier need only report as to traffic transiting the United States between the countries on said approved list. Said reports shall be in accordance with the forms adopted by the Commission and the instructions in such forms, samples of which will be furnished by the Commission, and shall contain all the information called for therein.

In the event any change is made with respect to any of the matters referred to in the foregoing paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d), a like statement shall be filed not later than 45 days after the effective date of the change.

The amounts of money herein required to be reported shall in each case be stated in United States currency and also in terms of gold francs, or in terms of other currency in which settlement of accounts is actually made, and the ratio used in conversion from one currency to another shall be stated.

Each carrier above described, unless it has already done so, shall, within 30 days, file with the Commission copies of every contract, agreement, and arrangement pursuant to which the division of its charges for the messages described in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) above are made; and shall reduce to writing and file with the Commission immediately on the making thereof any new or modified or changed contract, agreement, and arrangement entered into by it with respect to the ratio of the division of charges (including any advices or information received by it affecting directly or indirectly such division of charges). This provision shall be construed to include contracts, agreements, and arrangements made with other carriers or administrations in connection with settlement of accounts, in so far as such contracts, agreements, and arrangements may affect the amount of revenue accruing to the carrier subject to the provisions of the Act.

If any contract, agreement, and arrangement required by the foregoing paragraphs to be filed with the Commission is made other than in writing, verified statements, in duplicate, of the terms of every such contract, agreement, and arrangement shall be filed with the Commission within the time specified for filing written contracts, agreements, and arrangements.*†

§ 43.54 Description of services. Each telegraph carrier, unless it has already done so in connection with the filing of tariffs, shall, within 30 days, file with the Commission a statement, in duplicate, verified under oath (or affirmed according to law), giving a description of the various transmission or nontransmission services to the public, groups of persons, organizations, governments, etc. performed or participated in at the time of filing.

Each telegraph carrier which hereafter begins the performance of or the participation in any new service, or extends or discontinues any existing service, shall, within 30 days thereafter, file with the Commission a statement, in duplicate, verified under oath (or affirmed according to law), giving a description and full particulars of any new service begun or of any existing service extended or discontinued, provided that it has not already done so in connection with the filing of tariffs.

Examples of services which may be covered by this section are: communication service wholly within a foreign country, or between foreign countries; the leasing of wires to other communication carriers; errand service by messenger boys; time service; burglar alarm service, pickup and delivery for other carriers; leasing of other than telegraph plant; sale, installation, maintenance, and inspection of equipment; accounting, legal, and engineering services; merchandising, jobbing, and contracting services; frequency measuring service; and stock quotation board service.*†

Notices

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Federal Alcohol Administration Division.

ADVERTISING IN POSTER DISPLAY MACHINES

To All Permittees:

The Administration has received numerous inquiries relative to the propriety, under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, of industry members engaging in a new type of advertising service apparently involving agreements with private firms for advertising space in poster display machines or devices installed in retail stores operated by the various States. Since it is anticipated that participation by industry members in this form of advertising may possibly involve violations of the Federal statute, the Administration considers it advisable to direct the attention of the Industry to Section 5 (b) (4) of the Act which is summarized as follows:

"Section 5 (b) (4) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act prohibits a manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler, directly or indirectly, from inducing a retailer to purchase his products to the exclusion, in whole or in part, of the products of other persons sold or offered for sale in interstate commerce, under the conditions stated, by paying or crediting the retailer for any advertising display or distribution service. The payments to the retailer, in the situation outlined above, flow from the various persons who purchase advertising space in the device, and might, therefore, be included in this provision of the statute, if they had the result prohibited thereby."

In this connection the Administration deems it expedient to point out that the language of Section 5 (b) of the Act is similar to that used in Section 5 (d), concerning which the report of the Ways and Means Committee of the United States Congress contains the following statement:

"The consignment sale provision is made to apply to sales and purchases by State agencies. The constitutionality of applying such regulation to State agencies is sustained by the cases of South Carolina vs. U. S. (1905) (199 U. S. 437); Ohio vs. Helvering (1934) (292 U. S. 360); and Helvering vs. Powers (1934) (293 U. S. 214) (H. Rept. No. 1542, Federal Alcohol Control Bill, p. 11)."

Although it is, of course, impossible for this Administration to determine in advance whether or not a given practice will have the result prohibited by Federal statute, it appears advisable for the Administration to inform the Industry as to its views of the law.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

[Order No. 28300]

CLASS RATE INVESTIGATION, 1939

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of July, A. D. 1939.

The Commission having under consideration the matter of interstate class rates (both intraterritorial and interterritorial) in official, southern, southwestern, and western trunk-line territories, and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That a proceeding of investigation and inquiry be, and it is hereby, instituted by the Commission on its own motion into and concerning the interstate class rates under the respectively designated classes, as follows:

| | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Western classes | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | A | B | C | D | E | |
| Percentages | 100 | 85 | 70 | 55 | 45 | 37.5 | 32.5 | 30 | 22.5 | 17.5 |

| | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Official classes | 1 | 2 | 3-R25 | R26 | 4 | 5 | 6 |
| Percentages | 100 | 85 | 70 | 55 | 50 | 35 | 27.5 |

| | | | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Southern classes | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 |
| Percentages | 100 | 85 | 70 | 55 | 45 | 40 | 35 | 30 | 25 | 22.5 | 20 | 17.5 |

applicable to the transportation in interstate or foreign commerce of property by common carriers by railroad, or by water, or partly by railroad and partly by water, subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, and the charges resulting therefrom, between all points in the United States lying on and generally eastward of the following line: The western boundaries of the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, and Nebraska south to the main line of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, thence along such railway west to Cheyenne, Wyo., thence south on the line of The Colorado and Southern Railway Company and paralleling railroads passing through Denver, Pueblo, and Trinidad, Colo., to the border of the State of New Mexico, thence successively east, south, and west along the latter border to the Rio Grande River (excluding any point in New Mexico), thence along the Rio Grande to the Gulf of Mexico, with a view to determining whether said rates and charges, or any of them, are unjust, unreasonable, unduly prejudicial, unduly preferential, or otherwise unlawful, and to making such findings and order or orders as may be proper in the premises.

It is further ordered, That all common carriers by railroad, or by water, subject to said Act, and participating in said transportation be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon each of said respondents; and that notice of this proceeding be given to the general public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C.

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be assigned for hearing at such times and places as the Commission may hereafter direct.

[Order No. 28310]

CONSOLIDATED FREIGHT CLASSIFICATION

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of July, A. D. 1939.

The Commission having under consideration the matter of the consolidated freight classification containing the descriptions of articles, carload minimum weights, and ratings on such articles, in official, southern, and western classifications, and applicable to the transportation of property in interstate or foreign commerce, by common carriers by railroad, or water, or partly by railroad and partly by water, subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That a proceeding of inquiry and investigation be, and it is hereby, instituted by the Commission on its own motion into and concerning the descriptions, minima, and ratings provided in said consolidated freight classification, with a view to determining whether they, or any of them, are unjust, unreasonable, unduly prejudicial, unduly preferential, or otherwise unlawful, and to make such findings and order or orders as may be proper in the premises.

It is further ordered, That all common carriers by railroad, or by water, engaged in the transportation of property in interstate and foreign commerce, subject to said act and participating in tariffs of rates or charges governed by said classifications, be, and they are hereby, made respondents to this proceeding; that a copy of this order be served upon each of said respondents; and that notice of this proceeding be given to the general public by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C.

And it is further ordered, That this proceeding be assigned for hearing at such times and places as the Commission may hereafter direct.

CLASS RATES AND FREIGHT CLASSIFICATIONS

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

AUGUST 1, 1939.

The Commission has, by appropriate orders instituted general investigations of (1) class rates, rail and water, applicable in the United States generally, except in mountain-Pacific territory and on transcontinental traffic; and (2) freight classifications by rail and water, with a view to prescribing such rates and classification as may be found justified. This is a large undertaking. Necessarily it will take time not only in preliminary work by the Commission's own forces, but in preparations by parties desiring to be heard. Consequently it will probably be desirable that public hearings be not set at an early date. In the meantime efforts now being made by carriers' and shippers' organizations to revise class rate structures, in the light of present conditions, and to simplify classifications should proceed. To the extent these efforts are successful the magnitude of the task confronting all concerned in these investigations will be decreased. These proceedings have been assigned to Division 2 for administrative handling.

§ 52.6 Acquisition by lease—(a) Leases not requiring prior approval—(1) Limitation of term and rental. Leases for the purposes and subject to the limitations of term and rental set forth in (i) and (ii) below are authorized without prior approval when funds are available and the rental consideration conforms to the prevailing rate in the locality concerned:

(i) For hire of camp sites for troops, office and storage space for small detachments, garage space, and space for recruiting stations, provided the premises are to be occupied not longer than three months and the rental for the entire period of occupancy is less than $100.

(ii) For hire of buildings and grounds required in connection with maneuvers and special field exercises, including the GHQ Air Force, when the premises are to be occupied not longer than three months and the rental for the entire term is less than $500.

(2) Informal agreements. Leases in (1) (i) and (ii) above may be by informal written agreements, but when the rental in (1) (i) above exceeds $100, execution on Standard Form No. 2 (Revised) (Government Lease of Real Estate) is mandatory. Informal written agreement may be worded substantially as follows:

_____,

(b) Preparation and execution of leases—(1) Lessors to be informed as to terms. Contracting officers will be careful to inform fully the lessors as to the terms of the lease.

(2) Lessor must have valid interest. Contracting officers will satisfy themselves before executing leases that the person, partnership, or corporation from whom it is proposed to lease the premises has such interest therein as will insure the validity of the lease.

(3) Authority of lessor's agent. (i) In executing leases contracting officers will exercise great care to insure that the authority for the execution thereof on behalf of the owner by agents, trustees, etc. is adequate. See instructions on Standard Form No. 2. It will be noted that these instructions require only two authenticated copies of power of attorney or other evidence to act on behalf of the lessor. An authenticated copy of power of attorney, or other evidence, should be attached to each executed number and true copy of the lease.

(ii) Corporations. When a lease is executed with a corporation, the certificate appearing at the foot of page 3 of Standard Form No. 2 will be executed by its secretary or its assistant secretary.

(iii) Individuals. When the owner of the property to be leased has delegated to an agent authority to execute leases, the lease should be drawn and executed in the name of the owner "by _____, Agent." Either the written authority of the agent to execute a lease, or the certificate of the contracting officer that he

FEDERAL REGISTER

Published by the Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives, pursuant to the authority contained in the Federal Register Act, approved July 26, 1935 (49 Stat. L. 500), under regulations prescribed by the Administrative Committee, with the approval of the President.

The Administrative Committee consists of the Archivist or Acting Archivist, an officer of the Department of Justice designated by the Attorney General, and the Public Printer or Acting Public Printer.

The daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER will be furnished by mail to subscribers, free of postage, for $1 per month or $10 per year; single copies 10 cents each; payable in advance. Remit by money order payable to Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C.

Correspondence concerning the publication of the FEDERAL REGISTER should be addressed to the Director, Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives, Washington, D. C. has satisfied himself as to such authority, must be attached to, or incorporated in, the lease. The form of certificate will be as follows:

I hereby certify that I have satisfied myself of the authority of the person signing the lessor's name to this lease to bind the lessor, and I have waived the filing of evidence of such authority, as permitted so to do by the Army Regulations.

(Contracting officer)

(Grade)

Such a certificate will be affixed to each signed and true copy of the lease.

(4) Effective date. Original leases must take effect on the date the premises are first occupied.

(5) Option of renewal. The limit for option of renewal should be the longest time, compatible with the interest of the Government, to which the lessor will agree.

(6) If heat, light, water, and other services are necessary, they will be furnished by the lessor when not otherwise obtainable at a lower cost, and the rental agreed upon will be expressed in the lease as including the services to be furnished.

(c) Survey of premises in case of temporary occupancy—(1) Upon taking possession. Whenever possession of any premises is taken for the temporary use of the Army, whether requisitioned, condemned, acquired by lease, or informally occupied, the officer or other agent of the War Department taking such possession will cause a careful survey and detailed examination of the premises to be made.

(2) When to be made jointly with owner. When the premises are to be occupied under lease or other agreement, the survey required by (1) above will be made jointly with the owner or his authorized representative.

(3) To be signed and made part of agreement. The survey will be signed by both persons making it and will be attached to, and made a part of, the lease or agreement. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 32) [Pars. 5a and b, 8b, f, g, h, i and j, and 10a, c and d, AR 30–1415, July 10, 1939]

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of July, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

IN THE MATTER OF PHILADELPHIA RUBBER WASTE COMPANY, A CORPORATION, AND ALBERT SCHWARTZ, ISADORE M. ENGEL, AND SIMON SPERBERG, COPARTNERS, TRADING AS PHILCO RUBBER COMPANY, PHILCO RUBBER SALES COMPANY, PHILCO AUTO SUPPLY, PHILCO AUTO & RUBBER SUPPLY AND PHILCO SPARK PLUG COMPANY

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard[1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent Albert Schwartz, on behalf of himself and respondent Philadelphia Rubber Waste Company, testimony and other evidence taken before John W. Addison, an examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said complaint and in opposition thereto, briefs filed herein, and oral arguments by Joseph C. Fehr, counsel for the Commission and by Malvin H. Reinheimer, counsel for respondent Albert Schwartz, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent Philadelphia Rubber Waste Company, a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, and respondents Albert Schwartz, Isadore M. Engel and Simon Sperberg, individually and as copartners, trading as Philco Rubber Company, Philco Rubber Sales Company, Philco Auto Supply, Philco Rubber & Auto Supply and Philco Spark Plug Company, or under any other name or names, their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of their various items of merchandise, in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Representing, directly or by inference, through the use of the trade name "Philco" or any colorable simulation thereof, or in any other manner, that tire patches, tire reliners, tire and tube repair kits, repair patch cement, gasket cement, spark plugs, inner tubes, or any other merchandise manufactured by manufacturers other than the Philadelphia Storage Battery Company or its licensees, successors or assignees, are "Philco" products or are made by or under license from the Philadelphia Storage Battery Company;

(2) Using the term "Philco", or any other brand, corporate or trade name designed to have, or having, a tendency or capacity to deceive the purchasing public as to the identity of the manufacturer of the products sold by respondents.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

BUREAU OF CUSTOMS

[T. D. 49925]

ARTICLES FROM MEXICO—$100 EXEMPTION—SPECIAL REGULATION

Residents of the United States, returning thereto through any of the ports in collection district no. 25 (San Diego), shall not be granted the $100 exemption, or any part thereof, in the case of articles acquired in Mexico unless such residents shall have remained beyond the territorial limits of the United States for a period of not less than twenty-four hours.[1]

JULY 28, 1939.

To the Collector of Customs, San Diego, Calif., and Others Concerned:

Attention is invited to the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth provisos to paragraph 1798 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended by section 36 of the Customs Administrative Act of 1938 (U.S.C., Supp. IV, title 19, sec. 1201, par. 1798), which relate to the $100 exemption accorded residents of the United States returning from abroad and read as follows:

Provided further, That up to but not exceeding $100 in value of articles (including distilled spirits, wines, and malt liquors aggregating not more than one wine gallon and including not more than one hundred cigars) acquired abroad by such residents of the United States as an incident of the foreign journey for personal or household use or as souvenirs or curios, but not bought on commission or intended for sale, shall be free of duty: Provided further, That (a) in the case of articles acquired in any country other than a contiguous country which maintains a free zone or free port, the exemption authorized by the preceding proviso shall apply only to articles so acquired by a returning resident who has remained beyond the territorial limits of the United States for a period of not less than forty-eight hours and (b) in the case of articles acquired in a contiguous country which maintains a free zone or free port, the Secretary of the Treasury shall by special regulation or instruction, the application of which may be restricted to one or more individual ports of entry, provide that the exemption authorized by the preceding proviso shall be applied only to articles acquired abroad by a returning resident who has remained beyond the territorial limits of the United States for not less than such period (which period shall not exceed twenty-four hours) as the Secretary may deem necessary in the public interest or to facilitate enforcement at the specified port or ports of the requirement that the exemption shall apply only to articles acquired as an incident of the foreign journey: Provided further, That the exemption authorized by the second preceding proviso shall apply only to articles declared in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury by a returning resident who has not taken advantage of the said exemption within the thirty-day period immediately preceding his return to the United States: Provided further, That no such special regulation or instruction shall take effect until the lapse of ninety days after the date of such special regulation or instruction:

Pursuant to the requirement of the fourth proviso to paragraph 1798 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, I, by this special regulation, do hereby provide that the exemption authorized by the third proviso to such paragraph 1798, as amended, shall not be applied at any port in collection district no. 25 (San Diego) to articles acquired in the Republic of Mexico, a contiguous country which maintains a free zone or free port, by a returning resident of the United States unless such resident has remained beyond the territorial limits of the United States for a period of not less than twenty-four hours.

This special regulation shall be effective on the day following the expiration of ninety days after the date hereof, with respect to goods arriving at any port in the United States when free entry under the $100 exemption is claimed by reason of the arrival of a resident of the United States who has returned thereto at a port in collection district no. 25. ## UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION

[General Order 15, Supplement 11b]

MINIMUM MANNING SCALES FOR THE S. S. "MORMACREY," S. S. "MORMACMAR," S. S. "MORMACRIO" AND S. S. "MORMACSUL," SUBSIDIZED VESSELS OF THE MOORE-McCORMACK LINES, INC., AMERICAN REPUBLICS LINE SERVICE

At a regular session of the United States Maritime Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of July 1939.

The Commission having adopted, pursuant to Section 301 (a) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, General Order No. 15[1] providing for minimum wage scales, minimum manning scales, and reasonable working conditions for all subsidized vessels, and now desiring to complete the minimum manning scales for the S. S. Mormacrey, S. S. Mormacmar, S. S. Mormacrio and S. S. Mormacsul, subsidized vessels of the Moore-McCormack Lines, Inc., American Republics Line Service (referred to herein as Operator); and

The Commission finding that the minimum scales hereinafter adopted for the above named subsidized vessels of the Operator are reasonable, proper and lawful, such finding being based upon investigations referred to in General Order No. 15 and investigations of the Commission made thereafter; it is, therefore

Ordered, That the minimum manning scales attached hereto for the S. S. Mormacrey, S. S. Mormacmar, S. S. Mormacrio and S. S. Mormacsul, subsidized vessels of the Operator, be and the same hereby are adopted: Provided, That under extraordinary circumstances such as casualty or desertion, where it is impossible to procure sufficient officers or unlicensed seamen of any required grade or rating to permit the sailing of any of said vessels without undue delay, the said scales shall be inoperative to the extent required by such emergency, and the Operator shall forthwith report to the Commission any departure from said scales, stating in such report the extent of the departure and showing to the satisfaction of the Commission that sufficient reasons for such departure existed; and it is further

Ordered, That the minimum manning scales hereby adopted shall not relieve said Operator from complying with the manning requirements of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation and shall be without prejudice to the carrying of seamen in addition to those required hereby; and it is further

Ordered, That the minimum manning scales hereby adopted shall become effective for each of said vessels upon the first signing after September 1, 1939 of shipping articles for a subsidized voyage of said vessel, unless otherwise specified in the scales, and that the Operator be immediately served by registered mail with a copy of this Order and of the minimum manning scales hereby adopted.

By order of the United States Maritime Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF PEOPLES LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY

ORDER RELATIVE TO DECLARATION

Peoples Light and Power Company, a registered holding company, having filed a declaration pursuant to Section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 concerning an amendment to its charter changing the voting rights of its common stockholders so as to give such stockholders, upon the happening of certain events, the right of cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors;

A public hearing having been held upon such declaration as amended after appropriate notice[1] and the Commission having considered the record in this matter and having made and filed its findings herein;

It is ordered, That the aforesaid declaration by Peoples Light and Power Company be and become effective forthwith.

It is further ordered, That this order be subject to the following terms and conditions:

(1) That all acts in connection with said declaration shall be performed in all respects as set forth in and for the purposes represented by said declaration, as amended, and

(2) Within ten days after such charter amendment, declarant shall file with this Commission a certificate of notification showing that such charter amendment has been effected in accordance with the terms and conditions of and for the purposes represented by the declaration, as amended.

TITLE 20—EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS

RAILROAD RETIREMENT BOARD

AMENDMENT TO REGULATIONS UNDER THE RAILROAD RETIREMENT ACT OF 1937

Pursuant to the general authority contained in Section 10 of the Act of June 24, 1937, (Sec. 10, 50 Stat. 314; 45 U.S.C. Sup. III, 228j) the Regulations of the Railroad Retirement Board under such Act (4 F.R. 1477 DI) are amended by Board Orders 39-434, 39-487 and 39-491 dated June 29, 1939, July 25, 1939 and July 27, 1939, respectively, as follows:

Board Order 39-434 dated June 29, 1939 amends the first two sentences of Section 262.19 to read:

"No individual shall be selected as a member of the Actuarial Advisory Committee who does not possess qualifications in actuarial training and experience sufficient to enable him actively to assume the duties and responsibility of such appointment. The compensation of each of the two members selected as members of the Actuarial Advisory Committee shall be fixed from time to time by the Board on a per diem basis."

Board Order 39-487 dated July 25, 1939 amends Sections 210.02 and 210.03, effective as of August 1, 1939, to read:

§ 210.02 Application to be filed. No individual, irrespective of his qualifications, shall receive an annuity under the 1935 or 1937 Act unless he has, on or before the date of his death, filed with the office of the Board, in Washington, D. C., or filed with a Regional Office of the Board, a duly executed application, upon such application form as the Board may from time to time provide; Provided, however, That a claim or application filed with the Social Security Board, whether before or after the adoption of this regulation, for a lump sum payment under Sec. 204 (a) of Title II of the Social Security Act based in whole or in part on service with an employer under the Railroad Retirement Act of 1935 or 1937 which service had not at the time of such filing been determined by the Board to be service with an employer shall be an application for an annuity filed with the Railroad Retirement Board as of the date on which such claim or application was filed with the Social Security Board.

§ 210.03 Filing date. An application, filed in a manner and form prescribed in Section 210.02, shall be considered filed with the Board as of the date that it is received by the Board in Washington, D. C., or the date that it is received by a Regional Office of the Board, whichever date is earlier.

Board Order 39-491 dated July 27, 1939 amends Section 210.04, effective as of August 1, 1939 to read:

§ 210.04 Signature on application form. The application form shall be signed personally by the applicant in his usual manner: Provided, however, That if the applicant is unable to sign his name because of physical inability or illiteracy, he shall then make his mark (X) and a witness shall affix the applicant's name. In every case the signature or mark shall either be executed and authenticated in such manner as the form provided may indicate or shall be executed before and authenticated by an employee of the Board duly designated and authorized to perform such services. In the event that the signature or any written portion of the application form is, within the judgment of the Board, substantially illegible or of doubtful authenticity, or if in the judgment of the Board there are substantial omissions in the application form, the Board may require its reexecution or correction: Provided, however, That such reexecuted or corrected application form shall be returned and shall be received by the Board within thirty days after notice to correct such deficiency is mailed to the address the applicant has given in the application form; otherwise, the filing date of the application shall be the date when such corrected or reexecuted application form is received by the Board. (Secs. 2, 10, 50 Stat. 310, 314; 45 U.S.C. Sup. III, 228b, 228j)

By authority of the Board.

FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION

AMENDMENT TO ADMINISTRATIVE RULES UNDER SECTION 210 OF THE NATIONAL HOUSING ACT

The Administrative Rules of the Federal Housing Administrator under Section 210 of the National Housing Act,[1] revised June 30, 1939 (Part 534 Code of Federal Regulations) are hereby amended as follows:

Subsection 4 of Section III of said Administrative Rules (Sec. 534.12) is amended to read as follows:

"4. The mortgage may bear interest at such rate as may be agreed upon between the mortgagee and the mortgagor, but in no case shall such interest rate be in excess of four and one-half per centum (4½%) per annum. Interest shall be payable only on principal outstanding and shall be payable in monthly installments beginning one month following the date of the mortgage."

This amendment is effective as to all mortgages on which a commitment to insure is issued on or after August 5, 1939.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of August 1939.

IN THE MATTER OF NORTHERN NATURAL GAS COMPANY

ORDER FIXING EFFECTIVE DATE OF DECLARATION REGARDING ISSUE AND SALE OF BONDS AND NOTES

Northern Natural Gas Company, a registered holding company and a subsidiary of registered holding companies, as set forth in the accompanying Findings and Opinion of the Commission, having filed a declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to Section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 regarding the issue and sale of $16,000,000 aggregate principal amount of First Mortgage and First Lien Bonds, Series A, 3¼%, due July 1, 1954, and $6,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Unsecured Promissory Notes, 2⅛%, maturing serially in principal amounts of $500,000 on January 1 and July 1, commencing July 1, 1940, the last note maturing on January 1, 1946;

A hearing thereon having been held after appropriate notice,[1] the record having been duly considered, and the Commission having filed its findings herein;

It is ordered, That such declaration be and become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the following conditions: (a) that the issue and sale of the before mentioned securities shall be effected in substantial compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in, and for the purposes represented by, said declaration as amended, and (b) that on or before January 1, 1940, unless such time shall hereafter be extended by the Commission, at the request of the declarant, the declarant file with this Commission a statement in writing, under oath, giving in detail an itemization of the manner in which the proceeds of the said Unsecured Capital Note issue have been expended;

It is further ordered, That the Commission reserve jurisdiction to determine at a later date, whether the fee to be paid to Dillon, Read & Co. in connection with the issue and sale of the aforementioned First Mortgage and First Lien Bonds, Series A, 3¼%, due July 1, 1954, is or is not reasonable; and whether such fee should or should not be paid; and no part of the said fee to be paid to Dillon, Read & Co. shall be paid pending further order of this Commission.

UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

CONDITION OF THE APPORTIONMENT AT CLOSE OF BUSINESS MONDAY, JULY 31, 1939

Important. Although the apportioned classified civil service is by law located only in Washington, D. C., it nevertheless includes only about half of the Federal Civilian positions in the District of Columbia. Positions in local post offices, customs districts and other field services outside of the District of Columbia which are subject to the Civil Service Act are filled almost wholly by persons who are local residents of the general community in which the vacancies exist. It should be noted and understood that so long as a person occupies, by original appointment, a position in the apportioned service, the charge for his appointment continues to run against his State of original residence. Certifications of eligibles are first made from States which are in arrears.

APPRAISAL FEES

Section 23.1 of Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 23.1 Appraisal fees. The following appraisal fees shall be charged in connection with loan applications:

| Amount of application: | Appraisal fee |
|---|---|
| $100–$5,000 | $15 |
| $5,100–$10,000 | 20 |
| Exceeding $10,000 | 35 |

"Additional fees shall be charged in the following cases:

"(a) Non-resident applicants. If the applicant does not reside in the Third Farm Credit District an additional fee of $7.50 will be charged to cover the cost of securing an appraisal report from the district of his residence.

"(b) Reappraisal fee. If a reappraisal is required because of delay of the applicant, or is made at the applicant's request, another appraisal fee, fixed in accordance with the above schedule, will be charged.

(c) Loans on naval stores farms. The regular schedule of fees will apply where the amount applied for does not exceed $10,00. If the amount exceeds $10,000, the regular schedule of fees increased by 50% will apply. If preliminary appraisal and review are made none of the fee will be refunded. If it is determined by the bank and the applicant, after preliminary appraisal and contact with the applicant, that the application is to be handled to a definite conclusion, a fee of 8¢ per acre for timber cruise will be charged, to be paid prior to the making of the cruise. NOTICE OF HEARING

You are hereby notified that the Commission has examined the above-described application and has designated the matter for hearing for the following reasons:

1. To determine the legal, technical and financial qualifications of the Metropolitan Broadcasting Corporation;

2. To determine what interests, if any, the Metropolitan Broadcasting Corporation or any of its stockholders have in any radiobroadcast station or application therefor;

3. To determine whether Station WINS, if operated by the Metropolitan Broadcasting Corporation, would be associated with any other broadcast station or stations, and, if so, to determine the character and extent of such association;

4. To determine whether the present stockholders of the Metropolitan Broadcasting Corporation are the true and only parties in interest; and

5. To determine what benefits, if any, and what detriments, if any, will result to the public from the proposed assignment of license of WINS.

The application involved herein will not be granted by the Commission unless the issues listed above are determined in favor of the applicant on the basis of a record duly and properly made by means of a formal hearing.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 2nd day of August, A. D. 1939.

IN THE MATTER OF ENOCH VICTOR FARNICK, DOING BUSINESS AS KELLOGG BROKERAGE COMPANY, KELLOGG, IDAHO

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SUSPENDING REGISTRATION

This is a proceeding pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to determine whether the registration as a broker and dealer of Enoch Victor Farnick, doing business as Kellogg Brokerage Company, should be revoked or suspended.

At the hearing held pursuant to the Commission's order at Seattle, Washington, the registrant failed to appear personally or by counsel. Notice of the hearing[1] was sent to registrant by registered mail, but was not received by him because of his removal from the address which he had given the Commission. Thereafter, the order and notice of the hearing were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for February 14, 1939, in the manner prescribed by the Federal Register Act.

The Trial Examiner filed an advisory report in which he found that the registrant has violated the provisions of Rule X-15B-2, adopted by the Commission pursuant to Sections 15 (b), 17 (a), and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, in failing to inform the Commission of changes in his business and residence addresses, as alleged in the Commission's order of February 11, 1939. On an independent review of the record, we adopt the Trial Examiner's findings, and find further that the violation of Rule X-15B-2 was wilful and that it is in the public interest to revoke or suspend registration.

Because notice was not received by Farnick, we will not order revocation of his registration. Instead, we order that Farnick's registration be suspended pending determination of whether his registration should be revoked, which matter will be determined when Farnick comes in to be heard or notice is received by him.

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that the registration of Enoch Victor Farnick, doing business as Kellogg Brokerage Company, be and the same hereby is suspended until further order.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF LANDO-HOST & COMPANY 611 NORTH BROADWAY, MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION

This is a proceeding pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to determine whether the registration as a broker and dealer of Lando-Host & Company, a corporation, should be revoked or suspended.

After appropriate notice, a hearing was held before a trial examiner on April 25, 1939, at Chicago, Illinois. The registrant was represented at the hearing by Carl Penner, who is assignee for the benefit of the registrant's creditors. The Trial Examiner filed an advisory report in which he found (1) that the registrant, while transacting a business in securities through the medium of a member of a national securities exchange during the period from January 1, 1938, to December 31, 1938, wilfully violated the provisions of Section 8 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, in that registrant permitted, in the ordinary course of business as a broker, its aggregate indebtedness to all other persons, including customers' credit balances (excluding indebtedness secured by exempted securities), to exceed 2,000 per centum of the net capital employed in the aforesaid business (exclusive of fixed assets employed in the business); (2) that in a supplemental statement to its application for registration registrant wilfully made a statement which was, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false and misleading with respect to a material fact, in that registrant stated that it purchased securities for customers on margin through members of national securities exchanges "in exceptional and isolated cases", when in fact registrant regularly purchased securities for customers on margin through members of national securities exchanges, all as alleged in the order of the Commission dated April 4, 1939. No exceptions were taken to the Trial Examiner's report. On an independent review of the record, we adopt the Trial Examiner's findings, and find further that revocation of the registration of Lando-Host & Company is in the public interest.

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that the registration of Lando-Host & Company be, and it is hereby, revoked.

IN THE MATTER OF MINE SALES, INC., 1356 BASE LINE STREET, SAN BERNARDINO, CALIFORNIA

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION

This is a proceeding pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to determine whether the registration as a broker and dealer of Mine Sales, Inc., a corporation, should be revoked or suspended.

After appropriate notice, a hearing was held on April 25, 1939, at Los Angeles, California. The registrant was represented at the hearing by Chester D. Gibbs, who is its president, treasurer, a director and its principal stockholder. The Trial Examiner filed an advisory report in which he found, inter alia, that Chester D. Gibbs is permanently enjoined by decree of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, for the County of Onondaga, entered on July 21, 1927, from the sale within the State of New York of any securities of the Andes Copper Company, said injunction having been issued after personal service of a copy of the complaint in that proceeding upon Gibbs, and after a hearing on the matter; that registrant and Chester D. Gibbs wilfully stated in the Company's application for registration as a broker and dealer that none of its officers or directors were permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court from engaging in any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of a security, whereas in truth and in fact, as shown above, an injunction against the sale of Andes Copper Company stock was and is outstanding against Chester D. Gibbs; that the registrant and Chester D. Gibbs, in a supplemental statement to the Company's application for registration, had wilfully made statements which were false and misleading with respect to material facts, in that it was stated that the registrant's predecessor, Gibbs & Company, had sold securities for the Consolidated Silver Mountain Mines Co., Clio-Vindicator

[1] 4 F.R. 893 DI.

Mines Co., Empire Chief Mining Co., Lookout Mountain Mining & Development Co., and C. S. Hassler, whereas in truth and in fact, as the registrant and Gibbs well knew, Gibbs & Company had not sold any securities for Lookout Mountain Mining & Development Co. or for C. S. Hassler, had made only one sale for Consolidated Silver Mountain Mines Co. and Empire Chief Mining Co., respectively, and had sold only a small amount of stock for Clio-Vindicator Mines Co. No exceptions were taken to the Trial Examiner's report.[1]

We have independently reviewed the record, and on the basis thereof, adopt the Trial Examiner's findings. We find that the revocation of the registration of Mine Sales, Inc., is in the public interest.

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that the registration of Mine Sales, Inc., be, and it is hereby, revoked.

IN THE MATTER OF NORTHERN INDIANA PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 18, 1939, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 14, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to an application by Northern Indiana Public Service Company pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for exemption from the provisions of section 6 (a) of said Act of the issue and sale of $45,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, Series A, 3¼%, due August 1, 1969, and $6,000,000 principal amount of its Serial Notes due in twenty equal semi-annual instalments from February 1, 1940 to August 1, 1949, said Notes to bear interest at an average rate of not to exceed 3% per annum. The net proceeds of the sale of the Series A Bonds and the Serial Notes, together, if necessary, with other funds in the treasury of the Applicant, are to be used for calling, paying, redeeming and refunding Applicant's presently outstanding bonds aggregating $48,916,000 principal amount. The premium on calling the bonds to be refunded will be $2,282,610, and the total cash required to redeem said bonds, exclusive of interest, will be $51,198,610.

§ 208.1 Definitions. For the purpose of these instructions and the notes and loan agreements or mortgages relating thereto, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) Eligible producer. Any person, partnership, association, or corporation producing wheat as landowner, landlord, or tenant upon whose farm the acreage classified as 1939 wheat acreage under the 1939 Agricultural Conservation Program does not exceed the 1939 wheat acreage allotment established for the farm under such program. If a farm was designated as a non-wheat allotment farm under said Program, the wheat produced on the farm will not be eligible collateral for a wheat loan.

(b) Eligible wheat. Wheat of acceptable quality as defined below, which was produced in 1939, the beneficial title to which is and always has been in the eligible producer:

(1) Wheat of any class grading No. 3 or better, or wheat grading No. 4 or 5 solely on the factor of test weight but otherwise grading No. 3 or better, provided that wheat of the classes hard red spring or durum shall contain not more than 14½ percent moisture, and wheat of other classes shall contain not more than 14 percent moisture. Wheat grading tough shall not be considered eligible. Except wheat of the classes hard red winter, soft red winter, white, and mixed wheat of the above classes containing not more than 14½ percent moisture, grading tough, if otherwise meeting the requirements of Commodity Credit Corporation, and in good, sound, condition will be eligible for a loan at a rate of two cents (2¢) per bushel less than the rate for such wheat testing 14 percent or less in moisture content, when stored on the farm in all counties in the State of Michigan, and in all counties in the States of Indiana and Ohio, north of or intersected by the fortieth parallel Meridian.

(2) Wheat of the class mixed wheat, consisting only of mixtures of those eligible grades of wheat on which loan values are established; Provided, Such mixtures are the natural product of the field.

(c) Eligible storage shall include public grain warehouses and farm storage meeting the following respective requirements:

(1) Public grain warehouses must meet the requirements of Commodity Credit Corporation, and must have been approved and executed warehouse agreements with Commodity Credit Corporation. Such warehouses may be situated either at terminal or country points. The term "terminal warehouse," as used herein, shall include elevators and warehouses operating at concentration points which normally receive from producers, cooperative associations, grain dealers, and others carlots or larger quantities of wheat for storage and reshipment, and shall include elevators and warehouses normally considered as subterminal, which, in addition to the above, also receive wheat directly from producers or others by wagon or truck, having a storage capacity of 75,000 bushels or more, except flat warehouses for storage of grain in sacks, located at other than terminal markets. The term "country warehouse," as used herein, shall include elevators and warehouses which receive wheat exclusively delivered in wagons or trucks by producers or others at primary shipping points. Warehouses with a capacity of more than 75,000 bushels shall not be considered "country warehouses" for the purposes of the 1939 Wheat Loan Program except flat warehouses for storage of grain in sacks.

(2) Farm storage shall consist of farm bins and granaries which are of such substantial and permanent construction as to afford safe storage of the wheat for a period of 2 years and permit effective fumigation for the destruction of insects and afford protection against rodents, other animals, thieves, and weather, as determined by the county agricultural conservation committees.

(d) Lending agency. Any bank, cooperative marketing association, or other corporation, partnership, or person making loans in accordance with these instructions, which has executed the Contract to Purchase on 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form E.

(e) Eligible paper. For the purposes of the Contract to Purchase (1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form E), eligible paper shall consist of notes of producers, secured by chattel mortgages or warehouse receipts representing wheat in existence and undamaged from the perils of fire, lightning, inherent explosion, cyclone, tornado, windstorm, and flood, dated on or subsequent to June 1, 1939, and prior to January 1, 1940, and executed in accordance with these instructions with State documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. (Notes executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where valid in law, and all such notes must be submitted for direct loans in accordance with section 208.17 hereof unless accompanied by a repurchase agreement of the lending agency. Copies of this agreement may be obtained from the Loan Agencies of Reconstruction Finance Corporation.)

§ 208.2 Areas in which loans will be made. Loans shall be made on eligible wheat stored in approved public grain warehouses in the following States:

Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

Loans will be made on eligible wheat stored on farms only in the following counties:

All counties in California, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin, and Wyoming; and in the following counties of the following States:

California. Siskiyou, Modoc, Lassen, Plumas, and Sierra.

New Mexico. Colfax, Curry, Harding, Quay, Rio Arriba, Roosevelt, San Juan, Taos, McKinley, Mora, San Miguel, and Union.

Oklahoma. Alfalfa, Beaver, Beckham, Blaine, Caddo, Canadian, Cimarron, Cleveland, Comanche, Cotton, Craig, Creek, Custer, Dewey, Ellis, Garfield, Grady, Grant, Greer, Harmon, Harper, Jackson, Kay, Kingfisher, Kiowa, Lincoln, Logan, McClain, Major, Mayes, Noble, Nowata, Okfuskee, Oklahoma, Okmulgee, Osage, Ottawa, Pawnee, Payne, Pottawatomie, Rogers, Roger Mills, Texas, Tillman, Tulsa, Wagoner, Washington, Washita, Woods, and Woodward.

§ 208.3 Amount of loans. Basic loan values on wheat of the designated grades and subclasses stored in approved public grain warehouses or stored on farms in counties where farm storage is permitted are set out in 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form 1—Supplement 1. State supplements are to be issued for the several wheat loan States concerning the basic loan values on wheat.

§ 208.4 Protein premium. The following amounts shall be added to the loan values of hard red spring, hard red winter, and hard white wheat with the indicated protein content. Such premiums will be added to the loan value of farm-stored wheat only where the producer presents a protein certificate issued by a laboratory satisfactory to the Commodity Credit Corporation and in the case of wheat stored in approved warehouses, the producer presents such a certificate attached to the warehouse receipt of an approved warehouseman or presents a warehouse receipt of such a warehouseman with protein content indicated thereon.

§ 208.5 Variations for grades. Loan values for eligible grades and subclasses shall be at the following schedule of premiums and discounts:

(a) Where the loan value is based on No. 2 wheat, the loan value on No. 1 wheat shall be 1 cent more than the loan value on No. 2; the loan value on No. 3 wheat shall be 2 cents less than the loan value on No. 2; the loan value on No. 4 wheat shall be 5 cents less than the loan value on No. 2; and the loan value on No. 5 wheat shall be 8 cents less than the loan value on No. 2.

(b) Where the loan value is based on No. 1 wheat, the loan value on No. 2 wheat shall be 1 cent less than the loan value on No. 1; the loan value on No. 3 wheat shall be 3 cents less than the loan value on No. 1; the loan value on No. 4 wheat shall be 6 cents less than the loan value on No. 1; and the loan value on No. 5 wheat shall be 9 cents less than the loan value on No. 1.

(c) The loan value on No. 1 heavy dark northern spring shall be 1 cent more than the loan value on No. 1 dark northern spring and the loan value on No. 1 heavy northern spring shall be 1 cent more than the loan value on No. 1 northern spring, and the loan value on No. 1 red spring shall be 2 cents less than the loan value on No. 1 northern spring.

(d) The loan value on yellow hard winter shall be 2 cents less than the loan value on hard winter.

(e) The loan value on hard white shall be 1 cent more than the loan value on soft white, except as otherwise provided in this C.C.C. Wheat Form 1 or supplements thereto.

(f) The loan value on durum wheat shall be 7 cents less than the loan value on amber durum wheat.

(g) The loan value on mixed wheat shall be 2 cents per bushel below the established loan rate on the comparable numerical grade of that class of wheat contained in the mixture which would take the lowest loan rate applicable to any subclass thereof if it were not mixed.

(h) The discount for smut determined on a percentage basis shall be as follows:

| | Cents per bushel |
|---|---|
| ½% to 1%, inclusive | 1.05 |
| 1½% to 3%, inclusive | 1.35 |
| 3½% to 7%, inclusive | 1.95 |
| 7½% to 15%, inclusive | 2.55 |

The discounts for smut and garlic determined on a degree basis shall be as follows:

| | Cents per bushel |
|---|---|
| Light smutty | 3 |
| Smutty | 6 |
| Garlicky | 6 |

§ 208.6 Determination of dockage, smut, and garlic. The percentage of dockage shall be determined in accordance with the Official Grain Standards of the United States and the weight of said dockage shall be deducted from the gross weight of the wheat in determining the net quantity available for loan. The smut condition of wheat shall be determined on a percentage basis in accordance with the Official Grain Standards of the United States, in California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Washington. In the foregoing area the quantity of smut shall be stated in percentage in accordance with the method described in paragraph (a) under "Smutty wheat" of the Official Grain Standards of the United States and shall be stated in terms of half percent, full percent, or whole and half percent, as the case may be, and the quantity of smut so determined in pounds shall be deducted from the weight of clean wheat after deduction of other dockage. Elsewhere the smut condition of wheat shall be determined on a degree basis in accordance with paragraph (b) under "Smutty wheat" of the Official Grain Standards of the United States; Provided, That in the case of wheat which has an unmistakable odor of smut, or which contains balls, portions of balls, or spores of smut in excess of a quantity equal to 14 balls, but not in excess of a quantity equal to 30 balls, of average size in 250 grams of wheat, there shall be added to and made a part of the grade designation, the words "Light smutty"; Provided further, That in the case of wheat which contains balls, portions of balls, or spores of smut, in excess of a quantity equal to 30 balls of average size in 250 grams of wheat, there shall be added to and made a part of the grade designation, the word "Smutty." The garlic condition of wheat shall be determined in accordance with the Official Grain Standards of the United States, and such condition shall be made a part of the grade designation by adding the words "Light garlicky" or the word "Garlicky," as determined under such standards.

§ 208.7 Determination of quantity of wheat. Loans shall be made at values expressed in cents per bushel, a bushel being determined to be 60 pounds of clean wheat free of dockage, when determined by weight; or 1.25 cubic feet of wheat testing 60 pounds per bushel when determined by measurement. In determining the quantity of wheat in farm storage by measurement, fractional pounds of the bushel test weight for wheat testing less than 60 pounds per bushel will be disregarded, and the quantity determined as above will be the following percentages of the quantity determined for 60-pound wheat:

| | Percent |
|---|---|
| For wheat testing 60 pounds or over | 100 |
| For wheat testing 59 pounds or over, but less than 60 pounds | 98 |
| For wheat testing 58 pounds or over, but less than 59 pounds | 97 |
| For wheat testing 57 pounds or over, but less than 58 pounds | 95 |
| For wheat testing 56 pounds or over, but less than 57 pounds | 93 |
| For wheat testing 55 pounds or over, but less than 56 pounds | 92 |
| For wheat testing 54 pounds or over, but less than 55 pounds | 90 |
| For wheat testing 53 pounds or over, but less than 54 pounds | 88 |
| For wheat testing 52 pounds or over, but less than 53 pounds | 86 |
| For wheat testing 51 pounds or over, but less than 52 pounds | 83 |
| For wheat testing 50 pounds or over, but less than 51 pounds | 80 |

§ 208.8 Maturity and interest rate. Loans on 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form A will mature April 30, 1940. Loans on 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form B will mature 7 months from the respective dates thereof but not later than April 30, 1940. All loans will bear interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum.

§ 208.9 Public warehouses. Commodity Credit Corporation will accept only negotiable, insured warehouse receipts or receipts in form required by statute covering wheat pledged as collateral to notes on 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form B issued by any public grain warehouse approved by the Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation serving the district in which such warehouse is located. Warehousemen are advised to communicate with such Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, concerning approval. A list of the approved warehouses and their locations will be available at any Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation listed in section 208.19 hereof or any State or county agricultural conservation office. Each approved warehouse must enter into an agreement with the Commodity Credit Corporation which may be obtained from the Loan Agency. This agreement will limit the warehouseman's lien and impose additional obligations to Commodity Credit Corporation. Approved warehousemen shall not issue and have outstanding at any time warehouse receipts in excess of the normal working capacity or licensed capacity of the warehouses. Under the terms of the warehouse agreement, warehousemen are required to deliver either the identical wheat or country-run quality wheat of the quantity, class, grade, and protein content within one-half of 1 per cent as stated on the warehouse receipts or the accompanying documents. All wheat pledged as security for a note must be in the same warehouse, and each producer must arrange for the storage of wheat in an approved warehouse either at a country or terminal point. Producers should arrange for cleaning wheat placed in storage containing in excess of 2 percent dockage in order to avoid excessive charges for transportation, conditioning, and storage. Wheat containing smut or garlic should not be commingled by the warehouseman with wheat free from such smut or garlic.

§ 208.10 Warehouse receipts. Warehouse receipts must be dated on or prior to the date of the related note and properly assigned by an endorsement in blank so as to vest title in the holder, or issued to bearer, issued by approved warehousemen who are not owners of the wheat. Unless the warehouse receipts are stamped or printed "Insured" there must be attached, or included in, the certificate of the warehouseman the statement that the wheat is insured for not less than market value against the hazards of fire, lightning, inherent explosion, and windstorm, cyclone, and tornado. Commodity Credit Corporation will not accept warehouse receipts indicating any lien for charges prior to unloading in or delivery to the warehouse issuing such receipts. Lien for storage charges will be recognized by Commodity Credit Corporation only from May 15, 1939, or the dates of the warehouse receipts, whichever is later. Such receipts must set out in their written or printed terms the gross weight or bushels, the class and grade, degree or percentage of smut or garlic and dockage of the wheat represented thereby, and all other facts and statements required to be stated in the written or printed terms of a negotiable warehouse receipt under the provisions of section 2 of the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act; such weight, grade, and protein determination (if any) shall be on basis of the inbound movement or delivery of grain to any approved warehouse; Provided, Warehouse receipts in statutory form must be accompanied by a certificate of the warehouseman identified to the warehouse receipt, setting forth the information required above which may not be included in such statutory receipts. The moisture content of the wheat also must be shown except for wheat stored in following States: California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington and Wyoming. (In the States of California, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Washington where it is not the practice of warehousemen to show grade of wheat on the warehouse receipt, such receipt may be accompanied by a certificate of the warehouseman identifying the inspection certificate and protein content to said warehouse receipt in the following form):

I hereby certify that a representative sample was drawn by me from the wheat stored under warehouse receipt No. ------, that said sample was submitted to an inspector licensed under the U. S. Grain Standards Act and that this is the grade certificate that was issued thereon, and I agree further, on presentation of such warehouse receipt, to deliver to the holder thereof the identical grain represented thereby, or wheat of equal country-run quality of the same class and grade and protein, said protein to be delivered within tolerance of one-half of 1 percent if original wheat was analyzed for protein:

(Warehouseman)

Each terminal or subterminal warehouse receipt must also be accompanied by the original or duplicate original, official inbound, weight and inspection certificates and protein certificate properly identified to the wheat covered thereby, Provided, That in the foregoing States and at terminal and subterminal warehouses in other areas where licensed inspectors are not available, certificates of the warehouseman and licensed grain inspector as to grade may be accepted. Such official inbound weight and inspection certificates must represent wheat unloaded in the warehouse issuing said receipt and, except as stated above, the inspection certificate must be issued by an inspector licensed under the United States Grain Standards Act. In the case of warehouse receipts issued by any terminal or subterminal warehouse, each warehouse receipt except those covering wheat of the subclasses soft white, western white, white club, red winter, western red, and red durum in any State and hard winter or yellow hard winter produced in the States east of the Mississippi River must either show the protein content, as determined by a recognized protein-testing laboratory approved by the terminal or subterminal market, or be accompanied by an original or duplicate certificate issued by such laboratory showing the protein content and properly identified as to the wheat covered thereby either by the respective warehouse receipt number, or the bin number and warehouse description, or by car number.

§ 208.11 Farm storage. Wheat stored on the farm must have been stored in the granary at least 30 days prior to its inspection for measurement, sampling, and sealing. In accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, the State and county agricultural conservation committees will inspect and approve storage facilities and will arrange for measuring, sampling, grading, and sealing the wheat collateral in approved structures. Chattel mortgages covering farm-stored wheat must be executed and filed in accordance with the applicable State law. Producers may obtain information and assistance from the county agricultural conservation committees in regard to the execution and filing of such chattel mortgages. Where the borrower is a tenant farmer, and the wheat collateral is stored on the farm, the expiration date of the lease shall be given in section 2 (c) of the chattel mortgage (1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form AA). If the expiration date of the lease is prior to July 1, 1940, the landlord shall execute the Consent for Storage, section 13 of 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form AA. The consent agreement shall also be signed by any other party or parties entitled to possession. Each producer must designate in section 4 of the Mortgage (1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form AA) a shipping point reasonably convenient for the delivery of the wheat as determined by the county committee. Notes and mortgages will not be acceptable which provide a shipping point other than the normal shipping point customarily used by the producers in the locality in which the wheat was producer. A separate note and chattel mortgage must be submitted for wheat stored on each quarter section of land. Commodity Credit Corporation will pay 7 cents per bushel for storing the wheat for the period ending April 30, 1940, or the date of the delivery of such wheat to Commodity Credit Corporation, whichever is later; provided, Such payment will be conditioned upon the delivery of the mortgaged wheat of the quantity and quality described in the chattel mortgage; Provided further, If delivered prior to April 30, 1940, one-half cent per bushel per month storage will be allowed for time stored.

§ 208.12 Chattel mortgages. All documents must be carefully examined as to compliance with the following requirements:

California. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor and spouse. Mortgagor's affidavit of good faith and receipt must be completed by the mortgagor and spouse, and the mortgagee's affidavit of good faith must be completed by a member of the county committee as agent for Commodity Credit Corporation. The mortgage must be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the wheat is stored, and if the mortgagor is a resident of another county in the State, a duplicate executed copy of the mortgage must be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which such mortgagor resides.

Colorado. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor. The original or a duplicate copy thereof must be filed for record in the office of the clerk and recorder of the county in which the wheat is stored.

Idaho. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor and spouse. The original or a duplicate copy must have typed or stamped thereon the following affidavit signed and acknowledged by a member of the county committee as agent of Commodity Credit Corporation:

The undersigned, being duly sworn, deposes and states that he is the agent of Commodity Credit Corporation and that the foregoing mortgage is a true and correct copy of the original mortgage executed by the mortgagor.

----------
Agent of Commodity Credit Corporation
Subscribed and sworn to before me this ---------- day of ----------, 193--

----------
Notary Public

The original or a duplicate copy with the foregoing affidavit must be filed for record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the wheat is stored.

Illinois. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor. The original mortgage must be endorsed by the mortgagee or his agent as follows: "This mortgage to be filed but not recorded", and filed for record within 10 days from the date of execution in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county in which the mortgagor resides, or, if a nonresident of the State, in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county in which the wheat is stored. Commodity Credit Corporation will not accept any note secured by mortgage filed for record later than 10 days after the date of the note and mortgage.

Indiana. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor. The original mortgage must be filed for record within 10 days from the date of execution in the office of the recorder of the county in which the mortgagor resides, or, if a nonresident of the State, in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county in which the wheat is stored. Commodity Credit Corporation will not accept any note secured by mortgage recorded later than 10 days after the date of the note and mortgage.

Iowa. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor and spouse. The original or a duplicate copy must be filed for record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the mortgagor resides, or, if a nonresident of the State, in the office of the recorder of the county in which the wheat is stored.

Kansas. The mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor and spouse. The original or a duplicate copy must be filed for record immediately upon the execution of the mortgage in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the mortgagor resides, or, if a nonresident of the State, in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the wheat is stored. Commodity Credit Corporation will not accept any note secured by mortgage filed for record later than 10 days after the date of the note and mortgage.

Michigan. The mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor. The mortgagor's affidavit of good faith and receipt on such mortgage must be completed by the mortgagor. The original or a duplicate copy of the mortgage must be filed for record in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the wheat is stored. If the mortgagor resides in another county within the State, the triplicate copy of the mortgage must be certified as a true copy and filed for record in the office of the register of deeds of such county.

Minnesota. The chattel mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor in the presence of two witnesses and duly acknowledged. The original chattel mortgage must be filed in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the wheat is situated, unless the wheat is situated in cities of the first class, whereupon the chattel mortgage must be filed in the office of the city clerk of the municipality where the wheat is situated. A full, true, and correct copy of the chattel mortgage must be delivered to the mortgagor whose receipt therefor is contained in the body of the mortgage.

Missouri. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor. The original or a duplicate copy of the mortgage must be filed for record in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county in which the mortgagor resides, or, if a nonresident of the State, in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county in which the wheat is stored.

Montana. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor. Mortgagor must execute receipt for copy of mortgage and such receipt must accompany the mortgage when presented for filing and be filed therewith. Mortgagee's affidavit of good faith must be completed by the payee of the note or in the case of direct loans by a member of the county committee as agent of the Commodity Credit Corporation and must be attached to the mortgage. The original mortgage, together with affidavit of good faith or a copy thereof certified to be correct by the officer before whom the same was acknowledged or verified or by the county clerk and recorder with whom it is filed, must be filed in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county where the wheat is situated at the time of the execution of the mortgage, accompanied by the receipt for a copy of the mortgage.

New Mexico. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor, and the original or a duplicate copy of the mortgage must be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the wheat is stored.

Nebraska. The mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor. The original or a duplicate copy of the mortgage must be filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the mortgagor resides, or, if a nonresident of the State, in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the wheat is stored.

Nevada. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor. The mortgagor's affidavit of good faith and receipt must be completed by the mortgagor and the mortgagee's affidavit of good faith must be completed by a member of the county committee as agent of Commodity Credit Corporation. The original or a duplicate copy of the mortgage must be filed for record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the wheat is stored. If the mortgagor is a resident of another county in the State, the triplicate copy of the mortgage must be certified as a true copy and filed for record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such mortgagor resides.

North Dakota. The mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor and spouse in the presence of two witnesses who must sign the same as witnesses thereto, or must be acknowledged before some official qualified to take acknowledgments. The mortgagor's receipt for copy of mortgage must be signed by the mortgagor and spouse and attached to the mortgage and must accompany the mortgage when presented for filing and be filed therewith. The original mortgage with receipt for copy attached thereto must be filed in the office of the register of deeds in the county in which the wheat is stored.

Ohio. The mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor. The mortgagee's affidavit of good faith must be completed by the payee except in the case of direct loans, in which event it must be completed by a member of the county committee as agent of Commodity Credit Corporation. The original or a duplicate copy must be filed in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the mortgagor resides, or, if a nonresident of the State, in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the wheat is stored.

Oklahoma. The mortgage must be properly executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor in the presence of a notary public or officer authorized to administer oaths. Commodity Credit Corporation will not accept any note secured by a mortgage wherein the execution has been witnessed and not acknowledged. The original or a duplicate copy of the mortgage must be filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the wheat is stored.

Oregon. The mortgages must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor. The original or a duplicate copy must be filed for record in the office of the recorder of conveyances (in counties where there is such an office), otherwise in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the wheat is stored.

South Dakota. The chattel mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor in the presence of two persons who must sign as witnesses thereto, or it may be acknowledged before some officer qualified by the laws of the State of South Dakota to take acknowledgments. The orginial chattel mortgage, or an authenticated copy thereof, must be filed in the office of the register of deeds of the county where the wheat mortgaged, or any part thereof, is situated. A full, true and complete copy of the mortgage must be delivered to the mortgagor, whose receipt therefor is contained in the body of the mortgage.

Texas. The mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor either in the presence of two witnesses or it must be acknowledged before an officer qualified to take the acknowledgments. The original or a duplicate copy of the mortgage must be filed for record immediately in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the wheat is stored or where the mortgagor resides. If the mortgagor is a nonresident of the State, it must be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the wheat is stored. The Commodity Credit Corporation will not accept any note secured by a mortgage filed for record later than 10 days after the date of the note and mortgage.

Utah. The mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor and spouse in the presence of one witness. The mortgagor's affidavit of good faith and receipt must be completed by the mortgagor, and the mortgagee's affidavit of good faith must be completed by the payee of the note or in case of direct loans, by a member of the county committee, as agent of Commodity Credit Corporation. The original or a duplicate copy of the mortgage must be filed for record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the mortgagor resides, or if a nonresident of the State, in the office of the recorder of the county in which the wheat is stored.

Washington. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor. The mortgagor's affidavit of good faith and receipt must be completed by the mortgagor. The original or a duplicate copy of the mortgage must be filed for record within 10 days from the date of execution in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the wheat is stored. Commodity Credit Corporation will not accept any note secured by mortgage filed for record later than 10 days after the date of the note and mortgage.

Wisconsin. The chattel mortgage must be executed by the mortgagor and spouse in the presence of two witnesses. The original mortgage must be filed with the register of deeds in the county in which the property is located.

Wyoming. The mortgage must be executed and acknowledged by the mortgagor. The original or a duplicate copy must be filed for record in the office of the register of deeds in the county in which the wheat is stored.

§ 208.13 Liens. The wheat collateral must be free and clear of all liens except in favor of the lienholders listed in the space provided therefor in 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form AA or B. The names of the holders of all existing liens on the pledged or mortgaged wheat, such as landlord, laborers, threshers, or mortgagees, must be listed in the space provided therefor in the mortgage or loan agreement. The waiver and consent to the pledge or mortgage of the wheat and the payment of the proceeds of the loan and the proceeds of the sale of the wheat solely to the producer as contained in the mortgage or loan agreement must be signed personally by all lienholders listed or by their agents, whose duly executed authority must be attached firmly; or, if corporations, by the designated officer thereof customarily authorized to execute such instruments, in which case the duly executed authority need not be attached. (In lieu of signing the section of the chattel mortgage or loan agreement entitled "List of Lienholders and Their Waivers and Consent To Pledge", lienholders may sign 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form AB, which must completely identify the related note.) The producer may direct in the Letter of Transmittal (1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form C) that the proceeds check for a direct loan from Commodity Credit Corporation be made payable to him and/or such other person or concern as he may direct thereon. Producers should read carefully all real estate or other mortgages previously given by them in order to be sure that crops are not covered thereby. Any fraudulent misrepresentation of fact made in the execution of the note and mortgage or loan agreement and related forms shall render the producer personally liable for the amount of the loan and subject to the provisions of the United States Criminal Code.

§ 208.14 Insurance—(a) Wheat stored on farms. All producers shall provide insurance on wheat stored on the farm for not less than the amount of the loan with accrued interest to maturity. Such insurance shall be evidenced by a certificate in the form printed at the end hereof, under 208.14a, issued by a company or association licensed to do business in the State in which the wheat is stored. The insurance coverage may be obtained through the customary channels and the form of certificate required shall be furnished by the agent writing same. A different form of certificate must be used in the State of Texas, specimen copies of which may be obtained from the Dallas Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

(b) Wheat stored in approved warehouses. With respect to wheat stored in approved public grain warehouses the warehouseman shall provide insurance against the perils of fire, lightning, inherent explosion, and windstorm, cyclone, and tornado for the full market value thereof so long as receipts are outstanding.

(c) Insurance carried by Commodity Credit Corporation. In addition to the foregoing, Commodity Credit Corporation has obtained a blanket insurance policy which protects it in the event of any loss by or in consequence of damage to or destruction of the pledged or mortgaged wheat arising from fire and lightning; cyclone, tornado, windstorm, and hail; theft and wrongful conversion; flood and inherent explosion. This policy is in the nature of errors and omissions, and excess insurance, and the cost is nine-tenths of 1 cent per $100 per month on the daily average balance of loans outstanding. Banks and other lending agencies desirous of insurance coverage in addition to the primary insurance provided by the producers and the warehouse receipts shall obtain such coverage at their own expense. Banks and other lending agencies desiring coverage under the Corporation's blanket policy should write to Commodity Credit Corporation, Washington, D. C., and appropriate instructions will be issued, together with the necessary forms for reporting thereunder.

SPECIAL (WHEAT) ENDORSEMENT PROVIDING THE BASIS OF ADJUSTMENT IN CASE OF LOSS ON WHEAT MORTGAGED TO COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION

3. All or any part of the wheat described in this policy and/or certificate having been mortgaged to Commodity Credit Corporation as security for a loan by said Commodity Credit Corporation, it is a condition of this insurance that in event of loss or damage to any of such mortgaged wheat the basis of adjustment shall be the actual cash value at the time and place of the loss, as set out elsewhere in the printed conditions of this policy or certificate, except that if such actual cash market value is less than the loan value per bushel, plus accrued interest at four per cent (4%) per annum, then such actual cash value shall be disregarded and the value of any wheat so mortgaged shall be deemed to be the loan value per bushel plus interest thereon.

4. The provisions of this endorsement shall apply and cover until the note has been paid and/or released and/or the wheat sold.

5. This special adjustment clause does not apply to any wheat not mortgaged in the manner hereinbefore described.

6. In witness whereof, this Company has executed and attested these presents, but this certificate shall not be valid until countersigned by a duly authorized agent of this company or association.

§ 208.15 County agricultural conservation committees. The forms 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Forms AA and B contain a certificate which should not bear a date prior to the date of the mortgage or loan agreement and which must be signed in each instance by a member of the county agricultural conservation committee of the county in which the wheat was produced for warehoused wheat, and the county in which the wheat is stored for farm-stored wheat.

§ 208.16 Source and preparation of documents. Forms will be obtainable from any county agricultural conservation committee in the areas designated in section 208.2 hereof and any loan agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation listed in section 208.19 hereof. All blanks in 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Forms A, AA, and B must be filled in with ink, typewriter, or indelible pencil, and no documents containing additions, alterations, or erasures shall be accepted by Commodity Credit Corporation.

[1] Optional in Michigan.
[2] Optional.

§ 208.17 Source of loans. It is contemplated that loans will ordinarily be obtained from banks and other local lending agencies which, in turn, may sell the paper evidencing such loans to Commodity Credit Corporation. Producers may also obtain loans directly from Commodity Credit Corporation. Such notes shall be made payable to Commodity Credit Corporation and shall be delivered to a loan agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation serving the district in which the wheat is stored. Paper for direct loans tendered by mail, in person, or otherwise should be accompanied by a producer's letter of transmittal on 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form C, in duplicate, and must be delivered or postmarked prior to January 1, 1940. The triplicate copy of this letter shall be retained by the producer as a memorandum. Upon delivery of all necessary documents properly executed and upon approval of the loan by the manager of the loan agency, payment shall be made pursuant to the letter of transmittal.

§ 208.18 Purchase of loans. Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase, without recourse, eligible paper, as defined above, only from lending agencies which have executed and delivered to the loan agency to which notes are submitted Contract to Purchase, 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form E, obtainable only from loan agencies of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Each note and chattel mortgage tendered by a lending agency to Commodity Credit Corporation for purchase in which the lending agency is not named as payee, must be accompanied by an assignment or assignments to such lending agency on 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form G. The original or a duplicate copy of such assignments must have been filed for record in the office(s) of the recording official(s) of the county or counties in which the mortgage was filed or recorded.

Paper held by lending agencies must be tendered to the loan agency of Reconstruction Finance Corporation holding the contract to purchase and serving the district in which the wheat is stored 30 days prior to maturity. The purchase price to be paid by Commodity Credit Corporation for notes accepted will be the face amount of such notes plus accrued interest from the respective dates to the date of payment of the purchase price at the rate of 2½ percent per annum. Under the terms of the contract to purchases, lending agencies are required to report monthly on 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form F all payments or collections on producers' notes held by them, and to remit promptly to Commodity Credit Corporation, Washington, D. C., an amount equivalent to 1½ percent interest per annum on the principal amount collected from the date of the note to the date of payment.

§ 208.19 Reconstruction Finance Corporation Loan Agencies. The locations of the loan agencies of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation previously referred to herein and the districts served by them under these instructions are shown below:

Loan Agency and District Served

Chicago: Area in 7th Federal Reserve District attached to Chicago, except counties in Iowa attached to Omaha.

Cleveland: Area in 4th Federal Reserve District, except eastern Kentucky.

Dallas: Area included in 11th Federal Reserve District.

Denver: Area in 10th Federal Reserve District attached to Denver.

Detroit: Area in 7th Federal Reserve District attached to Detroit.

Helena: Area in 9th Federal Reserve District attached to Helena.

Kansas City: Area in 10th Federal Reserve District attached to Kansas City.

Louisville: Area in 8th Federal Reserve District attached to Louisville and eastern Kentucky.

Minneapolis: Area in 9th Federal Reserve District attached to Minneapolis.

Nashville: Area in 6th Federal Reserve District attached to Nashville.

New York: Area included in 2d Federal Reserve District.

Oklahoma City: Area in 10th Federal Reserve District attached to Oklahoma City.

Omaha: Area in 10th Federal Reserve District attached to Omaha and following counties in Iowa: Adams, Adair, Appanoose, Audubon, Boone, Buena Vista, Calhoun, Carroll, Cass, Cerro Gordo, Cherokee, Clarke, Clay, Crawford, Dallas, Decatur, Dickinson, Emmet, Franklin, Fremont, Greene, Guthrie, Hamilton, Hancock, Hardin, Harrison, Humboldt, Ida, Jasper, Kossuth, Lucas, Lyon, Madison, Marion, Marshall, Mills, Monona, Monroe, Montgomery, O'Brien, Osceola, Page, Palo Alto, Plymouth, Pocahontas, Polk, Pottowattamie, Ringgold, Sac, Shelby, Sioux, Story, Taylor, Union, Warren, Wayne, Webster, Winnebago, Woodbury, Worth, and Wright.

Portland: Area in 12th Federal Reserve District attached to Portland.

Richmond: Area included in 3d and 5th Federal Reserve Districts.

St. Louis: Area in 8th Federal Reserve District attached to Little Rock, Memphis, and St. Louis.

San Francisco: Area in 12th Federal Reserve District attached to Los Angeles, Salt Lake City and San Francisco.

Spokane: Area in 12th Federal Reserve District attached to Seattle and Spokane.

§ 208.20 Release of collateral held by Commodity Credit Corporation. A producer may obtain the return of notes secured by wheat upon his request in writing and payment of the principal amount due thereon with accrued interest and proper charges. The producer's note and mortgage or loan agreement, with the warehouse receipt(s) (if any) securing same, will be transmitted to an approved bank with instructions to deliver such documents to the producer, or his agent, upon the payment of the full amount due thereon with accrued interest and proper charges. Where such paper is sent to an approved bank for collection, instructions shall be given to return such paper to the sender if payment and release are not effected within 15 days. All charges and expenses of the collecting bank shall be paid by the producer. If the note is secured by farm-stored wheat, county agricultural conservation committees will be requested to release the mortgage of record after payment in full either by the filing of an instrument of release or by a margin release on the county records.

If the producer's note is made payable directly to Commodity Credit Corporation and he desires to obtain the release of collateral upon payment as aforesaid, he should notify the Federal Reserve Bank or branch thereof serving the district in which the wheat is stored as above provided. If his note was made payable to a payee other than Commodity Credit Corporation the producer should notify the payee named therein.

Partial releases of collateral will be made as follows:

(a) In the case of farm-stored wheat, the producer must identify to the lending agency or loan agency of Reconstruction Finance Corporation the seal number of the bin to be released. Such release must cover all the wheat in any one bin. Upon receipt of such a request, a partial release of the chattel mortgage will be forwarded to an approved bank to be released to the producer against payment of the amount loaned on the particular bin of wheat plus interest and charges.

(b) In the case of elevator-stored wheat, producers desiring to obtain partial releases should notify the lending agency or Loan Agency of Reconstruction Finance Corporation serving the district in which the wheat is stored, describing the wheat to be released by warehouse receipt numbers. Each partial release must cover all the wheat under one warehouse receipt. The warehouse receipts representing wheat held by Commodity Credit Corporation will be forwarded to an approved bank to be released to the producer or his agent against payment of the amount loaned on the wheat to be released, plus interest on such amount and any charges applicable thereto.

(c) Banks and other lending agencies holding notes on 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Forms A and B may also permit partial releases as provided above and Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase notes on which partial releases have been made, provided the note is credited by the lending agencies with the full amount of the loan on the wheat released, plus interest at the rate of 4 percent thereon. An amount equivalent to 1½ percent interest per annum on the amount of such principal collected at the time of such partial releases from the date of the note or notes to the date of payment should be remitted to Commodity Credit Corporation in accordance with the terms of the contract to purchase (1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form B).

(d) Payment will be made to the lending agency on the basis of the amount loaned on the collateral remaining pledged as security to the note, plus 2½ percent interest on such amount from the date of the note to the date of purchase.

The foregoing schedule of loan values applies to wheat delivered to any designated terminal market in carload lots which has been shipped by rail from a country shipping point to one of the designated terminal markets, as evidenced by paid freight bills duly registered for transit privileges and other documents as required under the Instructions (1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form 1); Provided, Commodity Credit Corporation will accept in lieu of such bills, warehouse receipts on which a legend, signed by the warehouseman, has been stamped or typewritten in the following form or certificate of such warehouseman containing such an undertaking:

The wheat represented hereby was received by rail freight from _____ (Town) _____ (County) _____ (State) point of origin, as evidenced by original paid freight bill which has been officially registered for transit and will be held and kept alive, within statutory limitations, for the benefit of the holder hereof.

_____ (Warehouseman)

Otherwise a deduction of eight cents (8¢) per bushel shall be made.

(b) Amount of loan at country points.

(1) Except for the States and counties hereinafter set forth, Commodity Credit Corporation will determine the loan value on wheat in storage on the farm or in country warehouses by deducting from the designated terminal market value an amount equal to 3 cents more than the all-rail interstate freight rate (in effect on May 1, 1939) from the country warehouse points, or the shipping point designated by the producer, to such terminal market; except that in the appropriate counties of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, and Wisconsin such rates shall be computed on the basis of the average freight rate from all shipping points other than subterminal markets in each county to the appropriate terminal market.

Each approved warehouse will be advised as to the loan value applicable to wheat stored in such warehouse. Producers may obtain from the county committee the loan values applicable to wheat stored on each farm and in the public warehouses. Loan values will be published in supplements for the several wheat loan States.

The loan value of eligible wheat stored in approved subterminal warehouses (approved warehouses other than those situated in the designated terminal markets that have executed the Terminal Warehouse Agreement, 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form H), which was shipped by rail may be determined by deducting from the appropriate designated terminal market loan value an amount equal to the transit balance of the through freight rate from point of origin for such wheat to such terminal market; Provided, In the case of wheat stored at any railroad transit point, taking a penalty by reason of out of line movement, or for any other reason, to the appropriate designated market, there shall be added to such transit balance an amount equal to any out of line or other costs incurred in storing loan wheat in such position as determined by Commodity Credit Corporation. Arrangements have been made for the railroads to indicate transit balance of the through rate on the inbound paid freight bills on a basis of 100 pounds. To obtain the loan value as determined above, the warehouse receipts, in addition to other required documents, must be accompanied by the original paid freight bills duly registered for transit privileges; Provided, That Commodity Credit Corporation will accept in lieu of such bills, warehouse receipts on which a legend, signed by the warehouseman, has been stamped or typewritten substantially in the following form or certificate of such warehouseman containing such an undertaking:

The wheat represented hereby was received by rail freight as evidenced by original paid freight bill which has been officially registered for transit and will be held and kept alive, within statutory and tariff limitations, for the benefit of the holder hereof. The aforementioned original paid freight bill carries notation thereon by the railroad agent showing transit balance, if any, of through rate from _____ (Town) _____ (County) _____ (State) point of origin, to _____ (Basic loan terminal market) of _____ cents per 100 pounds.

_____ (Warehouseman)

_____ (Address)

(2) Separate schedules of loan values will be issued for the States and counties hereinafter set forth:

State and Counties

Colorado: All counties south of Idaho County.

Utah: All counties.

Idaho: Alamosa, Archuleta, Chaffee, Conejos, Costilla, Custer, Delta, Dolores, Eagle, Fremont, Garfield, LaPlata, Mesa, Moffat, Montezuma, Montrose, Ouray, Pitkin, Rio Blanco, Rio Grande, Routt, Saguache, San Miguel.

Wyoming: Lincoln, Sublette, Sweetwater, Teton, Uinta.

All counties of Indiana, except Lake, Newton, Benton, Porter, Jasper, White, LaPorte, St. Joseph, Marshall, Fulton, Elkhart, Kosciusko, and Starke.

Michigan.

Ohio.

Kentucky.

Tennessee.

West Virginia.

Virginia.

Maryland.

Delaware.

Pennsylvania.

New York.

The loan value of eligible wheat stored in approved subterminal warehouses in the foregoing area (approved warehouses that have executed the Terminal Warehouse Agreement, 1939 C.C.C. Wheat Form H) which was shipped by rail in the movement of natural market direction as approved by Commodity Credit Corporation, shall be determined by adding 3 cents per bushel to the country loan value for the county from which the wheat is shipped and an amount equal to the transit value of the freight paid from point of origin to markets designated by Commodity Credit Corporation. Lending agencies and County Committees are advised that in each instance such transit value must be verified by the Agency Manager of the Loan Agency of Reconstruction Finance Corporation serving the area. In such cases, the loan documents must be accompanied by the original paid freight bills or certificates of the warehouseman and other required documents as set forth in Section (b)-(1) above. If eligible loan wheat is stored in approved subterminal warehouses located at transit points, taking a penalty by reason of back haul, or out of line of natural market movement such penalty or other costs by reason of such movement, as determined by Commodity Credit Corporation, shall be deducted from loan values as determined above.

Adopted May 23, 1939.

[1939 Wheat Circular Letter No. 1 (Supplemental Instructions)]

PART 208—1939 WHEAT LOANS

§ 208.1 (b) The definition of eligible wheat as set forth in subsection (b) of Section 1, contained in 1939 CCC Wheat Form 1, is hereby supplemented as follows: Eligible producers delivering wheat of the grades No. 1 to No. 5 inclusive (grades 4 and 5 must meet all the grade requirements of No. 3 except test weight) to approved warehouses in which is ineligible for loan only by reason of grading tough or because of carrying notation as to weevil or other insects injurious to stored grain may have the wheat processed at their own expense and such wheat will thereafter be considered eligible for loan purposes when the original warehouse receipt in addition to other original documents as set forth in CCC Wheat Form 1, are accompanied by a certificate of the approved warehouseman issuing said receipts as follows:

The wheat represented by attached warehouse receipt No. ____, dated _____, covering loan wheat has been processed at the request of the eligible producer and redelivery will be made of the same country run quality, quantity, grade and protein as shown on the said warehouse receipt and accompanying original inbound inspection, weight and other required documents free of "tough" and "weevily" notation. Lien for processing charges will not be claimed by warehousemen from Commodity Credit Corporation or any subsequent holder of said warehouse receipt.

(Signed) _____ (Warehouseman)

_____ (Address)

The foregoing section applies only to wheat containing up to a limit of 15½% moisture. Wheat containing an excess of this amount of moisture is "sample grade" and is ineligible for loan.

§ 208.1 (b) (1) Section 1 (b) of said Instructions is supplemented to provide for wheat grading less than No. 3. To be acceptable, the inspection certificate where required by Commodity Credit Corporation or otherwise the warehouse receipt must contain a statement substantially as follows: "This wheat grades No. ____ solely on account test weight."

§ 208.6 Section 6 of said Instructions is hereby amended to permit the smut condition of wheat in Montana to be determined on a degree basis.

§ 208.7 Section 7 of said Instructions is supplemented to provide for a deduction of three-quarters of a pound for each sack in determining the net quantity of wheat collateral when sacked.

§ 208.10 Section 10 of said Instructions is hereby supplemented by waiving the requirement for protein analysis on Hard Winter wheat received by approved warehouses in the area served by the St. Louis Loan Agency of Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

§ 208.19 Section 19 of said Instructions is supplemented to provide that wheat loans originating in those portions of Indiana and Kentucky included in the area of the 8th Federal Reserve District shall be handled by the Loan Agency of Reconstruction Finance Corporation at Louisville, Kentucky.

§ 208.3 (a) C.C.C. Wheat Form 1, 1939, Supplement 1, Section 1, is hereby amended by changing the word "Heart" as a subclass applying under the Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, Terminal market basic loan values to the word "Baart" and by adding a basic loan value of No. 1 Hard White wheat of 78¢ per bushel to the markets of San Francisco, Los Angeles, Stockton and Oakland, California.

§ 208.3 (b) (2) Supplement 1, Section 2 (b), contains a transposition of the states of Colorado and Idaho. This is corrected to read as follows: Idaho, all counties south of Idaho County. Colorado, the following counties: Alamosa, Archuleta, Chaffee, Conejos, Costilla, Custer, Delta, Dolores, Eagle, Fremont, Garfield, LaPlata, Mesa, Moffat, Montezuma, Montrose, Ouray, Pitkin, Rio Grande, Routt, Saguache, San Miguel.

§ 208.3 (b) (2) Supplement 1, Section 2 (b), last paragraph is amended to read as follows:

"In such cases, the warehouse receipts in addition to the required documents as set forth in C.C.C. Wheat Form 1, Section 10, must be accompanied by the original or duplicate original paid freight bills, or certificates of the warehouseman as to such paid freight bills. Such certificate shall be in the following form:

The wheat represented hereby was received by rail freight as evidenced by original paid freight bill which has been officially registered for transit and will be held and kept alive within statutory and tariff limitations, for the benefit of the holder hereof. Said original paid freight bill carries notation thereon showing the portion of the through rail freight from _____ (Town) _____ (County) _____ (State) shipping point of origin, paid into _____ (Town) _____ (County) _____ (State), transit point, of _____ cents per 100 pounds. The undersigned warehouseman states to the best of his knowledge, said freight bill represents the usual rail movement of said wheat and that there are no back haul or out of line haul railroad penalties or other costs in connection therewith.

_____ (Warehouseman)

_____ (Date) _____ (Address)

If eligible loan wheat is stored in approved subterminal warehouses located at transit points, taking a penalty by reason of back haul, or out of line of natural market movement such penalty or other costs by reason of such movement, as determined by Commodity Credit Corporation, shall be deducted from loan values as determined above.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

IN THE MATTER OF WACO DRUG COMPANY

§ 3.6 (t) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Qualities or properties of product: § 3.6 (x) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Results. Representing, in connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's "Omodyne", or any other similar preparation, that said preparation is a remedy or cure for, or an effective treatment for, arthritis, neuritis, lumbago, sciatica, gout, neuralgia or rheumatism, or has any beneficial value in relieving the aches or pains which are due to or persist because of such conditions, prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by Sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., Supp. IV, sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Waco Drug Company, Docket 3468, August 1, 1939]

§ 3.6 (m 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Manufacture: § 3.6 (n) (2) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Nature—Product: § 3.6 (x) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Results. Representing, in connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's "Omodyne", or any other similar preparation, that the use of said preparation will cause the elimination of poisons from the human system, or that said preparation is prepared in accordance with a scientific formula, prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by Sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., Supp. IV, sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Waco Drug Company, Docket 3468, August 1, 1939]

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard[1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, testimony and other evidence taken before Henry M. White, an examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said complaint, brief filed by counsel for the Commission (respondent not having filed brief and oral argument not having been requested), and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That respondent, Waco Drug Company, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of a medicinal preparation now designated "Omodyne" or any other preparation composed of substantially similar ingredients or possessing substantially similar therapeutic properties, in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing that said preparation is a remedy or cure for, or an effective treatment for, arthritis, neuritis, lumbago, sciatica, gout, neuralgia or rheumatism, or has any beneficial value in relieving the aches or pains which are due to or persist because of such conditions;

2. Representing that the use of said preparation will cause the elimination of poisons from the human system, or that said preparation is prepared in accordance with a scientific formula;

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty days after service upon it of this order file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] OTIS B. JOHNSON, Secretary.

[Docket No. 3597]

IN THE MATTER OF THE KNOX COMPANY

§ 3.6 (t) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Qualities or properties of product: § 3.6 (y) (1) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Scientific or other relevant facts. Disseminating, etc., advertisements by means of the United States mails, or in commerce, or by any means, to induce, etc., directly or indirectly, purchase of "Cystex" and "Mendaco", or other similar preparations, which advertisements represent, directly or through implication, that said "Cystex" is an adequate remedy or cure, or competent treatment for ailments, disorders, diseased conditions of the human kidneys and bladder, without restricting such representations to those cases of such disorders as are non-organic and non-systemic in character; or that it is a cure or remedy for, or an effective treatment for, all ailments and disorders of the human kidneys and bladder which are non-systemic and non-organic; or that the presence of any of the following symptoms—swollen joints, leg and rheumatic pains, backache, nervousness, dizziness, burning of the urinary passage, "getting up nights", circles under the eyes, excess acidity or loss of energy—is necessarily indicative of ailments or diseased conditions which can be successfully treated by use of said preparation; or that said "Mendaco" is a cure or remedy, or an effective treatment, for asthma, or permanently relieves the symptoms thereof such as choking, gasping, coughing, or wheezing, or possesses any therapeutic value in the treatment of asthma in excess of furnishing, in some cases, temporary relief from the symptoms of asthma; or that it purifies, stimulates, refreshes or has any beneficial effect on the blood or promotes body metabolism; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by Sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., Supp. IV, sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, the Knox Company, Docket 3597, August 1, 1939]

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of the respondent, and a stipulation as to the facts entered into between the respondent herein and W. T. Kelley, Chief Counsel for the Commission, which provides, among other things, that without further evidence or other intervening procedure, the Commission may issue and serve upon the respondent herein findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, The Knox Company, its officers, representatives, agents and employees directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails or in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, by any means, for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of medicinal preparations containing drugs now designated by the names "Cystex" and "Mendaco", or any other medicinal preparations composed of substantially similar ingredients or possessing substantially similar therapeutic properties, whether sold under the same names, or under any other name or names, or disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said medicinal preparations, which advertisements represent, directly or through implication, that said preparation "Cystex" is an adequate remedy or cure or competent treatment for ailments, disorders, diseased conditions of the human kidneys and bladder, unless such representations are restricted to those cases of such disorders as are non-organic and non-systemic in character; or that said preparation is a cure or remedy for, or an effective treatment for, all ailments and disorders of the human kidneys and bladder which are non-systemic and non-organic; or that the presence of any of the following symptoms—swollen joints, leg and rheumatic pains, backache, nervousness, dizziness, burning of the urinary passage, "getting up nights", circles under the eyes, excess acidity or loss of energy—is necessarily indicative of ailments or diseased conditions which can be successfully treated by use of said preparation; or that said preparation "Mendaco" is a cure or remedy or an effective treatment for asthma or permanently relieves the symptoms thereof such as choking, gasping, coughing, or wheezing, or possesses any therapeutic value in the treatment of asthma in excess of furnishing, in some cases, temporary relief from the symptoms of asthma; or that "Mendaco" purifies, stimulates, refreshes or has any beneficial effect on the blood or promotes body metabolism.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 2nd day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

IN THE MATTER OF WEISS BEDDING COMPANY, INC., A CORPORATION, AND DAN WEISS, JR., AN INDIVIDUAL AND PRESIDENT OF WEISS BEDDING COMPANY, INC.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondents, in which answer respondents admit all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and state that they waive all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its finding as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Weiss Bedding Company, Inc., a corporation, its officers, and respondent Dan Weiss, Jr., individually and as an officer of Weiss Bedding Company, their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of mattresses in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the term "Cotton Felt" or any other term or terms of similar import and meaning alone or in conjunction with any other term or terms to designate, describe or refer to any mattress or part thereof which is not made of cotton fibers garnetted together into a mat or web;

2. Representing that such mattresses are new or sanitary unless all materials made a part of such mattresses are new or sanitary;

3. Representing that such mattresses comply with all state laws unless and until such mattresses conform with the standards fixed by the laws of all the states of the United States of America.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60 days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] OTIS B. JOHNSON, Secretary.

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

UNITED STATES HOUSING

PART 632—ADVANCE LOAN*

Sec.
632.1 Purpose and amount of advance loan.
632.2 Requisitions to be filed; when.
632.3 Procedure for obtaining advance loan.

§ 632.1 Purpose and amount of advance loan. An advance on account of the loan which the United States Housing Authority has agreed in the Loan Contract to make to a Local Authority may be made upon a satisfactory showing of compliance with certain contract stipulations. The purpose of an advance loan generally will be to provide funds which the Local Authority will need for preliminary work and land acquisition before it is in a position to sell its definitive bonds to the USHA under the Loan Contract. Such an advance loan will be made after compliance with the conditions precedent to such an advance under the terms of the Loan Contract. The proceeds of the advance loan may be used only to meet the cost of the following items:

(a) Administrative expenses properly chargeable to preliminary work on the project; while funds may be requisitioned for costs incurred prior to the date of the Loan Contract no part of the funds advanced by the USHA shall be used to pay such costs incurred prior to the date of the Loan Contract or to reimburse any fund out of which such costs may have been paid until the USHA has audited such costs and authorized such payment or reimbursement;

(b) Carrying charges, including only estimated interest on advance loan note up to date of its exchange for definitive bonds;

(c) Architectural and engineering expenses, including fees for preparation of plans, specifications and construction contract documents on site improvements and structures; and other services, including surveys, borings and test pits, blueprinting, models and similar items of architectural and engineering expense;

(d) The cost of land and preliminary land acquisition expenses, including surveys and maps, appraisal fees, title examination, cost of taking options, legal expenses and fees in connection with land acquisition, and the costs of demolition and clearance.

§ 632.2 Requisitions to be filed; when. Where a statutory project includes two or more projects, requisitions for funds shall be made to cover the needs of the statutory project and shall be supported by a separate Certificate of Purposes for each project.[1] The frequency with which requisitions are submitted will be governed by the anticipated needs for funds. In estimating the amount to be requisitioned for future expenditure, the local housing authority should, of course, give due regard to the desirability of keeping within a reasonable limit the interest costs on the funds advanced. However, the amount requisitioned should be sufficient, at least, to meet requirements during the following two months; therefore, without prior approval by the USHA, requisitions shall not be submitted more often than once every two months.

§ 632.3 Procedure for obtaining advance loan. The procedure for obtaining this advance loan will be as follows:

(a) Advance Loan Requisition Forms will be furnished to the Local Authority when the Loan and Annual Contributions Contracts are forwarded for execution and the first advance loan requisition may be submitted to the USHA at any time thereafter. Payment upon such requisition cannot be made until after the Contracts have been finally executed by the USHA. These forms will contain the necessary documents which must be completed and submitted by the Local Authority, including a Certificate of Purposes setting forth in detail the purposes for which such advance loan will be used. The USHA will also furnish to the Local Authority an Advance Loan Transcript containing suggested proceedings for the authorization by the Local Authority of its note or notes to be issued to evidence the advance loan. The USHA Project Advisers will assist the Local Authority in the completion of these forms and the other action necessary to obtain an advance loan.

(b) The note or notes should then be authorized by the Local Authority and, thereafter, it should promptly submit to the USHA three certified copies of the record of proceedings of the Local Authority relating to such authorization, accompanied by the completed Advance Loan Requisition Forms. The USHA will examine the record of proceedings in order to determine whether the note or notes have been legally authorized. It will also examine the Advance Loan Requisition Forms to determine whether the documents are in satisfactory form.

(c) The USHA will prepare an Authorization of Release of Payment if it is satisfied that the note or notes have been legally authorized and that the Advance Loan Requisition Forms are properly completed. This Authorization of Release of Payment will be forwarded to the Federal Reserve Bank in the district in which the Local Authority is located. A copy of the Authorization will also be forwarded to the Local Authority, together with a letter of instructions as to the documents which must be submitted by the Local Authority to the Federal Reserve Bank. The Federal Reserve Bank will communicate with the Local Authority and arrange a satisfactory date for the closing of the advance loan. The closing will take place at the office of the Federal Reserve Bank.

(d) The Local Authority will deliver to the Federal Reserve Bank the executed note or notes, together with signed and dated copies of the other required documents (as explained in the letter of instructions from the USHA), on the date set for closing the advance loan. Such note or notes will be in the principal amount of the advance loan approved. If the note or notes and the accompanying closing documents are submitted in proper form, the Federal Reserve Bank will deliver to the Local Authority a check drawn upon the Treasury of the United States in the principal amount of the note or notes delivered.

(e) The Local Authority will deposit the check received by it in payment for the note or notes in a separate account designated "Development Fund" in a bank which is satisfactory to the USHA. The Local Authority will withdraw funds from said account only to pay such costs and fees as were set forth in the Certificate of Purposes as finally approved in connection with its advance loan requisition.

(f) A Federal Reserve Bank will hold for the account of the USHA the note or notes delivered by the Local Authority until such time as the Local Authority is prepared to deliver definitive bonds. When the definitive bonds are ready for delivery, the USHA will, upon request by the Local Authority, authorize the Federal Reserve Bank to exchange said note or notes for an aggregate principal amount of definitive bonds equal to the principal amount of the note or notes. At the time of this exchange, the Local Authority will pay to the Federal Reserve Bank the interest due on the advance loan note or notes out of the proceeds originally received from the sale of the note or notes.

[SEAL] NATHAN STRAUS, Administrator.

JULY 31, 1939.

[F. R. Doc. 39-2896; Filed, August 8, 1939; 9:23 a. m.]

*Sections 632.1 to 632.3 issued under the authority contained in Sec. 8, 50 Stat. 891; 42 U.S.C., Sup. IV, 1408.

[1] The term "project" means that portion of a public housing agency's low-rent housing undertaking to which the USHA has assigned a separate project number. Ordinarily this will mean a development on one site. Each project will, in general, also have a name or geographic designation chosen by the local authority.

The term "statutory project" means a project or group of projects covered by one loan or annual contributions contract.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

WAR DEPARTMENT

CHAPTER II—RULES RELATING TO NAVIGABLE WATERS

PART 203—BRIDGE REGULATIONS[1]

§ 203.760 Columbia River and tributaries (excepting Clearwater River) above Celilo Falls; Bridges. (a) The owner of, or agency controlling, any drawbridge will not be required to keep a draw tender in constant attendance.

(b) Whenever a vessel unable to pass under any closed bridge desires to pass through the draw, at least 12 hours' advance notice of the time the opening is required shall be given to the authorized representative of the owner of, or agency controlling, the bridge.

(c) Upon receipt of such notice, the authorized representative of the owner of, or agency controlling, the bridge, in compliance therewith, shall arrange for the prompt opening of the draw at the time specified in the notice for the passage of the vessel.

(d) The owner of, or agency controlling, each bridge shall keep conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides of the bridge in a manner that it can be easily read at any time a copy of these regulations, together with a notice stating exactly how the representative stated in paragraph (b) may be reached. A list giving the name, address, and telephone number of the representative now in charge of the operation of each existing drawbridge follows:

(1) Railway bridge across Columbia River immediately below mouth of Snake River: Notify the Dispatcher, Union Pacific Railroad Company, Spokane, Washington. (Phone Main 4121.)

(2) Railway drawbridge across Columbia River between Pasco and Kennewick: Notify A. M. Partch, Assistant Supervisor, Northern Pacific Railway, Pasco, Washington. (Telephone Northern Pacific.)

(3) Drawbridge across Snake River at Ainsworth: Notify A. M. Partch, Assistant Supervisor, Northern Pacific Railway, Pasco, Washington. (Telephone Northern Pacific.)

(4) Drawbridge across Snake River at Riparia: Notify the Dispatcher, Union Pacific Railroad Company, Spokane, Washington. (Phone Main 4121.)

(5) Drawbridge across Snake River at Lewiston: Notify City Engineer, or Fire Department, City of Lewiston, Idaho. (Phone Lewiston 434.)

(e) The operating machinery of the draw shall be maintained in a serviceable condition, and the draw opened and closed at intervals frequent enough to make certain that the machinery is in proper order for satisfactory operation.

(f) In pursuance of the provisions of paragraph (c), the railway drawbridge across the Columbia River immediately below the mouth of the Snake River, the railway drawbridge across the Columbia River between Pasco and Kennewick, Washington; and the drawbridges across the Snake River at Ainsworth and Riparia, Washington, and Lewiston, Idaho, shall open for the passage of vessels or other water craft upon the following signals, which signals shall be sounded when 20 minutes run from the bridge:

(1) Railway drawbridge immediately below mouth of the Snake River. One long, one short, and two long blasts.

(2) Railway drawbridge between Pasco and Kennewick. One long, one short, and one long blast.

(3) Drawbridge across Snake River. One long, one short, and three long blasts.

Provided, however, That railroad drawbridges may be held closed for the passage of any mail or passenger train which is expected to arrive within 30 minutes after giving the signal for opening and then shall be immediately opened for the passage of the boat.

In case the draw is being held closed for a train or cannot be immediately opened when the signal from an approaching vessel is given, a red flag by day shall be conspicuously displayed above the superstructure, and a red light shall be conspicuously waved at night.

(g) These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after June 15, 1938. Previously authorized regulations are hereby revoked to take effect on that date.

(h) List of authorized representatives of bridge owners who should be notified of prospective passage of vessels (see paragraph (d)). (Sec. 5, River and Harbor Act, Aug. 18, 1894, 28 Stat. 362; 33 U.S.C. 499) [Regs., June 7, 1938 (E. D. 6374 (Columbia River-Tributaries) 2/1)]

PART 206—FISHING AND HUNTING REGULATIONS[2]

§ 206.50 Chesapeake Bay, Md. and Va., and its tributary waters; fishing. Until further notice, all fishermen who desire to operate in Chesapeake Bay, Maryland and Virginia, and navigable tributaries thereto, are hereby authorized by the Secretary of War to construct and maintain fishing structures erected in the usual manner as heretofore, subject to the following regulations.

(a) Supervision. General supervision of the location, construction and manner of maintenance of all fishing structures shall be exercised by the U. S. District Engineer in charge of the locality in which the structure is placed. The term "fishing structure" shall include lines of fish-net stakes, leads, traps, pounds, gill nets, heads, hedging, stands, and similar appurtenances.

(b) Limits. The approved limits of the areas within which fishing structures may be placed are shown on maps entitled "Limits for Placing Fish-net Stakes" which form a part of these regulations. These maps may be examined in the offices of the respective U. S. District Engineers. Regular aids to navigation are used where possible to mark the limits of the areas, and special fish stake buoys have been established where additional markers are necessary. These fish stake buoys are marked as follows:

For the Baltimore District, $B_1$, $B_2$, $B_3$, $B_4$, etc.

For the Washington District, $W_1$, $W_2$, $W_3$, $W_4$, etc.

For the Norfolk District, $H_1$, $H_2$, $H_3$, $H_4$, etc.

(c) Restrictions. (1) The approach to the mouth of any tributary or to the mouth of any navigable branch of any tributary shall be left free and unobstructed by fishing structures. Where limiting lines are not shown on the respective maps, the free and unobstructed approach shall lie along the channel usually followed by boats and shall have a width of not less than one-third of the width of the mouth of the tributary or branch.

(2) Within the tributaries where limiting lines are not shown on maps a practicable channel in deep water shall be left free and unobstructed for use of boats.

(3) No fish-net stakes shall be placed within 200 feet of any shore (mean low water) line or within 500 feet of any buoy or other aid to navigation (fish stake buoys excepted) placed or maintained by the Bureau of Lighthouses.

(4) Nothing in these regulations shall supersede the regulations heretofore prescribed by the Secretary of War for firing ranges at Fort Monroe, Va., U. S. Marine Barracks, Quantico, Va., Fort Belvoir, Va., U. S. Naval Proving Ground, Dahlgren, Va., and the Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md. (See Part 204.) Copies of these regulations can be secured from the U. S. District Engineer in charge of the locality in question or from the Commanding Officer of the establishment concerned.

(d) Requirements. (1) No single fishing structure shall have a total length greater than 1,000 feet, except in waters on the Eastern Shore south of the entrance to Eastern Bay, where the allowable lengths of single structures shall be not more than 1,800 feet. Between successive fishing structures in the same row, clear and unobstructed intervals of at least 200 feet shall be maintained, and adjoining rows of fishing structures shall be at least 200 feet apart. In addition a clear passageway at least 200 feet wide shall be maintained, reaching from all regular navigable channels to all established boat landings. All stakes shall project not less than 4 feet above the surface of the water at all stages of the tide. Any stake not complying with this condition shall be withdrawn.

(2) The inner and outer end of each fishing structure shall be marked plainly by a bush or other suitable and readily discernible day mark.

(3) The name and address of the owner of each fishing structure shall be displayed in black letters not less than 2 inches in height, upon a white background, from a stake at the outer end of the structure, at such height and in such position that it may be easily read. In lieu thereof the State license number may be displayed as indicated above. In either case the identification mark must be displayed from the setting of the first stake until removal of the last one.

(4) Fishing structures shall be lighted between sunset and sunrise, by and at the expense of the permittee, for the safety of navigation. A light shall be displayed at each end of the structure. The outer light shall be white and the inner light shall be red. The lights shall have a capacity to burn for at least 8 days unattended, and be visible in clear weather at least 1 mile. The lights shall be securely placed on piles or stakes at an elevation of at least 8 feet above mean low water and be visible from all points of the compass. They shall be subject to inspection and approval of the said District Engineer before use, and at any time during use; and the owner shall make provision, by watchman or otherwise, for their proper attendance, so that they shall be in effective condition and properly lighted at all times between sunset and sunrise. In case of removal of the fishing structure, lights as prescribed above shall be maintained until the removal of the last pile or stake.

There shall be installed and maintained on the structure, by and at the expense of the owner, such additional lights and signals, if any, as may be prescribed by the Bureau of Lighthouses, Department of Commerce. (See 33 CFR Chapter IV)

(5) The owner of a fishing structure shall be responsible for the construction and repair thereof and for maintaining such lights and markers as required in these regulations. The structure shall be considered as abandoned at such time, as any or all, of these requirements are not fully complied with and the owner shall promptly remove all stakes from an abandoned structure or be subject to prosecution. Abandoned fishing structures may be summarily removed by the U. S. District Engineer charged with the general supervision of the locality.

(e) General restrictions. (1) Nothing herein provided shall be interpreted as setting aside exclusively for fisheries any area of navigable water.

(2) It is to be understood that these regulations do not give any property rights either in real estate or material, or any exclusive privileges and do not authorize any injury to private property or invasion of private rights, or any infringement of Federal, State, or local laws or regulations, nor do they obviate the necessity of obtaining State assent to the work authorized.

(3) If at any time in the future it shall be made apparent to the Secretary of War that any fishing structure herein authorized causes unreasonable obstruction to the free navigation of said waters, the owner will be required, upon due notice from the Secretary of War, to remove or alter the same so as to render navigation through said water reasonably free, easy, and unobstructed.

(f) That the United States shall in no case be liable for any damage or injury to the structure or work herein authorized which may be caused by or result from future operations undertaken by the Government for the conservation or improvement of navigation, or for other purposes, and no claim or right to compensation shall accrue from any such damage.

These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after June 28, 1938, and shall supersede all previously approved regulations for fishing structures in Chesapeake Bay and its tributary waters. (Secs. 10, 12, River and Harbor Act, Mar. 3, 1899, 30 Stat. 1151; 33 U.S.C. 403, 406) [Regs., June 28, 1938 (E.D. 7221 (Chesapeake Bay) 97/5)]

NOTE: Chesapeake Bay Engineer Districts. Baltimore District, in charge of the U. S. District Engineer, 332 Post Office Building, Baltimore, Maryland: The north shore, the east shore, and the west shore south to Cove Point, and tributaries within those limits.

Washington District, in charge of the U. S. District Engineer, Room 1068 Navy Building, Washington, D. C.: The west shore from Cove Point south to York Point, Virginia, and the tributaries within those limits.

Norfolk District, in charge of the U. S. District Engineer, 415 U. S. Post Office and Court House, Norfolk, Virginia: The shores and tributaries of the bay on the west shore south of York Point, Virginia.

NOTE: Copies of Maps. Supplemental maps of the fishing limits, showing the limits of certain areas in more detail and on a larger scale, may be obtained by addressing the U. S. District Engineer in charge of the locality. A charge of 25 cents is made for each sheet, to cover the actual cost of the print. Payment for maps requested should accompany the application, preferably in a postal money order.

§ 206.90 Coastal waters of Oregon and Washington and the navigable waters tributary thereto, including Columbia River, Oreg., Wash. and Idaho, and all its navigable tributaries; fishing. Until further notice all weir, trap and pound fishermen who desire to operate in the coastal waters of the States of Oregon and Washington (In the State of Washington the operation of fish traps for the capture of salmon became illegal by law on and after December 3, 1934. Federal permits will not be issued in violation of State law.) and in the navigable waters tributary thereto, including the Columbia River, Oregon, Washington, and Idaho, and all its navigable tributaries, and under conditions stated as follows, but not otherwise, whose written applications may receive the approval of the Engineer Officer of the United States Army in charge of the locality, are hereby authorized by the Secretary of War to construct and maintain weirs, traps, and pounds erected in the usual manner as heretofore, subject to the following conditions:

Conditions. (a) All person desiring to erect and maintain weirs, traps, or pounds, under this authority, shall make application to the engineer Officer of the United States Army in charge of the locality, giving their names, addresses, and locations for weirs, traps or pounds, and evidence that proper licenses have been granted by State authorities. They shall also report to him all changes of ownership or abandonment of any location. Blueprints of sections of these waterways upon which to indicate desired locations for weirs, traps, and pounds may be purchased at the office of the Engineer Officer in charge of the locality.

(b) That all the apparatus to be used and the work herein authorized to be done shall be subject to the supervision and approval of the local Engineer Officer.

(c) That no weir, trap, or pound shall be located or built in such place or manner as to obstruct or interfere with navigation or to be injurious to the regimen of the river.

(d) The weir, trap, or pound shall be lighted between sunset and sunrise, by and at the expense of the permittee, for the safety of navigation. A light shall be placed at each end of the structure, excepting where the inner end terminates in such a manner that there is no practicable navigation between it and the high-water line of the adjacent shore, in which case no inner light shall be displayed. The outer light shall be white, and the inner light shall be red. The size, capacity, and manner of maintenance of the lights shall be such as may be specified in the War Department permit authorizing the erection of the structure or appliance.

There shall also be installed and maintained on the weir, trap, or pound, by and at the expense of the permittees, such additional lights and signals, as may be prescribed by the Bureau of Lighthouses, Department of Commerce (see 33 CFR Chapter IV), and provision shall be made for proper attendance of all lights and signals, by watchman, or otherwise, so that they shall at all times be in effective condition.

[1] These regulations are supplementary to Title 33, Chapter II, Part 203, Code of Federal Regulations.

[2] These regulations are supplementary to Title 33, Chapter II, Part 206, Code of Federal Regulations.

(e) That on the outer end of the weir, trap, or pound, the permittee or owner shall maintain a sign inscribed "U. S. (No. —)", with letters and numerals not less than 2 inches in height, capable of being readily read from a boat or vessel, and failure to keep such sign conspicuously displayed shall be sufficient reason for the cancellation of this authority and for prosecution, as provided in paragraph (f).

(f) That upon ceasing to use any weir, trap, or pound as hereby authorized, the structure, including all stakes, shall be at once removed by the owner, and failure to so remove the same shall be considered good ground for prosecution of the owner under the provisions of Section 12 of the River and Harbor Act of March 3, 1899 (30 Stat. 1151; 33 U.S.C. 406). Any weir, trap, or pound allowed to go into a condition of disrepair so that it cannot be readily seen and on which the permit number is not conspicuously displayed will be regarded as abandoned, and if not promptly removed or rebuilt will subject the owner to prosecution.

(g) That if future operations by the United States require an alteration in the position of the weir, trap, or pound, or if, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, said weir, trap, or pound shall cause unreasonable obstruction to the free navigation of the said waters, the permittee will be required, upon due notice from the Secretary of War and within 30 days thereafter, to remove or alter said weir, trap, or pound, or obstructions caused thereby, without expense to the United States, so as to render navigation reasonably free, easy, and unobstructed. No claim shall be made against the United States on account of such removals or alterations.

(h) That the United States shall in no case be liable for any damage or injury to the structure or work herein authorized which may be caused by or result from future operations undertaken by the Government for the conservation or improvement of navigation, or for other purposes, and no claim or right to compensation shall accrue from any such damage.

(i) This authority is revocable at will by the Secretary of War and shall expire on (as may be specified by the Engineer Officer not exceeding a period of 5 years).

(j) That it is to be understood that this authority does not give any property rights or any exclusive privilege, and that it does not authorize any injury to private property or invasion of private rights, or any infringement of State laws or regulations, nor does it obviate the necessity of obtaining State assent to the work authorized as it merely expresses the assent of the Federal Government so far as concerns the public rights of navigation. (See Cummings v. Chicago, 188 U. S. 410).

(k) These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after June 7, 1938, and the following regulations are superseded to take effect on that date. (Sec. 10, River and Harbor Act, Mar. 3, 1899, 30 Stat. 1151; 33 U.S.C. 403) [Regs., June 7, 1938 (E.D. 7221 (Columbia River—tributaries) 6)]

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 7th day of August, A. D. 1939.

[File No. 54-15]

IN THE MATTER OF COMMUNITY POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to Section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; an application pursuant to Section 11 (g) and Rule U-12E-4 of the Act; a declaration pursuant to Section 7 of the Act; and a declaration pursuant to Rule U-12E-5 of the Act having been filed with this Commission by the above named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on September 6, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before September 1, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to an application pursuant to Section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act with regard to a plan of recapitalization providing—

(1) For the exchange of the 68,962 outstanding shares of First Preferred Stock, $6 Dividend Series, together with all accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon (amounting to $46.50 per share as of July 31, 1939) and the 10,000 outstanding shares of common stock for 362,810 shares of new common stock, with a par value of $10 per share, at the rate of 5 shares of new common stock for each share of present preferred stock outstanding and 1⅘ shares of new common stock for each share of present common stock outstanding;

(2) For the amendment of the Assignments and Agreements, outstanding in the face amount of $370,523.84, in order to permit them to be redeemed by the applicant, in whole or in part, at the rate of $100 for each $95 of their face amount in lieu of the present right of the applicant to fund such Assignments and Agreements into preferred stock;

(3) For the write-off of excess carrying value of investments in subsidiaries, unamortized debt discount and expenses and cost of preferred stock financing;

(4) For the consummation of such plan either through the use of the existing company by the amendment of its charter, or through the organization of a new corporation;

(5) For the application by the Commission to a federal court in accordance with the provisions of Section 11 (e) and Section 18 (f) to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the plan;

The application under Section 11 (e) and the plan itself provide that such plan shall not be consummated until such plan and the action of the Board of Directors in filing such plan with the Commission shall have been submitted to and approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding First Preferred Stock and by at least a majority of the outstanding common stock and shall have been approved by a federal court which shall have entered an appropriate final decree as contemplated and provided in Section 11 (e);

The matter concerned herewith is also in regard to an application for a report on the proposed plan of recapitalization, filed under Section 11 (e) and as summarized above, under Section 11 (g) and Rule U–12E–4 of the Act;

The matter concerned herewith is also in regard to a declaration filed under Rule U–12E–5 with regard to solicitation, in accordance with Rule U–12E–3 (d), from common and First Preferred Stockholders of consents to or dissents from the plan of recapitalization filed under Section 11 (e) and as summarized above;

The matter concerned herewith is also in regard to a declaration pursuant to Section 7 with regard to the issue and sale of the securities as provided in the plan of recapitalization filed under Section 11 (e) and as summarized above.

By the Commission.

1939, and interest thereafter at the rate of 1 percent per annum to the date of purchase.

Provision has also been made whereby banks or lending agencies may transfer their investment in notes, carried under the provision of the Supplemental Contract to Purchase, as provided in the Letter of Authorization (1938–39 C.C.C. Cotton Form K), copies of which will also be furnished upon request by the Loan Agencies.

Prior to execution of the Supplemental Contract to Purchase lending agencies can continue to transfer notes by use of the Notice of Assignment as provided in 1938–39 Cotton Circular Letter No. 7, but the assignee named in such notice of assignment must execute the Supplemental Contract to Purchase in order to continue their investment after July 30, 1939.

Schedules listing notes covered by the Letter of Authorization must identify the notes by date, name of producer, face amount of the note and number of bales pledged and each page of such schedule must be identified by signature of the lending agency.

The extension of the time for purchase of notes from lending agencies does not affect the provisions of the Contract to Purchase (1938–39 C.C.C. Cotton Form D) requiring tender of notes prior to July 1, 1939. The notes must be tendered prior to July 1, 1939, and will be held by the Federal Reserve Banks, Custodian for the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the account of lending agencies completing the Supplemental Contract to Purchase.

[1938 Corn Circular Letter No. 4, 1938–39 Corn Circular Letter No. 3 (Supplemental Instructions)]

ADOPTING § 205.13A AND § 206.19 FOR PARTS 205, 1938 CORN LOANS, AND 206, 1938–39 CORN LOANS, RESPECTIVELY

1. Under the 1938 and 1938–39 corn loan programs, the corn producers' notes mature August 1, 1939. No deliveries of corn will be accepted by Commodity Credit Corporation in liquidation of notes prior to September 1, 1939, except in those instances where the notes are called under the terms of the mortgages.

2. Arrangements have been made for the resealing of corn collateral and the extension or renewal of the notes in those instances where the corn collateral and storage structures are found to be in good condition, except for ear corn produced in 1937. However, ear corn produced in 1937 may be shelled and resealed in farm storage. Producers may also shell and deliver corn of any crop year (1937 or 1938) to warehouses approved by Commodity Credit Corporation and obtain a renewal of the loans thereof. To be eligible for a loan extension or renewal, the corn collateral must grade No. 3 or better and contain not more than 13½% moisture when stored as shelled corn and 15½% moisture when stored as ear corn. The extension and renewal program applies only to corn now under loan.

3. Each producer interested in obtaining an extension or renewal of his loan should communicate with the County Agricultural Conservation Committee for an inspection of the corn collateral and storage structures. Any extension requests for corn stored in the state of Illinois must be transmitted for acceptance prior to November 1, 1939; otherwise, it will be necessary for the producers to submit a renewal note secured by a new chattel mortgage.

4. In those instances where the corn collateral is already shelled or is to be resealed as ear corn in farm storage, the producer must submit a corn storage agreement on 1938–39 C.C.C. Corn Form A–2. Producers desiring to shell ear corn collateral and to mortgage the shelled corn in substitution therefor must execute renewal notes on 1938–39 C.C.C. Corn Form A–3, secured by chattel mortgage on 1938–39 C.C.C. Corn Form A–4. Producers desiring to store shelled corn in approved public warehouses must execute new notes and loan agreements on 1938–39 C.C.C. Corn Form A–5. All agreements and new loan documents covering 1937 corn must be submitted to the Chicago Loan Agency; and agreements and new documents covering 1938 corn shall be submitted to the Loan Agency serving the area as stated in the Instructions of Commodity Credit Corporation (1938–39 C.C.C. Corn Form 1). Commodity Credit Corporation will pay producers resealing corn in farm storage 7 cents per bushel for storing the corn until August 1, 1940, or the date of delivery of the corn, whichever is later. Such payment is conditioned upon the producer delivering the full quantity of corn resealed grading No. 3 or better. At the request of producers, the storage charge will be advanced at the time of resealing farm stored corn for the sole purpose of enabling the producer to acquire or construct additional facilities for the farm storage of corn. If such an advance is used for any other purpose, the producer will be liable for the full amount advanced and owing on the corn plus interest and charges.

5. The corn storage agreements and new notes and chattel mortgages or loan agreements must be properly completed. All liens listed in Section 12 of the new chattel mortgage and Section 8 of the loan agreement must be waived. Such liens may be waived on the new chattel mortgage or the loan agreement or listed and waived on corn lien waiver (1938–39 C.C.C. Corn Form AB) which may be attached thereto. If the producer is a tenant, the consent for storage must be signed on all forms if the lease expires prior to October 1, 1940. The requirements for completing and filing for record of new chattel mortgages are the same as set forth in the Instructions (1938–39 C.C.C. Corn Form 1).

6. In the event the quantity of corn resealed is less than the quantity covered by the original mortgage, the storage agreement or new note and mortgage or loan agreement must be accompanied by funds for the deficiency, as determined in accordance with Section 7 hereof. New loan documents will not be accepted by Commodity Credit Corporation until settlement is made of such deficiencies.

7. After September 1, 1939, notes may be liquidated by the delivery of the corn collateral. Such delivery must be made under the instructions of the county committee. Producers may deliver part of the corn collateral and reseal the remainder as ear corn, except corn produced in 1937, or shell and reseal in farm storage as shelled corn or store shelled corn collateral in approved warehouses. Under no conditions will producers be permitted to purchase all or any part of the corn collateral for less than the loan value plus interest and other charges. Producers must settle for any deficiencies in the quantity of corn delivered or resealed or for deliveries of corn grading less than No. 3. Any shortage in quantity must be settled for on the basis of loan value plus interest and charges on the assumption that the full quantity of corn described in the original chattel mortgage was not sealed at the time such chattel mortgage was executed, provided, that if satisfactory evidence is presented by the producer that the full quantity of corn was sealed and that the shortage is due to loss or impairment due to an insured risk, the producer will not be liable for such shortage and collection will be made under the insurance provided by the producer and Commodity Credit Corporation. Deficiencies in quality must be settled on the difference in value between corn grading No. 3 and the grade of the corn delivered. The county committees will advise the producers as to the amount of the deficiencies.

8. In consideration of the payment of ½ cent per bushel on farm storage and 1/10 cent per bushel on warehouse storage by producers, Commodity Credit Corporation will not require producers to furnish an insurance certificate or policy. Such funds are intended to protect Commodity Credit Corporation against loss or impairment of the corn collateral from the perils of fire, lightning, windstorm, cyclone, tornado, inherent explosion, flood and theft. The obligations of the producer in connection with such protection are set forth in the loan documents. Payment of this amount shall be made to the County Agricultural Conservation Committees at the time the extension or renewal is approved by the county committee.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

IN THE MATTER OF FRED ADELMANN, ALSO KNOWN AS FRANK ADELMANN, AN INDIVIDUAL, TRADING AS VIT-O-NET COMPANY, VIT-O-NET CORPORATION, AND ELECTRIC BLANKET COMPANY

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard[1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the amended complaint of the Commission, testimony and other evidence taken before Randolph Preston, an Examiner of the Commission, theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of the amended complaint, and the answer of the respondent, in which answer respondent admits all material allegations of fact set forth in the amended complaint, and states that he waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That respondent, Fred Adelmann, also known as Frank Adelmann, an individual, whether trading under either of said names or as Vit-O-Net Company, Vit-O-Net Corporation or Electric Blanket Company, or any other name, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Disseminating, or causing to be disseminated, any advertisement by means of the United States mails or in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, by any means, for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of an electrical device described and designated as a blanket which is now sold under the name "Vit-O-Net" and various other names, or any other device of similar design and construction or possessing similar properties, whether sold under the name "Vit-O-Net" or any other trade name; or disseminating, or causing to be disseminated, any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said device or any device of similar construction or possessing similar properties, which advertisements represent, directly or through implication, that said device is created and manufactured for the practical application of the biological, chemical, and other scientific discoveries and theories of well-known scientists and is the result of painstaking and long experiments and tests; that said device sets up a radio-magnetic energy which is transmitted to the person within or under its protection, thus causing an increased activity and revitalizing of the organs and cells of the body, a charging of the blood stream with electromagnetic energy, an elimination of many times more poisons and waste matter than is possible by any other method, and a magnetic stimulation of the various cells of the human body with a resulting cure of any disease or ailment with which the person using the product may be suffering; that said device has been tested and endorsed by prominent and well-known physicians, scientists, or other prominent and well-known persons, or by hospitals and other institutions for medical and scientific research, when such are not the facts; that said device is an amazing discovery, aids nature to eliminate the wastes and poisons responsible for high or low blood pressure, rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, sciatica, pneumonia, flu, uremia, kidney cases, liver disorders, asthma, colds, acne and pimples, nervousness, insomnia, paralysis, Bright's disease, stomach troubles, dropsy, catarrh, goitre, constipation, auto-intoxication, eczema, diabetes, women's ailments, obesity, hay fever, neurasthenia, varicose veins, social diseases, heart diseases; has therapeutic value in all diseases known to man and creates new energy, new vitality, and is wonderful for, and soothing to, the nerves; that said device produces radio-magnetic or electro-magnetic energy which is transmitted to, and has an effect on, the human body, or that it has any curative, remedial or therapeutic effect at all on the human body other than that which would be produced by, and as a consequence of, the heat generated by said device; and that purchasers of said device and their families, as long as they own said device, secure through a health division and laboratory, maintained under the supervision and direction of a competent physician, scientific analyses and complete medical service.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within thirty (30) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION

[General Order No. 18, Amended]

REGULATION GOVERNING THE CHARTER TO PERSONS NOT CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES, OF VESSELS DOCUMENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES OR THE LAST DOCUMENTATION OF WHICH WAS UNDER THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

At a regular session of the United States Maritime Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 3rd day of August 1939.

General Order No. 18[1] is hereby amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to authority contained in the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, particularly Section 204 (b) thereof, the Shipping Act, 1916, particularly Section 9 thereof, and the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as all of said acts are amended, it is Ordered, That no person shall charter any vessel documented under the laws of the United States or the last documentation of which was under the laws of the United States, to a person not a citizen of the United States for use in the coastwise, intercoastal, fishing, foreign trade, or otherwise, without first obtaining the approval of the United States Maritime Commission: Provided, That any vessel documented under the laws of the United States, except one in which the United States Maritime Commission may have a mortgage or other financial interest, may, without further action by the United States Maritime Commission, be chartered to a person not a citizen of the United States for operation in trade between the United States, its Territories or possessions, or the District of Columbia, and a foreign country, for a period not to exceed six months or for a voyage or voyages the probable duration of which will not exceed six months: Provided further, That the vessel may not be rechartered to the same charterer who is not a citizen of the United States within a three month period after termination of the term or any such prior charter without the specific approval of the Maritime Commission.

By order of the United States Maritime Commission.

[NCR-301-L, Supplement 1]

1939 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM LICKING COUNTY, OHIO

SUPPLEMENT NO. 1

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections (7) to (17), inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, NCR-301-L, 1939 Agricultural Conservation Program, Licking County, Ohio,[1] is hereby amended as follows:

I. Section V, item 1, is amended to read as follows:

1. Fertilizing Materials. The application on open noncropland pasture from November 1, 1938 to September 30, 1939, inclusive, of commercial fertilizing materials which are officially registered and guaranteed in conformity with the provisions of the Ohio State Fertilizer Control Law shall earn payments as follows:

II. Section V, item 2, is amended by deleting the phrase "between November 1, 1938 and October 31, 1939," and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "from November 1, 1938 to September 30, 1939, inclusive."

III. Section VI is amended by deleting the phrase "between November 1, 1938 and October 31, 1939," and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "from November 1, 1938 to September 30, 1939, inclusive."

IV. Section VII, item 2, second sentence, is amended to read as follows: "If the county committee determines that more than one such person contributed to the carrying out of one or more of such practices on the farm during the period November 1, 1938, to September 30, 1939, inclusive, such payment shall be divided in the proportion that the quantity of practices contributed by each such person bears to the total quantity of practices carried out on the farm during the period November 1, 1938, to September 30, 1939, inclusive."

Done at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of August, 1939. Witness my hand and seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Division of Marketing and Marketing Agreements.

[Docket No. A-106 O-106]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF GRAPEFRUIT AND ORANGES GROWN IN CAMERON, HIDALGO, AND WILLACY COUNTIES IN THE STATE OF TEXAS

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended,[1] of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to such handling of grapefruit and oranges grown in Cameron, Hidalgo, and Willacy Counties in the State of Texas as is in the current of interstate commerce or commerce with Canada, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations, notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating such handling of grapefruit and oranges grown in Cameron, Hidalgo, and Willacy Counties in the State of Texas, beginning at 10:00 a. m., on August 28, 1939, in the Weslaco High School Auditorium, Weslaco, Texas.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each provides, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling of the aforesaid citrus fruits as is in the current of interstate commerce or commerce with Canada, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce. Among other things, the proposed marketing agreement and order provide for: (a) the establishment of a Growers Administrative Committee and a Shippers Advisory Committee, (b) regulation of shipments by grade or size, or both, (c) inspection of shipments by an authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service during periods when regulation is in effect, (d) levying of assessments to cover necessary expenses of the Growers Administrative Committee, and (e) reports of shipments by handlers.

Copies of the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order may be obtained from the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Agriculture, in Room 0310 South Building, or may be there inspected.

[File No. P1-PC-53]

NOTICE OF HEARING

You are hereby notified that the Commission has examined the above described application and has designated the matter for hearing for the following reasons:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial and other qualifications of the applicant to own and operate a radio station such as the one applied for;

2. To determine the nature and extent of the service proposed;

3. To determine the need for the service proposed.

(a) To determine the manner in which service is now being rendered in the area proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether or not the frequency 2522 kc is available under the provisions of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and Treaty agreements of the United States for assignment as requested.

(a) To determine the suitability of this frequency for communication as proposed.

(b) To determine whether or not use of the frequency 2522 kc upon a shared basis would be sufficient to enable the proposed station and the station with which the frequency is to be shared to render an efficient communication service.

5. To determine the types of service to be rendered and the charge to be made for each.

6. To determine whether or not the granting of the application would adversely affect the interests of any carrier or carriers subject to the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

7. To determine whether or not the granting of the application would serve public interest, convenience and necessity.

The application involved herein will not be granted by the Commission unless the issues listed above are determined in favor of the applicant on the basis of a record duly and properly made by means of a formal hearing.

The applicant is hereby given the opportunity to obtain a hearing on such issues by filing a written appearance in accordance with the provisions of Section 1.382 (b) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Persons other than the applicant who desire to be heard must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the provisions of Section 1.102 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

The applicant's address is as follows:

IN THE MATTER OF IOWA PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

ORDER ALLOWING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

Iowa Public Service Company, a public utility operating company, a registered holding company and subsidiary of Sioux City Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration pursuant to Section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, regarding the issue and sale by said company, through underwriters, of $14,250,000 aggregate principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, 3¾% Series, due August 1, 1969, at a price of 99 to the underwriters and 101 to the public; public hearings having been held upon said declaration, as amended, after appropriate notice; the Commission having considered the record in this matter and having made and filed its findings and opinion herein:

It is ordered, That said declaration, as amended, be and become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and for the purposes represented thereby.

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the powers vested in this Commission by Sections 7 (d), 12 (c) and 20 (a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and in accordance with the written consent of Declarant filed herein, that, except as this Commission may by order or orders from time to time permit, so long as any of Declarant's First Mortgage Bonds 3¾% Series due 1969 are outstanding, Declarant shall not, nor shall any successor or successors of Declarant, declare or pay any dividends (other than dividends payable solely in shares of common stock) or make any other distribution on any shares of its common stocks, nor shall any shares of such common stock be purchased, retired or otherwise acquired, by Declarant (or any successor or successors thereof), unless the amount expended by Declarant (or any such successor or successors) for maintenance and repairs, plus provisions for depreciation, plus all retirement of funded debt (including sinking fund retirements), bank loans not to exceed $800,000 outstanding on September 1, 1939, and retirements of any new indebtedness hereafter incurred or assumed pursuant to an order of this Commission, during the period from August 1, 1939 to the date of the proposed declaration of such dividend or the date of such acquisition, plus the earned surplus of Declarant, accumulated since August 1, 1939, remaining after payment of such dividend or the making of such distribution or acquisition, shall equal twenty per cent. (20%) of the gross operating revenues of Declarant (or any such successor or successors) during such period, after the deduction therefrom of an amount equal to the cost to Declarant of electric energy or gas purchased and resold, and rentals paid for electric or gas generating, transmission, or distributing properties, and water and ice properties, leased by Declarant, and payments by Declarant for the use of similar properties operated and maintained by others during such period; provided, however, that no credit may be claimed for any retirement of indebtedness if effected as a result of Declarant incurring additional indebtedness, to the extent that such additional indebtedness remains outstanding at the date of such declaration of dividend or acquisition.

IN THE MATTER OF GEORGE WALLACE GREEN, DOING BUSINESS AS CASCADE SECURITIES COMPANY 414 SYMONS BUILDING SPOKANE, WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SUSPENDING REGISTRATION

This is a proceeding pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to determine whether the registration as a broker and dealer of George Wallace Green, doing business as Cascade Securities Company, should be revoked or suspended.

At the hearing held pursuant to the Commission's order[1] at Seattle, Washington, the registrant failed to appear personally or by counsel. Notice of the hearing was sent to registrant by registered mail, but was not received by him because of his removal from the address which he had given the Commission. Thereafter, the order and notice of the hearing were published in the Federal Register for February 14, 1939, in the manner prescribed by the Federal Register Act.

The Trial Examiner filed an advisory report in which he found that the registrant has violated the provisions of Rule X-15B-2, adopted by the Commission pursuant to Sections 15 (b), 17 (a), and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in failing to inform the Commission of changes in his business and residence addresses, as alleged in the Commission's order of February 11, 1939. On an independent review of the record, we adopt the Trial Examiner's findings, and find further that the violation of Rule X-15B-2 was wilful.

Because notice was not received by Green, we will not order revocation of his registration. However, we find that it is necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors that Green's registration be suspended pending final determination of whether or not the registration should be revoked, which matter will be determined when Green comes in to be heard or notice is received by him.

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that the registration of George Wallace Green, doing business as Cascade Securities Company, be and the same hereby is suspended until further order.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF EDWARD G. HANSEN P. O. BOX 992 HELENA, MONTANA

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SUSPENDING REGISTRATION

This is a proceeding pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to determine whether the registration as a broker and dealer of Edward G. Hansen should be revoked or suspended.

At the hearing held pursuant to the Commission's order[1] on March 2, 1939, at Seattle, Washington, the registrant failed to appear personally or by counsel. Notice of the hearing was sent to registrant by registered mail, but was not received by him because he had moved from the address which he had given the Commission. Thereafter, the order and notice of the hearing were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for February 14, 1939, in the manner prescribed by the Federal Register Act.

The Trial Examiner filed an advisory report in which he found, as alleged in the Commission's order of February 11, 1939, that the registrant had violated the provisions of Rule X-15B-2, adopted by the Commission pursuant to Sections 15 (b), 17 (a), and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in that he has failed to inform the Commission of a change in his business address. On an independent review of the record, we adopt the Trial Examiner's findings[2] and find further that the violation of Rule X-15B-2 was wilful.

Because notice was not received by Hansen, we will not order revocation of his registration. However, we find that it is necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors that Hansen's registration be suspended pending final determination of whether or not the registration should be revoked, which matter will be determined when Hansen comes in to be heard or notice is received by him.

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that the registration of Edward G. Hansen be, and the same hereby is, suspended until further order.

By the Commission.

[1] 4 F.R. 896 DI.

[2] As an additional basis for the institution of these proceedings, the order stated that there were reasonable grounds for belief that Hansen had wilfully violated Section 17-(a) (2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Certain evidence was adduced at the hearing with respect to that allegation. However, since the violation of Rule X-15B-2 provides a sufficient basis for such action as is necessary in the public interest, we consider it unnecessary to determine whether Hansen has also violated Section 17 (a) (2) of the Securities Act of 1933.

IN THE MATTER OF CHARLES C. PHILLIPS, 198 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, N. Y.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SUSPENDING REGISTRATION

This is a proceeding pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to determine whether the registration as a broker and dealer of Charles C. Phillips should be revoked or suspended.

At the hearing held pursuant to the Commission's order [1] on April 1, 1939, at New York City, the registrant failed to appear personally or by counsel. Notice of the hearing was sent to registrant by registered mail; the return receipt was signed by H. Frank Phillips for the registrant. Thereafter, the order and notice of the hearing were published in the Federal Register for March 8, 1939, in the manner prescribed by the Federal Register Act. The Trial Examiner has filed an advisory report.

We find that the registrant has violated Section 32 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in that, in his application for registration, he willfully made a false and misleading statement to the effect that his principal office was located at 198 Broadway, New York City, when in fact the registrant had and has no office at said address; and that the registrant has violated the provisions of Rule X–15B–2, adopted by the Commission pursuant to Sections 15 (b), 17 (a), and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in failing to inform the Commission of a change in his residence address, all as alleged in the Commission's order of March 3, 1939. We further find that the violations of Section 32 (a) and Rule X–15B–2 were willful.

It does not appear from the record that Phillips has actually received notice of this proceeding. Under those circumstances, we shall not order revocation of his registration. However, we find that it is necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors that Phillips' registration be suspended pending final determination of whether or not the registration should be revoked, which matter will be determined when Phillips comes in to be heard or notice is received by him.

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that the registration of Charles C. Phillips be, and the same hereby is, suspended until further order.

IN THE MATTER OF H. H. STERN 956–18TH NORTH SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SUSPENDED REGISTRATION

This is a proceeding pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to determine whether the registration as a broker and dealer of H. H. Stern should be revoked or suspended.

At the hearing held pursuant to the Commission's order [1] at Seattle, Washington, the registrant failed to appear personally or by counsel. Notice of the hearing was sent to the registrant by registered mail, but was not received by him because of his removal from the address which he had given the Commission. Thereafter, the order and notice of the hearing were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for February 14, 1939, in the manner prescribed by the Federal Register Act.

The Trial Examiner filed an advisory report in which he found that the registrant has violated the provisions of Rule X–15B–2, adopted by the Commission pursuant to Sections 15 (b), 17 (a), and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in failing to inform the Commission of changes in his business and residence addresses, as alleged in the Commission's order of February 11, 1939. On an independent review of the record, we adopt the Trial Examiner's findings, and find further that the violation of Rule X–15B–2 was wilful.

Because notice was not received by Stern, we will not order revocation of his registration. However, we find that it is necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors that Stern's registration be suspended pending final determination of whether or not the registration should be revoked, which matter will be determined when Stern comes in to be heard or notice is received by him.

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that the registration of H. H. Stern be and the same hereby is suspended until further order.

IN THE MATTER OF EDWARD L. WEBSTER, DOING BUSINESS AS WEST STATES INVESTMENT CO., BOX 54, PAYETTE, IDAHO

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER SUSPENDING REGISTRATION

This is a proceeding pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to determine whether the registration as a broker and dealer of Edward L. Webster, doing business as West States Investment Co., should be revoked or suspended.

At the hearing held pursuant to the Commission's order [1] at Seattle, Washington, the registrant failed to appear personally or by counsel. Notice of the hearing was sent to registrant by registered mail, but was not received by him because of his removal from the address which he had given the Commission. Thereafter, the order and notice of the hearing were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for February 14, 1939, in the manner prescribed by the Federal Register Act.

The Trial Examiner filed an advisory report in which he found that the registrant has violated the provisions of Rule X–15B–2, adopted by the Commission pursuant to Sections 15 (b), 17 (a), and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in failing to inform the Commission of changes in his business and residence addresses, as alleged in the Commission's order of February 11, 1939. On an independent review of the record, we adopt the Trial Examiner's findings, and find further that the violation of Rule X–15B–2 was wilful.

Because notice was not received by Webster, we will not order revocation of his registration. However, we find that it is necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors that Webster's registration be suspended pending final determination of whether or not the registration should be revoked, which matter will be determined when Webster comes in to be heard or notice is received by him.

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the registration of Edward L. Webster, doing business as West States Investment Co., be, and the same hereby is, suspended until further order.

IN THE MATTER OF ALUMINUM COMPANY OF AMERICA, ALUMINUM ORE COMPANY, MASSENA SECURITIES CORPORATION, AND THE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER POWER COMPANY

ORDER DISPOSING OF APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTION

Aluminum Company of America, Aluminum Ore Company and Massena Securities Corporation having made a joint application for exemptions pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; The St. Lawrence River Power Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of said applicants, having filed in connection with said application an application for a declaration that it is not an electric utility company, pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 (a) (3) (B) of said Act; a hearing on said applications having been held after appropriate notice; [1] the record in this matter having been duly considered; and the Commission having made its findings herein;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Section 2 (a) (3) (B) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, that The St. Lawrence River Power Company be and it is hereby declared not to be an electric utility company; and

It is further ordered, That Aluminum Company of America be, and it hereby is, exempted from all those provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 which would require it to register under said Act because of its directly or indirectly owning, controlling, or holding with power to vote 10% or more of the outstanding voting securities of Nantahala Power & Light Company, Knoxville Power Company, Cedar Rapids Transmission Company, Limited, Aluminum Ore Company, and Carolina Aluminum Company; and

It is further ordered, That Aluminum Ore Company be, and it hereby is, exempted from all those provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 which would require it to register under said Act because of its directly or indirectly owning, controlling, or holding with power to vote 10% or more of the outstanding voting securities of Carolina Aluminum Company; and

It is further ordered, That the application of Massena Securities Corporation be, and it hereby is, dismissed.

IN THE MATTER OF WESTERN STATES UTILITIES COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A declaration pursuant to section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 25, 1939, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 22, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the issue and sale of $350,000 First Mortgage 4½% Bonds due October 1, 1959.

The declaration states that the Bonds are to be sold at the principal amount plus accrued interest to date of delivery to Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, and that the net proceeds together with funds from other sources are to be used to redeem the presently outstanding $368,100.00 principal amount of First Mortgage Twenty Year Sinking Fund 6% Bonds, Series A, due October 1, 1945 at a premium of 5%.

IN THE MATTER OF UNITED EDUCATORS, INC., GENERAL RESEARCH FOUNDATION, INC., PUBLISHERS FINANCE COMPANY, INC., WARREN T. DAVIS, JOSEPH J. RINK, AND ELMER C. WOLFORD

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard[1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondents, testimony and other evidence taken before John W. Addison, an examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said complaint and in opposition thereto, and briefs filed herein, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondents, United Educators, Inc., General Research Foundation, Inc., Publishers Finance Company, Inc., Warren T. Davis, Joseph J. Rink, and Elmer C. Wolford, and each of them, their officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of any books, set of books, or publications, in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Advertising or representing, in any manner, to purchasers or prospective purchasers that any books or set of books offered for sale and sold by them will be given free of cost to said purchasers or prospective purchasers, when such is not the fact;

(2) Advertising or representing, in any manner, that purchasers or prospective purchasers of respondents' publications are only buying or paying for loose-leaf supplements intended to keep the set of books up to date for a period of years, when such is not the fact;

(3) Advertising or representing, in any manner, to purchasers or prospective purchasers that any books or set of books are offered at an especially low price, unless and until the price at which the books or set of books are offered is less than the price for which said books or set of books are usually or customarily offered for sale and sold;

(4) Representing that any instrument presented to prospective customers for signature in connection with the sale of any books or set of books is a mere receipt or order blank, when such instrument is an agreement to pay a specified sum or sums on a date or dates certain;

(5) Representing that any instrument presented to prospective customers for signature in connection with the sale of any books or set of books is not a promissory note, when such instrument contains an agreement by the signer to pay a specified sum or sums on a date or dates certain;

(6) Representing that the holder of any instrument acquired in connection with the sale of any books or set of books is a bona fide purchaser for value before maturity, when such is not the fact;

(7) Representing as a "foundation" any organization other than one in whole or in part supported by disinterested or eleemosynary funds;

(8) Advertising or representing, in any manner, as the purchase price of any books or set of books, together with any loose-leaf extension service therefor, or any other service or article, any sum other than the entire ultimate cost of such books or set of books and service and article to the purchaser;

(9) Advertising or representing, in any manner, that any specific sum is, or includes, the price or the full price of any books or set of books together with any right or option to purchase other books, services or articles, unless all the terms and conditions in connection with the exercise of such right or option are clearly and conspicuously stated in immediate connection therewith.

It is further ordered That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent, Samuel L. Presner, in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of the complaint to be true, and states that he waives hearing on the charges set forth in said complaint and that, without further evidence or other intervening procedure, the case might proceed to final hearing upon the record; it appearing that the respondent Federal Organization, Inc. is no longer in existence, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent Samuel L. Presner has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered That the respondent, Samuel L. Presner, an individual, his representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisements by means of the United States mails or in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, by any means, for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of devices now designated by the names of "Vibro Appliance", "Brace-O Appliance", "Giant Developer", "Prosto Massager", or any other similar devices, whether sold under the same names or any other name or names, or medicinal preparations containing drugs now designated "Stamina Kel-Pep", "Spanish Passion Extract", "Double Strength Spanish Passion Extract", "African Jungle Tree", "Nerv-Tonik", "Kidney Herb Tea", "K–9 Herb Tabs", "Z. K. Herb Pearls", "Flora Laxaid", or any other medicinal preparations composed of substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same names or under any other name or names; or disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said devices or medicinal preparations, which advertisements (1) represent, directly or through implication, (a) that his said devices "Vibro Appliance", "Brace-O Appliance", "Giant Developer" or "Prosto Massager" will aid in the development of the male sexual organ, restore sexual power or cure or relieve disorders of the prostate gland; (b) that his said preparation "Stamina Kel-Pep" will increase the appetite, assist digestion, overcome constipation or build up energy, endurance, the blood or tissues; (c) that said preparations "Spanish Passion Extract" or "Double Strength Spanish Passion Extract" are healthful stimulants or tonics for the sexual organs; or constitute effective remedies or beneficial treatments for prostate disorders, cystitis, kidney disorders, inflammation of the urinary organs, kidney stones or gravel; (d) that said preparation "African Jungle Tree" is a harmless sexual stimulant or will restore sexual vigor; (e) that said preparation "Nerv-Tonik" is a tonic or will build up the body, give new blood, increase the weight, aid the digestive system, improve the appetite, stimulate the glands or increase vigor; (f) that said preparation "Kidney Herb Tea" is a competent treatment for genito-urinary diseases, or will dissolve pus, gravel or stones in the kidneys or relieve bladder irritation; (g) that said preparation "Z. K. Herb Pearls" will reduce high blood pressure; (h) that said preparation "K–9 Herb Tabs" has antiseptic properties; (i) that said preparation "Flora Laxaid" is a cure or remedy for constipation; (2) or which advertisements concerning the preparations designated "Stamina Kel-Pep", "Spanish Passion Extract", "Double Strength Spanish Passion Extract", "African Jungle Tree", fail to reveal that these preparations are not wholly safe to be used by the lay public in self medication.

It is further ordered, That respondent do cease and desist from representing, through the use of the word "Federal" on seals or otherwise, that his products have been tested, inspected or approved by an agency or bureau of the United States Government; or representing through the use of the phrases "Laboratories" or "Research Laboratories" as part of his trade name, or in any other manner, that he maintains a laboratory for making scientific tests on products sold by him.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

It is further ordered, That this proceeding be, and the same hereby is, closed as to the respondent, Federal Organization, Inc., without prejudice to the right of the Commission to reopen the same and resume prosecution thereof in accordance with the Commission's regular procedure, should future facts so warrant.

By the Commission.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 2nd day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

IN THE MATTER OF JULIUS M. FIRK, AN INDIVIDUAL TRADING AS STRAUSS TAILORING COMPANY, FEDERAL TAILORING COMPANY, BELL TAILORING COMPANY, AND ARLIN TAILORING COMPANY

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon a complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and states that he waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusions that respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Julius M. Firk, an individual, trading as Strauss Tailoring Company, Federal Tailoring Company, Bell Tailoring Company, and Arlin Tailoring Company, or trading under any other name or names, his representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of men's clothing in commerce, as "commerce" is defined by the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Representing that respondent's products are composed of fibers or materials other than those of which they are actually composed; or representing, in any manner, that the fabrics or products manufactured or sold by respondent contain wool in greater quantity, percentage, or degree than is actually the case;

(2) Using the words "wool", "woolens", or "worsted", or any other word or words of similar import or meaning, to designate or describe any fabric or other products which are not composed wholly of wool, provided that in the case of a fabric or product composed in part of wool and in part of a material or materials other than wool, such words may be used as descriptive of the wool content, if there is used in immediate connection therewith, in letters of equal size and conspicuousness, a word or words accurately describing and designating each constituent fabric or material thereof in the order of its predominance by weight, beginning with the largest single constituent;

(3) Using the unqualified word "silk" or any other word or words of similar import or meaning to designate or describe any fabric or other product which is not composed wholly of unweighted silk, the product of the cocoon of the silk worm;

(4) Advertising, offering for sale, or selling, fabrics or any other products composed in whole or in part of rayon without clearly disclosing the fact that such fabrics or products are composed of rayon, and when such fabrics or products are composed in part of rayon and in part of other fibers or materials, such fibers or materials, including the rayon, shall be named in the order of their predominance by weight, beginning with the largest single constituent.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty days after service upon him of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which he has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

[ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 340]

PART 403—PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

LEASING AND RENTING OF PROPERTIES OWNED BY THE CORPORATION: APPROVED FORMS TO BE USED; WHEN RENTAL AGREEMENT TO BE OBTAINED; UNPAID MISCELLANEOUS BALANCES

Amending Part 403 of Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Sections 403.11–33 and 403.11–45, respectively, are amended to read as follows:

§ 403.11–33 All leases, rental contracts and such other instruments as are necessary in the leasing and renting of properties shall be on duly authorized Corporation forms.

The Regional Manager may, however, with the advice of the Regional Counsel, authorize the use of other forms in particular cases where he determines that it will be to the best interest of the Corporation.

The Corporation requires that a written rental agreement be obtained from the occupant of property under the jurisdiction of the Property Management Division if the Corporation desires to enter into the relationship of landlord and tenant with such occupant and has the legal right to do so. Once a rental agreement has been entered into between the Corporation and such tenant, no new rental agreement shall be required, unless there is a subsequent change in the rental agreement, such as a change in the rental rate or in the expiration date of the rental agreement. Unless the Regional or State Counsel otherwise directs, no new rental agreement is required solely for the purpose of evidencing the amortization of rental delinquencies. Where a new agreement is required under the ruling of the Regional or State Counsel, the rental rate shall not be increased by reason of such amortization and any payments to be made on account of rental delinquencies shall be shown separately in such new rental agreement.

§ 403.11–45 When advice is received that a property has become owned by the Corporation and there is an occupant in the property at that time, the broker shall consider the desirability of retaining or qualifying such occupant as a tenant. If the occupant had executed a rental agreement with the Corporation prior to acquisition no new rental agreement will be required unless there is a change in the terms of such agreement. If such occupant had not previously entered into a rental agreement with the Corporation he shall be required to execute such an agreement. Rental arrangements shall be made only with occupants whose credit standing is satisfactory. If upon receipt of notice of acquisition of title the property is occupied by an interim tenant owing arrears which have accrued prior to "legal title vested date", efforts shall be made to obtain payment of such delinquencies in cash at that time or no later than the fifteenth of the month following the calendar month in which such notice is received. If upon receipt of such notice there are arrears which have accrued subsequent to "legal title vested date", such arrears shall likewise be paid in cash, and if such cash liquidation is not feasible, then arrangements shall be made with such occupant for the amortization of such delinquencies over a reasonable period.

Such amortization arrangement shall preserve to the Corporation the right to recover from the tenant the full unpaid balance of such delinquency in the event of the tenant's subsequent default. In the event arrears accruing prior to or subsequent to "legal title vested date" are not paid in cash, or satisfactory arrangements are not made for their liquidation as provided above, or the occupant is not acceptable as a tenant, prompt steps shall be taken to obtain possession of the property at the earliest possible date. A property shall be deemed to be Not Owned until notice of acquisition is received from the Legal Department. The "legal title vested date" shall be the date of acquisition of absolute title as reported by the Legal Department in its notice irrespective of the date of such notice.

(Effective August 15, 1939)

(Above procedure promulgated by General Manager and General Counsel pursuant to authority vested in them by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board acting pursuant to Secs. 4 (a), 4 (k) of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 129, 132, as amended by Section 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934, 48 Stat. 647; 12 U.S.C. 1463 (a), (k))

[Administrative Order No. 337]

PART 403—PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

REMITTANCES BY CONTRACT MANAGEMENT BROKERS

Amending Part 403 of Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations. (Effective August 15, 1939)

Sec. 403.11–36 is amended by adding the following paragraph at the end thereof:

The Regional Manager may furthermore waive the use of a bank account by any Broker whose monthly collections on behalf of the Corporation normally do not exceed $100 during any monthly accounting period, or if the facilities of a bank acceptable to the Regional Manager are not available. Any such Broker shall remit to the Corporation by money order or check, the cost of which shall be borne by him. The Regional Manager or the Assistant Regional Manager in Charge of Property Management is authorized to amend Forms PM 432 or 432–A so as to reflect any deviations from the provisions thereof authorized by the Regional Manager pursuant to the provisions of this Article. In any such cases the appropriate surety company shall be advised of such changes if the Broker is bonded.

The first paragraph of Sec. 403.11–37 is amended to read as follows:

After the 15th day of each month and not later than the 17th day thereof, the Contract Management Broker shall remit direct to the Regional Treasurer all unexpended income derived from properties referred to him by the Corporation for management. In case the broker, prior to the 15th day of the month, has collected all rentals due during the month, he may make his remittance and submit his monthly operating report prior to that date. The broker may make remittances prior to the submission of his monthly operating report in which event he shall show on said report, when forwarded to the Regional and State Offices, the amounts and dates of previous remittances and the amount of the remittance accompanying such report. If the income received by the broker during the monthly accounting period from any particular property is insufficient to pay the charges regularly incurred by him with reference to that property during that period, such charges may be paid by the broker from any income received by him from any Corporation property under his management or by voucher under the regular procedure provided therefor.

(Above procedure promulgated by General Manager and General Counsel pursuant to authority vested in them by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board acting pursuant to Secs. 4 (a), 4 (k) of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 129, 132, as amended by Section 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934, 48 Stat. 647; 12 U.S.C. 1463 (a), (k))

[Administrative Order No. 322]

PART 403—PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

CONTRACT MANAGEMENT BROKERS' REPORTING PROCEDURE

Amending Part 403 of Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Section 403.11–44 is revoked and Sections 403.11–37, 403.11–38, 403.11–39, 403.11–41, 403.11–42 and 403.11–45 are amended to read as follows: (Effective October 24, 1938)

§ 403.11–37 After the 15th day of each month and not later than the 17th day thereof, the Contract Management Broker shall remit direct to the Regional Treasurer all unexpended income derived from properties referred to him by the Corporation for management. In case the broker, prior to the 15th day of the month, has collected all rentals due during the month, he may make his remittance and submit his monthly operating report prior to that date. If the income received by the broker during the monthly accounting period from any particular property is insufficient to pay the charges regularly incurred by him with reference to that property during that period, such charges may be paid by the broker from any income received by him from any Corporation property under his management or by voucher under the regular procedure provided therefor.

The remittance shall be accompanied by the original of a Monthly Operating Report by Contract Management Broker on an approved form supplied by the Corporation, together with the original receipted bills for authorized disbursements made by the broker and the original signed copy of each new lease or rental agreement entered into during the period covered by the report. The Monthly Operating Report by Contract Management Broker shall be prepared by the broker in triplicate as of the close of business not later than the fifteenth of each month. The Regional Treasurer will detach the remittance and acknowledge on the original copy on the Contract Management Broker's report the receipt of funds constituting the remittance by showing the reported date and amount of the deposit by the Regional Treasurer of such funds, and will deliver the original report, together with the receipted bills and any leases or rental agreements to the Regional Accountant for verification as to mathematical correctness of the computation, with respect to receipts, deductions and remittances, for presence of a lease or rental agreement covering each new tenancy reported thereon, for determination that each disbursement is covered by a receipted bill, and for use as posting media to the books of the Corporation. The Accounting Section will promptly advise the Property Management Division of any missing lease or rental agreement and of any missing necessary receipted bill.

§ 403.11–38 At the same time that the original Monthly Operating Report of Contract Management Broker is mailed to the Regional Treasurer, the broker shall send to the State Office a duplicate copy of the report accompanied by a duplicate set of bills and copies of new leases or rental agreements. Such extra copies of bills are not required to be receipted and may, if necessary, be prepared by the broker.

§ 403.11–39 The Supervisor of Management in the Regional Office shall make such spot check of broker operations from reports received and otherwise as may be necessary to insure efficient broker operation.

§ 403.11–41 If the Contract Management Broker has made any disbursements for which he has not obtained the receipted bill of the contractor or vendor in time for transmittal with his monthly operating report, he shall transmit in lieu thereof his signed certification, preferably on the bill or letterhead of the broker, to the effect that such disbursement has been made and that the customary receipt was not obtained, but will be obtained and submitted within thirty days. The original certification shall be forwarded with the broker's Monthly Operating Report to the Regional Treasurer and duplicate copy to the State Office. In every such case the original receipted bill of the contractor or vendor shall be obtained by the Contract Management Broker as soon as possible and shall be forwarded by him together with a duplicate copy thereof to the State Office not later than thirty days from the date of the disbursement. The original shall thereafter be forwarded to the Regional Accountant.

In cases where it is impracticable for the broker to obtain a receipted bill, the Official in Charge of Management in the State Office is authorized to waive the necessity of obtaining such receipted bill upon certification by the broker, preferably on the bill or letterhead of the broker, that it was impracticable to obtain a receipted bill and stating the reasons therefor, and upon satisfactory evidence that payment has, in fact, been made.

§ 403.11–42 The Official in Charge of Management in the State Office shall cause to be reviewed all delinquencies, as disclosed by the Monthly Operating Report by Contract Management Brokers. Appropriate action shall be taken promptly upon a default in the payment of rent so that the tenant will in no case remain in possession of the property when the delinquency is forty-five days old, except upon the approval of the State Manager.

§ 403.11–45 Where the account of any occupant of a property or unit is on an Interim Tenant's Account prior to the date of acquisition and a rental arrangement is thereafter contemplated wherein such occupant will continue to occupy the property or unit as a tenant subsequent to the date when the property or unit shall have become owned by the Corporation, such tenancy rental arrangement shall not become effective until any unpaid miscellaneous balances existing prior to "legal title vested date" have been paid and until any unpaid balance resulting from accruals subsequent to "legal title vested date" have been paid in cash by such occupant or amortized over a reasonable period; and such amortization arrangement shall be made a part of any rental agreement entered into with the tenant. Arrears which are included in such new rental arrangement shall not be included in delinquencies but will be accrued currently in agreement with the method of amortization. In the event a satisfactory plan for the liquidation of arrears incurred after the "legal title vested date" cannot be arranged or in case the delinquent tenant does not pay in full all arrears that have accrued prior to acquisition, prompt steps shall be taken to obtain possession of the property. Rental arrangements shall be made only with occupants whose credit standing is satisfactory. A property shall be deemed to be not owned until notice of acquisition is received from the Regional Counsel. The "legal title vested date" shall be the date of acquisition of absolute title as reported by the Regional Counsel in his notice, irrespective of the date of such notice.

(Above procedure promulgated by General Manager and General Counsel pursuant to authority vested in them by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board acting pursuant to Secs. 4 (a), 4 (k) of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 129, 132, as amended by Section 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934, 48 Stat. 647; 12 U.S.C. 1463 (a), (k))

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

[T. D. 4917]

INCOME TAX

REGULATIONS RELATING TO RETURNS OF INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO FOREIGN CORPORATIONS *†

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

§ 20D.0 Introductory. (a) Section 3604 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat., Part 1), approved February 10, 1939, provides:

§ 3604 Returns as to formation, etc., of foreign corporations—(a) Requirement. Under regulations prescribed by the Commis-

*Section 20D.0 to Section 20D.6 issued under the authority contained in section 3604 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 404 of the Revenue Act of 1939 (Public No. 155, Seventy-sixth Congress, first session), and in section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat., Part 1)

†The source of section 20D.0 to section 20D.6 is Treasury Decision 4917, approved August 7, 1939.

sioner with the approval of the Secretary, any attorney, accountant, fiduciary, bank, trust company, financial institution, or other person, who aids, assists, counsels, or advises in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of any foreign corporation, shall, within 30 days thereafter, file with the Commissioner a return.

(b) Form and contents of return. Such return shall be in such form, and shall set forth, under oath, in respect of each such corporation, to the full extent of the information within the possession or knowledge or under the control of the person required to file the return, such information as the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary prescribes by regulations as necessary for carrying out the provisions of the income tax laws. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the divulging of privileged communications between attorney and client.

(c) Penalty. Any person required under subsection (a) to file a return, or to supply any information, who willfully fails to file such return, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in lieu of other penalties provided by law for such offense, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $2,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

(b) Section 404 of the Revenue Act of 1939 (Public No. 155, Seventy-sixth Congress, first session), provides:

SEC. 404. RETURNS BY ATTORNEYS AS TO FOREIGN CORPORATIONS. Effective as of the date of the enactment of the Internal Revenue Code, section 3604 of such Code is amended by striking out "Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the divulging of privileged communications between attorney and client." and inserting in lieu thereof "Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the filing by an attorney-at-law of a return with respect to any advice given or information obtained through the relationship of attorney and client."

(c) Section 3632 of the Internal Revenue Code provides:

§ 3632. Authority to administer oaths, take testimony, and certify—(a) Internal revenue personnel—(1) Persons in charge of administration of Internal Revenue laws generally. Every collector, deputy collector, internal revenue agent, and internal revenue officer assigned to duty under an internal revenue agent, is authorized to administer oaths and to take evidence touching any part of the administration of the internal revenue laws with which he is charged, or where such oaths and evidence are authorized by law or regulation authorized by law to be taken.

(2) Persons in charge of exports and drawbacks. Every collector of internal revenue and every superintendent of ports and drawbacks is authorized to administer such oaths and to certify to such papers as may be necessary under any regulation prescribed under the authority of the internal revenue laws.

(b) Others. Any oath or affirmation required or authorized by any internal revenue law or by any regulations made under authority thereof may be administered by any person authorized to administer oaths for general purposes by the law of the United States, or of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, wherein such oath or affirmation is administered, or by any consular officer of the United States. This subsection shall not be construed as an exclusive enumeration of the persons who may administer such oaths or affirmations.

(d) Section 3797 of the Internal Revenue Code provides in part:

§ 3797 Definitions. (a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—

(1) Person. The term "person" shall be construed to mean and include an individual, a trust, estate, partnership, company, or corporation.

* * * * *

(4) Domestic. The term "domestic" when applied to a corporation or a partnership means created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State or Territory.

(5) Foreign. The term "foreign" when applied to a corporation or partnership means a corporation or partnership which is not domestic.

(6) Fiduciary. The term "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person.

* * * * *

(11) Secretary. The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Treasury.

(12) Commissioner. The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(e) Section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code provides in part as follows:

§ 3791 Rules and regulations—(a) Authorization. (1) In general. * * * the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this title.

(2) In case of change in law. The Commissioner may make all such regulations, not otherwise provided for, as may have become necessary by reason of any alteration of law in relation to internal revenue.

(b) Retroactivity of regulations or rulings. The Secretary, or the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe the extent, if any, to which any ruling, regulation, or Treasury Decision, relating to the internal revenue laws, shall be applied without retroactive effect.

Pursuant to the authority contained in the above-quoted provisions of law, the following regulations are prescribed with respect to returns of information to be filed by attorneys, accountants, fiduciaries, banks, trust companies, financial institutions, or other persons as to the formation, organization, or reorganization of foreign corporations, all references to sections being to sections of the Internal Revenue Code, or such Code as amended, except as otherwise indicated:*†

§ 20D.1 Information returns—(a) General. Any attorney (except as hereinafter provided in (b) (4) of this section), accountant, fiduciary, bank, trust company, financial institution, or other person, who aids, assists, counsels, or advises in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of any foreign corporation shall file with the Commissioner, within 30 days after giving such aid, assistance, counsel, or advice, an information return as provided in section 3604 (a) and these regulations. The return must be filed in every such case (1) regardless of the nature of the counsel or advice given, whether for or against the formation, organization, or reorganization of the foreign corporation, or the nature of the aid or assistance rendered and (2) regardless of the action taken upon the advice or counsel, that is, whether the foreign corporation is actually formed, organized, or reorganized.

If, in a particular case, the aid, assistance, counsel or advice given by any person extends over a period of more than one day and not for more than 30 days, such person, to avoid the multiple filing of returns, may file a single return for the entire period. In such case, the return shall be filed within 30 days from the first day of such period. If, in a particular case, the aid, assistance, counsel, or advice given by any person extends over a period of more than 30 days, such person may file a return at the end of each 30 days included within such period and at the end of the fractional part of a 30 day period, if any, extending beyond the last full 30 days. In each such case, the return must disclose all the required information which was not reported on a prior return.

(b) Special provisions—(1) Employers. In the case of aid, assistance, counsel, or advice in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a foreign corporation given by a person in whole or in part through the medium of subordinates or employees (including in the case of a corporation the officers thereof), the return of the employer must set forth to the full extent all information prescribed by these regulations, including that which, as an incident to such employment, is within the possession or knowledge or under the control of such subordinates or employees.

(2) Employees. The obligation of a subordinate or employee (including in the case of a corporation the officers thereof) to file a return with respect to any aid, assistance, counsel, or advice in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a foreign corporation, given as an incident to his employment, will be satisfied if a complete and accurate return as prescribed by these regulations is duly filed by the employer setting forth all of the information within the possession or knowledge or under the control of such subordinate or employee.

Clerks, stenographers, and other subordinates or employees, rendering aid or assistance solely of a clerical or mechanical character in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a foreign corporation are not required to file returns by reason of such services.

(3) Partners. In the case of aid, assistance, counsel, or advice in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a foreign corporation given by one or more members of a partnership in the course of its business, the obligation of each such individual member to file a return will be satisfied if a complete and accurate return, as prescribed by these regulations, is duly filed by the partnership, executed by all the members of the firm who gave any such aid, assistance, counsel, or advice. If, however, the partnership has been dissolved at the time the return is due, individual returns must be filed by each member of the former partnership who gave any such aid, assistance, counsel, or advice.

(4) Attorneys-at-law. An attorney-at-law is not required to file a return with respect to any advice given or information obtained through the relationship of attorney and client.

(5) Returns jointly made. If two or more persons aid, assist, counsel, or advise in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of a particular foreign corporation, any two or more of such persons may, in lieu of filing several returns, jointly execute and file on return.

(c) Penalties. For criminal penalties for failure to file the returns required by section 3604 (a) and these regulations, see section 3604 (c) quoted in section 20D.0 of these regulations.*†

§ 20D.2 Form of return. The returns under section 20D.1 of these regulations shall be made on Form 959. Such forms may, upon request, be procured from any collector. Each person should carefully prepare his return so as to set forth fully and clearly the information called for therein. Returns which have not been so prepared will not be accepted as meeting the requirements of the Code.*†

§ 20D.3 Contents of returns. The return shall, in accordance with the provisions of these regulations and the instructions on the form, set forth the following information to the full extent such information is within the knowledge or possession or under the control of the person required to file the return:

(1) The name and the address of the person (or persons) to whom and the person (or persons) for whom or on whose behalf the aid, assistance, counsel, or advice was given;

(2) A complete statement of the aid, assistance, counsel, or advice given;

(3) Name and address of the foreign corporation and the country under the laws of which it was formed, organized, or reorganized;

(4) The month and year when the foreign corporation was formed, organized, or reorganized;

(5) A statement of how the formation, organization, or reorganization of the foreign corporation was effected;

(6) A complete statement of the reasons for, and the purposes sought to be accomplished by, the formation, organization, or reorganization of the foreign corporation;

(7) A statement showing the classes and kinds of assets transferred to the foreign corporation in connection with its formation, organization, or reorganization, including a detailed list of any stock or securities included in such assets, and a statement showing the names and addresses of the persons who were the owners of such assets immediately prior to the transfer;

(8) The names and addresses of the shareholders of the foreign corporation at the time of the completion of its formation, organization, or reorganization, showing the classes of stock and number of shares held by each;

(9) The name and address of the person (or persons) having custody of the books of account and records of the foreign corporation; and

(10) Such other information as may be required by the return form.

If a person aids, assists, counsels, or advises in, or with respect to, the formation, organization, or reorganization of more than one foreign corporation, a separate return must be filed with respect to each foreign corporation.*†

§ 20D.4 Verification of return. All returns required by section 3604 (a) and these regulations shall be verified under oath or affirmation. The oath or affirmation may be administered by a person authorized to administer oaths for general purposes by the law of the United States, or of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, wherein such oath or affirmation is administered, or by a consular officer of the United States. Such returns executed abroad may be attested free of charge before United States consular officers. If a foreign notary or other official having no seal shall act as attesting officer, the authority of such attesting officer shall be certified to by some judicial official or other proper officer having knowledge of the appointment and official character of the attesting officer.*†

§ 20D.5 Place of filing returns. Returns required by section 3604 (a) and these regulations shall be filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., attention of the Income Tax Unit, Records Division.*†

§ 20D.6 Effective date. These regulations, with the exception of paragraph (4) of section 20D.1 (b) of these regulations relating to returns of attorneys-at-law, shall take effect upon the date approved; paragraph (4) of section 20D.1 (b) of these regulations shall take effect as of February 10, 1939. These regulations supersede the provisions of Treasury Decision 4816, approved June 20, 1938 (Part 10, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations), as made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885 approved February 11, 1939 (Part 465, Subpart B, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations).*†

INCOME TAX

REGULATIONS RELATIVE TO ELECTION BY TAXPAYERS TO INCLUDE IN GROSS INCOME FOR THE TAXABLE YEAR IN WHICH RECEIVED AMOUNTS RECEIVED AS LOANS FROM THE COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION*†

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

§ 20C.0 Introductory. Section 223 of Title II (Income Tax Amendments) of the Revenue Act of 1939, enacted June 29, 1939 (Public, No. 155, Seventy-sixth Congress, first session), provides:

SEC. 223. COMMODITY CREDIT LOANS. (a) The Internal Revenue Code is amended by inserting after section 121 the following new section:

"SEC. 123. COMMODITY CREDIT LOANS. (a) Amounts received as loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation shall, at the election of the taxpayer, be considered as income and shall be included in gross income for the taxable year in which received.

"(b) If a taxpayer exercises the election provided for in subsection (a) for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938, then the method of computing income so adopted shall be adhered to with respect to all subsequent taxable years unless with the approval of the Commissioner a change to a different method is authorized."

(b) ADJUSTMENT OF BASIS. Section 113 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code is amended by adding at the end thereof a new subparagraph reading as follows:

"(G) in the case of property pledged to the Commodity Credit Corporation, to the extent of the amount received as a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation and treated by the taxpayer as income for the year in which received pursuant to section 123 of this chapter, and to the extent of any deficiency on such loan with respect to which the taxpayer has been relieved from liability."

(c) The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938.

(d) RETROACTIVE APPLICATION. The provisions of subsection (a) shall be retroactively applied in computing income for any taxable year subject to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1934, the Revenue Act of 1936, or the Revenue Act of 1938, or any of such Acts as amended, if—

(1) The taxpayer elects in writing (in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary) within one year from the date of the enactment of this Act to treat such loans as income for such year, and

(2) The records of the taxpayer are sufficient to permit an accurate computation of income for such year, and

(3) The taxpayer consents in writing to the assessment, within such period as may be agreed upon, of any deficiency for such year, even though the statutory period for the assessment of any such deficiency had expired prior to the filing of such consent.

Any tax overpaid for any such year shall be credited or refunded, subject to the statu-

*Sections 20C.0 to 20C.3 issued under the authority contained in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. Part 1) and interpret section 123 of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by section 223 of the Revenue Act of 1939 (Public, No. 155, Seventy-sixth Congress, first session).

†The source of sections 20C.0 to 20C.3 is Treasury Decision 4918, approved August 7, 1939.

tory period of limitation properly applicable thereto.

(e) Adjustment of Basis for Prior Years.—In computing income for any taxable year subject to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1934, the Revenue Act of 1936, or the Revenue Act of 1938, or any of such Acts as amended, the basis, for determining gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of any property, pledged to the Commodity Credit Corporation as security on a loan obtained therefrom, shall be adjusted for the amount of such loan to the extent it was considered as income and included in gross income for the year in which received, and for the amount of any deficiency on such loan with respect to which the taxpayer was relieved from liability.

Section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code provides:

§ 62 Rules and regulations. The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this chapter.

Pursuant to the above-quoted provisions and other provisions of the internal revenue laws, the following regulations are hereby prescribed with respect to the application of section 123 of the Internal Revenue Code as added by section 223 of the Revenue Act of 1939:*†

§ 20C.1 Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938. A taxpayer who receives a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation within any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938, may, at his election, include the amount of such loan in his gross income for the taxable year in which the loan is received. If a taxpayer makes such an election, then for subsequent taxable years he shall include in his gross income all amounts received during those years as loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation, unless he secures the approval of the Commissioner to change to a different method of accounting. Application for permission to change such method of accounting and the basis upon which the return is made shall be filed within 90 days after the beginning of the taxable year to be covered by the return.*†

§ 20C.2 Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1933, and before January 1, 1939. A taxpayer who has received a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation within any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1933, and before January 1, 1939, may include the amount of such loan in his gross income for the taxable year in which the loan was received if he complies with the following conditions:

(1) Elects to include such loan in gross income by filing an amended return on or before June 29, 1940, including therein such item as a part of gross income;

(2) Has kept sufficient records so as to permit an accurate computation of income for such year; and

(3) Files with the amended return Form 872 consenting therein to the assessment, within such period as may be agreed upon, of any deficiency for such year.*†

§ 20C.3 Effect of election on adjustments for other taxable years. If a taxpayer elects under section 20C.1 or 20C.2 of these regulations to include in his gross income the amount of a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation for the taxable year in which it is received, then—

(1) no part of the amount realized by the Commodity Credit Corporation upon the sale or other disposition of the commodity pledged for such loan shall be recognized as income to the taxpayer, unless the taxpayer receives an amount in addition to that advanced to him as the loan, in which event such additional amount shall be included in the gross income of the taxpayer for the year in which received; and

(2) no deductible loss to the taxpayer shall be recognized on account of any deficiency realized by the Commodity Credit Corporation on such loan if the taxpayer was relieved from liability for such deficiency.

Example. A, a taxpayer who elected for his taxable years 1937, 1938, and 1939 to include in gross income amounts received during those years as loans from the Commodity Credit Corporation, received as loans $500 in 1938, $700 in 1938, and $900 in 1939. In 1940 all the pledged commodity was sold by the Commodity Credit Corporation for an amount $100 and $200 less than the loans with respect to the commodity pledged in 1937 and 1938, respectively, and for an amount $150 greater than the loan with respect to the commodity pledged in 1939. A, in making his return for 1940, shall include in gross income the sum of $150 if it is received during that year, but will not be allowed a deduction for the deficiencies of $100 and $200 unless he is required to satisfy such deficiencies and does satisfy them during that year.*†

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION

[General Order No. 15—Supplement No. 3d]

MINIMUM MANNING SCALES FOR THE M. S. "DONALD MCKAY," M. S. "MORMACHAWK," M. S. "MORMACWREN," M. S. "MORMACDOVE," M. S. "MORMACGULF" AND M. S. "MORMACLARK," SUBSIDIZED VESSELS OF MOORE-MCCORMACK LINES, INC., AMERICAN SCANTIC LINE SERVICE

At a regular session of the United States Maritime Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of August 1939.

The Commission having adopted, pursuant to Section 301 (a) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, General Order No. 15[1] providing for minimum wage scales, minimum manning scales, and reasonable working conditions for all subsidized vessels, and now desiring to complete the minimum manning scales for the M. S. Donald McKay, M. S. Mormachawk, M. S. Mormacwren, M. S. Mormacdove, M. S. Mormacgulf and M. S. Mormaclark, subsidized vessels of the Moore-McCormack Lines, Inc., American Scantic Line Service (referred to herein as Operator); and

The Commission finding that the minimum scales hereinafter adopted for the above named subsidized vessels of the Operator are reasonable, proper and lawful, such finding being based upon investigations referred to in General Order No. 15 and investigations of the Commission made thereafter; it is, therefore

Ordered, That the minimum manning scales attached hereto for the M. S. Donald McKay, M. S. Mormachawk, M. S. Mormacwren, M. S. Mormacdove, M. S. Mormacgulf and M. S. Mormaclark, subsidized vessels of the Operator, be and the same hereby are adopted: Provided, That under extraordinary circumstances such as casualty or desertion, where it is impossible to procure sufficient officers or unlicensed seamen of any required grade or rating to permit the sailing of any of said vessels without undue delay, the said scales shall be inoperative to the extent required by such emergency, and the Operator shall forthwith report to the Commission any departure from said scales, stating in such report the extent of the departure and showing to the satisfaction of the Commission that sufficient reasons for such departure existed; and it is further

Ordered, That the minimum manning scales hereby adopted shall not relieve said Operator from complying with the manning requirements of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation and shall be without prejudice to the carrying of seamen in addition to those required hereby; and it is further

Ordered, That the minimum manning scales hereby adopted shall become effective for each of said vessels upon the first signing after September 1, 1939 of shipping articles for a subsidized voyage of said vessel, unless otherwise specified in the scales, and that the Operator be immediately served by registered mail with a copy of this Order and of the minimum manning scales hereby adopted.

By order of the United States Maritime Commission.

Food and Drug Administration.

[Docket No. FDC-10]

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS FOR PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE ON BASIS OF WHICH REGULATIONS MAY BE PROMULGATED FIXING AND ESTABLISHING A DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR EACH OF THE (A) FRUIT PRESERVE (FRUIT JAM) FOODS; (B) FRUIT JELLY FOODS, AND (C) FRUIT BUTTER FOODS HEREINAFTER IDENTIFIED

Pursuant to the provisions of subsection (e) of Section 701 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act [Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1058; 21 U.S.C. 371 (e)], notice is hereby given to all interested persons that public hearings will be held in Room 1039, in the South Building of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets, Southwest, Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of September, 1939, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, for the purpose of receiving evidence in respect of the proposed definitions and standards of identity subjoined to this notice and hereby made a part hereof, upon the basis of which, in pursuance of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture as provided in Section 401 of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (Sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046; 21 U.S.C. 341), regulations may be promulgated fixing and establishing a reasonable definition and standard of identity for each of the following foods, namely:

A. Each fruit preserve (fruit jam), as more fully identified in Sec. 29.000 of the proposals subjoined to this notice and hereby made a part hereof;

B. Each fruit jelly, as more fully identified in Sec. 29.500 of the proposals subjoined to this notice and hereby made a part hereof; and

C. Each fruit butter, as more fully identified in Sec. 30.000 of the proposals subjoined to this notice and hereby made a part hereof.

All interested persons are invited to attend these hearings and to offer relevant and material evidence either in person or through a duly authorized representative. Affidavits in quintuplicate may be offered in lieu of oral testimony either at the time of the hearings or by sendng them to M. F. Markel, Room 2317, South Building, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets, Southwest, Washington, D. C., in sufficient time so as to be in his office on or before the date of the hearings above stated. Such affidavits, if relevant and material, or any relevant or material portion thereof, may be received and considered as evidence in the particular hearing to which they are addressed, but the lack of an opportunity for cross-examination will be considered in determining the weight that shall be given to such affidavits, or portions thereof, as evidence.

Each of the proposed definitions and standards of identity subjoined to this notice and hereby made a part hereof, is subject to adoption, rejection, amendment or modification by the Secretary, in whole or in part, as the evidence presented at each hearing may require.

Each hearing will be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for hearings held under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of Friday, January 13, 1939, at pages 223 to 225.

Mr. M. F. Markel is hereby designated as the Presiding Officer who shall conduct each of the foregoing hearings in the place and stead of the Secretary, with power to administer oaths, and to do all things necessary and appropriate to the proper conduct of such hearings.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Dated, August 5, 1939.

§ 29.000 Fruit preserve, fruit jam—Identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "fruit" includes the vegetables named in subsection (b).

(2) Any requirement with respect to weight of fruit means—

(i) The weight of such fruit exclusive of the weight of any sugar, water, or other substance added during any process of packing or canning, or otherwise added to such fruit;

(ii) In the case of fruit prepared by the removal, in whole or in part, of pits, seeds, skins, cores, or any combination thereof, the weight of such fruit exclusive of the weight of pits, seeds, skins and cores removed therefrom; and

(iii) In the cases of apricot, cherry, grape, nectarine, peach, and damson, greengage or other plum, irrespective of whether pits or seeds are removed wholly or in part therefrom, the weight of such fruit exclusive of the weight of its pits or seeds.

(3) Any requirement with respect to the weight of partly inverted sugar sirup, honey, or corn sirup means the weight of the total solids content of such sugar sirup, honey, or corn sirup.

(4) The term "soluble solids" means the soluble solids content of a preserve or jam as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fourth Edition, page 320, under "Soluble Solids in Fresh and Canned Fruits, Jams, Marmalades and Preserves—Tentative," except that no correction is to be made for water-insoluble solids.

(b) A preserve or jam for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is the food prepared from one or a mixture of two or more of the following mature and properly prepared, fresh, frozen or canned fruits:

Apple.
Apricot.
Blackberry.
Black Currant.
Black Raspberry.
Blueberry.
Boysenberry.
Cherry.
Crabapple.
Cranberry.
Currant (or Red Currant).
Damson (or Damson Plum).
Dewberry.
Elderberry.
Fig.
Gooseberry.
Grape.
Grapefruit.
Greengage (or Greengage Plum).
Guava.
Huckleberry.
Loganberry.
Nectarine.
Orange.
Peach.
Pear.
Pineapple.
Plum (other than Damson or Greengage).
Quince.
Raspberry (or Red Raspberry).
Rhubarb.
Strawberry.
Tangerine.
Tomato.
Yellow Tomato.
Youngberry.

Each fruit in any such mixture of two or more fruits is an optional ingredient. Such fruit or mixture of fruits, with or without added water, is combined and cooked with one of the following optional sweetening ingredients:

(1) Sugar;
(2) Partly inverted sugar sirup, the solids of which contain not more than 0.05 percent by weight of ash;
(3) Honey;
(4) Corn sirup (glucose);
(5) A mixture of sugar and dextrose;
(6) A mixture of sugar and honey; or
(7) A mixture of sugar and corn sirup.

To such fruit or mixture of fruits and such sweetening ingredient may be added one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(8) Spice;
(9) A vinegar, lemon juice, lime juice, citric acid, lactic acid, malic acid or tartaric acid;
(10) Pectin; and
(11) Sodium citrate or sodium potassium tartrate, or both.

Such preserve or jam, when sealed in a container, is so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage.

(c) The composition of such preserve or jam is as follows:

(1) If it is prepared from black currant, cranberry, currant, damson plum, gooseberry, or quince, or a mixture of two or more of such fruits, the finished preserve or jam contains not less than 64 percent of soluble solids.

(2) If it is prepared from one or more of the fruits named in paragraph (1) of this subsection and one or more of the other fruits named in subsection (b), the finished preserve or jam contains not less than 66 percent of soluble solids.

(3) If it is prepared from apple, apricot, fig, nectarine, peach, pear, plum (other than damson), or guava, or a mixture of two or more of such fruits, the finished preserve or jam contains not less than 66 percent of soluble solids.

(4) If it is not subject to the provisions of paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) of this subsection, the finished preserve or jam contains not less than 68 percent of soluble solids.

(5) If it is prepared from a mixture of two fruits, the weight of each such fruit is not less than two-fifths the total weight of such mixture.

(6) If it is prepared from a mixture of three fruits, the weight of each such fruit is not less than one-fourth the total weight of such mixture.

(7) If it is prepared from a mixture of four or more fruits, the weight of no such fruit is more than thrice the weight of any other such fruit.

(8) It is prepared from not less than 45 parts by weight of fruit or mixture of fruits to each 55 parts by weight of the optional sweetening ingredient.

(9) If it is prepared with optional sweetening ingredient (5), the weight of sugar is not less than one-half the weight of such ingredient.

(10) If it is prepared with optional sweetening ingredient (6), the weight of honey is not less than two-fifths the weight of such ingredient.

(11) If it is prepared with optional sweetening ingredient (7), the weight of sugar is not less than two-fifths the weight of such ingredient.

(12) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (9) or (10), such ingredient is present only in such quantity as is sufficient to compensate for deficiency of natural acid or pectin, as the case may be, in the fruit ingredient.

(13) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (11), such ingredient is present in a total quantity of not more than three ounces to each 100 pounds of sweetening ingredient.

(d) The name of each preserve or jam for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is as follows:

(1) If it is prepared from a single fruit, the name is that whereby such fruit is designated in subsection (b), preceded or followed by the word "preserve" or "jam".

(2) If it is prepared from a mixture of two or three fruits, the name is the combination of the names whereby each such fruit is designated in subsection (b), in the order of the predominance by weight of each such fruit, preceded or followed by the word "preserve" or "jam", as, for example, "Apple, Grape and Raspberry Preserve" or "Jam Apple, Grape and Raspberry."

(3) If it is prepared from a mixture of four or more fruits, the name is "Mixed Fruit Preserve" or "Mixed Fruit Jam."

(e) If the preserve or jam is prepared from a mixture of two or more fruits, the label shall bear the name of each such fruit; such name shall be those by which such fruits are designated in subsection (b). If optional sweetening ingredient (3) or (4) is present, the label shall bear the word or words "Honey" or "Prepared With Honey", or "Corn Sirup" or "Glucose" or "Prepared With Corn Sirup" or "Prepared With Glucose", as the case may be. If optional sweetening ingredient (6) is present and the weight of honey equals or exceeds that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Honey and Sugar" or "Prepared With Honey and Sugar"; but if the weight of honey is less than that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Sugar and Honey" or "Prepared With Sugar and Honey". If optional sweetening ingredient (7) is present and the weight of corn sirup equals or exceeds that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Corn Sirup and Sugar" or "Prepared With Corn Sirup and Sugar" or "Glucose and Sugar" or "Prepared With Glucose and Sugar"; but if the weight of the corn sirup is less than that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Sugar and Corn Sirup" or "Sugar and Glucose" or "Prepared With Sugar and Corn Sirup" or "Prepared With Sugar and Glucose". If optional ingredient (8), (9), or (10) is present, the label shall bear the word or words "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", "Vinegar Added" or "With Added Vinegar", "Lemon Juice Added" or "With Added Lemon Juice", "Lime Juice Added" or "With Added Lime Juice", "Citric Acid Added" or "With Added Citric Acid", "Lactic Acid Added" or "With Added Lactic Acid", "Malic Acid Added" or "With Added Malic Acid", "Tartaric Acid Added" or "With Added Tartaric Acid", "Pectin Added" or "With Added Pectin", as the case may be; but, if two or more of such ingredients are present, such words may be combined, as, for example, "Spice, Citric Acid and Pectin Added". In lieu of the word "Spice" in such statements, the common or usual name of the spice may be used. If optional ingredient (11) is present, the label shall bear the words "Trace of Citrate —" (or "Trace of Tartrate —" or "Trace of Citrate and Tartrate —", as the case may be) "Added to Improve Consistency". Wherever the name of the preserve or jam, as specified in subsection (d), appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words showing the optional ingredients present, as specified in this subsection, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the varietal name of the fruit or fruits may so intervene.

§ 29.500 Fruit jelly—Identity: Label statement of optional ingredients. (a) For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "jelly juice" means the filtered or strained liquid contracted by the application of heat, with or without the addition of water, from one of the mature and properly prepared fresh, frozen or canned fruits listed in paragraph (2) of this subsection.

(2) Any requirement with respect to the weight of jelly juice means the weight of the soluble fruit solids contained in such jelly juice, exclusive of any added sugar or other added solids, multiplied by the factor which, in the following list, follows the name of the fruit from which such juice is extracted:

| | Factor |
|---|---|
| Apple | 7.0 |
| Apricot | 7.0 |
| Blackberry | 10.0 |
| Black Raspberry | 9.0 |
| Cherry | 7.0 |
| Crabapple | 6.5 |
| Cranberry | 9.5 |
| Currant (or Red Currant) | 9.5 |
| Damson (or Damson Plum) | 7.0 |
| Dewberry | 10.0 |
| Fig | 5.0 |
| Gooseberry | 12.0 |
| Grape | 7.0 |
| Grapefruit | 11.0 |
| Greengage (or Greengage Plum) | 7.0 |
| Guava | 13.0 |
| Loganberry | 9.5 |
| Orange | 8.0 |
| Peach | 8.5 |
| Pineapple | 7.0 |
| Plum (other than Damson, Greengage, and Prune) | 7.0 |
| Pomegranate | 6.0 |
| Quince | 8.0 |
| Raspberry (or Red Raspberry) | 9.5 |
| Strawberry | 12.5 |
| Youngberry | 10.0 |

(3) The term "soluble solids" means the soluble solids content as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, page 464, under "By means of a refractometer—Official".

(4) The soluble fruit solids of a jelly juice is determined as follows:

Determine the precent of soluble solids in the jelly juice, multiply the percent found by the weight of the jelly juice, and divide by 100. The quotient, corrected by subtracting the weight of any added sugar or other added solids present, shall be considered to be the weight of soluble fruit solids.

(5) Any requirement with respect to the weight of partly inverted sugar sirup, honey, or corn sirup, means the weight of the total solids content of such sugar sirup, honey, or corn sirup.

(b) A jelly for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is the jelled food prepared from one or a mixture of two or more jelly juices as defined in subsection (a) (1). Each jelly juice in any mixture of two or more jelly juices is an optional ingredient. Such jelly juice or mixture of jelly juices is combined and cooked with one of the following optional sweetening ingredients:

(1) Sugar;
(2) Partly inverted sugar sirup, the solids of which contain not more than 0.05 percent by weight of ash;
(3) Honey;
(4) Corn sirup (glucose);
(5) A mixture of sugar and dextrose;
(6) A mixture of sugar and honey; or
(7) A mixture of sugar and corn sirup.

To such jelly juice or mixture of jelly juices and sweetening ingredient may be added one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(8) Spice;
(9) Mint flavoring and artificial green coloring, in the cases of apple jelly juice, crabapple jelly juice, pineapple jelly juice, or any mixture of two or all of such jelly juices;
(10) Lemon juice, lime juice, citric acid, lactic acid, malic acid or tartaric acid;
(11) Pectin; and
(12) Sodium citrate or sodium potassium tartrate, or both.

so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage.

(c) The composition of such jelly is as follows:

(1) The finished jelly contains not less than 65 percent of soluble solids.

(2) If it is prepared from a mixture of the jelly juices of two fruits, the weight of each of such juices is not less than two-fifths the total weight of such mixture.

(3) If it is prepared from a mixture of the jelly juices of three fruits, the weight of each of such juices is not less than one-fourth the total weight of such mixture.

(4) If it is prepared from a mixture of the jelly juices of four or more fruits, the weight of no such juice is more than thrice the weight of any other such juice.

(5) It is prepared from not less than — parts (to be fixed within the range of 45 parts to 50 parts) by weight of jelly juice to each — parts (to be fixed within the range of 50 parts to 55 parts) by weight of sweetening ingredient.

(6) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (5), the weight of sugar is not less than one-half the total weight of such ingredient.

(7) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (6), the weight of honey is not less than two-fifths of the total weight of such ingredient.

(8) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (7), the weight of sugar is not less than two-fifths the total weight of such ingredient.

(9) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (10) or (11), such ingredient is present only in such quantity as compensates for deficiency of natural acid or pectin, as the case may be, in the jelly juice.

(10) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (12), such ingredient is present in a total quantity of not more than 3 ounces to each 100 pounds of sweetening ingredient.

(d) The name of each jelly for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is as follows:

(1) If it is prepared from the jelly juice of a single fruit, the name is that whereby such fruit is designated in subsection (a) (2), preceded or followed by the word "jelly".

(2) If it is prepared from a mixture of the jelly juices of two or three fruits, the name is the combination of the names whereby each such fruit is designated in subsection (a) (2), in the order of the predominance by weight of each such jelly juice, preceded or followed by the word "jelly", as, for example, "Apple, Grape, and Raspberry Jelly".

(3) If it is prepared from a mixture of the jelly juices of four or more fruits, the name is "Mixed Fruit Jelly".

(e) If the jelly is prepared from a mixture of the jelly juices of two or more fruits, the label shall bear the name of each such fruit; and such names shall be those by which such fruits are designated in subsection (a) (2). If optional sweetening ingredient (3) or (4) is present, the label shall bear the word or words "Honey" or "Prepared With Honey", or "Corn Sirup" or "Glucose" or "Prepared With Corn Sirup" or "Prepared With Glucose", as the case may be. If optional sweetening ingredient (6) is present, and the weight of honey equals or exceeds that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Honey and Sugar" or "Prepared With Honey and Sugar"; but if the weight of honey is less than that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Sugar and Honey" or "Prepared With Honey and Sugar". If optional sweetening ingredient (7) is present, and the weight of corn sirup equals or exceeds that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Corn Sirup and Sugar" or "Prepared With Corn Sirup and Sugar" or "Glucose and Sugar" or "Prepared With Glucose and Sugar"; but if the weight of the corn sirup is less than that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Sugar and Corn Sirup" or "Prepared With Sugar and Corn Sirup" or "Sugar and Glucose" or "Prepared With Sugar and Glucose". If optional ingredient (8), (9), or (10) is present, the label shall bear the word or words "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", "Flavoring and Artificial Coloring Added" or "With Added Flavoring and Artificial Coloring", "Lemon Juice Added" or "With Added Lemon Juice", "Lime Juice Added" or "With Added Lime Juice", "Citric Acid Added" or "With Added Citric Acid", "Lactic Acid Added" or "With Added Lactic Acid", "Malic Acid Added" or "With Added Malic Acid", "Tartaric Acid Added" or "With Added Tartaric Acid", "Pectin Added" or "With Added Pectin", as the case may be; but, if two or more of such ingredients are present, such words may be combined, as for example, "Spice, Citric Acid and Pectin Added". In lieu of the word "Spice" in such statements, the label may bear the common or usual name of the spice. If optional ingredient (11) is present, the label shall bear the words "Trace of Citrate —" (or "Trace of Tartrate —" or "Trace of Citrate and Tartrate —", as the case may be) "Added to Improve Consistency". Wherever the name of the jelly, as specified in subsection (d), appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words showing the optional ingredients present, as specified in this subsection, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the varietal name of the fruit or fruits from which the jelly juice is extracted may so intervene.

§ 30.000 Fruit butter—Identity; Label statement of optional ingredients. (a) For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "fruit" includes, unless otherwise indicated by the context, the dried fruits named in subsection (b).

(2) Any requirement with respect to the weight of partly inverted sugar sirup, honey, or corn sirup means the total solids content of such sugar sirup, honey, or corn sirup.

(3) The term "soluble solids" means the soluble solids content as determined by the method prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, page 320, under "Soluble Solids in Fresh and Canned Fruits, Jams, Marmalades and Preserves—Tentative", except that no correction is to be made for water-insoluble solids.

(4) Any requirement with respect to the weight of fruit means:

(i) The weight of such fruit exclusive of the weight of any sugar, water, or other substance added during the process of packing or canning, or otherwise added to such fruit, exclusive of the weight of any water added in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (iii) of this subsection;

(ii) The weight of such fruit, exclusive of the weight of pits, seeds, skins, and cores; and

(iii) In the case of a dried fruit other than dried prune, the weight of such fruit with sufficient added water to adjust the moisture content of such fruit to 32 percent; and, in the case of dried prune, the weight of such fruit, after removal of the pits, with sufficient added water to adjust the moisture content to 70 percent.

(5) The weight of concentrated fruit juice is the original weight of such juice before it was concentrated.

(b) A fruit butter for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is the food prepared from one or a mixture of two or more of the following mature and properly prepared fresh, (except in the cases of the dried fruits), frozen, or canned fruits:

Apple.
Apricot.
Dried-Apple (or Evaporated-Apple).
Dried-Apricot.
Dried-Peach.
Dried-Pear.
Dried-Prune.
Grape.
Peach.
Pear.
Plum.
Quince.

Each fruit in any such mixture of two or more fruits is an optional ingredient. Such fruit or mixture of fruits is cooked and strained, and is combined [except as provided in respect of optional ingredient (10)] with one of the following optional sweetening ingredients:

(1) Sugar;
(2) Partly inverted sugar sirup, the solids of which contain not more than 0.05 per cent by weight of ash;
(3) Brown sugar;
(4) Honey;
(5) Corn sirup (glucose);
(6) A mixture of sugar and dextrose;
(7) A mixture of sugar and brown sugar;
(8) A mixture of sugar and honey; or
(9) A mixture of sugar and corn sirup.

To such fruit or mixture of fruits and such sweetening ingredient may be added one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(10) Fruit juice or concentrated fruit juice, in addition to or in complete or partial substitution for the optional sweetening ingredient.
(11) Salt;
(12) Spice;
(13) Flavoring; and
(14) Vinegar, lemon juice, lime juice, citric acid, lactic acid, malic acid, or tartaric acid.

When sealed in a container the fruit butter is so processed by heat, before or after sealing, as to prevent spoilage.

(c) The composition of such fruit butter is as follows:

(1) The finished fruit butter contains not less than — percent (to be fixed within the range of 43 percent to 50 percent) of soluble solids.

(2) If it is prepared from a mixture of two fruits, the weight of each such fruit is not less than two-fifths of the total weight of such mixture.

(3) If it is prepared from a mixture of three fruits, the weight of each such fruit is not less than one-fourth of the total weight of such mixture.

(4) If it is prepared from a mixture of four or more fruits, the weight of no such fruit is more than thrice the weight of any other such fruit.

(5) It is prepared from not less than 50 parts by weight of fruit to each — parts (to be fixed within the range of 20 parts to 25 parts) by weight of sweetening ingredient.

(6) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (6), the weight of sugar is not less than one-half the total weight of such ingredient.

(7) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (7), the weight of brown sugar is not less than two-fifths the total weight of such ingredient.

(8) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (8), the weight of honey is not less than two-fifths the total weight of such ingredient.

(9) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (9), the weight of sugar is not less than two-fifths the total weight of such ingredient.

(10) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (10), the weight of fruit juice or concentrated fruit juice is not less than one-half the total weight of fruit used in preparing the fruit butter.

(11) If it is prepared with optional ingredient (14), such ingredient is present only in such quantity as is sufficient to compensate for deficiency of natural acid in the fruit.

(d) The name of each fruit butter for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is as follows:

(1) If it is prepared from a single fruit, the name is that whereby such fruit is designated in subsection (b), followed by the word "butter".

(2) If it is prepared from a mixture of two or three fruits, the name is a combination of the names whereby each such fruit is designated in subsection (b), in the order of their predominance by weight, followed by the word "butter", as, for example, "Dried-Apple, Dried-Apricot and Dried-Prune Butter".

(3) If it is prepared from a mixture of four or more fruits, none of which is a dried fruit, the name is "Mixed Fruit Butter"; or if such fruit is a dried fruit, the name is "Mixed Dried-Fruit Butter"; or if one-half or more of the weight of such mixture is a dried fruit, the name is "Dried Fruit and Fruit Butter"; or if less than one-half of such mixture is a dried fruit, the name is "Fruit and Dried-Fruit Butter".

(e) If the fruit butter is prepared from a mixture of two or more fruits, the label shall bear the name of each such fruit; such names shall be the names whereby such fruits are designated in subsection (b). If optional sweetening ingredients (4) or (5) is present, the label shall bear the word or words "Honey" or "Prepared With Honey", or "Corn Sirup" or "Glucose" or "Prepared With Corn Sirup" or "Prepared With Glucose", as the case may be. If optional sweetening ingredient (8) is present, and the weight of honey equals or exceeds that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Honey and Sugar" or "Prepared With Honey and Sugar"; but if the weight of honey is less than that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Sugar and Honey" or "Prepared With Sugar and Honey". If optional sweetening ingredient (9) is present and the weight of corn sirup equals or exceeds that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Corn Sirup and Sugar" or "Prepared With Corn Sirup and Sugar" or "Glucose and Sugar" or "Prepared With Glucose and Sugar"; but if the weight of corn sirup is less than that of the sugar, the label shall bear the words "Sugar and Corn Sirup" or "Prepared With Sugar and Corn Sirup" or "Sugar and Glucose" or "Prepared With Sugar and Glucose". If optional ingredient (10) is present, the label shall bear the words "Prepared With — Juice", the blank to be filled in with the name of the fruit from which such ingredient is extracted; but, in lieu of the words "Apple Juice", the label may bear the word "Cider". If optional ingredient (12), (13), or (14) is present, the label shall bear the word or words "Spiced" or "Spice Added" or "With Added Spice", "Flavoring Added" or "With Added Flavoring", "Vinegar Added" or "With Added Vinegar", "Lemon Juice Added" or "With Added Lemon Juice", "Lime Juice Added" or "With Added Lime Juice", "Citric Acid Added" or "With Added Citric Acid", "Lactic Acid Added" or "With Added Lactic Acid", "Malic Acid Added" or "With Added Malic Acid", "Tartaric Acid Added" or "With Added Tartaric Acid", as the case may be; but if two or more of such ingredients are present, such words may be combined, as, for example, "Spice and Citric Acid Added". In lieu of the words "Spice" or "Flavoring", the label may bear the common or usual name of the spice or flavoring. Wherever the name of the fruit butter, as specified in subsection (d), appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the words specified in this subsection, showing the optional ingredients present, shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the varietal name of the fruit or fruits may so intervene.

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

[T. D. 4919]

EXPORTATION, FREE OF TAX, OF FERMENTED MALT LIQUORS TO GUAM AND AMERICAN SAMOA

To District Supervisors and Others Concerned:

Section 408 of the Revenue Act of 1939 (Public No. 155—76th Congress) provides as follows:

Section 3361 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code is amended by adding a comma and the words "Guam, and American Samoa" after the words "Puerto Rico."

Pursuant to authority conferred by Section 3791 (a) (1), Internal Revenue Code, Paragraph 30 of Article XXVII, Regulations 18, approved October 25, 1934, is hereby amended to read as follows:

PAR. 30. Fermented malt liquors may be removed from the place of manufacture or storage for export to a foreign country without the payment of tax. Shipments to the Panama Canal Zone have the same status as exportations to foreign countries. The law provides for shipment of fermented malt liquor without the payment of tax to the Philippine Islands, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, and the Virgin Islands. The provisions of these regulations, and the forms prescribed, in respect to the removal of fermented malt liquor, free of tax, for exportation to foreign countries, apply to like removals and shipments to the Philippine Islands, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, and the Panama Canal Zone. Hawaii and Alaska are territories of the United States, and all shipments thereto must be tax-paid before withdrawal from the brewery premises.

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice[1]; no member of the public having appeared or requested an opportunity to be heard; the applicants and declarants having waived a trial examiner's report, the right to have prepared and submitted to them proposed findings of fact or requests for findings of fact, the right to file a brief and the right to oral argument before the Commission; the Commission having examined the record in this matter and having made and filed its findings and opinion herein;

It is ordered, That the declaration of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company pursuant to Section 7 of the Act regarding the issuance and sale of $95,000,000 principal amount First Mortgage Bonds, 3½% Series due 1969, $28,500,000 principal amount 4½% Debentures due 1974 and $8,500,000 face amount 2⅝% Serial Notes due 1940-1949, be and become effective forthwith; and that its application, as amended, filed pursuant to Rule U-12C-1, for approval of the acquisition from Lehigh Power Securities Corporation of $19,000,000 principal amount First Mortgage Gold Bonds, 4½% Series due 1981, of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, at 93% of the principal amount thereof be and it hereby is approved;

It is ordered, That the application of Lehigh Power Securities Corporation under Rule U-12C-1 for the approval of the acquisition and retirement by it pursuant to a plan of liquidation of all of its outstanding $6 preferred stock and common stock shall be and it hereby is approved; and its applications, as amended, filed under Rules U-12D-1 and U-12F-1, for the approval of the sale of $19,000,000 principal amount First Mortgage Gold Bonds, 4½% Series due 1981, of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, at 93% of the principal amount thereof and for the sale of $10,000,000 principal amount of 6% Gold Debentures, Series A due 1950, of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, at the principal amount thereof and for the transfer of its other assets, including securities, to National Power & Light Company be and they hereby are, approved;

It is ordered, That the applications, as amended, of National Power & Light Company filed pursuant to Rules U-12D-1 and U-12F-1 for approval of the surrender by it for cancellation, pursuant to the aforementioned plan for the liquidation of Lehigh Power Securities Corportion, of all of the shares of $6 preferred stock and common stock of Lehigh Power Securities Corporation owned by National Power & Light Company shall be and they hereby are approved; and its declaration, as amended, pursuant to Section 7, regarding the assumption of liability on certain Lancaster County Railway and Light Company bonds be and become effective forthwith;

And it is further ordered, That in connection with the issuance of securities and the other transactions herein approved, the following terms and conditions are severally imposed upon Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, National Power & Light Company and Lehigh Power Securities Corporation insofar as they may be applicable to any of them:

(1) That the various steps involved in the several applications and declarations shall be carried out and effected, respectively in accordance with the terms and conditions of and for the purposes represented by said applications and declarations, as amended;

[1] 4 F.R. 3436 DI.

(2) That within ten days after the issue and sale of the securities and within ten days after the transfer of assets involved in these transactions, the applicants and declarants shall file with this Commission a certificate of notification showing that the issue and sale of said securities and the transfer of said assets have been effected in accordance with the terms and conditions of and for the purposes represented by said applications and declarations, as amended, and in accordance with the terms of this order;

(3) That except as the Commission may by order, or orders, from time to time, permit, so long as any of the First Mortgage Bonds, 3½% Series due 1969 and 4½% Debentures due 1974, are outstanding, Pennsylvania Power & Light Company shall not, nor shall any successor or successors of Pennsylvania, declare or pay any dividends (other than dividends payable solely in shares of stock) or make any other distribution on any shares of its preferred and common stock, nor shall any shares of such stock be purchased, retired, or otherwise acquired, by Pennsylvania (or any successor or successors) unless the amount expended or accrued by Pennsylvania (or any successor or successors) for maintenance and repairs plus provisions for retirements during the period from July 1, 1939, to the date of the proposed payment of such dividend or making of such distribution or acquisition shall equal fifteen per cent of the gross operating revenues of Pennsylvania (or any such successor or successors) during such period, after the deduction therefrom of an amount equal to the cost to Pennsylvania of electric energy or gas purchased and resold, and rentals paid for electric or gas generating, transmission or distributing properties, and water properties, leased by Pennsylvania, and payments by Pennsylvania for the use of similar properties operated and maintained by others during such period; provided, however, that any transfers to the earned surplus of Pennsylvania from the net income since July 1, 1939, over and above all such dividends, distributions and acquisitions may be used as a credit to offset any deficiency in the amount expended or accrued for maintenance and repairs plus provisions for retirements in satisfying the aforementioned fifteen per cent requirement;

(4) That, except as the Commission may by order, or orders, from time to time, permit any surplus of the National Power & Light Company created by the declaration of any dividend by Lehigh Power Securities Corporation after August 1, 1939, as an incident to the liquidation of Lehigh Power Securities Corporation, shall not be used by National for the declaration of dividends on its common stock or preferred stock (except dividends in liquidation) but said surplus shall be available for any other purposes consistent with this Commission's Uniform System of Accounts for Public Utility Holding Companies; and

(5) That the Commission reserve jurisdiction as to the accounting entries to be made on the books of National Power & Light Company regarding the manner in which its accounts shall reflect the acquisition of the assets of Lehigh, subject to undischarged liabilities.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY, AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN ATTORNEYS' FEES AND AUTHORIZING PAYMENT THEREOF[1]

The Commission having, by its Order entered in the above styled proceedings on the 24th day of June, 1939,[2] reserved jurisdiction to determine at a later date, whether the fees to be paid to attorneys retained to represent the Indiana & Michigan Electric Company and the insurance companies and to the First Boston Corporation in connection with the issue and sale of the Indiana & Michigan Electric Company's $22,500,000 principal amount First Mortgage Bonds, 3½% Series due 1969, are or are not reasonable, and having directed that no part of the fees proposed to be paid to such attorneys or to the First Boston Corporation should be paid pending further order of the Commission;

It is ordered, That jurisdiction is hereby released with respect to an amount equal to 60 per cent of the fees proposed to be paid to the following attorneys retained to represent the Indiana & Michigan Electric Company, and that the said amount may be paid as set forth in and for the purposes represented by the application and described in the testimony in these proceedings:

Seebirt, Oare and Deahl, South Bend, Indiana.

Condo, Van Atta and Batton, Marion, Indiana.

Burns and Hadsell, Niles, Michigan.

Butzel, Eaman, Long, Gust and Bills, Detroit, Michigan.

That in all other respects, the said Order of June 24, 1939 shall continue in full force and effect; and that no amount beyond that herein expressly authorized shall be paid on account of any of the proposed fees as to which jurisdiction was reserved, until further order of this Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF LONE STAR GAS CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A declaration pursuant to section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 26, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 22, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to a proposed reduction, effective August 1, 1939, of the present rate of interest of 2⅞% per annum to 2¾% per annum on certain Bank Loan Notes heretofore issued by Lone Star Gas Corporation to The Union Trust Company of Pittsburgh, The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, The Mellon National Bank of Pittsburgh, and The Farmers' Deposit National Bank, Pittsburgh, and now outstanding in the aggregate amount of $8,750,000.

IN THE MATTER OF METROPOLITAN EDISON COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 25, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 20, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the assumption of liability by applicant, a direct subsidiary of NY PA NJ Utilities Company, a registered holding company, on the following bonds:

|---|---|
| Sayre Electric Company: First Mortgage Forty-Year 5% Gold Bonds due 4/1/47 | $277,500.00 |
| Northern Pennsylvania Power Company: First and Refunding Mortgage Gold Bonds, Series A, 5% due 6/1/56 | 1,369,900.00 |
| First and Refunding Mortgage Gold Bonds, 5% Series due 1962 | 2,089,600.00 |

It is stated that of the total amount of Sayre Electric Company bonds on which applicant proposes to assume liability there are $19,500 in principal amount pledged under a mortgage of Northern Pennsylvania Power Company and $253,500 in principal amount held in a sinking fund. Of the bonds of Northern Pennsylvania Power Company, 5% Series due 1962; it is stated that $588,000 in principal amount are held in the Company's treasury. It is stated that the Public Utility Commission of Pennsylvania by order dated June 19, 1939 authorized the assumption by applicant of liability on said bonds.

By the Commission.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION

1939 WOOL CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 1

§ 207.13 Insurance. As stated in Section 13 of the printed regulations (1939 CCC Wool Form 1), holders of notes on 1939 CCC Wool Forms A or B desiring for their protection, until such time as the notes are purchased by Commodity Credit Corporation, insurance coverage in addition to that provided by the warehousemen, should obtain such additional coverage at their own risk.

Under the type of warehouse agreement referred to in Section 5 of the printed regulations, the warehouseman agrees to insure the wool and mohair for its full market value and to keep same insured, so long as the receipts are outstanding, against loss or damage by fire and/or lightning and/or windstorm.

Commodity Credit Corporation has obtained a blanket insurance policy covering any difference between the market value of the wool or mohair, plus accrued interest and charges, in the event the market value, at the time and place of the loss, is less than the amount of loan plus accrued interest and charges. This policy also protects the Corporation in the event the warehouseman fails to provide the insurance under the arrangement referred to and also covers any loss or damage to the wool or mohair for the amount of the loan, plus accrued interest and charges, which may arise from any physical loss or damage from any external cause.

The premium under this policy is ¾ of one cent per $100 per month on the daily average balance of the outstanding loans with respect to the insurance of warehousemen and physical loss or damage from external causes. Premium for any difference between loan and market value is at the rate of two cents per $100 per month on the actual amount of such difference. This latter premium is to be reported and forwarded only in the event that the market value of the pledged collateral is less than the loan value, plus interest and accrued charges.

Banks and other lending agencies desiring to obtain this coverage should write Commodity Credit Corporation, Washington, D. C., and the necessary certificate, together with forms for reporting thereunder, will be forwarded for acceptance. Upon purchase by Commodity Credit Corporation, no allowance will be made to cover the cost of insurance obtained by lending agencies.

§ 207.1 (e) Eligible paper. Since all wool must be appraised prior to the completion of a loan on 1939 CCC Wool Forms A or B, notes should not be dated prior to the date of the appraiser's certificate (1939 CCC Wool Form D).

§ 207.11 Lending agencies. Interest will be paid to lending agencies tendering notes for purchase under the provisions of 1939 CCC Wool Form H, from the date of the note or the date of the appraiser's certificate, whichever is later, to the date of purchase.

Approved May 3, 1939.

SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTIONS

§ 207.3a Mohair loan basis.

Section 3 (a) of the Instructions (1939 CCC Wool Form 1)[1] is hereby amended to provide the following classifications and grease mohair loan values:

| Classification | Point of storage | Cents per pound |
|---|---|---|
| Kid | Texas and Boston | 34 |
| Adult | do | 24 |
| Kid | All other points | 33 |
| Adult | do | 23 |

Such increased loan values shall be effective immediately.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE
AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

[ACP-1938-29]

1938 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM BULLETIN

SUPPLEMENT NO. 26

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7 to 17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin, as amended,[1] is hereby further amended as follows:

(1) Item 1 of subsection A of section V is further amended to read as follows:

1. Cotton. 5 cents per pound of the normal yield for the farm for each acre of cotton in excess of the cotton acreage allotment: Provided, That in any county where producers were unofficially notified of the percentage to be applied to the adjusted tilled acreage in determining cotton acreage allotments, both on the basis of administrative areas in the county and on a county-wide basis, and planted cotton acting solely on the basis of the unofficial notification, and wherein official notices of the correct cotton acreage allotments computed on the basis of a county-wide percentage were not available until after planting time, the deduction will be made only with respect to the acreage planted to cotton in excess of the larger of the allotment computed on the basis of a county-wide percentage, or the allotment computed on the basis of administrative areas.

(2) Subsection C of section VI, as amended, is hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

Provided, That the net deduction computed for a person who shares in the production of rice on a farm not owned or operated by him, and for which no rice acreage allotment was established in 1938, and who is entitled to share in the production of rice on such farm only by virtue of the fact that such person furnishes water for the production of rice on such farm, shall not exceed one-fourth of the net deduction computed for such person with respect to rice on such farm.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 11th day of August 1939. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

AMENDED REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO THE MAKING OF ADVANCES TO PERSONS TO ENABLE THEM TO OBTAIN INSURANCE FROM THE FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Act entitled, "An Act to amend section 12 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended," approved March 25, 1939, I, M. L. Wilson Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do make, prescribe, publish and give public notice of the following regulations covering the making of advances to persons for the purpose of assisting them to insure their crops with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, which amend and supersede the regulations entitled "Regulations Pertaining to the Making of Advances to Persons to Enable Them to Obtain Insurance From the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation," approved and issued by the Secretary of Agriculture under the date of March 29, 1939.[1] These regulations are to be in force and effect until amended or superseded by regulations hereafter made by the Secretary of Agriculture under said provisions of law.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of August 1939. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 715—AMENDED REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO THE MAKING OF ADVANCES TO PERSONS TO ENABLE THEM TO OBTAIN INSURANCE FROM THE FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION

§ 715.1 Definitions. As used herein and in all forms and documents relating to the making of advances to persons to enable them to obtain insurance from the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (hereinafter referred to as an advance), unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires, the terms:

(a) Secretary, Administrator, Regional Director, State committee, county committee and person shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agricultural Conservation Program Bulletin issued for the crop year with respect to which a person applies for insurance with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

(b) The Corporation means the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

§ 715.2 Eligibility for advance. In order to be eligible to request an advance a person at the time of making such request,

(a) must file, or have previously filed with the county committee, the application for crop insurance to which the request for advance relates;

(b) must be participating, or agree to participate, in the Agricultural Conservation Program relating to the crop year to which the application for insurance relates, to such an extent that the estimated payment to be earned under such program less (1) the pro rata deduction for county association expenses, (2) the amount of the payment which has been assigned under such program, and (3) the sum of such person's indebtedness to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and to the various agencies and departments of the Federal Government as set forth in the Order Governing Set-offs Revised by the Secretary of Agriculture, October 25, 1938, is at least equal to the amount for which the request for advance is made; this amount of payment is hereinafter referred to as "net payment";

(c) must authorize the Secretary to deduct the amount of the advance from any payment to which such person then or thereafter becomes entitled under any program administered by the Department, must agree, upon notice from the Secretary or his agent, to repay the amount of advance owing to the Secretary at the time of such notice, and must agree that the Secretary has a right to and interest in all indemnities payable under insurance contracts issued to him by the Corporation to the extent of the amount of the advance owing to the Secretary at the time claim for any such indemnity is made;

(d) must agree that the authorization for deduction from payments and indemnities, as set forth in (c) above, shall apply to payments and indemnities due him which are made to his successor in interest because of death, incompetency, insolvency or bankruptcy.

§ 715.3 Request for advance. An advance will be made only upon request therefor submitted through the county office on a prescribed form. A request form shall be filed for each application for insurance for which an advance is desired: Provided, however, That if, subsequent to filing such a request, a person desires to increase his insurance coverage under an insurance contract for which an advance was previously requested, he may file a supplemental request for advance of the additional amount of premium.

§ 715.4 Manner of payment. The amount of advance approved by the appropriate State Office of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration will be remitted by the Secretary directly to the Corporation. In the event the amount of the advance so remitted to the Corporation is in excess of the amount of premium due, the excess will be returned by the Corporation to the Secretary and the applicant's account credited with such amount: Provided, however, That if the Secretary has been reimbursed for the amount of the advance, the excess will be returned to the applicant, and, if the Secretary has been reimbursed for a portion of the amount of the advance, the amount of excess needed to reimburse the Secretary for the entire amount of the advance will be returned to the Secretary for the applicant's account and the remainder will be returned to the applicant.

§ 715.5 Forms and instructions. The Agricultural Adjustment Administration shall prescribe such forms and issue such instructions as may be necessary to carry out these regulations.

§ 715.6 Signature and authorization. The provisions of ACP-16, "Instructions on Signatures and Authorizations," are hereby made a part of these regulations.

Whereas, under the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), it is provided that the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") shall, subject to the provisions of the act, issue orders regulating such handling of certain agricultural commodities (including peaches) as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce, in such commodities; and

Whereas, the Secretary, having reason to believe that the issuance of an order would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to the establishment and maintenance of such orderly marketing conditions for peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado as would establish prices to the producers of such peaches at a level that would give such peaches a purchasing power with respect to articles that the producers thereof buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such peaches during the base period January 1, 1920–December 31, 1928, conducted a public hearing at Grand Junction, Colorado, on June 23 and 24, 1939, pursuant to due notice given to all interested parties on June 5, 1939,[1] on a proposed order regulating such handling of such peaches as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce, in such peaches, at which hearing all interested persons in attendance were afforded due opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed order; and

* Sections 940.1 through 940.14 issued under the authority contained in 48 Stat. 31 (1933), 7 U.S.C. § 601 et seq. (1934); 49 Stat. 750 (1935); 50 Stat. 246 (1937), 7 U.S.C. § 601 et seq. (Supp. IV, 1938).

Whereas, the Secretary has found and proclaimed[2] that the purchasing power of peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado during the period August 1909–July 1914 cannot be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture, but that the purchasing power of such peaches can be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period January 1, 1920–December 31, 1928, and that the period January 1, 1920–December 31, 1928, is the base period to be used in connection with this order in determining the purchasing power of such peaches; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

(1) That at the time of the hearing the prices received by producers of peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado were at a level that gave such peaches a purchasing power with respect to articles that the producers thereof buy appreciably below the purchasing power of such peaches during the base period;

(2) That the regulation of shipments of such peaches by grades or sizes or combinations thereof, as prescribed herein, will serve to prevent marked fluctuations in prices to the producers thereof, and will establish and maintain a more stabilized market for such peaches, tending to establish prices to the producers thereof at a level that will give such peaches a purchasing power with respect to articles that the producers thereof buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such peaches during the base period;

(3) That this order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area and to the smallest regional marketing area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and that the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of such regional production or marketing areas would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) That the pro rata contribution of handlers to the expenses of the administrative agency herein established, based upon the quantity of peaches shipped, as provided in this order, is fair and equitable; and

(5) That this order and all the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado by establishing and maintaining such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will establish prices to the producers thereof at a level that will give such peaches a purchasing power with respect to articles that the producers thereof buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such peaches during the base period, and by protecting the interest of the consumer by (a) approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets, and by (b) authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to the producers of such peaches above the level which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds:

(1) That a marketing agreement regulating the handling of peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado, executed on the 11th day of August 1939, upon which a hearing was held on June 23 and 24, 1939, was signed by handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who were not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping peaches covered by this order) who, during the period January 1, 1938, to December 31, 1938, both dates inclusive, handled not less than fifty (50) percent of the volume of peaches covered by this order which was marketed during such period in the current of interstate commerce or commerce with Canada, or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect such commerce;

(2) That this order regulates the handling of such peaches in the same manner as the aforesaid marketing agreement, and that it is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified in the said marketing agreement; and

(3) That the issuance of this order is favored by producers who, during the period January 1, 1938, to December 31, 1938, both dates inclusive (which is hereby determined to be a representative period), produced for market within the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado more than two-thirds (⅔) of the volume of peaches produced for market within such production area during the said period:

Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Secretary, acting under the authority vested in him by the act, that such handling of peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado as is in the current of interstate commerce or commerce with Canada, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce, in such peaches, from and after the date herein specified, shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order.

§ 940.1 Definitions. As used herein the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America.

(b) "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (50 Stat. 246).

(c) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, legal representative, or any organized group of individuals.

(d) "Peaches" means all peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado.

(e) "Elberta peach shipping season" means that period of each fiscal year, beginning with the date upon which the first, and ending with the date upon which the last, shipment of 1,000 pounds of Elberta peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado is shipped.

(f) "Producer" means any person engaged in growing peaches in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado for market.

(g) "Handler" means any person (except a common carrier of peaches owned by another person), who, as owner, agent, or otherwise, first ships peaches, or first causes peaches to be shipped, in fresh form by rail, truck, or any other means whatsoever.

(h) "Ship" means to sell, transport, offer for transportation, or ship peaches in the current of interstate commerce or commerce with Canada, or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect such commerce.

(i) "Fiscal year" means the twelve-month period beginning May 1 of any year and ending April 30 of the following year, both dates inclusive.

(j) "District" means the applicable one of any of the following-described subdivisions of the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado:

(1) "Redlands District", which shall include all that portion of Mesa County lying south of the Colorado River west of the junction of the Colorado River with the Gunnison River and south and west of the Gunnison River and more fully described as follows: beginning at a point which is the intersection of the Colorado River and the Utah-Colorado State line; thence southerly along said State line to a point which is the intersection of the south boundary line of Mesa County and said Utah-Colorado State line; thence easterly along said south boundary line of Mesa County to the east boundary line between Mesa and Montrose Counties; thence northerly along said east boundary line of Mesa County to a point which is the intersection between said east boundary line of Mesa County and the Gunnison River; thence northwesterly along said river to a point which is the junction of the Gunnison and Colorado Rivers; thence westerly along said Colorado River to the point of beginning.

(2) "East Orchard Mesa District", which shall include all that portion of Mesa County bounded as follows: beginning at a point which is the intersection of the Colorado River and the east section line of Section 3, Township 1 South, Range 2 East of the Ute Meridian; thence southerly along the east section line of Sections 3, 10, 15, and 22 of said township to the southeast corner of Section 22 of said township; thence westerly along the south section line of Sections 22, 21, and 20 of said township to a point which is the intersection of said section line and the Big Wash, said point lying on the south boundary of said Section 20 of said township; thence northwesterly along said Big Wash to the junction of the Big Wash and the Colorado River; thence northeasterly along said Colorado River to the point of beginning.

(3) "Vineland District", which shall include all that portion of Mesa County lying east of the following described line: beginning at a point which is the intersection of the Colorado River and the north boundary of Mesa County; thence southwesterly along said Colorado River to a point which is the intersection of the Colorado River and the west section line of Section 2, Township 1 South, Range 2 East of the Ute Meridian; thence southerly along said west section line of Sections 2, 11, 14, and 23 of said township to the southwest corner of Section 23 of said township; thence easterly along the south section lines of Sections 23 and 24 of said township to the east range line of Range 2 East of the Ute Meridian; thence southerly along said range line to a point which is the intersection of said range line and the Mesa-Delta County boundary line.

(4) "Palisade District", which shall include all that portion of Mesa County bounded as follows: beginning at a point which is the intersection of the Colorado River and the north boundary line of Mesa County; thence southwesterly along said Colorado River to a point which is the intersection of the main channel of said Colorado River and the range line between Range 1 East and Range 2 East of the Ute Meridian; thence northerly along said range line extended to the Mesa-Garfield County boundary line; thence easterly along said county line to the point of beginning.

(5) "Clifton District", which shall include all that portion of Mesa County bounded as follows: beginning at a point which is the intersection of the Colorado River and the Utah-Colorado State line; thence easterly along said river to a point which is the junction of the Gunnison and Colorado Rivers; thence southeasterly along said Gunnison River to a point which is the intersection of the Gunnison River and the Mesa County line; thence northerly and easterly along said boundary line of Mesa County to a point which is the intersection of said boundary line of Mesa County and the east range line of Range 2 East of the Ute Meridian; thence northerly along said range line to the northeast corner of Section 25, Township 1 South, Range 2 East of the Ute Meridian; thence westerly along the north section line of Sections 25, 26, 27, 28, and 29 of said township to a point which is the intersection of said section line and the Big Wash, said point lying on the north boundary of said Section 29; thence northwesterly along said Big Wash to the junction of the Big Wash and the Colorado River; thence westerly along the Colorado River to its intersection with the range line between Range 1 East and Range 2 East of the Ute Meridian; thence northerly along said range line extended to the Mesa-Garfield County line; thence westerly along said county line to the northwest corner of Mesa County on the Utah-Colorado State line; thence southerly along said State line to the point of beginning.

§ 940.2 Administrative Committee—(a) Establishment and membership. An Administrative Committee is hereby established consisting of nine members, five of whom shall represent producers and four of whom shall represent handlers. There shall be an alternate for each member of the committee.

(b) Selection of initial members. The initial members of the Administrative Committee and their respective alternates shall be selected by the Secretary as soon as possible after the effective date hereof. In selecting the initial members and their respective alternates, the Secretary shall make his selections upon the basis of the representation provided for in paragraphs (c) and (d). The Secretary may consider such nominations or suggestions, if any, submitted by producers and handlers, which nominations or suggestions may be by virtue of elections conducted by groups of producers and groups of handlers prior to, or immediately subsequent to, the effective date hereof.

(c) Nomination and selection of successors to initial producer members. (1) Nominations of producer members and their respective alternates, subsequent to the initial members and alternates, shall be made at a meeting of producers in each of the districts, at such times (on or before April 1 of each year) and places as the Administrative Committee shall designate. At each of such meetings, the producers eligible to participate therein shall select a chairman and a secretary therefor. In the election of nominees for producer member and for alternate for such member, each producer shall be entitled to vote in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. The chairman of each meeting shall announce at such meeting the name of each person for whom votes have been cast, whether as member or as alternate, and the number of votes cast for each such person, and the chairman or the secretary of the meeting shall forthwith transmit such information to the Secretary.

(2) Only producers shall participate in the nominations of producer members and their alternates, and a producer may participate only in the elections held in the district in which he produces peaches. No producer shall participate in the election of producer members and their alternates in more than one district in any one fiscal year. In any such election, each producer shall be entitled to cast but one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, partners, and representatives for each nominee to be elected. Cumulative or proxy voting shall not be allowed.

(3) The producers in each district shall elect two nominees for producer member and two nominees for alternate from such district, and the Secretary shall select one producer member and his respective alternate for such district from among the nominees elected by the producers in such district.

(d) Nomination and selection of successors to initial handler members. (1) Handler members and their respective alternates, subsequent to the initial members and alternates, shall be nominated and selected as follows:

(i) Six nominees for handler members and six nominees for alternates shall be elected by the members of cooperative associations, and the Secretary shall select three handler members and their respective alternates from among such nominees. Any cooperative association shipping fifty (50%) percent, or more, of the total volume of peaches shipped by all handlers during the fiscal year in which an election of nominees is being held shall be entitled to elect four of the six nominees for handler members and four of the six nominees for alternates, and the Secretary shall select two of the handler members and their respective alternates from among the nominees elected by such cooperative association: Provided, That if such election is being held between May 1 and October 15 of any year, such percentage of the total volume of peaches shipped shall be based upon the total volume of peaches shipped by all handlers during the fiscal year immediately next preceding that in which such election is being held; and

(ii) Two nominees for handler member and two nominees for alternate shall be elected by handlers other than cooperative associations and members of such associations, and the Secretary shall select one handler member and his alternate from among such nominees.

(2) Nominations of handler members and their respective alternates, subsequent to the initial members and alternates, to be elected by members of cooperative associations shall be made at a meeting or meetings of the members of such cooperative associations at such times (on or before April 1 of each year) and places as the Administrative Committee shall designate. At each such meeting, the handlers eligible to participate therein shall select a chairman and a secretary therefor. In the election of nominees for such members and alternates, each member of a cooperative association shall be entitled to cast but one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, partners, and representatives. Cumulative voting shall be permissible, but proxy voting shall not be allowed. The chairman of each meeting shall announce at such meeting the name of each person for whom votes have been cast, whether as member or as alternate, and the number of votes cast for each such person, and the chairman or the secretary of such meeting shall forthwith transmit such information to the Secretary.

(3) Nominations for a handler member and his alternate, subsequent to the initial member and alternate, to be elected by handlers other than cooperative associations and members of such associations, shall be made at a meeting of such handlers at such time (on or before April 1 of each year) and place as the Administrative Committee shall designate. At each such meeting, the handlers eligible to participate therein shall select a chairman and a secretary therefor. In the election of nominees for such member and alternate, each such handler shall be entitled to cast but one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, partners, affiliates, subsidiaries, and representatives, which vote shall be weighted by the volume of peaches shipped by such handler during the fiscal year in which such election is being held: Provided, That if such election is being held between May 1 and October 15 of any year, such vote shall be weighted by the volume of peaches shipped by such handler during the fiscal year immediately next preceding that in which such election is being held. Proxy voting shall not be allowed. The chairman of the meeting shall announce at such meeting the name of each person for whom votes have been cast, whether as member or as alternate, and the number of votes cast for each such person, and the chairman or the secretary of the meeting shall forthwith transmit such information to the Secretary.

(e) Eligibility for membership. (1) Producer members of the Administrative Committee and alternates for such members must be producers of peaches in the district in and for which they are nominated and selected.

(2) A handler member of the Administrative Committee and an alternate for such member, to be selected from the nominees of cooperative associations, must be a member or an employee of a cooperative association.

(3) The handler member of the Administrative Committee and the alternate for such member, to be selected from the nominees of handlers other than cooperative associations and members of such associations, must be a handler and shall not be a member or an employee of a cooperative association.

(f) Failure to nominate. In the event nominations, subsequent to the selection by the Secretary of the initial members and their respective alternates, are not made and the names of such nominees are not submitted to the Secretary on or before April 1 of any year, pursuant to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, the Secretary may select such members and alternates without regard to nominations.

(g) Qualification by members and alternates. Any person selected by the Secretary as a member or as an alternate for a member of the Administrative Committee shall qualify therefor by filing a written acceptance thereof with the Secretary within 15 days after being notified of such selection.

(h) Term of office. The initial members and their respective alternates shall hold office for a term beginning on the date designated by the Secretary and ending April 30, 1940, and until their successors are selected and have qualified. Members and alternates selected subsequent to the initial term shall serve during the fiscal year for which they have been selected and until their successors are selected and have qualified.

(i) Alternate members of Administrative Committee. An alternate for a member shall act in the place and stead of such member during such member's absence, or, in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of such member, until a successor for such member is selected and has qualified.

(j) Vacancies. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure to qualify of any person selected as a member or as an alternate for a member of the Administrative Committee, or, in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any member or of any alternate, nominations and selection to fill such vacancy shall be made in the manner set forth in this section. If nominations to fill such vacancy are not made or the names of such nominees are not submitted to the Secretary within twenty (20) days after such vacancy occurs, the Secretary may fill such vacancy without regard to nomination.

(k) Compensation and expenses. The members and the alternates for members of the Administrative Committee shall serve without compensation, but they may be reimbursed, at a rate of not to exceed $5 per meeting, for expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties and in the exercise of their powers.

(l) Powers. The Administrative Committee shall have the following powers:

(1) To administer, as herein specifically provided, the terms and provisions hereof;

(2) To make administrative rules and regulations in accordance herewith and to effectuate the terms and provisions hereof;

(3) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations hereof; and

(4) To recommend to the Secretary amendments hereto.

(m) Duties. The duties of the Administrative Committee shall be as follows:

(1) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer or handler;

(2) To keep minutes, books, and records which will clearly reflect all of the acts and transactions of the Administrative Committee, which minutes, books, and records shall be subject at any time to examination by the Secretary;

(3) To study and assemble data on the growing, shipping, and marketing conditions respecting peaches;

(4) To determine and publicly announce the beginning and ending of the Elberta peach shipping season;

(5) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as the Secretary requests;

(6) To perform such duties as may be assigned to it from time to time by the Secretary in connection with the administration of Section 32 of the Act to Amend the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and for other purposes, Public Act No. 320, 74th Congress (August 24, 1935), as amended;

(7) To cause the books of the Administrative Committee to be audited by one or more competent accountants at least once each fiscal year and at such other times as the committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request, and to file with the Secretary copies of any and all audit reports;

(8) To appoint such employees as it may deem necessary, and to determine the salaries and define the duties of such employees;

(9) To give the Secretary the same notice of meetings of the Administrative Committee as is given to the members of the committee; and

(10) To select a chairman of the Administrative Committee and, from time to time, such other officers as it may deem advisable.

(n) Procedure. A quorum shall consist of six (6) members of the Administrative Committee, or alternates then serving in the place and stead of any members, in attendance at a meeting, and all decisions of the committee shall be made by not less than six (6) affirmative votes.

(o) Rights of the Secretary. The members of the Administrative Committee, including successors and alternates, and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committee shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary for cause at any time. Each and every regulation, decision, determination, or other act of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time and, upon such disapproval, shall be deemed null and void except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

(p) Funds and other property. (1) All funds received by the Administrative Committee pursuant to any of the provisions hereof shall be used solely for the purposes herein specified, and the Secretary may require the committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(2) Upon the death, resignation, removal, or expiration of the term of office of any member of the Administrative Committee, all books, records, funds, and other property in his possession shall be delivered to his successor in office or to the committee, and such assignments and other instruments shall be executed as may be necessary to vest in his successor or in the committee full title to all the books, records, funds, and other property in the possession or under the control of such member pursuant hereto.*

§ 940.3 Expenses and assessments.—(a) Expenses. The Administrative Committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds may be necessary to carry out its functions hereunder. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying of assessments as provided in this section.

(b) Assessments. Each handler shall pay to the Administrative Committee, upon demand, such handler's pro rata share of the expenses that the Secretary finds will be necessarily incurred by the committee for the maintenance and functioning of the committee during each fiscal year. Each handler's pro rata share shall be based upon a rate of assessment fixed by the Secretary and shall be that proportion of such expenses which the total quantity of peaches shipped by such handler during the Elberta peach shipping season of said fiscal year is of the total quantity of peaches shipped by all handlers during such shipping season. The rate of assessment may be adjusted from time to time by the Secretary in order to cover any later finding by the Secretary of the estimated expenses or the actual expenses of the committee during said fiscal year.

(c) Handler accounts. (1) At the end of each fiscal year the Administrative Committee shall credit each handler with any amount paid by such handler in excess of his pro rata share of the expenses or shall debit such handler with the amount by which his pro rata share exceeds the amount paid by him. Any such debits shall become due and payable upon demand of the committee.

(2) The Administrative Committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, maintain a suit in its own name or in the names of its members for the collection of any handler's pro rata share of expenses.*

§ 940.4 Regulation of shipments by grades and sizes—(a) Recommendation of the Administrative Committee. Whenever the Administrative Committee deems it advisable to regulate the shipment of any variety or varieties of peaches by grades or sizes or combinations thereof during any specified period or periods of the Elberta peach shipping season, it shall so recommend to the Secretary. At the time of submitting any such recommendation, the committee shall furnish to the Secretary all pertinent data and information upon which it acted in making such recommendation, and such other data and information as the Secretary may request. The committee shall promptly give adequate notice to handlers and producers of any such recommendation submitted by it to the Secretary.

(b) Regulation of shipments. Whenever the Secretary finds from the recommendation made by the Administrative Committee and from the information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that to limit the shipment of any variety or varieties of peaches to particular grades or sizes or combinations thereof would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall so limit the shipment of such peaches during a specified period or periods of the Elberta peach shipping season. The Secretary shall immediately notify the committee of the issuance of such regulation, and the committee shall promptly give adequate notice thereof to handlers and producers.

(c) Exemption certificates. (1) Before the institution of any limitation of shipments pursuant to this section, the Administrative Committee shall adopt and announce the procedural rules by which exemption certificates will be issued to producers. Whenever the committee recommends to the Secretary a regulation of shipments pursuant to this section, the committee shall determine the percentage which the quantity of grades and sizes of each variety of peaches permitted to be shipped under such regulation bears to the total quantity of such variety of peaches which could be shipped in the absence of such regulation and the committee shall forthwith announce this percentage. An exemption certificate shall thereafter be issued to any producer who furnishes proof that he will be prevented, because of the regulation established, from shipping as large a percentage of his peaches of any specified variety or varieties as the percentage for all producers as determined by the committee. Such exemption certificate shall permit the producer to ship or cause to be shipped that quantity or the regulated grades and sizes of peaches as will enable him to ship or cause to be shipped as large a percentage of his peaches as the percentage for all producers.

(2) If any producer is dissatisfied with the action taken with respect to his application for an exemption certificate, he may appeal to the Secretary, whose decision in the matter shall be final and conclusive.

(3) The Secretary shall have power to modify, change, alter, or amend any such procedural rules and any exemption granted under this paragraph.

(d) Inspection and certification. During any period in which the Secretary has regulated shipments pursuant to this section, each handler shall, prior to making each shipment of peaches, cause such shipment to be inspected by an authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service. Promptly thereafter, such handler shall submit to the Administrative Committee a copy of the Federal-State inspection certificate, showing the grades and sizes of peaches, issued on each such shipment.*

§ 940.5 Reports. Upon the request of the Administrative Committee, made with the approval of the Secretary, each handler shall furnish the committee, in such manner and at such times as it prescribes, such information as will enable it to exercise its powers and to perform its duties hereunder.*

§ 940.6 Liability of Administrative Committee members. No member, alternate member, or employee of the Administrative Committee shall be held liable, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or to any other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate member, or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.*

§ 940.7 Compliance and exceptions—(a) Compliance. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, no person shall ship peaches, the shipment of which has been prohibited by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions hereof.

(b) Shipments for relief. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to authorize any limitation of the right on the part of any person to ship peaches for consumption by charitable institutions or for distribution by relief agencies, nor shall any assessment be levied on peaches so shipped. The Administrative Committee may prescribe adequate safeguards to prevent peaches, shipped for either of such purposes, from entering commercial channels of trade contrary to the provisions hereof.*

§ 940.8 Agents. The Secretary may, by a designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the Government, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.*

§ 940.9 Effective time and termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature attached hereto and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways specified in this section.

(b) Termination. (1) The Secretary may at any time terminate the provisions hereof by giving at least one (1) day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which he may determine.

(2) The Secretary may terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions hereof whenever he finds that such provision or provisions obstruct or do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(3) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions hereof at the end of any current marketing period whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the producers of peaches who, during such current marketing period, have been engaged in the production of peaches for market: Provided, That such majority have, during such period, produced for market more than fifty (50) percent of the total volume of peaches produced for market during such period, but such termination shall be effective only if notice thereof is given on or before February 1 of such current marketing period,

(4) The provisions hereof shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

(c) Proceedings after termination. (1) Upon the termination of the provisions hereof, the members of the Administrative Committee then functioning shall, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the committee, continue as joint trustees of all funds and property then in the possession or under the control of the committee, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination.

(2) The trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements, or deliver all funds and property on hand, together with all books and records of the Administrative Committee and the joint trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall, upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all of the funds and claims vested in the committee or the joint trustee pursuant hereto.

(3) Any funds collected for expenses pursuant to the provisions hereof, and held by such joint trustees or such other person, over and above amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses incurred necessarily by the joint trustees or such other person in the performance of their duties hereunder, shall, as soon as practicable after the termination hereof, be returned to the handlers pro rata in proportion to their contributions made pursuant hereto.

(4) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been delivered by the Administrative Committee or its members upon direction of the Secretary, as provided in this paragraph, shall be subject to the same obligations and duties with respect to said funds, property, or claims as are imposed upon the members of the committee or upon the joint trustees.*

§ 940.10 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue hereof shall cease upon the termination hereof, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence hereof.*

§ 940.11 Separability. If any provision hereof is declared invalid or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder hereof or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.*

§ 940.12 Derogation. Nothing contained herein is or shall be construed to be in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.*

§940.13 Amendments. Amendments hereto may be proposed, from time to time, by the Administrative Committee or by the Secretary.*

§ 940.14 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this order or of any regulation issued pursuant hereto, or the issuance of any amendment to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision hereof or any regulation issued hereunder, or (b) release or extinguish any violation hereof or of any regulation issued hereunder, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violation.*

In witness whereof, the Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, for the purposes and within the limitations therein contained and not otherwise, does hereby execute and issue in duplicate this order under his hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on this 11th day of August 1939, and declares this order to be effective on and after 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., August 15, 1939.

TITLE 20—EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS
UNITED STATES EMPLOYEES' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

PART 1—CLAIMS FOR COMPENSATION AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

OFFICERS RESERVE CORPS AND ENLISTED RESERVE CORPS OF THE ARMY

Section 1.1. of the regulations adopted by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission and made effective as of June 1, 1938, governing the administration of the United States Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916, as amended, is hereby amended so as to include therein reference to members of the Officers Reserve Corps and of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army, in view of the approval on July 15, 1939, of an Act (Pub. No. 179—76th Congress; Chapt. 284, 1st Session), extending the benefits of the United States Employees' Compensation Act to such members, and shall hereafter read and provide as follows:

"§ 1.1 General provisions; definitions. The administration of the United States Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916, as amended, is vested by said Act in the United States Employees' Compensation Commission. The said Act authorizes the Commission to make necessary rules and regulations for the enforcement of the Act and to decide all questions arising under the Act. The Commission is authorized by said Act, upon consideration of a claim presented by a beneficiary and official reports pertaining to injury or death sustained by a civil employee of the United States while in the performance of duty and upon completion of such investigation as it may deem necessary, to determine the facts and make an award for or against payment of the compensation provided for in said Act. The Commission has power, under the provisions of the said Act, to issue subpoenas for and compel the attendance of witnesses within a radius of one hundred miles, to require the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, to administer oaths, and to examine witnesses, upon any matter within the jurisdiction of the Commission. In the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculations, the findings of facts in, and the decision of the Commission upon, the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by said Act, if supported by competent evidence, shall not be subject to review by any other administrative or accounting officer, employee, or agent of the United States.

"All employees of the United States and other persons who may claim or be entitled to claim benefits under the said Act, and the official superiors of all such persons, shall be bound by these regulations and shall conform to the procedure prescribed in said Act and in the regulations under this chapter. The term 'official superior', as used in this Chapter and in Chapter II, includes all officers and employees having responsible supervision, direction or control of civil employees, members of the Officers' Reserve Corps and of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army, members of the Naval Reserve, or others employed in the service of the Federal Government or the government of the District of Columbia. For the purposes of these regulations the term 'employee' as used in this Chapter shall include, in addition to civil employees of the United States, employees of the government of the District of Columbia (except members of the Police and Fire Departments of the District of Columbia), members of the Officers' Reserve Corps and of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army, officers and enlisted men of the United States Naval Reserve, and other persons performing service for the United States within the purview of said Act and all acts in amendment, substitution or extension thereof.

"The term 'Commission', as used in this Chapter means the United States Employees' Compensation Commission. All definitions appearing in said Act, as amended, shall be applicable with respect to the regulations promulgated under this Chapter and under Chapter II.*†

Section 1.20 of the regulations adopted by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission and made effective as of June 1, 1938, governing the administration of the United States Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916, as amended, is hereby amended so as to include therein appropriate reference to the benefits extended to members of the Officers Reserve Corps and of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army, made available by the Act of July 15, 1939 (Pub. No. 179—76th Congress, Chapt. 284, 1st Session), and shall hereafter read and provide as follows:

"§ 1.20 Injuries to members of the Officers Reserve Corps, Enlisted Reserve Corps, and Naval Reserve. (a) If in time of peace any member of the Officers Reserve Corps or of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army, or any member of the Naval Reserve, as included in the Naval Reserve Act of 1938, approved June 25, 1938 (52 Stat. 1175, at 1181), is physically injured in the line of duty or dies as the result of such physical injury, he or his beneficiaries shall be entitled to all of the benefits prescribed by law for civil employees of the United States who are physically injured in the line of duty or who die as the result thereof. The Commission has jurisdiction in such cases and performs the same duties with reference thereto as in the cases of civil employees of the United States so injured or disabled. For the purpose of this Section all members of the Officers Reserve Corps or of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army shall be considered as entitled to compensation benefits if injured in the line of duty (1) while on active duty, or (2) when engaged in authorized travel to and from such duty, or (3) when engaged in authorized training without pay: Provided, That authorized training without pay is defined as inactive-status training under written authorization by competent military authority covering a specific training assignment and prescribing a time limit. Also, for the purpose of this Section all members of the Naval Reserve shall be considered to be entitled to compensation benefits for injury in the line of duty while performing active military or naval service, if injured (1) while having performed active duty, with or without pay, or (2) while having performed training duty, with or without pay, or (3) while having performed drills, equivalent instruction or duty, appropriate duty, or other prescribed duty, or (4) while having performed authorized travel to or from such duties.

"(b) In the cases of members of the Officers Reserve Corps or of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army, the benefits shall accrue to any such member, or to his beneficiaries, whether the disability or death is the result of sickness or disease contracted in line of duty while on active duty, when such sickness or disease is proximately caused by the service on active duty. In no case, however, of a member of the Naval Reserve coming within the purview of this Section shall sickness or disease be regarded as an injury.

"(c) For the purpose of determining the benefits to which a claimant may be entitled under the provisions of this section, members of the Officers Reserve Corps or of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army physically injured when engaged in authorized training without pay, and Naval Reservists physically injured while performing duties stated in subparagraph (a) of this Section and in a non-pay status, will be held and considered as receiving the pay and allowances which they would have received had they been in a pay status.

"(d) A member of the Officers Reserve Corps or of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army may not receive the benefits under the United States Employees' Compensation Act concurrently with active duty pay or pension based upon military service, and in the event a person becomes eligible to receive the benefits under the United States Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916, as amended, and is also eligible for, or is in receipt of, a pension based upon military service, he shall elect which benefit to receive. Reserve Officers entitled to the benefits of the last proviso of section 5 of the Act of April 3, 1939 (Pub. No. 18, 76th Congress), are not entitled to the benefits coming within the purview of this Section. Any member of the Naval Reserve eligible to receive the benefits coming within the purview of this Section who may also be eligible to receive a pension under the provisions of the Act of June 23, 1937 (50 Stat. 305), entitled "An Act to amend the provisions of the pension laws for peace-time service to include Reserve officers and members of the Enlisted Reserves", shall elect which benefit he shall receive.

"(e) All provisions of this Chapter and of the United States Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916, as amended, except such as may be in conflict with the provisions of this Section or with Section 304 of the Naval Reserve Act of 1938, approved June 25, 1938 (52 Stat. 1175, at 1181), shall be applicable with respect to cases of members of the Naval Reserve."

The foregoing amendments have this day been adopted and promulgated by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission.

By direction of the Commission.

PART. 21—CLAIMS FOR COMPENSATION AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

EMERGENCY RELIEF EMPLOYEES, ENROLLED PERSONNEL IN CIVILIAN CONSERVATION CORPS, ETC.

Section 21.1 of the regulations adopted by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission and made effective as of June 1, 1938, governing the administration of the United States Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916, as amended, as extended to emergency relief employees, enrolled personnel in the Civilian Conservation Corps, and others, is hereby amended so as to bring about conformity with the provisions of the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1939, approved June 30, 1939, and shall hereafter read and provide as follows:

"§ 21.1 General provisions; definitions. The United States Employees' Compensation Commission is charged with the administration of the workmen's compensation provisions in the Acts of Congress approved February 15, 1934 (48 Stat. 351; 5 U.S.C. 796), June 19, 1934 (48 Stat. 1021 at 1056, 16 U.S.C. 587a), April 8, 1935 (49 Stat. 115), June 22, 1936 (49 Stat. 1608; 15 U.S.C. 728), June 29, 1936 (49 Stat. 2035), June 29, 1937 (50 Stat. 352; 15 U.S.C. 728), June 21, 1938 (52 Stat. 809 at 814; 15 U.S.C. 728 note), and June 30, 1939, which extend the provisions of the United States Employees' Compensation Act of September 7, 1916, as amended (39 Stat. 742; 5 U.S.C. 751), and provide in effect for the payment of limited compensation benefits under prescribed circumstances, on account of injury and death with respect to the following classes of persons:

"(1) Employees of the Federal Civil Works Administration.

"(2) Persons receiving security payments under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935.

"(3) Persons, other than administrative employees, receiving wages under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Acts of 1936, 1937, 1938, and 1939.

"(4) Persons receiving payments for services rendered under the National Youth Administration, as provided for in the Emergency Relief Appropriation Acts of 1936, 1937, and 1938.

"(5) Persons employed and paid by the United States in those States in which the Federal Relief Administrator assumed control under the Federal Emergency Relief Act of 1933, provided injury caused death or permanent disability.

"(6) Veterans of the World War and other persons attached to Veterans' Camps Nos. 1, 3 and 5, who were injured or died as a result of the hurricane of September 2, 1935, at the Florida Keys.

"(7) Enrollees of the Civilian Conservation Corps.

"These Acts extend with certain limitations the provisions of the said Act of September 7, 1916, to the several classes of persons enumerated above. The said Act of September 7, 1916, authorizes the Commission to make necessary rules and regulations, and to decide all questions arising thereunder. The regulations of this Chapter shall apply with respect to the several classes of persons so enumerated.

"The Commission has power to issue subpoenas for and to compel the attendance of witnesses within a radius of one hundred miles, to require the production of books, papers, documents and other evidence, to administer oaths, and to examine witnesses, upon any matter within the jurisdiction of the Commission. In the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculations, the findings of fact in, and the decision of the Commission upon, the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by said Acts, if supported by competent evidence, shall not be subject to review by any other administrative or accounting officer, employee, or agent of the United States.

"All employees of the United States and other persons who may claim or be entitled to claim benefits under any of the said Acts and the official superiors of any such persons shall be bound by these regulations and shall conform with the procedure prescribed in said Acts and in the regulations under this Chapter.

"Where on projects the preparation of reports and papers relating to compensation for injury or death is under the jurisdiction of a Federal agency other than the Work Projects Administration, the term "official superior" as used in this Chapter shall include the person having responsible supervision over the employee who is injured. Where the reporting of injury cases has been delegated to an agent of the Work Projects Administration, the duties to be performed by the official superior shall be performed by the person on the staff of the State or local Work Projects Administrator, who is charged with the duty of supervising the reporting of injury cases. Authority to make initial payments of compensation and to furnish immediate medical attention has been delegated, in certain cases, to State Compensation Officers of the Work Projects Administration.

"For the purpose of this Chapter, the term 'employee' as used herein shall include, in addition to civil employees of the United States, other persons within the classes of person enumerated above who are within the purview of the several Acts of Congress above cited. The term 'commission' as used in this Chapter means the United States Employees' Compensation Commission. The term 'injury' as used in this Chapter means traumatic injury by accident while the employee is in the performance of duty. 'Traumatic injury' as so used is defined as meaning only an injury by accident causing damage or harm to the physical structure of the body, and shall not include a disease in any form except as it shall naturally result from the injury. Injuries caused by an employee's wilful misconduct, or by his intention to bring about the injury or death of himself or of another or proximately by his intoxication, are not compensable."

The foregoing amendment has this day been adopted and promulgated by the United States Empolyees' Compensation Commission.

By direction of the Commission.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

[T. D. 4920]

STAMP TAXES ON ISSUES AND TRANSFER OF STOCKS AND BONDS, PASSAGE TICKETS, FOREIGN INSURANCE POLICIES, AND DEEDS OF CONVEYANCE

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Section 1 of the Revenue Act of 1939, approved June 29, 1939 (Public, No. 155, 76th Cong., 1st sess.), provides:

SEC. 1. CONTINUATION OF EXCISE TAXES.

Sections * * *, 1801, 1802, * * *, 3461 (b), and 3482 of the Internal Revenue Code are amended by striking out "1939" wherever appearing therein and inserting in lieu thereof "1941". * * *.

Pursuant to the above amendment, Regulations 71, approved July 16, 1932, as amended (Part 111 of Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations), but only as prescribed and made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885,[1] approved February 11, 1939 (Part 465, Subpart B, of Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations), under the authority contained in section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code, are amended as follows:

Article 2, as amended by Treasury Decision 4824[2] (section 111.2 of such Title 26), is amended to read as follows:

"ART. 2. Effective period. The stamp tax provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1939, are in full force and effect. The rates of tax imposed by sections 1801, 1802 (a) and 1802 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code, which would have been reduced on July 1, 1939, and the stamp taxes imposed by sections 3481 and 3482 of the Internal Revenue Code, which would have been repealed as of that date, will remain effective to and including June 30, 1941."

(This Treasury decision is prescribed pursuant to sections 1801, 1802 (a), 1802 (b), 3481 and 3482 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat., Part 1), as amended by section 1 of the Revenue Act of 1939 (Public, No. 155, 76th Cong., 1st sess.) and section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code.)

Pursuant to the authority granted to the Secretary of the Interior by the Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 390), as amended; by the Act of December 21, 1928 (45 Stat. 1057); by the Act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535); by the Act of August 9, 1937 (50 Stat. 564, 607), and by the Act of May 10, 1939 (Public No. 68, 76th Congress), the following rules and regulations are prescribed to govern the operation of privately owned boats and the use of landing facilities on the waters impounded by the Boulder Dam, known as "Lake Mead", and the waters tributary thereto, within the Boulder Canyon Reservation:

§ 23.1 Permits; schedule of fees. (a) No privately owned boat, raft, or other floating structure shall be placed or operated upon any waters within the Boulder Canyon Reservation without a permit from the supervisor of the Boulder Dam National Recreational Area. Permits good for the calendar year will be issued by the supervisor upon payment of fees according to the following schedule:

|---|---|
| (1) Permit for rowboat or canoe not motor-powered or equipped with sails | $1.00 |
| (2) Permit for motorboat or sailboat with an overall length of 15 feet or less | 2.00 |
| (3) Permit for motorboat or sailboat with an overall length of more than 15 feet and not more than 20 feet | 3.00 |
| (4) Permit for motorboat or sailboat with an overall length of more than 20 feet and not more than 25 feet | 4.00 |
| (5) Permit for motorboat or sailboat with an overall length of more than 25 feet | 5.00 |
| (6) Permit for houseboat, regardless of size, not motor-powered | 5.00 |

(b) Boats equipped or operated with outboard motors shall be considered motorboats within the meaning in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Each permit shall be carried in the boat for which it is issued, whenever any person is aboard, and shall be exhibited upon the request of any officer or employee of the United States. A permit may be transferred with the boat for which it is issued, upon notice to the supervisor.

§ 23.2 Use of mooring or landing facilities. Where mooring or landing facilities are installed by the National Park Service, or by operators under contract with the Secretary of the Interior, no boats shall be moored or landed in the vicinity except at such moorings or landings. In areas where such facilities are not available, moorings or landings may be made only at places designated by the supervisor or his representative. The supervisor may designate special mooring places for houseboats, and no houseboat shall be moved from the designated mooring place without the permission of the supervisor.

§ 23.3 Installation of floats or piers. No landing float or pier shall be installed without a permit from the supervisor. Miners or others who desire to install such floats or piers shall make application to the supervisor, who may issue revocable permits for the installation of temporary floats or piers, without charge to holders of boat permits.

§ 23.4 Registration of trip. The operator of any private boat leaving the landing area for an extended trip shall register in a book provided for the purpose at the operator's landing, stating the proposed destination and intended date of return.

§ 23.5 Leaving landing during storm. Except in emergencies, no private boat shall be permitted to leave the landing during such times as the small craft storm warning signal is flown at the operator's landing.

§ 23.6 Approach to dam. No boat shall approach within 200 feet of Boulder Dam at any time.

§ 23.7 Zoned areas. No privately owned boat shall be operated within any water area zoned and marked as migratory bird rest areas or for related wildlife uses.

§ 23.8 Firearms. The carrying of firearms upon any landing or in any boat is prohibited.

§ 23.9 Intoxication, etc. No person who is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs shall operate a boat of any kind upon the waters of the lake.

§ 23.10 Sanitation. (a) All doors entering toilet rooms, except in emergencies, shall be kept securely locked at all times while vessels are at the docks, and for 30 minutes before vessels enter and 30 minutes after leaving all ports of the lake.

(b) All toilet rooms shall be locked, except in emergencies, when vessels are within five miles of the dam and the intake of the domestic water supply at Hemenway Wash.

(c) No bottles, cans, rubbish, garbage, or refuse of any kind, including wastes from chemical toilets, shall be thrown from vessels at any place on the lake, or from docks along the shore, or likewise placed in the waters of the lake.

(d) All bilge waters containing oil and grease, except in emergencies, shall be disposed of on the shore.

§ 23.11 Revocation of permit. The violation of any of the above regulations by the owner or operator of any boat shall be considered sufficient ground for revocation of the permit issued for such boat and the permit for any landing float or pier installed by the owner or operator. Upon revocation and notice to the permittee, such boat, landing float, or pier shall be removed from the Boulder Canyon Reservation within 48 hours after the issuance of the notice of revocation, failing which the supervisor may remove such boat at the expense of the permittee, and remove or destroy such landing float or pier.

§ 23.12 Exceptions. The above regulations shall not apply to any boats operated for official use by any agency of the United States, or of the States of Arizona or Nevada.

§ 23.13 Compliance with Federal laws and regulations. Nothing contained in these regulations shall relieve any boat or the owner or operator thereof from the obligation to comply with the laws of the United States and the regulations of the Department of Commerce relating to the licensing, equipment, and navigation of boats.

§ 23.14 Effective date. These rules and regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof, and shall supersede the regulations prescribed for Boulder Dam Recreational Area April 29, 1938 (3 F.R. 914, Title 36 CFR, Chapter I, Part 23).

Approved, Aug. 3, 1939.

RENTAL CHARGES FOR RIGHTS-OF-WAY

Circular 1237a, dated May 23, 1938,[1] containing regulations governing rights-of-way, was incorporated into the Code of Federal Regulations as Sections 244.1 to 244.61 inclusive. These regulations are hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

§ 244.9a Rental charges. Unless otherwise ordered by the Secretary of the Interior, the charge for occupancy and use of public lands for rights-of-way for telephone and telegraph line purposes under the acts of February 15, 1901 (31 Stat. 790; 43 U.S.C. 959), and March 4, 1911 (36 Stat. 1253; 43 U.S.C. 961), tramroads under the act of January 21, 1895 (28 Stat. 635; 43 U.S.C. 956), and oil or gas pipe lines under section 28 of the act of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 437), as amended by the act of August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 674; 30 U.S.C. 185), shall be at the rate of five dollars ($5) per mile or fraction thereof per annum, the minimum charge to be five dollars ($5).

The charge for occupancy and use of public lands for reservoirs, water plants, well sites, etc., under the act of February 15, 1901, and for pumping stations or other structures under section 28 of the act of February 25, 1920, as amended, in connection with the operation and maintenance of oil or gas pipe lines, shall be five dollars ($5) per acre or fraction thereof per annum, the minimum charge to be five dollars ($5).

The first payment shall be submitted with the application and shall be the compensation for a full year computed under the rates specified in these regulations, but any excess of such payment over the pro rata compensation for the unexpired portion of the calendar year in which the permit or grant is approved will be credited to the permittee or grantee as a part of his payment for the first full calendar year. The permittee or grantee shall annually, on or before the first day of February next following the close of each calendar year of the period during which the right-of-way is authorized, deposit with the Register of the District Land Office, in cash, post office money order, bank draft or check payable to the Treasurer of the United States, the rental charges specified in the permit or grant. If the permittee or grantee shall fail to pay the rental charges, and such default shall continue for sixty days after the first day of February, then the Secretary of the Interior may in his discretion terminate and revoke the permit, or in the case of the grant, the same will be subject to cancelation upon voluntary relinquishment or by forfeiture proceedings instituted for that purpose. After default has occurred, no structures, buildings, or other equipment may be removed from the right-of-way except upon written permission first obtained from the Secretary of the Interior.

At any time not less than five years after the approval of the permit or grant, or after the last revision of rates per year thereunder, the Secretary may review such rates and impose such new rates per year as he may deem reasonable and proper.

All payments made under the permit or grant shall be deposited, except as otherwise provided by law, to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States in so far as public lands are effected and to the credit of the tribe or individual Indian entitled thereto in so far as Indian lands are affected.

The charges herein provided for the use of public lands shall apply to all existing rights-of-way and to all rights-of-way which may hereafter be permitted or granted under pending or future applications coming under the provisions of this section. In the case of existing rights-of-way, the charges shall be effective upon the date fixed in the notice to the permittee or grantee to be issued by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, but in no case shall any such charges be made retroactive.*

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

Applications for exemption, pursuant to the second paragraph of Section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and pursuant to an Order of the National Bituminous Coal Commission entered in Document No. 57-FD, which Order has been adopted and ratified as an Order of the Bituminous Coal Division, having been duly filed by the above-named parties;

It is ordered, That hearings on such matters be held on August 29, 1939, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Hearing Room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, Kentucky.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Shipman, or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division designated by the Director thereof for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matters. The officer or officers so designated to preside at such hearings is hereby authorized to conduct said hearings separately or to consolidate them, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearings from time to time, and to prepare and submit to the Director proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of appropriate orders in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearings is hereby given to such Applicants and to any person who may have an interest in such proceedings. Any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before Aug. 26, 1939.

The matters concerned herewith are in regard to applications filed by the Sand Gap Coal Company, Inc., Scrivner & Moore, W. A. Dean, and Jackson County Coal Co., Inc., for exemption pursuant to the second paragraph of Section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and to an Order of the National Bituminous Coal Commission entered in Docket No. 57-FD, which Order has been adopted and ratified as an Order of the Bituminous Coal Division. The mines of the Applicants are located in Sand Gap, Kentucky; and it is stated that all the coal produced at these mines is sold within a radius of approximately seventy-five (75) miles of the mines; that such sales are purely intrastate, and that they do not affect interstate commerce in bituminous coal.

Dated, August 14, 1939.

[Docket No. 503-FD]

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF YOUNGSTOWN SHEET AND TUBE COMPANY FOR EXEMPTION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

The Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, having filed its application for exemption under Section 4, II (1) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 29, 1939, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Hearing Room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Federal Court Room, Post Office Building, Youngstown, Ohio.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Cuff or any other officer or officers of the Bituminous Coal Division designated by the Director thereof for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer or officers so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit to the Director proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such applicant and to any other person who may have an interest in such proceedings. Any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before August 26, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to an application filed by the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, a corporation organized for the purpose of engaging in the manufacture and sale of steel and steel products. The application states that in furtherance of and incidental to its manufacturing activities this Company operates certain coal mines located in Columbiana County, Ohio. Exemption is sought for the coal produced at these mines on the ground that all of the coal is produced and consumed by the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company and, therefore, is not subject to the Act.

Dated, August 14, 1939.

Division of Marketing and Marketing Agreements.

PROCLAMATION WITH RESPECT TO BASE PERIOD TO BE USED FOR PURPOSE OF MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF PEACHES GROWN IN COUNTY OF MESA IN THE STATE OF COLORADO

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, it is hereby found and proclaimed that, with respect to peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado, the purchasing power of such peaches during the prewar period, August 1909–July 1914, cannot be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the purpose of the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order regulating the handling of such peaches, but the purchasing power of such peaches can be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period January 1, 1920–December 31, 1928. The period January 1, 1920–December 31, 1928, is, therefore, hereby declared and proclaimed to be the base period to be used in determining the purchasing power of peaches grown in the county of Mesa in the State of Colorado for the purpose of the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order regulating the handling of such peaches.

In witness whereof, the Secretary of Agriculture has executed this proclamation in duplicate and has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed hereto in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 11th day of August 1939.

[FDC–8]

IN THE MATTER OF PUBLIC HEARING FOR PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE UPON BASIS OF WHICH A REGULATION MAY BE PROMULGATED, FIXING AND ESTABLISHING UNDER ITS COMMON OR USUAL NAME A REASONABLE DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR EACH OF THE CANNED FOODS PREPARED FROM ONE OR ANY MIXTURE OF TWO OR MORE OF CERTAIN VEGETABLES

REPORT OF PRESIDING OFFICER, SUGGESTED FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSION AND ORDER

Pursuant to, and under the authority of, a notice in the above-entitled matter issued and filed by the Secretary of Agriculture on March 22, 1939, with the Archivist of the United States and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER Friday, March 24, 1939 (FEDERAL REGISTER, Vol. 4, No. 57, pp. 1320–22), wherein the undersigned was designated as Presiding Officer to conduct in the place of the Secretary the public hearing herein, such hearing being in conformity with Section 701, subsection (e) of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U.S.C. 371 (e)), and under and by virtue of the authority in said notice specifically recited (Sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046; 21 U.S.C. 341), the said hearing was convened by the undersigned Presiding Officer at the time and place specified in said notice.

There was read into the record that portion of the notice of the Secretary setting the time and place for the hearing; stating the purpose thereof; making specific reference to the proposed amendments, thereinafter set forth, and reciting that such amendments were subject to adoption, rejection, amendment, or modification by the Secretary, in whole or in part as the evidence adduced at the hearing warranted; making specific reference to the Rules of Procedure governing the hearing published in the FEDERAL REGISTER January 13, 1939, and designating the Presiding Officer.

The FEDERAL REGISTER dated March 24, 1939, containing the notice and proposals of the Secretary, was offered and received in evidence and marked "Government's Exhibit No. 1."

In open session the Presiding Officer announced that each person who had filed an appearance at the hearing would be informed of the date of the filing of the transcript of the evidence and the proceeding with the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and that ten days would be allowed, from the date of the receipt of such notice, for the filing, by such interested persons, with such Hearing Clerk, of written arguments, proposed findings of fact, or both, based solely upon the evidence adduced at the hearing.

The suggested findings of fact herein were made, the suggested conclusions in the form of Regulations and the suggested order herein were drafted, after the expiration of the aforesaid ten days and after consideration of the written arguments and proposed findings so filed, as well as the entire transcript of the evidence and the proceeding.

As to canned mixtures of the vegetables named in the proposals, the use of vegetable ingredients of the type classified, generally, as "acid vegetables" with those not so classified necessitates processing techniques, varying as the several ingredients vary within those classifications, not only to protect the health of consumers, but also to insure marketability. (R. 434–6, 438) There is no evidence concerning all the commercial packs of the mixtures set up in the proposals, nor all the varying processing techniques necessarily employed. There is no evidence that it would be practicable or reasonable from the standpoint of the canner, nor be promotive of honesty and fair dealing in the interest of the consumer, to require similar proportions of each of the several vegetable ingredients in each mixture of two, three, four, or more of such vegetables. In the circumstances, no findings of fact are made with respect to fixing and establishing, under its common or usual name, a reasonable definition and standard of identity for each of the canned foods prepared from two, three, four, or more of said vegetables.

As to those of the vegetables named in the proposals which are canned singly, a careful review of the evidence as well as the proposed findings of fact, briefs and arguments, discloses numerous points of conflict with respect to many important, material facts which enter into and are determinative of the principal, or ultimate facts. It is not considered advisable or necessary to review here the many points of divergence.

After careful and mature consideration of the evidence in all its phases and ramifications, certain findings of fact, based upon preponderant and substantial evidence, have been made, wherefrom a reasonable definition and standard of identity, under its common or usual name, may be fixed and established for each of the canned vegetables hereinafter listed in such findings.

Upon the basis of substantial evidence received at the hearing and appearing in the transcript of evidence, to which specific references are made in each instance following the findings, the undersigned Presiding Officer makes and suggests the detailed findings of fact hereinafter set forth; and he further suggests that the Secretary of Agriculture issue an order setting out therein and as part thereof such findings of fact, omitting therefrom references to the pages of the Transcript of Evidence, and that in and by such order the Regulation hereinafter set forth be promulgated.

SUGGESTED FINDINGS OF FACT

Meaning of Terms and Manner of Statement

A. By the term, "common or usual name", or "common or usual names", as used herein, is meant the name, or names, whereby the canned food or vegetable is herein designated.

B. When two or more unit-forms of a vegetable are specified herein after the common or usual name of the vegetable, each unit-form so specified is understood to be an ingredient in the canning of such vegetable; that is, an optional ingredient; and the common or usual name of such vegetable is the name, or names, whereby such vegetable in such unit-form, or unit-forms is designated.

1. Kohlrabi

That there is no evidence whatsoever that there is a canned food prepared from the succulent vegetable commonly known as kohlrabi.

2. All others canned in succulent state

That all the other vegetables named in the notice and proposals of the Secretary are canned in their succulent state when they are of sufficient size to be suitable and useful for food and before they have lost their natural moisture and tenderness and have become hard or tough. (R. 12–14, 238)

3. General pre-canning and canning procedure

That, in general, before such vegetables are canned, or processed for canning, they are cleaned and the inedible portions, excepting the cobs of corn-on-the cob and certain portions of the artichokes, and other undesirable or unsuitable portions, are removed. The remaining portions are placed in cans, or containers, either as whole units or in smaller units, and the interstices are filled with water sufficient for processing purposes (except in the case of pimentos (R. 83) and artichokes (R. 14)), with or without the addition of salt, and in the cases of white corn (R. 49), yellow corn (R. 54), field corn (R. 59–60), and sweet potatoes (R. 88, 89), with or without the addition of sugar. Steam or hot water may be applied to the vegetables for softening or blanching; the container is sealed, and heat is applied to the food to prevent spoilage. (R. 12, 13, 14, 49, 54, 59, 60, 83, 88–89, 238)

4. Certain commonly known vegetables—canning process

That each of the canned vegetables listed in this paragraph is listed in the name by which it is commonly known; that each such vegetable is the food prepared by packing in a container the immature, succulent vegetable, which may be more particularly defined and identified in a subsequent paragraph bearing such name as a caption, filling the interstices with water, with or without adding salt, sealing the container and so processing the food by application of heat as to prevent spoilage; that the name of each said vegetable and the name by which it is commonly known is:

|---|---|
| Asparagus. | Kale. |
| Bean Sprouts. | Mushrooms. |
| Green Beans. | Mustard Greens. |
| Wax Beans. | Okra. |
| Shelled Beans. | Onions. |
| Lima Beans. | Parsnips. |
| Beets. | Black-Eye Peas. |
| Beet Greens. | Field Peas. |
| Broccoli. | Potatoes. |
| Brussels Sprouts. | Red Sweep Peppers. |
| Cabbage. | Rutabagas. |
| Carrots. | Salsify. |
| Cauliflower. | Spinach. |
| Celery. | Swiss Chard. |
| Collards. | Truffles. |
| Dandelion Greens. | Turnip Greens. |
| Green Sweet Peppers. | Turnips other than Rutabagas). |

(R. 19, 22–3, 25–41, 43–9, 58–9, 62–4, 62–98, 100–102, 118–9, 127, 129–31, 191, 196–8, 238, 242–7, 252, 370, 372, 379–81, 393–4, 399–401, 543, 548–9, 552–3, 554–5, 584–6)

5. Other commonly known vegetables—canning process—white corn, yellow corn, field corn

That each of the canned vegetables which is commonly known as white corn, or white sweet corn; yellow corn, or yellow sweet corn; field corn, is the food prepared by: (1) packing either of such commonly known, immature, succulent vegetables, or the whole grains, or whole kernels of such corn, in a container, with or without adding salt, and filling the interstices with water; or (2) mixing with water and packing the cut and crushed grains or kernels of either of such immature, succulent vegetables, so commonly known, in a container, with or without adding sugar and salt; and sealing the container and so processing the food by application of heat as to prevent spoilage (R. 49, 54, 59–62, 214, 238, 260–63, 280, 556); that each of said vegetables is more particularly defined and identified in a subsequent paragraph bearing such name as a caption.

6. Another Commonly Known Vegetable—Canning Process—Sweet Potatoes

That the canned vegetable which is commonly known as sweet potatoes is the food prepared by packing in a container the immature, succulent vegetable commonly known as sweet potatoes, filling the intersices with water (except where the potato ingredient is mashed), with or without adding salt and sugar, or salt or sugar, sealing the container and so processing the food by application of heat as to prevent spoilage (R. 88–91, 238, 370, 380–1, 393, 399–401, 552–3, 585); that said vegetable is more particularly defined and identified in a subsequent paragraph bearing such name as a caption.

7. Artichokes

Definition—Identity. That canned artichokes is the food prepared by packing buds, or flower buds, of immature succulent vegetable plants commonly known as artichokes in a container, filling the container with water, or an edible vegetable oil, with or without salt, sealing the container, and so processing the food by application of heat as to prevent spoilage. (R. 14, 238, 359–60)

Optional forms of ingredients. That the artichoke ingredient in canned artichokes may be: whole; half or halves, halved; whole hearts, half hearts, halved hearts; quarter hearts, or quartered hearts; and that any such ingredient may be used in canning artichokes. (R. 15, 114–15, 202, 359–60)

Forms of ingredient declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 16, 114–115, 202, 238, 359–60)

Acids optional ingredients declared on label. That citric acid, cider vinegar and white wine vinegar (but in no case in such quantity as to reduce the pH. of the canned artichokes to a point below 4.5) are ingredients optional with the canner of artichokes; and when any such ingredient is used, it should be declared on the label by the statement:

"Citric Acid Added", or "Added Citric Acid"; "Cider Vinegar Added", or "Added Cider Vinegar"; "White Wine Vinegar Added", or "Added White Wine Vinegar";

in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 19, 183–4, 186, 210, 226, 238, 365–68, 387–9, 537–8)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 14–16, 115–16, 202, 216–17, 227–8, 238, 359–361, 551–2, 584–5, 594)

Edible vegetable oils optional ingredients declared on label. That an edible vegetable oil is an ingredient optional with the canner of this food, and, when used, its name should be set forth on the label by the statement, "---------- Oil Added", or "With added ---------- Oil" (the blank to be filled in with the common or usual name of the oil so used), in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 17, 238, 359, 376)

8. Asparagus

Optional forms of ingredients. That the asparagus ingredient, in canned asparagus, may be: stalks or spears; cut stalks or cut spears; peeled stalks or peeled spears; tips, or peeled tips; points; bottom cuts; and that "stalks" or "spears" are the full length of the vegetable, usually not more than 6¼ inches in length, nor less than 4 inches; that "tips" are the upper portion of the vegetable, usually not more than 4 inches in length, nor less than 3¼ inches; that "points" are the upper portion of the vegetable, usually less than 3¼ inches in length; that "bottom cuts" are the portions of the "stalk" or "spear" remaining after the "tips" have been removed. (R. 19, 183–4, 186, 210, 226, 238, 365–68, 387–9, 537–8)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 20, 184, 226, 238)

Acids optional ingredients declared on label. That citric acid, cider vinegar and white wine vinegar (but in no case in such quantity as to reduce the pH. of the canned asparagus to a point below 4.5) are ingredients optional with the canner of asparagus; and when any such ingredient is used, it should be declared on the label by the statement:

"Citric Acid Added", or "Added Citric Acid"; "Cider Vinegar Added", or "Added Cider Vinegar"; "White Wine Vinegar Added", or "Added White Wine Vinegar";

in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 20–1, 184, 226–8, 238, 365, 372, 537–8)

9. Bean Sprouts

Definition. That canned bean sprouts is the food prepared from the immature, succulent sprouts of the Mung bean. (R. 22–3, 238)

[1] See page 3599.

10. Green Beans

Optional forms of ingredients. That the green bean ingredient, in canned green beans, may be: whole; cut; sliced lengthwise, or shoestring; and that any such green bean ingredient may be used in canning green beans. (R. 23–25, 116–18, 188–9, 203–4, 238, 309–12, 541–2, 570–77, 591–2)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 23–4, 238)

11. Wax Beans

Optional forms of ingredients. That the wax bean ingredient, in canned waxed beans, may be: whole; cut, sliced lengthwise, or shoestring; and that any such wax bean ingredient may be used in canning wax beans. (R. 25–27, 116–118, 188–9, 203, 238, 309–12, 541–543)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 25–27, 238)

12. Shelled Beans

Definition. That canned shelled beans is the food prepared from the immature, succulent seed shelled from green or wax bean pods. (R. 27–9, 118–19, 123, 192, 238, 550)

Optional form of ingredient declared on label. That the shelled bean ingredient, in canned shelled beans, may be the immature, succulent seed shelled from the broken or cut green or wax-bean pods, to which "snaps" may be added and when "snaps" are added, the labels should bear the statement: "With Snaps", or "Snaps Added", in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 28, 238)

13. Lima Beans

Regional synonymous name. That "butter beans", in the region which includes the southern half of the United States east of the Mississippi River, is the name by which canned small lima beans are known. (R. 124, 204, 220, 299, 308, 325, 355–6, 550, 584)

14. Beets

Optional forms of ingredients. That the beet ingredient in canned beets may be: Whole; slices, or sliced; quarters, or quartered; dice, or diced; cut; shoestring; and that any such ingredient may be used in canning beets. (R. 31–32, 114, 238)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 32–33, 238)

Vinegar an optional ingredient. That cider vinegar is an ingredient optional with the canner of this food and, when used, its presence should be stated on the label with the words "Cider Vinegar Added", or "With Added Cider Vinegar", in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 31–33, 238)

Spice an optional ingredient. That spice is an ingredient optional with the canner of this food and, when used, its presence should be stated on the label with the words "With Added Spice", or "Spice Added", (or in lieu of the word "Spice" the common or usual name or names of the spice or spices may be used), in such proximity with the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 31–33, 238)

15. Beet Greens

Definition. That canned beet greens is the food prepared from the immature, succulent leaves, or such leaves and the immature root, of the succulent vegetable, commonly known as beets. (R. 34–36, 238)

19. Carrots

Optional forms of ingredients. That the carrot ingredient in canned carrots may be: whole; slices, or sliced; quarters, or quartered; dice, or diced; cut; shoestring; and that any such carrot ingredient may be used in canning carrots. (R. 41, 114, 238)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 41–43, 238)

20. Cauliflower

Definition. That canned cauliflower is the food prepared from cut pieces of the immature, succulent heads of the cauliflower plant. (R. 43–45, 238)

21. Celery

Optional forms of ingredients. That the celery ingredients in canned celery may be: cut; hearts; and that any such celery ingredient may be used in canning celery; and that "cut" celery consists of pieces of stalk cut about one-half or three-quarters of an inch long. (R. 46, 238, 370, 379, 543)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 46, 125, 238, 370, 379, 543)

Acids optional ingredients declared on label. That citric acid, cider vinegar and white wine vinegar (but in no case in such quantity as to reduce the pH. of the canned celery to a point below 4.5) are ingredients optional with the canner of celery; and when any such ingredient is used, it should be declared on the label by the statement:

"Citric Acid Added", or "Added Citric Acid", "Cider Vinegar Added", or "Added Cider Vinegar"; "White Wine Vinegar Added", or "Added White Wine Vinegar"; in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 81–83, 196–98, 238, 242–47, 372, 548–9, 584)

22. Collards

Definition. That canned collards is the food prepared from the immature, succulent leaves of the collard plant. (R. 47–49)

23. White Corn

Optional forms of ingredients. That the white corn ingredient in canned white corn may be on-cob; whole grain or whole kernel; crushed; and that any such white corn ingredient may be used in canning white corn. (R. 49, 173–75, 178, 209–10, 214, 223–24, 260–63, 273–75, 543–45, 546–48, 564–67, 577–79)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. Same as in preceding paragraph)

Starch optional ingredient declared on label. That starch, in such an amount as to prevent lumpiness, is an ingredient optional in the canning of white crushed (sweet) corn; and when such optional ingredient is used, its presence should be declared on the label by the statement, "With Added Starch", or "Starch Added", in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 51–53, 238–9)

Synonymous name. That "white sweet corn" is a synomymous name for "white corn." (R. 49, 175, 556)

24. Yellow Corn

Optional forms of ingredients. That the yellow corn ingredient in canned yellow corn may be on-cob; whole grain or whole kernel; or crushed; and that any such yellow corn ingredient may be used in canning yellow corn. (R. 54, 172–74, 209, 214, 221–22, 238, 269, 271, 505–6–7, 545–48, 556, 564–67, 577–79, 582–3)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 56–7, 238–9, 556)

Starch optional ingredient declared on label. That starch, in such an amount as to prevent lumpiness, is an ingredient optional in the canning of yellow crushed (sweet) corn; and when such optional ingredient is used, its presence should be declared on the label by the statement "With Added Starch", or "Starch Added", in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 55–6, 238–9)

Synonymous name. That "yellow sweet corn" is a synonymous name for "yellow corn." (R. 54, 175, 556)

25. Field Corn

Optional forms of ingredients. That the field corn ingredient in canned field corn may be whole grain or whole kernel; crushed; and that any such field corn ingredient may be used in canning field corn. (R. 60–61, 214, 238)

Acids optional ingredients declared on label. That citric acid, cider vinegar and white wine vinegar (but in no case in such quantity as to reduce the pH. of the canned spinach to a point below 4.5) are ingredients optional with the canner of spinach; and when any such ingredient is used, it should be declared on the label by the statement:

"Citric Acid Added", or "Added Citric Acid"; "Cider Vinegar Added", or "Added Cider Vinegar"; "White Wine Vinegar Added", or "Added White Wine Vinegar";

in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 93–95, 131, 372, 594)

43. Swiss Chard

Definition. That canned swiss chard is the food prepared from the immature, succulent leaves of the variety of beet commonly known as swiss chard. (R. 95–6, 238)

44. Truffles

Definition. That canned truffles is the food prepared from the immature, succulent, edible species of fungi, commonly known as truffles. (R. 96–8, 238)

45. Turnip Greens

Definition. That canned turnip greens is the food prepared from the immature, succulent leaves of the turnip plant. (R. 96–8, 238)

46. Turnips (Other than rutabagas)

Definition. That canned turnips (other than rutabagas) is the food prepared from the immature, succulent vegetable commonly known as turnips. (R. 100–2, 238, 554, 585–6)

Optional forms of ingredients. That the turnip ingredient, in canned turnips, may be: whole; quarters, or quartered; cut, slices, or sliced; dice, or diced; and that either of such ingredients may be used in canning turnips. (R. 100–102, 130, 238, 370, 395)

Forms of ingredients declared on label. That when either of such optional ingredients is used, it should be stated on the label in such proximity to the name of the vegetable as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use. (R. 100–102, 238)

47. Optional ingredients for all vegetables

That sugar is an ingredient the use of which is optional in the canning of each of the vegetables for which a definition and standard of identity has been hereinbefore found; and when used, its presence should be declared on the label by the statement, "With Sugar Added", or "With Added Sugar". (R. 124, 287–8, 373–4)

That cider vinegar, or white wine vinegar, is an ingredient the use of which is optional in the canning of each of the vegetables for which a definition and standard of identity has been hereinbefore found; and when used, its presence should be declared on the label by the statement, "With Cider Vinegar Added", or "With Added Cider Vinegar"; "With White Wine Vinegar Added", or "With Added White Wine Vinegar. (R. 227–8, 372–3, 551–2, 584–5, 594)

That spice is an ingredient the use of which is optional in the canning of each of the vegetables for which a definition and standard of identity has been hereinbefore found; and when used, its presence should be declared on the label by the statement, "With Spice Added", or "With Added Spice", or, instead of using the word "spice" in such statement, the common or usual name of the spice may be used. (R. 372–3)

That when two or more of the optional ingredients: sugar, citric acid, cider vinegar, white wine vinegar, spice, vegetable oil, starch, or snaps, are present in the same canned food, instead of the form of label statement hereinbefore suggested for each such optional ingredient, such statements may be combined into a single statement, as, for example, " Citric Acid and ---------- Oil Added", or "Cider Vinegar, sugar, and spice added." (R. 17–18, 32–33, 51–52, 56)

That such of said optional ingredients as are used should be stated on the label so that the consumer may be informed what ingredient other than the vegetable ingredient and the usual packing medium is present. (R. 14, 102, 238)

Upon the basis of the foregoing findings of fact, it is concluded that the regulation hereinafter set forth should be promulgated.

SUGGESTED REGULATION

Regulation Fixing and Establishing a Reasonable Definition and Standard of Identity for Each of the Foods Prepared From One of the Succulent Vegetables Hereinafter Listed

§ 52.990 Canned vegetables—Definitions and standards of identity; label statements of optional ingredients. (a) A canned vegetable for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed in this section is the food prepared from one of the following properly prepared, succulent vegetables:

Artichokes. Whole; half or halves, halved; whole hearts; half hearts, halved hearts; quarter hearts, quartered hearts.

Asparagus. Stalks or spears (over 4 inches long); cut stalks, or cut spears; peeled stalks, or peeled spears; tips (not less than 3¼ inches nor more than 4 inches long), or peeled tips; points (less than 3¼ inches long); bottom cuts.

Bean sprouts.

Green beans. Whole; cut; sliced lengthwise, or shoestring.

Wax beans. Whole; cut; sliced lengthwise, or shoestring.

Shelled beans.

Lima beans, or butter beans.

Beets. Whole; slices, or sliced; quarters, or quartered; dice, or diced; cut; shoestring.

Beet greens.

Broccoli.

Cabbage.

Carrots. Whole; slices, or sliced; quarters, or quartered; dice, or diced; cut; shoestring.

Cauliflower.

Celery. Cut; hearts.

Collards.

Dandelion greens.

White corn, white sweet corn. On cob; whole grain, or whole kernel; crushed.

Yellow corn, yellow sweet corn. On cob; whole grain, or whole kernel; crushed.

Field corn. Whole grain, or whole kernel; crushed.

Kale.

Mushrooms. Buttons; whole; slices, or sliced; irregular pieces and stems.

Mustard greens.

Okra. Whole; cut.

Onions. Whole; cut.

Parsnips. Whole; quarters, or quartered; slices, or sliced; cut; shoestring.

Black-eye peas.

Field peas. Other than black-eye.

Green sweet peppers. Whole; halves, or halved; irregular pieces.

Red sweet peppers. Whole; halves, or halved; irregular pieces.

Pimientos. Whole; irregular pieces.

Potatoes. Whole; slices, or sliced; pieces; dice, or diced; shoestring.

Sweet potatoes. Whole; pieces; mashed.

Salsify.

Spinach.

Swiss chard.

Truffles.

Turnip greens.

Rutabagas. Whole; quarters, or quartered; cut; slices, or sliced; dice, or diced.

Turnips (other than rutabagas). Whole; quarters, or quartered; cut; slices, or sliced; dice, or diced.

(b) If two or more forms of the vegetables are specified after the name thereof in subsection (a), each form is an optional ingredient.

(c) Water is added except in the cases of pimientos and sweet potatoes in mashed form. The following optional ingredients, in the cases of the vegetable specified after each, may be added:

(1) Citric acid, cider vinegar, or white wine vinegar (but not in such quantities as to reduce the pH. of the finished canned vegetables to a point below 4.5), in the cases of artichokes, asparagus, celery, green sweet peppers, onions, mushrooms, pimientos, red sweet peppers, and spinach.

(2) An edible vegetable oil, in the cases of artichokes and pimientos.

(3) Starch, in the cases of white crushed corn and yellow crushed corn, in such quantity as to prevent lumpiness.

(4) Snaps (immature broken pods) in the cases of shelled beans, black-eye peas, and field peas.

The food may be seasoned with one or more of the following optional ingredients:

(5) Salt.

(6) Cider vinegar, or white wine vinegar.

(7) Spice.

(8) Sugar.

The food is sealed in a container and so processed by application of heat as to prevent spoilage.

(d) The name of each canned vegetable for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is the name whereby such vegetable is designated in subsection (a).

(e) If two or more forms of the vegetable are specified after the name thereof in subsection (a), the label shall bear the specified word or words showing the form of the vegetable present.

(f) If one of the optional ingredients: citric acid; cider vinegar; white wine vinegar; edible vegetable oil; starch; snaps; sugar; or spice is present, the label shall bear the statement, or statements: "Citric Acid Added", or "Added Citric Acid"; "Cider Vinegar Added", or "Added Cider Vinegar"; "White Wine Vinegar Added", or "Added White Wine Vinegar"; "---------- Oil Added", or "With Added ---------- Oil" (the blanks to be filled in with the common or usual name of the oil); "Starch Added", or "With Added Starch"; "Snaps Added", or "With Added Snaps"; "Sugar Added", or "With Added Sugar"; "Spice Added", or "With Added Spice", as the case may be; or if two or more of such ingredients are present, the statements may be combined, as, for example, "Citric Acid and ---------- Oil Added" (the blank to be filled in with the common or usual name of the oil); or "Cider Vinegar, Sugar and Spice Added". In lieu of the word "spice" in such statement or statements, the common or usual name of the spice may be added.

(g) Wherever the name of the vegetable appears on the label so conspicuously as to be readily seen under usual and customary conditions of purchase and use, the words and statements as specified in subsections (e) and (f) shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter, except that the specific varietal name or names of the vegetable in parentheses may intervene.

Time Allowed for Filing Objections and Exceptions

Those interested persons who desire to file objections to any matter set out in the foregoing suggested findings of fact, conclusions in the form of a regulation, and order, or written arguments or briefs in support of exceptions to rulings of the Presiding Officer at said hearing, may, within ten days after the receipt of the Federal Register containing this report, transmit to and file with the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., such objections, or exceptions, in writing, accompanied by brief statements concerning such objections or exceptions, referring specifically to the relevant suggested findings, conclusions, in the form of a regulation, or order to which such objections are filed, and to such exceptions and the pertinent pages of the transcript of the evidence and the proceedings.

Respectfully submitted this 31st day of July 1939.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Order No. 61]

COMMON CARRIERS ENGAGED IN FOREIGN TELEGRAPH COMMUNICATION

STATEMENTS TO BE FILED

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of August, 1939,

Pursuant to Section 218 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, for the purpose of obtaining information necessary to enable the Commission to perform its duties and carry out the objects for which it was created,

It is ordered, That every common carrier subject to the Communications Act engaged in foreign telegraph communication shall file with the Commission not later than November 10, 1939, in duplicate, under oath (on a form like that attached hereto,[1] for each country, and in accordance with the instructions thereon) a statement showing the following information separately for full rate ordinary (subclassified by plain language and cipher messages) full rate urgent (subclassified by plain language and cipher messages) CDE ordinary, CDE urgent, ordinary press, urgent press, deferred press (LC) United States Government ordinary, United States Government CDE, Foreign Government ordinary, Foreign Government CDE, deferred (LC), letter (NLT and DLT) telegrams, and all other paid messages, by separate classifications and subclassifications, transmitted or received by such carrier during the twenty-four hour periods on the seven days following (showing only the totals for the seven days): September 7, 12, 16, 17, 20, 25 and 29, 1939.

1. Number of messages and words originated in each country outside the continental United States (including Hawaii and the Philippine Islands and excluding Canada and Mexico) for delivery in the continental United States, shown separately by countries of origin;

2. Number of messages and words originated in the continental United States, transmitted by such carrier and destined to each country outside the continental United States (including Hawaii and the Philippine Islands, and excluding Canada and Mexico) shown separately by countries of destination;

3. Number of messages and words between foreign countries (including Hawaii and the Philippine Islands) relayed in the continental United States; showing separately the inbound traffic of this nature to the continental United States for relay, by countries of origin; and showing separately the outbound traffic of this nature from the continental United States, by countries of destination; excluding traffic between Canada and Mexico; and

4. Number of messages and words between fixed stations in the continental United States and mobile stations showing separately the number of such messages and words originated in or destined to points in the continental United States and the number of such messages and words originated in or destined to foreign countries, relayed through fixed stations in the continental United States (including Hawaii and the Philippine Islands).

For the purposes of this order, the continental United States shall include the several states and the District of Columbia only.

In connection with messages in classifications where there is a chargeable minimum, the number of paid words actually sent shall be shown.

The classifications of messages set forth herein are for convenience only and nothing herein contained shall be construed as approval by the Commission of such classifications.

INVESTIGATION

At a General Session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its office in Washington, on the 8th day of August, 1939.

The Commission having under consideration the complaint of the Department of Public Service of the State of Washington against the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company filed June 28, 1939, and having also under consideration the interstate rates of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Bell Telephone Company of Nevada and Southern California Telephone Company, covering business between points outside the State of Washington but within the territory served by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, and

It appearing, that any determination which might be made on the basis of the issues raised by the complaint filed by the Department of Public Service of the State of Washington would affect only a portion of the existing interstate rates of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, which rates are now on a uniform mileage basis throughout the territory served by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries,

It is ordered, That an investigation upon this Commission's own motion be and the same is hereby instituted into the rates, charges, classifications, services, and practices, applicable to interstate communication service within the territory served by the above-named companies; and

It is further ordered, That the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company be and the same is hereby made respondent to this proceeding and served with a copy of this order; and

It is further ordered, That this proceeding be assigned for hearing at such times and places as the Commission may hereafter direct.

By the Commission.

The President

REGULATIONS RELATING TO MIGRATORY BIRDS AND CERTAIN GAME MAMMALS [1]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Secretary of the Interior, under authority and direction of sections 3 and 4 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755), as amended by the act of June 20, 1936, 49 Stat. 1555, the administration of which said act, as amended, was transferred to said Secretary on July 1, 1939, pursuant to the Reorganization Act of 1939 (Public No. 19—76th Congress), has adopted and submitted to me regulations which he has determined to be suitable regulations permitting and governing (1) the hunting, taking, capture, killing, possession, sale, purchase, shipment, transportation, carriage, exportation, and importation of migratory birds and parts, nests, and eggs thereof, included in the terms of the Convention between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds concluded August 16, 1916, and the Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States for the protection of migratory birds and game mammals concluded February 7, 1936, and (2) the exportation and importation to and from Mexico of game mammals, parts and products thereof, included in the aforesaid Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States, which said regulations are as follows:

MIGRATORY BIRD TREATY ACT REGULATIONS ADOPTED BY THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

Under authority and direction of sections 3 and 4 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755), as amended by the act of June 20, 1936, 49 Stat. 1555, the administration of which said act as amended was transferred to the Secretary of the Interior on July 1, 1939, pursuant to the Reorganization Act of 1939 (Public No. 19—76th Congress), I, Oscar L. Chapman, Acting Secretary of the Interior, having due regard to the zones of temperature and to the distribution, abundance, economic value, breeding habits, and times and lines of migratory flight of migratory birds included in the terms of the Convention between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds, concluded August 16, 1916, and the Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States for the protection of migratory birds and game mammals, concluded February 7, 1936, and having due regard to the laws of the United Mexican States relating to the exportation and importation of game mammals, and parts and products thereof, included in the terms of the said Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States and to the laws of the States and Territories and of the District of Columbia from and into which such mammals, parts, and products thereof, may be proposed to be exported or imported, and to the laws of the United States forbidding importation of certain live mammals injurious to the interests of agriculture and horticulture, have determined when, to what extent, and by what means it is compatible with the terms of said conventions and act to allow the hunting, taking, capture, killing, possession, sale, purchase, shipment, transportation, carriage, exportation, and importation of such birds and parts thereof and their nests and eggs, and the exportation and importation of such mammals to and from Mexico, and, in accordance with such determinations, do hereby adopt the following regulations as suitable regulations permitting and governing the hunting, taking, capture, killing, possession, sale, purchase, shipment, transportation, carriage, exportation, and importation of said migratory birds and parts, nests, and eggs thereof, and the exportation and importation of game mammals and parts and products thereof to and from Mexico:

between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds and between the United States and the United Mexican States for the protection of migratory birds and game mammals, concluded, respectively, August 16, 1916, and February 7, 1936, are as follows:

1. Game birds:

(a) Anatidae, or waterfowl, including brant, wild ducks, geese, and swans.

(b) Gruidae, or cranes, including little brown, sandhill, and whooping cranes.

(c) Rallidae, or rails, including coots, gallinules, and sora and other rails.

(d) Limicolae (Charadrii), or shore birds, including avocets, curlews, dowitchers, godwits, knots, oyster-catchers, phalaropes, plovers, sandpipers, snipe, stilts, surf birds, turnstones, willet, woodcock, and yellowlegs.

(e) Columbidae, or pigeons, including doves and wild pigeons.

2. Insectivorous and other nongame birds:

Cuckoos, flickers and other woodpeckers; nighthawks, or bullbats, chuck-will's-widow, poorwills, and whippoorwills; swifts; hummingbirds; kingbirds, phoebes, and other flycatchers; horned larks; bobolinks, cowbirds, blackbirds, grackles, meadowlarks, and orioles; grosbeaks, finches, sparrows, and buntings; tanagers; martins and other swallows; waxwings; phainopeplas; shrikes; vireos; warblers; pipits; catbirds, mockingbirds, and thrashers; wrens; brown creepers; nuthatches; chickadees and titmice; kinglets and gnatcatchers; robins and other thrushes; all other perching birds which feed entirely or chiefly on insects; and auks, auklets, bitterns, fulmars, gannets, grebes, guillemots, gulls, herons, jaegers, loons, murres, petrels, puffins, shearwaters, and terns.

Game mammals.—Game mammals under the terms of the aforesaid convention between the United States and the United Mexican States include:

Antelope, mountain sheep, deer, bears, peccaries, squirrels, rabbits, and hares.

Regulation 2.—Definition of Terms

For the purposes of these regulations, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean and to include—

Secretary.—Secretary of the Interior of the United States.

Chief of Bureau.—Chief, Bureau of Biological Survey, United States Department of the Interior.

Person.—Individual, club, association, partnership, or corporation, any one or all, as the context requires.

Take.—Hunt, kill, or capture, or attempt to hunt, kill, or capture.

Open season.—Time during which migratory game birds may be taken.

Transport.—Ship, carry, export, import, and receive or deliver for shipment, conveyance, carriage, exportation, or importation.

Regulation 3.—Means by Which Migratory Game Birds May Be Taken

The migratory game birds on which open seasons are specified in regulation 4 of these regulations may be taken during such respective open seasons with bow and arrow or with a shotgun not larger than No.–10 gage fired from the shoulder, except as permitted by regulations 7, 8, 9, and 10 of these regulations, but they shall not be taken with or by means of any automatic-loading or hand-operated repeating shotgun capable of holding more than three shells, the magazine of which has not been cut off or plugged with a one-piece metal or wooden filler incapable of removal through the loading end thereof, so as to reduce the capacity of said gun to not more than three shells at one time in the magazine and chamber combined; they may be taken during the open season from land or water, with the aid of a dog, and from a blind, boat, or floating craft except sinkbox (battery), powerboat, sailboat, any boat under sail, and any craft or device of any kind towed by powerboat or sailboat; but nothing herein shall permit the taking of migratory game birds from or by means, aid, or use of an automobile or aircraft of any kind.

Waterfowl (except for propagating, scientific, or banding purposes under permit issued pursuant to regulations 8 and 9 of these regulations) and mourning doves and white-winged doves are not permitted to be taken by means, aid, or use, directly or indirectly, of corn, wheat, oats, or other grain or product thereof, salt, or any kind of feed whatsoever, placed, deposited, distributed, scattered, or otherwise put out whereby such waterfowl or doves are lured, attracted, or enticed, regardless of the distance intervening between any such grain, salt, or feed and the position of the taker, but it is not intended to forbid the taking of such birds attracted by growing or standing crops of grain or by harvested grainfields so long as such crops are not manipulated or such fields have not been harvested by man or his agencies so as to cause such grain to be placed, deposited, scattered, or otherwise put out, as aforesaid; and in the taking of waterfowl, the use, directly or indirectly, of live duck or goose decoys is not permitted, regardless of the distance intervening between any such live decoys and the position of the taker; nor shall anything in these regulations be deemed to permit the use of aircraft of any kind, or of a powerboat, sailboat, or other floating craft or device of any kind, for the purpose of concentrating, driving, rallying, or stirring up waterfowl and coots.

A person over 16 years of age is not permitted to take migratory waterfowl unless at the time of such taking he has on his person an unexpired Federal migratory-bird hunting stamp, validated by his signature written across the face thereof in ink. Persons not over 16 years of age are permitted to take migratory waterfowl without such stamp.

Regulation 4.—Open Seasons on and Possession of Certain Migratory Game Birds

Waterfowl (except snow geese and brants in States bordering on the Atlantic Ocean, Ross' geese, wood ducks, and swans), and coots, may be taken each day from 7 a. m. to 4 p. m., and rails and gallinules (other than coots), Wilson's snipes or jacksnipes, woodcocks, mourning doves, white-winged doves, and band-tailed pigeons from 7 a. m. to sunset each day during the open seasons prescribed therefor in this regulation, and they may be taken by the means and in the numbers permitted by regulations 3 and 5 of these regulations, respectively, and when so taken may be possessed in the numbers permitted by regulation 5 any day in any State or Territory or in the District of Columbia during the period constituting the open season where taken and for an additional period of 10 days next succeeding said open season, but no such bird shall be possessed in a State or Territory or in the District of Columbia at a time when such State, Territory, or District prohibits the possession thereof. Nothing herein shall be deemed to permit the taking of migratory birds on any reservation or sanctuary established under the Migratory Bird Conservation Act of February 18, 1929 (45 Stat. 1222), nor on any area of the United States set aside under any other law, proclamation, or Executive order for use as a bird, game, or other wildlife reservation, breeding ground, or refuge except insofar as may be permitted by the Secretary of the Interior under existing law, nor on any area adjacent to any such refuge when such area is designated as a closed area under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

Waterfowl, Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe, and coot.—The open seasons on waterfowl (except snow geese and brant in States bordering on the Atlantic Ocean, Ross' goose, wood duck, and swans), Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe, and coot, in the several States and Alaska, shall be as follows, both dates inclusive:

Oregon, September 1 to September 15.

Washington, September 16 to September 30.

Regulation 5.—Daily Bag and Possession Limits on Certain Migratory Game Birds

A person may take in any one day during the open seasons prescribed therefor in regulation 4 of these regulations not to exceed the following numbers of migratory game birds, which numbers shall include all birds taken by any other person who for hire accompanies or assists him in taking such birds; and when so taken these may be possessed in the numbers specified as follows:

Ducks (except wood duck).—Ten in the aggregate of all kinds, of which not more than 3 of any one, or more than 3 in the aggregate, may be of the following species—canvasback, redhead, bufflehead, and ruddy duck; and any person at any one time may possess not more than 20 ducks in the aggregate of all kinds, of which not more than 6 of any one, or more than 6 in the aggregate, may be of the following species—canvasback, redhead, bufflehead, and ruddy duck.

Geese and brant (except snow geese and brant in States bordering on the Atlantic Ocean, and Ross' goose).—Four in the aggregate of all kinds, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 8 in the aggregate of all kinds.

Rails and gallinules (except sora and coot).—Fifteen in the aggregate of all kinds, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 15 in the aggregate of all kinds.

Sora.—Fifteen, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 15.

Coot.—Twenty-five, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 25.

Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe.—Fifteen, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 15.

Woodcock.—Four, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 8.

Mourning dove and white-winged dove.—Fifteen in the aggregate of both kinds, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 15 in the aggregate of both kinds.

Band-tailed pigeon.—Ten, and any person at any one time may possess not more than 10.

The possession limits hereinbefore prescribed shall apply as well to ducks, geese, brants, rails, including coots and gallinules, Wilson's snipes or jacksnipes, woodcocks, mourning doves, white-winged doves, and band-tailed pigeons taken in Canada, Mexico, or other foreign country and brought into the United States, as to those taken in the United States.

Regulation 6.—Shipment, Transportation, and Possession of Certain Migratory Game Birds

Migratory game birds of a species on which open seasons are prescribed by regulation 4 of these regulations, legally taken, and parts thereof, may be transported in or out of the State where taken during the respective open seasons in that State, and when legally taken in and exported from Canada or Mexico, and if from Mexico are accompanied by a Mexican export permit, may be transported into the United States during the open season in the Province, State, or District where killed, but not more than the number thereof permitted by regulation 5 of these regulations to be taken by one person in 1 day, or in 2 days in the case of ducks, geese, brants, and woodcocks shall be transported by any one person in 1 calendar week out of the State where taken or from Canada or Mexico into the United States; any such birds or parts thereof in transit during the open season may continue in transit such additional time immediately succeeding such open season, not to exceed 5 days, necessary to deliver the same to their destination, and may be possessed in any State, Territory, or District during the period constituting the open season where taken, and for an additional period of 10 days next succeeding said open season; and any package in which such birds or parts thereof are transported shall have the name and address of the shipper and of the consignee and an accurate statement of the numbers and kinds of birds or parts thereof contained therein clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside thereof; but no such birds or parts thereof shall be transported from any State or Territory or the District of Columbia to or through another State or Territory or the District of Columbia or to or through Canada or Mexico contrary to the laws of the State or Territory or the District of Columbia in which they were taken or from which they are transported; nor shall any such birds or parts thereof be transported into any State or Territory or the District of Columbia from another State or Territory or District of Columbia, or from Canada or Mexico, or from any State or Territory or the District of Columbia into any Province of the Dominion of Canada or into Mexico at a time when any such State, Territory, District, or Province, or Mexico, into which they are transported, prohibits the possession or transportation thereof.

Migratory game birds imported from countries other than Canada and Mexico.—Migratory game birds of a species on which open seasons are prescribed by regulation 4 of these regulations, legally taken in and exported from a foreign country (other than Canada and Mexico, for which provision is hereinbefore made) may be transported to any State or Territory during the open season prescribed by said regulation 4 for such State or Territory on that species, and to the District of Columbia during the open season so prescribed for Maryland, and may be possessed in such State, Territory, or District for an additional period of 10 days immediately succeeding such open season, by any one person in 1 calendar week in numbers not exceeding those permitted by regulation 5 of these regulations to be taken by one person in 1 day, or in 2 days in the case of ducks, geese, brants, and woodcocks, if transportation and possession of such birds are not prohibited by such State, Territory, or District and if transported in packages marked as hereinbefore provided in this regulation.

Regulation 7.—Taking of Certain Migratory Nongame Birds by Eskimos and Indians in Alaska

In Alaska, Eskimos and Indians may take, in any manner and at any time, and may possess and transport, auks, auklets, guillemots, murres, and puffins and their eggs and skins for use of themselves and their immediate families for food and clothing.

Regulation 8.—Permits to Propagate Migratory Waterfowl

1. A person in possession of a valid, subsisting permit issued to him by a State, on its part, authorizing him to take therein migratory waterfowl or their eggs for propagating purposes, may take such birds or their eggs in such State for such purposes when authorized by a permit issued to him by the Secretary, which permit may limit the species and numbers of birds or eggs that may be taken and the period during which and the locality in which they may be taken. Both permits shall be carried on the person of the permittee when he is taking migratory waterfowl or their eggs and shall be exhibited to any person requesting to see them. Waterfowl and their eggs so taken may be possessed by the permittee and may be sold and transported by him for propagating purposes to any person holding a permit issued by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

2. A person in possession of a valid, subsisting permit issued to him by a State, on its part, authorizing him to possess, purchase, sell, and transport migratory waterfowl and their increase and eggs for propagating purposes, may possess, purchase, sell, and transport such waterfowl and their increase and eggs for such purposes when authorized by a permit issued to him by the Secretary; but may not purchase from or sell to any person not authorized by these regulations or by a permit issued thereunder to sell or purchase such waterfowl and their eggs; and migratory waterfowl, except the birds, and those hatched from the eggs, taken under paragraph 1 of this regulation, possessed under such permit, or as otherwise authorized by this regulation, may be killed by him at any time and in any manner (except that they may be killed by shooting only during the open season for waterfowl in the State where killed), and the carcasses, with heads and feet attached thereto, may be sold and transported by him to any person for actual consumption, or to the keeper of a hotel, restaurant, or boarding house, a dealer in meat or game, or a club, for sale or service to their patrons, who may possess such carcasses for actual consumption without a permit, but no such birds that have been killed shall be bartered, sold, or purchased unless each bird before attaining the age of 4 weeks shall have had removed from the web of one foot a portion thereof in the form of a V large enough to make a permanent, well-defined mark, which shall be sufficient to identify it as a bird raised in domestication under a permit.

3. Applications for permits shall be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C., and must state the name and address of the applicant; the place where the propagating project is to be carried on; the area to be used in the project; the facilities the applicant has for properly caring for the waterfowl; the number of each species of waterfowl in his possession, and how, when, and where they were acquired; and, if the application is for a permit to take migratory waterfowl or their eggs, the species and the number of each species or of the eggs of each species proposed to be taken, and the specific locality where it is proposed to take them. No permit will be issued to take for propagation or to propagate migratory waterfowl on premises on any part of which the hunting or shooting of waterfowl is permitted.

4. Every permittee shall keep books and records that shall correctly set forth the number of each species of waterfowl and their eggs taken by him, if he holds a permit to take waterfowl, the number of each species of waterfowl and their eggs possessed on the date of the application for a permit, the number of each species reared and killed, the number of each species and their eggs sold and transported, the manner in which they were transported, the name and address of each person from or to whom waterfowl and eggs were purchased or sold, the number and species so purchased or otherwise acquired or sold and whether sold alive or dead, and the date of each transaction. Whenever requested by the Chief of the Bureau, the permittee shall submit to him such report of his operations under the permit as may be called for, and in any event shall file with the Secretary, on a form provided therefor, on or before January 10, a full report of his operations during the preceding calendar year. Failure to make the reports herein provided for will be cause for revocation of the permit.

5. A permittee shall at all reasonable hours allow any authorized employee of the United States Department of the Interior to enter and inspect the premises where operations are being carried on under this regulation and to inspect the books and records relating thereto.

6. No permit issued by the Secretary authorizes the taking, possession, sale, purchase, exchange, or transportation of migratory waterfowl or their eggs unless the permittee has in his possession while exercising any such privilege a valid, subsisting permit of equivalent tenor issued to him by the State in which he proposes to operate. No permit issued by the Secretary authorizes the transportation of migratory waterfowl or their eggs from Mexico into the United States unless such waterfowl or eggs are accompanied by a Mexican export permit. Permits are not transferable and are revocable at any time in the discretion of the Secretary. A permit revoked by the Secretary shall be surrendered to him by the person to whom it was issued on demand of any employee of the United States Department of the Interior authorized to enforce the Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

7. A person may possess and transport, subject to the provisions of paragraph 8 of this regulation, for his own use, without a permit, live migratory waterfowl now legally possessed or hereafter legally acquired by him, but he may not purchase or sell such waterfowl without a permit. A State or municipal game farm or city park may possess, purchase, sell, and transport live migratory waterfowl without a permit, but no such waterfowl shall be purchased from or sold to a person (other than such State or municipal game farm or city park) unless he has a permit. Feathers of wild ducks and wild geese legally killed, and feathers of such birds seized and condemned by Federal or State game authorities, may be possessed, purchased, sold, and transported for use in making fishing flies, bed pillows, and mattresses, and for such similar commercial purposes, but not for millinery or ornamental purposes.

8. Every package in which migratory waterfowl or parts or eggs thereof are shipped wholly within a State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or in which such waterfowl or parts or eggs thereof are transported by any means whatever from one State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, to, into, or through another State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or to a foreign country, shall be plainly and clearly marked, labeled, or tagged on the outside thereof to show the name and address of the consignor and consignee, the contents of the package, the number of the permit under authority of which it is shipped or transported and the purpose for which the waterfowl or eggs are being shipped or transported.

Regulation 9.—Permits to Collect Migratory Birds for Scientific Purposes

1. A person in possession of a valid, subisting permit issued to him by a State, on its part, authorizing him to take therein migratory birds or their nests or eggs for scientific purposes may take such birds or their nests or eggs in such State for such purposes when authorized by a permit issued to him by the Secretary. Both permits shall be carried on his person when he is taking migratory birds, or their nests or eggs, thereunder, and shall be exhibited to any person requesting to see them; but nothing herein shall be deemed to permit the taking of any migratory game bird during the open season therefor in any manner or by any means or at any time of the day not permitted by regulations 3 and 4 of these regulations.

2. Applications for permits shall be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C., and must state the name and address of the applicant, his age, the State or Territory in which migratory birds or their nests or eggs are proposed to be taken, the purpose for which they are intended, information sufficient to show that such birds, nests, or eggs permitted to be taken will be devoted to scientific purposes, and the names and addresses of at least two well-known ornithologists, principals, or superintendents of educational or zoological institutions, officials or members of zoological or natural history organizations, or instructors in zoology in high schools, colleges, or universities, from whom may be obtained information respecting the applicant's status as a scientific investigator. The applicant must furnish such other information touching his fitness to be entrusted with a permit as may be called for by the Secretary.

3. A permit may limit the number and species of migratory birds or their nests or eggs that may be taken thereunder, and the places where, time when, and means by which they may be taken, and may authorize the holder thereof, when possessed of an equivalent State permit, to possess, purchase, sell, exchange, and transport migratory birds and their nests and eggs for scientific purposes but not to purchase or sell to any person not authorized by these regulations or by a permit issued thereunder to sell or purchase such birds, nests, or eggs, or it may limit the holder to one or more of these privileges. Public museums, zoological parks and societies, and public scientific and educational institutions may possess, purchase, sell, exchange, and transport migratory birds and their nests and eggs for scientific purposes, without a permit, but no such birds, nests, or eggs shall be taken without a permit or purchased from, sold to, or exchanged with a person not authorized by these regulations or by a permit issued thereunder to sell, purchase, or exchange them. Migratory birds found wounded or dead, in the wounding or killing of which the finder was not implicated, may be salvaged by him and possessed under permit issued by the Secretary upon such terms and conditions as shall be stated in the permit, but they may not be sold, purchased, bartered, or exchanged. The plumage and skins of migratory game birds legally taken may be possessed and transported by a person without a permit.

4. A taxidermist, when authorized by a permit issued by the Secretary, may possess any migratory bird or nest or egg thereof delivered to him for mounting or other preparation by any person who has legally taken or legally possesses it and may transport such bird, nest, or egg in consummation of such purpose when likewise authorized by the State in which such permittee is operating. Every such permittee shall keep books and records correctly setting forth the name and address of each person delivering each migratory bird or nest or egg thereof to him, together with the name of each species, the date of delivery, the disposition of each such bird, nest, or egg and the date thereof, and such books and records shall be available for inspection at all reasonable hours on request of any authorized representative of the Department of the Interior.

5. No permit issued by the Secretary authorizes the taking, possession, sale, purchase, exchange, or transportation of any migratory bird or nest or egg thereof unless the permittee has in his possession while exercising any such privilege a valid, subsisting permit of equivalent tenor issued to him by the State in which he proposes to operate. No permit issued by the Secretary authorizes the transportation of any migratory bird, or part, nest, or egg thereof from Mexico into the United States unless such bird, or part, nest, or egg is accompanied by a Mexican export permit. Permits are not transferable and are revocable at any time in the discretion of the Secretary. A permit revoked by the Secretary shall be surrendered to him by the person to whim it was issued on demand of any employee of the United States Department of the Interior authorized to enforce the Migratory Bird Treaty Act. Whenever requested by the Chief of the Bureau, the permittee shall submit to him such report of his operations under the permit as may be called for, and in any event shall file with the Secretary, on a form provided therefor, on or before January 10, a full report of his operations during the preceding calendar year. Failure to make the reports herein provided for will be cause for revocation of the permit.

6. Every package in which migratory birds or parts, nests, or eggs thereof are shipped wholly within a State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or in which such birds, parts, nests, or eggs are transported by any means whatever from one State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, to, into, or through another State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or to a foreign country for scientific purposes shall be plainly and clearly marked, labeled, or tagged, on the outside thereof to show the name and address of the consignor and consignee, the contents of the package, the number of the permit under authority of which it is transported, and that the specimens contained therein are for scientific purposes.

Regulation 10.—Permits to Kill Migratory Birds Injurious to Property

Community injury.—When information is furnished the Secretary that any species of migratory bird has become, under extraordinary conditions, seriously injurious to agriculture or other interests in any particular community, an investigation will be made to determine the nature and extent of the injury, whether the birds alleged to be doing the damage should be killed, and, if so, during what times and by what means. Upon his determination an appropriate order will be made.

Specific injury.—Upon receipt by the Chief of the Bureau, or the regional director of the Bureau of Biological Survey in the region where the injury occurs, of information from the owner, tenant, or share cropper that migratory birds are injuring his crops or other property on the land on which he resides, together with a statement of the location of the land, the nature of the crops or property being injured, the extent of such injury, and the particular species of birds committing the injury, an investigation will be made and if it is determined from such investigation that the injury complained of is substantial and can be abated only by killing the birds, or so many thereof as may be necessary, a permit to kill the birds will be issued by said Chief of the Bureau or by the director if authorized by said Chief, in which permit will be specified the time during which, the means and methods by which, and the person or persons by whom the birds may be killed, and the disposition to be made of the birds so killed, and such other restrictions as may be deemed necessary and appropriate in the circumstances of the particular case: Provided, however, That in every permit issued as aforesaid, it shall be specified that no such birds shall be shot at or killed at any time or in any manner not authorized by the laws of the State in which such permit is effective; and as to migratory waterfowl, that they shall not be shot at or killed (1) from any blind, sink, pit, or any other device or means of concealment, natural or artificial, movable or stationary, whether on land or water; (2) by means of any gun larger than No. 10 gage, or of any gun to which a silencer has been attached or otherwise affixed; and (3) by the use of decoys of any description, or of traps or nets of any kind.

Every person exercising any privilege provided for in this regulation shall keep an accurate record of all migratory birds killed by him and whenever requested by the Chief of the Bureau or by the regional director shall submit promptly, on a form provided by the Bureau for the purpose, a report correctly stating the species and the number of each species of migratory birds killed by him and in any event shall submit such report to the regional director on or before January 10 of each year. Failure to submit a report as required by this regulation will be sufficient cause for revocation of the permit or withdrawal of any privilege accorded any person failing to make the report.

Regulation 11.—State Laws for the Protection of Migratory Birds

Nothing in these regulations or in any permit issued thereunder shall be construed to permit the taking, possession, sale, purchase, or transportation of migratory birds or parts, nests, or eggs thereof contrary to the laws and regulations of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, made for the purpose of giving further protection to migratory birds, their nests, and eggs, when such laws and regulations are not inconsistent with the conventions between the United States and any other country for the protection of migratory birds or with the Migratory Bird Treaty Act and do not extend the open seasons for such birds beyond the dates prescribed by these regulations.

Regulation 12.—Transportation of Game Mammals to and from Mexico

Game Mammals or parts or products thereof taken in and transported from a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia may be transported to Mexico, if the importation thereof is not prohibited by law or regulation of that country, upon presentation to the collector of customs at the port of exit of the certificate of an official, warden, or other officer of the game department of such State, Territory, or District, that such game mammals or parts or products thereof, which must be listed in the certificate, were taken or acquired, and are being transported in compliance with the laws and regulations of such State, Territory, or District.

Live game mammals authorized by a special permit issued by the Secretary of the Interior, pursuant to section 241 of the Penal Code, the administration of which section was in part transferred to said Secretary on July 1, 1939, pursuant to the Reorganization Act of 1939 (Public No. 19—76th Congress), to be imported, and the dead bodies of game mammals, or parts or products thereof, proceeding from Mexico, if accompanied by a Mexican export permit, may be transported into the United States, but their possession in any State or Territory or the District of Columbia will be subject to the laws of such State, Territory, or District.

The Migratory Bird Treaty Act regulations approved July 30, 1937 (50 Stat. 1844), and all amendments thereof are hereby revoked, but all regulations heretofore adopted and approved pursuant to said act closing areas of land and water or of land or water adjacent to migratory-bird sanctuaries, refuges, reservations, and breeding and feeding grounds to the taking of migratory birds, and all orders and permits heretofore made or issued pursuant to said act, and now in force, authorizing the killing or other disposition of certain species of migratory birds when injurious to crops and other property and interests, and the taking, possession, sale, purchase, exchange, or transportation of migratory birds and their nests and eggs for scientific purposes, and migratory waterfowl and their eggs for propagating purposes, are hereby continued and extended in full force and effect as regulations, orders, or permits adopted and approved or made or issued hereunder.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed by name and caused the seal of the Department of the Interior to be affixed, this 3rd day of August, 1939.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN
Acting Secretary of the Interior

AND WHEREAS upon consideration it appears that approval of the foregoing regulations will effectuate the purposes of the aforesaid Migratory Bird Treaty Act:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby approve and proclaim the foregoing regulations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 11" day of August, in the year of [SEAL] our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-fourth.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[40-Tob-1]

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HOLDING REFERENDUM ON FLUE-CURED TOBACCO MARKETING QUOTAS

In the event that the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the provisions of section 312 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, proclaims a national marketing quota for flue-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1940, a referendum of farmers who were engaged in production of the 1939 crop of flue-cured tobacco will be held, pursuant to the provisions of section 312 (c) of said act and in accordance with the regulations hereinafter set forth, on a date to be announced by the Secretary of Agriculture, to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to such quota.

The following forms will be used:

40-Tob-1. Instructions for Holding Referendum on Flue-cured Tobacco Marketing Quotas.

40-Tob-2. Register of Eligible Voters and Ballots Cast.

40-Tob-3. Notice — Flue-cured Tobacco Marketing Quota Referendum.

40-Tob-4. 1940 Flue-cured Tobacco Marketing Quota Referendum Ballot.

40-Tob-5. Community Summary of 1940 Flue-cured Tobacco Marketing Quota Ballots.

40-Tob-6. County Summary of 1940 Flue-cured Tobacco Marketing Quota Ballots.

40-Tob-7. State Tabulation of 1940 Flue-cured Tobacco Marketing Quota Ballots.

A. VOTING ELIGIBILITY

All farmers who were engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in 1939 are eligible to vote in the flue-cured tobacco marketing quota referendum. Any person who shares in the proceeds of the 1939 flue-cured tobacco crop as owner (other than a landlord of a standing-rent or fixed-rent tenant), tenant, or sharecropper is considered as having been engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in 1939. If several members of the same family participated in the production of flue-cured tobacco on a farm in 1939, the only member or members of such family who shall be eligible to vote shall be the member or members of the family who had an independent bona fide status as operator, share-tenant, or sharecropper and was entitled as such to share in the proceeds of the 1939 crop.

For any farm on which records have been obtained in connection with the 1939 agricultural conservation program showing correctly those persons entitled to receive a share of the proceeds of the tobacco crop grown on the farm in 1939, only those persons so shown as entitled to receive such share shall be eligible to vote in the referendum.

No person shall be eligible to vote in any community other than the community in which he resides, except, as follows: (a) Any person who resides in a community in which there is no polling place shall be eligible to vote at the polling place designated for the community nearest to the community in which he was engaged in the production of tobacco in 1939. (b) Any person who does not reside in the county in which he was engaged in the production of tobacco in 1939 may obtain a ballot at the most conveniently located polling place and may cast his ballot by signing his name thereto and mailing it to the county office of the county in which he was engaged in the production of tobacco in 1939 not later than the date of the referendum (the postmark on the envelope in which the ballot was mailed shall be conclusive evidence of the date of mailing).

There shall be no voting by mail (except as provided above) by proxy, or by agent, but a duly authorized officer of a corporation, firm, association, or other legal entity, or a duly authorized member of a partnership, may cast its vote.

Farmers who planted flue-cured tobacco in the field in 1939, but harvested no tobacco on such acreage for any reason except neglect to farm the planted acreage shall be regarded as having been engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in 1939 and therefore eligible to vote in the referendum. Any farmer who did not plant tobacco in the field shall not be eligible to vote.

No farmer (whether an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity) shall be entitled to more than one vote in the referendum, even though he may have been engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in two or more communities, counties, or States in 1939.

In the event two or more persons engaged in producing flue-cured tobacco in 1939 not as members of a partnership but as tenants in common or joint tenants or as owners of community property, each such person shall be eligible to vote.

The following statements will serve as examples to illustrate the eligibility of persons to vote in particular instances.

(a) In the case of a husband and wife who engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco as joint owners of a farm each is eligible to vote; and similarly in the case of a husband and his wife or a father and his son who engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in 1939 as joint tenants the husband and wife or the father and son, as the case may be, are each eligible to vote.

(b) A person who is considered as a wage hand on a farm but who receives part or all of the proceeds from a fixed acreage of tobacco and thus shares in the proceeds of the 1939 crop of flue-cured tobacco produced on the farm would be considered as a sharecropper and shall be eligible to vote.

(c) If any person gives a member of his family a part of the tobacco crop or its proceeds but such member of the family does not have an independent status on the farm as a share-tenant or share-cropper then such member of the family is not eligible to vote.

(d) A person acting as administrator, executor, or guardian, or in some similar fiduciary capacity, is eligible to vote for each estate or person for whom he acts in such capacity if such estate or person was engaged in the production of the 1939 flue-cured tobacco crop. In such event the heirs of the estate for whom the administrator or executor acts are not eligible to vote by virtue of being such heirs nor is the person for whom the guardian or other fiduciary acts eligible to vote.

(e) A minor is eligible to vote only if he was the owner-operator of a farm on which flue-cured tobacco was produced in 1939 or if as a party to a bona-fide lease or operating agreement he had an independent status as operator, share-tenant or sharecropper and as such was entitled to share in the proceeds of the 1939 flue-cured tobacco crop in a specified proportion.

B. INSTRUCTIONS TO COUNTY COMMITTEES

The county agricultural conservation committee (hereinafter referred to as the county committee) shall be responsible for the proper holding of the referendum in the county and shall:

1. Have prepared in duplicate, prior to the date of the referendum, a registration list on 40-Tob-2 showing the name and other information required on the form for each farmer in the county who was engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in 1939. The registration list should be prepared by communities using as far as possible the records obtained under the 1939 agricultural conservation program. For those farms on which performance has not been checked the county committee should have the respective community committeeman or farm supervisor obtain the following information:

(a) The name of the farm operator;

(b) The name of each share-tenant or sharecropper growing flue-cured tobacco on the farm in 1939;

(c) The acres share of each such person in the tobacco grown on the farm;

(d) The tenure of each such person; and

(e) The name and location of every other farm on which each such person engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in 1939.

In obtaining the above information, the farm operator may be requested by letter to visit the county office or a designated place in the community within a specified time for the purpose of furnishing the information; or a community committeeman or supervisor may visit the farm operator and obtain the information. In preparing the registration list (40-Tob-2) it is suggested that the procedure indicated by the example below be followed:

| Farm serial No. | Names of farmers eligible to vote | Tenure of farmer | Initials of committeeman issuing ballot |
|---|---|---|---|
| A | B | C | D |
| 1 100 | Adams, A. A | C | |
| 2 ------ | Black, B. B | C | |
| 3 ------ | White, W. W | C | |
| 4 106 | Brown, B. B. (Non-resident). | | |

If the registration list is prepared in accordance with the example above, the name of the farm operator will be listed in the left side of Column B, and in the lines immediately beneath the line on which the name of the farm operator is listed there will be listed in the right side of Column D the name of each share-tenant or sharecropper on the farm who shares in the proceeds of the 1939 flue-cured tobacco crop. Preferably all farms operated by the same person in any community should be listed in order and the name of such operator listed only once. However, if the name of any person who resides in a community is listed more than once in that community the words "Vote other farm" should be written beside his name for each farm with respect to which it is listed except for the first farm listed for him on the registration list. If the name of any person is listed in any community and such person does not reside in such community the words "Non-resident" should be written beside such person's name.

2. Designate one readily accessible place for balloting in each community and give public notice of the date of the referendum and of the time and place for balloting. Such notice shall be given by posting the notice form (40-Tob-3) at one or more places open to the public within each community as soon as possible after the date of the referendum has been announced.

3. Make use (without advertising expense) of all available agencies of public information, including newspapers and radio, to give flue-cured tobacco farmers in the county full and accurate public notice of the day and hours of voting, the location of polling places, and the rules governing eligibility to vote. Such notice shall be given as soon as possible after the date of the referendum has been announced.

4. Designate three local farmers residing in each community who produced flue-cured tobacco in the community in 1939 as the members of the community referendum committee to conduct the referendum on the national marketing quota for flue-cured tobacco in such community, and name one of the members chairman of the committee. Designate also one such farmer as an alternate to serve on the committee in the event that any of the three regular members cannot serve.

5. In counties with a combined total of less than 200 flue-cured tobacco farms, the county committee may treat the county as one community for the purpose of the referendum and hold the referendum and perform the duties both of county committee and community referendum committee.

6. See that each community referendum committee is provided with a suitable ballot box in which to place the ballots cast in the referendum.

7. See that 40-Tob-2 has been prepared, in accordance with the instructions herein, to show the persons eligible to vote in the referendum in each community.

8. Deliver the original of 40-Tob-2 and a supply of 40-Tob-4 and 5 to the chairman of the community referendum committee. Retain 40-Tob-2a in the county office.

9. See to it that the community referendum committees understand their duties as to (a) issuing ballot forms, (b) recording and challenging votes, (c) tabulating ballots, and (d) certifying results of the referendum in the community.

10. Notify the State committee by telephone, telegraph, or in person, as soon as possible after the closing of the polls, as to the preliminary count of "Yes" and "No" votes in the referendum held in the county.

11. Meet not later than two days after the date of the referendum for the purpose of receiving and summarizing on 40-Tob-6 the data contained on 40-Tob-5. Such meeting shall be open to the public. 40-Tob-6, showing the results in the county, shall be prepared and cerified in quadruplicate, the original and one copy shall be sent to the State agricultural conservation committee (hereinafter referred to as the State committee) not later than four calendar days after the date of the referendum, one copy posted for sixty days in a conspicuous place accessible to the public in or near the office of the county committee (hereinafter referred to as the county office) and one copy permanently filed in the county office, where it shall be open to public inspection.

12. Notify the State committee as soon as possible by mail (on 40–Tob–6) as to the final outcome of the referendum in the county.

13. Make an investigation in each case of controversy or dispute regarding the eligibility of a voter. In each case where a ballot is marked "Challenged" by the community referendum committee, the eligibility of such person shall first be determined. If it is determined that such person is eligible, the ballot shall be placed with the challenged ballot of every other person found to be eligible, and when all the challenged ballots shall have been passed upon by the committee those ballots found to be valid shall be tabulated in the county summary. If it is determined that such person is not eligible the ballot shall be preserved with other ballots, as provided in paragraph 15 of this section B.

14. Make an immediate investigation in each case of dispute regarding the correctness of the summary of the referendum in a community. No dispute shall be investigated by the county committee unless it is brought to its attention within ten calendar days after the date on which the referendum in question was held. The county committee shall promptly decide the dispute and immediately report its findings to the State committee. All voted ballots, register forms, and community summary sheets involved in the dispute shall be mailed or delivered in person to the State office.

15. Seal the voted ballots, challenged ballots found ineligible, register sheets, and community summary sheets for the county in one or more envelopes or packages (marked "Flue-cured Tobacco Referendum 1940", followed by the name of the county) and place them under lock and key in a safe place under the custody of the secretary of the county agricultural conservation association for a period of sixty calendar days from the date of the referendum. If no notice to the contrary is received by the end of such time, the ballots shall be destroyed and the register and community summary sheets permanently filed in the county office, where they shall be open to public inspection.

C. INSTRUCTIONS TO COMMUNITY REFERENDUM COMMITTEES

Each community referendum committee designated by the county agricultural conservation committee shall:

1. Arrange, with the assistance of the county committee, for conducting the referendum.

2. Assist the county committee in giving adequate public notice of the time and place for casting ballots in advance of the date on which the referendum will be held.

3. Provide a place where each voter can prepare and cast a ballot in secret and without interference.

4. Provide ballot boxes. Any container so arranged that ballots cannot be seen and cannot be removed without breaking seals on the container will be suitable. If strip adhesive paper or similar seals are used, such seals should be signed or initialed so that breaking or replacing the seal will affect or destroy the identifying marks and show that the seal has been tampered with.

5. Open the polls not later than 9:00 o'clock A. M., local standard time, on the date fixed for the referendum.

6. Hold the referendum in a fair and unbiased manner.

7. Initial the ballot and also the registration list (40–Tob–2) opposite the name of the voter prior to issuance of the ballot to the voter. The initials of one committeeman will be sufficient but the committeeman who initials the ballot for a voter also should initial the registration list for such voter. If the eligibility of the voter is challenged make entries on the ballot form as required in paragraph 9 prior to issuance of the ballot to the voter.

8. Instruct each voter, as he is handed a ballot form, to mark his ballot so as to show which way he votes and then to fold the ballot and place it in the ballot box.

9. Issue a ballot to each person who claims to be eligible to vote and requests a ballot, even though his eligibility is challenged by the committee. The committee shall challenge the eligibility of any person to vote:

(a) If his name is not recorded on the register of eligible voters (40–Tob–2) prior to the date of the referendum;

(b) If he was not engaged in production of flue-cured tobacco in 1939 in the community where the community referendum committee has jurisdiction over the polls, or if there is some indication beside his name that he should vote in another community; or

(c) If the committee is not certain that he has a bona-fide status as a farmer engaged in the production of flue-cured tobacco in 1939.

In every case where the eligibility of any person to vote is challenged, the community referendum committee shall, prior to the issuance of the ballot to such person, write across the back of the ballot in large letters the word "Challenged" and underneath such word the following:

(a) The name of such person;

(b) The name or number or letter of the community in which such person claims to have produced flue-cured tobacco in 1939;

(c) The name of the operator of the farm on which such person claims to have produced flue-cured tobacco in 1939; and

(d) A concise statement of the reason for challenging the eligibility of such person to vote.

The committee shall provide each farmer whose ballot is challenged as provided above an envelope in which the farmer may seal the ballot before placing it in the ballot box.

10. For each farmer to whom a ballot form is issued but who is not already listed on 40–Tob–2 prior to the time the ballot is issued to him, record thereon the information required in columns A to D, inclusive.

11. Close the polls and discontinue acceptance of ballots at 5:00 o'clock P. M., local standard time, on the date of the referendum, or such later hour as is fixed by the State committee.

12. Immediately after closing the polls, open the ballot box and canvass the ballots cast, which canvass shall be kept open to the public.

13. Tabulate and record the results of the referenum on 40–Tob–5. The number of challenged ballots cast shall be entered on 40–Tob–5, in the space provided, and will not be shown as being either for or against the marketing quotas. If any ballot is found to be mutilated or marked in such a way that it cannot be determined whether the voter favored or opposed marketing quotas, it shall not be counted as a ballot cast, the number of such spoiled ballots shall be entered in the space provided and such ballots placed in an envelope marked "Spoiled Ballots", followed by the designation of the community.

14. The total number of ballots issued as shown by the entry on the registration list of the initials of committeemen who issued the ballots shall be determined. The total number of ballots cast (including challenged, spoiled and invalid ballots) shall be determined. If any ballot was cast which was not initialed by a committeeman such ballot shall be marked "Invalid" and included among the spoiled ballots as provided in paragraph 13 above.

15. Certify to the accuracy of the executed 40–Tob–2 and 40–Tob–5 by signing in the spaces provided.

16. Notify the county committee by telephone, or in person, as soon as possible after the closing of the polls as to the preliminary count of "Yes" and "No" votes in the community.

17. Seal the voted ballots (including those challenged), the spoiled ballots, the register sheets, and the community summary sheets in one or more envelopes appropriately identified by the designation of the community and deliver them to the county committee not later than two calendar days after the date of the referendum, with the unused ballots and other forms. The chairman of the community referendum committee shall be responsible for the safe delivery of such reports, ballots, and forms to the county committee.

18. Post an executed copy of 40–Tob–5, as soon as it is executed, at a conspicuous place at the polling place and see that it remains posted and accessible to the public for at least three calendar days after the date of the holding of the referendum.

D. INSTRUCTIONS TO STATE COMMITTEES

The State committee shall be in charge of and responsible for the conducting of the referendum in the State and shall:

1. Notify the applicable regional director by telegraph as to the preliminary count in the referendum in the State of votes for and votes against marketing quotas.

2. Summarize on 40–Tob–7 the information contained on 40–Tob–6 and mail two fully executed 40–Tob–7's to the applicable regional director not later than seven calendar days after the date of the referendum. If one sheet proves insufficient for listing the information with respect to all counties in the State, additional sheets properly numbered and identified and securely attached to the first sheet may be used for continuation, in which case totals and signatures should be entered only on the last sheet. One fully executed copy of 40–Tob–6 and 40–Tob–7 shall be permanently filed in the State office of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration where it shall be open to public inspection.

3. Complete the investigation of any report from any county regarding controversies, irregularities, or disputes over the correctness of summaries of the referendum, not later than fifteen calendar days after the date of the referendum, and promptly forward its findings in such cases to the applicable regional director.

E. RESULTS OF REFERENDUM

Final and official tabulation of the votes cast in the referendum will be made by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and the results of the referendum announced by the Secretary of Agriculture. The reports on 40–Tob–7 and related papers shall be permanently filed with such tabulation and shall remain available for public inspection.

Each county committee is authorized to release to the public press and to other inquirers unofficial reports of the total "Yes" and total "No" votes in the referendum in the county.

The State committee is authorized to release to the press and to other inquirers the unofficial results of the referendum for the respective State by counties as rapidly as the votes in the various counties are tabulated.

If the Administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration or the Secretary of Agriculture deems it necessary, the report of any community referendum committee, county committee, or State committee shall be reexamined and checked by such persons or agencies as may be designated.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of August 1939. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

IN THE MATTER OF PUBLIC HEARING FOR PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE UPON BASIS OF WHICH REGULATIONS MAY BE PROMULGATED AMENDING "REGULATIONS UNDER THE FEDERAL FOOD, DRUG, AND COSMETIC ACT FOR THE LISTING OF COAL-TAR COLORS, CERTIFICATION OF BATCHES THEREOF, AND PAYMENT OF FEES FOR SUCH SERVICE" BY CHANGING CERTAIN SPECIFICATIONS OF CERTAIN LISTED COLORS AND THE LISTING OF CERTAIN OTHER COAL-TAR COLORS

REPORT OF PRESIDING OFFICER, SUGGESTED FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS AND ORDER

Pursuant to, and under the authority of, a notice in the above-entitled matter issued by the Secretary of Agriculture May 31, 1939, filed with the Archivist of the United States, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER June 3, 1939 (FEDERAL REGISTER, Vol. 4, No. 107, pp. 2255–2259), wherein the undersigned was designated as Presiding Officer to conduct in the place of the Secretary the public hearing herein, such hearing being in conformity with Section 701, subsection (e) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040–1055; 21 U.S.C. (Supp. IV) 371 (e)), and under the authority of the aforesaid act (Sec. 406 (b); 52 Stat. 1049; 21 U.S.C. 346 (b); Sec. 504; 52 Stat. 1052; 21 U.S.C. 354; Sec. 604; 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U.S.C. 364; Sec. 701 (a); 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U.S.C. (Supp. IV) 371 (a)), the said hearing was convened by the undersigned Presiding Officer at the time and place specified in said notice.

There was read into the record that portion of the notice of the Secretary setting the time and place for such hearing; stating the purpose thereof; making specific reference to the proposed amendments, thereinafter set forth, and reciting that such amendments were subject to adoption, rejection, amendment or modification by the Secretary, in whole or in part, as the evidence adduced at the hearing warranted; making specific reference to the Rules of Procedure governing the hearing, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER January 13, 1939; and designating the Presiding Officer.

Five copies of the FEDERAL REGISTER issued June 3, 1939, containing the notice and proposals of the Secretary were offered and received in evidence, and marked "Government's Exhibit No. 1."

It was announced that those who filed appearances would be notified of the date of the filing of the transcript of the evidence and the proceeding with the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and that seven days would be allowed those who had entered appearances, from the date of the receipt of such notice, for the filing with such Hearing Clerk of proposed findings of fact, written arguments and briefs based solely upon the evidence adduced at the hearing.

Each of such interested persons was subsequently so notified by a letter transmitted by registered mail to the address given at the time appearance was entered.

No controversy developed at the hearing upon, and within the scope of, the proposals submitted by the Secretary.

Upon the basis of substantial evidence received and appearing in the transcript of evidence, to which specific references are made in each instance following the findings, the undersigned Presiding Officer makes and suggests the findings of fact hereinafter set forth; and he further suggests that the Secretary of Agriculture issue an order setting out therein and as part thereof such findings of fact, omitting therefrom references to the pages of the transcript of evidence, and that in and by such order the amendments to the Regulations as hereinafter set forth be promulgated.

EXT D&C Red No. 9. Calcium salt of 2-(1-naphthylazo)-1-naphthol-5-sulfonic acid.

EXT D&C Red No. 10. Disodium salt of 2-(4-sulfo-1-naphthylazo)-1-naphthol-4-sulfonic acid.

EXT D&C Red No. 11. Disodium salt of 8-acetamido-2-phenylazo-1-naphthol-3,6-disulfonic acid.

EXT D&C Red No. 12. Barium salt of 1-(3-sulfo-2-tolylazo)-2-naphthol.

EXT D&C Red No. 13. Disodium salt of 1-p-phenylazophenylazo-2-naphthol-6,8-disulfonic acid.

EXT D&C Violet No. 1. Disodium salt of 1,5-bis(o-sulfo-p-toluino)-anthraquinone.

EXT D&C Violet No. 2. Monosodium salt of 1-hydroxy-4-(o-sulfo-p-toluino)-anthraquinone.

EXT D&C Yellow No. 5. alpha-(o-Nitro-p-tolylazo)-acetoacetanilide.

EXT D&C Orange No. 1. alpha-(o-Nitro-p-anisylazo)-o-acetoacetotoluide.

EXT D&C Orange No. 2. 4,5-Dinitro-3,6-fluorandiol. (R. 19–21)

2. Coal-Tar Colors—Chemical Analyses-Pharmacological Tests

That the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1 are coal-tar colors (R. p. 19); that said colors have been subjected to chemical study and analysis (R. p. 15, 16, 52, 53); and that the structurally basic organic parts of said colors have been subjected to pharmacological examination and tests. (R. 63, 64)

3. Certain Impurities Unavoidable

That it is neither possible nor practicable to make the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1 of a pure dye content of 100 percent, and impurities (i. e. matter that is foreign to the pure dye), which are unavoidable in good manufacturing practice or which are required in order to impart to the color some necessary characteristic, form a part of the color to the extent that such impurities are unavoidable in good manufacturing practice or are required to impart to the color some necessary characteristic. (R. 21, 22)

4. Varying Specifications Necessary

That specifications limiting the minimum amount of pure dye and the maximum amounts of impurities which may be considered to form a part of the color should be fixed so as to specify colors of the greatest possible purity practicable in good manufacturing practice; and that, as among the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, the necessary specifications vary, both as to the percentage and as to the nature of the specifications, depending upon the color and the process by which it is made. (R. 21–25)

5. Pure Dye—Methods for Determining—Practicable Limits

That in the case of the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, the limits for pure dye which are practicable in good manufacturing practice and the methods for determining the pure dye percentage are as follows:

FD&C Red No. 32. Not less than 97.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Red No. 31. Not less than 90.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Red No. 33. Not less than 82.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Red No. 34. Not less than 85.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Red No. 35. Not less than 95.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Red No. 36. Not less than 90.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Red No. 37. Not less than 50.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Violet No. 1. Not less than 80.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Yellow No. 11. Not less than 96.0 percent, as calculated from organically combined nitrogen.

D&C Blue No. 7. Not less than 80.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Blue No. 8. Not less than 80.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Blue No. 9. Not less than 97.0 percent, as calculated from organically combined nitrogen.

D&C Green No. 7. Not less than 80.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

D&C Orange No. 16. Not less than 90.0 percent, as determined gravimetrically.

D&C Orange No. 17. Not less than 90.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Black No. 1. Not less than 80.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Blue No. 3. Not less than 80.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Blue No. 4. Not less than 80.0 percent, as calculated from organically combined sulfur or nitrogen.

EXT D&C Blue No. 5. Not less than 96.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Green No. 1. Not less than 85.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Red No. 8. Not less than 90.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Red No. 9. Not less than 90.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Red No. 10. Not less than 85.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Red No. 11. Not less than 82.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Red No. 12. Not less than 90.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Red No. 13. Not less than 82.0 percent, as determined by tritation with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Violet No. 1. Not less than 80.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Violet No. 2. Not less than 80.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Yellow No. 5. Not less than 96.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Orange No. 1. Not less than 96.0 percent, as determined by titration with titanium trichloride.

EXT D&C Orange No. 2. Not less than 92.0 percent, as determined gravimetrically. (R. 23, 39, 41–45)

6. Volatile Matter—Determination

That volatile matter (usually moisture) is the remainder in the color of the volatile solvent from which the color is precipitated and is determined by heating a weighted portion of the color at a suitable temperature (i. e. a temperature chosen so that the material does not disintegrate) until it no longer loses weight. (R. 26)

7. Temperature Suitable—Practicable Limits

That volatile matter occurs in all of the proposed colors to some extent; and that the temperatures suitable for determining volatile matter and the limits for volatile matter which are practicable in good manufacturing practice, in the case of the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, are as follows:

FD&C Red No. 32. At 100° C., not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Red No. 31. At 135° C., not more than 5.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 33. At 135° C., not more than 6.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 34. At 135° C., not more than 5.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 35. At 135° C., not more than 2.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 36. At 135° C., not more than 5.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 37. At 80° C., not more than 2.0 percent.

D&C Violet No. 1. At 135° C., not more than 8.0 percent.

D&C Yellow No. 11. At 135° C., not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Blue No. 7. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

D&C Blue No. 8. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

D&C Blue No. 9. At 135° C., not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Green No. 7. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

D&C Orange No. 16. At 135° C., not more than 5.0 percent.

D&C Orange No. 17. At 135° C., not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Black No. 1. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 3. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 4. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 5. At 100° C., not more than 2.0 percent.

EXT D&C Green No. 1. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 8. At 135° C., not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 9. At 135° C., not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 10. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 11. At 135° C., not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 12. At 135° C., not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 13. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 1. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 2. At 135° C., not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Yellow No. 5. At 135° C., not more than 2.0 percent.

EXT D&C Orange No. 1. At 135° C., not more than 2.0 percent.

EXT D&C Orange No. 2. At 100° C., not more than 5.0 percent. (R. 28–29)

8. Sulfated Ash A Measure of Impurities

That in some coal-tar colors, sulfated ash is a measure of certain inorganic impurities. (R. p. 29)

9. Colors for Which Sulfated Ash A Measure of Impurities—Practicable Limits

That, in the case of the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, the following are the colors for which a determination of sulfated ash would be a measure of impurities and the limits for such impurities which are practicable in good manufacturing practice:

FD&C Red No. 32. Not more than 0.3 percent.

D&C Red No. 35. Not more than 1.5 percent.

D&C Red No. 36. Not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 37. Not more than 3.0 percent.

D&C Yellow No. 11. Not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Blue No. 9. Not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Orange No. 17. Not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 5. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Yellow No. 5. Not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Orange No. 1. Not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Orange No. 2. Not more than 1.0 percent. (R. 29)

10. Mixed Oxides a Measure of Impurities

That inorganic impurities in coal-tar colors may also be measured by a determination of the amount of "mixed oxides" (as defined in the regulations) or oxides of iron and aluminum. (R. 30)

11. Colors for Which Mixed Oxides a Measure of Impurities—Practicable Limits

That, in the case of the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, the following are the colors for which a determination of either mixed oxides or oxides of iron and aluminum would be a measure of impurities and the limits for either mixed oxides or oxides of iron and aluminum which are practicable in good manufacturing practice:

D&C Red No. 31. Oxides of iron and aluminum, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 33. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 34. Oxides of iron and aluminum, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Violet No. 1. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Blue No. 7. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Blue No. 8. Oxides of iron and aluminum, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Green No. 7. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Orange No. 16. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Black No. 1. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 3. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 4. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 8. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 9. Oxides of iron and aluminum, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 10. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 11. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 12. Oxides of iron and aluminum, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 13. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 1. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 2. Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent. (R. 30)

12. Chlorides and Sulfates A Measure of Impurities

That chlorides and sulfates are inorganic salts which in the case of coal-tar colors are either added or formed during the manufacturing process. (R. 31)

13. Colors for Which Chlorides and Sulfates A Measure of Impurities—Practicable Limits

That, in the case of the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, the following are the colors for which a determination of chlorides and sulfates would be a measure of impurities and the limits for chlorides and sulfates which are practicable in good manufacturing practice:

D&C Red No. 31. Chlorides and sulfates (as calcium salts), not more than 5.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 33. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 10.0 percent.

D&C Red. No. 34. Chlorides and sulfates (as calcium salts), not more than 10.0 percent.

D&C Violet No. 1. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 10.0 percent.

D&C Blue No. 7. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 8.0 percent.

D&C Blue No. 8. Chlorides and sulfates (as calcium salts), not more than 8.0 percent.

D&C Green No. 7. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 8.0 percent.

D&C Orange No. 16. Sodium chloride, not more than 3.0 percent.

EXT D&C Black No. 1. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 3. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 8.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 4. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Green No. 1. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 8. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 9. Chlorides and sulfates (as calcium salts), not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 10. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 11. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 10.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 12. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 5.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 13. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 8.0 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 1. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 8.0 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 2. Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 8.0 percent. (R. 31)

14. Uncombined Intermediates Impurities

That intermediates are organic raw materials used in the manufacture of coal-tar colors, and if present in uncombined form they are impurities in the color. (R. 34, 35)

15. Colors for Which Uncombined Intermediates a Measure of Impurities—Identities—Practicable Limits

That, in the case of the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, the following are the colors for which a determination of uncombined intermediates would be a necessary measure of impurities, the identity of the intermediate as to which the determination should be made, and the limits which are practicable in good manufacturing practice:

FD&C Red No. 32. Xylidine, not more than 0.1 percent. beta-Naphthol, not more than 0.05 percent.

D&C Red No. 31. Aniline, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Red No. 33. Aniline, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Red No. 34. Tobias acid, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Red No. 35. 2-Nitro-p-toluidine, not more than 0.2 percent. beta-Naphthol, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Red No. 36. o-Chloro-p-nitroaniline, not more than 0.2 percent. beta-Naphthol, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Red No. 37. Diethyl-m-aminophenol, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Violet No. 1. Dimethylaniline, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Yellow No. 11. Quinaldine, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Blue No. 7., m-Nitro-benzaldehyde, not more than 0.2 percent. Benzylethylaniline, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Blue No. 8. m-Nitro-benzaldehyde, not more than 0.2 percent. Benzylethylaniline, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Blue No. 9. 2-Amino anthraquinone, not more than 0.2 percent.

D&C Orange No. 17. 2,4-Dinitroaniline, not more than 0.2 percent. beta-Naphthol, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Black No. 1. alpha-Naphthylamine, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 3. Benzylethylaniline, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 5. Amylamine, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 8. beta-Naphthol, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 9. alpha-Naphthylamine, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 11. Aniline, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 12. beta-Naphthol, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 13. Aniline, not more than 0.2 percent. p-Aminoazobenzene, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 1. p-Toluidine, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 2. p.-Toluidine, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Yellow No. 5. 2-Nitro-p-toluidine, not more than 0.2 percent.

EXT D&C Orange No. 1. 2-Nitro-p-anisidine, not more than 0.2 percent. (R. 34, 35, 66, 67, 69–72)

16. Uncombined Intermediates Measured By Ether Extracts

That in some coal-tar colors certain organic impurities, very often the uncombined intermediates, may also be measured by ether extracts; and that in some colors, depending upon the solubility of the color, ether extracts must be determined by using isopropyl ether instead of ordinary ether, or by using an alkaline solution instead of an acid or a neutral solution. (R. 32)

17. Colors For Which Ether Extracts A Measure Of Impurities—Practicable Limits

That, in the case of the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, the following are the colors for which a determination of ether extracts would be a measure of impurities and the limits for ether extracts which are practicable in good manufacturing practices, isopropyl ether and alkaline solution being specified where necessary:

D&C Red No. 31. Not more than 0.5 percent (Isopropyl ether).

D&C Red No. 33. Not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Red No. 34. Not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Violet No. 1. Not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Blue No. 7. Not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Blue No. 8. Not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Green No. 7. Not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Orange No. 16. Not more than 0.5 percent (alkaline solution).

EXT D&C Black No. 1. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 3. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 4. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Green No. 1. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 8. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 9. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 10. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 11. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 12. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 13. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 1. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 2. Not more than 0.5 percent.

EXT D&C Orange No. 2. Not more than 0.5 percent (alkaline solution). (R. 32–33)

18. Insoluble Matter a Measure of Impurities

That insoluble matter in a given solvent is a measure of impurities in a color which is soluble in such solvent. (R. 35)

19. Colors for Which Insoluble Matter a Measure of Impurities—Solvents—Practicable Limits

That, in the case of the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, the following are the colors for which a determination of insoluble matter would be a measure of impurities, the solvent in which such determination should be made, and the limits which are practicable in good manufacturing practice:

FD&C Red No. 32. In carbon tetrachloride, not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Red No. 33. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 35. In toluene, not more than 1.5 percent.

D&C Red No. 36. In toluene, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Red No. 37. In benzene, not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Violet No. 1. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Yellow No. 11. In alcohol, not more than 0.5 percent.

D&C Blue No. 7. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Blue No. 8. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Green No. 7. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Orange No. 16. In alkaline solution, not more than 1.0 percent.

D&C Orange No. 17. In toluene, not more than 1.5 percent.

EXT D&C Black No. 1. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 3. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 4. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Blue No. 5. In carbon tetrachloride, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Green No. 1. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 8. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 10. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 11. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Red No. 13. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 1. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Violet No. 2. In water, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Yellow No. 5. In toluene, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Orange No. 1. In toluene, not more than 1.0 percent.

EXT D&C Orange No. 2. In alkaline solution, not more than 1.0 percent. (R. 35, 36, 37)

20. Melting Point Indicating Purity and Identity

That in some coal-tar colors the melting point of the color serves as an indication of purity and identity. (R. 37)

21. Colors for Which Melting Point Indicates Purity or Identity—Practicable Limits

That, in the case of the proposed colors listed in Finding No. 1, the following are the colors as to which the melting point would serve as a measure of purity or identity and the limits for melting point which are practicable in good manufacturing practice:

D&C Red No. 35. Not less than 272° C.

D&C Yellow No. 11. Not less than 235° C.

EXT D&C Yellow No. 5. Not less than 250° C.

EXT D&C Orange No. 1. Not less than 210° C. (R. 37–38)

22. FD&C Red No. 32—meta-Xylidine—Limited—Determined By Reduction of The Dye

That Xylidine, one of the intermediates used in the manufacture of the color proposed as FD&C Red No. 32, consists of a mixture of isomeric Xylidines, of which one is meta-Xylidine; that the presence of an unlimited amount of meta-Xylidine in the Xylidine used in the manufacture of this color would effect the identity of the color; and that the meta-Xylidine should be limited to not more than 30.0 percent in the Xylidine used for making this color, which may be determined by reduction of the dye. R. 38)

23. FD&C Red No. 32—Boiling Range A Measure of meta-Xylidine

That the boiling range of Xylidine, obtained by reduction of the dye, in the color proposed as FD&C Red No. 32 would furnish a measure of the meta-Xylidine present, and that a Xylidine mixture containing not more than 30.0 percent of meta-Xylidine would have a boiling range such that 95.0 percent would distill between 212° and 232° Centigrade. (R. 38)

24. FD&C Red No. 32—Water Soluble Matter An Impurity—Practicable Limit

That any matter which is soluble in water is an impurity in the color proposed as FD&C Red No. 32, and that it is practicable in good manufacturing practice to limit water soluble matter in this color to not more than 0.3 percent. (R. 39)

25. D&C Red No. 37—Stearic Acid—Practicable Limit

That the color proposed as D&C Red No. 37 is made by melting together stearic acid and a color known to the coal-tar color trade as Rhedamine B-base, and that it is necessary that a certain amount of stearic acid over and above the amount which combines with the color be present after the manufacturing process has been completed, and it is practicable in good manufacturing practice to limit stearic acid (not part of the dye) to not more than 50.0 percent. (R. 41)

26. D&C Blue No. 9—Alcoholic Hydrochloric Acid Extracts Impurities—Limit Practicable

That in the case of the color proposed as D&C Blue No. 9, the matter extractable by alcoholic hydrochloric acid is a measure of impurities, and that it is practicable in good manufacturing to limit matter extractable by alcoholic hydrochloric acid to not more than 1.0 percent. (R. 42)

27. D&C Blue No. 9 by Chlorination—Range of Organically Combined Chlorine Practicable

That the color proposed as D&C Blue No. 9 is made by chlorination, and in the process it is not always possible to combine in the color the theoretically correct amount of chlorine, and that the range of organically combined chlorine in the pure dye which is practicable in good manufacturing practice is 13.0 percent to 14.8 percent. (R. 42)

28. D&C Orange No. 16—Practicable Range of Organically Combined Bromine and Iodine

That the color proposed as D&C Orange No. 16 is made by bromination and iodation, and it is not always possible to combine in the color the theoretically correct amount of bromine or iodine, and that the ranges of organically combined bromine and iodine in the pure dye which are practicable in good manufacturing practice are as follows: bromine, 20.0 percent to 23.0 percent, and iodine, 32.0 percent to 36.0 percent. (R. 43)

29. D&C Orange No. 16—Free Halogens—Limit Practicable

That in the manufacture of the color proposed as D&C Orange No. 16, the halogens or halides (i. e. the bromine or iodine) may exist in free form in the color, and it is practicable in good manufacturing practice to limit the free halogens in the color to not more than 0.05 percent. (R. 43)

30. Ext D&C Black No. 1—Intermediary Reactions Product—Limit Practicable

That in the manufacture of the color proposed as Ext D&C Black No. 1, an intermediary reaction product, 3-(4-Amino-1-naphthylazo)-1-naphthalene sulfonic acid, may result, and that it is practicable in good manufacturing practice to limit such intermediary reaction product to not more than 2.0 percent. (R. 44)

31. D&C Orange No. 16—Ext D&C Yellow No. 5—Ext D&C Orange No. 1—Certain Specifications Conforming

That in order to conform the specifications for the proposed colors to the system of nomenclature employed in the regulations, the term "halogens" should be employed rather than the term "halides" (in the color proposed as D&C Orange No. 16); the term "2-Nitro-p-toluidine" should be employed in lieu of the term "m-nitro-p-toluidine" (in the color proposed as Ext D&C Yellow No. 5); and the term "2-nitro-p-anisidine" should be employed in lieu of the term "m-nitro-p-anisidine" (in the color proposed as Ext D&C Orange No. 1). (R. 43, 44, 45)

32. FD&C Yellow No. 2—Reduction of Limit For Ether Extracts Practicable

That in the case of the color FD&C Yellow No. 2, uncombined intermediates are extractable by ether; that the ether extracts should be kept as low as possible; that a limit for ether extracts of not more than 0.1 percent is practicable in good manufacturing practice, and that the reduction of the limit for ether extracts from 0.2 percent to 0.1 percent would make the color more suitable, pharmacologically, for use in foods, drugs, and cosmetics. (R. 17, 18, 65)

33. FD&C Orange No. 2—Specification For Chlorides and Sulfates Eliminated

That the specification for chlorides and sulfates of sodium in the color FD&C Orange No. 2 is superfluous, and its elimination would not affect the harmlessness of that color for use in foods, drugs, and cosmetics. (R. 18, 65)

34. FD&C Red No. 32—Specifications Practicable—Color Suitable and Harmless

That if listed by way of amendment to section 135.03 of the regulations, the specifications for the color proposed as FD&C Red No. 32, set forth for the said color in Findings No. 1, 5, 7, 9, 15, 19, 22, 23, and 24, are practicable in good manufacturing practice and would serve to determine the identity and pure dye content of the color and the impurities therein; and that such color, when meeting the specifications so set forth, and if listed by way of such amendment, would be harmless and suitable for use in foods, drugs, and cosmetics. (R. 39, 45, 66)

35. D&C Yellow No. 8 and No. 9—Limits Mixed Oxides Included

That mixed oxides would be a measure of impurities in the colors D&C Yellow No. 8 and D&C Yellow No. 9; that it is practicable in good manufacturing practice to limit mixed oxides in these colors to not more than 1.0 percent; and that the inclusion of specifications limiting mixed oxides in these colors to not more than 1.0 percent would result in colors of greater purity. (R. 39, 40, 67, 68)

36. D&C Blue No. 3—Predominantly Violet

That the shade of the color D&C Blue No. 3 is more violet than blue, and the inclusion of the word "Blue" in this color, which is used as a shade of violet, is likely to cause confusion which would not be caused by the use of the name "D&C Violet No. 2".

37. Specifications for Certain Named D&C Colors Practicable—Colors Harmless and Suitable

That if listed by way of amendment to section 135.04 of the regulations, the specifications for the colors proposed as D&C Red No. 31, D&C Red No. 33, D&C Red No. 34, D&C Red No. 35, D&C Red No. 36, D&C Red No. 37, D&C Violet No. 1, D&C Yellow No. 11, D&C Blue No. 7, D&C Blue No. 8, D&C Blue No. 9, D&C Green No. 7, D&C Orange No. 16, and D&C Orange No. 17, set forth for said colors in Findings No. 1, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 25, 26, 27, 28, and 29, are practicable in good manufacturing practice and would serve to determine the identity and pure dye content of the colors and the impurities therein; and that such colors, when meeting the specifications so set forth, and if listed by way of such amendment, would be harmless and suitable for use in drugs and cosmetics. (R. 41–43, 46, 68–70)

38. Specifications for Certain EXT D&C Colors Practicable—Colors Harmless and Suitable

That if listed by way of amendment to section 135.05 of the regulations, the specifications for the colors proposed as EXT D&C Black No. 1, EXT D&C Blue No. 3, EXT D&C Blue No. 4, EXT D&C Blue No. 5, EXT D&C Green No. 1, EXT D&C Red No. 8, EXT D&C Red No. 9, EXT D&C Red No. 10, EXT D&C Red No. 11, EXT D&C Red No. 12, EXT D&C Red No. 13, EXT D&C Violet No. 1, EXT D&C Violet No. 2, EXT D&C Yellow No. 5, EXT D&C Orange No. 1, EXT D&C Orange No. 2, set forth for said colors in Findings No. 1, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, and 30, are practicable in good manufacturing practice and would serve to determine the identity and pure dye content of the colors and the impurities therein; and that such colors, when meeting the specifications so set forth, and if listed by way of such amendment, would be harmless and suitable for use in externally applied drugs and cosmetics. (R. 43–45, 70, 71)

39. Rosin A Substratum For Lakes

That rosin is used in the manufacture of lakes and imparts certain desired properties; and that rosin is a proper substance for use as a substratum in making lakes. (R. 46)

40. Soluble Chlorides and Sulfates For Lakes—Limits Reduced

That, in the making of lakes, it is practicable in good manufacturing practice to limit soluble chlorides and sulfates (as sodium salts) to not more than 3.0 percent; and that the reduction of the specification for soluble chlorides and sulfates from the present limit of 5.0 percent, in the case of lakes under section 135.04 and section 135.05 will result in colors which will be of greater purity and which will be more suitable, pharmacologically, for use in drugs and cosmetics and in externally applied drugs and cosmetics, respectively. (R. 47, 72)

41. Lakes—Substrata—Components—Harmless for Drugs and Cosmetics

That any lake made by extending on a substratum of alumina, blanc fixe, gloss white, clay, titanium dioxide, zinc oxide, talc, rosin, aluminum benzoate, or any combination of two or more of these, (1) one of the straight colors heretofore listed, or now proposed for listing, in section 135.03, or one of the straight (but not laked) colors heretofore listed, or now proposed for listing, in section 135.04, which color is a salt in which is combined the basic radicle sodium, potassium, aluminum, barium, calcium, strontium, or zirconium; or (2) a salt prepared from one of the straight colors heretofore listed, or now proposed for listing, in section 135.03, or one of the straight (but not laked) colors heretofore listed, or now proposed for listing, in section 135.04, by combining such color with the basic radicle sodium, potassium, aluminum, barium, calcium, strontium, or zirconium, would be harmless for use in drugs and cosmetics; subject to specifications that the lake contain: of ether extracts, not more than 0.5 percent; of soluble chlorides and sulfates (as sodium salts), not more than 3.0 percent; and of intermediates, not more than 0.2 percent. (R. 47, 72)

42. Lakes — Substrata — Components — Harmless for Externally Applied Drugs and Cosmetics

That any lake made by extending on a substratum of alumina, blanc fixe, gloss white, clay, titanium dioxide, zinc oxide, talc, rosin, aluminum benzoate, or any combination of two or more of these, (1) one of the straight (but not laked) colors heretofore listed, or now proposed for listing, in section 135.05, which color is a salt in which is combined the basic radicle sodium, potassium, barium, or calcium; or (2) a salt prepared from one of the straight (but not laked) colors heretofore listed, or now proposed for listing, in section 135.05, by combining such color with the basic radicle sodium, potassium, aluminum, barium, calcium, strontium, or zirconium, would be harmless for use in externally applied drugs and cosmetics; subject to specifications that the lake contain: of ether extracts, not more than 0.5 percent; of soluble chlorides and sulfates (as sodium salts), not more than 3.0 percent; and of intermediates, not more than 0.2 percent. (R. 47, 72)

Upon the basis of the foregoing findings of fact, it is concluded that the "Regulations Under The Federal Food, Drug, And Cosmetic Act For The Listing Of Coal-Tar Colors, Certification Of Batches Thereof, And Payment Of Fees For Such Service", promulgated by order of the Secretary of Agriculture dated May 4, 1939, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER May 9, 1939 (Vol. 4, No. 89, pp. 1922–1947), should be amended by changing certain specifications of certain listed colors and the listing of certain other coal-tar colors as specifically set out hereinafter in the suggested amendments to the Regulations heretofore promulgated, and that such amendments to the said Regulations should be promulgated.

Suggested Amendments to Regulations

REGULATIONS UNDER THE FEDERAL FOOD, DRUG AND COSMETIC ACT

Regulations Amending Sections 135.03, 135.04 and 135.05 of "Regulations Under the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act for the Listing of Coal-Tar Colors, Certification of Batches Thereof, and Payment of Fees for Such Service", by Changing Certain Specifications of Certain Listed Colors and the Listing of Certain Other Coal-Tar Colors

The Regulations promulgated by order of the Secretary of Agriculture dated May 4, 1939, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER May 9, 1939 (Vol. 4, No. 89, pp. 1922–1947), entitled "Regulations Under The Federal Food, Drug, And Cosmetic Act For The Listing Of Coal-Tar Colors, Certification Of Batches Thereof, And Payment of Fees For Such Service" are hereby amended as follows:

Section 135.03:

(1) By striking from the specifications for the Color FD&C Yellow No. 2 the specifications, "Ether Extracts, not more than 0.2 percent," and by inserting in lieu thereof: "Ether extracts not more than 0.1 percent";

(2) By striking from the specifications for the Color FD&C Orange No. 2 the specification, "Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 0.5 percent";

(3) And by adding at the end of said section the following:

"FD&C Red No. 32 Specifications

"1-Xylylazo-2-naphthol.

"Volatile matter (at 100° C.), not more than 0.5 percent.

"Sulfated ash, not more than 0.3 percent.

"Water soluble matter, not more than 0.3 percent.

"Matter insoluble in carbon tetrachloride, not more than 0.5 percent. Xylidine, not more than 0.1 percent. beta-Naphthol, not more than 0.05 percent.

"m-Xylidine in xylidine obtained by reduction of the dye, not more than 30.0 percent.

"Pure dye (as determined by titration with titanium trichloride) not less than 97.0 percent.

"Boiling range of xylidine, obtained by reduction of the dye, 95 percent between 212–232° C."

Section 135.04.

(1) By inserting after the specification for the color D&C Yellow No. 8: "Chlorides and sulfates of sodium, not more than 8.0 percent"; a specification, "Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent";

(2) By inserting after the specification for the color D&C Yellow No. 9: "Chlorides and sulfates of potassium, not more than 5.0 percent"; a specification, "Mixed oxides, not more than 1.0 percent";

(3) By striking out the name for the color "D&C Blue No. 3" and by inserting in lieu thereof the name "D&C Violet No. 2";

(4) By striking out all matter in said section immediately following the name of, and specifications for, the color "D&C Black No. 1", beginning with the caption "Lakes", and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"D&C Red No. 31 Specifications

"Calcium salt of 3-hydroxy-4-phenylazo-2-naphthoic acid. Volatile matter (at 135° C.), not more than 5.0 percent. Ether extracts (Isopropyl ether), not more than 0.5 percent.

"Lakes

"Any lake made by extending on a substratum of alumina, blanc fixe, gloss white, clay, titanium dioxide, zinc oxide, talc, rosin, aluminum benzoate, or any combination of two or more of these, (1) one of the straight colors listed in section 135.03, or hereinbefore listed in this subsection, which color is a salt in which is combined the basic radicle sodium, potassium, aluminum, barium, calcium, strontium, or zirconium; or (2) a salt prepared from one of the straight colors listed in section 135.03, or hereinbefore listed in this subsection, by combining such color with the basic radicle sodium, potassium, aluminum, barium, calcium, strontium, or zirconium."

Specifications

Ether extracts, not more than 0.5 percent.

Soluble chlorides and sulfates (as sodium salts), not more than 3.0 percent.

Intermediates, not more than 0.2 percent.

"(b) Each lake made as prescribed under the caption 'Lakes' in subsection (a) shall be considered to be a straight color and to be listed therein under the name which is formed as follows:

"First, the listed name of the color from which the lake is prepared, except that if such name contains the symbol 'FD&C' such symbol shall be changed to 'D&C';

"Second, the name of the basic radicle combined in such color; and

"Third, the word 'Lake.'

"(For example, the name of a lake prepared by extending the color D&C Red No. 9 upon a substratum is 'D&C Red No. 9—Barium Lake', and a lake prepared by extending the aluminum salt prepared from FD&C Green No. 1 upon a substratum is 'D&C Green No. 1—Aluminum Lake'.)"

IN THE MATTER OF CENTRAL OHIO LIGHT & POWER COMPANY

ORDER EXEMPTING ISSUE AND SALE OF BONDS, NOTES AND PREFERRED SHARES

Central Ohio Light & Power Company (hereinafter called the "Company"), a subsidiary of Crescent Public Service Company, a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for an exemption from the provisions of Section 6 (a) thereof in regard to the issue and sale by the Company of (1) its First Mortgage 4% Bonds, Series C, due August 1, 1964, in the principal amount of $4,100,000, (2) its 3½% Serial Notes, due August 1, 1940, to August 1, 1944, in the principal amount of $500,000, and (3) 2,200 shares of its $6 Preferred Shares (Cumulative), No Par Value;

A hearing on said application, as amended, having been duly held after appropriate notice,[1] the record in this matter having been examined, and the Commission having made and filed its findings herein:

It is ordered, That the issue and sale of the said Bonds, Notes and Preferred Shares be and the same hereby are exempted from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935: Provided, however, That in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid securities the following terms and conditions shall be imposed upon the applicant, to-wit:

(1) That the issue and sale of the Bonds, Notes and Preferred Shares shall be in compliance with the terms and conditions of, and for the purposes represented by said application, as amended, and in compliance with the terms and conditions imposed by the order of The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio;

(2) That such exemption shall immediately terminate without further order of the Commission if, at any time, the authorization by The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio shall be revoked or shall otherwise terminate;

(3) That within ninety (90) days following the date of the entry of the order herein, the Applicant will call a meeting of its stockholders (including the holders of said Preferred Shares) for the purpose of considering and acting upon an amendment to its Articles of Incorporation, and will use its best efforts to secure a quorum at any such meeting and to effect said amendment to its Articles of Incorporation; said amendment to provide

(a) that whenever there shall be a default with respect to the payment of any quarter-yearly dividend on the $6 Preferred Shares, then, unless and until all dividends in default shall be paid, the number of the Board of Directors of the Applicant will be increased to at least seven, and the holders of the $6 Preferred Shares, voting as a class, shall, at the next annual meeting of stockholders, be entitled to elect two of such directors; and that whenever dividends on the $6 Preferred Shares are in default in an amount equal to eight (8) quarter-yearly dividends, then, unless and until all dividends in default shall be paid, the holders of the $6 Preferred Shares, voting as a class, shall be entitled to elect the smallest number of directors necessary to constitute a majority of the Board of Directors. When all dividends in default on the $6 Preferred Shares outstanding shall be paid, the $6 Preferred Shares will be divested of the above rights with respect to the election of directors, and the right to the election of directors shall revert to the status existing before such default, subject to the same provisions for vesting such rights in the $6 Preferred Shares in the case of further like default in the dividends thereon;

(b) that the Applicant, so long as any of the $6 Preferred Shares are outstanding, will not, without the consent of a majority of the $6 Preferred Shares represented at a meeting called for such purpose: (i) issue any unsecured notes, debentures, or other securities representing unsecured indebtedness, or assume any such unsecured securities, for purposes other than the refunding of other such outstanding unsecured securities or the redemption or other retirement of $6 Preferred Shares, if immediately after such issue or assumption the total principal amount of all unsecured notes, debentures or other securities representing unsecured indebtedness (including the unsecured securities then to be issued or assumed) would exceed ten (10%) per cent. of the aggregate of (a) the total principal amount of all securities representing secured indebtedness then outstanding, and (b) the capital and surplus of the Applicant as then stated on its books); or (ii) merge or consolidate with or into, or sell or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its assets to, any other corporation, unless upon order, approval or permission of the Commission or any successor commission having jurisdiction; provided, that this provision shall not apply to a purchase or other acquisition of the franchises or assets of another corporation. For the purpose of the meeting referred to in this paragraph (b), a majority of the outstanding shares of $6 Preferred Shares shall be necessary to constitute a quorum, but if a quorum is not obtained at such meeting, or within thirty (30) days thereafter, one-third of the outstanding shares shall be sufficient to constitute such quorum.

(4) That, until further order of the Commission, so long as any shares of the $6 Preferred Shares are outstanding, the Applicant shall not purchase or otherwise acquire, or pay any dividends on or make any other distributions with respect to, any of its shares of common stock, if, after giving effect to such purchase or acquisition or payment or distribution, the capital of the Applicant represented by its common stock, together with its surplus, as then stated on its books of account, shall in the aggregate be less than $1,000,000. This condition shall become inoperative and of no effect if the Commission shall at any time hereafter adopt or enter a rule, regulation or order under Section 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, or otherwise (other than Rule U-12C-2 as now in effect), which shall be applicable to the Applicant, limiting the right of companies to pay dividends on their common stock with reference to maintaining an equity junior to outstanding preferred or preference stocks. The Commission reserves jurisdiction to revoke or modify this condition at any time on its own motion or upon application of the Applicant.

(5) That no reduction shall be made in the amount the Applicant is required to expend or appropriate from income for maintainence of its property and/or for providing a reserve for renewals, replacements and retirements (or depreciation) of its property, as provided in Section 1 of Article III of its Supplemental Indenture, dated as of August 1, 1939, unless and until the prior approval of the Commission shall have been obtained.

(6) That within ninety (90) days following the date of the entry of the order herein, the Applicant will execute a further indenture supplemental to the Indenture, dated as of October 1, 1930, which supplemental indenture shall contain such further covenants and agreements on the part of the Applicant with respect to the furnishing of evidence, certificates or opinions to the Trustee and/or to the bondholders, as the Commission shall deem necessary or desirable in the interest of investors.

(7) That within ten (10) days after the issue and sale of the Bonds, Notes, and Preferred Shares, the Applicant shall file with the Commission a certificate of notification showing that such issue and sale have been effected in accordance with the terms and conditions and for the purposes represented by said application, as amended.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE
SUGAR DIVISION

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATIONS

DETERMINATION OF FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES FOR THE 1939 CROP OF SUGAR BEETS

Whereas, Section 301 (d) of the Sugar Act of 1937, approved September 1, 1937, provides, as one of the conditions for payment to producers of sugar beets and sugarcane, as follows:

That the producer on the farm who is also, directly or indirectly, a processor of sugar beets or sugarcane, as may be determined by the Secretary, shall have paid, or contracted to pay under either purchase or toll agreements, for any sugar beets or sugarcane grown by other producers and processed by him at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing.

and

Whereas, The Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to Notices of Hearing dated August 11 and December 20, 1938,[1] held public hearings for the purpose of receiving evidence likely to be of assistance to him in determining fair and reasonable prices for the 1939 crop of sugar beets.

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation and consideration of the evidence obtained at the aforesaid hearings and all other information before me, do hereby make the following determination:

§ 802.12a Fair and reasonable prices for the 1939 crop of sugar beets. The requirements of subsection (d) of Section 301 of the Sugar Act of 1937 shall be deemed to have been fulfilled with respect to the 1939 crop of sugar beets if the producer on the farm shall have paid rates for any sugar beets processed by him equal to those provided in the purchase agreement now made with respect to such crop. (b) Exemptions. Such alien veteran is entitled to the following exemptions from requirements for naturalization applicable to aliens generally:

(1) No declaration of intention is required;

(2) Proof of the usual five years' residence in the United States and six months' county residence is not required (see 76.40 (c) (5));

(3) No certificate of arrival is required unless applicant's legal admission to the United States for permanent residence occurred subsequent to March 3, 1924 (see 76.40 (c) (6));

(4) Petition may be filed in the most convenient naturalization court without proof of residence within its jurisdiction;

(5) No petition fee is required unless petition is filed in a State court and the laws of such State require a fee, in which case nothing more than the amount required to be paid to the State shall be charged or collected.

(c) Special proofs and procedure. Such alien veteran must supply the following special proofs and go through the following procedure:

(1) Applicant must be residing in the United States;

(2) Petition must be filed prior to May 25, 1940;

(3) Applicant and his witnesses must appear before the appropriate representative of the Service and pass preliminary examination previous to filing petition. Certification of such examination shall be made by the examiner, in triplicate, on form 2800; and sworn statement shall be made by the applicant, in triplicate, on form 169. One copy of each of said documents shall be attached to each copy of the petition;

(4) Applicant must produce competent proof of his service under honorable circumstances with military or naval forces;

(5) Applicant is required to prove at least two years' continuous residence within the United States immediately preceding the filing of the petition for naturalization, such residence being established pursuant to legal admission for permanent residence, in lieu of the usual five years' residence in the United States and six months' county residence;

(6) If admission to the United States for permanent residence occurred subsequent to March 3, 1924, a certificate of arrival must be filed with the petition;

(7) Applicant must prove that he has behaved as a person of good moral character during the five years immediately preceding the filing of his petition;

(8) Applicant must appear and file his petition in person;

(9) Residence and good moral character shall be proved either by the affidavits of two credible witnesses who are citizens of the United States or by depositions of two such persons made before a naturalization examiner for each place of residence;

(10) Final action shall not be had upon the petition until at least ninety days have elapsed after the filing of the petition;

(11) Applicant must take the prescribed oath of allegiance in open court.

(d) World War alien veterans serving in United States military or naval forces outside the United States. Any World War alien veteran of the United States military or naval forces who was lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence and who departed from the United States for the purpose of serving, and actually served in either such military or naval forces prior to November 11, 1918, and was discharged from such service under honorable circumstances, is entitled to the benefits of 76.40 (a), (b), and (c). However, before such alien is admitted to citizenship he shall—

(1) Satisfy the court in which his petition is filed, by competent proof, that he is entitled to and has complied in all respects with the provisions of the said Act of June 21, 1939; and

(2) That he was and had been a bona fide lawfully admitted resident in the United States for two years before the passage of the said Act.

(Said Section 76.40 is Rule 7, Subdivision D, paragraph 8 of the Naturalization Rules and Regulations of December 1, 1936, as amended.)

Rule 3, Subdivision D, paragraph 1 of the Naturalization Rules and Regulations of December 1, 1936, has been codified as two sections of the aforesaid Subchapter C, namely, 72.6 and 72.7. The first portion of that paragraph constitutes Section 72.6, which reads as follows:

§ 72.6 Amendment of form for declaration of intention. The official form for declaration of intention shall be altered by the clerk of court, where the declaration of intention is executed by an applicant who is not required by law to obtain a certificate of arrival, by striking out the following words immediately after the jurat: "Certification No. ------ from the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization showing the lawful entry of the declarant for permanent residence on the date stated above, has been received by me."*† (Sec. 27, 34 Stat. 603; 8 U.S.C. 409) [3–D–1]

The remaining portion of said Rule 3, Subdivision D, paragraph 1, as amended for the administration of the said Act of June 21, 1939, constitutes Section 72.7 of the aforesaid Subchapter C, which reads as follows:

§ 72.7 Amendment of form for petition for naturalization. The official form for petition for naturalization shall be altered by the clerk of court in any case according to the facts, as follows:

(a) Exemption from declaration of intention. Where a declaration of intention is not required to be filed with the clerk of court at the filing of the petition, strike out the following: All of allegation 4; in the first paragraph after allegation 10 strike out the words "my declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States,"; and in the certification following the jurat strike out the words "together with declaration of intention No. ------ of such petitioner".

(b) Exemption from certificate of arrival. Where the certificate of arrival is not required to be filed with the petition, strike out the following: In allegation 6 the words "as shown by the certificate of my arrival attached hereto"; in the first paragraph after allegation 10 the words "certificate from the Department of Labor of my said arrival,"; and in the certification following the jurat the words "certificate of arrival

No. ------ from the Department of Labor, showing the lawful entry for permanent residence of the petitioner above named, together with".

(c) Exemption from declaration of intention and certificate of arrival. Where the declaration of intention and certificate of arrival are not required to be filed with the clerk of court at the filing of the petition, strike out the following: All of allegation 4; in allegation 6 the words "as shown by the certificate of my arrival attached hereto"; in the first paragraph after allegation 10 the words "my declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, certificate from the Department of Labor of my said arrival, and"; and the entire certification following the jurat.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

CIVIL AERONAUTICS AUTHORITY

[Amendment 23, Civil Air Regulations]

CREATING A METHOD FOR CERTIFICATION OF FOREIGN PILOTS

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of August 1939.

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, particularly sections 205 (a), 601 (a), and 602 of said Act, and finding that its action is desirable in the public interest and is necessary to carry out the provisions of, and to exercise and perform its powers and duties under said Act, the Civil Aeronautics Authority hereby amends the Civil Air Regulations as follows:

Effective August 15, 1939, the Civil Air Regulations are amended by adding a new section, 20.69, reading as follows:

"§ 20.69 Qualified foreign pilots. (a) An applicant for a private pilot certificate, upon a satisfactory showing to the Authority that he is a member of a military or naval service of a foreign country on flying status, or is the holder of a pilot certificate of competency issued by a foreign country, the privileges of which are not less than those of a private pilot, may be deemed by the Authority to have met the requirements prescribed in this Part for a private pilot certificate.

"(b) The privileges and restrictions prescribed for persons issued private pilot certificates under the provisions of section 20.12 shall not apply to persons issued private pilot certificates under the provisions of this section.

"(c) Any person issued a private pilot certificate under the provisions of this section, before being eligible to pilot civil aircraft of the United States, shall offer proof satisfactory to an inspector of the Authority that he is the duly authorized representative of a foreign person or nation contemplating the purchase of aircraft manufactured in the United States, or that he is the duly authorized representative of the competent aeronautical authorities of the foreign nation in which such aircraft will be registered, and such private pilot shall not pilot any civil aircraft of the United States except aircraft which a foreign person or nation contemplates purchasing, and then only in accordance with such terms and conditions as the Authority may prescribe."

By the Authority.

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPORATION

[Administrative Order No. 2-203]

PART 402—LOAN SERVICE

USE OF SPECIAL DEPOSITS ACCOUNT IN INSURANCE CASES

Amending Part 402 of Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Sections 402.14-1 and 402.14-2 are amended to read as follows:

§ 402.14-1 Whenever a home owner desires to establish a Special Deposits Account to accumulate funds for the payment of taxes, assessments, other levies or charges, ground rents or insurance premiums, he shall be referred to the Loan Service Division.

Special Deposits Account arrangements for the payment of insurance premiums ordinarily should be limited to instances where the home owner is otherwise unable to accumulate funds for the payment of insurance premiums making it necessary for the Corporation to make advances therefor, or in unusual cases where the Regional Manager considers it in the best interests of the Corporation.

In order to establish a Special Deposit Account to provide for the payment of taxes, assessments, other levies or charges, ground rents or insurance premiums, the home owner shall be requested to execute Form 533 or other approved form. Where the Special Deposits Account is established only for taxes or insurance premiums, Form 533 should be executed in quadruplicate; in instances where it covers both taxes and insurance premiums, Form 533 should be executed in quintuplicate.

§ 402.14-2. One copy of Form 533 shall be left with the home owner. On the reverse side of the original and the remaining copies, the Service Representative shall enter his analysis of the account and show the allocation to be made to the Special Deposits Account. In instances where the Special Deposits Account provides for the payment of insurance premiums, the Service Representative should include in Block III an estimate of the amount of insurance premiums accruing annually. This amount should be added to the amount of taxes coming due annually in order to indicate the total amount to be accumulated in the Special Deposits Account annually. One-twelfth of this total should appear in the last line to indicate the amount to be allocated to the Special Deposit Account monthly. In these cases, the Service Representative should also request the home owner to inform him of the name and address of his insurance agent, which should be entered on the lower part of the reverse side of Form 533.

In connection with the establishment of a Special Deposits Account, it is important that the Service Representative explain to the home owner the monthly billing showing the status of the loan account and the Special Deposits Account, as well as the manner in which subsequent insurance will be placed.

In cases within his authority where the Special Deposits Agreement, Form 533, is accepted by the Control Supervisor, he shall complete Block VI on the reverse side of the form. In cases beyond his authority the Control Supervisor shall forward the Form 533 and all other servicing reports to the Analysis and Review Section. If this section accepts the Form 533, they shall complete Block VI. After acceptance the Control Supervisor shall forward the original copy of Form 533 to the Regional Accountant, one copy shall be sent to the Tax Section (or if for insurance premiums only, to the Regional Insurance Supervisor), and one copy retained by the Control Section. In cases where the Special Deposits arrangement covers both taxes and insurance premiums, the remaining copy shall be forwarded to the Regional Insurance Supervisor.

(Effective August 15, 1939)

(Above procedure promulgated by General Manager and General Counsel pursuant to authority vested in them by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board acting pursuant to Secs. 4 (a), 4 (k) of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 129, 132, as amended by Section 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934, 48 Stat. 647; 12 U.S.C. 1463 (a), (k))

Promulgated by General Manager and General Counsel of Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

[Administrative Order No. 522]

PART 405—RECONDITIONING

ADVANCES FOR REPAIRS, RECONDITIONING OR IMPROVEMENTS: AUTHORITY OF REGIONAL MANAGER; REGIONAL COUNSEL CERTIFIES; APPROVAL OF AMOUNT BY HOME OFFICE

Amending Part 405 of Chapter IV, Title 24, of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Section 405.02-8, the first paragraph of Section 405.02-9, and Section 405.02-11, respectively, are amended to read as follows (Effective August 15, 1939):

§ 405.02-8 Where an advance for repairs, reconditioning, or improvements has been requested by the borrower, the Regional Manager, based upon the disclosed facts and respective recommendations of the State Officials, may, subject to the conditions herein provided, authorize the making of advances in the following cases:

(a) Where the estimated cost of necessary repairs and emergency repairs does not exceed $1000.00; or

(b) Where the estimated cost of income-producing reconditioning or the paving of streets and sidewalks and the installation of sewers and similar improvements does not exceed $500.00.

Such advances shall not be directed or authorized unless:

(1) Title examination is not required or is waived as hereinafter provided, or

(2) No liens are disclosed where title examination is required, or

(3) The borrower effects subordination or discharge of liens disclosed which would have priority over the advance, excepting liens for taxes and assessments.

§ 405.02-9 When the estimated cost of repairs, reconditioning, or improvements does not exceed $300.00, title examination shall not be required. When the estimated cost exceeds $300.00, title examination shall be required, except where the Regional Counsel waives title examination and certifies as his opinion that the advance will be secured as a lien under the Corporation's original mortgage priming encumbrances, except taxes and assessments, which intervened or may intervene between the date of the Corporation's original mortgage and the date of the additional lien to be obtained. Regional Counsel shall prescribe on Form R-7AB (529-A), or other officially approved form: (a) certification of his opinion, in appropriate cases over $300.00, as to waiving title examination; (b) the approved forms of debt and lien instruments to be executed by the borrower; (c) whether the applicable instruments shall be recorded; (d) other necessary or appropriate legal advice.

§ 405.02-11 In any case where the estimated cost of repairs, reconditioning, or improvements exceeds the Regional Manager's authority to authorize such advance, the case shall be forwarded by the Regional Manager to the General Manager who, with the concurring approval of the Chief, Reconditioning Section, and the Deputy General Manager in Charge of Loan Service, and with the advice of the General Counsel, may authorize an advance for such repairs, reconditioning, or improvements. When forwarding the file, the Regional Manager shall include his recommendations, together with the opinion and recommendation of the Regional Counsel regarding title examination and forms of security instruments to be taken and the recordation thereof.

(Above procedure promulgated by General Manager and General Counsel pursuant to authority vested in them by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board acting pursuant to Secs. 4 (a), 4 (k) of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 129, 132, as amended by Section 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934, 48 Stat. 647; 12 U.S.C. 1463 (a), (k))

PART 405—RECONDITIONING

CONTRACT WITH BORROWER TO PERFORM LABOR; BORROWER PROVIDES LABOR; COMPLETION; DEFAULT

Amending Part 405 of Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Section 405.02-15 is amended by adding the following paragraphs at the end thereof (Effective August 15, 1939):

When an advance for necessary repairs or other reconditioning has been approved in accordance with the regulations of the Corporation, and the borrower requests permission to provide the labor in connection therewith, the Reconditioning Supervisor shall investigate and determine as to the qualifications and reliability of the person who is to perform the labor; and make recommendations to the State Manager. If the State Manager determines to permit the borrower to provide the labor, he may, on behalf of the Corporation, enter into a contract with the borrower on a form approved for the purpose. The borrower should, where practicable, be required to submit in advance bids, in accordance with the requirements of the regulations, for all materials.

The reconditioning work shall be performed under the supervision of the Reconditioning Section. When the work has been completed to the satisfaction of the Reconditioning Section, and the borrower has satisfactorily complied with the provisions and covenants contained in the contract, the bills for materials and all costs other than labor shall be paid in compliance with the regular procedure for reconditioning; and the Reconditioning Section, through the State Manager, shall notify the Regional Accountant on Form R-18 of the amount of the unexpended portion of the advance which shall be credited to the borrower's account. The total cost of labor and materials shall not exceed the advance authorized. The Regional or State Manager, with the advice of the Regional or State Counsel, may, in his discretion when the circumstances justify, authorize payment of material bills prior to the final completion of the work.

In the event the borrower fails or refuses to complete the reconditioning, he shall contract with persons acceptable to the Corporation to perform the remainder of the labor, which shall be paid for by the borrower from his personal funds, or when approved by the Regional or State Manager, from funds available in the advance; or the Regional or State Manager may contract with suitable persons to complete the work under such terms and conditions as the Regional or State Manager, with the advice of the Regional or State Counsel, shall deem to be for the best interest of the Corporation.

When any funds from the advance are used to pay for any portion of the labor, only the unexpended portion of the advance shall be credited to the borrower's account.

(Above procedure promulgated by General Manager and General Counsel pursuant to authority vested in them by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board acting pursuant to Secs. 4 (a), 4 (k) of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 129, 132, as amended by Section 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934, 48 Stat. 647; 12 U.S.C. 1463 (a), (k))

Promulgated by General Manager and General Counsel of Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

PART 409—AUDITING

SPECIAL DEPOSIT CASES

Amending Part 409 of Chapter IV, Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Section 409.02-3 is amended by adding the following paragraph at the end thereof:

When, in compliance with the provisions of Sections 402.14-1 and 402.14-2 and through the use of Form 533, the borrower will deposit monies for the payment of insurance premiums, and the Insurance Section receives a copy of Form 533, such form will be placed in the insurance policy jacket. When the expiration occurs, the order for insurance will be placed in the usual manner and the name of the agent specified by the borrower will be indicated thereon as to the borrower's choice. No such insurance will be placed directly with the agent either by the borrower or the Corporation, but will be ordered through an appropriate insurer under contract.

(Effective August 15, 1939)

(Above procedure promulgated by General Manager and General Counsel pursuant to authority vested in them by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board acting pursuant to Secs. 4 (a), 4 (k) of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 129, 132, as amended by Section 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934, 48 Stat. 647; 12 U.S.C. 1463 (a), (k))

TITLE 45—PUBLIC WELFARE

FEDERAL WORKS AGENCY—WORK PROJECTS ADMINISTRATION

[General Letter No. 280]

POLITICAL ACTIVITY

The Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1939, Public Resolution Number 24, 76th Congress, approved June 30, 1939, contains the following provisions:

SEC. 29 (a) It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to solicit, or knowingly be in any manner concerned in soliciting, any assessment, subscription, or contribution for the campaign expenses of any individual or political party from any person receiving compensation or employment provided for by this joint resolution.

SEC. 30 (a) It shall be unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, to promise any employment, position, work, compensation, or other benefit, provided for or made possible by this joint resolution, or any other Act of the Congress, to any person as consideration, favor, or reward for any political activity or for the support of or opposition to any candidate in any election or any political party.

SEC. 30 (b) Except as may be required by the provisions of subsection (b) of section 31 hereof, it shall be unlawful for any person to deprive, attempt to deprive, or threaten to deprive, by any means, any person of any employment, position, work, compensation, or other benefit, provided for or made possible by this joint resolution, on account of race, creed, color, or any political activity, support of, or opposition to any candidate or any political party in any election.

Public Resolution No. 24, in sections 29 (b) and 30 (c) provides the following penalty for any person found guilty of violating the above quoted sections:

Any person who knowingly violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other provisions of existing law, or of this joint resolution.

The Division of Investigation of this Administration will be responsible for the investigation of all complaints or information alleging a violation of the above quoted sections of Public Resolution Number 24. State Work Projects Administrators are directed to forward all complaints and information indicating a possible violation of these sections to the Director, Division of Investigation, Work Projects Administration, Washington, D. C., for appropriate attention. In transmitting such complaints or information to the Division of Investigation, where a WPA employee is alleged to be involved, the State Administrator will include in his letter of transmittal the name, address, WPA title and WPA employment record of the person charged with the violation of these provisions of Public Resolution Number 24.

Public Resolution Number 24, 76th Congress, in section 31 (a) and 31 (b) provides that:

SEC. 31 (a) It shall be unlawful for any person employed in any administrative or supervisory capacity by any agency of the Federal Government, whose compensation or any part thereof is paid from funds authorized or appropriated by this joint resolution, to use his official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with an election or affecting the results thereof. While such persons shall retain the right to vote as they please and to express privately their opinions on all political subjects, they shall take no active part, directly or indirectly, in political management or in political campaigns or in political conventions.

SEC. 31 (b) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be immediately removed from the position or office held by him, and thereafter no part of the funds appropriated by this joint resolution shall be used to pay the compensation of such person. The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other provisions of existing law, or of this joint resolution.

The term "administrative or supervisory capacity" as used in section 31 (a) is interpreted to include persons paid on administrative or project pay rolls, who have actual supervision over any other employee or employees or who are in such positions that by reason thereof they may exercise authority or influence over other employees irrespective of whether they have actual supervision over the work of any employees.

Any person in an administrative or supervisory capacity who violates the provisions of section 31 (a) shall be subject to immediate discharge and thereafter such person shall not be eligible for any employment which is compensated from funds appropriated to the Work Projects Administration. Where alleged violations of section 31 (a) of Public Resolution Number 24 are investigated by the State Administrator, a copy of the report of each administrative investigation, together with a report on the administrative action taken as a result of the findings of each investigation, shall be forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner, Work Projects Administration, Washington, D. C., immediately upon completion of the inquiry.

Section 32 of Public Resolution Number 24, provides as follows:

SEC. 32. No part of any appropriation in this joint resolution shall be used to pay the salary or expenses of any person in a supervisory or administrative position who is a candidate for any State, district, county, or municipal office (such office requiring full time of such person and to which office a salary or per diem attaches), in any primary, general or special election, or who is serving as a campaign manager or assistant thereto for any such candidate.

To carry out rules and regulations relating to political activity and to effect compliance with the provisions of the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1939 and of Public Resolution Number 24, 76th Congress, no person employed by the Work Projects Administration in an administrative or supervisory capacity, as defined above, shall be retained in such employment if:

(1) Such person is a candidate for any Federal, state, district, county or municipal office in any primary, general or special election or who is serving as a campaign manager or assistant thereto for any such candidate.

(2) Such person is holding an elective office the duties of which would necessitate being absent from a WPA position during regular working hours or to which a salary, per diem, or other compensation is attached, provided that under no circumstances shall such person hold any public office through which such person would be involved in political management or political campaigns.

(3) Such person is a member of a party committee or organization, the duties of which are concerned with political management or political campaigns.

The policy of the Work Projects Administration concerning the exercise of the voting franchise by WPA employees remains as follows:

Every citizen who works for the Work Projects Administration, whatever his job, has a right to vote in any election, for any candidate he chooses. When the hours during which polling places are open or any other conditions prevent employees from freely exercising their voting privileges, scheduled hours of work may be adjusted to provide the necessary time for this purpose. Employees shall not be paid for time allowed during which to vote, but they shall be permitted insofar as practicable through a rescheduling of working hours to work their full quota of hours during the payroll month for which the time off is granted.

Section 28 of Public Resolution Number 24, provides as follows:

SEC. 28. Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud the United States makes any false statement in connection with any application for any work project, employment, or relief aid under the appropriations in this joint resolution, or diverts, or attempts to divert or assists in diverting, for the benefit of any person or persons not entitled thereto, any portion of such appropriations, or any services or real or personal property acquired thereunder, or who knowingly, by means of any fraud, force, threat, intimidation, or boycott, or discrimination on account of race, religion, political affiliations, or membership in a labor organization, deprives any person of any of the benefits to which he may be entitled under any such appropriations, or attempts so to do, or assists in so doing, or who disposes of, or assists in disposing of, except for the account of the United States, any property upon which there exists a lien securing a loan made under the provisions of this joint resolution or the Emergency Relief Appropriation Acts of 1935, 1936, 1937, and 1938, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both. The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other provisions of existing law, or of this joint resolution.

The regulations prescribed by this General Letter shall be effective immediately and State Administrators are directed to take such action as may be required to effect compliance with these provisions. In order that these regulations shall be known by all WPA employees and by other persons, the State Work Projects Administrators shall arrange to have copies posted on bulletin boards at the site of every project and at all administrative offices throughout the state.

This letter supersedes and rescinds General Letter No. 240 dated March 7, 1939,[1] as to actions occurring after June 30, 1939.

IN THE MATTER OF WASHINGTON AND SUBURBAN COMPANIES

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on September 1, 1939, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 26, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to an application by Washington and Suburban Companies, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for approval of a partial liquidating dividend on its preferred shares of beneficial interest, such dividends to be paid out of capital and in part from the proceeds derived from the sale of 362,588 shares of common stock of Washington Gas Light Company.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF SOUTHWESTERN DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, WEST TEXAS GAS COMPANY, AMARILLO GAS COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

Declarations and applications pursuant to sections 7, 10, 12 (c) and 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named parties;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on September 1st, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 26th, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to (1) A declaration by Southwestern Development Company (hereinafter called Southwestern), a registered holding company, regarding the issue and sale to Guaranty Trust Company of New York City (hereinafter called Guaranty), of two notes as follows:

(a) A 3% collateral note in the principal amount of $2,921,784.46 to be dated August 1, 1939 to mature in annual installments on July 1, 1940 through July 1, 1944, in substitution and exchange for its presently outstanding 3½% collateral note in the same principal amount, now held by Guaranty.

(b) A 3% collateral note in the principal amount of $4,962,484.46 to be dated on or before January 2, 1940, to mature in annual installments beginning July 1, 1940 through July 1, 1945, to retire and discharge the above-mentioned note and to obtain funds to pay off and redeem $2,040,300 of Southwestern's presently outstanding unsecured 4% dividend notes, issued to its stockholders on December 24, 1937, in payment of a dividend theretofore declared.

(2) An application by Southwestern for approval of the sale to West Texas Gas Company of $3,150,000 principal amount of South Plains Pipe Line Company First Mortgage and Collateral Trust 6% Bonds (assumed by West Texas Gas Company), now held by Guaranty as security for Southwestern's outstanding 4% collateral note in the principal amount of $2,751,340.

(3) An application by West Texas Gas Company, a subsidiary of Southwestern, for approval of the acquisition of the above-mentioned First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds.

(4) A declaration by West Texas Gas Company, a subsidiary of Southwestern, regarding (a) the issue and sale, to Guaranty, of its 3% collateral note in the principal amount of $3,150,000 maturing in semi-annual installments on January 2 and July 1 in the years 1940 through 1944, and upon January 1, 1945, to obtain funds to purchase the above-mentioned First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds and (b) the exercise of a right or privilege to alter the rights, priorities or preferences of security holders by the execution of a Second Supplemental Indenture for the purpose of reducing the interest on the First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds to 3% per annum and of reducing sinking fund payments.

(5) A declaration by Amarillo Gas Company, a subsidiary of Southwestern, regarding the issue and sale to Guaranty of its 3% collateral note in the principal amount of $270,000, maturing in annual installments commencing July 1, 1940, ending July 1, 1944, in substitution and exchange for its presently outstanding 4% collateral note in the same principal amount and now held by Guaranty.

(6) An application by Amarillo Gas Company for approval of the acquisition from Panhandle Pipe Line Company, an associate company of Amarillo Gas Company and subsidiary of Southwestern, of a 3% note in the principal amount of $135,000 to be dated August 1, 1939, to mature in four installments of $25,000 each, payable on July 1 of each of the years 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943 and $35,000 payable July 1, 1944, in substitution and exchange for Panhandle's presently outstanding 4% collateral note pledged by Amarillo Gas Company with Guaranty to secure its outstanding $270,000 note.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

DIVISION OF MARKETING AND MARKETING AGREEMENTS

TERMINATION OF MARKETING AGREEMENT AND LICENSE FOR DRIED PRUNES PRODUCED IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Whereas, the marketing agreeement for dried prunes produced in the State of California, executed by the Secretary of Agriculture on August 16, 1934, as amended on August 8, 1935, provides that "Whenever all reserve tonnage prunes have been disposed of, all assets of the Control Board have been liquidated, and its obligations have been discharged, the Secretary shall so find and shall terminate this Agreement;" and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture hereby finds that the Control Board, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement, as amended, and under the license for dried prunes produced in the State of California, issued on August 16, 1934, as amended, has, in accordance with its duties thereunder, disposed of all reserve tonnage prunes, liquidated its assets, and discharged its obligations:

Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Secretary of Agriculture that the aforesaid marketing agreement, as amended, and the aforesaid license, as amended, be, and the same hereby are, terminated, effective August 21, 1939.

In witness whereof, the Secretary of Agriculture has executed this order in duplicate and has caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 17th day of August 1939.

IN THE MATTER OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES FOR THE COTTON CONVERTING INDUSTRY

Promulgation

Due proceedings having been held[1] under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission;

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules of Group I and Group II, as hereinafter set forth,[2] which have been approved and received, respectively, by the Commission in this proceeding, be promulgated as of August 18, 1939.

Statement by the Commission

Trade practice rules for the Cotton Converting Industry, as hereinafter set forth, are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under its trade practice conference procedure.

These rules provide for the elimination and prevention of various unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, and other trade abuses, and are directed toward promoting and maintaining fair competitive conditions and protection of purchasers and the public interest. They constitute a revision and extension of the rules which had heretofore been issued by the Commission for this industry on July 21, 1936,[1] and take the place of such previously issued rules.

The industry is composed of converters and integrated producers of cotton piece goods and mixed cotton and rayon goods. Such goods, converted and sold by the members of the industry, embrace fabrics for clothiers' linings; corset, brassiere, and allied trade fabrics; converted curtain and drapery fabrics; shirting fabrics; wash goods fabrics; interlining fabrics; bleached goods; and all other cotton and cotton-mixture fabrics. According to available information, the industry handles at least 51 per cent of the entire production of such goods and has an estimated total volume of annual sales averaging $500,000,000 or more.

The proceeding for the establishment of trade practice rules was instituted upon application of the industry. In the course thereof a draft of the rules as proposed for the industry was made available upon public notice issued by the Commission to all interested or affected parties, whereby they were afforded opportunity to present their views, including such pertinent information, suggestions or objections as they desired to submit, and to be heard in the premises. Accordingly, public hearing pursuant to such notice was held in Washington on July 17, 1939, and all matters submitted in the proceeding were duly received and considered.

Thereafter, and upon consideration of the entire proceeding, final action was taken by the Commission whereby it approved and received, respectively, the rules appearing herein under Group I and Group II.

In addition to the rules issued July 21, 1936, which are herein revised and extended, trade practice rules for various branches of this industry had theretofore been published under the auspices of the Commission as follows: Clothing Cotton Converting, September 1, 1931; Shirting Fabrics, December 14, 1931; and All-Cotton Wash Goods, June 30, 1933. The present rules, as now promulgated, provide a consolidated and uniform set of trade practice provisions for the entire membership of the Cotton Converting Industry, and they supersede and take the place of all such previously published rules which had formerly been in effect.

The new trade practice rules for this industry are as follows:

THE RULES

These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote fair competitive conditions in the interest of the industry and the public. They are not to be used, directly or indirectly, as part of or in connection with any combination or agreement to fix prices, or for the suppression of competition, or otherwise to unreasonably restrain trade.

NOTE: The rules do not supplant, or relieve any member of the industry or other party of the necessity of complying with, applicable fiber identification rules and other pertinent Group I rules approved and promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission.

Group I

The unfair trade practices which are embraced in the Group I rules are considered to be unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, or other illegal practices, prohibited, within the purview of the Federal Government, by acts of Congress, as construed in the decisions of the Federal Trade Commission or the courts; and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use, by any person, partnership, corporation or other organization, of such unlawful practices in or directly affecting interstate commerce.

(§ 110.1) RULE 1. Misrepresentation of industry products. It is an unfair trade practice to make or publish, or cause to be made or published, directly or indirectly, any false, misleading or deceptive statement or representation, by way of advertisement or otherwise, concerning the grade, quality, quantity, use, size, material, content, thread count, origin, shrinkage properties, color fastness, washability, production, manufacture or distribution of any product of the industry or concerning any component of such product, or in any other material respect.

(§ 110.2) RULE 2. Misbranding. The false or deceptive marking or branding of products of the industry with respect to the grade, quality, quantity, use, size, material, content, thread count, origin, shrinkage properties, color fastness, washability, production, manufacture or distribution of such products, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 110.3) RULE 3. False invoicing. Withholding from or inserting in invoices any statements or information by reason of which omission or insertion a false record is made, wholly or in part, of the transactions represented on the face of such invoices, with the effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 110.4) RULE 4. Deception as to origin. In respect to any fabrics of the following types: (1) fabrics which have been woven or fabricated in a foreign country and imported in the gray or other unfinished state and dyed or finished in the United States; or (2) fabrics which have been imported in the finished state and dyed, redyed or refinished in the United States; it is an unfair trade practice:

(a) To offer for sale, sell or distribute any such fabrics under marks, stamps, brands, labels or representations which have the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or the consuming public into the erroneous belief that such fabrics were woven or fabricated in the United States, or that they were not so dyed, finished, redyed or refinished in the United States, as the case may be; or

(b) To offer for sale, sell or distribute any such fabrics without the same being marked, stamped, branded or labeled so as to indicate clearly and nondeceptively (1) the country of origin of the fabric, and (2) that such fabrics were woven or fabricated in such country and were dyed or finished or redyed or refinished in the United States, as the case may be; the failure, refusal or omission to so mark, stamp, brand or label such fabrics having the tendency and capacity or result of thereby promoting, abetting or effectuating the marketing of such products under conditions which are misleading or deceptive to purchasers or the consuming public.

(Nothing in this rule shall be construed as relieving any member of the industry or other party of the necessity of complying with the requirements of the customs laws or regulations, or other applicable provisions of law or regulation, relating to the marking of imported articles.)

(§ 110.5) RULE 5. Substitution of products. The practice of shipping or delivering products which do not conform to samples submitted, to specifications upon which the sale is consummated, or to representations made prior to securing the order, without the consent of the purchasers to such substitutions and with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 110.6) RULE 6. Inducing breach of contract. Inducing or attempting to induce the breach of existing lawful contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers by any false or deceptive means whatsoever, or interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services by any such means, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 110.7) RULE 7. Commercial bribery. It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry directly or indirectly to give, or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, money or anything of value to agents, employees or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase products manufactured or sold by such industry member or the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors or from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors.

(§ 110.8) RULE 8. Imitation of trademarks, etc. The practice of imitating or causing to be imitated, or directly or indirectly promoting or aiding the imitation of, the trade-marks, trade names or other exclusively owned symbols or marks of identification of competitors, or the exclusively owned patterns of competitors which have not been directly or by operation of law dedicated to the public, having the capacity, tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 110.9) RULE 9. Defamation of competitors or disparagement of their products. The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the grade, quality or manufacture of the products of competitors or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies or services, or conditions of employment, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 110.10) RULE 10. Fictitious price lists. The publishing or circulating by any member of the industry of false or misleading price quotations, price lists, terms or conditions of sale, or reports as to production or sales, with the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 110.11) RULE 11. Use of lottery schemes. The offering or giving of prizes, premiums or gifts in connection with the sale of industry products, or as an inducement thereto, by any scheme which involves lottery or scheme of chance, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 110.12) RULE 12. (a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, or rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc.[4] which effect unlawful price discrimination. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[5] in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, or credit, or freight or transportation cost or any percentage thereof, or other form of price differential,[4] where such rebate, refund, discount, or credit, or freight or transportation cost or any percentage thereof, or other form of price differential[4] effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce,[5] and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce,[5] or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either of them: Provided, however—

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(2) That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

(3) That nothing herein contained shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce[5] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing herein contained shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (a) the market for the goods concerned, or (b) the marketability of the goods, such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(b) Prohibited brokerage and commissions. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[5] in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein, where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[5] to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[5] to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or by furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Inducing or receiving an illegal discrimination in price. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[5], in the course of such commerce, knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by the foregoing provisions of this Rule 12.

(§ 110.13) RULE 13. Aiding or abetting use of unfair trade practices. It is an unfair trade practice for any person, firm or corporation to aid, abet, coerce or induce another, directly or indirectly, to

[1] 1 F.R. 846.

[4] Paragraph (a) of Rule 12 shall not be construed as embracing practices prohibited by Paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this rule.

[5] As herein used, the word "commerce" means trade or commerce among the several States and with foreign nations, or between the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States and any State, Territory, or foreign nation, or between any insular possessions or other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or between any such possession or place and any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia or any foreign nation, or within the District of Columbia or any Territory or any insular possession or other place under the jurisdiction of the United States: Provided, That this shall not apply to the Philippine Islands.

use or promote the use of any unfair trade practice specified in these rules.

Group II

Compliance with the trade practice provisions embraced in these Group II rules is considered to be conducive to sound business methods and is to be encouraged and promoted individually or through voluntary cooperation exercised in accordance with existing law. Nonobservance of such rules does not, per se, constitute violation of law. Where, however, the practice of not complying with any such Group II rules is followed in such manner as to result in unfair methods of competition, or unfair or deceptive acts or practices, corrective proceedings may be instituted by the Commission as in the case of a violation of Group I rules.

RULE A. In the interest of the public and of itself, the industry urges all members of the industry to adhere to the practice of not opening their sales offices on Saturdays and Sundays for the transaction of business.

RULE B. Lawful contracts are business obligations which should be performed in letter and in spirit. The repudiation of contracts by sellers on a rising market or by buyers on a declining market is condemned by the industry.

RULE C. When goods are sold by specifications or construction, in order that accurate information regarding the type of goods sold or offered for sale may be known to purchasers, the industry approves the practice of placing on the confirmation of order and on the invoice the gray construction, i. e., gray width, count and weight, in the case where the goods sold are to be delivered in the gray; and in the case where the goods sold are to be delivered in the finished state, the industry approves the practice of placing on the confirmation of order and invoice the finished construction, i. e., the width, count and weight in such finished state. The omission from the confirmation of order or invoice of any such information required by this rule is condemned by the industry.

Promulgated and issued by the Federal Trade Commission as of August 18, 1939.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 2nd day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

IN THE MATTER OF WILLIAM C. STEFFY, LORINA STEFFY, AND G. V. PARKINSON

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard[1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondents William C. Steffy and G. V. Parkinson, in which said respondents admit all of the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and state that they waive all intervening procedure and further hearings as to said facts, and upon the testimony taken before Robert S. Hall, an examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, relative to the acts and practices of respondent Lorina Steffy, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that respondents William C. Steffy and G. V. Parkinson have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondents William C. Steffy and G. V. Parkinson, individually and trading as Atlas Globe China Company, Advertising Department, Rogers Silverware Distributors, Bordeau China Company, or China Sales Syndicate, or trading under any other name or names, or trading through the corporations Security Silverware Distributors, Inc., United States Sales Corporation, or through any other corporation or corporations, their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any other corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of silverware, earthenware, chinaware, radios or sales promotional plans, including premium certificates, coupons, cards, or other and similar devices redeemable in silverware, earthenware, chinaware or any other merchandise, in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Representing through the use of the term "Rogers Silverware" either alone or in connection with any other term or terms in a corporate or trade name, or in any other manner, that respondents have an interest in, form a part of, or have any connection with, the manufacturers of Simon L. and George H. Rogers Silverware, or from representing in any manner that respondents have an interest in, form a part of, or have any connection with the International Silverware Company, the Atlas Globe China Company or any other manufacturer or manufacturers of silverware, chinaware or earthenware;

(2) Representing through the use of the term "Rogers Silverware" either alone or in connection with any other term or terms, or in any other manner, that premium certificates, cards, coupons or other and similar devices can be redeemed in silverware manufactured by the manufacturers of Simon L. and George H. Rogers Silverware, or can be redeemed in any other silverware or other merchandise, unless and until such are the facts and unless all the terms and conditions of such offer are clearly and unequivocally stated in equal conspicuousness and in immediate connection or conjunction with said offer and there is no deception as to the price, quality, character or any other feature of such silverware or other merchandise or as to the services or other actions to be performed or the price to be paid in connection with obtaining such silverware or other merchandise;

(3) Representing that respondents are conducting any special campaign or advertising campaign to introduce, advertise or sell any article or articles of merchandise on behalf of a manufacturer or manufacturers of silverware, earthenware or chinaware, or any other manufacturer or concern unless such a campaign is in fact being conducted at the instance of and on behalf of such manufacturer or concern;

(4) Representing that respondents sell premium certificates, cards, coupons or other and similar devices or other merchandise in any territory or locality exclusively to any purchaser therein unless and until such is the fact;

(5) Representing that respondents will refund the sum of $4.50 or any other sum to the purchasers of premium certificates, cards, coupons or other and similar devices or that the respondents will supply to their customers without charge display sets of silverware or other merchandise to become the property of such customers unless and until such are the facts and unless all of the terms and conditions of such offer or offers are clearly and unequivocally stated in equal conspicuousness and in immediate connection or conjunction with such offer or offers and there is no deception as to the services or other actions to be performed by such purchasers or customers in connection with obtaining such refund and display set of silverware or other merchandise;

(6) Representing that the retail price of radios is $24.90 or $39.99 or any other amount or amounts unless and until said radios are customarily and ordinarily sold at retail at such amount or amounts;

(7) Supplying to, or placing in the hands of, others said radios or other merchandise together with a padlock and a number of keys which said padlock and keys are to be used or may be used to conduct a lottery, gaming device or gift enterprise in the sale or distribution of said radios or other merchandise to the general public;

(8) Selling or otherwise disposing of any merchandise by means of a lottery, game of chance, or a gift enterprise;

(9) Supplying to, or placing in the hands of, others any lottery device, game of chance or a gift enterprise so as to enable such persons to dispose of or sell any merchandise by the use thereof.

It is further ordered, That this proceeding in so far as it relates to respondent Lorina Steffy, be and the same hereby is, closed without prejudice.

It is further ordered, That the respondents William C. Steffy and G. V. Parkinson shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and a stipulation as to the facts entered into between the respondent herein and W. T. Kelley, Chief Counsel for the Commission, which provides, among other things, that without further evidence or other intervening procedure, the Commission may issue and serve upon the respondent herein findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Ostrex Company, Inc., its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of a medicinal preparation now designated "Ostrex" or any other preparation possessing substantially similar therapeutic properties or composed of substantially similar ingredients, whether sold under the same name or any other name or names in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing that the use of said preparation has any beneficial effect on the blood unless such representation is limited to those cases of persons having an abnormal blood count and hemoglobin percentage and having a type of anemia which may be beneficially affected by the administration of iron;

2. Representing that the use of said preparation is beneficial in stimulating or invigorating any glands of the human body unless such representation is limited to the effectiveness of the iodine and calcium contained in said preparation on the thyroid or parathyroid glands;

3. Representing that said preparation will carry new life and power to nerve cells or will invigorate or revitalize weak organs of the human body;

4. Representing that the use of said preparation is beneficial in increasing weight unless such representation is limited to statements to the effect that said preparation may stimulate the appetite and may counteract deficiencies in calcium, phosphorus and iron;

5. Representing that the use of said preparation will beneficially affect the nerves unless such representation is limited to those cases of nervous disorders caused by a deficiency of calcium or phosphorus;

6. Representing that the iron contained in raw oysters is more beneficial in building up the blood than iron contained in other forms of organic or inorganic compounds;

7. Representing that said preparation is made from Government inspected oysters unless and until said preparation is made from oysters which have been inspected and approved by accredited representatives of the United States Government.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty days after service upon it of this order file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent, in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint, and states that it waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, T. Noonan & Sons Company, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails or in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of a certain medicinal preparation now designated by the name of "Noonan's Vitamin F Scalp Cream", or any other preparation composed of similar ingredients or possessing substantially similar therapeutic qualities whether sold under that designation or any other designation, or disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said medicinal preparation, which advertisements represent, directly or through implication that:

(a) Dandruff or itching scalp, singly or in combination, are a usual cause of baldness in the male or impairment of the texture or color of the hair in the female, or that the said preparation will permanently eradicate dandruff or itching scalp, invigorate the roots of the hair, prevent the natural oil of the scalp from being lost and the hair from falling out, avert baldness, promote the growth of new hair, restore unhealthy hair to health, or have more than a transitory effect upon the texture or appearance of the scalp or hair;

(b) Any condition of the hair or scalp is due to a dietary deficiency;

(c) The said preparation contains "Vitamin F".

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

It is ordered, That the respondent, Usona Shirt Company, its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of textile fabrics including men's shirts and other like articles, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the words "Shrunk," "Pre-Shrunk," or "Full Shrunk," or any other words or terms of similar import or meaning, to describe, designate, or in any way refer to, any fabric which is not in fact shrink-proof or nonshrinkable, or which has not been fully shrunk or pre-shrunk to the extent that no residual shrinkage is left therein;

2. Using the words "Custom Made," or any other words or terms of similar import and meaning, to designate, describe, or in any way refer to, shirts or other products which are not made especially for each individual customer;

3. Representing that respondent's products possess a quality, grade, character or condition superior to or different from that which they actually possess.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after the service upon it of this order file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of the respondent, and a stipulation as to the facts entered into between the respondent herein and W. T. Kelley, Chief Counsel for the Commission, which provides, among other things, that without further evidence or other intervening procedure, the Commission may issue and serve upon the respondent herein findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, James Heddon's Sons, a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of its Improved Heddon Pal hollow steel fishing rod, or other fishing rods, in commerce as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing in any manner that all hollow steel fishing rods, other than respondent's hollow steel rods, have walls which are thicker at the butt than at the tip;

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

[T. D. 4922]

TAX ON TELEGRAPH, TELEPHONE, RADIO, AND CABLE FACILITIES; TRANSPORTATION OF OIL BY PIPE LINE, AND ELECTRICAL ENERGY; SUBTITLE C OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Section 1 of the Revenue Act of 1939, aproved June 29, 1939, reads in part as follows:

SEC. 1. CONTINUATION OF EXCISE TAXES. * * *.

Sections * * * 3452, 3460 (a), 3465, * * * of the Internal Revenue Code are amended by striking out "1939" wherever appearing therein and inserting in lieu thereof "1941". * * *.

In conformity with the provision of law quoted above, articles 1, 8, 25, and 39 of Regulations 42 (revised October 1932), as amended (sections 130.1, 130.8, 130.25, and 130.39 of Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations), but only as prescribed and made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885, approved February 11, 1939[1] (Part 465, Subpart B of such Title 26), under the authority contained in sections 3431 and 3472 of the Internal Revenue Code, are further amended to read as follows:

"ART. 1. Effective period.—The tax is imposed upon payments for the transmission by telegraph, telephone, cable, or radio of dispatches, messages, and conversations originating in the United States prior to July 1, 1941, regardless of the date of payment.

"ART. 8. Effective period.—The tax imposed under section 3465 (b) attaches to the amount paid for any leased wire or talking circuit special service furnished prior to July 1, 1941. If the rendition of the service occurs prior to July 1, 1941, the tax attaches thereto notwithstanding the date of payment.

"ART. 25. Effective period.—The tax imposed under section 3460 applies to all transportation of crude petroleum and liquid products thereof by pipe line where the movement begins prior to July 1, 1941. In the case of any such transportation by pipe line where the movement originates prior to July 1, 1941, and ends on or after that date, the tax attaches to the entire amount charged for the transportation, although paid on or after July 1, 1941.

"ART. 39. Effective period.—The tax applies to electrical energy sold prior to July 1, 1941."

(This Treasury decision is prescribed pursuant to sections 3452, 3460 (a) and 3465 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat., Part 1), as amended by section 1 of the Revenue Act of 1939 (Public, No. 155, 76th Cong., 1st sess.) and sections 3431 and 3472 of the Internal Revenue Code.)

TAX ON ADMISSIONS, CHAPTER 10, SUBCHAPTER A OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Section 1 of the Revenue Act of 1939, approved June 29, 1939, reads in part as follows:

SEC. 1. CONTINUATION OF EXCISE TAXES. * * *

Sections 1700 (a) (1) * * * of the Internal Revenue Code are amended by striking out "1939" wherever appearing therein and inserting in lieu thereof "1941". * * *.

In conformity with the provision of law quoted above, article 57 of Regulations 43 (revised June 1932), as amended (section 100.57 of Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations), but only as prescribed and made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885, approved February 11, 1939[1] (Part 465, Subpart B of such Title 26), under the authority contained in section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code, is further amended to read as follows:

"ART. 57. Effective date of change in exemption. The sums paid for admission which are not subject to tax under section 1700 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code (same as section 500 (a) (1), as amended, of the Revenue Act of 1926) are those which are 'less than 41 cents'. Effective July 1, 1941, any sum of '$3.00 or less' paid for admission will not be taxable. The time of payment and not the time of admission will govern in determining which exemption is applicable. Consequently, if a person should purchase a ticket of admission for an amount in excess of 40 cents where the payment was made before July 1, 1941, for an admission to take place after that date, the payment so made would be subject to tax."

(This Treasury decision is prescribed pursuant to section 1700 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat., Part 1), as amended by section 1 of the Revenue Act of 1939 (Public, No. 155, 76th Cong., 1st sess.) and section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code.)

SUBCHAPTER C—MISCELLANEOUS EXCISE TAXES

PART 188—BOTTLING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS IN BOND FOR EXPORT

To District Supervisors and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to authority in Sections 2903 to 2906, inclusive, and Section 2910, Internal Revenue Code, Regulations No. 6, Bottling of Distilled Spirits in Bond, approved June 3, 1938, as amended,[2] are hereby further amended by adding thereto Sections 45 to 62, inclusive, to read as follows:

§ 45 Distilled spirits which may be bottled in bond for export. Under the provisions of Sections 2903 to 2906, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code, distilled spirits which have remained in wooden containers for at least four years from the date of original gauge as to fruit brandy, or original entry as to other spirits (except gin for export) and have been duly entered for withdrawal for bottling in bond for export and have been duly gauged and the required marks, brands and export stamps affixed to the packages containing the same, may be removed to the bottling house for bottling in bond for export. Such spirits may be reduced in the bottling tank by the addition of pure water only to not less than 80 per centum proof.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 2910 of the Internal Revenue Code, gin of not less than 80 per centum proof may at any time within eight years after entry in bond be bottled in bond for export.

§ 46 Application for withdrawal of spirits for bottling for export. Whenever spirits are to be withdrawn from an internal revenue bonded warehouse for bottling in bond for immediate exportation, application for withdrawal therefrom will be made on Form 206. If the spirits are to be withdrawn for bottling for temporary storage before exportation, application for withdrawal will be made on Form 655.

§ 47 Size and kind of bottles. Distilled spirits may be bottled in bond for export in the following sized bottles and no others:

1 quart.
⅘ quart.
1 pint.
½ pint.
Less than ½ pint.[1]

Bottles must be filled as nearly as possible to conform to the amount stated to be contained therein but in no case may the amount of spirits contained in any bottle vary from the amount intended or stated to be contained therein more than 2 per cent. Bottles to be used for bottling distilled spirits in bond for export shall be tested as to capacity in accordance with the provisions of Section 37 of these regulations.

Liquor bottles as defined in Regulations 13 may be used, but will not be required in bottling distilled spirits in bond for export.

§ 48 Denominations of export strip stamps. Export strip stamps will be provided in the following denominations only:

1 quart.
⅘ quart.
1 pint.
½ pint.
Less than ½ pint.

§ 49 Number of export stamps in sheet. Export strip stamps of "Less than ½ pint" denomination will be issued 50 in a sheet. Export strip stamps of all other denominations will be issued 42 in a sheet. Requisitions for stamps by proprietors of warehouses must be made for full sheets. Stamps less than a full sheet may not be sold by a Collector.

§ 50 Requisitioning; shipping and overprinting export strip stamps. Export strip stamps will be requisitioned, shipped and overprinted in the manner provided in Sections 16, 18, 19 and 20 of these regulations for requisitioning, shipping and overprinting of strip stamps for distilled spirits bottled in bond for domestic consumption, except that in overprinting export strip stamps the proof at which the spirits are to be bottled will be printed on the stamps in addition to the other required data.

§ 51 Record of export stamps, Form 1606. The storekeeper-gauger will keep a separate record, marked "Export," on Form 1606 of the number of each denomination of export strip stamps received by him during the month, the number turned over to the proprietor for overprinting and returned to him, the number used during the month, and the number on hand at the beginning and close of the month. A summary statement (Part 2 of Form 1606) of such record shall be prepared and forwarded to the District Supervisor each month as provided by the instructions on the form.

§ 52 Labeling of distilled spirits bottled for export. All bottles containing distilled spirits bottled in bond for export shall have securely affixed thereto a label showing the following information:

1. Kind of spirits.
2. Name of actual bona fide distiller, or the name of the individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association in whose name the spirits were produced and warehoused.
3. Proof of the spirits.
4. The words "Bottled in bond for export."

The caution notice prescribed in Section 23 for spirits bottled in bond for domestic consumption will not be required on spirits bottled for export.

§ 53 Construction of cases for spirits bottled in bond for export. Cases constructed according to the specifications set forth in Sections 27 and 28, or in accordance with specifications which may be approved hereafter, may be used for packaging spirits bottled in bond for export.

§ 54 Capacity of cases. Spirits bottled in bond for export shall be packed in cases to contain not less than 2.0 wine gallons nor more than 5.0 wine gallons each.

§ 55 Numbering of cases. Each case containing distilled spirits bottled in bond for export will be given a serial number. The series of numbers in use for numbering cases containing spirits bottled for domestic consumption will be continued in numbering cases containing spirits bottled in bond for export. Remnant cases will be given the same serial number as the last full case containing spirits in the same bottling lot followed by the letter "R."

§ 56 Marking cases for spirits bottled for export. The Government side of cases used for packaging distilled spirits bottled in bond for export will be marked as provided in Section 30 (a) for distilled spirits bottled in bond for domestic consumption, and in addition thereto the number and capacity of the bottles contained therein, the wine and proof gallon contents, the words "For Export from U. S. A.," the name of the domestic port from which, and the foreign port to which, the spirits are to be shipped, and the date of withdrawal for exportation, will be plainly burned, embossed, printed or stenciled thereon in letters and figures of not less than ½ inch in height. The marks and brands will be placed on the cases in the following manner and order:

SERIAL NO. 100 — 12 1-quart bottles

Distillery No. 564 — JOHN BARLEYCORN & CO. — Louisville, Ky.

Bottled at INTERNAL REVENUE BONDED WAREHOUSE No. 300—Ky. — John Doe, U. S. Storekeeper-Gauger, Insp. June 5, 1939 — 3.00 wine gals. 2.40 proof gals. 80 proof.

Made Fall, 1934 — Bottled Spring, 1939

NEW YORK TO LONDON — For Export from U. S. A. — June 6, 1939

§ 57 Application for export strip stamps. Application will be made on Form 1515 (Part 1), in duplicate, to the storekeeper-gauger for the necessary export strip stamps to cover the bottles of spirits to be filled. If the number and denomination of stamps requested by the proprietor are necessary to cover the quantity of spirits to be bottled, the storekeeper-gauger will issue the stamps and make the necessary entry on his record of stamps, Form 1606. Upon completion of the bottling, the details of the statement "Cases filled," Part 2 of Form 1515, will be filled in by the storekeeper-gauger in accordance with the instructions on the form, and one copy with the cut-out portions of the export barrel stamps attached thereto will be forwarded to the District Supervisor. Appropriate entry will also be made of the cases filled on Form 206 or Form 655 in accordance with the instructions on the form.

§ 58 Affixing of export strip stamps, use of caps, cups, and cartons. Export strip stamps must be securely affixed to the bottles in the same manner as strip stamps are required to be affixed to spirits bottled in bond for domestic consumption. The provisions of Section 38 of these regulations, respecting the affixing of strip stamps, and the use of cups, caps, seals, and cartons on bottles so stamped, shall apply to spirits bottled for export.

§ 59 Remnants. Where the spirits remaining in a bottling tank are found to be less than the quantity necessary to constitute a full case of bottled spirits, the spirits so remaining shall be immediately drawn off, bottled and cased. Such remnant may be tax-paid for domestic consumption, or may be removed to the export storage warehouse for storage until the next lot of spirits of the same kind, produced by the same distiller during the same year and distilling season are dumped for bottling for exportation, at which time the remnant case may be returned to the bottling house and the bottles used for filling a complete case, or, if the spirits are of the age and proof required for domestic bottled in bond spirits, the remnant case may be deposited in the bonded warehouse for subsequent disposition in the manner provided by regulations for the disposition of remnant cases of spirits bottled in bond for domestic purposes.

Indicia bottles must be used in the event the remnant is to be drawn off into bottles of a capacity of ½ pint or greater for tax-payment or for return to the bonded warehouse for subsequent disposition as bottled in bond spirits. The bottles must be stamped with red strip stamps, unless the spirits are 100 degrees proof and have remained in wooden containers for at least four years from the date of original gauge as to fruit brandy, or original entry as to other spirits, in which event they may be stamped with domestic bottled in bond stamps. The bottles must also be properly labeled. The cases containing the remnant bottles must be marked and branded as required by the respective regulations governing the bottling of tax-paid spirits or spirits bottled in bond for domestic purposes. Bottles in remnant cases deposited in the export storage warehouse must be strip stamped and labeled with export labels and the case containing same must be marked and branded as prescribed by these regulations for marking cases of spirits bottled in bond for export, except as to the date of withdrawal and the names of the ports.

In all cases where a remnant is disposed of as heretofore provided, notation will be made in Part 2 of Form 1515 and on Form 206 or Form 655, as the case may be, showing the disposition made of such remnant.

§ 60 Tax-payment of losses in bottling and remnants. Losses in bottling spirits for export will be reported on Form 1607 for tax-payment, as provided in Section 39 of these regulations. The tax will be paid on remnant cases which it is desired to remove for domestic consumption, pursuant to application on Form 1519, properly modified for the purpose. However, such remnant will be removed immediately upon completion of the bottling to the tax-paid room.

§ 61 Remnant cases returned to bottling house. When remnant cases are to be returned to the bottling house from the export storage warehouse for use in filling a complete case, they will be included in the application, Form 206, or Form 655, covering the withdrawal of bulk containers for bottling for export.

[1] Bottles of less than ½ pint capacity may be of size desired.

§ 62 Records. Export bottling transactions will be reported on the Storekeeper-Gauger's Monthly Return, Form 1516, and the District Supervisor's Monthly Account, Form 1517, respectively, as provided in Sections 41 and 42, and in accordance with the instructions on the respective forms.

These sections shall be effective on and after October 1, 1939.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 17th day of August, A. D. 1939.

[File No. 32-168]

IN THE MATTER OF NEW YORK POWER AND LIGHT CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

Applications pursuant to sections 6 (b) and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 25, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 23, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to

(1) The proposed acquisition by New York Power and Light Corporation of such of its First Mortgage Bonds, 4½% Series due 1967, presently outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $66,000,000, as may be presented in response to a proposed offer of Applicant to issue its first Mortgage Bonds, 3⅜% Series due 1969, in exchange for Bonds of the 4½% Series due 1967, at par. The Exchange Offer will be conditioned upon the deposit pursuant thereto of not less than $22,582,000 aggregate principal amount of the Bonds of the 4½% Series due 1967, and upon the making of satisfactory arrangements by the Applicant for the redemption by the Applicant of such of the Bonds of the 4½% Series due 1967 as are not deposited pursuant to the Exchange Offer, and for the redemption of the First Mortgage, Five Percent, Thirty Year Bonds of Port Henry Light, Heat and Power Company (a predecessor of Applicant) outstanding in the principal amount of $269,000, and for the payment at maturity on November 1, 1939, of the $313,000 principal amount of First Mortgage, Five Percent Bonds of Troy Gas Company (a predecessor of Applicant) outstanding in the hands of the public.

(2) The proposed issue and sale by New York Power and Light Corporation of not to exceed $66,582,000 aggregate principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, 3⅜% Series due 1969 and 3½% Series due 1964, said bonds to be issued under the indenture securing the Applicant's presently outstanding First Mortgage Bonds, 4½% Series due 1967, and an indenture supplemental thereto, as follows:

(a) Bonds of the 3⅜% Series due 1969 in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Applicant's presently outstanding First Mortgage Bonds, 4½% Series due 1967, which may be deposited pursuant to the Exchange Offer referred to above; and

(b) Bonds of the 3½% Series due 1964 in an amount equal to the difference between $66,582,000 and the aggregate principal amount of Bonds of the 3⅜% Series due 1969, issued pursuant to the Exchange Offer, but not more than $44,000,000 principal amount, said bonds to be sold privately at a price to the Applicant of not less than 106.5% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest. The proceeds of the sale will be used to redeem at the redemption price of 104.6% of their principal amount, plus accrued interest, such Bonds of the 4½% Series due 1967, not exchanged for Bonds of the 3⅜% Series due 1969; to pay at maturity the $313,000 principal amount of Troy Gas Company's First Mortgage Five Percent Bonds due November 1, 1939; and to redeem the $269,000 principal amount of Port Henry Light, Heat and Power Company's First Mortgage Five Percent Bonds due August 1, 1946, at the redemption price of 105% of their principal amount plus accrued interest.

No. 122, 75th Congress; 52 Stat. 819), and pursuant to the provisions of Sections 301 and 303 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, approved February 16, 1938 (Public Law No. 430, 75th Congress, 3d Session; 52 Stat. 43, 45), and the second paragraph of Section 15 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended by Section 104 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 (Public Law No. 430, 75th Congress, 3d Session; 52 Stat. 35), the 1939 Price Adjustment Program Regulations, as amended,[1] are hereby further amended as follows:

Section 741.5, as amended by Supplement No. 2 (P-3), is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

Provided further, That if for any reason the total acreage of cotton on the farm in 1939 is less than 80 percent of the cotton acreage allotment established for the farm and the acreage of cotton which is or would have been planted for harvest on the farm in 1939 by any tenant or sharecropper is not substantially proportionate to the acreage of cotton which such tenant or sharecropper would normally plant thereon, and all the persons who are or would have been entitled to receive a share of the proceeds of cotton agree, as shown by their signatures on the application for payment or a separate statement, the payment computed for cotton for the farm shall be divided among the landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers in the proportion that the county committee determines such persons would have been entitled to share in the proceeds of the cotton crop if the entire acreage in the cotton acreage allotment had been planted and harvested in 1939, but in no event shall the acreage share so determined for any person be less than such person's acreage share of the acreage planted to cotton on the farm in 1939.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of August, 1939. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

[File No. 21-339]

IN THE MATTER OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES FOR THE MARKING DEVICES INDUSTRY

Promulgation

Due proceedings having been held[1] under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission;

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules of Group I and Group II, as hereinafter set forth,[2] which have been approved and received, respectively, by the Commission in this proceeding, be promulgated as of August 19, 1939.

Statement by the Commission

Trade Practice Rules for the Marking Devices Industry, as hereinafter set forth, are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission under its trade practice conference procedure.

These rules provide for the elimination and prevention of various unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, and other trade abuses, and are directed toward promoting and maintaining fair competitive conditions and protection of purchasers and the public interest. They consist of a revision and extension of the rules which had heretofore been issued by the Commission for this industry on September 1, 1933, and take the place of such previously issued rules.

Members of this industry are engaged in the manufacture, sale and distribution of rubber and metallic stamps and dies, numbering and dating machines, stencils and stencil cutting machines, seals and seal presses, and stamped plates, tags, labels, signs, checks, badges and numerous other similar articles and products. According to available estimates, the industry, numbering about a thousand concerns, transacts an aggregate annual volume of business amounting to approximately $15,000,000.

The proceeding for the establishment of trade practice rules was instituted upon application of the industry. In the course thereof a draft of the rules as proposed for the industry was made available upon public notice issued by the Commission to all interested or affected parties, whereby they were afforded opportunity to present their views, including such pertinent information, suggestions or objections as they desired to submit, and to be heard in the premises. Accordingly, public hearing pursuant to such notice was held in Washington on July 27, 1939, and all matters submitted in the proceeding were duly received and considered.

Thereafter, and upon consideration of the entire proceeding, final action was taken by the Commission whereby it approved and received, respectively, the rules appearing herein under Group I and Group II.

THE RULES

These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote fair competitive conditions in the interest of the industry and the public. They are not to be used, directly or indirectly, as part of or in connection with any combination or agreement to fix prices, or for the suppression of competition, or otherwise to unreasonably restrain trade.

Group I

The unfair trade practices which are embraced in the Group I rules are considered to be unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, or other illegal practices, prohibited within the purview of the Federal Government, by acts of Congress, as construed in the decisions of the Federal Trade Commission or the courts; and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use, by any person, partnership, corporation or other organization, of such unlawful practices in or directly affecting interstate commerce.

(§ 97.1) RULE 1. Misbranding. The false or deceptive marking or branding of products of the industry with respect to the grade, quality, quantity, use, size, material, content, substance, origin, preparation, manufacture or distribution of such products, or in any other material respect, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.2) RULE 2. Misrepresentation of industry products. It is an unfair trade practice to make or publish, or cause to be made or published, directly or indirectly, any false, misleading or deceptive statement or representation, by way of advertisement or otherwise, concerning the grade, quality, quantity, use, size, material, content, substance, origin, preparation, manufacture or distribution of any product of the industry, or in any other material respect.

(§ 97.3) RULE 3. Misrepresentation as to Character of Business. For any person, firm or corporation to hold himself or itself out to the public as a manufacturer or wholesaler when such is not the fact, or in any other manner to misrepresent the character, extent or type of his or its business, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.4) RULE 4. Substitution of products. The practice of shipping or delivering products which do not conform to samples submitted, to specifications upon which the sale is consummated, or to representations made prior to securing the order, without the consent of the purchasers to such substitutions and with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.5) RULE 5. Misuse of word "Free". The use of the word "free", or the equivalent thereof, where not properly or fairly qualified when the article is in fact not free, with the tendency or capacity to mislead or deceive purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.6) RULE 6. Imitation of trade-marks, etc. The imitation or simulation of the trade-marks, trade names, labels or brands of competitors, with the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.7) RULE 7. False invoicing. Withholding from or inserting in an invoice, billing or statement any material information by reason of which omission or insertion a false record is made, wholly or in part, of the transaction which such invoice or billing or statement purports to represent, with the effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.8) RULE 8. False and misleading price quotations. The publishing or circulating by any member of the industry of false or misleading price quotations, price lists, terms or conditions of sale, with the tendency and capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers, prospective purchasers or the consuming public, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.9) RULE 9. Inducing breach of contract. Inducing or attempting to induce the breach of existing lawful contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers by any false or deceptive means whatsoever, or interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services by any such means, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.10) RULE 10. Enticing away employees of competitors. Wilfully enticing away the employees of competitors, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.11) RULE 11. Defamation of competitors or disparagement of their products. The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the grade, quality or manufacture of the products of competitors, or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies or services, or conditions of employment, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.12) RULE 12. Unfair threats of infringement suits. The circulation of threats of suit for infringement of patents or trade-marks among customers or prospective customers of competitors, not made in good faith but for the purpose or with the effect of harassing or intimidating such customers or prospective customers, or of unduly hampering, injuring or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.13) RULE 13. Procurement of competitors' confidential information by unfair means and wrongful use thereof. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to obtain information concerning the business of a competitor, by bribery of an employee or agent of such competitor, by false or misleading statements or representations, by the impersonation of one in authority, or by any other unfair means, and to use the information so obtained in such a manner as to injure said competitor in his business or to suppress competition or unreasonably restrain trade.

(§ 97.14) RULE 14. Commercial bribery. It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry directly or indirectly to give, or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, money or anything of value to agents, employees or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase products manufactured or sold by such industry member or the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors or from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors.

(§ 97.15) RULE 15. Coercing purchase of one product as a prerequisite to the purchase of other products. The practice of coercing the purchase of one or more products as a prerequisite to the purchase of one or more other products, where the effect may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice.

(§ 97.16) RULE 16. Consignment shipping. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to use the practice of shipping goods to dealers or distributors on consignment or pretended consignment for the purpose and with the effect of artificially clogging trade outlets and unduly restricting competitors' use of said trade outlets in getting their goods to consumers through regular channels of distribution, or with such purpose to entirely close said trade outlets to such competitors so as to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall be construed or used as restricting or preventing consignment shipping or marketing of commodities in good faith, and without artificial interference with competitors' use of the usual channels of distribution in such manner as thereby to suppress competition or restrain trade.

(§ 97.17) RULE 17. Selling below cost. The practice of selling industry products below the seller's cost, when pursued with wrongful intent of thereby injuring a competitor and where the effect of such practice is to unreasonably restrain trade, tend to create a monopoly, or substantially lessen competition, is an unfair trade practice.

This rule is not to be construed as prohibiting all sales below cost, but only such selling below the seller's cost as is resorted to and pursued as a monopolistic practice with the wrongful intent referred to and coupled with the effect of unreasonably restraining trade, tending to create a monopoly or substantially lessening competition. Sales below cost by a competitor not in a sufficiently strong competitive position to produce, and not actually producing, the monopolistic or restraining effect mentioned, do not fall within the inhibitions of this rule.

The costs referred to in the rule are actual costs of the respective seller and not some other figure or average costs in the industry, determined by an industry cost survey or otherwise.

(§ 97.18) RULE 18. Unlawful interference. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry, by means of any monopolistic practices, or through combination, conspiracy, coercion, boycott, threats or any other unlawful means, directly or indirectly, to interfere with a competitor's right to purchase his materials and supplies from whomsoever he chooses, or to sell to whomsoever he chooses.

(§ 97.19) RULE 19.—(a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, or rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc.,[1] which effect unlawful price discrimination. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[2] in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of

[1] 4 F.R. 2951 DI.

[2] These rules supersede the rules previously promulgated for this industry on September 1, 1933.

[1] Paragraph (a) of Rule 19 shall not be construed as embracing practices prohibited by paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this rule.

price differential,[1] where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce,[2] and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce,[2] or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either of them: Provided, however,—

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(2) That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

(3) That nothing herein contained shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce[2] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing herein contained shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (a) the market for the goods concerned, or (b) the marketability of the goods, such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(b) Prohibited brokerage and commissions. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[2], in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[2] to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[2] to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or by furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Inducing or receiving an illegal discrimination in price. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[2], in the course of such commerce, knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by the foregoing provisions of this Rule 19.

(§ 97.20) RULE 20. Aiding or abetting use of unfair trade practices. It is an unfair trade practice for any person, firm or corporation to aid, abet, coerce or induce another, directly or indirectly, to use or promote the use of any unfair trade practice specified in these rules.

Group II

Compliance with the trade practice provisions embraced in these Group II rules is considered to be conducive to sound business methods and is to be encouraged and promoted individually or through voluntary cooperation exercised in accordance with existing law. Nonobservance of such rules does not, per se, constitute violation of law. Where, however, the practice of not complying with any such Group II rules is followed in such manner as to result in unfair methods of competition, or unfair or deceptive acts or practices, corrective proceedings may be instituted by the Commission as in the case of a violation of Group I rules.

RULE A. Publication of price lists. The industry approves the practice of each individual member of the industry independently publishing and circulating to the purchasing trade his own price lists fully setting forth his terms of sale.

RULE B. Return of merchandise. The practice, by members of the industry, of selling merchandise and later permitting the purchaser to return it for credit or refund of purchase price, without just cause, creates waste and loss, increases the cost of doing business to the detriment of both the industry and the public, and is condemned by the industry, subject, however, to the general limitation that members of the industry shall not engage in any combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade or use any other illegal methods in the regulation, control or prevention of the return of merchandise.

RULE C. Repudiation of contracts. Lawful contracts are business obligations which should be performed in letter and in spirit. The repudiation of contracts by sellers on a rising market, or by buyers on a declinihg market, is condemned by the industry.

RULE D. Arbitration. The industry approves the practice of handling business disputes between members of the industry and their customers in a fair and reasonable manner, coupled with a spirit of moderation and good will, and every effort should be made by the disputants themselves to compose their differences. If unable to do so they should, if possible, submit these disputes to arbitration.

Promulgated and issued by the Federal Trade Commission as of August 19, 1939.

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSAL TO AMEND ORDER NO. 27 AND MARKETING AGREEMENT NO. 80, REGULATING HANDLING OF MILK IN NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MARKETING AREA

Whereas under the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, the Secretary of Agriculture, hereinafter called the Secretary, issued Order No. 27[1] regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan marketing area, effective 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 1, 1938; and

Whereas the Secretary on September 17, 1938, approved a marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan marketing area, effective 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 1, 1938; and

Whereas the Secretary on March 18, 1939,[2] suspended the said marketing agreement and the said order, effective 11:59 p. m., e. s. t., January 31, 1939, until further order of the Secretary; and

Whereas the Acting Secretary on June 10, 1939,[3] reinstated Order No. 27, effective July 1, 1939; and

Whereas the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets of the State of New York made effective on September 1, 1938, Order No. 126 regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan marketing area, to which Order No. 27 is complementary; and

Whereas the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers' Bargaining Agency and others have petitioned the Secretary and the Commissioner for a public hearing on certain amendments to Order No. 27 and to Order No. 126; and

Whereas the Secretary has reason to believe that the declared policy of the act will be effectuated by holding a hearing on the said proposed amendments and to review present marketing conditions in the New York milkshed to deter-

IN THE MATTER OF PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF COLORADO

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A declaration pursuant to section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party; and having been subsequently amended

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 24, 1939, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 22, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the proposed issue and sale by the Declarant of the following securities: (a) $40,000,000 principal amount of the Declarant's First Mortgage Bonds, 3½% Series, due 1964; (b) $12,500,000 principal amount of the Declarant's 4% Debentures, due 1949; (c) $2,190,000 principal amount of the Declarant's Common Stock ($100 par value).

By recent amendment to the declaration Declarant proposes to issue and sell $2,190,000 principal amount of Declarant's Common Stock ($100 par value) instead of 21,900 shares of First Preferred, 5% Cumulative ($100 par value) which Declarant earlier proposed to issue and sell. The 21,900 shares of Common Stock will be issued and sold to Cities Service Power and Light, the parent company of Declarant and the proceeds of such issue and sale will be used to retire and discharge Declarant's indebtedness of $2,190,000 to said Cities Service Power and Light now evidenced by Declarant's 6% notes.

The hearing will supplement hearings heretofore held and adjourned subject to the call of the Examiner. The hearings were held pursuant to order dated April 5, 1939 to which reference is made for more complete statements as to the proposed issue.

By the Commission.

UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

CONDITION OF THE APPORTIONMENT AT CLOSE OF BUSINESS TUESDAY, AUGUST 15, 1939

Important. Although the apportioned classified civil service is by law located only in Washington, D. C., it nevertheless includes only about half of the Federal Civilian positions in the District of Columbia. Positions in local post offices, customs districts and other field services outside of the District of Columbia which are subject to the Civil Service Act are filled almost wholly by persons who are local residents of the general community in which the vacancies exist. It should be noted and understood that so long as a person occupies, by original appointment, a position in the apportioned service, the charge for his appointment continues to run against his State of original residence. Certifications of eligibles are first made from States which are in arrears.

NOTICE UNDER PACKERS AND STOCKYARDS ACT[1]

AUGUST 17, 1939.

TO JESS KUYKENDALL, CONWAY KUYKENDALL, and JACK FUNDERBURG, partners, Doing Business as Panhandle Auction & Commission Co., Amarillo, Tex.

Notice is hereby given that after inquiry, as provided by Section 302 (b) of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921 (7 U.S.C. Sec. 202 (b)), it has been ascertained by me that the stockyard known as the Panhandle Auction & Commission Co. at Amarillo, State of Texas, is subject to the provisions of said Act.

The attention of stockyard owners, market agencies, dealers, and other persons concerned is directed to Sections 303 and 306 (7 U.S.C. Secs. 203 and 207) and other pertinent provisions of said Act and the rules and regulations issued thereunder by the Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 12—BANKS AND BANKING

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

CHECK CLEARING AND COLLECTION

On July 31, 1939, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That effective September 1, 1939, Regulation J [12 CFR 210], Check Clearing and Collection, be amended to read as follows:

§ 210.1 Statutory provisions. Section 16 of the Federal Reserve Act authorizes the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to require each Federal Reserve bank to exercise the functions of a clearing house for its member banks, and section 13 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended by the Act approved June 21, 1917, authorizes each Federal Reserve bank to receive from any nonmember bank or trust company, solely for the purposes of exchange or of collection, deposits of current funds in lawful money, national-bank notes, Federal Reserve notes, checks and drafts payable upon presentation, or maturing notes and bills, provided such nonmember bank or trust company maintains with its Federal Reserve bank a balance sufficient to offset the items in transit held for its account by the Federal Reserve bank.*†

§ 210.2 General requirements. In pursuance of the authority vested in it under these provisions of law, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, desiring to afford both to the public and to the various banks of the country a direct, expeditious, and economical system of check collection and settlement of balances, has arranged to have each Federal Reserve bank exercise the functions of a clearing house and collect checks for such of its member banks as desire to avail themselves of its privileges and for such nonmember State banks and trust companies as may maintain with the Federal Reserve bank balances sufficient to qualify them under the provisions of section 13 to send items to Federal Reserve banks for purposes of exchange or of collection. Such nonmember State banks and trust companies will hereinafter be referred to as nonmember clearing banks.

*Secs. 210.1 to 210.6, inclusive, issued under the authority contained in Sec. 11 (i), 38 Stat. 262; Sec. 4, 40 Stat. 234; Sec. 16, 38 Stat. 265; 12 U.S.C. 248 (i); 342; 360; 248 (o).

†In Secs. 210.1 to 210.6, inclusive, the numbers to the right of the decimal point correspond with the respective section numbers in Regulation J, Bd. Govs. FRS, as amended effective September 1, 1939.

Each Federal Reserve bank shall exercise the functions of a clearing house and collect checks under the general terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, and each member bank and nonmember clearing bank shall cooperate fully in the system of check clearance and collection for which provision is herein made.*†

§ 210.3 Checks received for collection. (1) Each Federal Reserve bank shall receive at par from member and nonmember clearing banks in its district, from other Federal Reserve banks, and from all member and nonmember clearing banks in other Federal Reserve districts which are authorized to route direct for the credit of their respective Federal Reserve banks, checks[1] drawn on all member and nonmember clearing banks of its district, and checks drawn on all other nonmember banks of its district which are collectible at par in funds acceptable to it.

(2) Each Federal Reserve bank may receive at par from member and nonmember clearing banks in its district, checks drawn on all member and nonmember clearing banks in other Federal Reserve districts, and checks drawn on all other nonmember banks in other Federal Reserve districts which are collectible at par in funds acceptable to the collecting Federal Reserve bank.

(3) No Federal Reserve bank shall receive on deposit or for collection any check drawn on any nonmember bank which cannot be collected at par in funds acceptable to the Federal Reserve bank.*†

§ 210.4 Time schedule and availability of credits. (1) Each Federal Reserve bank will publish a time schedule showing the time at which any item sent to it will be counted as reserve and become available for withdrawal or other use by the sending bank. For all checks received, the sending bank will be given immediate credit, or deferred credit, in accordance with such time schedule, and as provided below.

(2) For all such checks as are received for immediate credit in accordance with such time schedule, immediate credit, subject to final payment, will be given upon the books of the Federal Reserve bank at full face value in the reserve account or clearing account upon day of receipt, and the proceeds will at once be counted as reserve and become available for withdrawal or other use by the sending bank; provided, however, that the Federal Reserve bank may in its discretion refuse at any time to permit the withdrawal or other use of credit given for any item for which the Federal Reserve bank has not yet received payment in actually and finally collected funds.

(3) For all such checks as are received for deferred credit in accordance with such time schedule, deferred credit, subject to final payment, will be entered upon the books of the Federal Reserve bank at full face value, but the proceeds will not be counted as reserve nor become available for withdrawal or other use by the sending bank until such time as may be specified in such time schedule,[2] at which time credit will be transferred from the deferred account to the reserve account or clearing account subject to final payment and will then be counted as reserve and become available for withdrawal or other use by the sending bank; provided, however, that the Federal Reserve bank may in its discretion refuse at any time to permit the withdrawal or other use of credit given for any item for which the Federal Reserve bank has not yet received payment in actually and finally collected funds.*†

§ 210.5 Terms of collection. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System hereby authorizes the Federal Reserve banks to handle such checks subject to the following terms and conditions; and each member and nonmember clearing bank which sends checks to any Federal Reserve bank for deposit or collection shall by such action be deemed (a) to authorize the Federal Reserve banks to handle such checks subject to the following terms and conditions; (b) to warrant its own authority to give the Federal Reserve banks such authority; (c) to agree to indemnify any Federal Reserve bank for any loss or expense sustained (including but not limited to attorneys' fees and expenses of litigation) resulting from the failure of such sending bank to have such authority, or resulting from such Federal Reserve bank's guaranty of prior endorsements, or resulting from any action taken by the Federal Reserve bank within the scope of its authority for the purpose of collecting such checks; and (d) to guarantee all prior endorsements on such checks whether or not a specific guaranty is incorporated in an endorsement of the sending bank.

(1) A Federal Reserve bank will act only as agent of the bank from which it receives such checks and will assume no liability except for its own negligence and its guaranty of prior endorsements.

(2) A Federal Reserve bank may present such checks for payment or send such checks for collection direct to the bank on which they are drawn or at which they are payable, or in its discretion may forward them to another agent with authority to present them for payment or send them for collection direct to the bank on which they are drawn or at which they are payable.

(3) A Federal Reserve bank may, in its discretion and at its option, either directly or through or from an agent, accept in payment of or in remittance for such checks, cash, bank drafts, transfers of funds or bank credits, or other forms of payment or remittance, acceptable to the collecting Federal Reserve bank. The Federal Reserve bank shall not be liable for the failure of the drawee bank or any agent to pay or remit for such checks, nor for any loss resulting from the acceptance from the drawee bank or any collecting agent, in lieu of cash, of any other form of payment or remittance authorized herein, nor for the nonpayment of, or failure to realize upon, any bank draft or other medium of payment or remittance which may be accepted from the drawee bank or any collecting agent.

(4) Checks received by a Federal Reserve bank which are payable in its own district will ordinarily be forwarded or presented direct to the banks on which they are drawn, and such banks will be required to remit or pay therefor at par in such one or more of the forms of payment or remittance authorized under paragraph (3) hereof as may be acceptable to the Federal Reserve bank.

(5) Checks received by a Federal Reserve bank payable in other districts will ordinarily be forwarded for collection to the Federal Reserve bank of the district in which such checks are payable; provided, however, that, where arrangements can be made satisfactory to the collecting bank or agent and to the Federal Reserve bank of the district in which such checks are payable, any such checks may be forwarded for collection direct to the bank on which they are drawn or at which they are payable, or may be forwarded for collection to another agent with authority to present them for payment direct to the bank on which they are drawn or at which they are payable. All such checks shall be handled subject to all the terms and conditions of this regulation.

(6) With respect to any check sent direct by a member or nonmember clearing bank in one district to a Federal Reserve bank in another district, the relationships and the rights and liabilities existing between the member or nonmember clearing bank, the Federal Reserve bank of its district and the Federal Reserve bank to which the check is sent will be the same, and the relevant provisions of this regulation will apply, as though the member or nonmember clearing bank had sent such check to the Federal Reserve bank of its district with its endorsement and guaranty of prior endorsements and such Federal Reserve bank had sent the check to the other Federal Reserve bank with its endorsement and guaranty of prior endorsements.

(7) Bank drafts received by a Federal Reserve bank in payment of or in remittance for checks handled under the terms of this regulation shall likewise be handled for collection subject to all the terms and conditions of this regulation.

(8) The amount of any check for which payment in actually and finally collected funds is not received shall be charged back to the forwarding bank, regardless of whether or not the check itself can be returned. In such event, neither the owner or holder of any such check, nor the bank which sent such check to the Federal Reserve bank for collection shall have any right of recourse upon, interest in, or right of payment from, any reserve balance, clearing account, deposit account, or other funds of the drawee bank or of any bank to which such checks have been sent for collection, in the possession of the Federal Reserve bank. No draft, authorization to charge, or other order, upon any reserve balance, clearing account, deposit account, or other funds of a paying, remitting, or collecting bank in the possession of a Federal Reserve bank, issued for the purpose of settling items handled under the terms of this regulation will be paid, acted upon, or honored after receipt by such Federal Reserve bank of notice of suspension or closing of such paying, remitting, or collecting bank.*†

§ 210.6 Other rules and regulations. Each Federal Reserve bank may also promulgate rules not inconsistent with the terms of the law or of this regulation, governing the sorting, listing, packaging, and transmission of items, and other details of its check clearing and collection operations. Such rules and regulations shall be set forth by the Federal Reserve banks in their letters of instruction to their member and nonmember clearing banks and shall be binding upon any member or nonmember clearing bank which sends any check to such Federal Reserve bank for collection or to any other Federal Reserve bank for the account of such Federal Reserve bank for collection.*†

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE LEASING OF RESTRICTED LANDS OF MEMBERS OF FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES, OKLAHOMA, FOR MINING

AUGUST 9, 1939.

Sections 183.15 and 183.22 of Title 25, Chapter 1, Office of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, Part 183, Five Civilized Tribes, Oklahoma, leasing regulations for mining which read:

§ 183.15 Bonds. Lessee shall furnish with each lease, a bond (form 5–154b) with personal sureties or with an acceptable company authorized to act as sole surety. Such bond shall be in amount as follows: For less than 80 acres, $1,000; for 80 acres and less than 120 acres, $1,500; for 120 acres and not more than 160 acres, $2,000; and for each additional 40 acres, or part thereof, above 160 acres, $500: Provided, That a lessee may file one bond (form 5–154u) in the sum of $15,000, covering all leases of a particular class up to 10,240 acres, to which he is or may become a party. The right is reserved at any time before or after approval of the lease to increase the amount of a bond above the sum named, in any case where the Secretary of the Interior deems it proper to do so. Bonds with personal sureties will be accepted only where the sureties deposit collateral, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, equal in value to the full amount of the bond and consisting of any public debt obligation of the United States, guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States. In lieu of other bonds, lessees may execute their own surety contracts upon deposit, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, of Government bonds, equal in value to the full amount of the bond, as collateral (form 5–154a).

§ 183.22 Expenditures under leases other than oil and gas. On all leases on deposits of the nature of lodes and veins containing ores of gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, or other useful metals, there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements upon the lands leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $5 per acre.

On all leases for beds of placer gold, gypsum, asphaltum, phosphate, iron ores, or other useful metals other than coal, oil, and gas, there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements, upon the lands leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $5 per acre.

On all coal leases, there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements, upon the lands leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $10 per acre.

Each lessee shall file with the superintendent an itemized statement in duplicate, within 20 days after the close of each year, of the amount and character of said expenditures during such year; the statement to be certified under oath by the lessee or his agent having personal knowledge of the facts contained therein.

are amended to read:

§ 183.15 Bonds. Lessee shall furnish with each lease, a bond (form 5–154b)

with personal sureties or with an acceptable company authorized to act as sole surety. Such bond shall be in amount as follows: For less than 80 acres, $1,000; for 80 acres and less than 120 acres, $1,500; for 120 acres and not more than 160 acres, $2,000; and for each additional 40 acres, or part thereof, above 160 acres, $500: Provided, That a lessee may file one bond (form 5–154f) in the sum of $15,000, covering all oil and gas leases up to 10,240 acres, to which he is or may become a party, provided further, that on leases other than for oil and gas the amount of the bond shall be fixed by the Superintendent or other officer in charge of the Five Civilized Tribes Agency, but shall not be less than $250. The right is reserved at any time before or after approval of the lease to increase the amount of a bond above the sum named, in any case where the Secretary of the Interior deems it proper to do so. Bonds with personal sureties will be accepted only where the sureties deposit collateral, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, equal in value to the full amount of the bond and consisting of any public debt obligation of the United States, guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States. In lieu of other bonds, lessees may execute their own surety contracts upon deposit, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, of Government bonds, equal in value to the full amount of the bond, as collateral (form 5–154a).

§ 183.22 Expenditures under leases other than oil and gas. On all leases for deposits of minerals other than oil and gas, there shall be expended for each calendar year the lease is in force, and for each fraction of a calendar year greater than six months, in actual mining operations, development, or improvements upon the lands leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $5.00 per acre.

The expenditures for development required by this section upon application may be waived in writing by the Superintendent or other officer in charge of the Five Civilized Tribes Agency either before or after the approval of a lease, such waiver to be subject to termination at any time upon 10 days' written notice to the holder of the lease by the said Superintendent or other officer in charge.

Each lessee, except oil and gas lessees, shall file with the Superintendent an itemized statement in duplicate, within 20 days after the close of each calendar year, of the amount and character of said expenditures during such year; the statement to be certified under oath by the lessee or his agent having personal knowledge of the facts contained therein.

TITLE 29—LABOR

WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION

MINIMUM WAGE ORDER FOR THE HOSIERY INDUSTRY UNDER THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT OF 1938

Whereas, on February 1, 1939, pursuant to Section 5 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (hereinafter called the Act), the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor by Administrative Order No. 15[1] appointed Industry Committee No. 3 for the Hosiery Industry and directed the Committee to recommend minimum wage rates for the hosiery industry in accordance with the provisions of Section 8 of the Act; and

Whereas, the Committee included five disinterested persons representing the public and a like number of persons representing employees in the hosiery industry and a like number representing employers in the hosiery industry, and each group was appointed with due regard to the geographical regions in which the hosiery industry is carried on; and

Whereas, on May 24, 1939, the Committee filed with the Administrator its unanimous recommendation for a 32½ cent an hour mininmum wage rate in the seamless branch of the hosiery industry and a 40 cent an hour minimum wage rate in the full-fashioned branch of the hosiery industry; and

Whereas, after notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 27, 1939,[2] the Administrator held at Washington, D. C., a public hearing upon the Committee's recommendation which commenced on June 12, 1939, and at which all interested persons were given an opportunity to be heard; and

Whereas, the Administrator upon consideration of the evidence taken at such hearing has found that the Committee's recommendations are made in accordance with law, and are supported by the evidence adduced at the hearing, and, taking into consideration the same factors as are required to be considered by the Industry Committee, will carry out the purposes of section 8 of the Act; and

Whereas, the Administrator has set forth his findings in an opinion, entitled "Administrator's Findings in the Matter of the Recommendation of Industry Committee No. 3 for Minimum Wage Rates in the Hosiery Industry," dated August 18, 1939, a copy of which may be had upon request addressed to the Wage and Hour Division, Washington, D. C.;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That

(1) the Committee's recommendation is hereby approved and, in accordance with such recommendation,

(a) Wages at a rate not less than 32½ cents an hour shall be paid under Section 6 of the Act by every employer to each of his employees in the seamless branch of the hosiery industry who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce; and

(b) Wages at a rate not less than 40 cents an hour shall be paid under Section 6 of the Act by every employer to each of his employees in the full-fashioned branch of the hosiery industry who is engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce; and

(c) Every plant employing any employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce in the seamless or full-fashioned branches of the hosiery industry shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place in every department of such plant where such employees are working such notices of this Order as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor; and

(d) This Order shall become effective on September 18, 1939.

(2) The terms used in this Order are defined as follows:

(a) "The seamless branch of the hosiery industry" means the manufacturing or processing of seamless hosiery including among other processes the knitting, dyeing, clocking and all phases of finishing seamless hosiery, but not including the manufacturing or processing of yarn or thread; and

(b) "The full-fashioned branch of the hosiery industry" means the manufacturing or processing of full-fashioned hosiery including among other processes the knitting, dyeing, clocking and all phases of finishing full-fashioned hosiery, but not including the manufacturing or processing of yarn or thread.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of August, 1939.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS

GENERAL LAND OFFICE

REGULATIONS FOR THE SALE OF TOWN LOTS IN THE TOWNSITE OF BOULDER, UTAH

1. Statutory authority. The lots in the townsite of Boulder, Utah, will be disposed of under Sections 2382 to 2386, Revised Statutes. The townsite plat was accepted November 28, 1938.

2. Acreage and price. The acreage and minimum price of the lots which will be sold is shown by the attached schedule.

3. Public sale. On Tuesday, September 26, 1939, at 10:00 a. m., a sale at public auction to the highest bidder will be held at the townsite of all lots for which preemption proof has not been made, as provided for hereinafter. The sale will be conducted from day to day under the supervision of the Commissioner of the General Land Office or his representative until all the lots shall be offered. The lots will be sold for cash and paid for on the date of sale. No lot will be sold for less than the appraised price.

4. Preemption claims. Any person who has established settlement on any lot prior to September 5, 1935, the date of the commencement of the survey in the field, and maintained such settlement to the date of proof, is entitled to make a preemption entry for such lot and one other lot on which he has made substantial and permanent improvements, at the minimum price. A preemption claim is not necessarily forfeited by the settler transferring his interest to another subsequently to accrual of the right, but patent, if issued, will be in the name of the settler and not to the transferee.

The notice of intention to make preemption proof must be made on Form 4-348 and should give the date of settlement and the value and character of the improvements, and, in order that all bona fide preemption rights may be determined prior to the date of public sale, claimants should file their notices of intention in time to submit proof in advance of the sale.

On the filing of the notice of intention by the applicant, the Register will issue notice for publication, which the applicant must have published at his expense in four consecutive issues prior to the date set for the proof, in the "Garfield County News," a weekly newspaper published at Panguitch, Utah. Proof consisting of the affidavit of the applicant and of at least two of the advertised witnesses may be made before the Register of the District Land Office at Salt Lake City, Utah, or before any other officer authorized to take proofs under the homestead laws, and must show the claimant's age, his citizenship and his actual residence upon one lot, and substantial improvements on a second lot, where two lots are included in the application. Proof of publication must be shown by the affidavit of the publisher. The purchase price of the lot or lots must be paid to the Register when the proof is made.

5. Warning. All persons are warned against forming any combination or agreement which will prevent any lot from selling advantageously, or which will in any way hinder or embarrass the sale. Any persons so offending will be prosecuted under Section 59 of the Criminal Code of the United States.

6. Authority of superintendent. The Commissioner's representative conducting the sale is hereby authorized to reject any and all bids for any lots, and, at any time, to suspend, adjourn or postpone the sale of any lot or lots to such time and place as he may deem proper, and to re-appraise any lot or lots.

FRED W. JOHNSON,
Commissioner.

Approved, August 9, 1939.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Food and Drug Administration.

[Docket No. FDC-12]

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO BE HELD FOR PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE ON BASIS OF WHICH REGULATIONS MAY BE PROMULGATED FIXING AND ESTABLISHING DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR CREAM CHEESE

Pursuant to the provisions of subsection (c) of Section 701 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act [Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1058; 21 U.S.C. 371 (e)], notice is hereby given to all interested persons that a public hearing will be held in Room 1039, in the South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets, Southwest, Washington, D. C., on the 2nd day of October, 1939, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, for the purpose of receiving evidence in respect of the proposed definition and standard of identity subjoined to this notice and hereby made a part hereof, upon the basis of which, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture as provided in Section 401 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (Sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1048; 21 U.S.C. 341), regulations may be promulgated fixing and establishing a reasonable definition and standard of identity for Cream Cheese.

All interested persons are invited to attend this hearing, either in person or by a duly authorized representative, and to present relevant and material evidence. Affidavits, in quintuplicate, may be offered in lieu of oral testimony either at the time of the hearing or by sending them to Walter G. Green, Jr., Room 2319, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets, Southwest, Washington, D. C., in sufficient time so he will receive them on or before the date of the hearing above stated. Such affidavits, if relevant and material, or any relevant or material portion thereof, may be received and considered as evidence in the hearing, but, in determining the weight that shall be given to such affidavits as evidence, the lack of an opportunity for cross-examination will be considered.

The proposed definition and standard of identity subjoined to this notice and made a part hereof is subject to adoption, rejection, amendment or modification by the Secretary, in whole or in part, as the evidence presented at such hearing may require.

The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for hearings held under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of Friday, January 13, 1939, on pages 223 to 225, inclusive, as amended by the Secretary's Order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of Saturday, July 22, 1939, on page 3401.

Mr. Walter G. Green, Jr., is hereby designated as the Presiding Officer who shall preside at the hearing herein announced in the place and stead of the Secretary, with power to administer oaths and to do all things necessary and appropriate to the proper conduct of such hearing.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Dated, August 18, 1939.

§ 19.515 Cream cheese, identity. (a) Cream cheese is the food prepared from cream or heavy cream or both, with or without the admixture of sweet milk or sweet skim milk or both, any or all of which may be pasteurized or homogenized or both. One or both of the following optional ingredients may be added:

(1) Harmless natural gum.
(2) Gelatin.

Curd is formed by the action of harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria naturally present or added, or of rennet, or both, and with or without the application of heat. The curd is drained, with or without chilling or pressing or both. It may be worked and seasoned with salt. The cream cheese so prepared may be heated and homogenized. It contains not more than ____ percent (to be fixed within the range of 55 percent to 60 percent) of moisture and not less than ____ percent (to be fixed within the range of 30 percent to 33 percent) of milk fat, as determined by the methods prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, 1935, page 291, under "Moisture—Official" and "Fat—Official." For the purposes of this section the word "milk" means cows' milk.

(b) If optional ingredient (1) or (2) is present, the label shall bear the statement or statements "Natural Gum Added" or "With Added Natural Gum", "Gelatin Added" or "With Added Gelatin", as the case may be; but if both such ingredients are present such statements may be combined, as for example, "With Added Natural Gum and Gelatin." Wherever the name "cream cheese" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement or statements herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

[Docket No. FDC-11]

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO BE HELD FOR PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE ON BASIS OF WHICH REGULATIONS MAY BE PROMULGATED FIXING AND ESTABLISHING DEFINITION AND STANDARD OF IDENTITY FOR EACH OF THE FOLLOWING FOODS, NAMELY: (A) CHEDDAR CHEESE, (B) WASHED CURD CHEESE, AND (C) COLBY CHEESE

Pursuant to the provisions of subsection (e) of Section 701 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act [Sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1058; 21 U.S.C. 371 (e)], notice is hereby given to all interested persons that a public hearing will be held in Room 1039, in the South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets, Southwest, Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of September, 1939, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, for the purpose of receiving evidence in respect of the proposed definitions and standards of identity subjoined to this notice and hereby made a part hereof, upon the basis of which, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture as provided in Section 401 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (Sec. 401, 52 Stat. 1046; 21 U.S.C. 341), regulations may be promulgated fixing and establishing a reasonable definition and standard of identity for each of the following foods, namely: (A) Cheddar Cheese, (B) Washed Curd Cheese, and (C) Colby Cheese.

All interested persons are invited to attend this hearing, either in person or by a duly authorized representative, and to present relevant and material evidence. Affidavits, in quintuplicate, may be offered in lieu of oral testimony either at the time of the hearing or by sending them to Walter G. Green, Jr., Room 2319, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Street, Southwest, Washington, D. C., in sufficient time so he will receive them on or before the date of the hearing above stated. Such affidavits, if relevant and material, or any relevant or material portion thereof, may be received and considered as evidence in the hearing, but, in determining the weight that shall be given to such affidavits as evidence, the lack of an opportunity for cross-examination will be considered.

Each of the proposed definitions and standards of identity subjoined to this notice and made a part hereof is subject to adoption, rejection, amendment or modification by the Secretary, in whole or in part, as the evidence presented at such hearing may require.

The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for hearings held under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of Friday, January 13, 1939, on pages 223 to 225, inclusive, as amended by the Secretary's Order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of Saturday, July 22, 1939, on page 3401.

Mr. Walter G. Green, Jr., is hereby designated as the Presiding Officer who shall preside at the hearing herein announced in the place and stead of the Secretary, with power to administer oaths and to do all things necessary and appropriate to the proper conduct of such hearing.

HARRY L. BROWN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

Dated, August 21, 1939.

§ 19.500 Cheddar cheese, American cheese, cheese—Identity. (a) Cheddar Cheese, American Cheese, Cheese, is the food prepared from milk by the procedure set forth in subsection (c) and contains not more than ____ percent of moisture (to be fixed within the range of 37 percent to 39 percent), and, in the total solids of such food, not less than ____ percent of milk fat (to be fixed within the range of 50 percent to 52 percent), as determined by the methods prescribed in subsection (d).

(b) For the purposes of this section milk means cows' milk, with or without the abstraction of part of the fat therefrom or the addition thereto of cream, heavy cream, or sweet skim milk of cows.

(c) Milk, which may be pasteurized and which may be warmed when necessary, is subjected to the action of harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, present in such milk or added thereto. Harmless artificial coloring may be added. Sufficient rennet is then added to cause setting to a semisolid mass. The mass is so cut, stirred, and heated with continued stirring, as to promote the separation of whey and curd. The whey is drained off and the curd is matted into a cohesive mass. The mass is cut into slabs which are so piled and handled as to promote the drainage of whey and the development of acidity. The curd is then cut into pieces, which may be rinsed by sprinkling or pouring water over them, with free and continuous drainage; but the duration of such rinsing is so limited that only the whey on the surface of such pieces is removed. The curd is salted, stirred, further drained, and pressed into forms.

(d) Determine moisture by the method prescribed on page 291 under "Moisture—Official", and milk fat by the method prescribed on page 291 under "Fat—Official", of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, 1935. Subtract the percent of moisture found from 100; the remainder shall be considered to be the percent of total solids. Divide the percent of milk fat found by the percent of total solids found; the quotient multiplied by 100 shall be considered to be the percent of milk fat in the total solids.

§ 19.505 Washed curd cheese, soaked curd cheese—Identity. (a) Washed curd cheese, soaked curd cheese, is the food prepared from milk by the procedure set forth in subsection (c) and contains not more than ____ percent of moisture (to be fixed within the range of 40 percent to 42 percent), and, in the total solids of such food, not less than ____ percent of milk fat (to be fixed within the range of 50 percent to 52 percent), as determined by the methods prescribed in subsection (d).

(b) For the purposes of this section milk means cows' milk, with or without the abstraction of part of the fat therefrom or the addition thereto of cream, heavy cream, or sweet skim milk of cows.

(c) Milk, which may be pasteurized and which may be warmed when necessary, is subjected to the action of harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, present in such milk or added thereto. Harmless artificial coloring may be added. Sufficient rennet is then added to cause setting to a semisolid mass. The mass is so cut, stirred, and heated with continued stirring, as to promote the separation of whey and curd. The whey is drained off and the curd is matted into a cohesive mass. The mass is cut into slabs which are so piled and handled as to promote the drainage of whey and the development of acidity. The curd is then cut into pieces, cooled in water, and soaked therein until the whey is partly extracted and water is absorbed. The curd is drained, salted, stirred, and pressed into forms.

(d) Determine moisture by the method prescribed on page 291 under "Moisture—Official", and milk fat by the method prescribed on page 291 under "Fat—Official", of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, 1935. Subtract the percent of moisture found from 100; the remainder shall be considered to be the percent of total solids. Divide the percent of milk fat found by the percent of total solids found; the quotient multiplied by 100 shall be considered to be the percent of milk fat in the total solids.

§ 19.510 Colby Cheese—Identity. (a) Colby Cheese is the food prepared from milk by the procedure set forth in subsection (c) and contains not more than ____ percent of moisture (to be fixed within the range of 38 percent to 40 percent), and, in the total solids of such food, not less than ____ percent of milk fat (to be fixed within the range of 50 percent to 52 percent), as determined by the methods prescribed in subsection (d).

(b) For the purposes of this section milk means cows' milk, with or without the abstraction of part of the fat therefrom or the addition thereto of cream, heavy cream, or sweet skim milk of cows.

(c) Milk, which may be pasteurized and which may be warmed when necessary, is subjected to the action of harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, present in such milk or added thereto. Harmless artificial coloring may be added. Sufficient rennet is then added to cause setting to a semisolid mass. The mass is so cut, stirred, and heated with continued stirring, as to promote the separation of whey and curd. The whey is drained off and the curd is matted into a cohesive mass. The mass is cut into slabs which are so piled and handled as to promote the drainage of whey and the development of acidity. The curd is then cut into pieces, cooled in water, and soaked therein until the whey is partly extracted and water is absorbed. The curd is drained, salted, stirred, and pressed into forms.

(d) Determine moisture by the method prescribed on page 291 under "Moisture—Official", and milk fat by the method prescribed on page 291 under "Fat—Official", of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists", Fourth Edition, 1935. List of Products on Which the United States Will Consider Granting Concessions to the Belgo-Luxemburg Economic Union and the Belgian Congo

AUGUST 16, 1939.

For the purpose of facilitating identification of the articles listed, reference is made in the list to the paragraph numbers of the tariff schedules in the Tariff Act of 1930 and to the sections of the Internal Revenue Code. The descriptive phraseology, however, is limited in some cases to a narrower field than that covered by the numbered paragraph or section. In such cases only the articles covered by the descriptive phraseology of the list will come under consideration for the granting of concessions.

In the event that articles which are at present regarded as classifiable under the descriptions included in the above list are excluded therefrom by judicial decision or otherwise prior to the conclusion of the agreement, the list will nevertheless be considered as including such articles.

The rates of duty shown are those now applicable to products of the Belgo-Luxemburg Union. The following symbols are used in the fourth column:

MR—a reduction of 50 percent in the rate of duty has been made in a trade agreement which is now in effect.

R—a reduction of less than 50 percent has been made in a trade agreement which is now in effect.

C—a reduction was made in the trade agreement with Czechoslovakia but was suspended April 22, 1939.

S—if any reduction is made in the proposed agreement, it will probably apply to a narrower description than that listed so as to cover only that part of the item which is of special interest to the Belgo-Luxemburg Union.

B—the existing rate has been bound in a trade agreement now in effect.

PART 204—DETERMINATION OF PREVAILING WORLD MARKET PRICE FOR AMERICAN COTTON

§ 204.1 By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by H. J. Res. 375, approved August 11, 1939 (Public Resolution No. 52, 76th Congress), I, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby determine that for the purposes of said Joint Resolution the prevailing world market price for the unrestricted use of American cotton in bales compressed to high density, delivered at shipside, shall be the simple average of the market prices for Middling ⅞ inch cotton in the three designated spot cotton markets at the Gulf ports of New Orleans, Louisiana, and Galveston and Houston, Texas, as reported by the Agricultural Marketing Service of the United States Department of Agriculture for the 15 business days immediately preceding the date of any sale under said Joint Resolution, with additions or deductions for other grades and staple lengths, which such additions or deductions shall be the simple averages of the commercial differences on or off Middling ⅞ for such other grades and staple lengths as reported by the Agricultural Marketing Service for the said three designated spot cotton markets for the said 15 business days, plus .18 cent per pound for delivery to shipside in high density form, and less the prevailing rate of export subsidy payment in effect on the date of sale. The additions and deductions for cotton of staple lengths not quoted in said three designated spot cotton markets shall be the simple averages of the commercial differences for such lengths as quoted in other designated spot cotton markets for said 15 business days, and in the absence of any quotations for any such qualities in any designated market, the simple averages of the commercial differences ascertained from the best available sources and reported by the Agricultural Marketing Service for the said 15 business days.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of August 1939. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Whereas, under the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1935), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the act), it is provided that the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States (hereinafter referred to as the Secretary) shall, subject to the provisions of the act, issue orders regulating such handling of certain agricultural commodities as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or such handling as directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce, in such commodities; and

Whereas the Secretary, having reason to believe that the issuance of an order would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to the establishment and maintenance of such orderly marketing conditions for the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington, and California as would establish prices to the producers of such varieties of pears at a level that would give such varieties of pears a purchasing power with respect to articles that the producers thereof buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such varieties of pears during the base period August 1920–July 1929, conducted public hearings at Sacramento, California, on May 26, 1939; at Medford, Oregon, on May 29, 1939; at Hood River, Oregon, on May 31, 1939; and at Yakima, Washington, on June 1, 1939, pursuant to due notice [1] given to all interested parties on May 9, 1939, on a proposed order regulating such handling of such varieties of pears as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or such handling as directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce in such varieties of pears, at which hearings all interested persons in attendance were afforded due opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed order; and

Whereas the Secretary has found and proclaimed [2] that the purchasing power of the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington, and California during the period August 1909–July 1914 cannot be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture, but that the purchasing power of such varieties of pears can be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period August 1920–July 1929, and that the period August 1920–July 1929 is the base period to be used in connection with this order in determining the purchasing power of such varieties of pears; and

Whereas the Secretary finds, upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

(1) That at the time of the hearing the prices received by the producers of the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears were at a level that gave such varieties of pears a purchasing power with respect to articles that the producers thereof buy appreciably below the purchasing power of such varieties of pears during the base period;

(2) That the regulation of shipments of such varieties of pears by grades or sizes, as prescribed herein, will serve to prevent marked fluctuations in prices to the producers thereof, and will establish and maintain a more stabilized market for such varieties of pears, tending to establish prices to the producers thereof at a level that will give such varieties of pears a purchasing power with respect to articles that the producers thereof buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such varieties of pears during the base period;

(3) That this order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area and to the smallest regional marketing area that is practicable, consistent with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and that the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of such regional production or marketing areas would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) That the pro rata contribution of handlers to the expenses of the administrative agency herein established, based upon the quantity of the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears shipped, as provided in this order, is fair and equitable; and

(5) That this order and all the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington, and California by establishing and maintaining such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will establish prices to the producers thereof at a level that will give such varieties of pears a purchasing power with respect to articles that the producers thereof buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such varieties of pears in the base period, and by protecting the interest of the consumer by (a) approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets, and by (b) authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to the producers of such varieties of pears above the level which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish; and

Whereas the Secretary finds:

(1) That a marketing agreement regulating the handling of the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington, and California, executed on the 22d day of August 1939, upon which hearings were held on May 26, May 29, May 31, and June 1, 1939, was signed by handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who were not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping the varieties of pears covered by this order) who, during the 1938 season, handled not less than fifty (50) percent of the volume of the varieties of pears covered by this order which were marketed during the same season in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect such commerce;

(2) That this order regulates the handling of such varieties of pears in the same manner as the aforesaid marketing agreement, and that it is made applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said marketing agreement; and

(3) That the issuance of this order is favored by more than two-thirds (⅔) of the producers who, during the 1938 season (which is hereby determined to be a representative period), produced the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears for market within the States of Oregon, Washington, and California:

Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Secretary, acting under the authority vested in him by the act, that such handling of the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington, and California as is in the current of commerce, or as directly burdens, obstructs, or affects commerce, from the State of Oregon, the State of Washington, or the State of California to any point outside thereof, shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order from and after the date herein specified.

§ 939.1. Definitions. As used herein the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(b) "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (50 Stat. 246), as amended.

§ 939.2. Control Committee—(a) Establishment. A Control Committee, consisting of twelve (12) individual persons as its members, is hereby established to administer the terms and provisions hereof as specifically provided herein. There shall be an alternate for each member of the Control Committee. Six (6) members of the Control Committee and their respective alternates shall be growers of pears, and six (6) members and their respective alternates shall be handlers of pears. The initial members and alternates shall be as follows:

(1) S. M. Tuttle, of Medford, Oregon, as member, and R. R. Reter, of Medford, Oregon, as his alternate, to represent the handlers in the Medford District.

(2) D. R. Wood, of Medford, Oregon, as member, and Chester A. Fitch, of Medford, Oregon, as his alternate, to represent the growers in the Medford District.

(3) A. W. Peters, of Hood River, Oregon, as member, and John C. Duckwall, of Hood River, Oregon, as his alternate, to represent the handlers in the Hood River-White Salmon-Underwood District.

(4) Roy S. Haseltine, of Hood River, Oregon, as member, and Louis Thun, of Underwood, Washington, as his alternate, to represent the growers in the Hood River-White Salmon-Underwood District.

(5) Harry Jensen, of Wenatchee, Washington, as member, and Guy R. Coe, of Wenatchee, Washington, as his alternate, to represent the handlers in the Wenatchee District.

(6) Henry M. Smith, of Dryden, Washington, as member, and E. Barclay Brauns, of Wenatchee, Washington, as his alternate, to represent the growers in the Wenatchee District.

(7) O. K. Conant, of Yakima, Washington, as member, and B. A. Perham, of Yakima, Washington, as his alternate, to represent the handlers in the Yakima District.

(8) E. A. Bannister, of Yakima, Washington, as member, and Jerome T. Heermans, of Wapato, Washington, as his alternate, to represent the growers in the Yakima District.

(9) A. A. Brock, of Placerville, California, as member, and Theodore Hodapp, of Placerville, California, as his alternate, to represent the handlers in the Placerville District.

(10) L. W. Veerkamp, of Placerville, California, as member, and Alfred R. Thiele, of Placerville, California, as his alternate, to represent the growers in the Placerville District.

(11) Edgar A. Jackson, of Santa Clara, California, as member, and Wendell C. Day, of Santa Clara, California, as his alternate, to represent the handlers in the Santa Clara District.

(12) Howard S. Anderson, of San Jose, California, as member, and V. T. McCurdy, of San Jose, California, as his alternate, to represent the growers in the Santa Clara District.

(b) Nomination and selection of successors to initial members and their respective alternates. The successors to the initial grower members and their respective alternates for each district shall be selected by the Secretary from nominees elected by the growers in such district, and successors to the handler members and their respective alternates for each district shall be selected by the Secretary from nominees elected by the handlers in such district.

(c) Meetings for election of nominees. Nominations for successors to the initial members of the Control Committee and their alternates shall be made at meetings of growers and handlers held in each of the districts designated in section 939.1 at such times and places as the Control Committee shall designate. At each of such meetings the growers or handlers eligible to participate therein shall select a chairman and a secretary of that meeting. In the election of nominees, each grower and each handler shall be entitled to vote in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section. The chairman of the meeting shall announce at the meeting the name of each person for whom votes have been cast, whether as a member or as an alternate for a member, and the number of votes cast for each such person; and the chairman or the secretary of such meeting shall forthwith transmit such information to the Secretary or his designated representative.

(d) Voting. Only growers in attendance at meetings for election of nominees shall participate in the nomination of grower members and their alternates, and only handlers in attendance at meetings for election of nominees shall participate in the nomination of handler members and their alternates. A grower may participate only in the election held in the district in which he produces pears, and a handler may participate only in the election held in the district or districts in which he handles pears. No person may vote both as a handler and as a grower. Each grower and each handler shall be entitled to cast one vote, on behalf of himself, his agents, partners, affiliates, subsidiaries, and representatives, for each nominee to be elected.

(e) Eligibility for membership. Each grower member and his alternate shall be a grower who grows pears in the district in which and for which he is nominated and selected. Each handler member and his alternate shall be a handler, or an officer or employee of a handler, handling pears in the district in and for which he is nominated and selected.

(f) Failure to nominate. In the event nominations are not made pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section on or before June 1 of any year, the Secretary may select members and alternates for members without regard to nominations.

(g) Qualifications. Any person selected by the Secretary as a member or as an alternate for a member of the Control Committee shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary within fifteen (15) days after being notified of such selection.

(h) Term of office. The initial members and their respective alternates shall hold office for a term beginning at the time the provisions hereof become effective and ending June 30, 1940, or until their successors are selected and have qualified. Each member and each alternate for a member selected subsequent to the initial term shall serve during the fiscal period for which he has been selected or until his successor is selected and has qualified.

(i) Alternates for members of the control committee. An alternate for a member shall act in the place and stead of the member for whom he is an alternate during such member's absence. In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, his alternate shall act for him until a successor for such member is selected and has qualified.

(j) Vacancies. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a member or as an alternate for a member of the Control Committee to qualify, or in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any qualified member or qualified alternate for a member, a successor for his unexpired term shall be nominated and selected in the manner set forth in this section. If nominations to fill any such vacancy are not made within twenty (20) days after such vacancy occurs, the Secretary may fill such vacancy without regard to nominations.

(k) Compensation and expenses. The members and alternates for members of the Control Committee shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their respective duties.

(l) Powers of control committee. The Control Committee shall have the following powers:

(1) To administer, as herein specifically provided, the terms and provisions hereof;

(2) To make administrative rules and regulations in accordance with, and to effectuate, the terms and provisions hereof; and

(3) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the provisions hereof.

(m) Duties of control committee. The duties of the Control Committee shall be as follows:

(1) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any grower or handler;

(2) To keep minutes, books, and records which will reflect clearly all of the acts and transactions of the Control Committee, which minutes, books, and records shall be subject at any time to examination by the Secretary or by such person as may be designated by the Secretary;

(3) To investigate, from time to time, and to assemble data on the growing, harvesting, shipping, and marketing conditions relative to pears grown in the area covered hereby, and to furnish to the Secretary such available information as may be requested;

(4) To perform such duties as may be assigned to it from time to time by the Secretary in connection with the administration of Section 32 of the Act to Amend the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and for other purposes, Public Act No. 320, 74th Congress, approved August 24, 1935, as amended;

(5) To cause the books of the Control Committee to be audited by one or more competent accountants at the end of each fiscal year and at such other times as the Control Committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request, and to file with the Secretary copies of any and all audit reports made;

(6) To appoint such employees as it may deem necessary, and to determine the salaries and define the duties of such employees;

(7) To give the Secretary, or the designated agent of the Secretary, the same notice of meetings of the Control Committee as is given to the members of the Control Committee;

(8) To select a chairman of the Control Committee and, from time to time, such other officers as it may deem advisable; and

(9) To submit to the Secretary each fiscal period a budget of its expenses during that fiscal year.

(n) Procedure of control committee—(1) Quorum and voting. A quorum shall consist of nine (9) members, or alternates then serving in the place and stead of any members, in attendance at the meeting. Except as otherwise provided in section 939.4, paragraph (c), all decisions of the Control Committee shall be made by not fewer than seven (7) affirmative votes.

(2) Mail voting. The Control Committee may provide for members voting by mail, telephone, or telegraph, upon due notice to all members. Promptly after voting by telephone or telegraph, each member thus voting shall confirm, in writing, the vote so cast.

(3) Rights of the secretary. The members and alternates for members of the Control Committee, including their successors, and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the Control Committee shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every regulation, decision, determination, or other act of the Control Committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time, and, upon such disapproval, shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

(o) Funds and other property—(1) Use of funds. All funds received by the Control Committee pursuant to any of the provisions hereof shall be used solely for the purposes herein specified, and the Secretary may require the Control Committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(2) Transfer of funds and property. Upon the death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or expiration of the term of office of any member or employee of the Control Committee, all books, records, funds, and other property in his possession belonging to the Control Committee shall be delivered to his successor in office or to the Control Committee, and such assignments and other instruments shall be executed as may be necessary to vest in such successor or in the Control Committee full title to all the books, records, funds, and other property in the possession or under the control of such member or employee pursuant hereto.*

§ 939.3. Expenses and assessments—(a) Expenses. The Control Committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds may be necessary to carry out its functions hereunder. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying of assessments as provided in this section.

(b) Assessments. Assessments will be levied only upon the handler who first handles pears which subsequently are shipped from the State of Oregon, the State of Washington, or the State of California. Such handler shall pay to the Control Committee, upon demand, such handler's pro rata share of the expenses which the Secretary finds necessarily will be incurred by the Control Committee for the maintenance and functioning of the Control Committee during each fiscal period. Such handler's pro rata share of such expenses shall be that proportion thereof which the total quantity of pears first handled by that handler during such fiscal period is of the total quantity of pears first handled by all handlers during the fiscal period. The Secretary shall fix the rate of assessment to be paid by such handler, which rate may be adjusted from time to time by the Control Committee, with the approval of the Secretary, in order to cover any later findings by the Secretary of estimated expenses or the actual expenses of the Control Committee during said fiscal period.

(c) Handler accounts. At the end of each fiscal period the Control Committee shall credit each handler assessed with any amount paid by such handler in excess of his pro rata share of the expenses, or shall debit such handler with the deficiency between his pro rata share and the amount paid by him. Any such debits shall become due and payable upon demand by the Control Committee.

(d) Use of funds. From the funds acquired pursuant to this section the Control Committee shall pay the salaries of its employees, if any, and pay the expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of the duties of the Control Committee.

(e) Collection of unpaid assessments. The Control Committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may institute and maintain, in its own name or in the names of its members, legal proceedings against any handler assessed for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.*

§ 939.4 Limitation of shipments—(a) Minimum grade. The minimum grade of pears which may be shipped by any handler shall be U. S. Combination Grade, as such grade is specified in the U. S. Standards for Pears, effective July 1, 1939, or as such standards may hereafter be modified, or as such grade may be lowered, raised, or modified by a regulation issued hereunder. No handler shall ship pears which do not meet the requirements of said grade or of such other minimum grade as may be established pursuant to this section. Beurre D'Anjou and Doyenne du Comice pears, however, may be shipped in interstate commerce only, and not in foreign commerce, when bearing unhealed broken skins or skin punctures measuring not to exceed three-sixteenths (3/16) of one (1) inch in diameter, provided such pears otherwise meet the requirements of the minimum grade then in effect. However, the requirements governing unhealed broken skins or skin punctures to be met by either Beurre D'Anjou pears or Doyenne du Comice pears, or both, may be lowered, raised, or modified by a regulation issued hereunder.

(b) Minimum sizes. No handler shall ship pears (1) of the Beurre Bosc variety of a size smaller than the 195 size; (2) of the Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties, respectively, of a size smaller than the 180 size; (3) of the Beurre D'Anjou variety of a size smaller than the 225 size; (4) of the Winter Nelis variety of a size smaller than the 210 size if exported off the continent of North America and the 195 size if shipped to destinations on the continent of North America.

(c) Recommendation for modification of minimum grade or size. The Control Committee, at any time, by affirmative vote of not fewer than ten (10) of its members, may recommend to the Secretary that the aforesaid minimum grade or the aforesaid minimum sizes, or both, be lowered, raised, or modified as to any one or more of the varieties of pears covered hereby, or may recommend that the requirements relative to unhealed broken skins or skin punctures to be met by either Beurre D'Anjou pears or Doyenne du Comice pears, or both, be lowered, raised, or modified: Provided, however, That no such recommendation applicable to pears produced in any one year shall be made by the Control Committee subsequent to July 15 of that year. At the time of submitting such recommendation the Control Committee shall furnish to the Secretary all information and data upon which it acted in making such recommendation, together with such other pertinent information and data as the Secretary may request. The Control Committee shall give immediate notice to handlers and growers of any such recommendation, in such manner as the Control Committee shall find to be adequate.

(d) Modification of minimum grade or size. In the event of any such recommendation by the Control Committee, and upon the basis thereof and the information and data submitted therewith and any other data, the Secretary may issue a regulation lowering, raising, or modifying the aforesaid minimum grade or minimum sizes, or both, as to any one or more of said varieties of pears, or the Secretary may issue a regulation lowering, raising, or modifying the requirements relative to unhealed broken skins or skin punctures to be met by either Beurre D'Anjou pears or Doyenne du Comice pears, or both: Provided, however, That said minimum grade shall not in any event be lowered below the requirements of U. S. No. 2 Grade, as such grade is specified in the U. S. Standards for Pears, effective July 1, 1939, or as such standards may hereafter be modified, with the exception of the requirements relative to unhealed broken skins or skin punctures to be met by either Beurre D'Anjou pears or Doyenne du Comice pears, or both, provided such pears otherwise meet the minimum requirements of said U. S. No. 2 Grade. The Secretary shall immediately notify the Control Committee of any change of minimum grade or size under this section, and the Control Committee promptly thereafter shall notify handlers and growers of such change in such manner as the Control Committee shall find to be adequate.

(e) Exemption certificates. (1) As soon as practicable after the beginning of each fiscal period the Control Committee shall adopt and announce the procedural rules by which exemption certificates may be issued to growers. The Control Committee shall determine the percentage which the grades and sizes of each variety of pears permitted to be shipped from each district under the regulation bears to the total quantity of each variety of pears which could be shipped from that district in the absence of regulation. An exemption certificate may thereafter be granted to any grower who furnishes proof that he will be prevented, because of the regulation in effect, from shipping a percentage of a particular variety of his pears equal to the percentage of pears of that particular variety permitted to be shipped from his district as determined by the Control Committee. Such exemption certificate shall permit the grower to ship that quantity of the particular variety of pears of the regulated grades and sizes of such variety as will enable him to ship as large a percentage of such variety of his pears as the average percentage of that particular variety of pears that is permitted to be shipped by all growers in his district.

(2) In the event the Control Committee shall determine and report to the Secretary that, by reason of general crop failure or other extraordinary conditions within a particular district, it is not feasible and would not be equitable to issue exemption certificates to growers within that district on the basis of the average percentage of the pears grown in the district which may be shipped in compliance with the minimum grade and size requirements of this section, the Secretary may prescribe such other basis for the issuance of such certificates to growers within that district as he may find to be feasible, equitable, and proper.

(3) The Secretary shall have power to modify, change, alter, or amend any procedural rules and any exemption granted under this section.

(f) Inspection and certification. No handler shall ship any pears not theretofore inspected and the grade and size thereof certified by a duly authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service on the basis of grades as promulgated by the United States Department of Agriculture or as hereafter duly modified, or as such grades may be lowered, raised, or modified by a regulation issued pursuant hereto. Promptly after shipment of any pears, the handler shall submit or cause to be submitted to the Control Committee a copy of the Federal-State Inspection certificate issued on that shipment.*

§ 939.5 Compliance. Except as provided in section 939.6 hereof, no handler shall ship any pears contrary to the applicable restrictions and limitations specified in, or effective pursuant to, the provisions hereof.*

§ 939.6. Pears for byproduct and charitable purposes. (a) Nothing contained herein shall limit or authorize the limitation of shipment of pears for consumption by charitable institutions or distribution by relief agencies or conversion into byproducts, nor shall any assessment be computed on pears so shipped. The Control Committee may prescribe regulations to prevent pears shipped for either of such purposes from entering commercial fresh-fruit channels of trade contrary to the provisions hereof.

(b) The Control Committee shall prescribe rules and regulations, to become effective upon the approval of the Secretary, whereby shipments of pears in individual gift packages may be exempted from the provisions hereof.*

§ 939.7 Reports. Upon the request of the Control Committee, subject to the disapproval of the Secretary, each handler shall furnish to the Control Committee, in such manner and at such times as it prescribes, such information as will enable it to perform its duties hereunder.*

§ 939.8 Agents. The Secretary may name, by a designation in writing, any person, including any officer or employee of the Government, or any bureau or division in the Department of Agriculture to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.*

§ 939.9 Effective time and termination. (a) Effective time. The provisions hereof shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature affixed hereto, and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways hereinafter specified.

(b) Termination. (1) The Secretary may at any time terminate this order.

(2) The Secretary shall terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions hereof whenever he finds that such operation obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(3) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions hereof at the end of any fiscal period whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the growers of pears who, during such fiscal period, have been engaged in the area covered hereby in the production of pears for market: Provided, That such majority have produced for market during such period more than fifty percent (50%) of the volume of pears produced for market in the area covered hereby; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before June 30 of that fiscal period.

(4) The provisions hereof shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing the same cease to be in effect.

(c) Proceedings after termination. (1) Upon the termination hereof, the members of the Control Committee then functioning shall continue as joint trustees for the purpose of liquidating all funds and property then in the possession or under the control of the Control Committee, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination.

(2) The joint trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements; deliver all funds and property on hand, together with all books and records of the Control Committee and of the joint trustees, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and, upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary and appropriate to vest in such person full title to all of the funds or claims vested in the Control Committee or in the joint trustees.

(3) Any funds collected pursuant to section 939.3 hereof and held by such joint trustees or such person over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the joint trustees or such other person in the performance of their duties hereunder, as soon as practicable after the termination hereof, shall be returned to the handlers pro rata in proportion to their contributions thereto.

(4) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been delivered by the Control Committee or its members, upon direction of the Secretary, as provided in this section, shall be subject to the same obligations and duties with respect to said funds, property, or claims as are imposed upon the members of said Committee or upon said joint trustees.*

§ 939.10 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by virtue hereof shall cease upon termination hereof, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence hereof.*

§ 939.11 Separability. If any provision hereof is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remaining provisions and the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.*

§ 939.12 Derogation. Nothing contained herein is or shall be construed to be in derogation of, or in modification of, the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.*

§ 939.13 Liability of Control Committee members. No member or alternate for a member of the Control Committee, nor any employee or agent thereof, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any party hereunder or to any other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate for a member, or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.*

§ 939.14 Amendments. Amendments hereto may be proposed from time to time by the Control Committee or by the Secretary.*

§ 939.15 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this order or of any regulation issued pursuant to this order, or the issuance of any amendment to either, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision hereof or any regulation issued hereunder, or (b) release or extinguish any violation hereof or of any regulation issued hereunder, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violation.*

In witness whereof, the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, acting pursuant to the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, for the purposes and within the limitations therein contained and not otherwise, does hereby execute and issue in duplicate this order under his hand and the official seal of the United States Department of Agriculture in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on the 22d day of August 1939, and declares this order to be effective on and after 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., August 26, 1939.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Docket No. 3030]

IN THE MATTER OF ZO-RO-LO, INC.

§ 3.6 (t) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Qualities or properties of product: ~~§ 3.6~~ (x) Advertising falsely or misleadingly—Results. Representing, in connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of respondent's "Zo-Ro-Lo" or other similar preparation, that said preparation is a cure or remedy for arthritis, asthma, brain disease, Bright's Disease, diabetes, acidity, epileptic convulsions, gall stones, inward goitre, rheumatism, neuritis, sciatica, or sinus, kidney or prostate gland trouble, or neutralizes toxic poisons, relieves all pain, or has any therapeutic value in the treatment of ailments which are due to intestinal auto-intoxication other than as a laxative or purgative, or is beneficial in starting one on the road to health, or in building up resistance to combat the cause of disease, or has any therapeutic value in the treatment of disease other than as a laxative or purgative, prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by Sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., Supp. IV, sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Zo-Ro-Lo, Inc., Docket 3030, August 12, 1939]

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard [1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent, testimony and other evidence taken before Miles J. Furnas, Robert S. Hall and Arthur F. Thomas, examiners of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said complaint and in opposition thereto, briefs filed herein, (oral argument not having been requested), and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Zo-Ro-Lo, Inc., its officers, representatives, agents and employees directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of its medical preparation now designated "Zo-Ro-Lo", or any other medical preparation composed of substantially similar ingredients or possessing substantially similar therapeutic properties, whether sold under that name or any other name, in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Representing that said preparation is a cure or remedy for arthritis, asthma, brain disease, Bright's Disease, diabetes, acidity, epileptic convulsions, gall stones, inward goitre, rheumatism, neuritis, sciatica, or sinus, kidney or prostate gland trouble;

(2) Representing that said preparation neutralizes toxic poisons, relieves all pain, or has any therapeutic value in the treatment of ailments which are due to intestinal auto-intoxication other than as a laxative or purgative;

(3) Representing that said preparation is beneficial in starting one on the road to health, or in building up resistance to combat the cause of disease, or has any therapeutic value in the treatment of disease other than as a laxative or purgative.

It is further ordered, That respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after the service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 14th day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

IN THE MATTER OF THE MODE NOVELTY COMPANY, A CORPORATION, WOLF ALBOUM, AS PRESIDENT AND TREASURER OF THE MODE NOVELTY COMPANY, AND INDIVIDUALLY, AND SAMUEL WEISMAN, AS VICE PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY OF THE MODE NOVELTY COMPANY, AND INDIVIDUALLY

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard [1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondents, testimony and other evidence taken before Arthur F. Thomas, an examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, in support of the allegations of said complaint and in opposition thereto, brief filed by counsel for the Commission (respondents not having filed brief, and oral argument not having been requested), and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That respondent, The Mode Novelty Company, a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, and respondents Wolf Alboum and Samuel Weisman, individually and as officers of said corporation, their representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of hats and caps in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing that hats or caps composed in whole or in part of used or second-hand materials are new or are composed of new materials by failure to stamp on the sweat bands thereof, in conspicuous and legible terms which cannot be removed or obliterated without mutilating the sweat bands, a statement that said products are composed of second-hand or used materials, provided that if sweat bands are not affixed to such hats or caps then such stamping must appear on the bodies of such hats or caps in conspicuous and legible terms which cannot be removed or obliterated without mutilating said bodies;

2. Representing in any manner that hats or caps made in whole or in part from old, used or second-hand materials are new or are composed of new materials.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of August, A. D. 1939.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

IN THE MATTER OF K & S SALES COMPANY, A CORPORATION, AND MRS. FANNYE COHN, AN INDIVIDUAL

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard [1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and upon testimony with respect to the dissolution of the corporate respondent K & S Sales Company, and upon the answer of the individual respondent Mrs. Fannye Cohn, in which answer said respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and states that she waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission, having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Mrs. Fannye Cohn, her representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of any sales stimulator plan, including certificates, coupons, and cards, redeemable in chinaware or other merchandise, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Representing that certificates, coupons or cards can be redeemed in chinaware or other merchandise, unless and until all of the terms and conditions of such offer are clearly and unequivocally stated in equal conspicuousness and in immediate connection or conjunction with such offer or offers and there is no deception as to the services or other actions to be performed or the prices to be paid in connection with obtaining such chinaware or other merchandise;

(2) Representing that respondent supplies to her customers or to other persons circulars, pamphlets, or other advertising matter relating to said sales stimulator plan when such is not the fact;

(3) Misrepresenting that any specified sum is the actual cost to respondent of said chinaware or other merchandise or is the actual cost of packing, handling and distributing said products, or misrepresenting in any other manner the actual cost to respondent of said products or the actual cost of packing, handling and distributing said products;

(4) Representing that payment made by respondent's customers for said sales stimulator plan, or any part thereof, is a temporary deposit which will be refunded, or that any other payments made by said customers in connection with said plan will be refunded, unless and until such are the facts and unless all of the terms and conditions of such offer or offers are clearly and unequivocally stated in equal conspicuousness and in immediate connection or conjunction with such offer or offers and there is no deception as to the services or other actions to be performed or the prices to be paid in connection with obtaining such chinaware or other merchandise, unless and until all of the terms and conditions of such offer are clearly and unequivocally stated in equal conspicuousness and in immediate connection or conjunction with such offer or offers and there is no deception as to the services or other actions to be performed in connection with the obtaining of such refund or refunds;

(5) Representing that the general sales of respondent's customers will be increased by reason of their use of respondent's sales stimulator plan.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon her of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which she has complied with this order.

It is further ordered, That this case be, and the same hereby is, closed as to the corporate respondent K & S Sales Company, without prejudice to the right of the Commission, should future facts so warrant, to reopen the same and resume prosecution thereof in accordance with the Commission's regular procedure.

By the Commission.

Commissioners: Robert E. Freer, Chairman; Garland S. Ferguson, Charles H. March, Ewin L. Davis, William A. Ayres.

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

This proceeding having been heard[1] by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of the respondent, and a stipulation as to the facts entered into between the respondent herein and W. T. Kelley, Chief Counsel for the Commission, which provides, among other things, that without further evidence or other intervening procedure, the Commission may issue and serve upon the respondent herein findings as to the facts and conclusion based thereon and an order disposing of the proceeding, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Dearborn Supply Company, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, do forthwith cease and desist from disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails or in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, by any means, for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of cosmetic preparations containing drugs now designated by the names of "Mercolized Wax", "Parker-Belmont Beauty Cream", "Powdered Saxolite", "Powdered Tarkroot" and "Phelactine", or any other cosmetic preparations composed of substantially similar ingredients or possessing substantially similar therapeutic properties, whether sold under the same names or under any other name or names, or disseminating or causing to be disseminated, any advertisements by any means for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase in commerce, as commerce is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of said cosmetic preparations, which said advertisements represent, directly or through implication:

(1) That said cosmetic preparation "Mercolized Wax" absorbs the surface skin, surface discolorations, blemishes or impurities, or removes coarseness, roughness, blackheads, tan, freckles, sunburn, or large pores from the skin or cleanses, softens, lubricates, nourishes or protects the skin; or aids the skin in renewing itself; or that the use of said preparation is a natural way to make the skin beautiful; or that said preparation is an all-in-one cleansing, softening or beautifying cream or an all-purpose beauty aid; or which advertisements fail to reveal that said preparation contains ammoniated mercury, and that the use of said preparation by some persons produces injurious effects, and that said preparation cannot be used safely by anyone over a large area of the body or on any part of the body where the skin is cut, broken, irritated, or otherwise damaged;

(2) That said preparation "Parker-Belmont Beauty Cream" is a skilful or scientific blend of creams or is efficacious for pore-deep cleansing, clearing, softening, lubricating, or all-around beautifying of the skin, or that said preparation is an oxygen cream or will bleach the skin or make the skin lighter by two or more shades or is a blend of all the creams the skin requires; or that said preparation normalizes either a dry or an oily skin;

(3) That said preparation "Saxolite Astringent" is a skin tonic or smooths out wrinkles or age lines, refines coarse pores, eliminates oiliness or gives the skin a fresh, clean, lively appearance;

(4) That said preparation "Powdered Tarkroot", when used as a beauty mask, will revive or refresh a fatigued or drooping face more quickly or completely than other products designed and intended for similar usage; or that said preparation will smooth out wrinkles or age lines or pull relaxed and sagging contours into proper position or purge the pores of all impurities or arouse the circulation so as to nourish the drooping tissues; or that said preparation beautifies the skin by tightening, purifying, refining or stimulating the skin or will renew the complexion;

(5) That said preparation "Phelactine" is different from or quicker and simpler to use than other hair removers or that said preparation removes superfluous hair gently or that the use thereof causes the skin to be smooth, soft and hair free.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after the service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION

[General Order 15—Supplement 12a]

MINIMUM MANNING SCALES FOR THE S. S. "DELRIO," S. S. "DELALBA," S. S. "DELMAR," S. S. "DELPLATA" AND S. S. "CLEARWATER," SUBSIDIZED VESSELS OF THE MISSISSIPPI SHIPPING COMPANY, INC.

At a regular session of the United States Maritime Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of August, 1939.

The Commission having adopted, pursuant to Section 301 (a) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, General Order No. 15[2] providing for minimum wage scales, minimum manning scales, and reasonable working conditions for all subsidized vessels, and now desiring to complete the minimum manning scales for the S. S. Delrio, S. S. Delalba, S. S. Delmar, S. S. Delplata and S. S. Clearwater, subsidized vessels of the Mississippi Shipping Company, Inc. (referred to herein as Operator); and

The Commission finding that the minimum scales hereinafter adopted for the above named subsidized vessels of the Operator are reasonable, proper and lawful, such finding being based upon investigations referred to in General Order No. 15 and investigations of the Commission made thereafter; it is, therefore

[2] 2 F.R. 2257.

Ordered, That the minimum manning scales attached hereto for the S. S. Delrio, S. S. Delalba, S. S. Delmar, S. S. Delplata and S. S. Clearwater, subsidized vessels of the Operator, be and the same hereby are adopted: Provided, That under extraordinary circumstances such as casualty or desertion, where it is impossible to procure sufficient officers or unlicensed seamen of any required grade or rating to permit the sailing of any of said vessels without undue delay, the said scales shall be inoperative to the extent required by such emergency, and the Operator shall forthwith report to the Commission any departure from said scales, stating in such report the extent of the departure and showing to the satisfaction of the Commission that sufficient reasons for such departure existed; and it is further

Ordered, That the minimum manning scales hereby adopted shall not relieve said Operator from complying with the manning requirements of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation and shall be without prejudice to the carrying of seamen in addition to those required hereby; and it is further

Ordered, That the minmum manning scales hereby adopted shall become effective for each of said vessels upon the first signing after September 15, 1939 of shipping articles for a subsidized voyage of said vessel, unless otherwise specified in the scales, and that the Operator be immediately served by registered mail with a copy of this Order and of the minimum manning scales hereby adopted.

By order of the United States Maritime Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Division of Marketing and Marketing Agreements.

PROCLAMATION WITH RESPECT TO BASE PERIOD TO BE USED FOR PURPOSE OF MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF THE BEURRE D'ANJOU, BEURRE BOSC, WINTER NELIS, DOYENNE DU COMICE, BEURRE EASTER, AND BEURRE CLAIRGEAU VARIETIES OF FRESH PEARS GROWN IN THE STATES OF OREGON, WASHINGTON, AND CALIFORNIA

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, approved June 3, 1937, it is hereby found and proclaimed that, with respect to the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of fresh pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington, and California, the purchasing power of such fall and winter pears during the base period, August 1909–July 1914, cannot be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the purpose of the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order [1] regulating the handling of the Beurre D'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of fresh pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington, and California, but the purchasing power of such fall and winter pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington, and California can be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the post-war period, August 1920–July 1929. The period August 1920–July 1929 is, therefore, hereby declared and proclaimed to be the base period to be used in determining the purchasing power of said varieties of fresh pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington, and California for the purpose of the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order regulating the handling of such fruit.

In witness whereof, the Secretary of Agriculture has executed this proclamation in duplicate and has hereunto set his hand and caused the seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 22d day of August 1939.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 22nd day of August, A. D. 1939.

[File No. 32-169]

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARION-RESERVE POWER COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application or a declaration pursuant to section 6 (b) or 7 (whichever is applicable) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on August 31, 1939, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 28, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the proposed issuance and sale to the public by the applicant of its First Mortgage Bonds, 3½% Series, due September 1, 1959, in the principal amount of $7,750,000 and its unsecured Eight-Year 2⅞% Promissory Notes in the principal amount of $1,250,000.

The applicant states that the net proceeds to be received by it from the sale of said $7,750,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds and said $1,250,000 of unsecured Serial Notes are to be used for the payment and discharge of the now outstanding First Mortgage Bonds issued by or assumed by the applicant and Serial Notes in the total principal amount of $8,650,000 and for the reimbursement of its treasury, in part, for expenditures heretofore made for extensions and improvements to its facilities.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION

PART 701—1939 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM BULLETIN

SECTION 701.1 (B)—ORDER DECREASING THE RATES OF PAYMENT AND DEDUCTIONS WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN COMMODITIES

Whereas under the 1939 Agricultural Conservation Program [1] the existing rates of payment and deductions were based upon estimates of available funds and estimates of participation by farmers, and are subject to decrease or increase by not more than 10 percent, depending upon the extent of participation;

Whereas farmers participating in said program have largely completed the farming practices in connection with which payments may be made thereunder; and

Whereas on the basis of the facts shown by farmers who have stated their intentions to participate in the 1939 Agricultural Conservation Program and the facts which it is believed will be shown by applications for payment to be submitted hereafter in said program, it reasonably appears that participation by farmers with respect to cotton, general soil-depleting crops in Area A, rice, and fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco will exceed the original estimates of participation with respect to these crops by more than 10 percent:

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Sections 7 to 17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, do hereby order that said existing rates of payments and deductions with respect to cotton, general soil-depleting crops in Area A, rice, and fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco be, and the same hereby are, decreased 10 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of August 1939. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

CIVIL AERONAUTICS AUTHORITY

[Amendment 24, Civil Air Regulations]

FLYING SCHOOLS; PRIVATE PILOT FLYING COURSE AND GROUND INSTRUCTORS

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 22nd day of August 1939.

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, particularly sections 205 (a), 601 (a) and 607 of said Act, and finding that its action is desirable in the public interest and is necessary to carry out the provisions of, and to exercise and perform its powers and duties under said Act, the Civil Aeronautics Authority hereby amends the Civil Air Regulations as follows:

Effective September 21, 1939, Part 50, as amended, of the Civil Air Regulations is amended as follows:

1. Section 50.1041 is amended to read as follows:

"§ 50.1041 (b) Private pilot flying course. The course shall be arranged so as to give each student a minimum of 17 hours dual or check time and 18 hours solo time. At least 2 hours of such solo time shall consist of cross-country flying which shall include at least one flight over a course of not less than 50 miles with at least 2 full stop landings at different points on the course."

2. Section 50.105 is amended to read as follows:

"§ 50.105 Ground instructors. Applicant shall show that each person giving, or employed to give, ground instruction for the school, in any ground school subject required by the Civil Air Regulations, is possessed of a valid and appropriate ground instructor certificate."

By the Authority.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

[T. D. 4925]

EXCISE TAXES ON SALES BY THE MANUFACTURER

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Section 1 of the Revenue Act of 1939, approved June 29, 1939, reads in part as follows:

SEC. 1. CONTINUATION OF EXCISE TAXES * * *.
Sections * * * 3452, * * * of the Internal Revenue Code are amended by striking out "1939" wherever appearing therein and inserting in lieu thereof "1941". * * *.

Section 2 of the Revenue Act of 1939, approved June 29, 1939, reads as follows:

SEC. 2. SPORTING ARMS AND AMMUNITION TAX.
Section 3407 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to the tax on firearms, shells, and cartridges) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:
"The provisions of section 3452 (relating to expiration of taxes) shall not apply to the tax imposed by this section."

In conformity with the provisions of law quoted above, the second paragraph of article 1 of Regulation 46, as amended (section 303.1, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations), but only as prescribed and made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885, approved February 11, 1939[1] (Part 465, Subpart B of such Title 26), under authority contained in section 3450 of the Internal Revenue Code, is further amended to read as follows:

"No such sale, lease, or use after June 30, 1941 (or after July 31, 1941, in the case of articles taxable under sections 3400 and 3403 of the Internal Revenue Code (same as sections 602 and 606 of the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended), relating to the tax on tires and inner tubes and automobiles, etc.), is taxable under the title except that with respect to firearms, shells, and cartridges taxable under section 3407 of the Internal Revenue Code (same as section 610 of the Revenue Act of 1932), the limitation does not apply."

(This Treasury Decision is prescribed pursuant to section 3452 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat., Part 1), as amended by section 1 of the Revenue Act of 1939 (Public, No. 155, 76th Cong., 1st sess.) and section 3450 of the Internal Revenue Code.)

TITLE 45—PUBLIC WELFARE

NATIONAL YOUTH ADMINISTRATION

[Administrative Order No. 4]

REVISION OF REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT OF OUT-OF-SCHOOL YOUTH ON PROJECTS OF THE NATIONAL YOUTH ADMINISTRATION

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1939, approved June 30, 1939, I hereby amend Section 402.13 of Administrative Order No. 2, dated July 13, 1939,[1] to read as follows:

§ 402.13 Resident project employees. The several State Youth Administrators are authorized and directed to establish monthly earnings for youth employees assigned to resident projects, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Except for such projects or portions of projects as the National Youth Administrator, or his authorized representative, may hereafter exempt, the earnings rate of youth employees shall not exceed thirty dollars ($30) per pay roll month for full-time resident projects or twenty dollars ($20) per pay roll month for part-time resident projects, with an appropriate charge for lodging, food, sanitation, water and bathing facilities, and medical and dental care.

(b) The net payment scheduled for youth employees shall be not less than eight dollars ($8) per pay roll month, after deductions for subsistence and lodging are made at the end of the pay roll month.

(c) Not more than two wage classes shall be established for youth employees on any single resident project.

For youth employees assigned to full-time resident projects, deductions for voluntary absence from duty shall be made in the amount of one-thirtieth of the monthly salary for each day of voluntary absence. For youth employees assigned to part-time resident projects, deductions for voluntary absence from duty shall be made on the basis of the ratio which the number of days of voluntary absence bears to the total number of days of assignment during the pay roll month. State Youth Administrators, or their authorized representatives, shall schedule hours of work for youth employees on resident projects. Deductions for voluntary absence from duty shall be made only when youth employees are voluntarily absent during periods when they are scheduled to work. Deductions for voluntary absence from duty for a portion of a day's scheduled work period shall be made in an amount equal to one-fourth the deduction, or multiple thereof, made for absence during a full day's scheduled work period. On both full-time and part-time resident projects, Sundays and other intervening non-work days shall not be counted in determining deductions to be made for voluntary absence.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Wage and Hour Division.

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO PETITION FOR REVIEW OF DETERMINATION UPON APPLICATIONS FOR PERMISSION TO EMPLOY LEARNERS IN THE HOSIERY INDUSTRY AT WAGES LOWER THAN APPLICABLE MINIMUM SPECIFIED IN SECTION 6 OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

Whereas, The National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers, The Southern Hosiery Manufacturers' Association, and sundry other parties pursuant to Part 522[1] (Regulations applicable to the Employment of Learners pursuant to Section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act) made application for permission to employ learners in the hosiery industry at wages lower than the applicable minimum wage specified in Section 6 of the Act; and

Whereas, a hearing[2] on said application was held before Merle D. Vincent the representative of the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, duly authorized to conduct the said hearing and to determine—

(a) what, if any, occupation or occupations in the hosiery industry, or branch thereof, require a learning period, and

(b) the factors which may have a bearing upon curtailment of opportunities for employment within the hosiery industry, or branch thereof, and

(c) under what limitations as to wages, time, number, proportion, and length of service special certificates may be issued to employers in the hosiery industry, or branch thereof, for whatever occupation or occupations, if any, are found to require a learning period; and

Whereas, following such hearing the said Merle D. Vincent duly made his findings of fact and determined as follows:

"Upon the whole record of evidence, a summary and review of which appears above, I make the following determination:

"That it is necessary, in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, to issue to employers in the hosiery industry, upon individual applications, Special Certificates for the employment of learners at sub-minimum rates, in certain specific occupations and subject to the terms herein set forth, except where experienced workers are available for such employment. In no case shall the employment of learners under Special Certificates be authorized where experienced workers are available for employment by the plant making application. A periodic review of the availability of experienced workers will be made and Special Certificates suspended or revoked where an adequate supply of experienced workers is indicated.

"All Special Certificates granted shall be subject to the following terms:

"1. Definition of learner. (a) A learner is a worker who has had (1) less than 480 hours of experience in the aggregate in the following occupations:

SEAMLESS BRANCH

Knitting (except transfer top Knitting).
Seaming.
Topping.
Boarding.
Pairing.
Folding.
Examining and Inspecting.
Mending.
Welting.
Trimming and End Pulling.
Embroidering.
Hemming and Mock-seaming.
Cuff Sewing.
Monogramming.

FULL-FASHIONED BRANCH

Boarding.
Pairing.
Folding.
Examining and Inspecting.
Mending.

or (2) less than 960 hours of experience in any one of the following occupations:

SEAMLESS BRANCH

Knitting (Transfer top knitting only).
Looping.

FULL-FASHIONED BRANCH

Knitting.
Looping.
Seaming.
Topping.

"(b) Provided, That he has had no previous experience in a particular occupation for which a learning period of 960 hours is allowed, a learner may serve one retraining period of 480 hours in such occupations: Provided, however, That a learner may be retrained only once at sub-minimum rates.

"2. Learners' Rates. (a) In the occupations providing a learning period of 480 hours, learners employed on a piece-rate basis shall be paid not less than 22½¢ an hour in the seamless branch and not less than 25¢ an hour in the full-fashioned branch.

"(b) In the occupations providing a learning period of 960 hours, learners employed on a piece-rate basis in the seamless branch shall be paid not less than 22½¢ for the first 480 hours and not less than 27½¢ for the second 480 hours, and in the full-fashioned branch not less than 25¢ for the first 480 hours and not less than 30¢ for the second 480 hours.

"(c) A worker employed on a piece-rate basis who is being retrained in accordance with 1 (b) above shall be paid not less than 25¢ an hour in the seamless branch and not less than 30¢ an hour in the full-fashioned.

"(d) If experienced operators are paid on a piece work rate, learners shall be paid at least the same piece work rate as that paid workers already employed on similar work in the establishment; learners shall receive full piece work earnings whenever these exceed the applicable minimum hourly wage.

"(e) Where piece rates are not in effect, the minimum hourly learner wage for occupations limited to a 480 hour learning period and for the first 480 hours for the occupations permitting a 960 hour learning period shall be not less than 22½¢ for the seamless branch and not less than 25¢ for the full-fashioned; and for the second 480 hours for the occupations permitting a 960 hour learning period the minimum hourly learner wage where piece rates are not in effect shall be not less than 29¢ for the seamless branch and not less than 35¢ for the full-fashioned.

"(f) Where piece rates are not in effect, a worker being restrained in accordance with 1 (b) above shall be paid not less than 29¢ an hour in the seamless branch and not less than 35¢ an hour in the full-fashioned branch.

"3. Number of learners. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, no learners' certificate shall authorize the employment of learners in excess of 5% of the total number of factory workers (not including office and sales personnel) employed in the plant; provided, however, that employment of as many as five learners may be authorized in any certificate.

"(b) The number of learners to be employed under any Special Certificate authorizing the employment of learners in new plants or for extensive expansion shall be limited to the number of learners whose employment at sub-minimum rates is shown necessary by the employer to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment under Section 14 of the Act.

"4. Duration of certificates. Special Learner Certificates authorizing the employment of learners not in excess of 5% of total factory employees and certificates authorizing not more than five learners shall be valid for a period of one year unless sooner revoked because an adequate supply of experienced workers are available or for other cause, or unless the wages set by the Administrator's Wage Order are changed. Special Certificates authorizing the employment of learners in excess of 5% shall be valid for a period not exceeding eight months unless sooner revoked for cause or unless the wages set by the Administrator's Wage Order are changed.

"5. Learners' certificates. All Special Certificates shall include, among other matters, the learner occupations, periods of service and rates set forth hereinabove; the definition of a learner; the requirement that the employer shall exercise due diligence to secure experienced workers before employing inexperienced workers at learner rates in their stead; the requirement that the certificate shall be posted continuously during its validity in a conspicuous place in the plant where the learners are to be employed; and a prohibition against the violation of any of the terms and conditiions set forth in the certificate."

Whereas said Findings and Determination were duly filed with the Administrator on August 21, 1939, and are now on file in his office, Room 5144, Department of Labor Building, Washington, D. C., and available for examination by all interested parties:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the provision of Section 522.13 of the aforesaid regulations, as amended, notice is hereby given that any person aggrieved by the said determination may within fifteen days after the date this notice appears in the FEDERAL REGISTER file petitions with the Administrator requesting that he review the determination of the said representative.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 22 day of August 1939.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 23rd day of August, A. D. 1939.

[File Nos. 37-31, 37-44]

IN THE MATTER OF EBASCO SERVICES INCORPORATED AND PHOENIX ENGINEERING CORPORATION; AND EBASCO SERVICES INCORPORATED AND EBASCO INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

A declaration and applications pursuant to Rules U-13-22 and U-13-4 promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named parties;

It is ordered, That these matters be consolidated for the purpose of hearing and that a hearing on such consolidated matter be held on September 18, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before September 13, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to a declaration (File No. 37-31) of Ebasco Services Incorporated, a subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, a registered holding company, on behalf of itself and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Phoenix Engineering Corporation, pursuant to Rule U-13-22 under the Act, with respect to the organization and conduct of its business as a subsidiary service company. Neither Ebasco Services Incorporated nor its wholly-owned subsidiary, Phoenix Engineering Corporation, is a mutual company. All of the outstanding capital stock of Ebasco Services Incorporated is held by Electric Bond and Share Company and all of the outstanding capital stock of Phoenix Engineering Corporation is held by Ebasco Services Incorporated.

Ebasco Services Incorporated is now segregated into two divisions, i. e., the United States Division and the International Division. It is stated that the purpose of this segregation was to enable Ebasco Services Incorporated to determine the cost of rendering such services to those client companies located and operating respectively within and without the United States. In order that these costs might be properly recorded, separate sets of books are kept to segregate and record the transactions and costs of each division. Each division includes, as part of its cost, a proportion of certain salaries chargeable thereto and the proportion of overhead applicable thereto, together with all general overheads. There also is included, as a part of the cost of each division, depreciation and a reserve for contingencies and, for the United States Division, a 6% return on working capital.

The Phoenix Engineering Corporation is stated to be, in effect, the incorporated construction and special engineering department of Ebasco Services Incorporated. It performs designated construction and engineering services. These services are performed at cost to United States client companies.

Ebasco Services Incorporated, through its International Division, Empresas Electricas Brasileiras, S. A. and Phoenix Engineering Corporation (both wholly-owned subsidiaries of Ebasco Services Incorporated) and Compania Constructora del Pacifico (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Phoenix Engineering Corporation) performed services for client companies outside the United States at prices not limited to cost.

In anticipation of a proposed reorganization (applications and declaration in connection therewith having been filed in a separate proceeding and which have not yet been acted on by the Commission, File No. 47-36) whereby the properties and assets of Ebasco Services Incorporated used in connection with its foreign business will be transferred to Ebasco International Corporation, a New York corporation, in consideration for the issuance by Ebasco International Corporation of 7,000 shares of its capital stock of the par value of $100 each, such capital stock immediately to be transferred to Electric Bond and Share Company in consideration for the surrender by the latter company to Ebasco Services Incorporated, for cancellation, of 7,000 shares of the capital stock of Ebasco Services Incorporated of the par value of $100 each, and the dissolution of Phoenix Engineering Corporation and the transfer of its property and assets to Ebasco Services Incorporated, Ebasco Services Incorporated has filed an amendment to its declaration pursuant to Rule U-13-22, on behalf of itself and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Phoenix Engineering Corporation, wherein it seeks approval of its business as a subsidiary service company as it will be upon the consummation of the proposed reorganization. If the aforementioned contemplated reorganization is effected, Ebasco Services Incorporated will perform services and construction at cost to public utility and other companies operating in the United States. Ebasco Services Incorporated may also render incidental services at cost to Ebasco International Corporation. It is contemplated that Ebasco Services Incorporated may perform services or constructions for persons in the United States with whom transactions at prices not limited to cost are permitted under Rule U-13-31 under the Act.

The application of Ebasco Services Incorporated and the application of Ebasco International Corporation (File No. 37-44) pursuant to Rule U-13-4 promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 are both for exemption from the standards established by Section 13 (b) of said Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder relating to the performance of services, sales and construction contracts for foreign associate companies.

Ebasco International Corporation, all of whose outstanding capital stock is now owned by Ebasco Services Incorporated but whose capital stock will, in the event the aforementioned reorganization becomes effective, be owned by Electric Bond and Share Company, plans to engage in the business of performing technical, supervisory and other services for public utility and other client companies operating in thirteen foreign countries. It does not propose to render services to holding or other companies doing business in the United States, its sole prospective clients being public utility and other companies operating in foreign countries. Through its prospective subsidiary, Empresas Electricas Brasileiras, S. A., applicant will render services to certain client countries in Brazil, and through its prospective subsidiary, Compania Constructora del Pacifico, applicant plans to perform construction and other engineering services for client companies operating in Chile. Applicant does not propose to carry on any of its business within the United States. All of the companies to which applicant will render services are subsidiaries of American & Foreign Power Company Incorporated, except Compania de Servicos Publicos de Cartagena, a public utility company operating in Colombia which is not an associate or affiliate of American & Foreign Power Company Incorporated. (American & Foreign Power Company Incorporated has filed an application on behalf of itself and such subsidiaries pursuant to Section 3 (b) of the Act for exemption from all provisions of the Act applicable to it and its subsidiaries as subsidiaries of Electric Bond and Share Company.)

By the Commission.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

FURTHER AMENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 7677–A, OF JULY 26, 1937, AS AMENDED, ENTITLED "CIVILIAN CONSERVATION CORPS"

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me under the act entitled "An Act to establish a Civilian Conservation Corps, and for other purposes", approved June 28, 1937 (50 Stat. 319), as amended by the act of May 12, 1938 (52 Stat. 349), and the act of June 25, 1938 (52 Stat. 1198), Executive Order No. 7677–A of July 26, 1937, entitled "Civilian Conservation Corps", as amended by Executive Order No. 7717 of September 29, 1937, and Executive Order No. 8133 of May 15, 1939,[1] is hereby further amended to read as follows:

1. Reserve officers of the Army and officers of the Naval and Marine Corps Reserves and warrant officers of the Coast Guard on active duty with the Civilian Conservation Corps will be relieved from such duty under their commissions, such relief to be effected gradually and completed on or before December 31, 1939. No additional reserve officers will be ordered to active duty with the Civilian Conservation Corps nor will the detail of any such officers now on such duty be extended or renewed; except that when it may be necessary to retain a reserve officer on active duty whose current tour of active duty expires at an early date, such officer's tour of active duty may be extended for a period terminating not later than September 30, 1939. With the exceptions authorized in the preceding sentence, reserve officers will be relieved from active duty as their current tours of active duty are terminated, and, in any event, not later than December 31, 1939.

2. The Director of the Civilian Conservation Corps is authorized, subject to the limitations and restrictions contained in section 3 of the said act of June 28, 1937, to undertake projects on lands belonging to or under the jurisdiction or control of counties and municipalities, and on lands in private ownership.

3. The Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs are requested to cooperate with the Director of the Civilian Conservation Corps in carrying out the purposes of the said act of June 28, 1937, as amended. Each of the said Secretaries and the said Administrator shall appoint a representative who shall, upon request of the Director, confer with him and under his direction aid him in prosecuting effectively the purposes contemplated by the said act, as amended.

4. This order shall take effect as of July 1, 1939.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

CIVIL AERONAUTICS AUTHORITY

REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRESERVATION AND REMOVAL OF AIRCRAFT INVOLVED IN ACCIDENTS

At a session of the Air Safety Board held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of July 1939:

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, particularly section 702 (d) thereof, and finding that such action is desirable in the public interest and is necessary to carry out the provisions of, and to exercise and perform its powers and duties under said Act, the Air Safety Board makes, prescribes and issues the following regulations:

(1) Preservation. Any aircraft, aircraft engine, propeller, or appliance affected by, or involved in, an accident in air commerce shall be preserved as found subsequent to such accident, until released by the Air Safety Board of the Civil Aeronautics Authority.

(2) Removal. No aircraft, aircraft engine, propeller, or appliance affected by, or involved in, an accident in air commerce shall be moved or disturbed unless specific permission shall have been granted by the Air Safety Board except:

(a) When necessary for the purpose of giving assistance to persons injured or trapped in the wreckage; or

(b) When necessary in the interest of public safety.

NOTE: Any aircraft, aircraft engine, propeller, or appliance, or any part of parts thereof, involved in an accident in air commerce, shall, when directed by the Air Safety Board, be removed to such place or places as the Board may direct, for purposes of safekeeping, inspection, testing, or use by the Air Safety Board in the exercise and performance of its rights and duties.

By the Board.

R. D. HOYT,
Executive Officer.

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING NOTIFICATION AND REPORT OF ACCIDENTS INVOLVING AIRCRAFT

At a session of the Air Safety Board held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of July 1939:

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, particularly section 702 (a) (1) thereof, and finding that such action is desirable in the public interest and is necessary to carry out the provisions of, and to exercise and perform its powers and duties under said Act, the Air Safety Board makes, prescribes and issues the following rules and regulations:

(1) Notification. When death or serious injury to person or substantial damage to property results from an accident involving aircraft, the airman concerned and the registered owner or operator of the aircraft, if physically able, shall notify the Air Safety Board of the Civil Aeronautics Authority immediately, either in person or by telegraph or telephone, stating the registered number of the aircraft and the time, place and nature of the accident: Provided, That notification, for the attention of the Air Safety Board, to the Civil Aeronautics Authority or any of its inspectors, shall be deemed to constitute notification to the Air Safety Board in accordance with this paragraph. If notification is to be given direct to the Air Safety Board, such notification may be made to either the principal office of the Air Safety Board in Washington, D. C., or to its nearest known branch office or field representative.

(2) Report. All accidents involving aircraft which cause death or injury to person, or damage to the aircraft or other property, shall be reported without delay by, or on behalf of, the airman and by, or on behalf of, the registered owner or operator of the aircraft to the Air Safety Board of the Civil Aeronautics Authority at its nearest office. Such reports shall be submitted on accident report forms provided for this purpose by the Air Safety Board and shall include all facts, conditions, and circumstances relating to the accident and all pertinent information for which space is provided on the report form.

By the Board.

R. D. HOYT,
Executive Officer.

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Authority held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of July 1939:

Acting pursuant to section 702 (a) (1) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, the Civil Aeronautics Authority approved the above rules and regulations of the Air Safety Board.

By the Authority.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Wage and Hour Division.

IN THE MATTER OF APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION OF SPRING FRESHET DRIVING OF LUMBER IN STATES OF MICHIGAN, MINNESOTA AND WISCONSIN FROM MAXIMUM HOURS PROVISIONS OF THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT OF 1938

Whereas the Timber Producers' Association of Minnesota filed an application with Elmer F. Andrews, Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor for a determination that spring freshet driving of lumber in the States of Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin is a branch of an industry of a seasonal nature within the meaning of Section 7 (b) (3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and Part 526[1] of the Regulations issued thereunder, and

Whereas the Administrator determined, after a public hearing held before him in Washington, D. C., on April 17 and 18, 1939, that the spring freshet driving branch of the lumber industry conducted in the States of Main, New Hampshire, New York and Vermont is entitled to the seasonal exemption provided in Section 7 (b) (3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and Part 526 of the Regulations issued thereunder, and

Whereas it appeared from the application filed by the Timber Producers' Association of Minnesota that spring freshet driving in Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin is similar in all material respects to spring freshet driving in Maine, New Hampshire, New York and Vermont, and

Whereas the Administrator published a preliminary determination in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 25, 1939,[2] pursuant to Section 526.5 (c) of the Regulations, that a prima facie case was shown by the application for the granting of an exemption, pursuant to Section 7 (b) (3)

[1] 3 F.R. 2534, 3127 DI.
[2] 4 F.R. 3415 DI.

of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and Part 526 of the Regulations issued thereunder, to the branch of the lumber industry in the States of Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin, which is engaged in spring freshet driving, and

Whereas no objection and request for hearing was received by the Administrator within fifteen days following the publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the said preliminary determination.

Now, therefore, pursuant to Section 526.5 (c) of the Regulations, the Administrator hereby finds upon the prima facie case shown in the said application that the spring freshet driving branch of the lumber industry in the States of Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin is a seasonal industry within the meaning of Section 7 (b) (3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and the Regulations issued thereunder and, therefore, is entitled to the exemption provided in Section 7 (b) (3) of the said Act.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 22nd day of August, 1939.

ELMER F. ANDREWS,
Administrator.

All other funds available for investment to be invested in the aforementioned first mortgage bonds.

A hearing on said application as amended having been duly held after appropriate notice; the record in this matter having been examined; and the Commission having made and filed its findings herein;

It is ordered, That the proposed investment program of applicant be and the same hereby is exempt from the provisions of section 9 (a) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, subject, however, to the following conditions:

1. That the prosecution of the proposed investment program shall be in compliance with the terms and conditions of, and for the purposes represented by, said application as amended;

2. That applicant report to this Commission, on the twentieth day of each month following the date of the order herein, all acquisitions of securities during the preceding month. Such report shall, as to income bonds and notes of Utilities Employees Securities Company and as to debentures of New England Capital Corporation reacquired during such preceding month from such employees or their estates, show the amount thereof, the price paid, whether such securities were originally issued to such employees, the name and address of the seller of such securities, and aggregate amount paid. Such report shall as to other securities purchased during such preceding month, specify each security acquired, the amount thereof, the cost per unit, the name of the broker or dealer through or from whom such security was purchased, the amount of all fees and commissions paid, and the total price for each purchase.

3. That all securities purchased (other than those originally acquired by employees from Utilities Employees Securities Company and New England Capital Corporation and repurchased at par from such employees or their estates) be purchased from or through brokers or dealers registered with this Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and be not purchased directly or indirectly from associates or affiliates of applicant;

4. That applicant continue to follow the practice (so long as such practice does not constitute an illegal preference) of acquiring at par from estates of deceased employees, from employees who have left the System, and from employees who, in the opinion of the management or of those delegated by the management to decide such questions, are in dire financial need, the securities issued and sold by Utilities Employees Securities Company and by New England Capital Corporation to such employees;

5. That thirty days prior to the declaration of dividends on its Class A stock in excess of $2 per share per annum, applicant file with this Commission a notification of intention to declare such dividends;

6. That not more than $100.000 principal amount of any security (other than the income bonds and notes of Utilities Employees Securities Company and the debentures of New England Capital Corporation) be purchased during any twelve-month period;

7. That in purchasing securities, applicant shall not be exempt from any of the duties, responsibilities, or obligations under the Act, except those imposed by the provisions of section 9 thereof;

8. That applicant make no transfers from the reserve in its balance sheet entitled "Reserve for Guaranty Fund";

9. That this order shall terminate on February 17th, 1940, without prejudice to the right of applicant to apply for the extension or renewal thereof;

10. That the Commission reserve jurisdiction, after notice and opportunity for hearing, to revoke or modify this order if it appears that further purchases pursuant thereto would be inconsistent with any provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, or any rule or regulation thereunder, or any terms or conditions of this order, or if it shall appear that further exemption of such purchases from the provisions of section 9 (a) (1) of said Act will be detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers. Pending final determination respecting the revocation or modification of this order, the Commission may summarily suspend any or all further purchases thereunder.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF CONSOLIDATED ELECTRIC AND GAS COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to Rule U-12D-1 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on September 1, 1939, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before August 29, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the proposed sale by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, a registered holding company, of certain securities consisting of (1) Common Capital Stock and Unsecured Demand Notes of Citizens Gas Company, a subsidiary, and (2) Common Capital Stock, Preferred Stock, First Mortgage Bonds and Unsecured Demand Income Notes of Sussex Gas Company, a subsidiary, for a total consideration of $250,000, plus certain accrued interest. The application states that the prospective purchaser is J. B. Whitworth, Chestertown, Maryland, acting as an individual, and that after giving effect to the foregoing transaction, the purchaser will hold 100% of the voting power of Citizens Gas Company and 93.4% of the total voting power of Sussex Gas Company. It is proposed to use all or substantially all of the proceeds of the sale in the retirement of outstanding debt securities of the applicant.

By the Commission.

At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before September 13, 1939.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the proposed purchase in the open market from time to time as funds are available, and the retirement of any of the applicant's outstanding debt securities—the total amount of which outstanding at June 30, 1939, was stated to be:

|---|---|
| Income Bonds, due November 1, 1956, in principal amount | $92,570 |

EXTENDING THE PERIOD FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ADEQUATE SHIPPING SERVICE FOR, AND DEFERRING EXTENSION OF THE COASTWISE LAWS TO, CANTON ISLAND

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS section 21 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920 (ch. 250, 41 Stat. 997), provides:

"That from and after February 1, 1922, the coastwise laws of the United States shall extend to the island Territories and possessions of the United States not now covered thereby, and the board is directed prior to the expiration of such year to have established adequate steamship service at reasonable rates to accommodate the commerce and the passenger travel of said islands and to maintain and operate such service until it can be taken over and operated and maintained upon satisfactory terms by private capital and enterprise: Provided, That if adequate shipping service is not established by February 1, 1922, the President shall extend the period herein allowed for the establishment of such service in the case of any island Territory or possession for such time as may be necessary for the establishment of adequate shipping facilities therefor * * *;"

WHEREAS an adequate shipping service to accommodate the commerce and the passenger travel of Canton Island has not been established as provided in the aforesaid section;

WHEREAS the extension of the coastwise laws of the United States to Canton Island, as provided in the aforesaid section, is dependent upon the establishment of such adequate shipping service;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 21 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, do hereby declare and proclaim that the period for the establishment of an adequate shipping service for Canton Island is extended to January 1, 1940, and that the extension of the coastwise laws of the United States to Canton Island is deferred to January 1, 1940.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this 21" day of August, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] thirty-nine and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-fourth.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:

EXECUTIVE ORDER

AMENDING SECTION 15 OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 7845 OF MARCH 21, 1938, PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS RELATING TO ANNUAL LEAVE OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 7 of the act of March 14, 1936, entitled "An act to provide for vacations to Government employees and for other purposes" (49 Stat. 1161), it is ordered that section 15 of Executive Order No. 7845, dated March 21, 1938,[1] prescribing regulations relating to annual leave of Government employees, be, and it is hereby, amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 15. Temporary employees who subsequently receive indefinite, emergency, probational, or permanent appointments in the same department or agency without break in service shall be entitled to 2½ days annual leave for each full month of service to the date of such indefinite, emergency, probational, or permanent appointment and thereafter at the rate of 2½ days per month, and shall be credited with such accumulated and current accrued leave as may be due, or charged with any unaccrued leave which may have been advanced."

This order shall be effective as of June 30, 1939, and shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

BUREAU OF ENTOMOLOGY AND PLANT QUARANTINE

[B.E.P.Q. 501 (Supersedes B.P.Q. 344)]

SEC. 319.56-2b—ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS; CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE ENTRY OF ACORNS AND CHESTNUTS

AUGUST 21, 1939.

The importation of acorns and chestnuts into the United States for purposes other than propagation, from all foreign countries and localities, except Canada, is authorized under permit under the provisions of Quarantine No. 56 (Fruit and Vegetable Quarantine) (Sec. 319.56) as follows:

Authorized ports of entry. Permits are issued on any port in the United States where this Bureau maintains inspection service in the enforcement of foreign plant quarantines.

Inspection. All shipments are subject to inspection as a condition of entry.

Freedom from living stages of injurious insects. Shipments shall be free of living stages of injurious insects including the European codling moth, Laspeyresia (Carpocapsa) splendana, and chestnut weevils, Balaninus spp., as a condition of release.

Infested shipments. A shipment found to be infested with living stages of injurious insects shall be immediately destroyed unless in the judgment of the inspector it can be disposed of under adequate safeguards as the inspector may require in regard to handling, routing, etc., in one of the following ways:

1. Immediate exportation.
2. Treatment at the first port of arrival.
3. Shipment from a port of arrival where no treatment facilities are available to a port where such facilities are available.

Approved treating plants. Shipments required to be treated as a condition of entry shall be treated under the supervision of an inspector of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine at plants approved for the purpose by this Bureau. Approved plants are at present located at New York, San Pedro (Los Angeles), San Francisco, and Seattle.

Canada. Acorns and chestnuts grown in and shipped from Canada are enterable without permit or other restriction when imported for purposes other than propagation. (Issued under Sec. 319.56-2) [B.E.P.Q. 501, Aug. 21, 1939]

DIVISION OF MARKETING AND MARKETING AGREEMENTS

[Order No. 32, as amended]

MARKETING ORDERS

PART 912—ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE FORT WAYNE, INDIANA, MARKETING AREA*

Sec.
932.0 Findings.
932.1 Definitions.
932.2 Market administrator.
932.3 Classification of milk.
932.4 Minimum prices.
932.5 Reports of handlers.
932.6 Handlers who are also producers.
932.7 Determination of uniform prices to producers.
932.8 Payments for milk.
932.9 Marketing services.
932.10 Amendment, suspension, or termination of order, as amended.
932.11 Liability.

Whereas, under the terms and provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States is empowered, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, to enter into marketing agreements with processors, producers, associations of producers, and others engaged in such handling of any agricultural commodity or product thereof as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodity or product thereof; and

Whereas, the Secretary, on January 23, 1937, issued a marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, marketing area, which marketing agreement became effective on February 1, 1937; and

Whereas, under the terms and provisions of said act, the Secretary of Agriculture is empowered to issue orders applicable to processors, producers, associations of producers, and others engaged in the handling of any agricultural commodity or product thereof specified in subsection (2) of section 8c, such orders to regulate only such handling of such agricultural commodity or product thereof as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodity or product thereof; and

Whereas, the Secretary, having reason to believe that the execution of an amendment to the aforementioned marketing agreement and the issuance of an order with respect to the handling of milk in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, marketing area would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act, gave, on the 24th day of June 1938, notice of a public hearing to be held at Fort Wayne, Indiana, on the 6th day of July 1938; and

Whereas, the Secretary on the 30th day of August 1938 tentatively approved an amendment to the marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, marketing area; and

Whereas, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, pursuant to the provisions of Title I of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended (48 Stat. 31), issued on October 11, 1938,[1] Order No. 32 regulating the handling of milk in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, marketing area, said order being effective October 15, 1938; and

Whereas, the Secretary having reason to believe that said marketing agreement and said order should be further amended, gave, on the 21st day of March 1939,[2] notice of a public hearing to be held at Indianapolis, Indiana, on the 28th day of March 1939, on a proposal to amend the provisions of said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and of said order, said hearing being reopened at Indianapolis, Indiana, on the 13th day of June 1939, for the purpose of receiving additional evidence, and at said times and place conducted public hearings at which all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard on said proposal; and

Whereas, at such hearings and after the tentative approval on the 18th day of July 1939, by the Secretary of a marketing agreement, as amended, handlers of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, as amended, which is marketed within the Fort Wayne, Indiana, marketing area refused or failed to sign such tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, relating to milk; and

Whereas, the Secretary determined on the 14th day of August, 1939, said determination being approved by the President of the United States on 21st day of August 1939,[3] that said refusal or failure tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (50 Stat. 246), and that this order, as amended, is the only practical means pursuant to such policy of advancing the interests of producers of milk in said area and is approved or favored by over 67 percent of the producers voting in a referendum, who during the month of May 1939, said month having been determined by the Secretary to be a representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, marketing area; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds upon the evidence introduced at the above-mentioned hearings, said findings being in addition to the findings made upon the evidence introduced at the hearings on said order and to the other findings made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of said order (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed, save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth):

§ 932.0 Findings. 1. That the classification of milk into three classes is a proper basis for the pricing of milk which is disposed of by handlers;

2. That the prices calculated to give milk handled in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to section 2 and section 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply and demand for such milk, and that the minimum prices set forth in this order, as amended, are such prices as will reflect such factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

3. That this order, as amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to the handlers defined in a marketing agreement, as amended, upon which hearings have been held; and

4. That the issuance of the order, as amended, and all of its terms and conditions will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to the powers conferred upon him by the terms and provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, hereby orders that such handling of milk in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, marketing area, as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce, shall from the effective date hereof be in compliance with the following terms and conditions:

§ 932.1 Definitions—(a) Terms. The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) The term "Fort Wayne, Indiana, marketing area," hereinafter called the "marketing area," means the territory within the corporate limits of Fort Wayne, Indiana, and the territory within 4 miles of the corporate limits of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

(2) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

(3) The term "producer" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a handler, who, in conformity with the health requirements applicable for milk to be sold for consumption as milk in the marketing area, produces milk which is received at the plant of a handler from which milk or cream is disposed of in the marketing area.

(4) The term "distributor" means any person so defined in chapter 281 of the acts of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana for the year 1935 who handles milk which is disposed of as milk or cream in the marketing area.

(5) The term "handler" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is a producer or an association of producers, wherever located or operating, who engages in such handling of milk which is disposed of as milk or cream in the marketing area, as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk and its products.

(6) The term "market administrator" means the person designated pursuant to Sec. 932.2 as the agency for the administration hereof and designated by the Milk Control Board of Indiana as the administrator of the complementary order of said board regulating the handling of milk in the marketing area.

(7) The term "delivery period" means the current marketing period from the 1st to and including the last day of each month.

(8) The term "act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937.

(9) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

§ 932.2 Market administrator—(a) Selection, removal and bond. The market administrator shall be selected by the Secretary and shall be subject to removal by him at any time. The market administrator shall, within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary.

(b) Compensation. The market administrator shall be entitled to such reasonable compensation as may be determined by the Secretary.

(c) Powers. The market administrator shall have power:

(1) To administer the terms and provisions hereof; and

(2) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the terms and provisions hereof.

(d) Duties. The market administrator, in addition to the duties hereinafter described, shall:

(1) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for herein;

(2) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary at any and all times;

(3) Furnish such information and such verified reports as the Secretary may request; and

(4) Publicly disclose to handlers and producers, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, the name of any person, who, within 15 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not (a) made reports pursuant to Sec. 932.5 or (b) made payments pursuant to Sec. 932.8.

(e) Responsibility. The market administrator, in his capacity as such, shall not be held responsible in any way whatsoever to any handler or any other person for errors in judgment, for mistakes, or for other acts either of commission or omission, except for his own wilful misfeasance, malfeasance, or dishonesty.

§ 932.3 Classification of milk—(a) Sales and use classification. Milk purchased or handled by handlers shall be classified as follows:

(1) All milk disposed of as milk, and all milk not specifically accounted for as Class II milk and Class III milk shall be Class I milk;

(2) All milk used to produce cream which is disposed of as cream shall be Class II milk;

(3) All milk from which the butterfat is disposed of as a milk product, other than cream which is disposed of as cream, and all milk accounted for as actual plant shrinkage but not exceeding 3 percent of the total receipts of milk, shall be Class III milk.

(b) Interhandler and nonhandler sales. Milk disposed of by a handler to another handler or to a person not a handler who distributes milk or manufactures milk products shall be presumed to be Class I milk. In the event that such selling handler, on or before the date fixed for filing reports pursuant to Sec. 932.5, furnishes proof satisfactory to the market administrator that such milk has been disposed of by such purchaser other than as Class I milk, then, and in that event, such milk shall be classified in accordance with such proof.

§ 932.4 Minimum prices—(a) Class I price. Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in Sec. 932.8; for the 4 percent butterfat content equivalent of Class I milk received at such handler's plant not less than $2.15 per hundredweight.

(b) Class II price. Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in Sec. 932.8, for the 4 percent butterfat content equivalent of Class II milk received at such handler's plant not less than $1.85 per hundredweight.

(c) Class III price. Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in Sec. 932.8, for the 4 percent butterfat content equivalent of Class III milk received at such handler's plant not less than that price per hundredweight, calculated for each delivery period by the market administrator as follows: multiply by 4 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, and add 30 percent thereof: Provided, That for a quantity of Class III milk not to exceed 15 percent of the 4 percent butterfat content equivalent of the Class I milk and Class II milk disposed of by such handler, each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in Sec. 932.8 not less than that price per hundredweight, calculated for each delivery period by the market administrator as follows: multiply by 4 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, and add 10 cents.

§ 932.5 Reports of handlers—(a) Periodic reports. On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall, with respect to milk or cream which was, during such delivery period, (a) received from producers, (b) received from handlers, and (c) produced by such handler, report to the market administrator, in the detail and form prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) The receipts at each plant from producers who are not handlers;

(2) The receipts at each plant from any other handler, including any handler who is also a producer;

(3) The quantity, if any, produced by such handler; and

(4) The respective quantities of milk which were disposed of, including sales to other handlers, for the purpose of classification pursuant to Sec. 932.3.

(b) Reports as to producers. Each handler shall report to the market administrator:

(1) Within 10 days after the market administrator's request, with respect to any producer for whom such information is not in the files of the market administrator, and with respect to a period or periods of time designated by the market administrator, (a) the name and address, (b) the total pounds of milk received, (c) the average butterfat test of milk received, and (d) the number of days upon which milk was received; and

(2) As soon as possible after first receiving milk from any producer (a) the name and address of such producer, (b) the date upon which such milk was first received, and (c) the plant at which such milk was received.

(c) Reports of payments to producers. Each handler shall submit to the market administrator on or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period his producer pay roll for such delivery period which shall show for each producer (a) the net amount of such producer's payment with the prices, deductions, and charges involved, and (b) the total delivery of milk with the average butterfat test thereof.

(d) Verification of reports. Each handler shall permit the market administrator or his agent, during the usual hours of business, to (a) verify the information contained in reports submitted in accordance with this section and (b) weigh milk received from each producer and sample and test milk for butterfat.

§ 932.6 Handlers who are also producers. (a) With respect to each handler who is also a producer:

(1) The market administrator shall, subject to the condition set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, exclude from the computations made pursuant to Sec. 932.7 (a), the quantity of milk produced and disposed of by such handler: Provided, That where any such handler has purchased or received milk from other producers the value of the milk purchased or received shall be computed under Sec. 932.7 (a) as follows: the quantity of such milk shall be ratably apportioned among such handler's total Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk (after excluding purchases or receipts, if any, from other handlers) and multiplied by the Class I, Class II, and Class III prices, respectively.

(2) The market administrator shall, upon prior written notice from such handler of the exercises thereof, grant the option of having all milk produced by such handler included in the computation made pursuant to Sec. 932.7 (a) in lieu of the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) The market administrator in computing the value of milk for any handler pursuant to Sec. 932.7 (a) shall consider as Class III milk any milk or cream received in bulk by any such handler from a handler who distributes part of his own production and who has not exercised the option set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. If such buying handler disposes of such milk or cream for other than Class III purposes, the market administrator shall add to the total value computed pursuant to Sec. 932.7 (a) the difference between (a) the value of such milk or cream at the Class III price and (b) the value according to its actual usage.

§ 932.7 Determination of uniform prices to producers—(a) Computation of the value of milk for each distributor. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute from the report of each distributor the value of milk disposed of by such distributor, which was not purchased or received from other distributors, as follows:

(1) Multiply by the class I price the hundredweight of milk computed as follows: divide by 4 the butterfat contained in the total weight of the units of Class I milk determined by multiplying the total weight of milk contained in the several units of Class I milk by the average butterfat test of such units;

(2) Multiply by the Class II price the hundredweight of milk computed as follows: divide by 4 the butterfat contained in the total weight of the product of Class II milk determined by multiplying the total weight of the product of Class II milk by its average butterfat test;

(3) Multiply by the Class III prices the hundredweight of milk computed as follows: divide by 4 the butterfat contained in the total weight of the products of Class III milk determined by multiplying the total weight of each of the products of Class III milk by its average butterfat test;

(4) Combine into one total the hundredweight of milk computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph;

(5) Combine into one total the values of the milk computed pursuant to subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph;

(6) If the hundredweight of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph is less than the hundredweight of milk received from producers, multiply such difference by 10 cents per hundredweight; add such amount to the value of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (5) of this paragraph; and add to the computed hundredweight of milk an amount representing the difference between such hundredweight and the hundredweight of milk received from producers; and

(7) If the hundredweight of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph is greater than the hundredweight of milk received from producers, multiply such difference by 10 cents per hundredweight; subtract such amount from the value of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (5) of this paragraph; and subtract from the computed hundredweight of milk an amount representing the difference between such hundredweight and the hundredweight of milk received from producers.

(b) Computation and announcement of uniform prices. The market administrator shall, for each delivery period, make computations and announce the uniform price per hundredweight of milk received by handlers and distributors during each delivery period as follows:

(1) Combine into one total the respective values of milk computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section for each distributor who made the payments required of him for the previous delivery period;

(2) For all milk received from a producer who did not regularly sell milk during a period of 30 days next preceding February 1, 1937, subtract an amount computed by multiplying by the lower Class III price the hundredweight of milk received from such producer. Such computation shall be made for all milk received from each such producer during the period beginning with his first regular delivery of milk and continuing until the end of 2 full calendar months following the date of such first delivery of milk;

(3) If the hundredweight of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (4) of paragraph (a) is less than the hundredweight of milk received from producers, add an amount computed by multiplying such difference by 4 times the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received;

(4) If the hundredweight of milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (4) of paragraph (a) is greater than the hundredweight of milk received from producers, subtract an amount computed by multiplying such difference by 4 times the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received;

(5) Divide by the hundredweight of milk received from producers, other than milk represented by the amount subtracted in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph;

(6) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight of milk for the purpose of retaining a cash balance in connection with the payments set forth in Sec. 932.8(a)(3);

(7) Add an amount per hundredweight of milk which will prorate any cash balance available pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section; and

(8) On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall notify each handler and each distributor of the uniform price for milk, of the Class III price, and of the butterfat differential, computed pursuant to Sec. 932.8 (c), and shall make public announcement of the computation of the uniform price.

(c) Proration of cash balance. For each delivery period the market administrator shall prorate by an appropriate addition pursuant to subparagraph (7) of paragraph (b) of this section, the cash balance, if any, available from payments received by him during the next preceding delivery period to meet obligations arising out of Sec. 932.8(a)(3).

§ 932.8 Payments for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall make payment for the total value of milk received from producers during such delivery period, computed according to Sec. 932.7 (a), subject to the butterfat differential set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, as follows:

(1) To producers located outside the State of Indiana, at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight, computed pursuant to Sec. 932.7 (b) for all milk received from each such producer;

(2) To any producer located outside the State of Indiana who did not regularly dispose of milk in the marketing area during a period of 30 days next preceding February 1, 1937, at the lower Class III price for all the milk received from such producer during the period beginning with the first regular delivery of such producer and continuing until the end of 2 full calendar months following the date of such first delivery of milk; and

(3) To producers, through the market administrator, by paying to or receiving from the market administrator, as the case may be, the amount by which the sum representing the payments to be made by such handler, as a handler, pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, and, as a distributor, pursuant to the complementary order of the Milk Control Board of Indiana regulating the handling of milk in the marketing area, is less than or exceeds the total value of milk computed for such handler pursuant to Sec. 932.7 (a), as shown in a statement rendered by the market administrator on or before the 10th day after the end of such delivery period.

(b) Errors in payments. Errors in making the payments prescribed in this section shall be corrected not later than the date for making payments next following the determination of such errors.

(c) Butterfat differential. If any handler has received from any producer, during the delivery period, milk having an average butterfat content other than 4 percent, such handler in making payments pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall add to the uniform price for such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk above 4 percent not less than, or shall deduct from the uniform price for such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk below 4 percent not more than, an amount computed as follows: divide by 10 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received.

(d) Advance payments. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as preventing the making, by any handler, of advance payments to producers for current deliveries of milk.

§ 932.9 Marketing services—(a) Deductions for marketing services. Each handler shall deduct an amount not exceeding 3 cents per hundredweight (the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the Secretary) from the payments made direct to producers pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of Sec. 932.8 (a), with respect to all milk received by such handler during the delivery period from such producers, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator for market information to, and for verification of weights, samples, and tests of milk received from said producers.

(b) Payment to an association. In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association, which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," is actually performing (as determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the Secretary) the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the market administrator may pay to such association, with respect to the deliveries of milk of producers who are members of, or who are marketing their milk through, such association, and who received payment for milk pursuant to Sec. 932.8 (a) (1), an amount per hundredweight equal to the per hundredweight deduction made from all producers pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 932.10 Amendment, suspension, or termination of order, as amended—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination of order, as amended. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, whenever he finds that this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, obstructs, or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order, as amended, shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(1) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (a) continue in such capacity until removed by the Secretary, (b) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and, when so directed by the Secretary, deliver all funds or property on hand together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary may direct, and (c) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall liquidate, if so directed by the Secretary, the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 932.11 Liability—(a) Liability of handlers. The liability of the handlers hereunder is several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

Now, therefore, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, for the purposes and within the limitations therein contained and not otherwise, hereby executes and issues in duplicate this order, as amended, under his hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on this 24th day of August 1939, and declares this order, as amended, to be effective on and after the 1st day of September 1939.

[SEAL] HARRY L. BROWN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 21.0 Introductory. (a) Chapter 6 (Capital Stock Tax) of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. Part 1), amended by the addition of subsection (e) to section 1202, by section 301, Revenue Act of 1939, approved June 29, 1939, Public, No. 155, Seventy-sixth Congress, first session, provides in part:

SEC. 1200. TAX.

(a) DOMESTIC CORPORATIONS. For each year ending June 30, beginning with the year ending June 30, 1939, there shall be imposed upon every domestic corporation with respect to carrying on or doing business for any part of such year an excise tax of $1 for each $1,000 of the adjusted declared value of its capital stock.

(b) FOREIGN CORPORATIONS. For each year ending June 30, beginning with the year ending June 30, 1939, there shall be imposed upon every foreign corporation with respect to carrying on or doing business in the United States for any part of such year an excise tax equivalent to $1 for each $1,000 of the adjusted declared value of capital employed in the transaction of its business in the United States.

SEC. 1201. EXEMPTIONS. (a) The taxes imposed by section 1200 shall not apply—

(1) CORPORATIONS EXEMPT FROM INCOME TAX. To any corporation enumerated in section 101;

(2) INSURANCE COMPANIES. To any insurance company subject to the tax imposed by section 201, 204, or 207.

(b) COMMON TRUST FUNDS. For exemption of common trust funds from the capital stock tax, see section 169 (b) of chapter 1.

SEC. 1202. ADJUSTED DECLARED VALUE.

(a) DECLARATION YEAR. (1) The adjusted declared value shall be determined with respect to three-year periods beginning with the year ending June 30, 1938, and each third year thereafter. The first year of each such three-year period, or, in case of a corporation not subject to the tax imposed for such year, the first year of such three-year period for which the corporation is subject to such tax, shall constitute a "declaration year."

(2) For the declaration year of the first three-year period the adjusted declared value shall be the value as declared by the corporation in its return under section 601 of the Revenue Act of 1938, 52 Stat. 565, for the year ended June 30, 1938, or in the case of a corporation not subject to the tax imposed for such year, the value as declared in its return filed under this chapter for the first year with respect to which it is subject to the tax. For each subsequent three-year period, the adjusted declared value for a declaration year shall be the value as declared by the corporation in its return for such declaration year. The value declared by a corporation in its return for a declaration year (which declaration of value cannot be amended) shall be as of the close of its last income-tax taxable year ending with or prior to the close of such declaration year (or as of the date of organization in the case of a corporation having no income-tax taxable year ending with or prior to the close of such declaration year).

(b) SUBSEQUENT YEARS.—(1) DOMESTIC CORPORATIONS. For each year of any three-year period subsequent to the declaration year, the adjusted declared value in the case of a domestic corporation shall be the value declared in the return for the declaration year plus—

(A) the cash, and the fair market value of property, paid in for stock or shares,

(B) paid-in surplus and contributions to capital,

(C) its net income,

(D) its income wholly exempt from Federal income tax, and

(E) the amount, if any, by which the deduction for depletion exceeds the amount which would be allowable if computed without regard to discovery value or to percentage depletion, under section 114 (b) (2), (3), or (4) of chapter 1 or a corresponding section of a later Revenue Act;

and minus—

(i) the cash, and the fair market value of property, distributed to shareholders,

(ii) the amount disallowed as a deduction by section 24 (a) (5) of chapter 1 or a corresponding provision of a later Revenue Act, and

(iii) the excess of the deductions allowable for income tax purposes over its gross income.

The adjustments provided in this paragraph shall be made for each income-tax taxable year included in the three-year period from the date as of which the value was declared in the return for the declaration year to the close of the last income-tax taxable year ending with or prior to the close of the year for which the tax is imposed by this section. The amount of such adjustment for each such year shall be computed (on the basis of a separate return) according to the income tax law applicable to such year.

(2) FOREIGN CORPORATIONS. For each year of any three-year period subsequent to the declaration year, the adjusted declared value in the case of a foreign corporation shall be the value declared in the return for the declaration year adjusted (for the same income-tax taxable years as in the case of a domestic corporation), in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, to reflect increases or decreases in the capital employed in the transaction of its business in the United States.

(c) CORPORATIONS IN BANKRUPTCY OR RECEIVERSHIP. The capital-stock tax year beginning with or within an income-tax taxable year within which bankruptcy or receivership, due to insolvency, of a domestic corporation, is terminated shall constitute a declaration year. In such case the adjusted declared value of any subsequent year of the three-year period shall be determined on the basis of the value declared in the return for such declaration year.

(d) CREDIT FOR CHINA TRADE ACT CORPORATIONS. For the purpose of the tax imposed by section 1200 there shall be allowed in the case of a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, 42 Stat. 849 (U.S.C., Title 15, c. 4), as a credit against the adjusted declared value of its capital stock, an amount equal to the proportion of such adjusted declared value which the par value of the shares of stock of the corporation, owned on the last day of the taxable year by (1) persons resident in China, the United States, or possessions of the United States, and (2) individual citizens of the United States or China wherever resident, bears to the par value of the whole number of shares of stock of the corporation outstanding on such date. For the purposes of this subsection shares of stock of a corporation shall be considered to be owned by the person in whom the equitable right to the income from such shares is in good faith vested; and as used in this subsection the term "China" shall have the same meaning as when used in the China Trade Act, 1922.

(e) ADDITIONAL DECLARATION YEARS. In the case of any domestic corporation, the year ending June 30, 1939, and the year ending June 30, 1940, shall each, if not otherwise a declaration year, constitute an additional declaration year if with respect to such year (1) the taxpayer so elects (which election cannot be changed) in its return filed before the expiration of the statutory filing period or any authorized extension thereof, and (2) the value declared by the taxpayer is in excess of the adjusted declared value computed under paragraph (1) of subsection (b). If, under this subsection, the year ending June 30, 1939, is a declaration year, the computation, under paragraph (1) of subsection (b), of the adjusted declared value for the year ending June 30, 1940, shall be made on the basis of the value declared for the year ending June 30, 1939.

(b) Subchapter B of Chapter 2 of the Internal Revenue Code provides:

SEC. 600. RATE OF TAX.

If any corporation is taxable under section 1200 with respect to any year ending June 30, there shall be imposed upon its net income for the income-tax taxable year ending after the close of such year, an excess-profits tax equal to the sum of the following:

6 per centum of such portion of its net income for such income-tax taxable year as is in excess of 10 per centum and not in excess of 15 per centum of the adjusted declared value;

12 per centum of such portion of its net income for such income-tax taxable year as is in excess of 15 per centum of the adjusted declared value.

SEC. 601. ADJUSTED DECLARED VALUE.

The adjusted declared value shall be determined as provided in section 1202 as of the close of the preceding income-tax taxable year (or as of the date of organization if it had no preceding income-tax taxable year). If the income-tax taxable year in respect of which the tax under section 600 is imposed is a period of less than 12 months, such adjusted declared value shall be reduced to an amount which bears the same ratio thereto as the number of months in the period bears to 12 months.

SEC. 602. NET INCOME.

For the purposes of this subchapter the net income shall be the same as the net income for income-tax purposes for the year in respect of which the tax under section 600 is imposed, computed without the deduction of the tax imposed by section 600, but with a credit against net income equal to the credit for dividends received provided in section 26 (b) of chapter 1.

*Sections 21.0 to 21.9 issued under the authority contained in sections 62 and 603 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. Part 1) and interpret sections 600 to 603 of the Code (53 Stat. Part 1).

†The source of sections 21.0 to 21.9 is Treasury Decision 4927, approved August 23, 1939.

SEC. 603. OTHER LAWS APPLICABLE.
All provisions of law (including penalties) applicable in respect of the taxes imposed by chapter 1, shall, insofar as not inconsistent with this subchapter, be applicable in respect of the tax imposed by section 600, except that the provisions of section 131 of that chapter shall not be applicable.

SEC. 604. PUBLICITY OF RETURNS.
For provisions with respect to publicity of returns under this subchapter, see subsection (a) (2) of section 55.

(c) Section 53 of Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code provides in part:

SEC. 53. TIME AND PLACE FOR FILING RETURNS.
(a) TIME FOR FILING—(1) GENERAL RULE. Returns made on the basis of the calendar year shall be made on or before the 15th day of March following the close of the calendar year. Returns made on the basis of a fiscal year shall be made on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year.
(2) EXTENSION OF TIME. The Commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing returns, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe with the approval of the Secretary. Except in the case of taxpayers who are abroad, no such extension shall be for more than six months.
(b) TO WHOM RETURN MADE.—
* * * * *
(2) CORPORATIONS. Returns of corporations shall be made to the collector of the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office or agency of the corporation, or, if it has no principal place of business or principal office or agency in the United States, then to the collector at Baltimore, Maryland.

(d) Section 145 of Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code provides in part:

SEC. 145. PENALTIES.
(a) FAILURE TO FILE RETURNS, SUBMIT INFORMATION, OR PAY TAX. Any person required under this chapter to pay any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of the computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by this chapter, who willfully fails to pay such tax, make such return, keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.
(b) FAILURE TO COLLECT AND PAY OVER TAX, OR ATTEMPT TO DEFEAT OR EVADE TAX. Any person required under this chapter to collect, account for, and pay over any tax imposed by this chapter, who willfully fails to collect or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, and any person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this chapter or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.
(c) PERSON DEFINED. The term "person" as used in this section includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

(e) Section 62 of Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code provides:

SEC. 62. RULES AND REGULATIONS.
The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this chapter.

(f) Pursuant to the above-quoted provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and other provisions of the Code, the following regulations are hereby prescribed with respect to the excess-profits tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code:*†

§ 21.1 Definitions. As used in these regulations, the term—

(a) "Adjusted declared value" means in the case of a domestic corporation the adjusted declared value of its capital stock as determined under section 1202 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by section 301 of the Revenue Act of 1939, and the regulations issued respecting the capital stock tax imposed by section 1200 of such Code and in the case of a foreign corporation the adjusted declared value of capital employed in the transaction of its business in the United States as determined under such section 1202, as amended, and the regulations issued in reference thereto.

(b) "Tax", except as otherwise indicated, means the excess-profits tax imposed by section 600 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) "Income-tax taxable year" means the calendar year, the fiscal year ending during such calendar year, or the fractional part of a year, upon the basis of which the corporation's net income is computed and for which its income tax returns are made for Federal income tax purposes.

(d) "Net income" means (1) "net income" within the contemplation of section 21 of the Internal Revenue Code, or (2) in the case of an income-tax taxable year governed by the Revenue Act of 1938, "net income" within the contemplation of section 21 of the Revenue Act of 1938. Neither the amount of income tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code or by prior laws, nor the amount of the excess-profits tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code or by prior laws, shall be deducted from net income in computing the excess-profits tax and none of the credits allowed corporations against net income for income tax purposes are applicable in respect of the excess-profits tax except the credit against net income equal to the credit for dividends received provided in section 26 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code and in section 26 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1938.*†

§ 21.2 Scope of tax. The excess-profits tax, imposed by section 600 of the Internal Revenue Code, is imposed upon the net income of every corporation for each income-tax taxable year ending after the close of any year ending June 30 in respect of which the corporation is subject to the capital stock tax imposed by section 1200 of the Internal Revenue Code.*†

§ 21.3 Measure and rate of tax—(a) Domestic and foreign corporations. The tax is imposed in an amount equal to the sum of (1) 6 percent of such portion of the corporation's net income for the income-tax taxable year as is in excess of 10 percent and not in excess of 15 percent of the adjusted declared value plus (2) 12 percent of such portion of its net income for the income-tax taxable year as is in excess of 15 percent of the adjusted declared value, as of the close of the last preceding income-tax taxable year (or as of the date of organization if the corporation had no preceding income-tax taxable year).

(b) Adjusted declared value. No variation is permitted between the adjusted declared value set forth in the corporation's capital stock tax return and the adjusted declared value set forth in its excess-profits tax return, except that in the case of an excess-profits tax return for an income-tax taxable year which is a period of less than twelve months the adjusted declared value set forth in its capital stock tax return shall be reduced to an amount which bears the same ratio thereto as the number of months in the period bears to twelve months. The first return of a corporation covering the part of a year in which it was incorporated, or the final return of a corporation covering the part of the year in which it was dissolved, is a return for twelve months and not for a period of less than twelve months, for the purposes of these regulations.*†

§ 21.4 Method of computation, example. The application of the provisions of section 21.3 of these regulations may be illustrated generally by the following example:

Example. The M Corporation, the income-tax taxable year of which is the calendar year, is subject to the capital stock tax imposed by section 1200, as amended, of the Internal Revenue Code, for the year ending June 30, 1939. The value declared in its capital stock tax return for the year ending June 30, 1939, of its capital stock as of the close of its preceding income-tax taxable year (the calendar year 1938) is $100,000. The net income of the corporation for the calendar year 1939, determined under the Internal Revenue Code, is $25,000. (The net income for income-tax taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938, shall be determined under the Internal Revenue Code.) During its taxable year the corporation received dividends from corporations subject to taxation under Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code, amounting to $5,000. The excess-profits tax for the calendar year 1939 is $990, computed as follows:

|---|---|
| Net income for calendar year 1939 | $25,000 |
| Less: Credit for dividends received (85 percent of $5,000) | 4,250 |
| Balance of net income | 20,750 |
| Less: 10 percent of the value declared in the capital stock tax return for the year ending June 30, 1939, of the capital stock as of December 31, 1938 (10 percent of $100,000) | 10,000 |
| Net income subject to excess-profits tax | 10,750 |
| Less: Amount taxable at 6 percent, portion of net income in excess of 10 percent and not in excess of 15 percent of the adjusted declared value of the capital stock as of December 31, 1938 ($15,000 minus $10,000) | 5,000 |
| Amount taxable at 12 percent | 5,750 |
| Excess-profits tax at 6 percent (6 percent of $5,000) | 300 |
| Excess-profits tax at 12 percent (12 percent of $5,750) | 690 |
| Total excess-profits tax ($300 plus $690) | 990 |

§ 21.5 Returns. Every corporation which is subject to the capital stock tax imposed by section 1200 of the Internal Revenue Code, for any year shall make an excess-profits tax return for each income-tax taxable year which ends after the close of the year in respect of which it is subject to such capital stock tax. There is no provision in the Internal Revenue Code which authorizes the making of a consolidated return by an affiliated group of corporations for the purpose of the excess-profits tax imposed by section 600 of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, every corporation which is liable for the making of an excess-profits tax return under section 600 of the Internal Revenue Code (for any income-tax taxable year ending after June 30, 1939), whether or not such corporation is a member of an affiliated group of corporations, must make its excess-profits tax return and compute its net income separately, without regard to the provisions of section 141 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The excess-profits tax return shall be made within the time prescribed for making the corporation's Federal income tax return for the income-tax taxable year, and shall be made to the collector of internal revenue to whom such income tax return is required to be made.*†

§ 21.6 Payment of tax. The excess-profits tax for any income-tax taxable year shall be paid within the time prescribed for paying the Federal income tax for such taxable year.*†

§ 21.7 Credits against tax prohibited. Foreign income and profits taxes may not be credited against the excess-profits tax imposed by section 600 of the Code.*†

§ 21.8 Determination of tax, assessment, collection. The determination, assessment, and collection of the tax, and the examination of returns and claims in connection therewith, will be made under such procedure as may be prescribed from time to time by the Commissioner.*†

§ 21.9. Previous regulations superseded. These regulations supersede any previous regulations relative to excess-profits tax imposed by section 600 of the Internal Revenue Code.*†

Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

SUBCHAPTER C—MISCELLANEOUS EXCISE TAXES

PART 182—SALES OF DENATURED ALCOHOL, DENATURED RUM AND ARTICLES

To District Supervisors, and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the authority in Sections 3105 (a), 3124 (a) (6), and 3111, Internal Revenue Code, Article 146–A of Regulations No. 3 is hereby amended by striking out the following paragraph:

"No person shall sell denatured alcohol, denatured rum, or any substance or preparation in the manufacture of which denatured alcohol or denatured rum is used, under circumstances from which he might reasonably deduce that it is the intention of the purchaser to procure the same for use for beverage purposes."

and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"No person shall sell denatured alcohol, denatured rum, or any substance or preparation made with or containing denatured alcohol or denatured rum, for use, or for sale for use, for beverage purposes; nor shall he sell any of such products under circumstances from which it might reasonably appear that it is the intention of the purchaser to procure the same for sale or use for beverage purposes."

[SEAL] GUY T. HELVERING,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: August 23, 1939.

JOHN W. HANES,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

[Order No. 13091]

TRANSMITTING THREATENING COMMUNICATIONS

JUNE 26, 1939.

Paragraphs 2 and 3 of Section 2351, Postal Laws and Regulations, are hereby amended to read as follows:

2. Whoever shall knowingly deposit or cause to be deposited in any post office or station thereof, or in any authorized depository for mail matter, to be sent or delivered by the Post Office Establishment of the United States, or shall knowingly cause to be delivered by the Post Office Establishment of the United States according to the direction thereon, any written or printed letter or other communication, with or without a name or designating mark subscribed thereto, addressed to any other person, and containing any demand or request for ransom or reward for the release of any kidnaped person; or whoever, with intent to extort from any person any money or other thing of value, shall deposit, cause to be deposited, or cause to be delivered, as aforesaid, any letter or other communication containing any threat to kidnap any person or any threat to injure the person of the addressee or of another, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than twenty years, or both.

(a) Whoever shall knowingly deposit or cause to be deposited in any post office or station thereof, or in any authorized depository for mail matter, to be sent or delivered by the Post Office Establishment of the United States, or shall knowingly cause to be delivered by the Post Office Establishment of the United States according to the direction thereon, any written or printed letter or other communication with or without a name or designating mark subscribed thereto, addressed to any other person and containing any threat to kidnap any person or any threat to injure the person of the addressee or of another shall be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

(b) Whoever, with intent to extort from any person any money or other thing of value, shall knowingly deposit or cause to be deposited in any post office or station thereof, or in any authorized depository for mail matter, to be sent or delivered by the Post Office Establishment of the United States, or shall knowingly cause to be delivered by the Post Office Establishment of the United States according to the direction thereon, any written or printed letter or other communication, with or without a name or designating mark subscribed thereto, addressed to any other person and containing any threat to injure the property or reputation of the addressee or of another, or the reputation of a deceased person, or any threat to accuse the addressee or any other person of a crime shall be fined not more than $500, or imprisoned not more than two years, or both.

(c) Any person violating this section may be prosecuted in the judicial district in which such letter or other communication is deposited in such post office, station, or authorized depository for mail matter, or in the judicial district into which such letter or other communication was carried by the United States mail for delivery according to the direction thereon: Provided, That any defendant in an indictment hereunder, relating to communications originating in the United States, shall, upon motion duly made, be entitled as a matter of right to be tried in the district court of the United States in which the matter mailed or otherwise transmitted was first set in motion; that is, in the mails or in commerce between the States.

3. Whoever shall knowingly deposit or cause to be deposited in any post office or station thereof, or in any authorized depository for mail matter, of any foreign country any written or printed letter or other communication addressed to any person within the United States, for the purpose of having such communication delivered by the Post Office Establishment of such foreign country to the Post Office Establishment of the United States and by it delivered to such addressee in the United States, and as a result thereof such communication is delivered by the Post Office Establishment of such foreign country to the Post Office Establishment of the United States and by it delivered to the address to which it is directed in the United States, and containing any demand or request for ransom or reward for the release of any kidnaped person; or whoever, with intent to extort from any person any money or other thing of value, shall deposit or cause to be deposited, as aforesaid, any letter or other communication for the purpose aforesaid, containing any threat to kidnap any person or any threat to injure the person of the addressee or of another, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than twenty years, or both.

(a) Whoever shall knowingly deposit or cause to be deposited in any post office or station thereof, or in any authorized depository for mail matter, of any foreign country any written or printed letter or other communication addressed to any person within the United States, for the purpose of having such communication delivered by the Post Office Establishment of such foreign country to the Post Office Establishment of the United States and by it delivered to such addressee in the United States, and as a result thereof such communication is delivered by the Post Office Establishment of such foreign country to the Post Office Establishment of the United States and by it delivered to the address to which it is directed in the United States, and containing any threat to kidnap any person or any threat to injure the person of the addressee or of another, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.
